

Arceus 481

Chapter 481 Perspective Eye and Sunlight Blade

The opponent's ability completely overwhelmed him in terms of hosting. At least this special effect production is where he can't compete. Although he can make some projection machines in advance, the ability gap is too big compared to that of the fruit ability.

Hosting shows is his personal hobby. If he loses his qualifications as a host because of this, it will not be fun.

"How about Brother Quinn, isn't this girl capable?"

Tezolo came to Quinn at some point, still praising Ann's ability.

"Cut, what's wrong, did you bring her here to take the position of Uncle Ben?"

"Just bring her to get used to it, don't worry about it, Brother Quinn, you don't have any experience in her aspect. Give newcomers some opportunities, and her stage will not be limited to Ghost Island in the future."

Tazzolo has long understood the truth of talking to people and talking to ghosts, so Quinn ignores this matter in a few words. After all, Quinn is not a professional entertainer, but he is a little bit on the horns for a while. That's it.

"For your face, let this little girl try it."

This can be regarded as a step for him. If he can be replaced, it means that Arceus has agreed. He will not dare to challenge Kaido or Arceus with a few more courage. He has not lived enough.

Others fight with him and he has the ability to resist. Kaido and Arceus basically kill him in seconds.

"There are three empowered givers below, and after today, we will have three new charismatic ones.

The first person to come up is the deputy of Lord Jhin - Francis Drake! Then came Shaina-sama's deputy - de la Torre Emmaline! Lord Mandelfish's second-in-command - Drew Pearlman! "

Drake, Emmaline, Pearlman, they are the newly promoted Divine Favors. The ability-granting ceremony ended yesterday, and today is just the same as usual.

The position of the phantoms created by Ann is their position, in which Drake is standing in the position of the Roentgen cat, the ability of the orchid mantis belongs to Emmaline, and Pearlman has obtained the ability of the sun coral.

This time, all three of them were given the ability to not be afraid of sea water, so all three of them had the ability to swim.

"The power of Lord Arceus is really fascinating."

Derek even smiled at the corner of his mouth when he saw the electric light flashing in his hand, and the scar on his face moved a few times, but she didn't care about the scar at all.

She was also the captain of a pirate group before, like Sasaki, because she admired the power of the beasts and took the initiative to surrender, and advocated forging ahead, conquering, plundering, and then prospering.

She has no interest in saving money, and most of the property is distributed to her younger brothers. She is a very bold eldest sister in the eyes of the younger brothers, and she likes the pleasure brought by spending money.

The price of is to mix in the free canteen of the beasts every day, otherwise he will starve to death sooner or later.

Then Drake's muscles squirmed for a while, blue skin wrapped his original limbs, and a larger part of his body was covered with fluffy black fur.

There is also a tail with a star at the end, and the mane on the body is slightly shorter than that of the general male lion, which is the difference between the female Roentgen cat.

Although it is called a cat, the Roentgen cat is similar to the cat boss, except that one looks like a leopard and the other looks more like a lion.

But the most special ability of the Roentgen cat is not in the body, but in the eyes. NOVELUSb.com*
After entering the animal form, the whites of Derek's eyes turned blood red, and the pupils also turned yellow. As the electrical energy in the body gathered on the eyes, the wall in front of her gradually became illusory, and finally disappeared. .

This is the clairvoyance ability of the Roentgen cat. The wild roentgen cat uses the pair of clairvoyant eyes to capture prey, but clairvoyance needs to consume a lot of electricity, which is not a small consumption for the ability person's own physical strength.

"This ability is really strong.."

Drake licked the corner of her mouth, and through the electric light in the corner of her eyes, she could see that what she was thinking was not serious.

"Hey, Emmaline, we just got new abilities, let's fight again."

Emmaline's ranking is NO.9, and Drake's ranking is NO.10. The single digit is the ultimate goal of most numbered people. Although 10 is also a very high ranking, it is not the first echelon after all.

Although they are all just giving to the givers, there are far more givers to the beasts than the gods, and the increase in the number over the years is also the same, most of which are given to the givers rather than the gods.

In the past few years, there have been no large-scale battles, and they have also accumulated a little bit of merit.

"Okay, that's just the way to start, Pearman, ladies first, get out of the way."

Seeing this, Pearman wisely stepped aside. Although he was also promoted to a Divine Favor, his original ranking was just outside 20, and he could not participate in the battle between Drake and Emmaline.

As the host, Ann also discovered the following changes, which are different from the script of her rehearsal, but as a host, you must have the ability to adapt to changes.

After a little panic, she quickly became acquainted with the situation and announced the start of the transposition battle in advance.

"Want to give you more time to familiarize yourself with abilities?"

"No need, I've already been familiar with this ability since I received it from Lord Arceus yesterday. Don't blame me for not reminding you, this ability is quite suitable for me."

The ability Emmaline obtained was Orchid Manghua, and the skill she originally acquired was Leaf Blade. The same way, the fighting method of Orchid Manghua is very similar to that of Leaf Blade.

Although it is a grass-type Pokémon, the Orchid Mantis is more like a combination of a mantis and a plant. The overall color is pink and white. Due to its gorgeous colors and gorgeous posture, Orchid Mantis has the most gorgeous grass-type Pokémon. name.

The lines on the body are like petals, and the color of some limbs is green.

Like the mantis, the orchid mantis has a pair of huge red sickles at the ends of its arms, a touch of white along the bottom edge of the sickle, and green claws at the front of the sickle.

However, they are not composed of insect limbs, but very sharp petals and buds.

It is very simple to judge the strength of the orchid mantis flower. The brighter the color, the better the development of the orchid mantis flower.

At this time, Emmaline was already wrapped in pink, and her arms were already in an attacking stance.

"NO.10 Drake challenged NO.9 Emmaline, the battle of changing positions, start now!"

Following Ann's password, Emmaline had already moved, the scythes of both arms began to flash, and the power of sunlight was gradually inhaled into it.

Sunshine Blade, a move that absorbs the power of sunlight like Sunshine Flame. As the only Pokémon that can learn Sunshine Blade on its own, Orchid Flower is almost its signature skill.

is back.

Chapter 482 The most dangerous is of course the audience

Although it is an arm made of petals, the arm of the orchid mantra can absorb the power of sunlight, and the sickle blade with high temperature can easily melt even if it is a steel plate, whether it is hunting or defense, it is its big killer.

However, although the Sunshine Blade and Sunshine Flame are powerful, they have the same drawbacks. They need to be charged up, and they can't kill people in a transposition battle. Other than that, everything is no different from actual combat.

Jin and Shaina have always had a good relationship as the only remaining members of the same clan. As their deputy, Emmaline also knows who Drake is. Now she seems very humble, and she will never let go if she starts.

So Emmaline chose to attack, and after crossing her arms, a whirlwind appeared around her body, and at the same time, a lot of pink petals appeared. Under her control, a large number of petals scattered around with the whirlwind.

The fallen flowers are colorful, and the falling flowers will attack all surrounding enemies like flying snow. At the same time, the wind pressure will also affect the opponent's actions. The sharp petals can block the opponent's vision while attacking.

Immediately after Emmaline used this skill, there was a scolding around her.

"Hey! Look at it!"

"We are the audience, how about such a wide-ranging attack!"

