Chapter 221 Kaido's Broken Spirit

Originally, Yamato was very happy, because Kaido had never played with her in these years, but after the game started, she found that the game was completely different from what she thought.

Whether they can dodge has little to do with themselves. A group of four or five-year-old children has no chance of avoiding Kaido's attack at all. Even if it's just a snowball, it can be a deadly weapon in Kaido's hands.

The snowball that interrupted the tree earlier is an example, if Kaido wants to hit them, they can't dodge no matter what, but he has the strength to control himself.

Those snowballs will bruise and hurt when they hit them, but they are definitely not life-threatening. They just frightened them once or twice to make them experience the threat of death.noVellusB.com

The snowball hits them is to let them understand that this is not a joke, and they must always exert their physical strength to the fullest.

A snowball hit Yamato's * with great precision, and Linghou's year-round snowy weather made the ground slippery, and she slipped directly under the impact of the snowball.

The next snowball wiped her cheek and smashed into the snow.

"Stand up, keep hiding, the enemy won't stop attacking just because you're down, they'll just stab you hard in the stomach to make sure you're really dead! The next shot won't miss, Yamato, stand up stand up!"

After , she dodged the second snowball, but her movements were very indecent. It could be said that she avoided Kaido's attack by rolling and crawling, but this made Kaido smile.

"Very good, that's it. On the battlefield, you have to do whatever you can. Only the absolute powerhouse is qualified to teach the principles of battle. The current one is not qualified!"

He was preaching to Yamato, but he didn't stop in his hand. The first to leave was Maria. Although White and Kaido were from the same country, there was a huge gap between them. Maria's physique was far less than that of Yamato. powerful.

Then there is Jack. The murloc blood makes him very physically strong, and his strength is ten times that of ordinary humans, but he is not flexible enough. Even if Kaido releases water, he is a target, and he is eventually knocked down.

And after his companion fell, Kaido's firepower finally fell on Yamato.

"Ah!! Father, it's time! It's time!" Just now, Kaido hung a watch on the tree behind him to show the time. After seeing the minute hand go through the last lap, Yamato hurriedly shouted excitedly.

"Oh? That's true."

Yamato breathed a sigh of relief when Kaido's snowball hit him again.

"Father?!"

"The second round has begun! This is the battlefield, Yamato, you must understand that any words of the enemy cannot be trusted, and I am your enemy now!"

This time Kaido started throwing snowballs directly with both hands, and the increase in firepower density was not a level.

"Help!"

"Come on, no one can save you this time, it's no use calling Arceus."

This time he aimed at the legs. After Yamato fell again, he was waiting for Yamato to get up, but this time she did not dodge, but squeezed a snowball and threw it back. Although the force was very light, Kaido still Without dodging, he let the snowball hit his face.

"Father, you said it, this is a snowball fight, I'm going to fight back!"

"Well, well done, great work, that's right!"

"Mr. Kaido, please stop for a while, there is trouble coming to the door."

Kaido was planning to discuss the topic of war with Yamato again, after all, snowball fights are also wars, but Shaina stopped him by landing from one side.

"What's the matter?" Kaido was a little unhappy, but he was just getting excited.

"A group of pirates landed from the port of return, and Kojiro's new batch of goods and some money were taken away."

Wano country directly uses gold and silver transactions. These things are hard currency wherever they go. If it is the currency of the empty island, it is different. There is basically no one who wants like there.

It was the Moonlight Pirates who did these things. The people who were guarded by the beasts were not opponents at all. Moria had never crossed the Judiciary Island or beat the Tianlong people. His bounty was a threat to him. Certification.

As the only senior cadre of the Beast Pirates who stayed in Wano, this matter was naturally reported to Shaina.

She was going to check the situation, but she happened to see Kaido, because it is very close to the return port, so she came to remind Kaido and suggested that they leave first.

But this also disturbed Kaido's interest. Originally, he was very happy to see his daughter grow up a little bit, and he was planning to let Yamato experience the cruelty of the world.

"Shaina, look at Yamato and the others first, you don't have to worry about that."

"Mr. Kaido, you mean?"

"Well, I'll take a trip by myself. Are there any of our staff nearby?"

"Yes, although there are no cadres, there are more than 200 people who are elites, and some of them have been gifted by Lord Arceus."

"That's enough." Said Kaido and walked directly towards the return port, but this was a relief for Yamato.

"You will regret it! You have no idea what you did! This is the property of the Beast Pirates, and Kaido and Arceus will not let you go!"

The material transfer station behind Ling, a pirate collapsed to the ground, the tall man in front of him is too strong, they are not his opponents at all.

"Kaido? Arceus? Who is that? I've never heard of it."

"That is to say, Mr. Moriah is the man who is going to become the pirate king. How can a big man of 320 million be afraid of other pirates?"

"Three hundred and twenty million are idiots from Paradise. Sooner or later, you will know how ignorant you are!" If Moria was a famous pirate for a long time, he could not know everything, and this amount is also in the beasts. cadre.

But he has never heard of Moriah's name, so the only explanation is that he is a newcomer who has just entered the new world, and only these people dare to say such big words so lightly.

However, Moria was not afraid of his threat, but slashed at his feet with a knife. The connection between his shadow and his body was cut off. A struggling shadow was caught in Moria's hand, and he also fainted.

The good news is that Linghou is now in snow, and the clouds block the sun, preventing him from turning into ashes directly.

That is Moria's ability, the superhuman-type shadow fruit, a powerful ability that can manipulate human shadows.

Today, he doesn't even need scissors. With just a knife, he can directly cut off the connection of the shadow. Then he stuffed the shadow into a small bottle and hung it in the windbreaker, which is also part of his power.

"Hee hee hee, where should we go next?"

"The captain is here! It's a man with horns on his head"

Chapter 222 I'm in a bad mood now

"Big Brother Kai! Found the enemy!"

The pirates of the Beasts are very excited, and the promotion mechanism within the Beasts Pirates makes them pay more attention to power.

They know very well what their level looks like. If they want to achieve a qualitative leap, they must either find a powerful fruit or get the gift of Arceus.

This makes military exploits more and more important in the Beast Pirates, and it is the most important means for them to advance.

The lottery system is very popular within the Beast Pirates. Previously, Kaido took away half of the elites in Wano. Except for those cadres, the difference in their own strength is not very big.

Ordinary members were divided into several teams, and the lottery was conducted by their leaders. Although it was much more comfortable to guard Wano Kingdom than to go out to grab territory, the pay and the benefits were directly proportional.

Rather than living in Wano, they want to go out in exchange for military exploits.

Occasionally there will be stunned greens on other islands, and due to its terrain factors, Wano Country is almost impossible to happen, so they are a little disappointed to stay behind.

But now the achievement of delivering to the door has appeared, which makes the pirates of the Beast Pirates much more excited than Kaido.

More and more pirates appeared on the hillside, and they were all waiting for Kaido's orders.

"Is it your kid who broke into here? It's a bit of a skill."

Looking at the members of the No. 10 Beast Pirates who lay down at Moria's feet, Kaido glanced at Moria. He was able to come to Wano and easily deal with his subordinates, which showed that there is still a big difference with the trash.

"Hey! Show me some respect for Captain Moria! He's a big pirate with a bounty of 320 million! He's a man who wants to become the Pirate King!"

"One Piece? You really dare to say anything, King Kong, Dy!"

