

Arceus 291

Chapter 291 The Confidence of Mystery brought by those who are touched by the fruit ability

These are the big cadres with names and surnames, and there are also powerful grassroots cadres like Mandelfish, and aliens like Elizabeth and Phelan.

Babanuki rarely leaves the country of Wano, so there is no outside bounty, but he can defeat the cadres of Kinemon.

Coupled with the terrifying combat power of the mountain * wild boar, the extra thousand people don't know if they can entangle the strange pig. He doesn't think Kaido will take into account the casualties of the Wano country and not use this kind of strategic force. .

And there is another problem, that is, their only top combat power, Kozuki Oden, is getting swayed more and more easily. According to his understanding of Kozuki Oden, he may really run to chat with Kaido when he is in the top. .

According to the logic of normal people, it is definitely impossible for them to compromise, but neither Kaido nor Kozuki Oden seems normal to Black Charcoal Orochi. Once the two reach an agreement, the first person to be sacrificed to the sky must be themselves.

The reason why he dragged on for the past few years was to balance his combat power, but the reality turned out that the development speed of the beasts far exceeded his expectations, and in his opinion, he was on the verge of losing control.

One of the reasons for this kind of thinking is the inherent thinking of Wano country. Even if the black charcoal snake wants to persecute the citizens of Wano country, he is still a person of Wano country in essence, and he has a fascination with the samurai of Wano country. confidence.

Otherwise he will understand that it is not about to get out of control, but already out of control.

In short, according to Black Charcoal Orochi's understanding, it's almost time to act, and if he drags it further, he will be finished.

As long as Kozuki Oden can knock down Kaido, and someone can hold back other senior cadres, when Kozuki Oden is liberated, there is a possibility of knocking down the opponent.

And then Kozuki Oden will be seriously injured, and his own chance will come.

Shuangyue Yasushi looked at the dozens of World Government's bounty orders in front of him, and some information about the characters that Black Charcoal Orochi took out without bounties also fell into contemplation.

"Master Yasushi, I think this year's New Year's Festival is a good opportunity. Kaido has lost interest in Oden-sama recently. They usually celebrate in Onishima, but this time I plan to invite him to come. The capital of flowers celebrates.

At that time, his subordinates may not all be there, that is our chance. But it's not enough to rely on Oden-sama and his retainers, we need the help of other daimyo. "

I was worried about exposure before, but now that the action is close, the force of those daimyos is also the power that Black Charcoal Orochi needs to rely on. The current situation is the only chance. Unconsciously, Kaido has become such a monster.

"Sir Yasushi, I'll leave this matter to you, including the communication with Oda-sama. I'm going to plan other things. I'll tell you the specific situation when the time comes."

Said that the black charcoal snake left here, and he didn't tell the Shuangyue Yasushi family about some things, such as in order to make Kozuki Oden go all out, he planned to quietly add a fire.

He remembered very clearly that Kozuki Oden was in a state of rage when he was injured at the time. At this time, he also had a similar idea. For example, the undercover agent he buried beside Kozuki Oden should also be activated.

But it depends on the situation. If Kaido has the advantage, then he needs to find a way to anger Oden. If Oden has the advantage, he has to find a way to shake him. As a sixth child sandwiched between two monsters, Black Charcoal The big snake is very headache.

The remaining two months or so seem to be plenty of time, but it is actually very nervous. It is a good way to tell everyone before the action is a good way to keep it secret, but some leaders must know the news in advance.

Just when he was quietly arranging some things in the capital of flowers, the Shuangyue Yasushi family also came to Kozuki Oden's house, and told the original plan and the plan of deportation to be implemented in the new year.

Raizo was also interjecting, after all, he was the first to know the content

It's hard to say whether has any effect, but it can be seen that his retainers were very moved by this, and they didn't think this behavior was stupid, and they all knelt in front of Kozuki Oden in tears.

"I'm sorry Oda-sama, because our weakness has caused you to suffer for so many years."

"No, actually"

"Don't worry, even if you fight for your life, we will help you achieve your goal, meow."

Cat Viper and Kinemon directly made Oden not know what to say. At this time, a different kind of Xia Ke was shown. Kozuki Oden would doubt whether he could hold the position of this general, but his retainers would not.

In their opinion, no one except the Kozuki family can sit in the general's seat.

Originally, Kozuki Oden wanted to discuss other matters, but it turned into an oath meeting, and then the Shuangyue Yasushi family also began to contact other big names quietly. agreed.

Otian's retainers no longer had the decadent mood they had before. They were excited to train every day, and the Asura boy returned to the top of the mountain. Those bandit gangsters under him were also a lot of combat power.

On the roof of Onishishima, Kaido pressed the screen in front of him. Although Rotom's monitor has not yet reached the point of pervasiveness, it has stopped at some key places.

"What are these guys touching?"

"Who knows, the brain circuits of these people are different from those of the outside world. It's not that they don't know, but this is also good. As long as you are strong enough, such people will be more obedient."

"Yes, war. Sure enough, this Wano country still needs a war, uhhhhh!"

Thinking of the upcoming war, Kaido is inevitably excited. Development is Arceus' hobby, and for him, it is the impulse that war can most arouse in his heart.

After that, with the wine gourd around his waist, he didn't know where he went to hangover.

At Taoyuan Farm, he picked up something in an instant, and then came to Zeraora's room. The two people they were dating had not lived together, and it was still a very traditional way of life.

"Zeraora, look at this."

A note with a few words simply written on it. nOVeLusB.cOM

【Don't walk around in the New Year. 】

"It's an ugly word, but it's written like that guy from Inu Arashi. What does he want to do?"

"Maybe I want to remind you, after all, there is indeed a big action on New Year's Day, that guy is really interesting."

This is indeed a message from Inu Arashi, but it is very vague. If it is not for the monitor, ordinary people really can't understand it. Ordinary Wano people have a kind of confidence in Oden, let alone his retainers.

In Inuarashi's view, the beasts have no chance of winning, so he wanted to make his own clan pay more attention.

Chapter 292 Super True Rookie, Kaido's Declaration of War

However, this kind of trivial matter is completely ignored, and even reporting can be exempted. Now what the beasts are thinking about is not how to fight the battle in the New Year, but how to solve this battle with the least loss.

Things have to be done little by little, and now the event on Onishima is still Yamato's birthday party.

Although there was a deflagration accident in a fireworks workshop, it did not affect the pace of others competing for the title of Fireworks King, even the one where the workshop deflagrated.

The recipe that he almost put himself in got him a better firework recipe, and he almost put everything in it, intending to use the fireworks king's bonus to make up for his loss.

Now Yamato's birthday party has become a process, even if ordinary members are not qualified to give gifts, the gift boxes she receives are still piled up into a hill.

Most of them are to be opened slowly after going back, and the only ones that can be opened on the spot are the two gifts from Kaido and Arceus.

Kaido's gift is very simple, a variegated mace in silver gray and black and red.

In the past training, Ah Jian 4.0 was also unfortunately killed in battle. After all, Yamato and the others are still in a state of being in a state of being ineffective, and whether they have a domineering blessing has a great impact on their weapons.

Ajian 4.0 sacrificed gloriously in the process, and integrated into Ajian 5.0 with the legacy of 1.0, 2.0, and 3.0.

The color of 5.0 is different because of its material, the residual part of 4.0, the metal shell replaced by Coco Dora, and part of the wine iron ore together constitute the body of 5.0.

Among them, the shell of Coco Dora is a very rare material, because its recipe is very complex, so this metal shell incorporates metals of various components. After forging the special organs of Coco Dora, it has become a special alloy that is difficult to reproduce.

Whether it is its own hardness or ductility, this metal is a rare commodity in the world, and some wine iron ore has cast the current Ajian 5.0.