This is their most presumptuous time. The people above are busy with their own battles and don't care who is protesting below. Likewise, their safety is also ignored.

It can be seen that most of the front row of the auditorium is vacant. This is also the characteristic of the Beast Pirates. You can sit wherever you want during the changing battle, as long as you are brave enough to sit next to Kaido.

The risk is that Kaido may pat you on the shoulder or thigh when he is excited. Few people like to watch a game and see themselves in the hospital, so Kaido has no ordinary members around.

As for other positions, as long as you have the confidence to take over the aftermath of the battle, you can move forward. Emmaline's attack is an example. This large-scale attack affects even the audience in the front row.

When the attack came, Tezolo dodged and came behind Quinn. It was much safer to hide behind Quinn at this time, and Kaido let the attack hit him carelessly.

Others also have their own defense methods. The most luxurious is Yamato's side. Dianxi directly propped up a diamond barrier, blocking all the scattered petals from the outside, and because the transparency of diamonds is high enough, this layer of barrier It did not affect their continued spectating.

Zeraora has a fine current defense, although he and Shannan are not afraid of this level of aftermath, but he does not like the feeling of an attack hitting him like Kaido.

As for Perona.. those attacks passed directly through her body. At this time, her body was sleeping peacefully in the arms of the bear, and only her spirit body was watching the battle.

This is also one of the sources of her staying up late, she can let her body rest first, while her soul leaves the body to do other things.

People who don't have the ability can only choose to watch from a distance. If they don't even have the ability, they can only watch the live broadcast of Rotom from a distance, but that will be despised by the beasts. After all, it is a manifestation of cowardice. .

"Emaline, this little trick is useless!"

A burst of electric light erupted from Drake's body, and her eyes were filled with electric light. At this time, the content of her vision was completely different from that of ordinary people.

Those petals gradually became transparent in her eyes, and the world became gray-white. This is her ability to see through. Although she can see through some things, she cannot see the color, and some special things cannot be seen through, such as the body of a living being. .

Shaina's mask is a part of the flame chicken's body, so her perspective cannot see through, and Jin's mask is also imperceptible because it is mixed with some special Pokémon materials.

But Emmaline's petals are fine.

Resisting the damage caused by the petals and wind pressure, bursts of roars erupted from her throat, and she rushed forward like a lioness.

Because after Emmaline released Luoying Blossom, a ball of light appeared above her body.

The light ball above her head felt wrong to anyone who looked at it. Drake didn't want to wait for Emmaline to charge up. The animal-type battle couldn't get rid of its claws and teeth, and the claws attached to the thunder and lightning caught Emmaline one after another.

Her battles do not have the grace of Orchid Manga, only the wild madness of the Röntgen cat, but most of the electricity attached to the claws are resisted by the attributes of Orchid Manga, and more damage is caused by pure brute force.

After Emmaline took a few claws forcibly, the sunlight ball above began to gradually merge into her body, and the mantis-like arm was also wrapped in light.

"You should almost have had enough!"

Emmaline crossed her arms and waved towards Drake, but was dodged by an iron bridge, a few strands of hair fell, and the smell of burning hair spread to Drake's nose.

The charged sunlight blade was not over yet. Although Drake avoided the first round of attacks, Emmaline soon turned the sickle blade around, and the huge blade of light slashed towards her in the shape of an X.

Boom!

There was a huge X shape on the field, and a charred wound on Drake's thigh.

"Are you trying to kill me? Because I owe you 20 million Bailey yet?"

"What a joke, if I kill you, I will ask someone to repay the money, then you will definitely be able to catch it, and you will lie down for at most half a month."

"Cut, I think you just want revenge, I won't give you such interest!"

"I didn't expect you to be able to do it, and you stole my limited edition makeup."

After a brief exchange, they fought again, and the scars on both of them continued to increase.

"Well, they're all good young people, Yamato, look it up, you have to be much stronger than them."

Kaido is still instilling in Yamato the idea that strength is respected, and she is not the only one who has been educated. Although internal celebrations such as weddings will not invite people from the Kozuki family, but every large-scale change of positions fights Kozuki Ri. and will attend.

Although this attendance has some coercive meanings.

"General Hiwa, don't you think these battles are exciting? The stronger the cadres are, the safer the country of Wano will be."

Next to , Jhin was talking about the objective facts in his eyes. The stronger the beasts are, the safer the country of Wano will be. There is nothing wrong with this sentence itself, but the target of the Kozuki family is different.

It is the Wano country of the beasts that is safe, not the Wano country of Guangyue. This sentence is tantamount to the biggest slander for Guangyue Rika, and she is unable to refute anything.

Both she and her remaining retainers understand that this is a regular deterrent of force by the beasts.
*nOVeLuS.cOmm

Chapter 483 The Consensus Reached by the Brother-Guarding Maniac

Honestly be your own mascot, prosperity and wealth are indispensable. If you dare to do something, the weapons of these cadres can change from guardians to enemies at any time.

Although Hiyori inherited the bloodline of Kozuki Oden, she did not inherit the opponent's physique and eyesight at all. She couldn't understand the following battle situation, she could only sigh that she was so strong, so powerful and so on.

But Kiku no Cheng is different from Denjiro and others. They have a clearer understanding of strength. A few years ago, their perception was that Kaido was an unmatched monster, and the three disasters were powerful cadres.

Over the years, they have watched the monsters of the Beasts Pirates increase, and the number of cadres is also gradually increasing. The most important thing is that the children born in these years are far more familiar with the Beasts Pirates than light. Yuejia should be familiar with it.

They may not know Guangyue, but they know that the beasts, food, clothing, housing and transportation, and everything in Hezhi are closely related to the beasts, especially the preferential treatment of the pregnant women by the Beast Pokémon Center.

Giving birth has always been a gate of hell. Everyone has their own family. Advanced medical technology has reduced the consequences of dystocia. For their own family, even if the older generation is somewhat old-fashioned, their children will still choose to go to the hospital.

This is a subtle influence, and the goals of the beasts are gradually being realized. For young people, the general of the Guangyue family is a high-ranking big man who will only show up at the festival, and it is not as big as Pokémon on their lives.

There are people in conservative families who have this idea, not to mention the local families of Wano who already live with Pokémon like the Kentaro family.

The most helpless thing for them is still the classroom. In the history class, they will tell about Kozuki Oden and tell the truth about what Oden did. They can't refute it, because those stupid things are what Kozuki Oden did.

The teacher assigned by Hundred Beasts did not deliberately discredit him, because it was unnecessary, a kind-hearted but brainless fool, His Highness, was their definition of Koyuki Oden, and most people have accepted this result.

While Jhin was showing off his power to them, the battle between Emmaline and Drake also came to an end. Emmaline won by virtue of her attribute advantage, but her actual combat experience is indeed much richer than that of Drake.

Compared to Drake's Berserker faction, her battles are more rational. When Drake's first attack failed to achieve results, she basically lost, and the arena was not friendly to her Berserker faction.

After all, the best method of these fighting lunatics is to exchange injuries for life, which will affect some performance in the transposition battle that limits kills.

"The game is over! Miss Emmaline has defended her position, let's congratulate the winner!"

Ann, who hosted this kind of event for the first time, felt a little excited. These battles were much more exciting than ordinary events. This was also her nature. Otherwise, the original timeline would not have developed into a person who specializes in hosting pirate events.