Kaido swung his mace against the man with one hand. Although he was not a swordsman, he swung out a column-shaped stick similar to a flying slash.

The cylindrical bar gas spread to a wider area, and the snow on the ground was driven by the attack of Kaido King Kong Dy, and a snow dragon rushed towards the people beside Moria.

"Be careful!" Moria waved her hand, stopped the partner in front of him, and then chopped up with the knife in both hands.

Snowflake split in half in front of Moria, Kaido's attacks were all blocked by him, although he took a few steps back, he was still blocked by him.

"Bastard! What are you doing to Lao Tzu's partner!"

"Well, of course, I want to kill him, but now I've changed my mind, Moria, right, I'll give you a chance to join Laozi's pirate group with you."

Although the attack just now was not full force, it was obvious that Moriah who blocked his attack did the same, so he has already proved his strength sideways.

"What a joke! I'm a man who wants to become One Piece, how could he join you!"

"Usually I don't mind playing more with you, but today I'm not in a good mood. At the last chance, are you really unwilling to join?"

Originally, he had a good time with Yamato, at least in Kaido's view, this was just playing. He felt that Yamato should also be very happy. Although he called and ran away, it was more interesting than before.

Sure enough, Arceus was right, and he should be teaching while playing, but just when he planned to continue teaching, the matter of Moria reached his ears. ovelUSB.com

The excitement that just ignited was disrupted like this, and he was in a bad mood, so he didn't plan to waste too much time with Moriah.

"Of course, hee hee hee, I have the best buddies in this sea, and I'll knock you down here, take your treasure, and go to Love Drew!

How could join you and then stop here? "

"Since this is the case, then you can only choose to die here, little ones! Kill them all, and leave none of them!"

said that he took the lead in rushing down the hillside, and the pirates behind him also rushed up one by one. Moria was not to be outdone, and also brought his crew to meet him.

During the charge, the pirates on both sides silently dispersed to both sides, leaving the center of the battlefield to their captains.

Moriah is tall and strong, and his body was very strong before he turned into an onion. Moriah's long knife dragged on the ground, and while slashing, it also raised snowflakes on the ground.

In the battle of Paradise, this inconspicuous little skill can still have some uses. Even in the new world, he still retains this habit. Even if he has seen and heard domineering, many people are used to relying on their eyes, and Fujitora is like self-defeating Except for the eyes.

Although he slashed from bottom to top, Moria was at a disadvantage after a few touches, but he still fought back and forth.

"Yes, you are not the same as those miscellaneous fish in the paradise, then the next thing is going to be real, thunder and gossip!"

The strong armed color domineering attached to the Eight Fasts, and the electric current was wrapped around it. Kaido slightly adjusted the posture of holding the stick, and after using his legs, he jumped into the air, and the weapon in his hand slammed into Molly with a powerful force. Asia's head.

"Shadow Mage!" The shadow under Moria's feet suddenly came to life, no longer replicating the actions of the main body. A dark Moria appeared in front of him, with his arms crossed to block Kaido's attack.

Although he can manipulate shadows, it is only the shadow of people, because in the hands of those with the power of shadow and shadow fruit, shadows are also part of life, and the shadows of dead things like knives and spears are not within his control.

The shadow clone has no pain, no fear of injury, and completely obeys Moria's orders. It can be said to be his best helper, but the power of the clone is still somewhat different from the main body.

Although it slowed down Kaido's offensive, after a few seconds Kaido's attack still exceeded the upper limit of the shadow mage's tolerance, the shadow split into countless black balls, and then turned into a bat-like shadow biting Kaido's arms, trying to slow his movements.

But these are meaningless under Kaido's domineering defense, those shadow bats can't penetrate his domineering defense.

The weapons of the two sides came into contact again. Compared with the current thunder and gossip, the previous attack was just a child playing.

Those bat shadows condensed into a solid not far away, and Moria, who was wrestling with Kaido, instantly became his shadow.

"Shadow Warrior.."

Morlia can freely exchange positions with his shadow by virtue of his fruit ability. He made such a choice when he felt that something was wrong. Then he opened his windbreaker and took out the bottles containing the shadows.

"Bastard, now let you see the power of this uncle!"

Then he opened the caps of the two bottles with both hands, and about twenty shadows entered his body.

Chapter 223 Kaido, you have to pay the price!

This is the ability of his shadow fruit, he can stuff other people's shadows into his body, so as to obtain the power, skills, and moves of the shadow master. These shadows are the spoils of his voyage along the way.

He will not kill all those whom he defeats, but will take away their shadows.

People who have lost their shadows will not be affected by anything else, except that they can never be exposed to the sun. Once they are bathed in the sun, they will be ashes.

But as long as they are alive, the shadows will always exist, and Moriah is not thinking about creating a large number of zombies, these shadows are his means of enhancing himself.

Originally, Moriah's body can only be said to be strong, but as those shadows were sucked into his body, the muscles around his body began to swell, and his body size was not much inferior to Kaido.

Speed, strength, reaction, Moriah's everything has been improved by more than one grade, and in the next fight, Kaido found that Moriah's fighting skills have also changed.

During the battle, he frequently changed the battle mode, and the variety of moves made Kaido also interested.

"Interesting, shadow power?"

"That's right, the shadow and the human are one. As the shadow disappears, the master's lifelong efforts will fall into my hands, Kaido, your shadow will also become part of my power!"

He naturally recognized Kaido's identity. As there are several great pirates in the ocean today, it is impossible for Moria who entered the new world to have no information at all.

But from the paradise to here, the Moonlight Pirates have been smooth sailing, he has not experienced major failures, so he is very confident.

thinks that he is just going to sea later. If he goes to sea early enough, the reward will be much higher than it is now.

"Want my shadow? You're not qualified enough, Lei Ming gossip!"

"Shadow Warrior!" The body and the shadow switched again, and Moria also changed the knife in his hand to a thrusting posture, stabbing Kaido's abdomen from the side.

However, although he switched the position of the main body and the shadow very quickly, Kaido's reaction was faster, and the mace smashed into Moria's chest in a larger arc. As for his shadow's attack, Kaido's domineering was directly affected. blocked.

The battle between Moriah and Kaido can be called back and forth for the time being, but the battle of the rest is completely different. In the battle of many members in the snow, the Moonlight Pirates gradually entered the disadvantage.

In addition to the difference in combat power, the skills used by the first few people brought them a lot of trouble. At this time, there was a big snowball rolling on the snow.

But it was not a snowball, but a certain pirate who used rolling, and the front of the Moonlight Pirates led by him was opened to a breakthrough.

"Rookie in Paradise, experience the power of the new world!"

"This is the reward of Lord Arceus, you should have a good experience, what is power!"

A flame spewed from the mouth of another pirate. The enemy in front of him had been fighting with him for a while, and he had no idea that he would actually breathe fire.

The fierce flames swept out, and the snow behind Ling also melted gradually under the baking of the flames. At the same time, there was a burning smell, which was not an exception.

Beside him, a pirate held a sizzling yellow electric ball in his hand. As the electric ball was thrown into the crowd by him, a blank area was cleared out of the snow again.

The attack range of the last person is not that large, but her arms are wrapped in a green energy, and two blade-like things appear on her elbows, making her like a killing machine.

