

Arceus 371

Chapter 371 Looking at the girls in front of him, Jack fell into contemplation

The bounty of a dead man in Priert has skyrocketed again, and even directly reached 1 billion Bailey, and there is a hard requirement that he must be caught alive, and many people were excited about it for a while.

Even the BIG·MOM Pirates and the Whitebeard Pirates have the idea of catching this guy in exchange for a bounty. That is a way for the big pirates to deal with the defeated pirates. As long as they find a middleman, they can also get it from the Navy. Get the bounty there.

The incident of the robbery of the Tianlong people was also made a front-page headline by Morgans. Compared with this news, the incident on the slave ship became insignificant.

Olga took a while to understand the concept of the Nine Snakes. It seems to be a problem of the growing environment. According to the parenting concept proposed by the beasts, children at this stage are taught step by step.

After all, there are a lot of children now, and they want to cultivate a new generation of beasts, not a group of problem children, so parenting and youth education have become the top priority.

In view of this idea, she didn't make it clear to the other party immediately, but chose to get in touch with the other party bit by bit, and popularized the conventional concepts of the outside world to her.

When approached the ghost island, she saw a thousand-year-old dragon flying over the sky, carrying all kinds of things on her back. She and Zeraora returned to the ghost island almost at the same time as she was traveling.

After the ship returned to port, the affairs of the ship were temporarily handed over to Elizabeth, and she trusted Elizabeth more than the average person trusted the deputy.

"Well, well done Olga, so she looks like a pirate."

Kaido has returned from the waves outside not long ago, and he had no manpower to mobilize in the Navy Headquarters, thanks to him.

Priort died in his hands, and Olga's purpose of going out was also related to those fruits, so the information in the newspaper has fully explained that Olga did this.

said, and threw the wine gourd in her hand towards Olga. Looking at the wine gourd that was taller than herself, Olga opened her arms before barely catching it.

"Captain! This kind of thing is very dangerous, you know!"

"Well, you dare to rob the Tianlong people, are you still afraid of this? Do you want to drink some wine, this is a rare treasure."

Looking at Kaido's appearance, Olga had already determined that he drank too much. No wonder he didn't see ordinary pirates on the upper and lower floors when he came in. I guess they all hid.

It's not wise to report information to such Kaido, he can't remember at all, when she was thinking about what to do next, Arceus appeared, followed by Zeraora with Perona. and Moment.

"Master Arceus, the captain he..."

"Drink too much, don't worry about him, Naiqin tried to brew some wine with tree fruit, and this guy drank it right away."noVelusB.com

Before he could finish speaking, Olga saw that Kaido had already started to sleep soundly.

To be precise, it is not wine, but medicinal wine. Naiqin tried some tree fruits and herbs, and accidentally came up with some powerful sleeping pills, and he can also indirectly play drunkenness. Kaido's physique is excellent.

"Can you bring back a child when you travel?"

"This child's name is Perona, a superhuman fruit capable person, a ghost who can make people negative, so we brought her back."

Because Perona couldn't control her abilities at the beginning, she was always with her for an instant. When she found out that the other party's identity was not a disguised werewolf, but a real "wolfman", instead of being afraid, she was very excited.

The country where she was born is a gothic style, and she grew up in a very special environment, so she has always liked this kind of things, especially furry things.

Especially after she sewed the toy bear for her in an instant, she almost treated him as her biological mother.

"Okay, little guy, do you want to eat jerky?"

She hadn't seen meat for almost two hundred years. Olga had a special obsession with meat, so all the snacks on her body were of this type. There were also some small dried fish, which were not only her snacks, but also Elizabeth's snacks. .

"no thank you"

There have never been so many people in the cemetery. Originally, there were only the instant family and Zeraora. Since returning to Wano and looking at the group of people in front of her, she has become a little scared and has been hiding behind instants. .

"I'm still shy, Mr. Arceus, in fact, I brought back a few people this time, and there are three girls who are trainee pirates of Amazon Lily"

Olga recounts the events of her journey, and also mentions Hancock and their names and her so-called deal.

Listening to Olga's report and looking at Perona who was brought back, Arceus can only say that they have really inherited the fine tradition of picking up children from beasts, and the identities they have picked up are becoming more and more difficult.

A negative ghost like Perona bug, it is difficult to deal with this kind of rule-like ability without strong enough domineering, plus a future pirate queen.

Although according to a certain law, Hancock's combat power is proportional to Luffy's injury level, but this cannot deny her own talent.

And Amazon Lily is really of great significance to the Beasts Pirates. Even if there are many female pirates in the Beasts, they are still not proportional to men.

There are only a few of these pirates who are married to ordinary people. They are more suitable for pirate-like families, and the place with the most female pirates is Amazon Lily. If they develop well, then they will engage in friendship with each other. Seems pretty good too.

Find a suitable opportunity and let Kaido directly move the island back.

"Well done, Olga."

"Huh?" Olga didn't seem to understand why Arceus suddenly said this, but instead asked about the next arrangement.

"Then, Lord Arceus, what should we do with those three people?"

"Let's take it with you first, didn't you say that their sisters have a good relationship with you, so let's get along well."

"But. Her ideas don't seem to be normal."

"It's good that your concept is normal. Of course, I don't care if you are led astray, as long as you can persuade Asier."

After so many years, Olga's mind is no longer a child, and he is still at ease. For the same reason, Perona was handed over to Setsuna and Zeraora.

They are different from other people who picked them up. Hancock and the others will be sent back to Nine Snakes as promised in three years. As long as they leave enough fetters in these three years, it is enough, while Perona is simply afraid of life, and it is not suitable for Kaido. the training method.

After deciding on their arrangement, Arceus also let Yamato and the others meet. After all, they are all the same age, but looking at the girls of different shapes in front of him, Jack's expression became a little unnatural.

Chapter 372 The False Harem Hero and the Transformation of Ssangyong

"One, two, three, four, four more"

Yamato, Maria, Robin, and Jack all grew up in the group of girls, and their lack of femininity is all due to his personal worship of Kaido.

Iska was brought back later, and now there are four more, which made Jack very distressed, and he desperately hoped that a younger brother would appear to share the pressure with him.

Men should stand in front of women and don't let them get hurt, this is what Mandelfish told him, when he was honing his defenses, that's why Mandelfish told him that.

But he has always had a question about this sentence.

At that time, he pointed to Yamato and asked Mandelfish his question.

"Brother Mandelfish, do you really think Yamato needs my protection?"

"Uh, that's an example. In short, as a man, you have to take responsibility."

The example of Yamato makes Mandelfish unable to refute, after all, she has gained too much, plus Kaido's tempering, let alone her peers, ordinary adult men are not her opponents.

As long as you change the world, Jack's proper male protagonist starts, the eldest lady of the lord's family, the dark-bellied Hei Changzhi, the intellectual eldest sister, the ideal young girl, and now there are more Gothic Lolita and three sisters.

The buffs of childhood sweethearts have also been fully stacked, but this is not a harem fan, nor is he the male lead, and there is no "honesty" in his name.

Intuition tells him that, let alone opening a harem, just trying to be a time management master, he may encounter the biggest crisis in his life, such as the sanctions of electricity and grass.