The lack of a way is only one aspect. If you can't accept it, there is nothing you can do. Although there is some stage fright now, it's just not used to it.

Emmaline picked up Drake and then threw her several unpackaged vials of medicine.

The wound medicine specially provided by the internal cadres of Hundred Beasts was only used during wars in the past, but the transposition battle is an exception. They usually have to go through more than one battle. In order to reduce the time required for the battle, today's medicine is Unlimited supply.

And the battle between Emmaline and Drake is not the end, but a beginning. Whether it is those who want to go further or those who defend their position, they have already acted at this time.

"Zeraora, I'll leave for a while, I guess they'll be restless again."

Usually, there are not many people who challenge her, but when it comes to the annual change of position, most of them will become very restless. There are no traces of numbers on her body, but if you look closely at her nails, you can see it. There is a pattern with the number 1 on it.

This is based on personal habits. Some people like to be high-profile, while others don't like to attract attention. Davego's number is written directly on his face, for fear that others will not see it.

And the instant is using this number to make a nail polish, if you don't look carefully, you won't be able to see the position of the number.

In addition, there are not many challenges faced by Moment in normal times. Most people will not rashly challenge the number one. The tenth challenge is usually the most, but this time is different. Moment has an old acquaintance.

"Mandfish? Didn't you say that the third position is enough?" nOveluSb.cOM

"That was before. In fact, I am also going to get married. I have to work hard for the future, right?"

"It makes sense, but I won't let water, otherwise Zeraora's face will not look good."

Mandelfish and Shanna walked out. As challengers, they were qualified to occupy the home court. As a water-type Pokémon, the place where there was water was the home ground for their battle, so the place where Mandelfish fought was in in the ocean field.

Similar challenges have also occurred in other places, such as No.4's Babanuki launched his own challenge to No.2's Elizabeth.

Although it is just a simple transposition battle, there are many troublesome things in it. For example, due to the problem of attribute restraint between divine benefactors, there will be occasional closed-loop situations in the arena.

That is to say, the second can't beat the first, the third can't beat the second but can beat the first. When this happens, there will be a cyclic battle of endurance competition. But this is still rare.

Xiaoquan Stone and Pang Yan Monster are repairing the venue that Emmaline destroyed. Although there is more than one venue, there is always a queue. At this time, Ulti also pulls Peggy Wan to start the registration, and plans to start the challenge from the numbered person at the end. .

They also have the qualifications to participate in the battle. Although they are still children, those abilities are not a joke. Most of the people at the bottom of the ranking are some givers, and they really may not be the current opponents of Ulti and Pejiwan.

And most of the old people inside the beasts also accepted the cognition that children are monsters, they can't wake up the overlord at the age of eight, and the teenagers and Kaido who released water spent three days and three nights.

But some people don't know that there is no privilege in the transposition battle, whoever signs up first will come first.

Although many people stayed up all night yesterday, Ulti and Pejiwan live on Ghost Island, so they can sign up directly when they get up.

Sasaki, who lives in the Rabbit Bowl quarry, is different, so when he sees Peggy Wan and Ulti in front of him, he is slightly upset.

"The kid just went home and played the house. It's too early for a little guy like you to stand by Big Brother Kai, how about saving some time for the adults?"

Before Ulti could speak against him, a big hand suddenly placed on Sasaki's shoulder, and Jack's dull voice sounded from behind him.

"Who are you talking about the little guy?"

Chapter 484 NO.0

Strictly speaking, Jack is also a minor, but he can't stand his development. Peggywan and Ulti are just normal human bodies, and there is no possibility of comparing them with Sasaki, who is in his early 20s. nOveluSB.cOm

But Jack is different. Although he is not yet 15 years old, he has reached adolescence and is developing rapidly. Now his height has reached 6.6 meters. Sasaki's height of 3 meters is the real little guy in front of Jack.

Quarrels are very common within the Beast Pirates, and there is nothing strange about fighting, this kind of slapstick is nothing at all.

But Jack admits that he is a bit of a double standard. If Sasaki says he doesn't care about others, he doesn't care if he says Ulti, but Peggy doesn't.

That is the younger brother he values most, even when he goes out, he never forgets to bring gifts. On the original timeline, he could become one of the three disasters at the age of 28. Although he looks silly and does very silly things, he cannot deny his strength. Among the young people in the Beast Pirates, His talent is only lost to Yamato, and his endurance is no match.

In the more intense competitive environment of the Beast Pirates, one cannot reach that position without the strength.

Although he is still many years away from the age of 28, he has acquired the ability ahead of time. He is still more powerful than the mammoth. He has been specially trained in Fishman Island for a year, although there is still a certain distance from the peak. The gap, but also stronger than most pirates.

His future is bound to be stronger, and the change in his state of mind also leads to an increase in strength. He will only be stronger in the future than he was in the original time.

Although he is still growing, Sasaki is also the same. The pressure from that big hand is that he can't bear it. When he was a pirate captain, he was also known for his strength, but in the face of Jack, who was born as a fishman different.

"If you join here, you must obey the rules here and queue up honestly."

This is the order within the Beast Pirates, a special order formed by absolute strength. These pirates may be quarreling, but no one dares to act or cut the queue. This is the residual influence of the rules.

Ulti rarely finds Jack as a pervert to be pleasing to the eye. Her way of judging a person is very simple. Those who are close to Pejiwan but don't rob her are good people.

Jack was against Jack because of her previous "perverted" behavior, but now she has slightly unified the front line, after all, "foreign enemies" have appeared.

Since he was about to challenge the position in a while, Sasaki didn't continue talking, and stood back with a cold snort.

Intense battles are also unfolding in different venues, such as on the battlefield by the sea, where Shanna and Mandelfish fought extremely fiercely.

Two people, one wants to pursue a higher status for the future wife, and the other does not want their husband to lose face. It can be said that they have done their best.

"Wen She · Ten Lianxing!"

The power of the waveguide formed the bowstring and arrows, and the arrows composed of the power of the waveguide also carried the static electricity generated by her fur. The power of lightning between the ten waveguide arrows was still attracting each other, and finally formed a chain. Thunder net flew towards Mandelfish.

And Mandelfish, who was standing on the water, twitched his tail in the sea, and a large amount of seawater pressed towards the waveguide arrow in the sky.

Because they are arrows composed of waveguide power, these arrows have a certain tracking ability. Although they will not chase the ends of the earth, they cannot get rid of them in a short time.

Thunderbolt is very restrained on Mandelfish, and he doesn't want to taste what those arrows are like.

The waves are also creating his own home field. Their battles are very three-dimensional. Whether it is a tyrannical carp dragon or an electromagnetic floating moment, it has the ability to fly, but Mandelfell is one more underwater.

But this is a ring match, not a free field fight, he can't hide in the water all the time.

And I'm afraid that he will be killed by the instant kite. The water here is just a shoal, not a deep sea, and it is not enough to offset the strength of the instant arrow. If he wants to win, he has to find a way to approach the opponent.

Using the cover of the waves and the jet of flames, he successfully reached the side of the moment. This distance is no longer suitable for the archers to draw the bow, so he realized what the melee combat of the archers is.

Although some skills do not have slates, they can learn by themselves with the improvement of the strength of some Pokémon abilities, and at this moment, they use the special curved bow to use the bone stick to fight.