Compared with Kaido's gift, it is Arceus's gift that makes her look forward to it more. Since the power of Vibrant, she has always been able to get something she has never heard of, some created by Arceus, and some are searching for slate Some special products found on the way.

And this year's birthday gift is the same as the original Vibrant Power, which is also a strange light group, but this time the strange light group is pure milky white.

With a finger on the light ball, Yamato was full of curiosity about this ability.

"Father, what kind of ability is this time?"

"You'll know if you try it yourself, but this time is different from the last time, it might hurt a bit."

As soon as the voice fell, Yamato had already accepted the light group, and she also understood what a little pain was, bones, flesh and blood, every cell conveyed a feeling of pain to her brain.

Although the perseverance she had forged over a long period of time kept her from screaming, she couldn't stop breaking out in a cold sweat, but the pain lasted for a short time and disappeared in an instant.

But unlike the power of Victory, she has mastered that special ability. At this moment, she still doesn't understand what it is, but she feels that her body is much lighter.

But according to common sense, Arceus will not just let her simply hurt.

"Father, what is this?"

"This, a super real rookie or a super clean-up person, in short, it's a big improvement for your physique."nOVeLusB.cOM

Some humans in the Pokémon world are obviously different. Although Yamato has inherited the monster-like physique of Kaido, it is always good to strengthen it.

The reason why she feels pain is because it is part of the transformation at the cellular level. In a nutshell, she can now easily play with a ton of weight like a doll.

The cervical vertebra has a very strong bearing capacity, and at the same time obtains a certain degree of lightning resistance, flame resistance, freezing resistance, and poison resistance, but it has no effect on human technology items such as firearms and knives.

The power of is also further combined with the body, and with the development of knowledge and color, some people's unique effects may not be impossible to achieve.

With this "birthday gift" boost, her upper limit has become even more ambitious.

In the time after , the flow of people in the flower capital has increased significantly, that is, the big snakes are arranging their own people to gradually enter the predetermined position.

Thousands of people entering in batches will not attract attention, but large-scale operations can easily reveal their tracks, so they have begun to move quietly.

All weapons made by weapon factories were gradually shipped to the capital of flowers. On the New Year's day in 1502, Kaido in Onishima received an invitation from the black charcoal snake.

In a nutshell, this is how many years it has been in Wano Kingdom. They have prepared a completely different program, so they specially invited Kaido to participate.

After a cursory look, Kaido threw the thing aside, and instead called in the pirates of the Hundred Beasts Pirates who were staying at Onishima.

The interior space of Ghost Island is very large. Nearly a thousand pirates from the Hundred Beasts Pirates gather here, but there are also some other Wano people here. Those are the Wano people who have gradually integrated into the Hundred Beasts Pirates over the years. .

They went through a series of inspections and were recognized by Kaido, such as Kojiro headed by them.

After receiving the summoning order, they gathered here, waiting for the order from their captain.

In the attic, Kaido walked slowly to the front of the stage, watching the subordinates below waving his mace against the air.

"Little ones, although the New Year is coming, this year's New Year is destined to be different. The greatest war since we came to Wano is waiting for us!"

The pirates below were not afraid, and turned into a frenzy. A captain like Kaido said that it was impossible for them not to fight, but there was no chance in normal times.

"This is still a banquet, you can enjoy the first half, but don't forget, there is a more grand second half! What we have to do is to bring those who are born nobles! Those in power who indulge in comfort are all drawn to the battlefield!

A battlefield where there is only life and death! There is no distinction between high and low, no matter who it is!

This is "equality" and "freedom"! A value that only war can decide!

Little ones, it's time to go to war! ! "

"Oh oh oh oh oh!!"

The roar of more than a thousand people went straight to the roof, and the entire Ghost Island seemed to shake a little bit. Kaido's emotions were all mobilized, and the team with the flames of war in one eye gradually set out from the Ghost Island, towards the flower capital. go in the direction

Chapter 293 Awakened Overlord

Jin and Quinn took the large army to the direction of the flower capital, while Kaido and Arceus were left behind. Watching the pirates gradually passing through the Inner Sea, Kaido suddenly felt a sense of accomplishment in his heart.

"You know what? That feeling when I first participated in the war, when I was only 8 years old, that guy White was the leader of my team at that time, and then the battles gave me the most damage in the kingdom. strong name"

Looking at these pirates, Kaido remembered his experience in the Kingdom of Water, but now he is no longer a soldier, but a general.

"You feel quite a lot."

"I just want to say, this time you don't want to interfere with that girl's experience from Yamato, her seventh birthday is over, and she's also 8 years old according to the calculation of her virtual age.

This girl has gotten a lot more than I did back then. This war is her best trial, and there is no other way to train people than this kind of battlefield. "

This is Kaido's purpose. Yamato was also brought over by him. He wants to use this war to give Yamato a test. He can bet that the world government still has at least one slate in the hands.

If they only had one piece left, they would never be able to trade it out. Although Wano Country is now farming and developing, Kaido's ideals have not changed. The biggest war is what he wants to see.

And Yamato is a general in that war. He needs Yamato to grow up, even if it costs a lot.

Although Arceus has done a lot in Yamato's training, he is still too gentle in Kaido's opinion, so he told Arceus not to intervene by way of example.

"I know, it's not a bad thing to experience more, you don't need to teach me, but I will still intervene when it's time to intervene."

"Well, giggle, you can count, let's go, the big snake guy has lived for so many years, so it's cheap for him."

If Yamato can't achieve his goal, even if he is dying, he will not shoot, but Arceus is different, this is the gap between the two people, and the current agreement can be regarded as meeting his requirements.

Along with Yamato, there are also the auspicious eggs, Maria and Jack. They are also in the process of tempering. After nearly two years of transformation, Quinn's medicine finally played a role, and Maria's human-beast form a huge change occurred.

From that strange big * spider man to the form of a spider girl, the lower body is replaced by a complete spider, and the upper body appears in the position of the spider's head.

And due to the transformation of Arceus, Maria's electric spider has special consciousness in the form of human and beast, sharing vision and attacking independently, which can provide Maria with a perfect increase in combat power.

But Nicole Robin is not in this team. As the daughter of a scholar, her status is very special, and she is not a complete member of the Beast Pirates.

This kind of war event has nothing to do with her, she just stayed on the empty island with ordinary scholars, and celebrated their new year with Sauro.

They didn't spend New Years together last year, which is not surprising.

The members of the Beast Pirates with weapons gradually entered the flower capital, which did not make people suspicious. The local merchants and residents were still promoting their own things, and they did not know about the war.

Although Orochi chose the stage of the battlefield in the capital of flowers, he did not evacuate ordinary people, which would only make people feel abnormal. If the things made by the merchants at the New Year Festival are either unpalatable or ugly, everyone will doubt their identity. .

And Orochi doesn't care about the lives of the people, no matter how many sacrifices in the war, it doesn't matter to him, as long as the goal is achieved.

In the palace of the flower capital, the daimyo of the townships have already taken their seats. They did not want to fight directly. They wanted to wait for Kaido to relax his vigilance when he was drunk. When he saw Kaido coming, Orochi also warmly welcomed him and took his seat.

"Hahaha, Kaido, you are finally here. This year is the 100th anniversary celebration of Wano Kingdom. There are many programs waiting for you in the Flower City."

He said and clapped his hands, and a few wandering girls walked out from behind the screen, but Kaido didn't refuse, and immediately took the people in his arms after taking the seat. As for those people in the other seats, he also temporarily regarded them as irrelevant seats. Accompanying.

Soldiers to soldiers, king to king, these people are ambushing the officials of the beasts, while more people are hiding in the flower capital, and their targets are ordinary members of the beast pirates.

As a firework exploded in the air, it also marked the beginning of this year's celebration. There were obviously many more people on the street. There were ordinary civilians of Wano Kingdom and samurai who had mixed in.

It doesn't look any different at first, but this year's wine business has become very strange. Most of the samurai and pirates are just taking a few sips, and no drunk people have ever appeared.

