

ARCEUS' PIRATE JOURNEY

Chapter 20: I got the wrong guy

Chapter 20 The wrong person

Listening to the voice of all things, super-wide perception, reading minds with the help of ability, predicting the future, according to the mastery of seeing, hearing, color and own strength, the things that can be done are not the same.

Some of these abilities depend on development and some on talent.

Compared to the above abilities, Xianxue has even more terrifying abilities.

This kind of domineering can feel the psychological changes and emotional thinking of the target, experience the joys, sorrows and joys of others, and also convey their own consciousness to the heart of the other party.

Allows your own thoughts to affect the target's mind, can have a strong resonance in the mind, and subtly changes the other party's values like brainwashing.

However, this highest level of arrogance is inherent in nature and cannot be improved through future practice. People with this highest level of arrogance are even rarer than those with domineering arrogance.

Except for Princess Otohime of Fishman Island in the future, there is no other person who possesses similar abilities.

Kaido doesn't have so many special abilities, but he is very proficient at the most basic enhanced perception.

"In that case, let's find a place to land first."

In Arceus's point of view, although this John is suspicious, even if he is fake, I am afraid there is some connection with the real John, and he should be able to get some things from his mouth, but Kaido did not choose this way. .

He felt that there was no point in wasting time with a fake.

"No, it's too much trouble, there's an easier way to find out if this guy is the real John."

Kaido opened his mouth wide as he spoke, and the hot energy began to condense.

"Heat Breath!"

The hot dragon flames spewed out, aiming directly at John in the center below.

John was a cadre on the Rocks ship. If the following John is true, then his attack will not work so easily, he must have a way to deal with it.

If it's fake and he can't take his own attack, then he can only say that he deserves it, and impersonating someone else will cost a lot.

Kaido is not someone who cares about others, even his own people are sometimes affected by him, let alone those who have nothing to do with him.

The scorching dragon breath swept down, and the pirates who were close to John suffered a disaster for a while, and turned into charred scum under the burning of the flame. No one stopped Kaido's behavior. Quinn had no ability to stop it, nor did he want to stop it, he I don't care about the lives of these people.

Jin and Shaina also had an indifferent attitude, and their enemies were not only the World Government during their escape.

The navy, pirates, bounty hunters, and even ordinary people may be their enemies. Their hearts have long since become indifferent under the baptism of the world, and things that have nothing to do with the Lunaria are not worthy of their moving.

Arceus has the ability to stop Kaido, but he has no reason to do so. The influence of Arceus allows him to look at this kind of thing indifferently, even the human heart has no intention of stopping Kaido.

The situation in the naval base was not very good. The people of Khakila Island were the ones who suffered the most from this change. At this time, his identity was the pirate's ally, but it did not mean that he would also degenerate into that kind of scum.

"What is that!"

Kaido's heat caught everyone's attention, the clouds dispersed, and Kaido's huge figure appeared in the sky. The main target of the heat just now was John, but it also took away the lives of nearly a hundred people nearby.

The still-burning corpse undoubtedly made fear spread among the crowd.

Originally wanted them to want to get closer to John, to see if they could get familiar, but now they just want to stay away from this place of right and wrong.

The crowd became chaotic, and then a roar calmed them down.

"Bastard, who dares to attack Lao Tzu!"

John was still alive and the flames had not been extinguished, but John's voice could be heard in the smoke.

"Yes, we have Captain John, and Captain John is still alive! We still have Captain John! That's the big pirate with a bounty of 2.1 billion Baileys!"

"Captain John, let that monster see how good you are!"

On the Great Route, it is not uncommon for those with Devil Fruit abilities. Most of the people on the Great Route know the power of Devil Fruits.

But this is the South China Sea. Some pirates who roamed here may have never left the island where they were born in their lives, and they have never heard of the legendary devil fruit.

Kaido's dragon is just a monster in the eyes of some people, and their Captain John is naturally their dragon slaying hero.

Some were still running, but many more stopped and started chanting John's name.

And John also saw the releaser of the attack, Kaido flying in the sky, his eyes shrank suddenly, and the big beads of sweat couldn't stop dripping from his forehead.

"It's so annoying, ants should have a little bit of cognition!" The crowd's shouts seemed to anger Kaido, and the overlord's domineering arrogance swept the entire naval branch with him as the center.

Whether it was those trash fish, or the person who had offered a reward of more than 10 million in the mouth of the pirate, they fell in pieces like reaping wheat in the baptism of Kaido Overlord, and the pirates who foamed at the mouth and rolled their eyes were almost covered most of the school field.

Only those who never stopped running away were still somewhat sober, but those people's expressions were also full of confusion and confusion, and they had no idea what was going on.

Arceus jumped from Kaido's flame cloud. His physical fitness is not bad. Kaido released his domineering and lowered his height. Apart from making a big pit on the ground, he did not affected by other.

"Where is the real Captain John?"

He could smell the fear on the other side, and that alone made it impossible for him to be the notorious John.

Although John's high bounty is related to his own behavior, his strength is also very strong. He was a cadre on the Rocks pirate ship five years ago.

Kaido's attack just now was simply a playful attack. He couldn't even stop such an attack. It couldn't be John at all. Now he just wanted to know what relationship this John had with the real John.

"What are you talking about, this uncle is John! It's just a mere ability, don't be too arrogant!"

A strange creature that can speak. In John's view, this is just a person with the ability of the animal system. At this time, Kaido has also changed into a human and fell to the ground.

"Then do you remember me, John?"

"Kaido! Isn't this an old friend, long time no see, why did you show up in this way."

This old friend made Kaido's face completely gloomy. There is indeed a good relationship on the Rox pirate ship, but his relationship with John is definitely not the case.

This also means that they found the wrong person.