The ground system is absolutely ineffective for the flight system, but it is difficult to hit. The sword of the cliff can stab birds down, and the bone stick can naturally hit the target. Even if it can fly, it will be hit on the ground. earthquake damage.

This is the difference between the ground-based skills and the game. Mandelfish approached her with a domineering attack that resisted the moment, and the tail wrapped in the water also entangled the opponent.

"This way you won't be able to use electricity."

Fur tribes can use electric shock, but they are not immune to lightning attacks, and fur tribes will also be restricted to a certain extent when wet.

Then Mandelfish wanted to press Moment into the water below, and if he succeeded, the opponent's Moon Lion's hole card would also become unusable.

Mandelfish succeeded, but it was only half successful. Although he brought Moment into the water, Momo didn't use the Moon Lion, but he entered another state - the Mega state.

There is a certain difference between the fur tribe and humans. Because of the genes of beasts in their bodies, they are more fully integrated with the abilities of Pokémon than human beings.

When she got married, Arceus gave her the ability of Mega. In the following time, she also successfully mastered this power and became the second person in the Beast Pirates to master the evolution of Mega.

The power of the huge waveguide rushed Mandelfish's tail away, and in an instant he was suspended in the sky again, with a few special braids behind his head, and a few steel thorns on his body. After the evolution of Mega, the battle in the body The blood has fully awakened.

The static electricity on the body surface began to flow slightly, and the hair on the body surface was quickly dried.

seems to feel that he has lost face, and there is a moon stone in his hand in an instant, and the hair on his body has become more fluffy.

Looking at the power of Mega Evolution and Moon Lion superimposed in an instant, Mandelfish suddenly felt a little panic, but after thinking about Rusaka, he did not choose to admit defeat, but chose to take the initiative.

But in the face of a fully stacked opponent, he who has not mastered the Mega evolution ability is really no opponent, and he will soon be defeated.

But his battles were good enough that even Kaido noticed it.

"That guy Mandelfish is not bad, but unfortunately, his opponent is too strong."

"It's just right, the NO.0 position has been vacant, let Shanna fill the 0 position, and Mandefish will take over the 1st position."

Chapter 485 The battle of transposition that has settled down, the pirate flag only useful to smart people

Arceus and Kaido can see that Mandefish has done his best, whether it is combat thinking, skills, bravery or perseverance, he has achieved the ultimate, but he encountered a moment.

It is not only him who protects his wife, but also Zeraora, as the eldest son of Arceus, and the wife of the eldest son who is very favored, he gets a lot of things in an instant.

Kaido's training, Lucario's blessing, and two big killers, Mega Evolution and Moon Lion.

The fact that she can inherit the throne means that Yang Jisihan has recognized her strength. The blessing brought by this level of fur tribe's moon lion is very terrifying.

Not to mention that the moment is a double stack, if Mandefish can win the moment in this state, the three plagues should add a seat.

And his luck is also very bad. The talent of the fur tribe is a restraint for him, but luck is also a part of strength. Mandefish's good luck and bad luck have always appeared alternately, perfectly practicing luck law of conservation.

As Kaido said, it's not that Mandefish is weak, but that the moment is too strong.

When the numberer proposed it, it was a 101-digit number from 0 to 100, of which the 0th seat was the most special. This position means a strong strength comparable to the three disasters.

So it has been vacant before, but now the performance of the moment is enough to bear the number zero, and her explosive power is very impressive with the double buff blessing. And Mandefish's strength is also not weak, and naturally made some subtle changes.

The battles in other venues are also continuing, Emmaline and Drake are continuing to move forward, and even Pierman, who has obtained new abilities, has begun to challenge upwards. Although the sun coral is not as good as the Roentgen cat and the orchid mantis, the water plus The composite properties of rocks are also ok.

The extra coral thorns on the outside of his body also made his rolling power more powerful, and he was slowly rising little by little.

"Ur. Head Gun!"

As an iron-headed baby, Ulti likes to hit people with her head very much, even if it is a two-axe battle dragon now, and even the sharp axe teeth make her head gun more powerful.

And Peggy Wan in the adjacent field also broke out from the ground. The fierce bite land shark transformed from the Spinosaurus can be regarded as the shape of an overlord-level Pokémon, and the huge stature can complement his age. disadvantage.

For the stingy land shark, there is no difference between land and sea water, he can swim freely in it, and the huge shark that broke out of the ground also successfully caused a lot of damage to the enemy.

At the same time, Sasaki also defeated an opponent, but before he could continue to challenge, he ushered in his challenger, Jack.

As a brother-protecting madman like Ulti, Jack decided to use his strength to tell the other party not to look down on children, especially those under his cover.

Boom! tom! Bang!

The sound of metal collisions continued to sound, and the bronze elephant of the king and the metal body of the moat dragon collided fiercely. There was no such thing as a variety of quirks in the battle with Mandelfish in an instant, and there was no flexibility in the battle between Drake and Emmaline. , some are just fist-to-meat hand-to-hand combat.noVELUsb.COm

In the face of Sasaki's attack, Jack didn't even dodge, but chose a hard connection. This kind of battle is the most effective way to conquer a person.

However, he dared to do this because of his confidence in his physique. Sasaki would not be very wise to learn from him. Although the defense of the castle dragon is very high, his defense is outside the body after all. A blunt weapon attack will still affect the body. Not to mention Jack is still a murloc.

The two punched each other for an unknown number of punches, and Sasaki began to gasp for breath. At this time, Jack also decided to give him the final blow.

"Murloc Karate·Kawa Zhengquan!"

The murlocs are not weak, or their ancestors are not weak, and the internal destruction can only be achieved by training to the advanced level, but the basis of murloc karate is to shake the water in the enemy's body to cause higher damage.

It can be said that murloc karate can cause more damage in a simpler way, but most people have not practiced it at home, and just rely on brute force to fight recklessly. Even if the strength of the murlocs is greater, this is also a waste of murloc karate.

This punch hit the front door, and the defensive power of the moat dragon's face bone didn't play much role in the face of murloc karate, and Sasaki, who had just obtained the position, also fainted.

After two full days of fighting, the battle of transposition came to an end.

This swap battle can be said to be a big reshuffle, except that the previous stage did not change much, and many powerful newcomers occupied higher seats.

NO.9 - Drew Pearman - Sun Coral

No one is dissatisfied with this, because this kind of battle is relatively fair, although some people feel that if they have the ability, they will not lose to them, but who makes them insufficient.

Beasts never covet the merits of those with meritorious deeds, so some losers apply to be transferred from the ghost island and go outside to find opportunities to fight to obtain higher merits.

Pejiwan and Ulti also took a certain seat at the end and held it in the follow-up challenge.

Jack is not interested in this for the time being. If Sasaki was not rude to Peggy Wan, he might not be able to participate in the competition. He plans to challenge them again in a few years, so as not to delay cultivation due to trivial matters, so he did not continue to challenge the previous ones after defeating Sasaki. people.

Maria's thoughts are similar to Jack's, and Sasaki instinctively gets a higher position.

But because the battle with Jack consumed too much stamina, the wound medicine provided will only heal the wound, not restore stamina, otherwise, the endurance will not be tested.

Even if he wakes up to challenge again, he is a little helpless. He did not achieve a higher position, but only appeared at the end.