Only those civilians who don't know anything are still enjoying this New Year's festival. In fact, Yamato doesn't know the details. Kaido didn't tell her and planned to let her see the cruelty of the war with her own eyes.

So she and Maria and Jack also had a good time at the New Year's Eve, and now they're fishing for goldfish, the power that grows out of thin air is easily uncontrollable.

But Yamato has adapted to his new physique in almost two months. The paper net was torn under the struggle of the goldfish. As it shattered, a different firework was also lit above the Flower Capital Palace, and the riots also occurred at this moment.

The person who originally participated in the New Year Festival suddenly pulled out his weapon and slashed at the pirates of the Beast Pirates around him, but the attack was blocked by the opponent. Before he was shocked that his sneak attack was blocked, the opponent's knife had already been cut. came back.

This kind of scene is not an exception, but happens all over the street, blood, swords, scattered goods, roars of fighting, panic shouts, children's cries, the flower capital is completely in chaos.

In terms of numbers, the Wano Nation Allied Forces have an advantage. After all, this is the team that the Yasuzuki family has recruited for several years and several trusted guards of the big name. However, the prepared Hundred Beast Pirates did not panic. Under the leadership of the cadres, they launched a counterattack one after another.

Yawa and the others haven't figured out what happened yet, but someone has already been eyeing her.

"That guy is a pirate's daughter, right?"

"That's right, I've seen her go in and out of Onishima often." Saying that, a gun was pointed at Yamato.

"Wait, that's a kid."

"So what? Isn't she a beast?"

The people recruited by the Shuangyue Kang family need to have combat power. This removes those ordinary people. Except for the credible samurai under their command, they can only recruit those gangsters who have hatred for the beasts. These people will naturally start. Also more vicious.

The people around failed to stop him, and a bullet was fired from the muzzle. Yamato didn't notice the situation here, but a lucky egg did.

"lucky!"

Although these auspicious eggs appeared early, they were mainly engaged in the work of nanny and nanny, and their level was not very high.

Defense is not in their daily use skills, so the proficiency is very low. After seeing the muzzle of Yamato, its choice is to use its body to smash Yamato.

Although it achieved its goal, the price was that the bullets fired from the muzzle hit it. Geely Egg has a very high special defense, but it is not enough in the face of physical damage such as bullets.nOVeLusB.cOM

The bullet left a hole in its chubby body, and blood flowed out of it.

"Geely Eggs!"

Seeing the auspicious egg that suddenly fell to the ground, Yamato hurriedly held down its wound, but although she had experienced battle, it was the first time she saw someone around her injured. Only then did it react to the effect of the power of Vibrant Pan.

But when she was trying to heal the auspicious egg, another row of bullets came, and the nearby enemies seemed to become more.

"lucky" was hit by a lucky egg that wanted to push Yamato away. The position where the bullet hit was a little dangerous. Now it can't stand up, but the surrounding environment has become very dangerous.

The popularity of firearms in Wano is not high, and most people have poor marksmanship. The shot just now had a blind cat killing a mouse, so the subsequent shots fell nearby.

did not cause effective damage, but it made Yamato unable to concentrate, and it was the first time she used it to heal Pokémon after getting the power of Viking.

The louder the gunshots, the more anxious she became. The more anxious she was, the less power she could use. She could feel the life of Geely Egg passing by, the past and the life of Geely Egg came to her mind, and a force was also in her body. gradually emerged.

"Get out of here!"

With Yamato as the center, a majestic breath spews out, and its scope is - the entire flower capital.

Chapter 294 The Battle Begins

Time seemed to fall into silence at this moment, and a sudden wind swept the entire flower capital with Yamato as the center.

The confetti left over when the fireworks were set off, the lanterns that fell to the ground in the chaos, the trolleys that were smashed in the battle, and countless debris rushed to the four directions with the surging airflow.

The people in the distance just felt a sudden and strange wind, and the people around Yamato felt the most obvious. Maria and Jack slumped to the ground under the impact of this force, and the rest of the auspicious eggs were the same. in this way.

Their consciousness initially fainted for a while, but because of the healing heart properties, that fainting feeling soon disappeared.

"What is this?"

The scooter in Jack's hand slipped to the ground, and they weren't just standing there foolishly. When the gunfire sounded and the scene fell into chaos, he grabbed something that could be used as a weapon at will, and even slapped a rushing one. Ronin warrior.

It's not that the big and the weak can't react in time. Vivian's power allows her to have more communication with Pokémon. Her feelings for Pokémon are far deeper than ordinary people. In her heart, it is not a pet or anything, but a friend and a friend. family.

That's why she became flustered when Ji Lidan was injured. After all, this was the first time she faced the injury of her relatives.

In the past, Arceus took her with her when she went out, which gave her a feeling of invincibility, and it was not until this time that the fragility of life emerged in her heart.

It's nature, Jack is also concerned about the condition of the auspicious eggs, but he can't cure, and can't do anything else, so he made a different choice, the spider legs of the spider-like Maria's lower body also lost strength, this is them Something that has never been experienced. oveluSb.com

But they are still awake at least because of the characteristics of auspicious eggs, and others are different.

A group of people fell down like reaping wheat. Whether it was the pirates of the Hundred Beasts Pirates or the samurai gangsters of Wano, they all lost consciousness under this shock.

is also domineering, but only the domineering of the overlord.

cannot be acquired through acquired practice. Only one person in millions of people can awaken the aptitude of a king. This is also the reason why they have not been taught in this area. Overlord's domineering is completely a rare item that depends on talent.

The reason for most people's domineering awakening is because of their high emotions, hatred for others, and concern for partners. When their emotions reach the extreme, this power will naturally flow out.

Those who are affected by the overlord's color will fall into a coma if their strength is not enough. The first-time users basically stimulate this power unconsciously, and they don't know how to control it, so the impact is irrelevant.

"The Domineering of Overlord"

The pirates who were farther away were not affected and fell into a coma. They were old people who had seen big scenes with Kaido, so they naturally understood the concept of overlordism. Although they were still immature compared to Kaido's domineering, there was no doubt that it was Domineering domineering.

"Isn't that Yamato-san? As expected of the daughter of Kaido's boss, she has inherited that talent!"

"What nonsense are you talking about at this time, go and take Miss Yamato to a safe place! Do you want to see Lord Arceus' rage?!"

The leading pirates in the vicinity are far more awake than them. The awakening of the overlord only shows Yamato's aptitude, but if something happened to her here, it would be bad.

With his reminder, the thoughts of the pirates in the vicinity became extremely clear in an instant. They gave up the fight with the enemy in front of them, and started their own breakthrough operation targeting the location of Yamato.

When there is a focus on the battlefield, it is not just one person who has a clear idea, but everyone. The goal of those samurai is to annihilate the battle, and their goal is to clear the Beast Pirates.

They don't know Yamato's identity very well, but what the pirates want to get close to must be their target. If the pirates want to do it, they have to try to stop it.

"Don't think about the past!"

"Go away!"

They were drinking together a few minutes ago, but most of the wine was spilled on the ground between the cups.

They wanted to take advantage of the pirates of the Beast Pirates when they relaxed their vigilance. Unexpectedly, these pirates were already ready.

Everything that happened in the outside world had nothing to do with Yamato. She didn't know what kind of power she used. At this time, she only knew that no one interfered with her to save Ji Lidan.

The power of Vibrant began to work, and the body of Geely Egg began to heal itself under the action of this power, the damaged tissue began to grow, and the projectile originally left in the body was squeezed out.

Although the physical resistance is as thin as paper, the vitality of the auspicious egg itself is very strong. This damage will make it weak, but it will not endanger life, not to mention other auspicious eggs are using skills to supplement its lost vitality.

For Pokémon, as long as it doesn't die on the spot, it's not a problem to save it.