But it shouldn't be a problem if it doesn't involve Yamato. Of course, he has no interest in women. It is more important for him to become stronger, which is why he can still train with girls to this day.

After the personnel arrangement is completed, the rest is naturally the things. It is not difficult to bring back the money. It is enough for Olga to change clothes and launder money in the territory of other pirates after a while. His focus is the rest. The five devil fruits.

In addition to the original Spinosaurus fruit and Pachycephalosaurus fruit, the remaining fruits were quickly determined, and they happened to be the three recorded in the illustrated book.

The result was not unexpected, it happened to be the three fruits that Hancock's three sisters ate at the beginning, but the records of sweet fruits only had names and no specific abilities.

If Quinn's illustrated book was obtained from the original laboratory, then the version in the hands of the world government should be similar, and I am afraid they do not know the effect of sweet fruit.

The cobra and python forms of the remaining two snake fruits have clear records, but this means one thing. If you want these four fruits to appear in the eyes of everyone, you have to make them look good. Row.

He didn't move the fruit that originally belonged to the three sisters. It is still unknown whether he will give them the fruit. It doesn't matter if they join the beasts directly, but they are going to return to Nine Snakes, which depends on their development in the past few years.

But the two dragon dragon fruits are different. When they first saw the news, they had already been arranged.

The closest thing to the swollen head dragon is undoubtedly the warmaul dragon, but the fruit was snatched back, and the attributes of the warmaul dragon are indeed a little worse.

The name with a dragon is not necessarily a dragon. In the end, the fruit chosen was not a warmaul dragon, but a real dragon - a two-axe war dragon.

As for the remaining Spinosaurus, the transformation direction is more complicated. The name with a dragon may not be a dragon, and the name without a dragon can also be a dragon, such as a fake earth dragon - Lie bite land shark.

The name is a shark, but it is actually a real dragon, and the transformation object of Spinosaurus is the stingy land shark, just because he thinks that the dorsal fin of the spinosaurus and the dorsal fin of the stinging land shark are somewhat similar.

In addition to Zoroark, Zeraora, Dianxi, and the Daolong reserve for Yamato, these two fruits are the more powerful ones he has transformed in recent years.

The strength is getting more and more perfect, and its own reserves are also increasing. These two fruits must be prepared for the future core members, so it is natural to strengthen them.

Double-axe dragon and fierce bite land shark, it is impossible for anyone here to recognize their prototypes as Pachycephalosaurus and Spinosaurus.

"Kaido, it's almost enough, you should be drunk enough, right?"

The strength has reached the level of Kaido, and the control of the body is very powerful, and the skill of returning life is not exclusive to CP.

He would be drunk more to enjoy the feeling of alcohol numbing his nerves, and he could wake himself up at any time if he wanted to.

"Ah, I've only been drunk for three days, what's the matter?"

Hearing this, Kaido, who was still snoring, opened his eyes directly. Although his face still smelled of alcohol, his eyes were not confused and very clear.

"No big deal, what do you think of this wine?"

"Alcohol is good, but unfortunately there are not many people who can drink it." If he doesn't control it, he will immediately get drunk. Few people can drink this kind of wine that is comparable to sleeping pills.
*ηOvelusb.CO*m

Many of the wines in the Pirate World are of low degree. If you sell them, you will not be able to serve three bowls.

However, in terms of the number of stunners in the pirate world, this wine is very useful on some special occasions.

"In this case, just improve the formula. It just so happens that Hundred Beasts and Fruits plans to expand a few branches and add a wine business."

While Arceus and Kaido were studying the expansion of fruit products, the newly arrived girls returned to their residences with their temporary parents after a brief meeting.

Olga lives directly on the ghost island, and Assie also saw the three children picked up by her daughter.

And Perona followed the instant back to the location of Taoyuan Farm. Although these are all bungalows, it is still very easy to arrange a place to live, but Perona doesn't seem to be very used to the place here.

"What's the matter, don't you like it here?"

"I don't like how bright it is here."

"Bright? Then where do you want to live?"

Instinctively, she was learning from Ling back then. Although she was still preparing to get married, she had already figured out what the child should be called, and now it was just a preparatory exercise.

"Well, next to the dark and damp old castle, it's better to have a feeling of resentment. It's good to have a ghost singing songs that curse the world!"

Facing Moment's doubt, Perona thought for a while, and then gave her an ideal living environment.

This is the influence of her growing environment, and now it is almost a set shape. After all, she grew up in this environment during the critical years.

But this kind of environment is a bit difficult to satisfy here, even the basement of Onishima can't achieve the so-called gloomy

Chapter 373 Here is. Beasts? !

Perona's ideal living environment is hard to find ready-made here. Even the largest Linghou cemetery cannot do this kind of thing. Although Linghou has more snow days, there are times when it is sunny.

And the snow-covered environment is not what Perona likes. If she was born in Linghou, she will most likely die in the extremely cold weather there. Wano Kingdom under the monarchy is a paradise for the top of the country, but not for the bottom. .

If it weren't for the mild climate of her birthplace, her chances of surviving with a doll bear in the cemetery would be very low.

But the way is always more difficult than the difficulty, the ghost singing the cursed world song, there is no humid environment here, and there is no castle-like building in Wano, but it is not difficult to create a gloomy room.

Cover the windows and decorate them with black cloth. Although there may be a lack of sunlight, this is a world where you can recover from missing teeth by drinking milk. This problem is not a big deal.

When Shanna was studying how to arrange a new home for Perona, the three Hancock sisters also led Olga to the residence of Onishima.

As a cadre, she has not only power and exclusive activity room, but also an independent residence like the Dahei floor in Onishima.

Arranging three more people is a very simple thing for her.

The place where Hancock and others live is not the same as Yamato and them, after all, their positioning itself is different.novElusB.coM

"Okay, the three of you will stay here temporarily. When the time comes, you will be sent back to Nine Snakes. If you change your mind and plan to stay, you can say it at any time."

The style of beasts is now easy to enter, difficult to ascend, and no exit.

It is not difficult to join the Beasts. As long as he has a certain talent or shows the corresponding value, there is no problem after the initial review, then this person becomes a member of the Beasts Pirates.

Difficulty ascending is relative. Without enough strength, it is as difficult to gain status within the beasts as it is to ascend to the sky, but as long as you are strong enough, status is only a matter of time.

The so-called "no exit" means that traitors and quitting are not accepted here. Even if it is an ordinary pirate, as long as he does not choose to quit after joining Hundred Beasts, then it is a proper placement now.

This is true whether it is the pension for the dead or the placement of the disabled, and many of the grassroots security in Wano are responsible for such pirates.

For example, Hafat, who was in charge of purchasing agricultural products in Jiuli, was a pirate who could no longer fight after being disabled.

But it is impossible to quit halfway. That kind of behavior is no different from rebellion. If the reason is appropriate, you can adjust the location of its station, but if you don't want to do it, you will be liquidated.

The world of pirates is not about playing a house. If you don't want to come, you will come, and if you want to leave, you will leave.

Of course, it's not impossible to walk at all, as long as he can defeat all the big kanbans in a row, this person has the qualification to quit the pirate group.

Unless she is someone like Naiqin, she has exchanged her unique skills and abilities for the special status of working in the beasts. The freedom of those who do not join the beasts but work for the beasts will not be restricted.

"Sister Olga, do you live here too?"

