

Arceus 521

Chapter 521: Strange battle situation, two captains

Zi la~

The fist that shone with lightning gradually magnified in Bizar's field of vision. Drake's fist was wrapped in lightning and hit Bizar's iron chin directly. Soldier to soldier, king to king, this has always been the tradition of Pirate World.

Under the condition that the high-end combat power does not overflow or be defeated, the strongest person in the family usually deals with the strongest person of the enemy. The number on Comby's head is very eye-catching, so Drake can easily lock the target.

This is Thunder Fist, but it's not Thunder Fist. Roentgen Cat's skill list doesn't include Thunder Fist, but she can get single-digit numbers. own fighting talent.

Manipulating current is the most basic ability of Roentgen Cat. Attaching lightning to the fist to increase its power is the most basic usage, but it is not as explosive as the thunder fist brought by the skill.

Bizar, who has been at war with Comby for a long time, is no match for the energetic Drake at all. He is slightly stronger than Comby with the number 61, but he is naturally no match for the single-digit Drake. Was beaten and flew out.

When he pulled up from the beach again, his eyes were on Drake's neck, and the pink NO.5 stood out even against the blue fur.

Whitebeard's subordinate captain is not a newcomer who knows nothing about Paradise. Their biggest enemies in the new world are the Beast Pirates and the Big Mom Pirates. They have a certain understanding of the way Beasts divide their strength by numbers. Know.

Although this method will expose one's own strength to a certain extent, it can also bring a sense of oppression to the enemy. No. 61 Compi can reach a protracted battle with him. Facing this No. 5 ability user, he is very clear about himself. will not be an opponent.

「Damn it... why haven't Dad's reinforcements come yet...」

Just when Derek was about to make up the knife, two special gunshots came from a distance. The sense of crisis in her heart made her choose to retreat. When she just moved her feet, two bullet craters appeared. side.

Then a strong man with a long knife and an inverted Y-shaped double chin appeared here.

A cigar is dangling from the corner of his mouth, and a simple white beard flag is tattooed on his right shoulder.

The captain of the 15th Division of the Whitebeard Pirates - Fossa.

Seeing this, Derek didn't continue to strike at Bizar, but looked into the distance. The Roentgen cat not only gave her the ability to see through, but in the state of empowerment, her naked eyes could act as a telescope.

At this time, she had already seen the approaching Whitebeard Pirates' ship on the beach, and at the same time saw the people on the bow.

Wearing a pink kimono, a Japanese-style spotted red cloth is tied irregularly around the waist, and lipstick is dotted on his lips. Unlike Kikunojo, he can tell at a glance that this is a man.

The captain of the 16th Division of the Whitebeard Pirates - Izo.

The two guns in his hands are still smoking gunpowder smoke, which shows that the two guns just now came from his hands.

「It's really fast enough, hey, No. 61, are you okay?」

Because he is not very familiar with him, Drake only calls him by the code name of the other party.

「My name is Compi, and I can still fight.」

"Go and hold one, I will solve the battle as soon as possible." As he said that, Drake threw a medicine bottle to Comby, the medicine for wounds inside Beasts, which can not only heal injuries but also restore physical strength.

Combie was originally rationed, but he didn't expect it to be a protracted battle. He didn't carry much medicine. He had already distributed his medicine to other seriously injured members.

With 1 to 1, Drake is still a little confident, but two is a bit embarrassing for her. Apart from the still vacant second division, the Whitebeard Pirates has now developed into a large pirate group with 16 divisions.

Every captain is a strong man with good strength. The serial number of the captain does not necessarily represent the strength and status ranking. Although it is rumored that these people are very powerful, there is also a big gap between them.

Both Yizang and Fossa are at the level of senior cadres, but they are not yet considered big cadres.

「I will try my best, but...」

Even if the medicine can restore physical strength, he will not

Determine how long you can last in the hands of the captain of the white beard. Drake has proved the gap between the levels. The difference between them is far from physical strength.

"Don't worry, I will come to help you soon, it's not a big problem, but what is there on this island?"

The Whitebeard Pirates dispatched two captains. This was something they did not expect. According to Derek's prediction, it would be enough for Whitebeard to send only one captain. His territory is so large, and he should not have such ample manpower. right.

The Whitebeard Pirates can send two captains, indicating that there is something they need.

"I am not sure as well."