The ranking of some people has also achieved the inverse attribute master, attributes will affect the results, but not all, if the gap between their own strengths is too large, even if they have the blessing of attributes, it is difficult to beat the opponent.

Among them, Davego, Holdum and Scourge are in a closed-loop state of infighting. Holdem can't beat Davego, Davego can't beat Scotch, and Scourge can't beat Holdham. .

However, in the final endurance battle, Davego successfully won. Scourge is not flexible enough because of the transformation of people, and the Quinn who transformed him was not as careful as when he transformed himself, which finally led to this ranking.

With the end of the internal battle of the beasts, the cadres stationed outside also began to return to their stations, and overseas, the beasts pirates are still in action.

On an island in the North Sea, Doflamingo's face became very ugly, because Nico Robin was sitting in front of him, and it was Nico Robin with a flag on his shoulders.

The flag of the emperor of the sea has some deterrent effect, at least to the smart people, the effect of this flag is very strong

Chapter 486 Industry Competition in Beihai

Time goes forward for a while, Nicole Robin's private activities continue, and after mixing with certain organizations, they refine their plans according to their action goals.

However, the ruins are not everywhere, and sometimes she will waste some time doing useless work.

Although O'Hara summed up some information about the ruins, those information were records left many years ago. With the passage of time, everything on the sea was changing, and those information were not 100% effective.

Sometimes it can only provide a general clue, and she has to explore the specific things herself.

For historians like them, history explores information, but these people generally do not have enough funds to form an expedition team, and those who have the capital to form an expedition team have little interest in history, they want those additional value.

From ancient weapons to small ordinary treasures, those are what they need, and the antiques obtained in some relics are also very valuable.

Robin came to Beihai because there is a well-known dealer of cultural relics here. He has a lot of things from the relics. According to the information she got from the previous organization, there is a vase in it that may contain clues about a relic. .

That organization originally planned to rob this person, but there was an accident on the way.

As for why the organization had an accident, it was unfortunately reported by other legitimate companies during the event, and then wiped out by the navy. As for which legitimate company is so enthusiastic, it doesn't matter, and then Robin infiltrated this organization. Get a secretary.

And it took a while to successfully sneak into this person's house, but more than one person was eyeing him. At this time, the Don Quixote family, who was also active in the North Sea, was also eyeing this antiques dealer.

The power of the North Sea is much more complicated than the other three oceans at this time. Now, the Don Quixote family and the Vinsmoke family are the most active in the underground world of the North Sea.

Under the leadership of Doflamingo, the Don Quixote family has only begun to rise in the North Sea. Assassination, smuggling, mercenaries, they will do anything as long as the price is right. Of course, they also sell devil fruits. main business.

Doflamingo knows some secrets that ordinary people don't know, so he has some special channels.

The Vinsmoke family is the local snake of the North Sea, a famous killer family in the underground world of the North Sea, and also the royal family of the Kingdom of Germa.

The Vinsmoke family is a royal family and once controlled the entire North Sea by force for 66 days, so it is also called Germa 66.

But they have no territory, and they walk on the sea with huge snails carrying building-like houses, and they even have the qualifications to participate in world conferences.

The Vinsmoke family has a very long heritage, with a long history of nearly three hundred years. The peak period is naturally the days when they dominated the North Sea by force, or the world government stopped them.

Later, MADS was disbanded, and Gaji returned here with new technology. He even killed four kings of the North Sea, which reshaped the prestige of Germa, the warrior of the sea, the sky, and this comic began to circulate after that. North Sea. .

also went on to work as a killer. The two families naturally have certain contradictions. Vinsmoke has his own heritage, but Doflamingo is different. He needs to accumulate his own funds through other businesses.

What Doflamingo wants is only funds, in order to have more preparations when entering the great route in the future, the current Don Quixote family are all people he regards as future cadres, and there are not even a few cannon fodder younger brothers.

is similar to Kaido's original idea. In his opinion, ordinary people from all over the world are not enough to be cannon fodder.

As a former Tianlong man, Doflamingo disliked the North Sea, and his goal was very clear, to seek the country of his ancestors.

After all, most of the powerful people in this world are in the great route. The goal of the pirates all over the world is to advance to the great route at the beginning. If they don't go to the great route, they stay in the four seas. Most of them are trash.

Even if Moriah and Crocodile were beaten, they just quit the new world and stayed in the first half of the great route.

At this time, this antiquities dealer that Robin was lurking was like this, and he was targeted by the Don Quixote family.

It took some time for Robin to gain the trust of the man. When he was observing where there was a secret room in the room, a series of gunshots sounded outside the room. The seemingly mighty bodyguards fell one by one, and then a group of people rushed in. came in.

The bodyguards in the house just took out the pistols in their arms, and the bullets were already shot at them.

boom! boom! boom!

The left leg of baby-5, headed by , has become a flintlock gun, or an unscientific flintlock gun that can fire continuously. As a weapon fruit capable, she can transform her body into various weapons.

Behind her are Buffalo and Luo, this is the test of the Don Quixote family for children, except for the very young half-fish Delinger, whose hands have been stained with blood.

Luo also has a lot of white spots on his face. Although the medicine of the beasts has certain benefits for the body, it is only a health medicine after all, and the platinum-lead disease is still slowly developing in his body.

The fighting time is not long, these bodyguards can deal with ordinary people, but it is not enough to face the people cultivated by the Don Quixote family. Soon they all fell into a pool of blood, leaving only the bald head in the middle. Antiquities dealer and several servants.

Those servants didn't want to run, but they didn't know what to do when they were pointed at by guns, and Robin just touched the head of the tear-eyed lizard to make it not afraid.

Due to his personality, the tear-eyed lizard is far from the calmness of a thousand-faced escort. If it is afraid of crying, it will be the biggest trouble for Robin. NovelUSb.com

"Who are you and what do you want?"

To be able to start a smuggling business, that person has experienced some storms. Although he was pointed at the head by a gun, he was not too flustered.

"Your hidden treasure."

Luo simply stated his request, and then shot directly at the housekeeper beside him.

"You'd better cooperate, otherwise this will be your end."

At this time, Luo's inner goal was to drag everyone to be buried together, and he didn't care about the life of a passerby.

Under the threat of death, the antiquities dealer quickly revealed where his things were hidden, but he was not released, but was punched in the head.

This was the order Doflamingo gave them, but just when they were going to keep silence, there were a few extra arms on their bodies for no reason.

"Thirty round flowers · hook claw."

Chapter 487 Brother Ming in front of Kaido is just a younger brother

When she just went to sea a year ago, she would hesitate to do some things, but as she went undercover in various organizations, she learned more and more about the outside world, and her actions became more and more decisive.

This is also the reason why she spends most of the time undercover in illegal organizations, so that she will act more decisively without any hesitation.

It can be seen from the actions of those children just now that they are by no means good.

Her practice in Ghost Island is different from that of Yamato and the others. She doesn't have the daily beatings of the devil. She just keeps strengthening her body. She spends more time learning other things in different ways, so she is only a little bit armed. color.

But she also learned other things from others, that is, following Naiqin, she learned more about the structure of the human body, gained a deeper understanding of joint skills, and also gained a certain understanding of the acupuncture points and blood vessels and meridians of the human body.