"My room is next to it, and the door opposite is my father. You can also find him if you have something to do. Although that guy doesn't look very serious, he is quite reliable, but he is basically absent during the day.

There is a doctor living in the room on the side. If you are not feeling well, you can find her. "

Asiere is next to Naiqin's room. Olga's relationship between the two is not good. Anyway, they often play tennis together.

"By the way, this is the ID card of the three of you. You can usually enter and leave the ghost island, but if you don't have permission in some places, don't approach, otherwise."

She raised her hand and stroked her neck, the meaning was very straightforward.

"Well, we got it."

Amazon and Lily also have forbidden areas. If you break into the forbidden areas without permission, you will have to go to the arena. It is also a pirate country. It is easy for Hancock and the others to accept these systems.

Under the gaze of Hancock's eyes that were not quite right, Olga left here. She was going to see if her father had done anything while she was sailing.

"Sister, sis! She's gone!"

Olga closed the door and left, Hancock's eyes hadn't left the door, and Sandasonia and Marigold next to her called her back again.

After three years of slavery, the two of them have not lost their shape. Although Sandasonia's head is a little rounder than her sister's, the younger sister, Marie Goruder and Hancock more like.

In the original timeline, she started to eat sumo hot pot to gain weight for strength, and finally developed a not weak armed color, but the price was to become very mellow.

"Understood, well, Mary, Sanda, get ready to live here, the people of Nine Snakes should not be too worried when they know the situation."

As she said that, she looked at the furnishings of the room. Although this is Olga's private space, it doesn't seem to be very populated at all. She usually just lives with Elizabeth, a lizard.

But the first batch of slaves brought back by her also acted as servants after they settled on Onishima, and the place has been kept clean.

From the window here, you can see most of the Wano country in the distance, and the completely different seasons of Reihou and Shirai appear in their eyes.

Even the tree where the Flower City was replanted can see some shadows of its crown.

Although Wano Country is called a country, its land area is not too large, with more than 4,000 square kilometers and a population of more than one million. In other places, it is just a good city.

"What a beautiful country, where is this place?"

Olga didn't tell them the name of the country, they only knew the word Onishima.

"Sister Hundred Beast Pirates, do you know this pirate group?"

"Beasts?"

In the concept of Amazon Lily, the era of the great pirate is an era when everyone can be a pirate, and they do not understand the changes in the outside world when they set sail for the first time.

When Olga's subordinates showed her bounty orders, they just waved them, they didn't have time to read the specific information, but now Mary saw some bounty orders on the wall.

It is a very popular way among pirates to use the bounty orders of captains and companions as wall decorations.

Arceus and Kaido's bounties are side by side in the first row.

"One, ten, one hundred, one hundred billion. One billion?!"

Seeing that the two bounties on the wall had reached the ten-digit astronomical price, the three sisters who went out to sea for the first time received a certain shock, which was far beyond their understanding in Nine Snakes.

Today, they saw for the first time what a pirate at the level of a tyrant in the sea looks like

Chapter 374 Murder and Heartbreaker Activities

【April 8, 1503, rain

The trip has been over for a while, and there are many more children on the ghost island, and everyone seems to be getting along very well. 】

Soon looked at Perona, who was lying by the window watching the rain, and then continued to write.

[Perona's child seems to like rainy days very much. It was the first time she saw her like the outside so much. She even named her teddy bear Kumasi. She seemed to like this toy very much. The teddy bear also changed. 】

Now Arceus gives people a feeling of omnipotence inside the beasts, empowering them to control the weather. For most ordinary people, that is almost the authority of gods, especially those of Arceus. As time goes by With the development of , a group of fanatics gradually appeared.

To find Kaido for fights, but some things that humans can't do, in their opinion, only Arceus can do.

Such as giving some life to inanimate objects.

Although Arceus sometimes does not show up, it seems reasonable to them. If God appears in front of people all the time and solves all problems like a machine, they will feel that something is wrong.

Leaving a mysterious veil gives people more room for reverie.

The rain dripped down the eaves and dripped on the ground, and the peasants in their hoods could still be seen working outside. This is the basic life of farmers. Such weather does not mean that they can rest, but they can do things that cannot be done on a sunny day. matter.

【Raising children seems to be good too.】

Writing here, I stopped writing and temporarily put away the diary, because Perona seemed to have an urge to play in the rain.

And when she was bringing her child, Olga on Onishima was very big. It wasn't that she or her father did something, but that Elizabeth was pregnant.

After returning from a previous trip, Elizabeth's stomach bulged inexplicably, which made Olga feel very wrong, and there was no veterinarian in the Beast Pokémon Center. They couldn't figure out what was going on.

But with special instruments, they determined that Elizabeth had something in her stomach.

At first Olga thought Elizabeth was sick, but at last she thought of those O'Hara scholars on the sky island, and if she remembered correctly, there were paleontologists there.

Although paleontologists are not veterinarians, they can also be taken out and used.

O'Hara's scholars have real facts anyway. After comparing the literature, they came to the conclusion that Elizabeth was not sick, but was pregnant.

"you are pregnant?"

"I am not sure as well."

"Aren't you male?"

"No, I've always been female."

"Then why don't you refute when someone calls you "he"?"

"Isn't it all the same thing, I just don't care."

Elizabeth's rebuttal left Olga speechless, but then she reacted to a more critical question.

"No! How did she get pregnant? There is no second basilisk lizard at all!"

She was sure that Elizabeth had never mated with another lizard in the more than 100 years she had been with her, even if it was delayed.

"Well, Miss Olga, the basilisk lizard is an ancient species.noveLuSB.coM

According to some records and studies in the literature, for the continuation of the group, even if there is no mate, there is a certain chance that the basilisk lizard will be able to give birth to offspring alone. They are a very special kind of creature. "

Hearing this reason, Olga suddenly understood something. She was not the only one who was affected by pure gold before, and Elizabeth was also the same. That is to say, Elizabeth was only a juvenile lizard at that time.

The lizards just reached maturity not long ago, and this happened recently.

"How many times will this happen?"

"We don't know, if it's a literature, it's only once, but you can see her specific performance.

But it is supposed to be oviparous, so can we observe some newly born basilisk lizards? This opportunity is too rare. "

"Say more, say more"

She has been hit a bit recently. Elizabeth doesn't seem to care about gender. Hermaphroditic reptiles are not uncommon, but individuals are pregnant. She feels that her cognition is not enough.

On the other side of Taoyuan Farm, after stopping Perona's actions, she continued to write her unfinished diary.

【Children don't seem to be so fun either. I understand how my parents felt after I left Zou.

Speaking of which, some bandits appeared a few days ago.

Zeraora had intended to deal with them directly, but there seemed to be a better arrangement above. 】

This time she completely finished writing her diary, put the diary back in the cabinet, took out the umbrella and planned to take Perona to the dining hall in Onishima for dinner.

Going to Ghost Island is the easiest way to cook your own food.

Just when she was thinking about what to eat at night, some people in the Flower Capital turned gloomy.

"What's the matter? This is your task. The three of you don't think it's enough for the mascot to do nothing."

In front of Denjiro and the others, Jhin coldly gave them a transfer order, the specific content of which was to lead the Shinsengumi to exterminate the thieves gang in Tōshū.