「What about the pirates from before?」

"Er... not long after we got here, they both died in the firefight."

A result that Drake didn't expect appeared, and now she doesn't have time to think about the problem, the most important thing is to deal with the battle in front of her.

「Iska! Plan No. 2, pay attention to your own safety!」

The original plan was to take her to see the blood, but in order to prevent accidents, she still has backup plans, including the No. 3 plan, which is not the opponent's immediate retreat at all, and the No. 2 plan, which is to cancel her action and change to supervise Kikunojo.

Kikunojo's strength is much stronger than those ordinary pirates. Usually Drake can let him touch fish, but it is impossible to waste her force at this time.

Speaking of Drake's body surface began to be flooded with electric current, this is a charging move, which can enhance the power of his next electrical attack, and the electric current attached to the body surface can also give him the electric current to resist special attacks.

"Compi, I leave this to you."

"Yes!"

Compby, who had regained his strength with the potion, used the shell blade again, and Fossa also took a deep breath of his cigar. As the red cigarette * touched the blade, his long knife was immediately wrapped in a layer of flame.

The water blade collided with the fire blade, and Drake also rushed towards the coast.

Compared to these tired affiliated pirates, it is obvious that the equally energetic members of Whitebeard's team are the most troublesome.

Besides, Yizo, who is armed with two guns, will be even more troublesome once he intervenes in the battlefield. Muskets can play a greater role in dealing with enemies who are not as powerful as himself.

It is said to use guns, but those ordinary muskets have limits. Those who are famous in the new world are not marksmanship at all. Those in the new world are the foundation of the foundation.

Their competition is the ability of knowledge color and armed color. Knowledge color captures opponents, and armed color increases power. Without these two things, their guns are like burning sticks in the eyes of opponents of the same level.

Because he sensed that the situation on the island was not right, Fossa broke into the island first, and Yizang led the team to land, but Yizang didn't know how much this battle would bring him.

Chapter 522: helpless brotherhood

Looking at Yizang who jumped out of the boat with two guns in hand, Drake even felt a little nostalgic in his heart, because she also used two guns a long time ago, but after joining Beasts, she gradually changed her fighting style.

Fist has become her more reliable weapon, but now she still has two pistols stuck in her waist, but the style of painting is quite sci-fi, they are new weapons researched by combining her own abilities.

and the energy cannon in Quinn's body are based on the same principle, both are new weapons driven by the power of Pokémon, but the frequency of Drake's use is relatively low.

As soon as Yizang landed on the ground, he saw a big cat rushing towards him with lightning wrapped around him. It was Drake in beast form. In terms of speed explosion, the pure beast form was faster than the naked form.

Derek sprinted so fast that Yizang couldn't lock her for a while.

Bang! Bang!

Two gunshots only caused two more bullet holes on the beach. The flexibility of the Roentgen cat had already brought Drake to the top of Yizang, and the sharp teeth in its mouth were full of thunder and bit the opponent.

Although the behavior looks savage, sharp teeth have always been one of the fighting methods of animals, and most of the ability users with sharp teeth retain this fighting method.

However, Drake's Thunder Fang failed to bite the opponent, and Yizang dodged with an extremely dexterous body technique.

Drake also returned to his body form after failing to take a single blow, with a cold light shining on the claw blades, and he was fighting with Yizang close to his body. The fast close attack made him hardly have a chance to shoot.

Although Yizang was born in Wano country, he is different from those samurai who are good at swords. He has no confidence in his swordsmanship. He believes that "samurai" don't have to stick to swords. Samurai performance. However, Yizang always has the feeling that his battle has been predicted by the opponent. This kind of prediction is not an informed prediction, but that the opponent clearly knows what he wants to do next.

In fact, this is exactly the case. Drake is also good at using dual guns. She also knows that dual guns hate that kind of opponent the most. It is difficult for ordinary people to avoid the speed of muskets, but cadres of her level are different.

It can be said that Yizang was at a disadvantage from the beginning when facing her, but after staying on the Whitebeard for so many years, and also became the captain of the 16th Division, Yizang also has his own advantages.

During Drake's close fight, he still found his chance to shoot.

In Derek's eyes, Izo's movements are like dancing. This is because Izo was a descendant of the dance genre Hananagi-ryu in his childhood. After his father became a criminal, his family was also separated, and he and Kikunojo began to live on the streets.