The four abilities completely broke the opponent's front line. This is the giver of the Beast Pirates today, who has obtained one or more skills from Arceus.

And people like Babanucky and Mandelfish who have obtained complete abilities are called Divine Favors, and Divine Favors are their targets, because in the Beast Pirates, Divine Favors and cadres are almost the same Draw an equal sign.

The screams of the crew caught Moria's attention, and he also noticed the casualties of his companions. During the voyage, he also lost some companions, but such a large casualty was the first time.

"Damn! Kaido, what did you do to Laozi's comrade?!"

"Huh? They were too weak, so they were killed by my subordinates, Moriah, I will give you one last chance to join my subordinates."

This is the third time he has said this. He was in a bad mood when he was disturbed by Moriah, but he appreciated Moriah's strength, so he invited him repeatedly.

But if he refuses this time, Kaido will have no interest. Although he has always been interested in powerful subordinates, it is not bad for Moriah, especially when he is not in a good mood.NOveluSb.COM

"What a joke! Killed Lao Tzu's comrades and still want me to join you? Kaido, I want to kill you to avenge them!"

"Shadow Box!"

Moria's own shadow turned into a huge block to cover Kaido, but Moria didn't take the opportunity to attack, but rushed in other directions.

"Hold on! I'm here to save you!"

He trapped Kaido with the shadow box just to take the opportunity to rescue his comrade, but before he could get there, his shadow box was broken.

"King Kong Lian Dy!"

The mace shattered the shadow that wrapped him, and then swung it towards Moria. If his focus was still on Kaido, he would be able to avoid this blow.

But his heart was already messed up by the casualties of his comrades, so Kaido's attack hit his back.

"It's boring like this, did you forget how to fight just by dying a few subordinates?"

"Subordinate? That is Lao Tzu's most important partner! People like you don't understand!" Moria, who was knocked to the ground, was extremely angry, and then he had more bottles in his hand.

He crushed the bottles one by one in his hands. Every time he crushed a bottle, some shadows would run out. When they were free, they all fled in all directions. They wanted to return to their masters around.

But Moriah didn't play with those shadows.

"Shadow gathering place!"

The Shadow Shadow Fruit was fully activated, and the shadows that were about to escape just now were sucked into Moria's body.

"3050100500!" This is all the shadows he carries with him, and it is also the most suitable number for battle. This number of shadows can not only greatly strengthen his strength, but also keep him sane.

"The Shadow Emperor."

At this time, Moriah had turned into a giant twenty meters tall. He didn't know where the original weapon was thrown by him, and the huge fist swung towards Kaido with anger.

"Kaido! You have to pay!"

Chapter 224 It's a pity you don't have a protagonist halo

Moria's eyes were red, and putting someone else's shadow into her body was not a small burden, and it was a huge burden on the user's mental power.

The living people themselves have their own shadows, and inhaling a large number of shadows will make them compete with each other, usually a rejection reaction occurs within a few minutes.

The greater the number of shadows, the greater the rejection.

If he wants to maintain a high-intensity battle, this number of shadows is the most suitable number for Moriah, so he will carry this number of shadows,

The height of adult giants is generally twelve meters, and Moria's current size is relatively rare among giants.

The small horns on the top of his head also turned into a pair of larger horns, which were somewhat similar to Kaido.

The huge fist made a deep hole on the ground, and the residents of Linghou nearby felt the huge vibration.

Then Moria punched Kaido several times in a row, and the snow layer behind Ling was shaken, and the ground that had been frozen for many years below was exposed, and a lot of cracks spread around.

This was originally a small hill, but because of Moria's attack, it has now become a small basin.

Kaido, who was standing there, has now disappeared in the center of the basin.

In Moriah's opinion, it was impossible for him to continue fighting after so many attacks, so he turned his head and was about to leave, his comrades were still waiting for them.

"Shadow?!"

He just wanted to participate in the battlefield on the other side, but a dangerous aura came from behind him. Moria showed a reaction that was very different from his body size, and moved his body directly to one side, and a scorching beam of light also This passed him by.

"Ugh, you're an interesting opponent, but I've had enough."

There was only a big pit where Kaido stood, but now Kaido has turned into a blue dragon and appeared in the sky.

"Those who can?!"

Ability is not the reason for Moria's surprise. During the voyage of more than a year, he has met all kinds of people, many of whom are difficult to deal with.

But he couldn't accept it, and he was facing Kaido who had not used his abilities yet.

It wasn't until he used his strongest move that Kaido used his abilities.

"Your strength is good, but unfortunately your domineering is too weak, that level can't hurt me!"

Domineering is the power of one's own self. During the long voyage, Moria gradually mastered the use of some two-color domineering during the battle, which is also the method for most people to master domineering.

There are only a few who can get the guidance of the system. Most of them are honed by themselves in battle. Compared with the domineering that Kaido has honed for an unknown number of years, Moria's domineering is insignificant.

"Unfortunately, although you have good abilities, but you rejected my solicitation, it would be better for you to die here, heat!"

A flame erupted from the dragon's mouth again. Although Moriah avoided it, he realized something was wrong the next moment. When he looked back, the members of the Moonlight Pirates were already in a sea of flames.

Just now, due to the huge shock he created, the two sides stopped fighting, and this also gave Kaido a chance to attack in a wide range.

"Bastard, Kaido, you bastard, what have you done!"

Moria's heart almost collapsed when he saw the misery of his companion, and then he attacked in Kaido's direction like a madman, but compared to the previous one, his attack had no pattern, it was just a random punch.

"Since you have gone to sea, then you have to make up your mind, and this is Lao Tzu's territory, it is you who broke into this place and robbed Lao Tzu's men, don't make the expression of a victim, from the moment you started. Since then, it is already declaring war!"

Domineering wrapped around Kaido's head, and the dragon's horns pushed towards Moria's body. Moria had a better way to deal with it, but the tragic situation of his companions made him lose his mind, and he actually chose to confront Kaido in this state. .

The result is self-evident, two blood holes appeared on his body, and he was also hit where the flames were burning.

"Since you have declared war on Lao Tzu, you have to prepare for this!"

Moria's huge body suppressed the flames, and the bodies of a large number of dead companions also came into view. At this moment, he didn't listen to Kaido's words.

"Captain Moria, I can't do it anymore, you must live, I believe you can. Become the Pirate King"

"Sorry Captain, it looks like our voyage is over"

"Kaido!!"

The companion's last words made him completely crazy, and when he got up, he rushed towards Kaido desperately, but he completely lost interest in Kaido.

Originally he thought he was a good warrior, but now he seems to be nothing more than a crazy beast.

"Idiot, what else can you do like this."

Moriah just now deserves his seriousness, but now

Kaido changed back to human form, and after dodging Moria's attack, he assumed a classic pose.

"The spear of Elbaf, the mighty country!"

Wei Guo hit Moria in the abdomen, but the strength of Moria under the blessing of five hundred shadows is much stronger than that of ordinary sea kings. Wei Guo did not penetrate his body, but on his body from bottom to top Leaving a huge wound.

The blood sprayed out, and the shadow in the body ran out uncontrollably. Moria's body was shrinking at a speed visible to the naked eye.

"Captain, you have to live."

"Moriya, stand up, you can't die here!"

"Captain Moria, aren't you going to be the Pirate King!"