Yamato then pulled the Geely Egg to a relatively safe position, and took out her Akin No. 5 from her backpack.

Always carry a weapon wherever she goes, this is what Kaido gave her, so she always has her own mace in her backpack.

"Jack, Maria, you are here to guard the auspicious eggs."

The surrounding environment is not complicated, but no matter where it is, there is a state of melee, and it is better to defend in place than to run around.

"No matter what happens, adoptive father and father will not lose. I believe they will find them soon."

"Wait, where are you going?"

"Go for revenge, I will never forgive that guy." She didn't know who shot the gun, but now it's clear that there are enemies everywhere, so everyone with guns is her target.

In addition, in Quinn's small class, she also taught them which position is more suitable for shooting. Combined with the position of the auspicious egg, she has some guesses.

"I'll leave it to you here, I believe you can do it."

There are not many enemies near them, Yamato's overlord has cleared the field again, and more people are in the melee on the outside, but no one knows if there will be fish that slip through the net.

Maria was a little worried, she felt that it was the best way for Yamato to wait here too, but Jack had already answered.

"Don't worry, no one can hurt them again."

"Um!"

In the far window, the gangster who was shooting with the gun stood up with his gun. He was far away from Yamato, so he was only briefly shocked by the shock. When he got up again, his vision had already lost his sight.

"Fuck, what the hell"

He shook his head and searched for the enemy again, but at this moment, a series of footsteps sounded in his ears.

Two updates today, something to do + Kawen

Chapter 295 The focus of the battlefield

When he looked in the direction of the footsteps, a mace was already thrown at him. The buildings in Wano are generally not high. Except for the general's palace and the residence of the daimyo, most of the buildings are on the second floor or above. Three floors.

And the old-fashioned architectural style eaves extend outward, which is a place for Yamato to borrow, and it has jumped up in a few steps.

Looking at the gun in his hand, Yamato didn't hesitate, slammed it directly at him, watching the attacking Yamato, he instinctively blocked it with the gun barrel, but whether it was a metal barrel or a wooden butt, facing Yamato's gun Crispy like a cookie bar in one hit.

With a , the gun was smashed into two pieces, and the flying debris cut a * opening on his face.

"Did you just shoot?"

Without waiting for the other party to answer, she waved Ah Jian and smashed it at the other party's head. She would ask this question when facing every enemy with a gun, but without waiting for the other party's answer, she was just firming up her reason for doing it herself.

But this time, she found the right target.

She swung a stick that hit the target and just hit the opponent's shoulder, but Kaido's bloodline plus years of training, the recently acquired super true rookie power, the newly created Ah Jian 5.0, her stick is far It's not something ordinary people can afford.

The bones of the shoulders were all shattered, and even the sternum was fractured under the transmission of power. Only part of the whole arm was left with flesh and blood, and the rest was almost smashed to pieces.

The severe pain and blood loss in his arm did not make him completely incapacitated, but aroused his ferocity.

"It's me! It's a pity that that shot didn't kill you. It actually made me dig mines for two years. You people are unforgivable. Remember, my uncle's name is"

Although he is still conscious for the time being, the injury to his shoulder is not good for him, so he made a desperate gesture, and the remaining right hand pulled out the samurai sword around his waist.

However, Yamato didn't want to hear him report his family.

"Thundering gossip!" nOvE[usb.com

Although the mace has not been wrapped with thunder and lightning, but the domineering arrogance of the armed color completely wrapped A Jian for the first time, the mace hit his chest, and after a muffled sound, his chest collapsed. , the whole person also flew out.

"I don't want to know the name of the person who hurt my family."

Looking at the unworthy people who flew out backwards, Yamato ran towards the place where the other pirates and samurai fought, and it is far from being truly safe not to kill those people.

In order to rush to her destination as soon as possible, she chose to jump directly on the eaves. In the process, she also saw many people who fainted in the room.

Those are the commoners who live in the Flower Capital. Although a large number of ordinary people have been expelled from the Flower Capital under the operation of Orochi, there are still many ordinary people in the Flower Capital, but their family background is slightly better.

In the face of this sudden war, they instinctively chose to hide at home, and then passed out because of the influence of Yamato's domineering arrogance. Yamato didn't care about them, she knew very well that her ability could not take care of everyone.

Do as much as you can. This is what Arceus taught her. Although it is selfish in the eyes of some saints, for individuals, this is the best result.

In the periphery, the battle between samurai and pirates is still going on. Most of these pirates are in their thirties and forties, and many of them were young when they joined the beasts. They experienced the rise of the beasts.

participated in the initial turf battle, the artillery battle with the Wald Pirates, and the hegemony with the Golden Lion Remnants. They survived and grew up in the battle and became the elite among the pirates.

Although the number of people is slightly smaller, they have all experienced big scenes, and the alliance of samurai and gangsters has an advantage in numbers. The samurai and pirates can still fight back and forth, but most of those gangsters are like cannon fodder. .

Although they have a fierceness, their significance is not great.

The leader of these samurai coalition forces is a confidant of the Shimotsuki Yasushi family, who is responsible for commanding the coalition forces in this area. As the battle begins, he also finds some problems, and these pirates seem to be well prepared.

"Stop those people! Plug the gap over there, and you guys will lead someone to arrest those children, it should be Kaido's daughter!"

While commanded, he also cut down a pirate in front of him. Unlike those samurai with conventional swords, his weapon was a naginata, which was more effective on this battlefield.

But when he was about to continue his attack, someone blocked his attack.

"Get out of the way, I won't fight with women!"

Looking at the female pirate in front of him, his mouth was full of contempt, but in the next moment he paid the price for his contempt.

Two green leaf blades popped out of her elbows, directly slashing the Naginata in his hand into two pieces, and then the power of the blade blade continued, leaving a cross wound on his armor.

"Follow me! Break through from here!"

"The Giver is here! Concentrate your firepower!"

Those gift givers were originally scattered all over the flower capital to fill the vacancies of ordinary pirates, but when the news spread here, the nearby givers were all approaching here, and Yamato became a palace for a while. outside the second focus.

The identity of Yamato has also been gradually spread out. The samurai alliance wants to capture Kaido's daughter, and these pirates are going to protect the eldest lady of their own pirate group.

However, an accident soon occurred at the defense line. Yamato did not dodge and escape like the samurai thought, but rushed towards the battle.

"Thunder. Gossip!"

The two warriors were kicked out by her again. At this moment, she realized what kind of thing Arceus gave her. Even if she didn't do anything, her physical strength was gradually recovering, and it was more than one grade higher than before.

Ordinary samurai couldn't stop her at all, so she broke through to the periphery in a centrally blooming posture.

"Miss Yamato!"

"You guys, are you drinking too much? You actually let Miss Yamato rush to this place by herself. Although you are not a cadre, can't you even deal with these miscellaneous soldiers?! Those who have the backbone, just rush with me!"

The pirates who saw Yamato's figure had a high fighting spirit, and the giver headed by them even started a frantic game of swapping injuries for injuries.

Then the pirates used the giver as a blade and tore a big hole in the direction of the warrior alliance. Although there were fewer people, they achieved a counter-encirclement.

"Boom!"

The sky was shrouded in dark clouds at some point, and a tinge of crimson on the horizon attracted the attention of many people. At this time, Kaido had already transformed into a blue dragon, and his huge body was soaring in the clouds.

"Ugh! It's a war this time!"

Kaido's wild laughter spread almost all over the flower capital, and then a breath of heat spewed down from his mouth.

Chapter 296 Kaido's literary cells noVELUsB.COM

Not long ago, in the palace of the Flower City, headed by the black charcoal Orochi and Kaido, the members of the Wano country and the Beast Pirates lived on both sides of the palace, and now the nominal general of the Wano country is still black. Charcoal Serpent.