Because of dancing since he was a child, this dance technique has also been integrated into his combat system.

「Dan Zan Wan」

Yizang's muzzle is spewing out bullets. After injecting arrogance into the bullets, each bullet can have a special shooting method of circular slashing around, achieving the effect of shooting and slashing at the same time.

Although he used a gun, the bullets he fired could do what a blade could do, and then the bullets shot by Yizang collided with the claws swung by Drake, and through the smoke generated by the collision, Yizang thought To gain distance, get into short ranges suitable for pistol combat.

But Derek didn't intend to give him this chance, and the electric current wrapped around him continued to attack Yizang.

On the other side, Iska was also carrying out her own mission according to Drake's instructions.

「Go and help Sister Derek solve the enemy, otherwise you know what will happen.」

Iska, who was wrapped under the worm armor, said to Kikunojo at the side in a flat tone, that this is the task that Drake entrusted to her. She didn't know what the result would be, but it didn't matter, because Kikunojo knew it himself.

If the three of them fished in troubled waters while fighting outside, Kozuki Hiyori would have problems in Wano, which they already knew.

For the sake of Guangyue Rihe, it doesn't matter if they become the blades of beasts, but this time is different, because Yizang on the opposite side is his own brother.

Yes, what he wants to deal with is not Buddha, but Yizang.

Although Drake asked Compito to persist, Kikunojo would not go

Help him, because his strength is not enough, even with Kikunojo, they may not be able to solve Fossa quickly.

But here is different, Kikunojo's help can help her solve the battle in hand faster, so that she can free up her hands to deal with Fossa.

Liberating herself as the highest combat power is her plan.

They never doubted Beast's words, because they didn't dare to bet what Guangyue Rihe would bring if they didn't cooperate.

「What are you waiting for? Don't you understand the meaning of the words?」

「I see...」

Even though he was reluctant, Kikunojo forced his body to move.

「Brother...I'm sorry...」

The biological brother and the orphan of the lord, Kikunojo chose the latter in this multiple-choice question. Whether Derek died or lost in battle, because of his accompanying, it will inevitably affect the situation of Kozuki Hiyori.

He didn't even dare to let it go too much, because Drake knew him too well, but because of his status, even if he didn't do anything, as long as he appeared in Yizang's vision, it would be enough to cause a huge impact.

Yizang, who was fighting Drake, noticed the movement on the side. When he raised his gun and pointed it there, he was stunned, and even gave up shooting, until he was kicked in the lower abdomen by Drake. Only then did he react.

Looking at the severed gun barrel in his left hand, Yizang's expression was full of shock.

「Why? Aju, why are you doing this?!」

Even through the mask, through the holes in the eyes and the gesture of swinging the knife, he recognized the other party, that is his own brother.

Although he stayed on Whitebeard's ship for various reasons and did not return to Wano Country for many years, he never thought that his younger brother would swing a knife at him.

"sorry..."

Two lines of teardrops slipped from the gap under the mask. It was once joked that the reason why Izang and Asura boy died in the original timeline was that they were not superstitious enough to the Kozuki family, but in a sense, these two people are indeed different from other The retainers are slightly different.

At this time, Izo guessed that Kikunojo had some unspeakable secrets, but he didn't think about it. Whether it was teaming up with his brother to deal with Drake or passing on information, Kikunojo didn't dare to do it because of Kozuki Hiyori. He just apologized. attack.

But Yizang was caught in a dilemma. Kikuzhijo opened the door wide open at this time, and he was completely unprepared for him. He hoped that Yizang would defeat him. This was the best ending for him, but Yizang couldn't bear to treat his own brother. shot.

Just because of the appearance of Kikunojo, the originally stalemate situation is heading towards a one-sided situation...

Chapter 523: Kaido

The appearance of Kikunojo completely disturbed the situation on the battlefield. Originally, Hiroshi had no advantage in the battle with Drake. Under such circumstances, the situation naturally began to decline.

He dodged Drake's kick, but the iron tail that followed it hit his shoulder, and the star-shaped tail shone with a metallic luster.

The special shape allows it to exert the effect of a mace now. Even with a domineering resistance, the strength of the iron tail has penetrated into his body. According to the feedback from the body, his shoulder blades are basically split.