Zeraora can easily kill the people on the mountain, but those people were left behind, the purpose is to let these warriors recruited by Wano country really fight once.

However, the leader was handed over to the three retainers of the original Kozuki family, which made sense in name. As retainers of the general, they were obliged to lead the samurai to eliminate the rogue bandits.

After the death of Kozuki Oden and Ashura Douji, those mountain bandits who headed the mountain lost their leaders, and they have been kept to serve as some military training and other functions.

It's just that they were a little honest during this time, so I didn't think about them for a while.

Now the food is running out, and the unmanaged mountain bandits are not good at planting, so they robbed the village again, and this matter has been put on the agenda again.

It's nothing to be a simple bandit, but Jhin asked Denjiro and the others to lead the team. He was very aware of their relationship with Ashura-douji, and it was precisely because of this relationship that they led the team.

"You shouldn't be short of this manpower, right?"

"Why, as the general's retainers, shouldn't you have contact with the mountain bandits? In this case, your general's position seems to be a little dangerous.

Destroy, arrest, this is your mission this time, the mission you must complete, this is the order of your general. "

"Yes"

Looking at the order with the general's seal in front of them, they finally took the Shinsengumi to Toushan in the rain, with the Shinyudi Fanzhong led by Koga Ninja as the supervisor.

Chapter 375 The passing time

The bandits of Toushan have endangered Jiuli for a long time. At that time, the Asura boy was called the monster of Jiuli, and the bandits of Toushan led by him could not do anything at all.

Later, Kozuki Oden subdued the Asura boy, and the bandits in Jiuli were naturally relieved. During the days when Oden was away, although these mountain bandits had some turmoil, they were also suppressed by the returning Asura boy.

But today, when they were all dead, the bandits in the head mountain lost control. At first they were honest for a while because of fear, but as time passed, they finally looted again.

Without the leader, these mountain bandits can't make much noise. The strength of Denjiro and others is more than enough to deal with these mountain bandits. The Shinsengumi who follow behind are stronger than those bandits in number and equipment. many.

The sent out the supervising army only because he was not very concerned about them.

As for the order that Guangyuerihe had stamped, this time it was really not Jhin's job, he just told the truth about what the bandits had done in the country.

Koyukihiwa, who doesn't know anything about Toushan, signed the order very cooperatively.

Outside the cottage in Toushan, the rain kept hitting Denjiro's face, the water stained the lenses, and his vision was blurry for a while. After a period of training, the members of the Shinsengumi group could still withstand the rain.nOvEUsb.cOm

As for Koga Ninja, this kind of weather is the most comfortable environment for him.

OM~

A noise in the air broke the unique silence under the rain curtain, and a huge water shuriken appeared in the hands of Koga Ninja.

As the shuriken formed by the water flow reached a certain size, the Koga Ninja Frog threw it towards the gate of the village.

Boom!

The gate was not a water-storing fire-breathing dragon. The flying water shuriken made a roar after touching the gate, and the gate made of wood was instantly blown to pieces.

"Do you want me to teach you the rest? I will report all your performance truthfully."

Denjiro and the others did not speak, but silently pulled out their own swords. Kozuki and Hiyori were in each other's hands at this time, and they had almost nothing to do in the face of this situation.

And this is also the way the beasts use these three people. Their survival has a certain symbolic meaning, but now they are not willing to join the beasts pirates, so they can only use this method to make them work passively.

This is an experiment. Although they are not the top combat power, they are not weak in the sea, and some dangerous things like tackling tasks can be handed over to them.

In the village of Toushan, the bandits inside looked at the smashed door and didn't understand what happened, but the screams of killing were already heard outside the village. The reward system for the Xinxuan group was very simple, give money.

Under the temptation of profit, they were ruthless towards those bandits.

But this is not the most important thing. These bandits are all subordinates of Asura Douji. Looking at Denjiro leading the team, their eyes are full of doubts.

"Sir Denjiro?!"

"Surrender, times are different"

Looking at the bandit in front of him, Denjiro had nothing to do. For them, Kozuki Hiyori was far more important than these people.

In the end, some people chose to surrender, but some people who knew that they were guilty and could not escape the Wano country code and those who were loyal to the Ashura boy did not do so, they raised their weapons and launched a counterattack.

This is a battle without suspense. Those bandits only have some old-fashioned muskets in their hands. Whether they can fire on such a rainy day depends entirely on luck, and the Shinsengumi are all newly created equipment in Wano Country.

Together with the three former Oda retainers who had to contribute, the bandits were quickly wiped out.

The bandit who was originally a sinner was fine. The eyes of those who were loyal to Ashura-doko looked at Denjiro and the others, which made Denjiro's vision even more blurred.

The gears of fate are still spinning, and everything will not stop because of the existence and death of individuals.

The time came to the second half of 1505.

The World Government's search on Priarte never stopped, but the clues came to an abrupt end after tracing to a black market in the New World, where Priarte last appeared.

In today's New World, in addition to the three large areas occupied by Whitebeard, Kaido, and Charlotte Lingling, there are also many buffer zones and scattered small areas.

And the location where Priarte disappeared is very dangerous. The nearest island to there is Hachinos, which is the site of Lox - Beehive Island.

According to normal development, the one who occupied this island should have been Wang Zhi. As a remnant of Rox, he survived to the top of the war and was finally defeated by Blackbeard. There is also a certain strange Navy Colonel Coby credited.

I don't know why this colonel was able to participate in a battle of this scale.

But now that Wang Zhi is dead, the island has become more chaotic, which makes the investigation of the World Government more difficult.

On the ghost island, Elizabeth quickly laid an egg, and then the egg was sent to the Hundred Beasts Pokémon Center to be taken care of by Geely Egg. The biologist from O'Hara on the empty island repeatedly requested, Qualified to observe the situation with a monitor.

Several scholars fell to the ground in three shifts and kept observing the egg, witnessing this rare miracle, but they all underestimated the incubation time of the egg.

Mandefesh was reassigned as he wished, and at the same time, the frequency of appearing on Fishman Island has become more frequent, and his younger brothers are also observing their boss like those scholars, wanting to see Mandefesh When will it evolve.

The three Hancock sisters also gradually integrated into the life of Onishima, and Olga felt that she had a very strange little sister, such as being a little uncomfortable when taking a bath with her.

In addition to a lot of red crosses on the map, many things went smoothly, such as the plan proposed by Tezzolo.

Hundred Beast Fruit has undergone a large-scale reorganization within the company. Although the name of the company has not changed, there are many more departments below. Compared with the original Hundred Beast Fruit, the current Hundred Beast Fruit has become a holding company.

Using money to open the way, Tezzolo also established a relationship with some officials of the world government. In this environment, it is unavoidable to expand the business. It is like he can welcome the arrival of the Tianlong people with a smile. , while scolding him in his heart.

Without tearing his face, he can only fight against the Tianlong people with the Tianlong people. Not long ago, he used a "natural" blood diamond to get the attention of a Tianlong person who loves jewelry. Through him, he dealt with a person who had ideas about Stella. the dragon man.

But this also made him dislike the group of Tianlong people even more.

