

Arceus 271

Chapter 271 Temporary Musicians on Siwon

This incident eventually turned into a fugitive slave incident. The slaves in the population market did not know what happened, only that the collar and the key to the prison appeared in front of them out of thin air.

Soon after they opened the lock, there was a raging fire here, and no one was sitting still, which was one of their few opportunities.

The escaped slaves caused a lot of chaos, and the subsequent fire burned all traces. As for whether those people managed to escape in the end, Shaina and Olga did not know, that was not what they had to deal with.

Tezolo and Stella were taken away together, and Arceus planned to place them in the fruit of the beasts.

Although there are elements of blackening, but being able to become a golden emperor from a runaway slave, controlling 20% of the world's Bailey, and cultivating the golden fruit to the point of awakening, this has already demonstrated Tezzolo's talent.

His fighting talent is not valued very much. What Arceus valued is his business ability. The Beast Fruits are getting stronger and stronger. Now they need an excellent CEO to continue the development with the Beast Fruits.

But it remains to be seen how far Tezzolo can do it. He intends to first arrange him at an ordinary branch in the New World to test it out.

He didn't refuse the Beasts' plan to let him go to work. Yamato offered him a helping hand when he was most critical. He wasn't a conscientious white-eyed wolf, and he also said at the time that he would pay anything. Can.

Although he was on a pirate ship, it was impossible for him, and staying here was a great danger to both him and Stella.

The fire of the population market did not hinder the auction, and people here are used to it, but the things that appeared at the auction made Arceus uninterested.

Jewelry, artwork, those things were not what they wanted, but they encountered two animal-based devil fruits.

These two fruits were eventually photographed by the beasts. In the outside world, the fruits of animals are generally not sold at high prices. The two devil fruits were finally sold for 210 million Baileys.

The end of the auction also means the end of Yamato's trip to the Chambord.

The fire in the population market did not attract anyone's attention, and the local navy also ignored it, although they had to maintain some things because of the orders from the peak.

But the people who take the initiative to join the navy have their own goals. Although there are scumbags in the navy, most people have their own conscience.

They can't take the initiative to release those slaves, but they can still turn a blind eye to the slaves who have escaped. Except for the slaves who were originally pirates, most of them are mixed in the water released by the defenders. The boat that left Chambord.

The Tianlong people were very angry when they knew that their cargo had escaped, but he had nowhere to shed his anger. The boss of the population market died and all the slaves ran away. Even if he shouted for the navy to take them back, those people were just Not working hard enough.

And the Siwon on the return trip was also a bit more fun. After all, there was a musician on the returning ship, which was one of the few fun in the pirate voyage.

"Yohoo hooah yo hoo hoo hoo

Bringing Binks' wine to you

Like the sea breeze, riding the wind and waves at will."

Tezolo sang Binks' Good Wine the same day at Soap Bubble Park, and unlike the scattered listeners before, the pirates were much more interested in this song.

There are no musical instruments on the boat, but the buckets on the deck and the pots and pans in the kitchen can be used to accompany them. The collision of various objects creates a completely different melody.

"You sing well, Tezzolo, here's another one!"

"Yes, it's rare to have a musician on board. Brother Quinn will like you, no, maybe he will hate you. He can be regarded as the most artistic person in the beasts!"

The pirates on the deck were blushing, and at first glance it was the effect of alcohol, and under their coaxing, Tezzolo performed his first performance on the stage set up temporarily, and these pirates became his first. batch of audiences.

The feeling of being watched made him feel emotional. Of course, the most important thing is that Stella is also below. She is not as enthusiastic as those pirates, but just smiled at Tezzolo.

This made him stunned. He had seen Stella's smile before, but every time there was a strong iron fence between the two, and the explosive collar on Stella's neck was even more of a gap.

But now that those things are gone, he forgot to continue singing for a while.

The disappearance of the singing naturally attracted the attention of the pirates, followed by a series of roars.

"Hey, it's time to rest, right? It seems a little late."

"Yeah, Tezzolo, there are two pieces of news, the good news is that we still have spare cabins on board, and you guys still have a place to live, but there is also bad news, we only have one cabin left, and There is only one bed inside."

"But don't worry, that bed is big enough for the two of you!"

"Hahahaha, let's go Tezzolo, remember to lock the window, or someone will peek at it!"

With a roar, Tezzolo and Stella were pushed into their cabin.

At this time, the atmosphere in the cabin is very delicate. The two people have experienced a lot from acquaintance, acquaintance, and now to regain their freedom. If they met Yamato by coincidence, their fate would not be very good. .

It was silent on the deck. It seemed that there was no one there, but in fact there were dozens of people lying outside the cabin, all of them listening to the corner of the wall.

Ninety-nine percent of the people on the Siyuan are members of the Arceus religion. Entering this organization is much more complicated than simply joining the beasts.

These people are all people who have no problems under Shaina's moral review, but this does not prevent them from having fun.

"Don't squeeze me, it's just such a big place."

"You should get out of the way, all the good places will be taken up by you"

And when these pirates whispered to drive away their companions, a voice suddenly came from behind.

"What are you doing, is there anything good in it?"

"Of course it's good stuff, especially interesting stuff."

"Really? I want to see it too, you let me."

The pirate who was answering at this time suddenly gave a shudder. The voice just now was a female voice. When they looked back, Yamato stood outside holding her Shuang Daixian at some point.

"Range, what are you doing?"

"Cough, Miss Yamato, this is not something you should see."

"Yeah, yeah, it's time for you to go to bed."

If Arceus finds out that they have broken Yamato and let her see something strange at her age, they think they will die very rhythmically.

Chapter 272 Cat Boss and Employee Benefits

"Why? Didn't you say it was fun!"

"this."

The pressure was originally on Tezzolo and Stella in the cabin, but now the pressure has come to them, how to explain the reason for their gathering to Yamato has become a very fatal problem.

If the explanation is not good, Yamato will not leave. If the explanation is too good, Arceus may chat with them about life.

"What are you guys doing here at night? You've woken up with alcohol, so let's go wipe the deck!"

"Yes! Big sister!"

Shaina's voice became their savior at this moment, and it was obviously much better to wipe the deck than to stay here.

"Okay, Miss Yamato, it's time for you to go to bed, or Lord Holy Beast will be angry." He picked up Yamato, and Shaina took her out of here.

"But they said it was fun in there?"

"You won't know these things until you grow up, Miss Yamato, it's time for you to sleep."

"Oh it's good to grow up, when will I grow up."

"It's not far, ten years are fast.."

A group of people on the deck were doing their best, and the wooden brushes rubbed against the deck making a slight noise, but under the cover of the tide, the sound was not worth mentioning at all.

Tezzolo was also puzzled. Why would there be a pink room on a pirate ship? He didn't know. This bedroom was originally a Geely Egg, but it was temporarily lent to them, and the Geely Eggs went to squeeze with Yamato. room.

"Sorry Stella, we may be pirates from now on."

On the chair in the room, Tezzolo said this decision. He owed Yamato three big favors. Bailey, himself, Stella, and Bailey are easy to say, but the freedom of the two cannot be easily repaid. of.

"It doesn't matter Tezzolo, there are wicked people among the officials of the world government, and there are such innocent little girls among pirates. As long as you stick to your heart, even if you are a pirate, you may not be a good person, but at least you can be one. Not a bad person."