In Moria's chaotic consciousness, the voices of his companions sounded one after another, but they left one after another, and the scene of his companion's death reappeared in his mind. novelUsb.com

"I can't die here."

His own shadow was also mixed into those fleeing shadows, and then when Kaido was about to make up his sword, Moria actually disappeared.

"Brother Kai, are you going to chase?"

"The bereaved dog, let him go and clean up this place, I still have things to do." He had just finished the first round of Yamato's game, and according to his estimation, Yamato could last for at least three rounds.

Now he is thinking about what other games are fun, of course, they are all more terrible games.

Compared to Moriah, he is more concerned about Yamato's growth.

And the movement in Linghou District naturally attracted the attention of others. The whole Linghou saw Kaido flying in the sky, and soon after the battle, a man with a forgiving look brought a fox and a team of samurai appeared here.

Linghou's name, Shuangyue Niuwan, looked at the destroyed ground of Linghou, his face similar to Zoro showed a very complicated expression.

Today's 3rd watch. The circuit is broken. The electrician has not repaired it in an hour. The code on the mobile phone is too slow. There is another book to write. I will make it up someday.

Chapter 225 What is the experience of playing tennis with thunder and gossip

"Master Ushimaru."

"Well, what a terrifying destructive power"

After all, he is the name of Linghou Township. After hearing that other pirates entered here, he brought people over here, but the place where he lives is a little far from Linghou's return port.

By the time he arrived, more than half a day had passed, and he only saw the pirates finishing here.

The pirates of the beasts don't take those people dressed as samurai seriously, except for those in power, some of the following people even have a good relationship.

Very few pirates are even married in Wano Country. Although Wano Country is exclusive, the beasts have not stayed here for a day or two.

And the economic situation of those pirates is much stronger than that of ordinary people in Wano.

Even Kinemon can find a wife when he is a gangster. Pirates bound by a series of rules are much stronger than those gangsters.

It was just a face-to-face, the two sides were still doing their own thing, and the result of Linghou's battle was naturally sent to the black charcoal snake.

The Orochi Yuting Fanzhong people laid projection snails on the scene, and then showed him the picture there in Orochi City.

"Monster Kaido that guy is really a monster"

Whether it's Kozuki Oden or Kaido, it's something he can't handle. Although his plan for Kozuki Oden seems very nonsense, he is serious. He needs Kaido and Kozuki Oden to lose both, and it is best to perish together.

It is necessary to stabilize both Oden and Kaido. Thinking about it, he feels a big head. Of course, if he knew that his plan was discovered from the beginning, I am afraid that he would not even have a head now.

However, the battle between Kaido and Moria made Koyuki Oden a little believe in the black charcoal snake. If Kaido's destructive power is fought in the Flower City, I am afraid that the entire Flower City will be wiped out.

If you look at it this way, the behavior of the big snake is not without consideration.

After , the worst incident in Wano country in hundreds of years happened in the northern cemetery. The tomb of Ryoma was stolen, the black sword Qiushui disappeared, and the graves of some nearby samurai were dug out.

To be precise, those corpses were more like crawling out of the cemetery themselves.

But only the corpse was missing, and all the burial items were left behind.

"Companion. One Piece."

The confused Moria was followed by some zombies and left the waters of Wano country with the flow.

Meanwhile, Onishima.

Most of the cadres went out to participate in the battle, and a lot of the elites left behind were taken away, and the ghost island became completely empty. In terms of design, it can accommodate giant creatures such as giants, and it can also allow tens of thousands of people to live there. The base camp of the Beast Pirates who gathered there.

And now there are only a few hundred people left.

"Lotto, identify, Asier, allow passage, Lotto."

On the stairs leading to the upper floor of the ghost island, an electronic door opened with a sound, and up here is the cadre activity area, only cadres and some authorized people can go up.

Rotom, who was boarding in the electronic gate, opened the door to the upper floors after confirming the identity of Asier. As a civilian cadre, the battle outside had nothing to do with him.

So he was playing tennis peacefully in Onishima while he was fighting around in the waters of the new world.

Although his body has not aged too much due to the influence of pure gold, he still belongs to the middle-aged fat house. He has tried to lose weight, but the results are limited.

is not good at fighting, but proper fitness is still needed. The object of tennis with him is Naiqin. Although they all have work such as research and cultivation, it does not affect the normal rest and entertainment.

It's just that there is something wrong with the tennis court today.

"Why is Mr. Kaido here?"

"I don't know, he was already here when I came."

Naiqin and Assie looked at each other, it was unscientific for Kaido to appear in a place like this, but they seemed to understand something when Yamato appeared here in a change of clothes.

"Mr. Kaido is taking his daughter to play tennis? That's great, should I play more with Olga when she comes back?"

Asier moved his wrists. The tennis court here is big enough for many people to play tennis together, so he plans to go to a farther place.

"I don't think things are that simple." Naiqin's main job is not a fighter, but she can also fight, so her intuition in this regard is much stronger than Asie's, and she always feels that things are not that simple.

And the next moment, her intuition came true.

"Yamato, are you ready?"

"Ready."

"Very good, as long as you can hit my ball back once, your training for today can be directly over."

"Really?!"

"Of course it's true, but you have to pick it up." Said Kaido and picked up his racket, which was quite pocket-sized for him, but it didn't matter, an ordinary tennis ball was thrown by him. into the air.

Up until this point, everything seemed normal, but the next moment, Kaido's actions shocked Assie and Naiqin's jaws.

"Thundering gossip!"

Lei Ming's gossip is simply Kaido's fighting skills. You don't have to rely on the mace. Other weapons can be used as well, including the racket. In order to prevent the ordinary racket from breaking due to his strength, he also attached weapons Domineering.

Asier and Naigen didn't see where the tennis ball went, but they saw the crater on the wall behind Yamato. Although it was a tennis ball, Asiere only thought of this adjective.

"Guru." Assie swallowed, just now he wanted to discuss with Kaido about taking a daughter, but now it seems a bit redundant.

"I don't think today is a good time to play tennis, what do you think?"

"I think so too. There is an herb in my lab that is about to mature. I have to go back and check it out. Why don't I talk about it next time?"

"Well, it just so happens that my smelted metal should also be finalized. See you next time." The two of them slipped out of here directly. They could play tennis like cannonballs, and there was probably no one else except Kaido.

"Father Father this"

"It's tennis. I specially prepared 200 balls. I have locked the gate. After playing these 200 balls, or you can hit the ball back, or it will not end."

"Help!"

The previous snowball was thrown by Kaido with his bare hands. This time, he also borrowed a racket for the tennis. The difficulty level has increased by more than one level. What's worse is that Kaido is still playing with his hands. The tennis he hits will bounce. .

Even if you dodge the first round, there may be a second round, and the flying tennis ball may bounce back from behind. No one knows whether the trainee is happy or not, but judging from the teacher's expression, he is indeed very happy.

Chapter 226 Quinn is asking for assistance

In a sense, Yamato's childhood has become very rich now, Kaido will always take her to play various games, but it's just a little bit of life.

Otherwise, the normal unfolding training is the same strength, which also adds a lot of tricks.

But what she didn't know was that some projects were even set up for her by Arceus, such as the battle royale event on Ghost Island. Her goal was to successfully break through from the top of the building to the downstairs under the siege of more than 100 pirates. .

Battle is inevitable, and all the pirates put on masks and put on uniform clothes.