This is a big problem in the world of pirates, because there are too many strange body shapes, not to mention the long-legged patriarch and hand clan with many joints, even ordinary people have all kinds of strange structures.

What kind of awl head, drill nose, radish body, short legs, etc., it is very difficult to compare the conventional acupuncture points, even Naiqin has to try a little bit, and it took many years to integrate it into his body. In surgery.

Although her traditional Chinese medicine boxing is in the name of traditional Chinese medicine, she is more of acupuncture. The 80-year-old can use the secret medicine to rejuvenate her youth and can live a few strokes with the young Hancock. She is still a cadre on the Wald ship. Naiqin is also considered the strongest among pirates.

What she has learned from her allows Robin to more accurately find the Achilles heel when attacking the enemy, and use the fragility of joints and nerves to complete her own smash, instead of forcibly breaking the enemy's bones with brute force.

Naiqin has a high evaluation of Robin's learning talent. If it is a fixed target and the opponent's body is not deformed, then she can probably stab him a dozen times without touching the key.

Luo and the others have ten extra arms on their bodies. The arm strength derived from Robin's ability is derived from the strength of her body. After more careful exercise, her physique has also improved, and she intends to twist them when she hugs them. spine and cervical spine.

The cultural relics dealer had already stated the location of some things, and she was going to take advantage of it now, but when she wanted to do something, a sense of crisis suddenly appeared in her heart, and she quickly disarmed her ability, but her arm was still there. A few more bloodstains appeared.

This is the weakness of her ability, and the derived limbs will be injured, and the body will also be injured, and what hurts her ability is a thin thread, one of which is still hung with blood beads.

"嘵嘵嘵嘵, isn't this the famous black widow recently? How could you, a poisonous spider, appear in such a place?"

At this time, the floor-to-ceiling windows on the second floor had been opened, and Doflamingo was squatting there carelessly, with the thread that he just attacked on his twisted fingers.

Brother Doflamingo is still more concerned about his cadres, provided that this person is valuable and does not hinder him, otherwise he will kill each other just like he is blood relatives.

His own younger brother, Rosannadi, described him as a born villain.

baby-5 They are all the cadre reserves of the Don Quixote family. This is a test for them, but other adult cadres are also behind them.

Originally, Doflamingo didn't intend to come forward, but Robin's appearance disrupted his plan. His eyes were always on the place where the monsters gathered in the new world. Although he was in the North Sea, Doflamingo always kept his eyes open. In contact with the forces of the Great Route.

And Nicole Robin is also a little famous in the underground world recently. Every organization has been almost wiped out by her, but she has been able to get out of it.

At first, some people thought that she was lucky, or that the person who recruited her was unlucky, so she gave such a nickname.

In Doflamingo's opinion, this nickname is also very suitable, but he doesn't believe it is luck, once or twice is fine, but Robin broke down four and a half organizations in a year, she is clearly the one behind the scenes Weavers.

Those self-righteous are nothing but insects caught in her net.

"Don Quixote Doflamingo"

"啾啾啾, does Miss Robin know me? It's really rare, so have you considered joining me?"

He values Robin's ability very much, and her ability may help him a lot in his future actions. As for the crisis of confidence, he feels that he is different from those idiots, and Robin can't do anything in his hands Come.

"Unfortunately, I decline this invitation."

When she came here, she inquired about the information here. The Don Quixote family was only just beginning to contact the underground world of the Great Route, but the beasts and BIG·MOM are all local snakes there, so Robin has something for this person. learn.

The direction of his actions is completely contrary to his own, and this organization is not suitable for her.

"Oh? Can I think you're giving up your life?"

He doesn't plan to let this kind of person go. If Robin refuses, Doflamingo doesn't plan to let her leave alive.

"Of course not, I'm just thinking about you. After all, you can't afford the consequences of robbing people."

said that, Robin pulled down the armband on his shoulder, and the ghost horn skeleton was very conspicuous.

"Mr. Doflamingo, you should know this flag. If you can convince Mr. Kaido, I have no problem."

Compared to the wise and the fool, Robin is more willing to meet the former, because the banner of the beasts may not be effective for those brainless fools, and sometimes arouses their desire to challenge.

But smart people with discernment, such as Doflamingo, who have been developing their own underground world network, will never take the risk to offend a sea emperor. Novelus.COM

And the fact is the same as Robin guessed. After seeing the flag, Doflamingo's face became obviously ugly. He didn't want to bet on whether the beasts knew the details here, and whether he would do something if he did something. be retaliated against.

As a former Tianlong person, he has a clear understanding of the force of the world. Whether it is the emperor of the sea or the admiral of the navy, he is not an enemy he can face, or he will not be chased by cranes and run around.

He would rather offend an admiral than a big pirate like Kaido. With the secrets in his hands, he is confident that the world government will stop the navy's actions, but the pirates are different. Those lawless people are completely according to their own preferences. act.

Offending a monster like Kaido will only kill him faster.

With 's fingers, Doflamingo retracted the released thread.

But looking at the flag on Robin's shoulder, Luo on the side showed a different look

Chapter 488 Doflamingo is being backstabbed

Neither Doflamingo nor Luo considered whether Robin was a fake, because no one dared to fake the flag of the Emperor of the Sea.

I don't know that they are so powerful that they can't use each other's flags, I know that they are so powerful that they dare not use their flags, and there are too many ignorant rats in the sea, this time because Doflamingo is a smart man, he knows Kaido How scary.

For a native of Beihai, Kaido's flag may not be as threatening as a person who offers a reward of 20 million in the Beihai, so people who pretend to be the subordinate forces of the emperor of the sea in the four seas simply do not exist.

And even if Robin is fake, he will treat it as real, so he won't lose anything. Once he really touches Kaido's people, then he probably won't be able to get in in his life. Go to the new world.

The Lone Brave incident made all the careerists understand what would be the result of offending those monsters.

"啵啵啵啵啵, say hello to Mr. Kaido for me, this time the treasure will be given to you, but it's okay for me to take my "family" away."

"No, I just want a vase. As for greetings, Mr. Kaido shouldn't have the time."

Robin got up and walked to the place where the relics dealer said earlier to store things, which can be considered to show his attitude.

"Wait, don't you want the animal-type Devil Fruit too?"

The shade of the sunglasses made it difficult for others to see his eyes. Although Robin's appearance disrupted his actions, he was not angry, because he knew very well that the behavior of a child would have no effect.

Instead of sulking at a life that you can't afford to offend, it's better to seize this opportunity. If you can get online with the Beast Pirates, some things in the future will definitely be smoother.

Animal Devil Fruits have always been what the Beast Pirates have been looking for. As a Devil Fruit dealer in the North Sea, he also has a lot of Devil Fruits in his hands. This is the only opportunity he can think of.

". Call this number, someone will trade with you."

Robin is also on the task of searching for something when she goes out. She will definitely not refuse this kind of door-to-door deal, and she casually threw a phone number to Doflamingo.

Seeing that Robin gave him the contact information so neatly, he was even more convinced that the other party was a man of beasts, otherwise he would not be so happy.

After all, in terms of the exposed information of the beasts, no matter who trades them for the Devil Fruit of the animal system, they will take it in their pockets.

If Robin keeps shirking even this, then her identity is a little suspicious.

"嗚嗚嗚嗚, Miss Robin, is there somewhere to go? I can still help a little in Beihai."