She felt that at most the beasts arranged for them to sing or something. After all, Tezzolo had no other advantages except singing well.

They didn't do anything, just talked all night as before, without the barriers and chains, the only bad thing was that there were some pirates outside the door who wanted to eavesdrop every now and then passing by.

And Arceus is looking through the illustrated book, one of which is determined to be Insect Fruit - Cannonball Armor, and the other is also in the category of Insect Fruit, but the detailed information is gone, Quinn got it. This kind of problem often occurs in the remnant of .

"Shaina, bring Xiaobai to me."

"Understood, just a moment."

Shaina, who had just sent Yamato back to the dormitory, had been waiting at the door. After hearing the order of Arceus, she got up and walked to the deck. Xiaobai was not a person, but a cat.

Unless it is a small boat that can only be cleaned without dead ends, it is very common to bring a few cats on such a large boat, not to serve as a master, but to let them catch mice.

They are good at dealing with people, but the mouse still has to be professional. It is a fatal problem to have a mouse on a ship during a long voyage, so there will be a few cats on a big ship.

If there were no mice, it would not take much food to feed the cats, and raising a few cats could also relax some crew members. Many people liked the activity of petting cats.

An off-white kitten was brought over by Shaina. The cat on the Siwon was the most leisurely, because the introverted crew had no place for mice on the ship, so it was possible to replenish supplies. There will be mice mixed in.

Before Xiaobai could react, the energy of Arceus was injected into its body, its body swelled a little to the naked eye, and a ruby appeared on its forehead.

is still beige color, but more like a lion, Siamese cat Pokémon - cat boss.

It was originally a Pokémon that was arrogant and difficult to keep, but the cat boss transformed by Arceus was different. It was coquettishly beside Arceus's legs with its tail curled up.

The status of the cat boss can be judged by the tail. The normal coiling of the tail means that they are in a normal mood, and when the tail is straight, it is a precursor to their attack. On the contrary, when the tail is rolled up, it means that they are not vigilant at all. novELusB.com

The cat's body is very soft, which is the same as most cats. After all, cats are liquid creatures in nature, but the cat's seemingly soft body hides a powerful force.

"Master Holy Beast, this cat."

"Leave it to Tezzolo tomorrow, some things still have to be with a Pokémon to make people feel at ease."

Tezzolo is an adult recruited on a temporary basis after all. Whether he can take over as the CEO of Hundred Beasts and Fruits still needs to be investigated, and having a cat boss beside him can also prevent some accidents.

The next day, Tezzolo heard about his arrangement.

"Beasts and fruits?"

"That's right, it's a very serious company, and even has a business license with the world government."

The trade between the pirate islands is not yours to control. There is a store in this location that will be handed over to you. How much the turnover can change within three months will determine your future arrangements.

As long as you are competent enough, you can be the CEO of the entire group. If you are not competent enough, then you can just be a small shop clerk. As long as you have the ability, wealth, power, and status, you can get all these.

Even if you want to present yourself as a big star, it's fine. "

He drew a pie for Tezzolo, but this pie is very real, as long as he can afford it, he can eat it.

Tezzolo agreed with confidence. He thought that his future job was to be a musician on a ship, but he did not expect such a new arrangement. To be honest, it was more in line with his wishes than making him a pirate.

"But the island you are currently working on is within our territory, you have to go through a period of special training, and you don't want to protect her well, right?"

"I see, I'll let you see the results in three months."

"By the way, do you like keeping cats?"

"It's okay."

"Then this is the employee benefit. It's very good. You can be pets in the future, Xiaobai."

"Meow~"

The cat boss heard the sound and came over, and then came to Tezzolo's side. The smooth fur and the arrogant figure were in line with Tezzolo's aesthetics, and he didn't resist Tezzolo's petting cat boss.

And Stella seemed to like the cat too, so Tezzolo accepted the cat boss with joy.

"Generally speaking, you are the Yamato girl who has been recruited back. The ugly words are up front, don't do anything to disappoint her."

The cake was also drawn, the employee benefits were also issued, and the dark line remained. Finally, Arceus left a warning to Tezzolo, and then turned and left here.

Chapter 273 Magical Brain Circuit

Siyuan first sent Tezzolo and the others to another island in the process of returning, which is also the hinterland of the Beast Pirates, and there will be no trouble on weekdays.

Originally, the store manager of Beast Fruits here was promoted, and Tezzolo came here as the airborne store manager.

Most of the people who work in this kind of place are ordinary people on the island. Their lives are responsible for the economic flow of the island. Naturally, some people are dissatisfied with the store manager who came by air.

But the people from Hundred Beasts did not intervene in this matter. If he couldn't handle this matter well, his ability would be here.

And according to the rules, people from Beast Fruits have a code name when they contact the Beast Pirates. At this time, Taizolo also got his code name - Sakagi.

After a period of voyage, the Siwon returned to the territory of Wano, and in these short two months, many changes have taken place in Wano again.

For example, Musashi's career as a nurse has come to an end, the first auspicious egg training class has ended, and she has also been certified as having no nurse talent, but the behind-the-scenes masterminds of the Hundred Beasts Pokémon Center and the Kojiro Chamber of Commerce are the Hundred Beast Pirates. nOveUsb.Com

So Musashi was adjusted. She came to Kojiro's Chamber of Commerce to be responsible for the security work in some areas. Unlike the local old-fashioned people in Wano, Kojiro likes to absorb foreign things.

When Arceus took Yamato and the others on a trip to Chambord, Kojiro took time to visit the business model under the affiliated islands of the Wano Overseas Beast Pirates.

After he came back, he built the first shopping mall in Wano. The model of picking up the goods first and then checking out created a precedent in Wano.

It is not difficult to get two code scanners with Rotom, but the problem is the entrainment.

There are always people with poor quality in the group. It's okay for men to say that he dares to let the dog search his body directly, but it is not easy for women to do it.

And he is in business, so he can't put a knife on someone else's neck, so no one dares to come.

So he urgently needs a group of female employees here, and the kind that has force.

Musashi and her former little sisters were assigned to Kojiro's command and became the security guards of the Flower City Supermarket.

And the lives of the members of the Beast Pirates who stayed in Wano Country were not very bright.

Daily training, strolling in the flower street, or fishing and picking fruits in various townships, etc., if you don't want to go out, a group of people gather to drink on the ghost island.

and periodically mocking Kozuki Oden and expressing his contempt for him, this is not Kaido's instigation, normal people see this kind of reaction when they see a dancer like this.

And Shuangyue Yasushi has also recruited 500 reliable people in private. His actions require both strength and credibility. Ordinary people can't do it at all. They can only use this method of secret recruitment, so the progress is very slow.

In Black Charcoal Orochi's view, this is not enough. There are more than 1,000 pirates in the Hundred Beast Pirates stationed in Wano Country. He doesn't want his cronies to work hard, so at least Koyuki and Hundred Beasts' The troops are equal.

And Kozuki Oden's behavior also caused more and more people to look at him with strange emotions. Except for the Yasushi family who knew the inside story, even his retainers couldn't understand this behavior.