They had to obey Kaido's orders, but they were very scruples about this kind of action that required hands-on action. In case of Dahe's revenge, it's fine now, but it won't be in ten years.

So these words, the pirates are now all dressed up like gangsters, with only two eyes left, and then pursued and intercepted Yamato and the others according to Kaido's request.

At the same time, the fighting in the open sea has not stopped. Today, when the pirates are fighting each other, the navy naturally has its own big movement. They did not interfere in the fighting between the pirates of the New World, but let this behavior be allowed.

Now the focus of their actions is on the Four Seas and Paradise.

The new pirates going to sea are mixed, there are people who really go to sea for exploration, and there are people who just take the opportunity to do evil, which adds a lot of burden to the navy of the world.noVelusb.com

On the Great Waterway, the Demon Slaying Order was launched. This time, the purpose was not to destroy a certain island, but to capture a person - Douglas Barrett.

After Roger's death, Barrett lost his goal. He who was still challenging some strong men turned into aimless destruction. The harm caused by this aimless destruction is far greater than that of ordinary pirates. In order to capture Barrett, the Demon Slayer Order was finally launched.

And in the new world, the teams of Jhin, Quinn, Olga and Zeraora also begin to reunite.

The route they set out on was a semicircle. After a few months of sailing, they mostly completed their goals. Only the last island was left, which was also where they expected to join forces.

But when Jhin's ship arrived here, the sound of shells exploding could still be heard from the island, and it seemed that the battle was not over.

"what happened?"

"I don't know, Brother Jin. According to the plan, Brother Quinn should be in charge of this place. We received news three days ago that the Brachiosaurus has arrived near here."

"That trash is really holding back, call him to see what's going on."

"Yes!"

Quinn's voice rang after the phone worm called.

"Hello, Jhin? Has your pervert finally arrived?"

"I'm already a whole day ahead of the expected time, but you, can't you even log in within three days?"

Jhin's Pterodactyl had already seen the Brachiosaurus on the sea, so they came to this conclusion. In the past battles, they also encountered difficult opponents. Most of the occupants of these islands are Golden Lions. remnants.

After all, he is a legendary great pirate, and the person who can get the cadre status under the golden lion is not weak. The longest battle took more than a month, but Quinn couldn't even land in three days. Unexpected.

Among the four teams, Quinn's progress should have been the smoothest. After all, he has a weapon like plague bombs on board. He studies the secretions of smelly mud and the poisonous gas of double bombs every day. but making weapons.

Usually, Quinn's plague bombs don't have the chance to be used. After all, that thing is indistinguishable between us and the enemy. Using that kind of weapon on your own territory is to cause trouble for yourself.

But the islands occupied by other pirates are different, and the life of one's own people is still much more important than that of the enemy.

"Had a little trouble."

"Where's your plague bomb?"

Jin understands Quinn's character. Although there are many restrictions on the use of plague bombs, Quinn will definitely use the weapons he has studied when facing islands that cannot be conquered for a long time. After all, he has always been proud of those things.

"It's not the problem of the plague bomb. There is no way to land on that island. You will know when you come over. Some things have to be said face to face."

Afterwards, the Brachiosaurus and the Pterodactyl met in the sea. Looking at the situation on the Quinn ship, Jin's expression turned bad.

The ship was quite clean, and there were few wounds, and those who were injured were old ones. It was obvious that Quinn had not launched an effective attack these days.

"what are you waiting for?"

"There was something wrong with the people on that island. After a short contact, those people returned to the island, and the island was full of virus-causing gas, and most people couldn't go there at all.

As long as there is a trace of shatter on the protective clothing, those things will invade the human body. At the beginning, I lost a lot of people because of this. "

Quinn is not that he has never landed before, but was beaten back after landing. He himself has no problem. After the body is transformed, he is filled with a special antidote, which can be detoxified at any time, but he does not have the ability to defeat an island alone.

He carried a limited amount of antidote, and there was no way for everyone to use it.

Those people on the island have better protection measures than them, and his plague bomb has to come into contact with his body to take effect. In this case, he has nothing to do.

"Who are the people on the island?"

"Hundred Poisons Barolomei, the former cadre of the Golden Lion, with a bounty of 670 million Baileys, the ability to superhuman bacteria fruit, he has built that island into an island where toxins gather.

Those toxins are changing all the time, there is no way to make a lot of antidote, only the universal antidote made from peach peach fruit is more effective, but I don't have much, how many do you have on board? "

"I didn't bring much, only a dozen people. Is that guy strong?"

"Better than me, if I can deal with him, the old man would have landed on the island long ago. What I mean is that when Zeraola and Olga come over, the antidote is enough for the few of us, as long as the guy Barolomei is dealt with first. , this island is ours."

Quinn did not do anything for three days, at least he figured out the identity and ability of the enemy.

"Then what are you shooting for?"

"Daily bombardment, and the toxins on the island are afraid of high temperature. The explosion of the cannonball can temporarily clear an area, but it will soon spread again. It seems that he has cultivated a lot of poisonous plants, and those plants have been releasing poisonous spores.

And the humidity on the island is very high, I tried using incendiary bombs, but they were quickly extinguished"

Quinn came to the conclusion after several attempts that he had nothing to do with such a thing with a Brachiosaurus. He who studied the plague bomb knew very well that the number of people in this case would be a burden.

The island can only be occupied if Barolomei is solved first, so he is waiting for his reinforcements while fighting the other side.

Chapter 227 Combination Skills, Sunshine Flames

On the watchtower on the island, Barolo Mei also used binoculars to see the situation on the sea. It was not good news for him to meet two ships with the flag of the Beast Pirates. After all, it meant the enemy's reinforcements.

"Haven't Dedekas and Kuron returned the news yet?"

"No, Barolomei, they have cut off contact with us since the battle began, and it seems that they don't plan to support us."

"These bastards, Captain Skee went down as soon as something happened."

The golden lion has been able to traverse the sea for so many years, and of course there are many loyal subordinates under him, Barolo Mei is one of them.

Even if he received the news that the Golden Lion was imprisoned, he insisted on guarding the island, because this was the order given to him by the Golden Lion.

Previously, Dr. Indigo asked him to leave with them and he refused, because he would only obey Shiki's orders. Since Shiki is in prison, his next task is to protect the island until the golden lion is gone. Appear.

So he rejected Dr. Indigo's request.

But not everyone is as loyal to the golden lion as he is. The tree falls and the hozen is scattered. Many people in the golden lion's command join him because they admire his power. If the golden lion is gone, they will naturally not continue to be loyal to a prisoner. .

Today, Impelton still has a myth that cannot be broken, and no one has successfully escaped from it. In their opinion, the Golden Lion is finished.

Since the golden lion was imprisoned and the era of the great pirates started, the island has been in trouble from time to time.

Before those people were small problems, until the intervention of Whitebeard, Kaido and others, it was a big blow to the remnants of these golden lions.

Without the Golden Lion, none of them can hold anyone down. If everyone can be tied together, then they still have the strength to fight against outsiders, and the cadres under the Golden Lion are also strong.

Although there is no top-level combat power like the Golden Lion, they are enough to deal with most situations when Charlotte Lingling, Whitebeard and others do not end up in person.

But the fact is that they just split into countless small gangs based on their usual relationship, not to mention helping each other, it is already very good not to stab in the back.