"No need, but it's not worth our special trip for ordinary fruits."

"Of course there won't be just one ordinary fruit, so don't bother Miss Robin, baby-5, Buffalo, Luo, let's go."

Although the treasure here is not low in value, but those things won't run away, so he can wait for Robin to get what he wants before collecting the rest.

So immediately take baby-5 and them away, but some people are not so cooperative with him.

"Wait, Luo, where are you going! Didn't you hear what the young master said!"

Except for Torrepol and others who first saw him as the leader and called him Dover, everyone else called him the young master, especially the ones raised by the Don Quixote family. Children even more so.

But for Luo, the people of the beasts are very important to him.

"Don't go! What the * happened to Sister Misu?!"

"I do not know what you're talking about."

Looking at the white spots on Luo's face, coupled with the fact that he accurately said Misu's name, Robin naturally thought of the platinum-lead disease problem, it seems that this is also an orphan of Fravans.

But she didn't explain the reason to the other party. Buying Devil Fruits is the consistent style of the beasts. Doflamingo can naturally give the contact information, but she will not expose other things because of it. Otherwise, it's putting the cart before the horse.

"Your medicine is totally fake! It's useless for platinum-lead disease."

Before he could finish his next words, Doflamingo suddenly appeared behind him and covered his mouth, cutting people's fortunes like killing one's parents. In Doflamingo's view, the pharmaceutical industry of all kinds of beasts and fruits is a piece of cake. Big chess, if Luo continued to talk, he might anger the other party.

"Luo, you seem to have forgotten something"

His tone was not friendly, because even if he was a family cadre, he would not tolerate the other party interfering with his plan. Obviously, Luo just now had a certain obstruction to his plan.

Luo, who made Doflamingo unhappy, was taught a lesson by him, and then went to contact the other party according to the phone number given by Robin. He really has the fruit of the animal system in his hand, and now he intends to take good care of it. this opportunity.

And Luo also revealed his real name in a conversation with Buffalo and baby-5 after that.

In his opinion, Robin ignored it because it was all fake, so he didn't have much life left, so there was no need to keep this secret all the time, and all of this happened to be heard by Rosannadi.

Although he is Doflamingo's younger brother, his current identity is an undercover navy who directly belongs to the Warring States Period. He is rude to the family's children because he wants to drive them away and keep them away from Doflamingo.

After hearing that there was D in Luo's name, he had other thoughts. He didn't know what D actually meant, but he knew the word "natural enemy of God".

The conversation after allowed him and Luo to understand more, and also took Luo to temporarily leave the Don Quixote family and embark on the road of seeking medical treatment.

However, several phone calls were made from these people one after another.

"Da Senbei, it's me, millet fruit."

Xiaomi Guo is the code name of Luo Nandi, and the code name of Da Xianbei belongs to the Warring States Period.

"Rosannadi, what's wrong?"

"I have some personal matters to settle. I hope to delay the progress of the mission, and that guy from Doflamingo seems to be on the line with Kaido."

"?!"

After that, for some unknown reason, Doflamingo felt that the crane's pursuit of him became closer, but he was not always caught by the tail like before.

Vergo also successfully entered the naval sequence and began to climb up, and on the ghost island, a series of actions were also being prepared.

"Quinn, this war support mission is your next one, right?" nOvEŁu&B.coM

Chapter 489 Task Force Quinn

Looking at some of the itinerary in front of him, Arceus asked Quinn flatly, but Quinn felt that the scene was a little subtle.

"Yes, Lord Arceus, is there any problem?"

"What's the problem? A war in the East China Sea Kingdom, at least a few months' voyage away from here, are you going to collect the corpses for them!"

No one can predict the occurrence of war, especially in the world of pirates. The reputation of doing things in the underground world is very important. Now the Beast Pirates have a 100% mission completion rate.

Most of the tasks were handled by Quinn, who received a war aid application from the East China Sea Corgia Kingdom not long ago.

Originally this was not in the fixed mission sequence, but Quinn looked at the price without paying attention to the address, and took over the mission directly.

"This. I think they should be able to hold on for a while."

"Do you think a country that can persevere is so eager to spend a lot of money for help?"

The reason why asked for help was because he couldn't beat him. Arceus felt that the Corgia kingdom lasted for ten days and a half months, but according to the normal sailing speed, after three or four months, the corpse could just be collected.

No, even collecting corpses can be avoided. It will take at least half a year for the large fleet to pass. After all, the Beast Pirates are not the navy, so there is no way to station troops all over the world.

Now, only the navy and the world government can dispatch reinforcements at the fastest speed no matter where a crisis occurs.

The problem now is that Quinn has already taken over this job. If it is rumored that the beasts can't complete their next task, then the face will be difficult.

"Master Arceus, I think we can send a flying team over there. As long as the top combat power is reached, there will be no problem."

"Very good advice, so Quinn, I'll leave the task to you this time."

"Ah?"

"Shaina has long since gone out with the fleet, Jhin still has a mission in the country, Olga is now in the Chambord Islands, Zeraora and Shanna have returned to Zou, Mandelfish is in Fishman Island, ya Do you want me to lead the team, or do you want Kaido to lead the team?"

Because it was a temporary task for Quinn, most of the other cadres had no time to deal with this matter. Kaido and Arceus were temporarily free, but a country in the East China Sea was not worthy of Arceus or Kaido.

This is not a problem that Bailey can solve. Unless there is extremely high value, they will never do this kind of thing.

Quinn himself is also known as a plague. Although his bounty has risen again and again, neither Kaido nor Arceus has any plans to keep him in Wano.

It's time to go out. He hasn't done anything else for a few years, and his status in the eyes of ordinary members is declining day by day, so he just needs such an opportunity. novelusb.com

"What? Is your body so rusted that you can't fight? Do you want me to find Kaido to help you loosen up?"

"No, no! Don't bother you! I'm ready to go!"

Listening to Arceus' words, Quinn immediately said that he was ready.

"This time, you will take GT6 to GT10 to test the combat capabilities of the new machine."

Genesect is currently the only phantom beast that has been produced in large quantities. Now the number of the body has reached 10, and there is no plan to continue to expand the number in the near future, even if it is transformed from a robot, it is a lot of consumption.

So after GT5, Arceus tried a new way of transformation, that is, only part of Genesect.

Genesects are very special in Pokémon. They not only have the characteristics of insects, but also the characteristics of robots. The five Genesects from GT6 to GT10 are weaker than the previous five. , but they have another feature.

As long as the head is still there, even if the body is destroyed, it will not die, because Arceus only remodeled that part, and the rest are special bodies made of Arceus steel.

However, these Genosects can still maintain their original speed, so they will follow Quinn on the mission as a dispatch team.

"Wutai? I understand Lord Arceus, leave it to me, I will handle this matter well, this time the enemy is an old acquaintance."

The intruder was Germa 66, and Vinsmoke Gage, who led the team, was Quinn's former teammate, but the relationship between the two sides was not so harmonious.

Based on Quinn's estimate of his current strength, plus five Genosects, he is very sure of this action.

"Bring Yamato and let her experience this battle."

"Master Arceus, are you sure you won't follow me this time?"

Listening to Arceus' arrangement, Quinn suddenly had a doubt. In theory, Arceus could never give Yamato to him with confidence, but Arceus didn't mean to follow, which seemed very strange.