Chapter 376 Bear God and HistorynOvELUsb.cOm

【October 27, 1505, sunny

Time flies fast, and Perona has grown up a little bit, but her hobbies are still a little different. She and Robin get along very well, and they are very close on some topics. 】

Halfway through writing, she put one hand on her cheek and looked at Zeraora, who was exercising, and Perona, who was playing with a teddy bear.

Half a year ago, she and Zeraora got engaged. Although the progress was slow, life was sweet. In fact, the life of the fur tribe was not that complicated. The two people who looked at each other were called a few friends. Witness to get married.

But she lives outside after all, and she is much more petty than the aborigines in Zou. She has no experience in taking Zeraora, and there are no experienced people in the beasts. In the end, only a random trick Quinn and Very romantic Tezzolo.

eventually evolved into such a situation, they only got engaged after a few years of love, which can be said to respond to the policy of late marriage.

But even if it was an engagement, Onishima helped them celebrate once. This is the first couple within Hundred Beasts to establish a relationship.

Kaido, who drank too much at the time, promised to hold a wedding that was more lively than the Charlotte Lingling tea party, so he just got engaged first.

Arceus also made a ticket for this. In a sense, Zeraora is his "eldest son" in this world.

Zeraora and Perona made her feel at home, not the original one, but her own new home.

At the engagement ceremony, she asked Perona some benefits and gave her Kumasi real life.

It is not just a stuffed toy, but a wearing bear.

Because of Perona's preference, this is also a yellow bear in different colors.

At this time, this bear is playing friendly with Perona. It is not only a playmate, but also an excellent bodyguard.

If this bear was not created by Arceus, I would have dared not let it play with Perona.

Although it looks like a cute teddy bear, it is very dangerous to wear a bear, and its muscle strength is called strange power.

And like cats and dogs wagging their tails, they have different meanings. If you wear a bear and wave your arms with a smile, it is not a gesture of friendship, but a threat.

As a bear, the bear hug is his specialty, he can even wrestle with Babanuki, and he is the strongest wrestling coach in Jiuli Farm today.

If it weren't for the fact that there is no difference between lumbar fractures and ordinary fractures, there would be many more disabled people.

It is very friendly to Perona as if it has inherited the memory of the teddy bear era, and it also listens to Zeraora and Setsuna, so Setsuna can safely let it be a nanny, Perona does not resist the power of wearing a bear.

"Kuku, Nye."

For example, now, looking at the sun above his head, he decided that it was time to take her home, so he put her on his tail and took her back.

Wearing a bear has a strong control over her own power, and wearing a bear also helped Perona to do one thing, because she couldn't get rid of the bear's embrace, she inadvertently realized the ability of the soul to leave the body in the Lingling fruit.

So the Perona I see sometimes may not be Perona, it may just be her soul.

Wearing the appearance of a bear can be the biggest cover. In a few years, this pair will definitely bring enough surprises to the enemy, whether it is protecting Perona's body or giving a fatal blow when the enemy is passive. .

The loving hug of the Bear God is not something that ordinary people can afford.

[Last time, I promised Wanda to bring her to Wano to play. I'll go there in a few days.]

After she stopped writing, she opened a drawer on a new floor, and the other floor was already full of diaries.

In Ghost Island, the new generation is still carrying out their training. Hancock and others just borrowed the training equipment here. Nine snakes have their own training methods. They can be selected as the new warriors of the sea. They naturally remember this kind of training.

Three years of slavery have not affected Hancock's strength. Now that he has such an independent exercise, his strength is naturally no problem. These trainers are specially built for people of this age.

Although Hancock is older, there is not much difference in body size.

Robin is still half-fishing, but she has a booklet in her hand. It is some data she has obtained after observing Pokémon over the years. The mysterious evolution has aroused her curiosity. O'Hara's part The same goes for scholars.

5 years made O'Hara's story gradually forgotten by the world, and some scholars also had the qualifications to enter the country of Wano. It was during this time that they studied Pokémon, and sometimes they also worked part-time as history teachers of Wano.

The beasts didn't distort history much, but the result of the night of the battle threw the pot to the black charcoal snake.

As for Kozuki Oden, they just told the truth.

For example, when he was 0 years old, he threw his wet nurse violently, when he was 6 years old, he started going out and out of Huajie Liuxiang, when he was 8 years old, he drank and fought with gamblers. Arrested.

Entered the quarry as a prisoner at the age of ten to serve his sentence.

At the age of 14, he modified the river course to cause a major flood, and at the age of 15, he started the Rebellion of the Harem of Wano Kingdom.

In addition to changing the river course, it was good intentions to do bad things. Without Koyuki's identity, he should have died 800 times. Later, he emphasized that he left Wano country irresponsibly and was deceived by the black charcoal snake.

No need for artistic processing, a fool's image appeared, even the retainers of Kozuki Oden could not refute them.

Robin studies academics while exercising, while Iska joins the ranks of exercise. Her target for training is Jack. At this time, Jack incarnates the orc mode of the king's bronze elephant, standing in place to accept Iska's attack.

"Not enough, not enough strength, what are you hesitating about? You can't stab me at all."

This is also Jack's classic training method and being beaten. If he is injured, his ability to use steel is a basic requirement, and now Iska is far from being able to do this, so Jack can safely be this target.

And the navy has not been idle all these years. Newspapers often publicize the navy's victories, wiped out a certain pirate group, and saved a certain country.

As for the way to save the country, a genius boy killed 500 soldiers and hostages captured by the pirates, and then killed all the pirates, solving the problem cleanly.

The rescue process was simpler than that of the Alpha Commando. If those soldiers had known the result earlier, they would probably have joined the pirates on the spot.

But Kaido found something in the newspaper.

"I'll go out and come back soon."

Chapter 377 Ulti and Pejiwan

This issue of the newspaper is almost all about the heroic deeds of the navy and the world government. Kaido was originally a joke, and he wanted to see which weaker was defeated again.

The sea is an era of fighting, and it is very reasonable for the weak to lose.

But this time he saw some special news.

The news in the newspaper that Kaido put down happened to be the report that the navy had severely damaged a certain pirate in the New World, and finally fled in a panic. After seeing the news, Kaido had a bad premonition.

There is no him, but the client is an old acquaintance of him.

When he first came to Wano, he met his old comrade-in-arms, Maria's father White, and in their conversation with him, they mentioned a person's name - Ulent.

Compared to Walter, who is difficult to reach Wano, Ulent is much better than White. Although the reward of more than 100 million is not outstanding in the new world, it is not very weak. After all, over 100 million is a threshold.

Kaido went to recruit him, but he refused, without joining any pirates, he has been wandering in the borderless land of the new world.

【The G14 branch of the Navy achieved a major victory, and the alliance of the pirates including Ulent was disintegrated. 】

This is the last newspaper that Kaido saw. There was no exaggerated headline. It was a very realistic description of what happened at that time, but the pirate ship that escaped in the war made Kaido realize something.

In the sky, Kaido, who turned into a blue dragon, is on his way. He understands the group of pirates. Betrayal among pirates is not uncommon, and there are few pirates who can not rebel after the captain is defeated.

And such pirates are often more difficult to deal with.

Because compared to those pirates, such pirates have more faith.

Personality cult or charisma, it is this factor that makes those pirates more difficult to deal with.

After the death of Rocks, the Rocks Pirates turned into birds and beasts and dispersed, because they were not of one mind from the beginning.