Therefore, the territory of the Golden Lion was gradually divided up.

"Lord Barolomei, can we still hold on? Otherwise, we should retreat first. Dr. Indigo said that was also the order of Lord Shiki."

"How could Lord Shikey make such a cowardly decision, don't worry, no amount of people can break the poisonous miasma here, I have guarded this place for more than 20 years, this island is my home court, and I want to defeat me. So easy."

In the outer waters, Jhin and Quinn successfully waited for the ships of Zeraora and Setsuna a day later, but Olga's ship never arrived here.

There was only one phone call at the end.

"I'm sorry everyone, I was entangled in the navy before, and I may not be able to join you for a while." Although there are relatively few naval activities in the new world, it is not completely absent.

Olga is now being pursued by a warship led by an old lieutenant general, and this time, her phantom ability has not been able to shake off the opponent.

It was Elizabeth who broke the rudder of the other party by diving and she managed to escape. If only the lieutenant general would dare to try it, but there was also a man who could use magma on the boat. She and Elizabeth were not the opponents of the two.

"Less her and the lizard, but it should be about the same."

"In an instant, her arm was injured, and she couldn't participate in this operation."

"Zeraora, I hurt my left hand, it doesn't matter much, I can still draw a bow."

"No, yesterday was the full moon, you can't use the moon lion now, this time you are responsible for guarding the boat."

Zeraora made an arrangement directly for Setsuna, and this time they didn't plan to bring too many people, Jhin, Quinn, and Zeraora, the three of them would be in charge of the assault. NoVELUsb.com

They all have the ability to fly, and they are more suitable for assault.

"By the way, Jhin, how long can the range of your move last?"

"Which trick did you say?"

"Master Arceus taught you the trick that can change the weather, I have played against him before.

The high temperature of the sun's flames can kill those gas spores, but the light here is too poor, that guy Barolomei won't give me another chance to charge up. "

The island is shrouded in clouds most of the time, which makes Quinn's charging time to release the flames of the sun longer. Barolo Mei can reach this bounty, or the cadres under the Golden Lion naturally have his strength. exist.

The last time he was attacked by Quinn with poor intelligence, he almost hit him with a burst of sunshine flames, but with that experience, it was impossible for him to give Quinn another chance to charge up.

"The clouds here are too thick, but it's okay for you to charge up."

"That's easy, the plan is like this, you go to the sky to attract his attention, and at the same time change the sunshine with a sunny day, I will use the sunshine flame to clear those poisonous gas spores.

Zeraora, you are the fastest, take this opportunity to break through and deal with him, is this no problem? "

Although the antidote can detoxify, but if the poisonous gas spores are not removed, the poisonous gas will always exist, unless the person inside is always taking drugs, or it will still be affected by the toxin. Fighting against poison is a taboo.

"That guy has a bounty of more than 600 million. Can Zeraora do it alone? What about his abilities other than poison?"

"Not weak, on par with this uncle."

But when he said this, not only did the people around him not feel nervous, but he breathed a sigh of relief. Jhin even directly finalized the feasibility of this plan, which made Quinn feel a little insulted.

Around noon, the naval guns of the three ships began to bombard the island again, and the people on the island seemed to be accustomed to this, until the appearance of the Ember Pterosaur in the sky aroused their alertness.

"Fire Calamity, have the reinforcements from the beasts arrived? It's really troublesome."

The island has solid fortifications, and simple shelling can't threaten them. As for those plants, they are fungi that grow very fast. As long as he is still alive, even if all the plants on the island are destroyed, he can spawn again in a short time. .

As Jhin flew over the island, a large number of bolides also smashed towards the ground of the island, and at the same time, Quinn, who charged up, appeared in his field of vision.

He had also seen Quinn's flames of sunshine before. That kind of attack would indeed disperse the poison gas temporarily. It would take some time to refill it. If the other party took advantage of this time to land, it would bring him a lot of trouble.

He is very clear that he has no reinforcements, and these cronies cannot suffer needless losses. According to Quinn's attack last time, it will take some time for him to accumulate power.

So he made a plan to interrupt Quinn's charge, but he just appeared in Quinn's field of vision, but his sunshine flame suddenly ended the charge and hit him with more power than before.

On a sunny day, the flames of sunshine can be released with the highest power without charging. This is the combined attack of Jhin and Quinn.

Compared with Quinn bowling, although the main c is essentially Quinn, the effect is completely different.

Jin and Quinn quarreled a lot on weekdays, but their cooperation was very tacit.

At the same time as Quinn's sunshine flames, Jhin's flames attached to his body, and the flame pterosaur rushed down. At the same time, Zeraora, who turned into lightning, came to him.

Chapter 228 The Cannonball Armor and the Illusory Disaster

The battle was not fair. Quinn used three days of harassing battles to figure out his approximate strength. When Jhin and Zeraora arrived, they not only attacked, but also fought in groups.

But no one thinks it is unreasonable to do so. The number of people in the battle is also an advantage. Since the Beast Pirates can gather three cadres, then they have no reason to waste this advantage.

"Dan Gong Yan Emperor!"

"Fury Volt!"

Whether it's Jhin's flame or Zeraora's lightning, these attacks are all high temperature, and high temperature is the biggest weakness of the fungus fruit. also followed.

As Quinn said, Barolomei's physical skills are very bad. He didn't expect that Quinn's moves that always needed to be charged could be released continuously, and he didn't expect that Jhin and Zeraora's attack speed would be so fast.

The battle ended quickly, and there was no feat of three days and three nights. If it was one-on-one, Barolomei could play with Jhin and Zeraora for a while, but he was in 1v3.

Even if Quinn did not participate in the melee combat, the most powerful sunlight flames actually hit his chest.

At that moment, his body released a large amount of bacteria, but it was incinerated in an instant under the high temperature of the sun's flames. Although he was not pierced through his body, it also left a large area of burn marks.

And Zeraora and Jhin also left fatal wounds on his body at the same time. After the two of them landed, Barolomei's body also fell to the ground.

With the death of Barolomei, new toadstools are no longer generated, and the existing ones gradually disappear under the burning of the Cinder Flame.

This is the difference between those who are capable. This kind of item created by abilities will not disappear even if the one who is capable dies, but will continue to exist.

Jhin threw a ball of fire into the sky, which was a signal of a successful battle. The next moment, a small boat began to dock. On it were special troops armed with flamethrowers and wearing chemical protective suits. They were responsible for cleaning up the poisonous gas on the island. .

"Mahhahaha, my uncle's plan is really perfect."

"You * delayed three whole days, do you still have the face to say this?" Although the two cooperated well when the battle was just over, they quarreled just after the battle.

"Okay, stop arguing, we should go back after cleaning up the island, this is the final goal."

Although Zeraora was a little short compared to Jhin and Quinn, his words still had some weight. Just as the few were about to deal with the remaining pirates on the island separately, there was a bang.

Jin drew his knife and slashed aside, but was still hit in the face by a bunch of things.

"Hey, are you alright?"

"It's okay, but there's something wrong"

The attacked Jhin was not affected, but his mask was damaged by an unknown object, a white hair fell out, and his face was exposed again.

Jhin then entered the human-beast form. The fossilized pterosaur's head replaced the original human face, and his eyes were full of killing intent. Quinn knew his identity. Zeraora was a creature created by Arceus. They saw Also saw it.