Beneath him are five tables, with Bai Wu's name Shuangyue Yasushi, Linghou's name Shuangyue Niuwan, Ximei's name Fengyue Yujie, and Rabbit Bowl's name Yuyue Tempura sitting below in turn.

And the last table was empty. Although there were dishes, there was no one on the seat, not even a waiter, which should have been the seat of the Nine Miles.

But now the daimyo of Kuri of Wano country is Kozuki Oden. At this time, he is in the room of the palace of the flower capital, and some retainers are disguised as drama actors.

The commoners in the Flower City are not clear about the details, and the ordinary people in the palace are also not clear. When the eye contact between the black charcoal Orochi and the generals such as Shuangyue Yasaka, the kitchen is also busy.

"The grand celebration that takes place once in a hundred years requires a feast that lives up to the general's name."

There are hundreds of dishes on the long table in front of , but there are not many things in each, the traditional style of Wano country.

"The soup made of fungus and chrysanthemum, egg tofu in a flat plate, and carved lotus root, plus vinegar pickled vegetables. Today is the ultimate in my cooking skills."

The chef carefully inspects the dishes, these are his painstaking efforts.

"Okay, then you only need to do three drug tests."

He is waiting for a special person to test the poison. The cooking presented to the generals and the daimyo must be careful. This is also the rule here, but the people next to him took those things directly.

"Hey! Those things haven't been tested yet! Where did you come from? Do you understand the rules!"

"This is the order of Lord Orochi, you don't need to worry about the rest."

Fu Lu Shou appeared on the side and shouted to stop the chef who was going to be tested for poison. He already got this banquet venue. What kind of poison is still being tested, he still has to poison it specially.

However, the purpose of poisoning is not to deal with Kaido alone. Except for his own share, all the food has been put into toxin. He hopes to take this opportunity to make these daimyo disappear with Kaido. something he needs.

As for how Wano country deals with foreign enemies, it has nothing to do with him, which is why he specially arranged for other people to come here.

"Orochi, if this is what you call a celebration, it might not be too boring."

Kaido wants to see what the big snake can do. Cats catch mice and play with their prey. When excited, he often does some weird things.

But now everything makes him feel very bored. Most pirates don't like the traditional way of eating in Wano. Eating more than a dozen dishes is just a pad for them. If this is the plan of the snake, then he There is no need to wait.

There is no need to watch fireworks in this place. There are many special fireworks in Onishima's inventory.

"Don't worry about Kaido, the show will always come little by little. Since you can't wait, let's watch today's finale, wait a minute.

The fool who dances every day will also present a show for you today. "

The big snake gestured to some people around him, a moving stage was pushed to the center, and the figures were shaking under the curtain. With the sound of playing the shamisen, the curtain at the venue was slowly opened.

There are actors dedicated to Orochi. At this time, they have arranged a new program, and Kozuki Oden and some retainers are also in it. The thick oil masks and costumes hide their original identities.

Although the people here are generally face-blind, in this case, even a non-face-blind person would not be able to recognize them.

Some people can't appreciate drama at all, such as Arceus, he is not interested in those things at all, but Kaido is different, although he looks big and three rough, but he is very interested in it, and even integrates some drama things into the sea of beasts The daily life of the thieves.

For example, the three disasters are called the big kanban, and the ordinary cadres are called real strikes. Currently, the part with the stronger real strikes is called Fei Liubao.

It can be seen that Kaido himself has a hobby for local dramas, but the types of dramas are fixed, there are only a few famous dramas, and it is very time-consuming to arrange new dramas.

No matter how much you get used to watching the same drama, it will be boring, so the new drama Orochi has aroused a certain interest in Kaido. Rotom didn't monitor this kind of thing. The rehearsal of the drama is obviously not in them. within the monitoring range.

The music continues, and as the music enters a high stage, the drama on the stage also changes, and the enemy in the drama has appeared, that is an evil general in the armor of a dragon.

He has always shown an invincible attitude, but in the end he was betrayed by his cronies, a strange character who has endured humiliation for many years just to regain his homeland from the mouth of the dragon.

As it was hit in the play, a lot of blood-colored petals and cloaks were thrown out. According to Orochi's plan, Oden should take advantage of the situation and attack Kaido at this time. After all, he was among the actors on stage.

But at a critical moment, someone did not follow the script.

He waited for a long time, but Kozuki Oden didn't appear.

"Well, big snake, your play is so interesting, but it's not very good, so what's the name of this play?"

"This. The name has not been decided yet, it's just come out, why don't you come up with a name?"

At the beginning, it was for sneak attack, so he didn't have the time to think about the name, so he advised Kaido to taste the food on the table. Kaido only drank and did not eat, and he drank the wine he brought, which made his The poisoning plan failed directly.

Those big names did not eat anything, only Quinn and Elizabeth ate what was on the table indifferently.

But before he could say a few perfunctory words, a voice came from the stage.

"The name of this scene is Dragon Slaying, Kaido, if you don't leave Wano Country, then this is your future end!"

Kozuki Oden appeared, but instead of attacking as the Black Charcoal Orochi had expected, he stood up brightly.

Although the black charcoal serpent told Kozuki Oden a lot, Oden himself had eyes. He saw the changes in Wano Kingdom. At this time, Kaido did not do anything evil to Wano Kingdom, and even promoted the situation here. develop.

So he hopes that Kaido can take the initiative to leave Wano Country, that is the best result, and his operation also makes the black carbon snake look stupid. At this time, he can't understand the people of the Kozuki family at all.

Chapter 297 Naive like a fool

Although he made Kozuki Oden dance just to delay time, if the situation was not getting worse, he could continue to fool the other party into dancing.

But the problem is that Kozuki Oden's behavior can also be called "bearing humiliation", but he chose to persuade the other party to leave after the results he had achieved over the years? This initial effort was in vain.

But the problem is that Kozuki Oden also has his own understanding. If it is Kozuki Oden who has not yet gone to sea, then he will indeed choose to fight desperately, and even these few years will not be wasted.

But he has changed a lot after going to sea. He is no longer the ruthless man who cooks Oden on the ashes of others. Although his strength has been enhanced, it also makes him more indecisive.

Ximei's grass, pastures, the smiles on the residents' faces, the assistance brought by the Pokémon Center, and the previous scene of the Jenny Turtle fire brigade lingering in his mind, so he didn't write it according to the script come.

Hearing Oden's words, Kaido suddenly felt that this boring meeting place was different. This kind of innocent guy can't be met anywhere.

"Guru~Guru~"

He drank nearly half of the wine gourd around his waist, and then he took out a mace from somewhere and slammed it in front of him.

"Well, is that evil dragon me? So, that humiliating clown is a big snake? You really can put gold on your face.

Kozuki Oden, right, do you just believe what the black charcoal snake says? Even danced like a fool for so many years? Your father died at his hands. "

Although Kozuki Sukiyaki is now imprisoned in a secret room by Orochi, Kaido doesn't know this, and he doesn't think the living ex-general has any meaning.

Hearing Kaido's remarks, both Koyuki Oden and Black Charcoal Orochi's expressions changed, but Orochi changed more.

"Lord Oida! That guy is talking nonsense! He must have found something to provoke us, don't believe it!"

He couldn't deal with one, let alone two. At this time, he could already feel the murderous aura from the daimyo.

Obviously the script he wrote was a * battle between the daimyo of Wano and the Beast Pirates. Now it seems that they have to clean up themselves. For this reason, it is impossible for Kaido to trust him, so he can rely on it. Only Kozuki Oden.

However, Kaido didn't intend to give him another chance to talk nonsense. He swung a King Kong and Dysprosium towards the big snake, but was still blocked by the barrier fruit of the black charcoal Chanmaru.

"Tsk, troublesome fruit ability."

"That guy is nothing but a piece of shit. If we just drive him out, any of us can do it, but Kaido, your force is what we have to be careful about."