Only Kozuki was still silently supporting him. She believed that there must be a reason for Oden to do so, and on this day, an information sent by the black charcoal snake made the Shuangyue Yasushi family suspicious.

"You said it was something of a beast?"

"Yes, Lord Yasushi, the list of people inside Wano Kingdom that is said to be drawn by the beasts, I think we need to figure out the content of this list, otherwise it will be easy to expose our plan, and Lord Oda's efforts will fall short. already."

"Our people can't go to the ghost island."

"Don't worry about this, the villain has already inquired about it. In order to win over those people, they put the list with Kojiro. The thing is in his safe, but the safe seems to be a fingerprint lock."

After a period of discussion, they thought it was necessary to get the list, but this kind of thing was not suitable for samurai, and it was more suitable to leave it to a ninja for the infiltration operation. It happened that there was a ninja under Oden.

Since we want to act, we have to tell some things, so Raizo was called out by Kozuki Oden alone. After hearing Kozuki Oden and Shuangyue Yasushi's description of the matter, Raizo suddenly burst into tears.

"Oda-sama, as a retainer, you have paid so much humiliation, and we still can't understand that you are simply humiliating us, next."

"Okay Raizo, now is not the time for you to cry. As a ninja, you have to find a way to bring that thing out."

"Understood, leave it to me, I will definitely complete the task."

Just as they were preparing nervously, Kojiro was very calm. This was the news that he deliberately released. One of the purposes was to check the security level of his residence. Those people needed an actual combat exercise.

, on the other hand, is for alienation, and that list is something carefully prepared.

The Ninjutsu of Wano Country has always been a mystery. Most people's so-called Ninjutsu is just a sneak attack through some special props, or some things that ordinary people can't do through the exercise of Taijutsu.

The security work of the house made Kojiro dissatisfied. Those patrolling did not find the trace of Raizo, but Xiaoka did. However, in order to test the ability of these people, Xiaojiro did not let Xiaoka sound the alarm.

Raizo successfully bypassed the guards in the yard and reached the treasure chest. Looking at the fingerprint lock, he took out Kojiro's fingerprint, which he had obtained in advance, and put it on his finger and pressed it.

Kojiro usually goes in and out of many places, and it is not difficult to get his fingerprints, but the next moment, a current emerges from the switch, which makes the thunder hidden inside and out.

This is Quinn's outrageous design. Although this is a fingerprint lock, as long as the fingerprint is correct, it will be charged. The correct way to unlock the lock is to open the fingerprint and use another key to unlock.

According to him, only people who want to steal things will find a way to get real fingerprints. This design is very perfect, because normal people can't imagine that there will be a key hole hidden under the fingerprint lock. Just this time, we tested it together. .

So far, the effect seems to be good, but Kojiro replaced the alarm with a device that will get the list when he is electrocuted, so Raizo, who was shocked by the electric shock, still fled here with the list, and from the corner of the list, he vaguely saw Binggoro three words

Chapter 274 Misunderstanding and Xiaoka's Luxurious Dog Life

"The quality of this group of people is still not good"

"There's no way, Master Kojiro, those who followed the master at the beginning are only a few of us old and weak, and it is still relatively difficult to cultivate useful people again."

This operation was originally a special exercise to check the quality of his subordinates. Although the guards in the yard were not too fishy, they did not notice the infiltrating Leizo.

"Xiaoka is more reliable." He rubbed the chin of Katie, and then he continued.

"Those people's training should be strengthened. How about the things I asked you to find?"

"We have already found a lot of excellent bloodhounds from China, and we can start at any time."

"That's good, Xiaoka, how about finding you more wives?"

"Wang?"

Katy dog doesn't understand Kojiro's words very well, and this is Kojiro's most basic idea. It takes a long time for people to train, but dogs are different.

Kentaro Ranch has proven that the second generation Wagyu cattle bred by Kentaro are superior to those native to Wano Country, both for food and for work.

So Kojiro made this decision, let Xiaoka be a breeding dog, and cultivate a new group of dogs to help his subordinates to maintain law and order. It only takes one to two years to form.

The original Xiaoka can't do this, but it has turned into a Katee dog, and it has a second spring. For it, this is an opportunity for the dog to open the harem.

His housekeeper has found a lot of dogs with excellent bloodlines in Wano according to Kojiro's request, and the breeds are very mixed, and he intends to create a new breed.

As for the higher-end combat power, he doesn't have to worry about it. King Yanwu's residence is not far from here. With its size, it can deal with the invasion of most people.

At the same time, Quinn, who saw this scene, was also shivering.

"Mahhaha, my uncle said that this is an excellent design. As long as the current is increased, then those guys who try their best to steal things will be out of luck."

"Brother Quinn, although your plan is good, why do I think there is something wrong?"

This is Assie, and he is the only one in the entire ghost island who can call Quinn that way.

"What problem, what a genius invention."

"But... just get an electronic lock and put a Rotom created by Lord Arceus in it, isn't it?"

is more intelligent, the current is more powerful, and it also has its own alarm function, which will not be invaded.

It's not that Quinn's plan is bad, it's just that Quinn's plan is a little tasteless compared to Rotom's convenience.

"Well, you can't use Rotom everywhere. Seeing that the Rotoms who guard the gates have to change shifts. It's boring to keep them guarding a box all the time."

Quinn's explanation is fine, Rotom's shape is different from other Pokémon.

They are Pokémon parasitic in electrical appliances. Although they can exist in the form of electronic ghosts, such Rotoms are not practical.

And Rotom's character makes them stay in one place for a long time and torture Pokémon, so they work in shifts like going to work.

Places that do not move for a long time, such as electronic doors and monitors, will change the boarding Rotom every once in a while.

Quinn's fingerprint lock design is somewhat valuable. For example, the beasts and fruits in the sea are considering using this new type of security lock.

And Leizang has gone through "tremendous difficulties and dangers" here, and finally brought out that information, and returned to Shuangyue Yasushi's house through some secret paths.

"Raizo?! What's wrong with you?"

"Cough, there are no two adults, but a little accident happened. There is an organ hidden in their box. I didn't notice it for a while, but it didn't matter, I brought the things back."

said, and took out an envelope from his arms, and after opening it, there were several people's list information and preferences.

"Brother Binggoro?! How can they meet?!" nOveUsb.Com

Of course, not all of those materials are fake. Most of them are people who have established some connections with the Beast Pirates. The composition of the personnel is also more complicated. Some businessmen, famous doctors, and the owners of hot springs in Wano, etc. Wait.

All walks of life, all classes, and individual nobles under other daimyo, but the most unbelievable information is Bingoro.

The Binggoro family was one of the few who did not discriminate against him and invited him to rest in the house. Some of Binggoro's younger brothers disliked him and were reprimanded by Binggoro and his wife.

But now his name appears in this list instead.

"That Kojiro has a lot of interactions with Binggoro on weekdays. He often sees him in and out of Binggoro's house. Denjiro also mentioned this."

Although Oden's retainers are not doing well, they still go out normally.

They couldn't go to Onishima, and they couldn't deal with Zeraora on the farm, so most of the time they were watching people they could observe.

That was when Kojiro was discussing the issue of gangsters in Wano with Binggoro. Whether it was the previous assassination issue or the gangsters who made trouble afterwards, those people have become a group that hinders development.