Others who saw his face had to die. Under the perception of seeing and seeing, Jin quickly found out where the enemy was.

"Fire Dragon Emperor!"

A fire dragon flew out from his knife, opened its mouth and bit the treetops next to it, and a strange man was beaten down, looking like a humanoid insect-like creature.

Looking at the bug's * that was still smoking white smoke, Jhin seemed to know where the attack just now came from.

"Die."

Whether it was the way he attacked just now, or the matter of destroying his mask, Jhin had no reason to let him go.

However, the enemy's reaction speed was a bit fast, and he actually avoided Jhin's slashing knife. He also lifted his buttocks, and a high-temperature corrosive gas was sprayed out by him. This was also the thing that broke Jhin's mask just now. .

"This guy is a worm fruit, in the form of a cannon-shooter?"

Looking at the strange attacking posture of the opponent, Quinn made some judgments. The fruit of the animal type is the best type to judge. As long as you have enough knowledge, you can guess what kind of fruit it is by looking at the face of the opponent.

"Cannon infantry?"

"A kind of beetle with its venom glands in its buttocks. It can spray high-temperature venom, and it will vaporize when it touches the air." Quinn didn't worry that Jhin would be unable to beat the other party, and even patiently gave Zera Orakop a shot.

Venom is basically useless for Lunaria people. If it is an ordinary animal type, then the insect fruit is the strongest type.

The bonus of insects is much stronger than that of beasts, but when they encounter the "phantom beast" gap, it is also reflected.

The man with the ability to shoot cannons is Barolomei's deputy. He is not Jhin's opponent, but he just persisted for a while with the power of insects.

Usually, Jhin might be interested in taking him back to Kaido to see, and maybe Kaido would be interested in the ability of the insect fruit, but seeing his face, he didn't have any chance to live.

After killing him, Jhin took out another mask from his pocket. He would definitely carry one with him for such an important thing, just in case, he couldn't kill everyone he saw along the way.

After these two people were disposed of, the island entered the finishing touches, but due to the fungus fruit, this progress was relatively slow.

In Wano Country, although Jin and the others have not returned yet, the wanted order has already arrived.

[Flame Disaster-Jin, a bounty of 600 million Bailey]

【Pandemic - Quinn, bounty 570 million Bailey】

【Lightning-Zeraora, Bounty 550 million Bailey】

At the same time, Olga's reward order was also updated. This journey also gave her her own name, and she was no longer called a trainee.

【The Illusory Disaster - Olga, the bounty is 480 million Bailey】

This is the name she came up with during this period. Most of her enemies died in false illusions, especially in large-scale battles. Affected by her ability, a large number of enemies killed each other in the provocation of illusions, and eventually died inside. fight.

But her Miskina's surname was hidden, which was not revealed.

"Well, this little girl has grown up. I still remember the first time she wanted to kidnap me. Now that I think about it, she really has the courage."

"Courage? She just didn't know anything at that time. If she knew your name at that time, she would probably hide away."novelusB.com

"Probably, but now, their names of the three disasters have been cast out, and the third disaster has appeared, so we should have a banquet, right?"

Chapter 229 Tutu Dogs and Tattoos

Charlotte Katakuri, Sherlock Cricket, "Phoenix" Marco, "Diamond" Joze, the cadres of the major pirate groups rose to fame during this time, generally young people in their twenties. People began to stand on the stage of the sea.

And many people's names are made by the remnants who stepped on the golden lion. The easiest and most effective way to make a name in the sea is to pick an old senior and send him away.

As long as this opponent can be defeated, then a pirate can instantly go from obscurity to being known to the world. Of course, challenge these seniors and be prepared to pay the price.

Crocodile and Moriah both paid a huge price for it.

The bounty is not limited to this. Some captains of the affiliated pirates, as well as small cadres such as Elizabeth and Mandelish, have also boarded the bounty. According to the situation of the photos, those photographers have been busy during this time.

In addition to the very ugly photos of a few people, most of the photos are very handsome, and even the eyes and the camera are looking at each other, which also makes this organization a lot more mysterious.

Kaido has already planned to hold a banquet when the cadres come back. Although the Beast Pirates also had their own casualties in this operation, he did not come out to play at home, and the actions of the living people will not stop because of them. Down.

The companions on a ship will not be immersed in it after the memory.

And Yamato looked at those bounty orders thoughtfully.

"What's the matter, is there anything you're interested in?"

"Father, you look so cool looking at the tattoos of these people."

Tattoo culture is very popular among pirates. It is a very basic behavior to tattoo the flag of your own pirate group on your body. Many pirates in those bounty orders are like this, such as the huge pattern on Marco's chest.

Obviously it was a reward order, but those photographers made it into a talent show, which made Yamato have some interest in those tattoos.

"Do you want tattoos too?"

"is it okay?"

"Where do you want the tattoo?"

"The arm."

"Okay, then interrupt your hand."

There is a big difference between the reality and what Yamato thinks. She seems to have heard some terrible words from Arceus.

"Foster father, what did you just say? I think I may have heard it wrong."

"You heard that right, every girl has a tattoo, and I'll interrupt you wherever you get it."

"But they all have tattoos. Father's entire arm is covered with tattoos."

"They are them, you are you, and you are different."

"Oh"

Yamato's tattoo plan was declared bankrupt before it was implemented, but looking at her lost appearance, Arceus thought of a compromise for her.

"It's impossible to get a tattoo, but you can draw it later."

"But the painting looks different at all."

"It's not for you to draw, Tutu Dog." Saying that, a special dog appeared in front of Yamato.

This is a dog that stands on two legs with an overall white color, brown eyes and brown ears.

But its tail is very long, almost more than its height, it is being held in its own hands at this time, and the end of the tail is a paintbrush.

Highlight, the * of this Tutu dog is female.

This is an alternative tattoo artist prepared by Arceus for Yamato. The Tutu dog will secrete a special liquid from the front of the tail as his own paint.

The color of the paint will change with the mood of the Tutu dog, which is generally controllable. A hat-like body structure also grows on the top of the head, adding some artist flair to it.

The wild Tutu dogs will use the paint on their tails to delineate their territory. In addition to painting like humans, they also have the unique marks of the Tutu dog race, and there are as many as 5,000 kinds of paintings in various shapes.

Because it is a pigment secreted by the tail, it is very different from ordinary pigments when painted on the body. It is waterproof and not easy to fade, and the Tutu dog itself has a way to eliminate it, so you don't have to worry about regretting it later.

"You can communicate with it yourself if you want to draw something, but if you dare to play it for real, my words will still take effect."

Yamato with the power of Vibrant can communicate with Pokémon without difficulty, and can accurately convey his meaning.

"I know my adoptive father, but can you tell my father to stop playing tennis." nOvEℓusb.cOM

"Well, don't worry, he's already played enough tennis, and he planned to replace you with volleyball before."

The training that should be done will definitely not stop, and the current training is actually not the strongest. According to Kaido's plan, the foundation of the body has been laid, and all these times are basic training.

After another two years of domineering practice begins, beatings will definitely be inevitable, and beatings are an unavoidable part of domineering practice.

Tennis and volleyball are still soft after all, but it won't be sure after a while.

"Huh, is that guy a mad dog? He keeps chasing him as soon as he meets him."