Ulent's pirate group is okay, but even if there is no problem within the pirate group, Ulent is a member of the pirate alliance.

What is less trustworthy than the pirate group is the pirate alliance. The pirate alliance is an untrustworthy alliance full of more betrayals.

There are very few pirates who have established absolute trust, and the Red Earl who has been alone all the time is an example.

He is somewhat guarded against Charlotte Lingling, and now Arceus is the one who cooperates the most with him. The more than ten years of getting along have given them full trust.

The damaged ship in the naval newspaper is Ulent's pirate ship. When everyone is evenly matched, it is an alliance. Once this balance is broken, the alliance will become annexation.

He also knew where Ulent's territory was, and this trip was for this matter.

And Kaido guessed right, a certain sea area in the new world, a battle between pirates is taking place here, Ulent is not only defeated, although he did not die on the spot, but he still died from his injuries afterwards. .

Ulent's subordinates haven't done anything particularly excessive, but the other pirates are different. The Ulent pirates without Ulent are a big piece of fat in their eyes.

Before they recovered their vitality, some pirate groups that had preserved their strength in previous battles with the navy began to fight.

"Hand over the treasure! That guy Ulent must be hiding a lot of things!"

"That's right, Ulent is dead, you don't need to continue working for him, right?"

Several groups of pirates are temporarily uniting together to exert pressure. Their pirate group has not been hit too much, and it is difficult to distinguish the winner from each other, so temporarily join forces and plan to jointly divide up Ulent's pirate group.

However, it can be seen from their positions that these people also harbor a certain degree of wariness towards each other.

"You bastards, if you hadn't retreated early, the captain wouldn't have been killed so badly!"

"What nonsense are you talking about? Did that guy Ulent bring them crooked too? Where did the pirates get so much trust? You are too stupid! You really dare to rush so far ahead."

bump! bump!

Two gunshots came suddenly, and the pirate who laughed at Ulent suddenly had two more blood holes in his chest.
nOvzlu8B.com

"You are not allowed to insult the captain!"

"You * is courting death!"

A new round of battle was about to break out, and the remaining members of the Ulent Pirates resisted fiercely, but their numerical disadvantage made their resistance seem extremely futile.

In order to * what was left of Ulent, they even moved out the cannon.

This is to capture the stronghold that Ulent had dug in the mountain. Ulent was a regular army of the kingdom before, and he was much better at digging positions than those pirates who had become monks.

The bombardment of the cannon caused the rocks to fall continuously, and in the bunker room, a burst of crying continued to come. A purple-haired boy with a leather cap and two small horns was crying while covering the big bag above his head.

A previously dropped stone left such a bag on his head.

In front of him stood a girl with blue and pink hair, wearing a lace mask, holding a wooden stick full of nails in her hand, looking angrily at the door of the room.

"Don't be afraid of Xiaopei, no one can hurt you, I will protect you."

She is Ulti, and the one she calls Xiao Pei is her biological brother, Pejiwan. The two sisters and brothers are Ulent's remaining children. Her words are not only comforting Pejiwan, but also comforting herself.

She was only 5 years old this year, and it was too early for her to say this, and the sound of the guns outside seemed to have stopped.

This is not good news, because it means that the battle is over, and soon there is a sound of kicking the door outside the gate, and the seemingly solid door was kicked open after a long time.

The pirate outside the door looked at the two children in the house with a dangerous smile.

"Boss! I found Ulent's two children! It's the same as in the photo, it is estimated that they can sell for a high price."

The price of cute little girls is never low, not to mention the characteristics of that corner. The rarer things are, the more expensive they are.

Ulti is not Yamato, and the rough stick is not Ah Jian. Facing an adult pirate, she did not fulfill her promise to protect Pejiwan, and was trampled on the ground after several attacks.

"elder sister!"

He tried to attack the opponent, but as a three-year-old child, he seemed even more powerless, but at this time, a new scream came from outside.

The pirates at the door thought it was because of the uneven distribution of stolen goods outside, so they picked up the two brothers and walked out. When he came outside, he finally heard what the shouts were.

"It's Kaido! Beast Kaido! Ah!" A burst of heat breathed out, and several pirates gradually turned into coke in the flames.

"Although betrayal is not uncommon, even a pirate must talk about benevolence and righteousness! Thunder and gossip!"

Ulti, like Maria's surname, it's a translation problem. If you have a lot of opinions, I'll change it to Runti tomorrow. If you don't have any opinions, I'll use this transliteration.

Chapter 378 Stay away from my little Pei!

"Why, why does such a monster appear here?!"

Because of their weakness, these pirates occupied a small piece of territory in the New World in the form of an alliance. They knew their level very well, so the territory they occupied was somewhat far from the territory of the three pirate emperors.

It stands to reason that they should be safe and sound, but Kaido suddenly appeared here.

The strongest creature in the world, the uninjured Kaido, the undead dragon, this is the name Kaido has left behind over the years, he will be defeated, but he will not leave any wounds on his body, and he will not be killed. The same as Xiaoqiang.

Abundant physical strength and flying ability make those people who can defeat him, but can't keep him, and Kaido after leaving is likely to come back again after a while.

Because of his death-defying behavior, he never brought his subordinates and ships, and he often left after making a big fuss. With his strength, it is difficult for others to keep him if he wants to leave without worrying about the future.

And it's impossible to have people who match his strength stationed and guarded everywhere, so many people are now reluctant to provoke Kaido.

These pirates couldn't understand why they were staying here honestly, why they brought Kaido over here.

a few minutes ago.

These pirates solved the remnants of the Ulent Pirates. In fact, if Kaido came a little later, these pirates would probably fight because of the uneven distribution of the spoils, but before they fought, Kaido would fight. Appeared in a very outrageous way.

Being able to fly, he could obviously fly down with his feet on the flame clouds, but he chose to disarm his ability in mid-air, and then directly played a high-altitude bungee jump like a blockbuster, the kind without a safety rope.

This is what he found in the past battles. There are many powerful enemies in the new world. At least in this era of divided heroes, there are still many people who can take him without dying.

And when those people climbed out of the deep hole he beat, everyone around them would be shocked, so he came up with such an appearance.

While those people were still observing this inexplicably large pit on the island, Kaido had already climbed out of it.

"Who can tell me where Ulent is?"

grunt

A burst of drooling sound came out. Even if Kaido didn't do anything, just standing there had an invisible deterrent power, especially the big hole on the ground, which made his deterrent power a little more.

"Ulent is dead, he was too wounded in the battle with the navy, if he offends you, then you are too late"

They didn't know that Ulent had a relationship with Kaido. After all, Ulent never mentioned it. If it was a relationship, Ulent was Kaido's old squad leader.

Watching the soldiers under his command gradually become the strongest in the kingdom, become a pirate, and gradually become a legendary figure at sea, Ulent's heart is still quite complicated.

He rejected Kaido's solicitation and chose this pirate alliance.

And those pirates never thought that Ulent would know Kaido. In their opinion, those who do not hurry up and hug their thighs are stupid.

"It's a pity to die, but why are you still alive?"

Kaido, who was still questioning just now, suddenly turned his face and smashed at the pirates in front of him.

Boom!

The huge dust obscured the sight, but the dust dissipated again, and the pirates in front of Kaido were abruptly a lot less, only the blood mixed with the soil could prove that they once existed.