"Of course not, she has also grown up, you can't keep looking at her, hurry up to prepare, you'd better pray that the Kokeia kingdom can last a while longer, by the way, there is a deal over there in Beihai, come back Time to drop by and trade with them."

"Understood, I'll take care of it."

Until Yamato stood on the back of Genesect and left with Quinn, Arceus did not follow, which made Quinn feel very strange, even Yamato was a little unexpected, but she was still full of being able to go out. excited.

But she kept looking around, as if she was looking for something.

"Uncle Quinn, his adopted father really didn't come?"

"Master Arceus said so, but Miss Yamato, let's discuss it, how about not calling me uncle? Jin and Shaina are the same age."

"No, you are much older than them."

Quinn felt like his heart had been stabbed, but there was nothing he could do. Although he didn't need to call her Lord Onihime like ordinary members, he couldn't forcefully change Yamato's name.

"Forget it. Miss Yamato, let me describe the specifics of this mission to you. This time, we were invited by the Kingdom of Corgia to fight the invaders for them. The identity of the invaders was Germa 66. Smoke Gage is an old acquaintance of mine.

He is not that strong, but he created a special battle suit through research on the bloodline factor. You should have read the manga of Warriors of the Sea, the abilities of those battle suits are real."

Quinn began to tell the information he had, but it was uncertain how much Yamato listened to.

And Arceus, as he said, really didn't keep up this time, because he made another preparation.

Chapter 490 Just blow them away, right?

The top of Mt. Fuji is still that mysterious space. The willpower of Leshiram and Zekrom has become more and more perfect. As long as their bodies are completed, they can appear in this world.

And each of them has a trace of thought in Yamato's body. Although the body has not yet been born, they can also temporarily "come" when their strength is gradually improved.

Yamato, who has not yet been recognized, cannot use their power, but under the orders of Arceus, they can act as guards.

That is to say, although Arceus did not follow, he left a double insurance in Yamato's body. Even if the burst of power did not last long, it was enough for Yamato to reach a safe place.

Not long ago, Vinsmoke Gage made his own decision to attack the non-joined country of the East China Sea - the Kingdom of Korquia. The current Kingdom of Germa is still a special country qualified to participate in the World Conference.

Therefore, it is impossible for them to attack the allied countries. They can only choose non-joined countries that are ignored by the world government. Even the navy cannot directly cross the red continent, but will change ships at the port.

But the Vinsmoke family is different. They have traversed the red soil continent in three weeks. For those special snails, even vertical rock walls can climb flat.

Although Corgia is located in the East China Sea, it is still a kingdom, so it will not be captured in two or three days, but judging from the current battle situation, their defeat is only a matter of time.

Because they are facing a group of special legions who are not afraid of death.

The main research topic of MADS at the beginning was the lineage factor, and for the lineage factor, everyone has their own specialties.

Gage and his team have cloned and transformed the soldiers by using the bloodline factors of several outstanding soldiers, so that the soldiers will become flesh-and-blood "machines" with absolute obedience and outstanding quality.

They are not afraid of life and death, they only know to obey orders, and they do not need parents to raise them hard. As long as they have enough nutrients, they can cultivate a qualified soldier in five years.

There are different models according to different situations, some clone troopers are faster, some clone troopers are more powerful and so on.

Clone troopers have appeared as consumables from the day they appeared, even if those clone troopers themselves did not know that they were actually clones.

Quinn led the team to test Genesect, and Gage's behavior was also to test his own clone army.

"Commander, the test is basically over, not afraid of death, never betray, these replica soldiers are simply perfect fighters."

A doctor with glasses introduced the specific situation to Gage.

"Also, Iji-sama, Niji-sama, Yuji-sama, and Reiju-sama all performed very well in this battle."

Compared with ordinary clones, Gage has also transformed his children. Iji, Niji, and Yuji are all fearless machines, and they have exchanged for a stronger body at the cost of abandoning their emotions.

Although Leijiu retains some feelings, he is also unable to refuse Gage's orders. His children are more like tools to him.
ηoveLusB.cOM

And the only example of his children, Sanji, was abandoned by him when he first arrived here, and Gaji let him leave here to fend for himself on the grounds that he could not kill his son himself as a father.

"Let's launch a general attack and end this battle as soon as possible."

"Yes, the commander-in-chief!"

At the same time, facing the increasingly fierce attack of Jemal, the Kingdom of Corgia began to lose its hold. The city gate was quickly breached, and the kingdom army had to retreat to the inner city.

"The reinforcements, where are the reinforcements?! Didn't those people agree, why haven't they come yet?!"

The king circled anxiously, complaining incessantly, although he had heard of Gage beheading four kings in the North Sea.

He knew very well that with Gage's character, even if he surrendered, he might not survive, so he issued an announcement asking for a lot of money for help.

In the face of his questioning, he did not answer him, because these ministers did not know what to do.

Time passed by, and the king became more and more nervous. The turning second hand seemed to him to be the countdown to his own death, but when his psychological pressure was about to reach its limit, he finally got a piece of good news, reinforcements finally came. !

Just looking at Quinn and Yamato, the king's expression did not relax.

"What about the army? Are you the commander-in-chief of the army?"

"This is not something you need to consider. Since we have taken over this task, we will deal with it, but can I trouble you to settle the money first?"

Quinn started to ask for the account with his cigar in his mouth. This is the rule of the beasts. The manager takes the money in advance and settles the money to be the customer. Otherwise, the destruction of this kingdom has nothing to do with him.

If it weren't for the attractive amount, Quinn wouldn't have ignored the address to take on the task.

Then a man said a few words in the king's ear. After that, his eyes changed when he looked at Quinn, and he happily took out the treasure of the treasury. In the process, Quinn vaguely heard the one billion class words.

Outside the King City, Genesect had already rushed into the enemy line and started his own killing. One side was an emotionless clone soldier, and the other side was a ruthless killing machine. The battlefield suddenly turned into a silent killing.

Germa's replica troopers rushed towards Genesect, and Genesect kept waving his claws, and the oversized Genesect flew with every swipe of his claws. Lots of soldiers.

At the same time, the light cannons behind him kept firing, which quickly eased the tension here.

"What's going on? Where did those monsters come from?"

Gage put down the telescope in his hand and looked at Genesect in the slaughter with a very solemn expression. He saw the number on Genesect's chest.

There is absolutely no such thing in the Corgia Kingdom, otherwise they should have been dispatched long ago, and their appearance at this time indicates that a third-party force has intervened.

At the same time, a slightly familiar voice appeared in his ears.

"Mumhaha, Gage, you * didn't forget about Lao Tzu!"

Yamato and Quinn did not participate in the battle against the replica soldiers. Quinn knew that those things had no feelings at all, and the only way to deal with them was to deal with the commander-in-chief, so he chose to deal with those miscellaneous soldiers with Genesect, and he went to deal with that guy Gage.

"Miss Yamato, do you remember what I said?"

Before the battle, Quinn asked Yamato, but her answer made Quinn feel something choked in her throat.

"Forget it, but it doesn't matter, as long as you shoot those guys away, right?"

". Exactly."

The matter has come to this point, he doesn't have time to repeat the plan again, anyway, there is nothing wrong with Yamato's words, as long as he defeats Gaji, everything can be solved.