Shuangyue Yasushi's family has already drawn their own swords, they were preparing for a decisive battle, and temporarily changing the script will not affect the continuation.

"Kaido, Wano country is not the place to be. We want to start a country and welcome Joey Boy. He will definitely come here one day in the future, so you must leave here."

"I won't go anywhere. It's because this is Wano country that I come here, Kozuki Oden, put away your stupid innocence."

Kaido stood up slowly, but the black charcoal snake pressed a few buttons in his hand, the fireworks in the sky seemed to change color, and then there was the sound of guns.

He was really afraid of any agreement between Kaido and Kozuki Oden, so he triggered the chaos below in advance.

"Oda-sama! The direction of Oden Castle is on fire!"

You can see the taller buildings in other townships from the flower, such as Oden Castle, now the burning Oden Castle is very conspicuous.

That was also one of the plans of the Black Charcoal Orochi.

Now it seems that Kaido is impossible to rely on, even if they are different, he has to let Oden win, otherwise his end will be very miserable.

So when he gave the signal to start the war, he also sent an order to his undercover agent. The retainers of Oden were divided into two groups. A group of people followed him here, and the rest were to protect the Guangyue and them.

That is the biggest weakness of Kozuki Oden today, and it is also the best way to motivate him to act.nOvelusb.cOm

To be precise, not only Oden Castle, but the entire Wano Kingdom seems to be in chaos. The ultimate purpose of the Black Charcoal Orochi has not been revealed. They do not know that the Black Charcoal Orochi wants to destroy the Wano Kingdom.

In the eyes of ordinary Wano people, Orochi is most greedy for power, so this matter is regarded as something done by the Hundred Beast Pirates.

The sound of war outside gradually spread into it, and some maids accidentally dropped the plates in their hands, which almost became a signal for war.

Otian hasn't started yet, but some people can't help it.

"and many more!"

"Kaido, die! Foxfire Flow · Fire Willow Flash!"

Followed Oden and came here. Kinemon's sword ignited a flame, and rushed towards Kaido, but Kaido didn't look at him at all, and he used eight fasting vows with one hand to knock him out.

People in the Palace of Flower Capital also began to flee, especially the black charcoal snake, who shouted to let the people of Yuting Fanzhong help eliminate the Beast Pirates, but they ran farther and farther under the cover of the barrier fruit. .

"Kaido, handle it yourself here, some guys are dying."

"I also want to tell you not to interfere with me, these guys should be able to bring a lot of fun."

Arceus walked in the direction where the black charcoal serpent fled. As for those who tried to stop him, he turned a blind eye to it, and someone had cleared a way for him.

Kozuki Oden finally took out his weapon under the coercion of the war situation.

One white and one purple, both belong to the 21st job of the big quick knife, Tian Yu Yu Zhan, who claims to be able to slash the sky, and Yan Mo, who conquers hell, have shown their edge again after being sealed for a few years, but there are people who are more impulsive than Guangyue Yutian .

"Kaido, you hurt my retainer"

Looking at Kinemon who was kicked away by Kaido, Kozuki Oden's expression became unsightly.

"Is that kind of person who doesn't understand the situation actually your retainer? That's really bad."

As he was talking, Kaido felt that he was slapped in the face, because Quinn's huge body suddenly flew upside down and crashed into them.

And a special aura also spread here, although it didn't have an impact, both Kaido and Kozuki Oden knew that it was an aura that belonged to an overlord.

"Just awakened the overlord color? Is it Yamato? This girl is really good."

He wasn't sure if this was Yamato's overlord color, after all, the distance was a bit far, but that didn't stop him from getting excited, and he turned into a giant dragon and directly burst through the roof here.

"The venue is too small, come out Oden, the war has begun!"

Chapter 298 Shocked Kozuki Oden

"Ugh, this is war!"

The fire of war made Kaido surprisingly excited, and a burst of heat spit out directly at the palace below. Although his own cadres were also inside, he thought they were capable of dealing with the aftermath.

However, Kaido's attack did not burn down the entire palace, because Oden made a counterattack. Although he said that the sea queen was a lot naive, he was also the top three powerhouse in Wano country at this time.

"Otian Two Swords, Bishe Mu!"

Yan Mo and Tian Yuyu seemed to be entwined with water currents, cutting Kaido's heat breath directly into two halves. Although he couldn't fly, he relied on his own jumping power to come directly into the air.

"Kaido, are you really unwilling to leave here on your own initiative?"

"When are you still saying this stupid thing, is this what you learned from Roger and Newgate?"

Those were the people he had come into contact with in the Rocks era. He admitted that Roger and Whitebeard were both strong, but also thought they were naive, but now it seems that Kozuki Oden is no worse than them.

"Then there is no way.." Oden's arms were wrapped in a strong domineering, and Yan Mo and Tian Yu Yuzhan were also wrapped in a strong domineering. Although Yan Mo has become a black knife, it still does not affect this. After all, Yan Mo itself has great demands on users.

This sword will unleash the user's domineering armament without authorization. Although it can exert a very powerful force, if it is not skilled, it will chop off excess parts, causing its domineering to be drained.

And the release of domineering also requires physical strength, the result of this is to die after exhaustion. As a famous sword built by Kozaburō Shimotsuki before he left Wano, Kozuki Oden was the only one who tamed this sword. NovelS&CoM

At the same time that Kozuki Oden and Kaido started to fight, Quinn also got up from the ground.

"Damn bastard, someone actually poisoned me."

He does have a self-made detoxification mechanism in his body, but the transforming person has a disadvantage, that is, there is a certain chance that the equipment of the mechanical transformation will have problems. kicked out.

His opponent is Nozomi Kazuki Yukie, a relatively squat samurai, and the daimyo of Wano country are not weak, although the Shuangyue Yasushi family is inferior in terms of force, but the remaining three are senior swordsmen.

Chopping iron is the basics for them. Looking at the manipulator who has almost been cut off, Quinn's expression is not very good-looking. Of course, there is another reason for the sound of running.

"You, this * will only hold you back."

"Don't say that, it's amazing to be able to catch someone else's kick, after all, it's Lord Quinn~."

Since Quinn gradually developed resistance to Shaina's foul language, Shaina has learned a new thing, yin and yang, and she found that it caused more damage to Quinn.

". Stop looking down on people!" Under the attack of his own people's words, Quinn entered the human-beast form, and the equipment he transformed was full of firepower, and re-attacked towards Fengyue Yukie.

In the sky, the battle between Kaido and Kozuki Oden has just begun, and Kaido is still in the form of a giant dragon.

For those with animal abilities, the human-beast form is the strongest posture. Unless it is facing certain specific goals, both the beast form and the human form have a meaning of contempt.

"I didn't expect you to dance for so many years. I thought you would stop dancing after a few days, but I didn't expect you to persevere. Do you actually think I would despise you for this kind of thing?"

"Was it discovered from the beginning.."

"Yes, if this were another country, we would have already completed our rule, but unfortunately this is the country of Wano. Those people have a fascination with you people from the Guangyue family. Thank you for ruining your reputation. ."

"It seems that today is the decisive battle."

He didn't think the other party would be kind enough to explain this to him, saying this was probably just to shake his heart.

"That's right, the dead Kozuki Oden is the best Kozuki Oden, but don't worry, this guilt will be handed over to the Black Charcoal Orochi, and then you will be able to avenge your father's death."

Several wind blades were spit out by Kaido towards Oden, which offset each other with the flying slashes he swung.

"I have another question, why don't you choose the reign of terror, with the name of the big snake and your force, there's no need to be gentle, right?"

"I don't like this kind of thing, it's just that other people like it. Anyway, I don't bother to worry about it, and it's better this way, so I'll just listen to him, Kozuki Oden, since you've been dancing for five years, then I'll let him too. Look at other dances."

Said Kaido's huge body began to twist, the body of the blue dragon was looming in the clouds, and the new skill after finding the dragon's slate - dragon dance.