Kaido's out-of-the-way vision has seen those corpses with Ulent's logo on the ground. It seems that he is late, and the rebellion has already happened.

A one-sided massacre, the previous battle between the navy and them was just a fleet led by a lieutenant general of the headquarters. If these pirates were willing to work hard, Ulent would still be able to retreat smoothly.

But they didn't do that, and now facing Kaido, it doesn't matter whether they have the courage to resist, everything they have done seems extremely futile in the face of Kaido.

Whether it's a musket or a cannon, the only effect of hitting Kaido is to make him slap ashes. If the position is good, you can cough a little. People with cold weapons will be swayed by him at will before they get close. The wind blows up.

And the heat breath he spit out at will is a dimensional blow to the nearby pirates. The pirates on the island are almost doubled, and the pirate who ran out of the Ulent fortress also appeared in Kai in many eyes.

The horns on Ulti and Peggywan's heads made him lock onto each other's identities at a glance.

The pirate hadn't figured out what was going on, but Kaido's tall figure appeared in front of him in a near teleportation posture, his big hand pinched directly on his head, and he couldn't help but feel pain with a slight force. howling.

The hands that were holding the siblings kept loosening, and instinctively wanted to break Kaido's hands apart.

Looking at the siblings who fell on the ground, Kaido didn't catch them. Although Kaido came to find Ulent's child, for him it was enough that the child didn't die. It was normal for him to be injured a little bit. .

It was Yamato who was about to fall off the boat a few years ago, and he wouldn't even blink his eyes, not even his own, let alone these two.

"You are Ulent's children, right?"

Looking at the tearful Pejiwan and the vigilant Ulti, Kaido made a complete assertion.

"Well, with the same eyes as that guy, my name is Kaido, and you will be trainees on my ship from today onwards." novelUsb.cOM

As we all know, most of the trainees of pirates are group pets. Although they are young, most of them will take care of these people.

Since Olga retired from the position of trainee, the group pet of the beasts has changed, but although they enjoy a lot of resources, the things they experience are terrifying enough.

Looking at the pirate who kept smashing his fingers with the handle of the knife, Kaido threw him aside impatiently, then grabbed Ulti and Pejiwan and flew directly into the sky, and at the same time he took off, Countless thunderbolts also began to hit the island.

Boom! boom!

When he left here, the island had completely turned into scorched earth.

Onishima, Yamato and others who were training on the roof were not very happy to see Kaido come back, but when he landed, Jack's expression changed because he saw the existence of a suspected boy.

At the age of 11, he has reached the stage of rapid physical development, and his recent height has approached three meters.

In the past few days, Kaido has explained the situation to the Ulti sisters and brothers in a few words. In the case of Ulent's death, Kaido's adoption is indeed a good thing for them.

But as soon as he landed, Ulti saw a big man running over like a pervert, and there were signs of picking up his brother's pants.

"Hey! Keep me away from my little Pei!"

Chapter 379 What kind of weird pirate group are you? !

11 years, although there are not many memories of the first two years, Jack's childhood was full of women.

From the nanny and wet nurse's auspicious eggs and big milk cans, the first Yamato and Maria, and later Robin and Isca.

The three sisters Perona and Hancock in the past three years, the environment where they are all girls makes him sometimes very distressed. For example, at the end of training, others go to the cadre bathroom on the top floor together, but he can only go downstairs alone.

Sanji may be very envious of his life, but he has waited too long for this younger brother who comes to share his "suffering" with him.

Yamato is his own and Arceus's favorite. Others don't say discrimination, but it's still a lot worse than Miss.

Materially, they and Jack are rich, and the huge funds are enough for a few of them to squander.

And the poor and the rich themselves refer not only to the material, but to the spirit.

"Poverty raising" refers to letting children experience frustration from childhood, experience and exercise more from childhood, learn to be independent and self-reliant, and have a tenacious and tenacious character.

In terms of tenacity, Jack has already done it. After all, he is hammered by Kaido every day, and his mentality without tenacity can easily explode.

But he desperately needed a male companion of the same age, or a little younger than him, and at this time Peggy Wan's appearance made him very happy.

Although wearing a small hat, the short inch head exposed on the edge can basically determine that he is a male. Jack just wanted to confirm it again just in case. If he saw it wrong, he would be seriously educated. .

But in Ulti's opinion, this is a big pervert. Now Jack's round body is gradually developing into muscles. Due to exercise, he only wears a set of pants most of the time, and some bandages are wrapped around his upper body. That is training scars left in.

This made him even more abnormal in Ulti's eyes. Although the broken mace had been lost, she still threw her fist at Jack.

In terms of bravery, she is very talented. For a serious brother-in-law, touching her brother is a very serious thing, but Ulti naturally can't compare with the well-trained Jack, so let him see to what you want to see.

"Your name is Xiaopei, right? I'm Jack, don't be afraid, this is the Beast Pirates, I'll protect you from now on."

"Go away! Only I can call Xiaopei Xiaopei! Keep this pervert away from him, what the * is this place!"

Ulti caught Jack's attention. Although she was wearing a mask, her hair and voice were stoned. It was a girl.

"Another girl."

Jack lost interest in an instant and continued to chat with Peggy Wan, but Peggy Wan was obviously frightened by this idiotic behavior, so he broke free from Jack's hand and hid behind Ulti.

Although Ulti sometimes annoys him, after Ulent's death, Ulti is the person he can trust the most.

"Jack, you're in a hurry, it will scare people."

Kaido's return suspended their training, and Maria walked over slowly, her height has exceeded three meters, girls are developing faster than boys at this stage.

Looking at the two children brought back by Kaido, as the eldest sister in the group, her maternal aura seemed to explode again.

"Don't worry, he's not a bad guy, he's just a little impatient."

It's okay not to say this, but after she said it, it made Ulti feel even more wrong, and now she has a feeling that she was on the wrong ship, especially Kaido's speech behind her.

"Well, it looks like you guys are getting along well. Today's training is over. Let's have a good conversation. By the way, they haven't eaten for a while. Take them to the cafeteria."

She didn't know how Kaido saw that they got along well, but Kaido's words made Yamato instantly refreshed.

"Really Father? Are you serious?"

Kaido voluntarily ended his training, this kind of thing may not happen once a year.

"Of course, but I'll be back with more training tomorrow"

Before Kaido could finish speaking, Yamato had already run away with someone when he just gave the answer. Before Ulti could figure out what was going on, she was suddenly caught by Yamato and led her to the stairs. run in the direction.

At the same time, Jack also chose to take Peggy Wan to keep up with Yamato.

"What kind of weird pirate group are you guys!"

Ulti, who was picked up by Yamato, tried to struggle, but it was useless. Yamato's height was not as exaggerated as Maria and Jack, but it was also 1.7 meters, much taller than Ulti, who was just over a meter. .

Ulti didn't use much force in this pose, even if she used her head to push Yamato, from Yamato's point of view, she was just playing with her.

"Don't make trouble, it's so itchy."

"Who is arguing with you! Are you a * with white hair? Let me down!"

"My name is Yamato, not Baimao, let alone a slut. What's your name?"

"Ulti is wrong! Who is introducing himself to you!"