As for Olga, her ship is being overhauled. The strength of the navy she encountered is a bit supermodel for her. Moreover, the navy is the largest maritime violence group with the largest sphere of influence. The speed of large warships is faster than that of ordinary pirate ships. Fast.

If Elizabeth hadn't damaged their rudder underwater, Olga and the others would have been hard to escape.

"Sister, that's a new monster in the navy these years. It seems to be called Sakaski."

Sakaski, Polusalino, Kuzan, the three of them also frequently appeared in the newspapers during this time, and the navy was using this method to appease the members of the allied countries and prove to them its own force.

"But the old woman's ability is more troublesome, and the illusion of the eldest sister's head has been seen through."

"Don't look down on her, that woman is someone who led the Navy for an era with Sengoku and Garp. Who would have thought that we would meet the two of them. We were able to escape thanks to the ability of the eldest sister."

Quinn is hard to beat at best, and Olga is the real unlucky one, who happened to meet the crane who took Sakaski on the mission.

"Who cares, the ship is repaired and ready to return to Wano, just as other places have ended."

At the end of 1499, the ships of Olga, Jhin and others returned to Wano Country one after another. The remaining territory of the Golden Lion had been divided up.

It's only when some newcomers enter the new world that they get into trouble.

In Wano, the celebration feast and the New Year's festival of the returning members just arrived together, and the pirate group will not miss this kind of celebration, so it is more lively than the mainland of Wano.

The specially made cannon has been changed into a salute, and fireworks of various patterns are blooming over the ghost island

Chapter 230 Almost Doll and Flower Therapy Ring

There are also celebrations, but the fireworks over Onishima are much more gorgeous than those in Wano. This is because most of the firework craftsmen are attracted by the higher profits of the island and make their own fireworks for them.

Due to hundreds of years of seclusion and isolation, firework making has also become an inherited craft. When a large number of fireworkers are attracted to Onishima, there are naturally many fewer left in Wano.

As the most important festival in Wano Kingdom, it lost to Onishima in terms of liveliness.

The carnival for several days made many pirates drunk, and a new plan was proposed.

In addition to the newly conquered territories and the dead, there are still many wounded in the hands of those who returned this time. Although there are top talents in both Western medicine and Chinese medicine in the Beast Pirates, there has been a lack of systematic medical institutions. ηOvelusB.com

In addition, the Beast Pirates have been developing in Wano for a while, and a large number of Pokémon have appeared in Wano. They are not Arceus, and Pokémon themselves will get sick.

So a comprehensive hospital appeared in the Baiwu area, and there is a reason why it was not built on the ghost island.

Ghost Island is Kaido's territory, and no one dares to come here to make trouble at present, so the probability of an accident on the ghost island is extremely low.

A large number of Pokémon live in Wano Country, and the only safe entrance is also in Shiroma. If anyone outside is injured, it will be there first.

And the hospital itself also has the purpose of buying people's hearts. There are top doctors on the ghost island, but they lack management, and Wano country lacks doctors.

Anything that needs to be learned under the closed country is a secret. Generals and daimyo have sufficient medical resources, but ordinary people do not.

The medical fees of those famous medical families are very high, and they seldom take care of ordinary people who specialize in serving the nobles, and ordinary people cannot afford their medical fees.

A He's tea stall is responsible for a certain amount of civilian medical work. She is not a professional doctor, but only has some knowledge of herbal medicine.

But some diseases cannot be solved by herbal medicine, such as surgery, which is a fantasy in today's Wano country.

So ordinary people can't get sick. If they get seriously ill and the doctors they find are not good enough, then death is a common thing, not to mention some liars who pretend to be traveling doctors.

Don't look at Wano country, which is closed to the country, but the population is over one million, the connection between the six townships is not particularly close, and some scammers are not uncommon.

At this time, the appearance of a medical institution is enough to change the living conditions of most people, but it is not free. After all, free medical treatment is for the internal members of the Beast Pirates, and it can also add an internal benefit to Kojiro's Chamber of Commerce.

But for ordinary citizens, fees are unavoidable, and parity is the limit.

"Well, Mr. Arceus, Kojiro has already found a venue in Baiwu, but we don't have enough manpower. Although dozens of people have been recruited from other territories, it is not enough to maintain the operation of the hospital.

Naiqin and I have our own things to do, so it's impossible to be in charge of that hospital. "

Onigishima's best surgeon is still Quinn, who is reporting on the progress of the hospital.

Doctors have always been a scarce resource on the sea. Neither pirates nor the navy can avoid life-and-death struggles. Even if there is no war, there will be various incurable diseases. A good doctor is the second life.

There are naturally doctors in the territory of the beasts, but they all have to deal with the medical affairs of the island, and some people don't like to work in other places, so only dozens of people are transferred.

"Let Kojiro recruit nurses from the Wano country, and then gather some local doctors from various townships to teach them slowly. It's almost enough to have these dozens of people as leaders."

Taking the situation of Wano Country as an example, the training of the local barefoot doctors is enough to deal with the situation of Wano Country.

"One more question, Lord Holy Beast, no one knows the reason for the sickness of the Pokémon you created, what should they do?"

Even veterinarians don't understand the reason for Pokémon's illness, so so far, the problem of Pokémon's illness can only be solved by Arceus.

It's not possible to popularize Pokémon knowledge in a short period of time, so Arceus changed his method.

"Don't worry about this, they naturally have their own doctors, and they can also help doctors with their work."

"Qiabu~"

"Hey~"

"lucky~"

"This is the doctor's partner in the future. Let those doctors get acquainted with them. Pokémon problems can be handed over to them, and of course people can."

For a similar question, Arceus had already prepared, twenty of each, sixty new Pokémon came out from behind him.

"This is... the lucky egg next to Miss Yamato?"

Gili Egg Shaina is recognized, but there are many new Pokémon in addition to Geely Egg.

"They would have been great for a doctor's assistant, these are pretty much dolls."

"Chabu!"

It is almost a doll, usually a Pokemon. It has replaced the auspicious egg and the happy egg in some areas and has become the new assistant of the Pokemon Center.

Compared with the appearance of an egg, their image is more three-dimensional, like a strange orc, with a white fluffy tail behind them.

The whole is pink and beige, with sea blue eyes and wavy ears on both sides of the head.

These long ears are their main means of assisting people in their healing activities.

The perceptive power at the end of the ear is very powerful. For them, these ears are like radar. If they want to, they can even hear the sound of small stones rolling 2 kilometers away.

They use their ears as stethoscopes, and can understand each other's physical condition and emotions through the sound of their heartbeats.

Naturally good-hearted, they are also good friends for doctors.

"These flying ones are flower therapy rings. Although they can't diagnose other people's illnesses like almost dolls, they also have their own advantages."

"Hey~"

Flower Therapy Ring, Fairy-type Pokémon.

The body of the flower therapy ring is not very big, it looks like a flying fruit with a flowing hairstyle, light green is its main color, but they look a little disturbed.

"Where are the flowers I asked you to prepare? Bring them here."

"Yes, people! Bring things in!"

Quinn shouted to the outside, and a bunch of pirates with flower pots walked in. They were ordered to pick flowers early this morning. Although they didn't know why, they did as ordered.

Now all kinds of wildflowers have been brought back by them.

"Na ya~ na ya."

The flower therapy ring happily flew to the flowerpot and started picking flowers, and soon each flower therapy ring had a wreath in their hand, which was their nature.