As an almost whitewashed underworld boss, Binggoro has a lot of say in this regard, so he has frequent intersections with Kojiro.

But that's their business. Wano's national conditions are very strange. Even the daimyo and generals who manage the underworld may not have the words of Binggoro, so Yasushi and Oden don't know the details.

"No, it's impossible, Brother Hyougoro is not that kind of person."

Kozuki Oden didn't believe that Binggoro would have anything to do with the beasts behind his back, but when this happened at the same time, the situation became weird.

"Oda-sama, although this is not very pleasant, it is always right to take more precautions. It is indeed unreasonable for His Excellency Hyougoro to be different at this time."

Everyone was deceived, but Hyougoro's attitude did not change. It could be said that he believed in Oden, or it could be said that he had a problem.

"No, I believe in Hyougoro, I'm going to ask the damn"

There was no way to ask this kind of thing, and Kozuki Oden fell into a bigger tangle for a while.

"Oda-sama, please be patient for a while until the plan is implemented. You shouldn't have mentioned similar details to His Excellency Hinggoro, right?"

"No, although he inquired, but I didn't say that."

"Then please reduce your communication with His Excellency Binggoro before the implementation of the plan. We can slowly clear up the misunderstanding after the matter is over, but now everything must be based on the overall situation."

Chapter 275 Homecoming for Chinese New Year.jpg

None of them dared to make an assertion about what the situation was, so they had to shelve the situation, but this also gave Kozuki Oden another concern.

passed by Hyogoro's house involuntarily after the familiar dance session.

"Oda, what are you looking at? Why didn't you come in?"

A woman with short curly blond hair held a pipe and greeted Kozuki Oden at the door. She was the wife of Binggoro, and she was a bad girl that was rare in Wano country like Musashi a few decades ago.

He eventually married Binggoro, the underworld boss, and changed his way of life after that.

"Oh no, Ah Shi is still waiting for me at home, I'll go back today."

"Really? That's a pity. Come and play next time."nOvElusb.com

"Um"

Kozuki Oden turned and left, but he saw a figure out of the corner of his eye, holding a gift box and walking into Kojiro, who was in the house of Binggoro.

And Hyogoro's manpower did not stop Kojiro, but greeted him with a smile, which made him a little more suspicious.

And this is just a very ordinary relationship between Kojiro and Binggoro. The shopping mall he opened has encountered a lot of trouble, and most of the thieves are gangsters.

And the manpower who wants to manage these gangster Goro is the best.

Besides, Binggoro's subordinates are also past the age of fighting and killing, and Kojiro can help some of his old brothers solve the employment problem and let them have a business life, which is why the two sides are allowed to communicate like this.

Taoyuan Farm, opened a drawer in an instant. Inside was a neat row of diaries, some of which were covered with plastic wrap, which looked brand new at first glance, while some of the covers began to turn yellow.

It was her first diary. It has been a long time since she left Zuowu, and she is no longer the seven-year-old wolf. In the past ten years, she has changed a lot, and the habit of writing a diary is still there exist.

【December 27, 1500, sunny

It will be the 10th year of leaving Zou, Zeraora is working hard every day, but he seems to have encountered the biggest opponent in his life-height.

I remembered that he was already 1.8 meters tall, but he seemed to have reached the limit recently, and he couldn't grow any longer, only to his chest in an instant.

Yanyan too, they've always been so big, but they're cute.]

Yanyan is her frost milk fairy, which is much cuter than ordinary ragdolls.

【But this time is different. This time, I plan to go back to Zou at the New Year's moment. Zeraora finally agreed to go with me. My mother should like him very much, but my father is not necessarily.】

After she asked for a life card from Inu Arashi, she found her way back to Zuowu, but she didn't go back because she had something to do in the past few years, saying that it was impossible for her to want to go home.

Like Inu Arashi or Cat Viper, there are very few people who have been brainwashed to the point of forgetting their own race and country. After putting away the diary, she immediately started to organize her luggage. She finally made a trip home. She hadn't thought about what to do. what.

And today, the next door to her is very quiet, there is no sound of generators, and there is no sound of electricity, because Zeraora is in the ghost island at this time.

"Your Highness, tomorrow I will go to Zuowu with Shanna."

"Just go, it's not like you can't come back, what's the trouble with that?"

Zeraora seldom bothered him, and this time he went back to Onishima and said some strange things to him, which made him feel a little abnormal.

"That.. I want to ask you if I should bring some gifts?"

The purpose of his appearance is not so simple. Arceus created him to be able to contact the fur tribe, but Zeraora is a unique individual.

's fundamentals are loyalty, in addition, his thinking is independent, he is a unique fantasy Pokémon, not a marionette.

In the beginning, his contact with the instant was purposeful, but in the past ten years, he and the instant have been together for almost 10 years, witnessing the change from the stroller to the cart, and he has a real sense of the instant. Feelings.

Before returning to Zou, she talked a lot about her parents, which brought a kind of pressure to Zeraora, like a son-in-law.

Arceus gave him basic common sense and let him develop his own way of thinking in life, but this kind of thing is completely his knowledge blind spot.

For the creatures created by Arceus, Arceus is their greatest support, so he will return here for help.

"Well, have you reached this point, too? The treasure house of Ghost Island is looking to pick a few things, hurry up, I really want to see what kind of children the cat and the wolf will give birth to, yours. The child should not be weak."

Arceus hadn't thought about what to bring him, and Kaido, who was beside him, directly handed the treasure house of Onishima to Zeraora.

"But strength is the most important thing. If you can't do it, you can knock them all down."

finally said a normal sentence, and then Kaido brought the topic to a very strange place. After all, he is a person who is power-oriented. In his opinion, as long as he has enough power, many things can be solved.

The task of picking things finally fell to him, and the fur tribe didn't eat mammals with fur, so most of the things he picked were preserved overseas specialties.

He also met Quinn when he was struggling. After knowing what happened, he took it directly to himself.

"Leave it to this uncle, I'm good at this."

"you?"

Zeraora gave a suspicious look. He didn't trust Quinn very much in this regard, after all, Quinn often did outrageous things.

"What kind of eyes are you looking at? When I was young, I was a heartthrob. If I hadn't been worried that others wouldn't be able to walk, I wouldn't have gotten so fat. Leave things like gifts to me."

The next day, I saw a Zeraora carrying a super package. From the exposed part, there were a lot of strange things in it, and there were some machine products and the like.

"Those are"

"Gifts, the Quinn guy said that these things would definitely be useful in Zou, so he packed them up for me."

"Actually you don't need to bring these things"

"It's okay, let's go, the flight is ready."

The thousand-year-old dragon leader landed in front of them. The thousand-year-old dragon itself is not sensitive to time. It is the same wherever the New Year is, and if they take a boat, I am afraid that they will not be able to reach Zou this year, so they trouble a thousand-year-old dragon.

The Millennium Dragon's back is very broad, and the two of them added two large packages without affecting its flight. Following the direction of the life card, they flew to Zou.

Let me tell you in advance that Oden is about to go offline during the Mid-Autumn Festival holiday, please don't rush.

Chapter 276 Father and Mother, Husky and Mongolian Wolf

In a certain sea area in the New World, a giant elephant is walking on the sea. Its pace is not fast, but it can cross thousands of meters with each step. The huge back is carrying a city, and its thick and long legs are soaked in the sea, even if it is a sea king. The class also shuns this behemoth.