Ulti and Yamato's noisy voice gradually walked away, Peggy Wan was also grabbed by Jack with a bewildered face, and Maria was still correcting some of Jack's problems.

"Jack, the child is not held like this, I'll do it."

"No, just teach me how to hug you."

Jack seems to be determined to have a good relationship with Peggy, and doesn't plan to let go at all.

"Xiao Pei, can I call you that?"

"You are not allowed to call him Xiaopei! That's my exclusive name!!"

Even though he was fighting against Yamato, Ulti didn't ignore it, but Jack still vaguely heard Peggy Wan say his name.

Robin and Iska will not participate in the special training on the roof. At this time, they are still at the fitness equipment, the Hancock sisters are with Olga, and Perona is waiting for the instant grilled fish on the farm. .

There is still a long way to go before the serious meal time. Like the people whose last class was physical education, they entered the restaurant first.

In the familiar private room, Yamato and Jack put the siblings down one after another, and Ulti was checking Peggy Wan for the first time, but to be honest, her so-called inspection should have caused more damage to Peggy Wan. bigger.

"What are you guys going to do? Are you pirates too?!"

The painting styles of The Beast Pirates and the Ulent Pirates are too different, at least Ulti has never seen so many people of similar age.

"Make friends with you, everyone will be friends in the future, take care of you."

"Please take care of me" novel-us.com

"Little Pei! Don't agree to these weirdos!"

Chapter 380 Aojiao will never retreat from the environment.jpg

Ulti has already labeled Yamato and the others as weirdos. Jack who pulled Pejiwan's pants and Yamato with "rough skin and flesh" are obviously abnormal in her eyes.

Although Maria hasn't shown any perverted characteristics yet, in Ulti's opinion, it must be abnormal to be able to get along so well with two perverts.

Although Aojiao is gradually withdrawing from the environment, but she has inherited this character, and at the same time is still a brother-in-law, so she is very wary of Jack, who thinks badly about Peggy.

"He's really a cute child, do you want to drink something, isn't your voice hoarse after shouting for so long?"

Ulti's performance may make some people feel uncomfortable, but it doesn't matter to Maria or Yamato.

One is overwhelmed by maternal love, one is naturally familiar, and one Jack, who has waited for his younger brother for many years, thinks that Ulti is Peggy Wan's sister, and Jack doesn't think there is any problem with her.

Even Maria was in the mood to care about her.

"Not dumb! Cough. Cough cough"

Although she was dissatisfied with her mouth, she accidentally choked on it, and the stomachs of the two of them also resounded one after another.

Kaido is a person who dares to feed a baby with alcohol. It was God's blessing that Yamato and Jack did not starve to death or have food poisoning when they were brought back by him. When they were brought back by Kaido, they ate what was left from the base. dry food.

On the last day, there was basically nothing to eat, and Kaido didn't want to stop, so he brought them back to Onishima. In the end, there was such a fuss, and his stomach was already hungry.

In other words, the people here are strong and strong, and it's not a problem to eat and drink immediately after being hungry for a long time.

The cafeteria of Onishima has always been a self-service system. As the aroma of the food gradually came, Peggy Wan couldn't help it.

"elder sister."

"Little Pei, you have to be strong. It's just a little food. If you eat it, it will become strange."

But what she said was not convincing at all. Although Pejiwan is not wearing a mask now, Ulti has long been in the habit of wearing a mask, and she can see some wet marks through the mask.

"Okay, don't be shy, you just have to eat when you're hungry. The people who Mr. Kaido personally brought back won't have an easy life in the future."

Maria just thought she was shy, so this time it was her turn to hug Ulti. Although she was still resisting, it could be seen from the degree of resistance that she was just pretending.

"Come on, Pei, is there anything you want to eat?"

"You are not allowed to call him Xiaopei! Damn it, don't you guys understand human language?"

"This is an expression of intimacy. Jack is rarely so warm to people, but what should I call you? Little Ur or Little Ti?"

"Don't make up such weird names, I'll be Ulti!"

"Understood, then I'll call you by your name in the future."

A naive arrogant can't get around Maria, maybe she can compete with Yamato, but she is still a little worse than Maria.

With the development of time, there are more and more types of chefs in Onishima. The four major sea areas and food from various countries can be seen here.

The newly added pirates will also tell the chef some hometown dishes to see if they can taste the taste of their hometown.

Meat is always the main theme, but the two brothers and sisters Ulti seem to be very interested in starchy foods. Ulti's eyes are attracted by a machine that makes spiral potato tarts, while Peggy Wan is attracted to Gangbang. Fried nachos with a twisted spicy cheese sauce.

"Yamato, you. Has your taste changed recently?"

Looking at Yamato's food, Maria hesitated a little. Recently, Yamato's recipes have changed a lot, and she has a great hobby for raw salmon.

In front of her was a large plate of salmon tartare salad, and a bunch of salmon sashimi plus a pot of oden. These are local foods in Wano country and taste good, but the amount is usually difficult to satisfy her.

"Try something new, it's actually quite delicious, do you want to try it?"

"Forget it, I'm not used to it."

While Yamato was talking to Maria, Jack was fighting with Ulti for the power to feed Pejiwan.

"I'm his sister! I must be here!"

"You're hungry too, and your saliva is about to flow out. Let's eat your own first. I'll take care of your brother for you."

Before they could come up with a result, Peggy Wan had already taken the food by himself, but the large bowl was a little unsteady. When he almost overturned the bowl and chopsticks, someone offered a helping hand.

To be precise, it was a round hand, and a few auspicious eggs appeared directly here, which directly caused both Ulti and Jack to lose this opportunity.

"This is an egg?!" nOvelusb.com

"lucky?"

Looking at the auspicious egg that appeared, Ulti felt more and more that she had come to a strange place.

"They are auspicious eggs, Pokémon created by foster father, and the most amazing creatures in the world."

"Foster father? Do you still have a foster father? Is it the same as that idiot Kaido?"

"Sister, it's not good to call Mr. Kaido that."

Ulti's conclusion is the conclusion that Kaido came to when he gave her the wine as water. She didn't say bad things behind her back, she said it in front of Kaido, Kaido just laughed about it, not at all. Seriously.

"It's nothing, my father is indeed an idiot, but you are not allowed to speak ill of your foster father. If Sister Shaina hears about you, it will be miserable."

Ulti didn't insist on saying anything. Aojiao was not brainless. When the other party directly stated the danger, she would not have to try it. After all, this pirate group is really weird.

Her tolerance for hunger had reached its limit, so she took off her mask when she looked at the potato tower that was almost cold.

She is not Kakashi next door, the mask is still under the mask, and she can even eat the food in front of her at the speed of light. Others pretend to be a mask, but he is better. Take off the mask and change his hairstyle so that others will not recognize him.

"Aren't you pretty, why are you wearing a mask?"

"I like Dai, can't I?"

Ulti gave a very direct reason. Many people have their own bodies, such as Luffy's supreme slippers, Franky's shorts, Ming's glasses, and Ulti's mask. .

The face under the mask is nothing special, just a very beautiful ordinary girl.

Hunger made her not in the mood to argue with others, and immediately began to destroy the food in front of her, but at this time, a group of pirates who supported each other also walked in.

The two pirates seem to be arguing about something. The difference is that they have two numbers 41 and 40 in their prominent places.