The strength of the dragon-type elves has a lot to do with the dragon dance. The exception is a certain earth dragon who can't dance the dragon dance. The one who can't dance the dragon dance is also powerful enough.

Compared to Sword Dance, which increases its attack alone, Dragon Dance's attack strength is slightly lower, but it also increases speed.

After Dragon Dance, Kaido didn't seem to have changed much, but the sight of Kozuki Oden conveyed a dangerous aura to him.

Then Kaido's huge body rushed towards him at an incredible speed. After getting the Dragon Tablet, it was naturally Arceus himself who benefited the most, and then Kaido.

Although he has not been transformed, the power consumption of Pokemon is slightly larger, but his physical strength is nothing at all, and the reason why he has not been transformed is because there are certain differences between divine beasts and ordinary Pokemon.

But it doesn't matter, the dragon skills have improved Kaido's strength by more than one grade, the right paw is shining with turquoise light, and the dragon's claw has been grabbed towards Koyuki Oden.

"Dragon Claw!"

Kozuki Oden did not expect that after the so-called dance, Kaido's speed was directly improved by a notch. Facing the sudden giant claws, he only had time to set up his two swords, and then he was hit to the ground.

A deep ravine was left on the ground under the huge impact, and Oden paid more attention to Kaido. This was probably the strongest enemy he had ever encountered in his life.

Kaido in the sky swooped towards the ground, and Kozuki Oden was not weak either, his swords were slightly retracted, and he swung towards Kaido in the sky in a slashing posture.

"Oda Two Swords, Taoyuan Shirataki!"

Kozuki Oden's arms exploded with unimaginable astonishing power, Kaido's claws swung from top to bottom were bounced off by Oden, and he still had enough power to slash at Kaido's body, but in the end his blade was hit by a punch. A transparent barrier blocks

Discussion topic: What do you think is the difference between Jianhao and Dajianhao

Chapter 299 The Death of Oden

"what!"

The transparent barrier surprised Koyuki Oden. He had already seen the ability of the barrier fruit beside the black charcoal orochi. It was obvious that the person with the ability to block the fruit was the old man next to the snake, but they couldn't help Kaido at this time.

It's not that he has never been to the sea, there is no identical devil fruit, only one of the same kind of fruit will appear at a time.

Although some fruits have similar abilities, Kaido has already determined that he is an animal-type ability person, and it is impossible to eat another fruit similar to the barrier fruit.

The opportunity to fight was fleeting. At this moment when Oden hesitated, Kaido's other dragon claw had already been photographed, and Kozuki Oden climbed out of the ruins below, with tenacious vitality comparable to ordinary animal abilities.

"Are the abilities of phantom beasts so diverse? They can even use barriers?"

"Then you don't need to know, I'm not your answering machine." He was not interested in explaining to Kozuki Oden what defense was, but just started a new attack.

As time goes by, the battle here intensifies, the trees that originally carried the Palace of Flower Capital have collapsed, and the surrounding area has been completely emptied.

Kozuki Oden's attack did not stop, but it didn't have any effect on Kaido. Instead, the scars on his body gradually increased. Although his vitality is tenacious, it is not a wise choice to compete for a long time with those with animal abilities.

This is the only person Kaido has encountered in the past few years who can attack his beast form a few times and still fight. As time goes by, the surrounding battlefield intensifies, and there is an explosion in the direction of Oden Castle. .

Looking at Kaido, who had almost no scars on his body, Kozuki Oden took a deep breath, mobilizing the domineering within his body to the greatest extent possible.

Attacks like Kaido's heat are of little significance to Kozuki Oden, after all, melee combat is what he is best at.

"Kaido, if it were you, would you choose to start a country to welcome Joey Boy?"

During the interval of the battle, Kozuki Oden suddenly asked Kaido a question and mentioned Joey Boy again.

"I'm not interested in that Joey Boy, and I don't believe in the so-called prophecy. If there is such a Joey Boy, at least it must be the guy who beat me!"

"That's it, you still have to be expelled. After all, the country of Wano needs to be founded."

"If you can do it, just try it."

"Oda Two Swords."

His muscles seemed to swell a few times. At this time, Kozuki Oden was brewing his powerful blow, and Kaido in the sky swooped down again.

"Ten Fist of Taoyuan!"

Yan Mo and Tian Yu Yu Zhan crossed into a cross and slashed towards Kaido. Like the previous Taoyuan Shirataki, his attack only slashed on the barrier that Kaido was holding on to, but this time Kaido's barrier was broken.

There is an upper limit to the endurance of defending. Kozuki Oden's full-strength strike achieved this effect, but that was only the case. His subsequent attack, which was slashed and defended, was taken over by Kaido's mace.

At the moment of holding on to the broken, Kaido's figure began to shrink, transforming from the original beast form to the human-beast form, which is his strongest fighting stance.

"Well, it's very good, you are the first person to break my defense in these years, Kozuki Oden, you are an interesting opponent, and you are qualified to see my posture."

A ferocious aura emanated from Kaido, and the eight fists in his hand were wrapped with a strong domineering domineering. Compared with him who simply used the stance of a blue dragon, the battle power he could explode at this time was much stronger.

But just when he was about to swing the bat, a shout came from the side.

"Father! Help me!"

The samurai under the black charcoal Orochi was holding Yamato in his hands. At this time, Yamato was shouting to Kaido for help, but Kaido just glanced at the corner of the eye, and didn't take it seriously at all, and turned to Koyuki Oden. .

"The spoiler, hey, from the Kozuki family, Arceus likes the current Wano country environment, and you don't want the aftermath of the battle between you and me to ruin the entire Flower City, it's good to decide the outcome with one move. "

"You are really ruthless, don't you even care about your own daughter?"

"You won't understand that kind of thing."

The thunder and lightning resounded on Kaido's mace, and a much stronger domineering than before was wrapped around it, and the thunder in the clouds in the sky seemed to be guided by Kaido.

Kaido is surrounded by his sword-shaped phantom. Dragon Dance and Sword Dance have their own advantages, but Kaido has mastered Sword Dance for much longer than Dragon Dance, so he is naturally more proficient.

"Thundering gossip!"

Invariably unchanged, Kaido still chose to use thunder and gossip as his final blow. Looking at Kaido Kozuki Oden who was approaching, he lost Tian Yu Yu Zhan and held both hands on Yan Mo's hilt.

"Oda Ichito-style Harmony!"

Holding the sword in both hands, he launched the strongest single attack, Yan Mo's black blade and Ba Zhaijie touched together, and the thunder and domineering burst into fierce sparks, but with the blessing of Kaido's double dance, Koyue Oden did not Not Kaido's opponent.

There was a roar, the world seemed to fall into silence, Yan Mo inserted into the ground in the ruins, and Kaido dragon claws also stepped on the body of Koyuki Oden.

"Cough cough. You lost, you are really strong"

"You're not weak, but you're still a lot worse than those monsters." 01eiusb.com

". Is that right, hey, Kaido, you're going to make Wano Country better, right?"

"You are a warrior, but also a fool to ask such a question to the enemy."

"The Orochi guy is not suitable to lead the country of Wano, but Kaido, open the country to welcome Joey Boy, this is what the country of Wano should do."

"If this is your last words, then it's stupid. If there is any so-called Joey Boy, I'll knock him down."

Kozuki Oden did not speak again, and Kaido also raised his eight fists.

"You deserve to die like a warrior."

Hachisaijie waved down and smashed at the head of Kozuki Oden.

"Shi, Momoko, Hiyori, everyone, I'm sorry, I can't lose to Kaido, have you ever thought that maybe you are the so-called Joey Boy."

This was his last thought, but he didn't say it, and he didn't mean to say it. With worries and worries about the future of Wano Kingdom, Oden's consciousness completely stopped at this moment.

Kaido also walked aside and grabbed Yamato on the ground.