The unique leg joints allow it to roam freely in the ocean. Natamiai Nolida is its scientific name, but this giant elephant may not be found anywhere else in the world.

The clouds in the sky were cut, and the thousand-year-old dragon leader appeared here. It has been three days since he set out from Wano.

This is nothing for Millennium Dragons, their flight endurance is already very strong, and when a certain day comes, they will return to the land of birth from all over the world.

In this process, there are many journeys without a foothold, and it is common to fly for ten days and a half months.

Elephant Lord is more than 20,000 meters tall, and even though most of the height is under the sea, its back is also inserted into the clouds.

As it moves, the furry duchy on its back is also passed through by clouds, which is why Klaudu in the center of the furry duchy is also called Yundu.

"Zeraora! We're here!"

The Millennium Dragon's flying speed is not slow, and the sound of the wind is constantly pouring into his ears. If he doesn't shout, he can't hear it at all.

"I saw!"

patted the Millennium Dragon under him, Zeraora pointed to Zou in front of him, seeing the Millennium Dragon at his destination, he also rushed down with an acceleration.

But the next moment, it raised its figure again, because a huge current of water fell from the sky, it was almost caught in it, and the water sprinkled on its body, but it felt very comfortable at that moment.

"The rain of grace, I haven't felt it for a long time."

He also threw out a fish to feed the Millennium Dragon, which is the food entrained in the rain of grace, and the elephant Lord sprays seawater on the furry principality on his back on time every day, and the fish mixed in it is an important source of food for Zou.

That's why the fire-breathing rain is called the rain of grace.

Because of this feature, Zou's plants have evolved special forms, salt tolerance, and leaves are in high places, and there are even special plants that can filter fresh water, these are all evolved to adapt to the conditions here.

Including those long-legged crocodiles, they are all creatures that have appeared in a long evolution.

After the rain of grace, the thousand-year-old dragon leader found an opportunity to fall, and its figure also attracted the attention of the residents of Zou.

"What a big bird! What bird can fly so high?"

"It looks like someone is on its back"

Many people stuck their heads out of the windows to look at the sky. It was also because of the rain of grace that the furry duke had perfect internal drainage facilities, and most of the residents would stay in the house when the elephant rains.

And although there are trained warriors in the Furry Principality, they are not alert to the outside world. The presence of the Elephant Lord makes the location of the Furry Principality not fixed, and it is almost impossible for outsiders to climb up from the Elephant Lord.

No one discovered its existence until the Millennium Dragon was about to land.

The life of the fur tribe is much more comfortable than that of the murlocs. Many people who have never left Zou do not understand what an enemy is. When they see the descending thousand-year-old dragon, they do not avoid it, but surround them.

After the Millennium Dragon dropped its wings, it slipped down from above.

"Yo hoo! Everyone, I'm back!"

The fur tribe below fell silent for a while, and it took a while before someone made a sound.

"Are you. Instant?" novel Usb.com

"It's her, she's exactly the same as when she was a child, she's really back! She even brought someone else back."

"Where are Hatch and Ling? Go and call them both."

A group of fur tribes suddenly became noisy. The Furry Principality is a round country with a diameter of only 10 kilometers and a population of only around 20,000. A group of people will always meet a few acquaintances.

It became very lively the moment someone recognized that this was the moment they left Zou more than 9 years ago.

I also said hello one by one in an instant, but she suddenly shivered.

"In an instant, come here for me!"

She heard a very familiar voice. Before, she only wanted to go home and forgot one thing, that is, she ran away from home quietly, so what will happen to the children who have been away from home for nine years when they meet their parents.

One is excitement, the other is anger, the one who shouted her name furiously was a dog with black and white as the main body, and also had a pair of dark circles under her eyes.

It looks like it should be a husky, that is her father Hatch.

The breeding method of the fur tribe is similar to that of the murlocs, that is, the genes of the offspring are random, but the degree of randomness is not as large as that of the murlocs, and it must be based on the genes of the mother or father.

Two canine fur tribes will never produce a single horse fur offspring.

"Uh, Zeraora, wait here for a while, I'll be right back, don't run around.

said and threw the package to him, and then started his escape career.

"Wait! Dad, listen to my explanation!"

"You stop for me first! You ran away without a sound a few years ago, do you know how worried we are! Ah!"

The two started chasing on Zou Island like this, but Momo, who had been trained by the beasts for nine years, was far stronger than her father. Hatch couldn't catch up to Moa no matter what, and could only be "incompetent and furious" at the back.

In an instant, she couldn't fight back, and she didn't want to be beaten, so she could only keep running like this, and her father also showed his abundant physical strength. Although he couldn't catch up, he didn't give up, and he didn't mean to stop at all.

And when the moment fell into the "hunting", a group of fur tribes also gathered around Zeraora.

"You're handsome, you are a fur tribe from the sea, what's your name?"

"What's your relationship with Setsuna, have you been together all these years?"

A lot of people in the fur tribe were familiar with each other, and when he came back with Shanna, he was not wary at all. All of them gathered around to ask questions, and some started "Kaluqiu~", which made him a little ignorant for a while. overwhelmed.

"Hey! Stay away from Zeraora for me. Dad, stop chasing, you can't catch me!"

"If you stop, I won't chase after you!"

"Will you stop if you don't chase me!"

The father and daughter would not be able to help Zeraora for a while, but someone still helped him out. It was the same wolf fur as the moment, but instead of a white wolf, it was a yellow Mongolian wolf, a kind of gray wolf. Subspecies of wolf.

"All let Rang, can't you see that this child is shy?"

What others say may not work, but she is different. Her name is Ling, and she is the biological mother of Shanna. Although she rescued Zeraora from the "siege", Zeraora felt that her situation was more dangerous. .

Chapter 277 What kind of experience is it to meet your parents

"Your name is Zeraora?" Although Zeraora didn't introduce herself, the roar just now made everyone nearby hear Zeraora's name.

"Well, hello auntie."

"My name is Ling, I'm Shanna's mother, come with me first, I'm afraid it will take a while for the two of them."

At this moment, Mo Mo had already run to the other side, and Hatch was still chasing after him. Although his tongue was sticking out, he kept gasping for breath, but he still did not give up.

"But you big bird. Is it obedient?"

The appearance of the Millennium Dragon is still the Great Archaeopteryx. There are many special animals on Zou. She is just worried that the Millennium Dragon will cause trouble.

"Don't worry, it can understand what I mean." He is not Elizabeth, but the thousand-year-old dragon leader has a transformed form of Pokémon, so Zeraora can communicate, which is the difference between transformed animals and humans.

Animals in Pokémon form can communicate with any Pokémon, while human Pokémon can only communicate with Pokémon of the same type. For example, Mandefesh can only understand the words of the Carp King. NovELusb.com

Tyrannosaurus can also understand, but Tyrannosaurus will not communicate with him, unless it is the Tyrannosaurus evolved from the first-generation Carp King directly transformed by Arceus, they will pay attention to this aspect.

At the behest of Zeraora, the thousand-year-old dragon leader followed him to the place where their home was.

"Senana has caused trouble for you over the past few years, right? That child didn't make you worry when he was a child."

"No, she lives very hard outside."

"Really? How did you meet? How did you meet?"

"This.. I was born in the open sea, and my parents were long gone. I met her on our ship, but let her explain the details to you."

The matter of the organ trafficking and assassination group is better for her to explain.

The place where the Millennium Dragon landed was not far from the instant house, and it didn't take long to reach her house, and most of the people watching the lively were attracted by the chasing battle between the father and daughter, and ignored Zeraora for the time being.

"You wait here for a while, I'll do something and be back soon."

After brought Zeraora back to her home, Ling poured him a glass of water and left the house first, leaving Zeraora in her own home with confidence.

There is no currency at all in Zowu. The fresh water is rainwater or sea water purified by plants, and a large part of the food is sent by the elephant. It is almost a utopia where food and clothing are worry-free.

In addition, the sense of trust among residents is also very strong. It is not a joke in Zou to not close the door at night and not pick up leftovers.

The decoration in the house is very ordinary and a little warm, but Zeraora found something special from the photos on the wall. There seems to be a fourth person in this family besides Moan.

After about ten minutes, the door was pushed open again. Sometimes the door was closed not for safety, but for privacy. This time, it was not Ling who opened the door, but Moan.

"Huh, I finally got rid of my dad, he's still so healthy after so many years."

The moment she returned to her own home, she took out a chair and sat down, and all the things were still in familiar positions. It can be seen that her home has remained the same as when she left over the years.

"How about it, my home is not bad, although it's a little small."

"Not bad, but. Do you have a sister?"

"Sister, no, what's wrong?"

"Look at the pictures on the wall."

Although Zou is relatively closed, there are a lot of fur tribes who have left Zou. Many things in Zou are brought back by these fur tribes, such as cameras and looms, or some clothes from outside, which are important to them. way of replenishing supplies.

In the photo on the wall, in addition to Hatch, Ling and Setsuna, you can also see a yellow dog fur girl.

Inherited Ling's race and part of Hatch's coat color, while the girl was just the opposite.

At this moment, a stout male voice came from outside the door. Hatch, who had been spared for a long time by the moment, just ran back, and was panting at the moment.

Not to mention anything else, this running speed has already shown that she has not wasted time in recent years. Although he has never left Zuowu, he is also a member of the Musket Team and a member of the elite fighters in the Fur tribe. He couldn't keep up with him.

"Ha, you really came home."

leaned against the door frame for a long time before Hatch recovered.

Instantly knew that she would be blocked when she got home, but she couldn't help it, she couldn't keep running.

And after chasing for a long time, Hatch's energy was almost exhausted, and he was not interested in hitting her for the time being, but he just put his hand on her head.

"Don't leave silently again, do you know how worried your mother and I were at the time."

"Well, but Dad, can you tell me who this is?"

"It's your sister, her name is Wanda, and she is six years old this year."

Ling, who went out, also came back at this time, and explained Momo's question.

She just left to find Wanda to come back, and the fur tribe has no such thing as a school. Unless they are studying moon lions, most of the time they are stocking, so those young people have the opportunity to leave Zou.

And this is also an unspoken rule of Zuowu. There is no hereditary system for the king of Zuowu. The previous king can designate a successor, and those who have opinions can also choose to challenge this person.

As long as you can defeat the opponent and get the approval of the residents of Zou, you can become the new Duke of Zou, and those who go to sea can often become stronger than those who practice unilaterally in Zou.

Sheep Jishan also left Zou when he was young, but he left with a few friends when he was an adult. It is rare for him to run out of Zou without an adult fur tribe like Shanna.

This is also the reason why Hatch and Ling were worried about her, but they didn't go out to find a younger sister for her. This is also a way of growing up in Zou.

So their departure only caused quite a stir and had no follow-up impact.

"Sister?"

Wanda was standing behind Ling, looking a little afraid of the two strangers appearing at home.

"Don't be afraid of Wanda, that's your sister, you've seen it in the photo."

Although I had never seen it before, but after all, the same blood was flowing, and it didn't take long for me to become familiar with it.

"Okay, take your sister back to the room first. It's next to your previous room. You should also get acquainted with it. We have something to ask this Zeraora."

Shinan's family environment is obviously different from Yamato. Facing Hatch, she would choose to run away, but under the deterrence of Ling's eyes, she could only return to the room honestly.

And the rest is a tribunal. After all, my daughter left for nine years and brought a man with her when she came back. It is impossible for the two of them to have no idea at all.

Chapter 278 There seems to be no disadvantage except being a little shorter

"Sister, what are you doing?"

"Shh, play by yourself for a while, my sister has something to do."

Suddenly pulled out a small model of a ship from her bag. She also carried a lot of things in her bag, mainly some delicate objects. She was born in Zou, and she knew what Zou needed.

The life here is very primitive, because the furry principality is located on the back of the elephant, there are no minerals, rocks and soil are scarce resources, which is also the reason why the houses in the furry principality are very old.

These stone houses have been handed down from a long time ago. Sometimes elephants will roll up some soil and stones and throw them on their backs when passing by the island, which is one of the sources of Zou soil and seeds.

After all, even birds are extremely rare at this height. In this case, there is naturally no extra metal and stone to do things like models.

Zou's most perfect craft is probably to use sea sand to burn glass.

The huge body of the elephant will roll up the sediment on the seabed when it moves, and it will inevitably roll up the sediment when it sprays the sea on the back, and the filter on the drainage channel in the furry duchy will trap the sediment. down for other use.

A small toy is enough to attract a child's attention, and she is lying on the ground and putting her ears on the floor to listen to the things downstairs. The sound insulation of the old house is not very good, and it is not difficult to listen to the corners.

"how old are you."

"19 years old."

Age is a conventional entry point, but Hatch and Ling don't know what to say, and they haven't experienced it. They were childhood sweethearts and grew up together and they formed a family naturally.

And the age of Zeraora is also a very mysterious thing. In the strict sense, he is only 9 years old. That is the time when he was created, but it can't be said that way, it will become a double cart model.

His origin and age are a mystery, and finally settled on this number, just a few years older than Shanna.

"about the same age"

"He looks pretty handsome, but he's a little short. I don't know if he can continue to grow at this age.."

Hachi and Ling whispered together, appearance can't decide everything, but it can affect the first impression, an excellent appearance leaves a very good impression score.

The number of normal humans in the fur tribe is quite large, and some special individuals are also relatively short, such as the monkeys of the Sanyang doctor and the guard.

But most of the male fur warriors were two meters away, and Hatch himself was two meters five.

Although the height of the female fur tribe is obviously lower than that of the male, Ling's height has reached two meters. Although it is much shorter than the big man like Yang Jisihan, it is also a relatively tall group, and it is obvious that she has inherited the genes of both sides.

From this point of view, the 1.8-meter Zeraora is a lot worse.

As for financial resources and property, the fur tribes don't value it. Money is useless to the fur tribesmen. A pair of hands willing to work is enough. The fact that they returned to Zuowu from outside in large packages also shows that they have good financial resources. Also curious about what the other party is doing overseas.

"What are you and Shanna doing outside all these years?"

"This. I'm doing a pirate."

The word is not a taboo. Hatch and Ling's cross-examination was unexpected in Moment, and Moment also had their own guesses about what they would ask. The fur people who went out to sea basically became pirates in the end.