The aftermath of the clash between Kaido and Kozuki Oden just now caused the samurai who was holding Yamato to be stunned.

Although the battle has ended, Kaido has not released his dragon form, which made Yamato in his hand a little scared, so he said tremblingly:

"Father, congratulations on your victory."

Hearing Yamato's congratulations, Kaido didn't have the slightest expression of joy. He could still see the smile on the corner of his mouth when he was fighting with Oden, but at this moment his expression had completely collapsed. He squeezed his big hand hard, and Yamato in his hand spit out a mouthful of blood.

"Wow! Father, it hurts! What are you doing!"

"Stop pretending, Lao Tzu's daughter will never beg for mercy under the threat of the enemy, nor will she be caught by that kind of person, nor will she be afraid of me at this time."

she said with another force, and the person in her hand gradually changed into the appearance of Black Charcoal Twilight. The order she received was to disrupt the battle.

Seeing that Kozuki Oden was at a disadvantage, she wanted to use this method to interfere with Kaido, but she didn't expect that it would have no effect at all.

"Kaido. You really are ruthless, aren't you afraid of me?"

"First of all, you can't be real. If you are real, a cowardly daughter who has gone through so much is still dead, and such a person is not worthy of the teaching of the two of us.

If you die outside in the future, it's better to give it up early while the time is short, and it will make people sad when the time comes. "

With a crunch and a scream, Kaido ended the life of Black Charcoal Twilight with one hand. Whether or not she pretended to be Yamato, it was just unforgivable for interfering with his battle.

Chapter 300 Three Disasters

A generation of imitators who imitated the fruit died in the hands of Kaido like this. Although imitating the fruit could not bring about the strengthening of combat power, its ability also allowed the black charcoal twilight to help the black charcoal Orochi a lot.

For example, pretending to be the identity of Koyuki Sukiyaki makes the black charcoal snake get an orthodox name, if it is not because of the black charcoal twilight cicada, it is not so easy for the black charcoal snake to enter the power center.

But the imitation fruit has a drawback. Although the imitation fruit can store the object of imitation, the premise is that she has had contact with the other party. She has no way to imitate the change with the person who has not contacted.

She can become Yamato because she had contact with Yamato in the past, which is not difficult. Kaido did not imprison Yamato in a certain place, the Taoyuan farm in Jiuli, Ximei's wind fairy living area, and even Linghou's cemetery. See Yamato's figure.

As long as she doesn't use the ghost image of a candle on her head, it is not difficult to have some physical contact with Yamato, and she naturally has the ability to transform into Yamato.

Guangyue Yutian had already died in battle. Kaido had no plans to destroy his body, but just picked up Yan Mo and Tian Yuyu and walked to the side. It was strange that the size of these two knives in his hand was not so abrupt, even seems a bit handy.

The aftermath of the battle between Kozuki Oden and Kaido made ordinary people not dare to approach at all. Some powerful people also have their own opponents. Except for the black charcoal twilight who approached to achieve their goals, there is no one else nearby.

Looking at the collapsed Palace of Flowers, Kaido drank the remaining wine in his gourd in one go.

"Oden is dead... hiccup~ I'm getting bored again. Sure enough, the pleasure brought by the end of the drama is only for a brief moment?"

stepped on the ruins of Kaido and walked towards the still burning palace. If it weren't for the existence of Kozuki Oden, he really meant to recruit the other party.

However, it is impossible for people like Kozuki Oden to choose to surrender, and the future Wano country does not need such a powerful symbol of force, so he chose to destroy the other party, and for the remaining daimyo, he felt that he could also recruit test try.

At the same time, you can also see the battle results of your own officers.

The battle in the palace is not over yet. The daimyo and the officials of the Hundred Beasts Pirates are fighting together. Although these daimyo are not as good as Kozuki Oden, they are also powerful swordsmen. Not difficult.

It's just that the battle here has just stopped for a short time, because the movement of the battle outside stopped, whether it was Kaido's roar or the sound of Oden's sword energy disappeared at this moment.

After waiting for a long time, there is no new collision, which can only mean one thing, the battle between Kaido and Kozuki Oden is over.

The end of the high-end combat power battle is very terrifying for the pressure on the lower-level combat power. Whether it is Kozuki Oden or Kaido, once such a monster is freed, it will cause a crushing situation to others.

It is not uncommon to have one enemy and one army in this world where monsters are rampant. People on either side are very concerned about the outcome of the battle, and at the same time they are full of confidence.

The people of Hundred Beasts do not believe that Kaido will lose, and the people of Wano Kingdom do not believe that Kozuki Oden will lose.

The increase in Kaido's combat power is obvious to all. These cadres are veterans who joined the beasts when they were in the boat. Although Kozuki Oden has a bad reputation in the past, no matter what he does, it is based on his own strength. of.

"Mahhahaha, don't think about it, the winner must be Big Brother Kai!"

The braids on Quinn's head were waving in the air as if consciously, and there was an additional mechanical claw at the front, as was the tail. At this time, he had entered the full-on mode.

Seed machine guns, energy balls, flying blade knives, flame rays, whether it is the ability that Arceus brought him or the scientific research results of his self-transformation, all of them have been brought into full play at this moment. The burning of the Palace of Flowers has a lot to do with him.

The cadres of the beasts have their own areas of expertise. The tropical dragon transformed on the basis of Brachiosaurus has extremely strong hand-to-hand combat ability, and the huge tonnage is an insurmountable gap for most people.

However, in terms of his own ability, reloading the turret is also very suitable for his fighting style. Except for the initial kick, it is difficult for Fengyue Yukie to get close to Quinn, and his firepower forms a firepower network that is difficult to break through.

And after a short pause, his sunshine flame finally finished charging.

"You guys who are in seclusion can't understand at all, what kind of monster is Kaito, who is strengthened by Big Brother Arceus!"

The flames of the sun were released, and even the palace of the Flower City was blasted with a huge hole.

Compared to Quinn's bombardment, the battle at Jhin's place is not the same. In the form of a human beast, he compares with Shimonyuki Uyumaru in swordsmanship.

However, for Shuangyue Niuwan, this is not a battle between swordsmen. In the battle just now, Jhin's weapon suddenly changed shape, and a row of shark-tooth-like grooves appeared on the back of the blade. This design is specially designed To restrain other sword-wielding people.

"A clever weapon, a sword without a heart, you are not a swordsman at all."

randomly swung a flying slash, but Jhin didn't respond to it.

"Both swords or guns, they are just weapons, just means of strengthening and killing, and you are a perfect whetstone."

At present, no one in the Beast Pirates is good at swordsmanship. Most of them are physical fighting mixed with the ability of Pokémon. Jhin's swordsmanship is completely derived from the purpose of killing in the battle of life and death.noveluSb.com

His flying slashes were also learned from Kaido's King Kong Dynamite with the increase in strength. They are all long-range attacks with weapons, which are essentially the same thing.

These daimyo came from a family of samurai, and the swordsmanship they learned was also top-notch in Wano Kingdom. Although Jhin didn't care about being called a swordsman or something, it didn't mean that he didn't want to continue to become stronger.

Beasts as a whole are an introverted private company. Only if they are strong enough can they do more things. Even if he is already a big Kanban second only to Kaido and Arceus, he still cannot get rid of the influence of this introversion.

In order not to be surpassed, he has to continue to become stronger. Shiromue Niumaru's swordsmanship is also the top echelon in Wano Kingdom. Jin hopes that he can achieve good results in this battle.

Zeraora and Shaina were not here at this time. Soon after the battle started, they determined that they were not needed on the battlefield here, and the two went to help Arceus clean up the trash.

Although cleaning up those people is an effort, but in their opinion, those people are not worth Arceus's hands at all.

Compared to the battle between Jhin and Quinn, the battle between Olga and Elizabeth seemed very fishy, showing the characteristics of playing ape.