This is the definition of the world government for most sailors. Without the travel permission of the member countries, it is not legal to sail. If you don't resist, the offenders will be taken away. If you resist successfully, you will be listed as a pirate.

Yang Jishan also came here when he was young. In the future, Bepo, Pedro, Pokemus, Jiebo, these fur tribes who go to sea are all pirates, even if they are not pirates, they all follow pirates ship left.

As for the pirates who can board Zou, if there is no conflict, they will warmly entertain them in exchange for supplies. If those pirates have any special ideas, the fur tribe is no joke.

If they are unlucky and come here at the full moon, the fur tribe will let them know the horror of the fighting race.

"Pirates, as expected, that character can't stop after going out to sea, but when did you meet?" novelusb.com

"Encountered on an island in the New World more than nine years ago."

"Nine years, didn't she meet you not long after she left?"

"That's right."

"Then why did it take you so long to come back?"

"I was born in the outer sea, and I didn't have the life card to go back here. I also lost the life card of the moment. After finding the life card back here, I was very busy, so I only made time this year."

"That's right. It seems that this girl is hiding a lot of things from us." Hatch's tone changed when he heard Zeraora's explanation.

There was nothing wrong with Zeraora's answer, but she forgot to tell Zeraora not to mention the life card. The life card was the only hope for the fur clan who went out to return home, so they couldn't throw this thing away anyway.

Cat Viper and Inuarashi had boarded the ship of Whitebeard and Roger in the original timeline, and then experienced the war in Wano Kingdom. Even so, the life card was not lost.

So the loss of the life card of the fur tribe means that something extremely dangerous has happened.

At this time, there was a thud from their roof. It seemed that something had fallen to the ground. Ling glanced at the ceiling and probably understood what was going on.

"We are not stubborn people, and she will not be too opposed to things she likes"

"Wait, Ling, it's too sloppy, we don't know this kid yet!"

"That's his own business. We two always get involved. Will you live with him in the future?"

The bloodline suppression between Huskies and Mongolian wolves seems to be reflected, and the family status of the instant family is evident. After Hatch's voice was suppressed, Ling continued to ask: "So I want to make sure, what is the relationship between the two of you? ."

In the attic, Mo's claws were grabbing the floor unconsciously, and his tail was swaying, looking a little restless.

"Sister, are you not feeling well?" Wanda on the side didn't understand the strange behavior of the moment, she reacted like she had lice on her body.

"Shh, play a little longer, my sister still has things to do."

In the past nine years, although the two have become more and more familiar, they have never established a relationship. She is not good at asking questions, but today Ling asked her for her.

But the environment below seemed to be quiet, which made her a little itchy when she was eavesdropping upstairs.

"We... are indeed dating."

@The apex of the indigenous god, good brother, take a look at the word "你", it is not a typo, I beg you to take a look! I'm about to commit OCD, QAQ

Chapter 279 Correct usage of sister, approaching ship

"Yes! Ouch!"

Hearing the affirmative words, she stood up suddenly, and her head came into intimate contact with the table beside her. A series of collision sounds sounded from upstairs, which also caused Hatch and Ling downstairs to change their expressions a few times.

"Hatch, get acquainted with you, I'll go take a look."

Having said that, Ling walked up to the second floor and left Hatch and Zeraora together. As a new male at home, or a cat in a canine family, they really need to have a good chat.

In the moment upstairs, she also heard the sound of footsteps approaching gradually, a kind of innate suppression belonging to the blood gradually spread to her, looking at the table that was overturned by herself and the confused Wanda, she suddenly had an idea.

"Wanda, is something delicious?"

"good to eat."

"I didn't bring much this time, and I will bring you more delicious things in the future, but how about doing my sister a favor now?"

"What help?"

"This way, this way"

The speed of speech was very fast, and when Wanda didn't understand it, it was regarded as her acquiescence to her conditions, and then she was moved to a suitable location. Just after she set up the crime scene, Ling walked up.

"Shin, I haven't seen you for so many years, you really don't have anything at all."

She thought that something was going on in an instant, but when she came up, what she saw was Wanda standing in the middle of a bag of snacks and gift boxes, and Moment was sorting things out.

"what happened?"

"Wanda accidentally pulled my backpack down. It's no big deal. I'll pack it up right away. Did you guys have a good time chatting with Zeraora?"

It seems that there are no loopholes, but in fact, they are all loopholes. Yiling's understanding of Wanda is not that curious, but Wanda agreed with Momo's words.

This is the way of throwing the pot that I thought of in an instant. It is better than being a big man and being frizzy. Ling found something but didn't expose it. It would be good if the sisters had a good relationship.

So she also joined in the cleanup, and in a few minutes the place was cleaned up.

"Let's go, you came back all of a sudden. Dinner hasn't been made yet. It looks like you need to add two more servings."

While leading them downstairs, Ling said: "Next time, think more about the rationality, although Wanda's strength can pull your package, it is impossible to overturn your table, and you just screamed everyone. heard it all."

"Ah, Mom, what are you talking about?"

"You know what I mean, forget it this time, let's go and see how your dad gets along with him."

Mother-in-law usually looks more pleasing to her son-in-law. Ling has no dissatisfaction with Zeraora, but Hatch is not necessarily.

And when they reappeared downstairs, the scene can be said to be unusually harmonious and strange, Hatch was smoking a cigar as if wearing a tights, and she also smelled alcohol.

That's what Quinn put into his backpack with full confidence for Zeraora. According to him, taking out tobacco and alcohol is always useful, and I have to say that he was right this time.

It is also because of the location of the country that tobacco and alcohol are also scarce resources in Zou. Ordinary tobacco cannot grow in Zou at all. Most of the fur tribes here smoke dried leaves on weekdays.

The effects of tobacco were minimal to this group of generally monstrous physiques who liked the feeling, so Hatch was intrigued by Quinn's fancy cigars.

Some of Kaido's supplies were also loaded by Zeraora, and Hatch and Zeraora were familiar with swapping clothes in just a few minutes under the tobacco and alcohol offensive.

Swapping clothes is Zou's highest etiquette for outsiders. Although Zeraora is also a fur tribe in their eyes, this offbeat fur tribe born in the open sea is also an outsider, and this etiquette is used.

This is also the reason why Zeraora and Zeraora have to change clothes for a while. Because of the women's clothes, Zeraora never agreed until she changed into a neutral dress, and she was lost for a while before that.

It's just that the difference in size between Hatch and Zeraora is a bit big. Hatch's clothes are as big as a cape for Zeraora, while for Hatch, Zeraora's clothes are completely tights.

If it weren't for the convenience of battle, Zeraora's clothes are so elastic that Hatch might not be able to wear them.

Although it was a bit funny for Hatch to wear clothes that were a lot smaller, and the fur on his body was strangled together, but this side shows that he agreed with the existence of Zeraora.

"Stop making a fuss about Hatch, let's prepare dinner."

"Wait, I'm here to help too. I brought back a lot of good things this time, Zeraora, don't make trouble, and Wanda will give it to you."

Culinary black hole Zera Ora, which has been personally certified by many people on Ghost Island.

Cutlery, cutlery, seasonings, jerky, I brought back almost everything a family could use in an instant, in addition to a battery and an ice maker. Equipment is a treasure for fur people.

As for the problem of electricity, it is very easy to solve. The fur tribe has the ability to generate electricity by itself, and she also brought back a small human-powered generator.

He ran into the kitchen in an instant, leaving Zeraora and Wanda with big eyes. A place is still taking children.

When they just entered dinner time, the Millennium Dragon outside the door let out a roar, and after he opened the door, a goat fur tribe with a crown appeared here. NovELusb.cOm

The contemporary duke of Zou, Yang Jishi.

"Lord Duke."

"Lord Duke."

"Don't worry about it, I heard that Shanna came back and I'll take a look. A few years ago, there was news about the two bad boys, Cat Viper and Inulan, but there was no news for Shanna. It's great that she can come back now."

Yang Jishi took out his handkerchief and wiped his tears. He was just a successful king with no merit, but he remembered the name and appearance of every inhabitant of Zowu.

When Roger came here before, he brought a letter from Cat Viper and Inuarashi, so their safety has already been confirmed, and only for a moment there has been no whereabouts.

While there was laughter and laughter on Zowu, a sailing ship without a flag was sailing on the sea. The sails were white and there were no signs. However, looking at the clothes of the people on board, it could be seen that these people belonged to the world government. Down.

The leader of is looking at the life card fluttering in his hand, the direction they are heading is Zou, and the purpose of their trip is to find a more suitable experimental body for the research of humanoid weapons.

Chapter 280 Priority to catch wild boars

The existence of King Yanwu seems to have reminded Caesar in the science unit that the original ancient giants experiment was not simply cloning, but a huge transformation on the human body.

It's just that most of them lost their sanity in the process of transformation. People in the scientific team have been arguing about whether they are biased towards human form or animal form. Vegapunk has not concluded such a trivial matter, so it is difficult for them to interact with each other. persuade each other.

This is also the reason why some of today's ancient giants are like humans and some are more like beasts.

And a "successful example" like King Yanwu explains everything, Caesar is conducting his crazy experiments, and MADS's private experiments are of course illegal, but when they are incorporated, everything becomes different.

Not to mention legality, the experimental products they need are all provided by the world government, but the general animal experiments have not only failed, but have become worse.

Caesar did not believe that his technology would be inferior to Quinn, so he firmly believed that it was the problem of the experimental subjects, wild boars, monkeys, or the combination of animals and humans, Caesar's experiments did not progress.

Not long ago, he thought of the fur tribe, a rare race, a perfect combination of humans and animals. In his opinion, the fur tribe just met his requirements.

Originally, his experimental body was provided by the world government. Whether it was a prisoner or a slave, he almost had as much as he wanted, but the fur tribe was an exception. This race was too rare to be found in the outside world.

And this is not a question for Caesar to consider, he just put forward his own needs, for the success of his experiment, the world government specially sent this ship to search for Zou.

Although the single fur tribe cannot be found in the outside world, the life card that went to Zou can still be found. It was captured by the fur tribe who were arrested in the past history. The life card will not disappear easily, so it has been passed down.

It's not difficult to search for this with the power of the World Government itself, as to why they don't fly the flag, that's because the World Government's flag has no effect in the new world.

It has a strong deterrent effect in the four seas, but in the eyes of the lawless people in the new world, it is not a deterrence, but an opportunity to make a name, and grabbing their ship is almost an honor.

This is the current situation in the new world. For example, if the World Government ship wants to pass through Whitebeard's territory, the most effective way is not to * it with heavy troops, but to pay Whitebeard a toll.

"Looking at the reaction of the life card, we are not far from there, and we are all ready. Our goal is to capture the experimental body, not to fight the fur tribe."

"clear."

"Well, repeat the mission requirements, the elderly, children, men and women, capture two or three of each suitable sample as much as possible, and the pig fur tribe is the highest priority."

This is because of King Yanwu, and Caesar thinks there must be a reason for Quinn to choose pigs.

"Don't make a commotion because of this, and make a quick decision. If the group of fur tribes reacted, it would be difficult. Although this time was deliberately chosen, the fighting power of the fur tribe itself should not be underestimated."

"Don't worry, Captain, the fruit was specially found to target the fur tribe."

"It's always good to be careful, take a rest, and touch them soon."

He estimated that he would arrive at Zou on New Year's Day, which happened to be a new moon. The moon lion under the full moon was not a secret. They didn't want to kill themselves, so they chose the day of the new moon.

In addition to the full moon, whether the moon will affect the combat power of the fur tribe has not been verified, but according to the calculation of the fur tribe's strongest fighting strength when the full moon is full, it is always right to start the new moon.

The ships of the World Government are gradually approaching Zou, and Zou is currently carrying out her gift-giving activities. Although it is not possible for 20,000 people to give things, she has prepared some things for her acquaintances.

For example, the brand-new medical tools for Dr. Sanyang, the wool shears for Yang Jisihan, and various furniture that refreshed her home, the shaved ice made by the ice machine has made Wanda attract the attention of all her peers.

Her salt was also temporarily handed over to Wanda, and the frost milk fairy brought a lot of fun to the fur tribe here.

And Quinn's so-called sure-win weapon in Zeraora's backpack was handed over to Hatch. He can't see anyone during the day now, so he might be whimpering somewhere with a cigar.

The fur tribe smokers account for a large part, and high-quality tobacco is always welcome, after all, it is a rare product that can only be brought by people who go out.

On this day of the new year, the fireworks competition was held on the ghost island as in previous years, and Zou also started his own celebration after the second rain of grace. A quaint bonfire party is held here.

Moment stared at the people nearby who were trying to get along with Zeraora's "Karuqiu". Just like a wolf who protects food, her concept has changed a lot after going out for nine years.

But there is a saying that family thieves are difficult to guard against. She guarded against outsiders but not her own mother and sister. After all, in the eyes of traditional fur tribes, it was just a greeting.

At the foot of the giant elephant, dozens of CP agents with anesthetics and nets were also ready to travel.

"Sneak in and start, all silence." As he said that, his body began to spread, and a large black cloud appeared beside his feet, and dozens of subordinates around him were wrapped in the clouds and drifted silently upwards.

Although they will use the moon step, the moon step will make a sound similar to a sonic boom when using it, which is easy to arouse the alert of the target, so he chose to use his ability to take them up.

Natural Department Yunyun Fruit, the user's body can be transformed into a cloud, a very powerful fruit, and it is with this fruit that he has come to this point.

Coupled with a new capable person specially prepared by the world government in their subordinates, their success in this operation is very high.

It's just that this person is relatively stable, so he deliberately chose the day of the new moon. Today is the new year, so it seems that the vigilance of the other party will also decrease a lot.

The pirates will keep a few sober vigilances when they revel, but the fur tribes do not, and the back of the elephant is safer than the fishman island, until the group of people approached the gate of the furry principality without being discovered.

The sea fish and sea beasts grilled on the bonfire suppressed the fur tribe's sense of smell, and they quietly released a narcotic gas, which spread rapidly under the drive of the wind, and the Millennium Dragon, who was resting, was the first to perceive this gas.

"Roar!" This roar attracted the attention of many people, but those anesthetics had already begun to take effect, and many fur tribes fell to the ground swaying.