「It looks like you guys know each other, which is interesting.」

According to her understanding of Kikunojo, Kikunojo has never left Wano country, and Izo wears clothes similar to Wano country. Since Kikunojo never left Wano country, the result is obvious.

Izo was born in Wano country, combined with Kozuki Oden's original itinerary, this person must have a certain connection with the Kozuki family.

But this didn't make Drake soft, and the lightning claws filled with lightning grabbed towards the opponent, but a flaming long knife blocked her attack, and Fossa, who was fighting Combi, appeared here.

Facing the white-bearded captain, although Comby can delay him, but if Fossa wants to leave, he has nothing to do.

Fossa just now also noticed the abnormality here, so he hurriedly forced Comby back to come to support.

「Yizang, what's the matter with you?」

Because Kangbi's strength is not enough to pose a threat to him, Fossa has observed Yizang's battle in the previous battle, and it was normal at first, but with the appearance of the masked man, everything in Yizang changed abnormal up.

「That's my real brother...」

"What?! I see, you deal with that woman, and I will deal with your brother."

「No, things are not what you think...have you forgotten my country」

Fossa originally thought that it was because of his own younger brother that Yizang was unable to move. This is not uncommon. It is not uncommon for one of the brothers to join the navy and the other to become a pirate.

So Fossa thinks that this matter can be handled by simply switching opponents, but Yizang thinks it is far from that simple.

At the beginning, Whitebeard's ship accidentally landed in Wano Country when it encountered a shipwreck. It was also at that time that Izo followed Kozuki Oden on Whitebeard's ship.

Although Fossa is also an old man of the Whitebeard Pirates, he had no contact with Kikunojo at that time, and he didn't know about Kikunojo's situation.

Although Kozuki Oden did not return to the Whitebeard Pirates, they just thought that Kozuki Oden went back to be a general, and Kikunojo, as a retainer of the Kozuki family, would never abandon the Kozuki family and join other forces.

Unless Kozuki Oden took the lead to do so, but if Kozuki Oden continues to go to sea, he will definitely choose to return to the Whitebeard Pirates. This situation only means one thing, something happened to Wano Country.

Moreover, in the underground market in the New World, a large number of Hailou stone products and weapons are sold under the name of Hundred Beasts, and Wano Country is the clearest known place of origin of Hailou Stone. This information is gathered in Yizang's mind. After being together, a little haze appeared in his heart.

This made it impossible for him to calm down and fight.

「You mean Mita...」

"No, Oden-sama is so strong, it's impossible for something to happen...Retreat first, this island is no longer important, we have to bring the news back and tell Dad."

The death battle here is meaningless. Information is the most important thing for them in the next stage. If Mitian is fine, it means that their speculations are all wrong, and they can attack here again.

But if something happened to Oden, referring to Kozuki Oden's strength, this is no longer something they can handle.

In this regard, Yizang and Fossa reached a consensus. Following their orders, the members of the Whitebeard Pirates who had just arrived here also began to retreat.

Derek is not a benefactor who is good at keeping people, and she can't crush the two captains, and she has nothing to do if they choose to retreat.

Although she tried to pursue, but when she gradually approached the territory of Whitebeard, she still chose give up.

「Miss Derek, we...」

"Retreat, this island is temporarily abandoned and withdrawn to our territory. This is a bit unexpected."

She roughly guessed why Yizang chose to retreat. The level of Whitebeard involved was beyond her ability to deal with. This kind of thing can only be handled by tall people.

When the ship returned, Drake also called Jhin.

「Hey, brother Jin, something happened here.」

「Huh? Do they take this island seriously?」

"No, Brother Jhin, this is not the main problem. One of the people sent by Whitebeard this time is Izo. The relationship between him and Kikunojo seems to be unusual. He may have speculated about the Wano country. I think this This matter has to be reported to Kaido-sama."

「...I see, you bring someone back first.」

"Yes."

Although the exposure of this incident has a certain relationship with Kikunojo, Jin did not care about it. After all, some things cannot be kept hidden forever. It is not a secret that Beasts use Wano Country as their base camp. Many people from the World Government all clear.

White Beard just doesn't know for the time being, if he really wants to inquire, he can still deduce this kind of thing, and it's not a few years ago now.

After hanging up the phone, Jhin flew to Ghost Island after a few run-ups. Some things were not clearly stated on the phone. He wanted to discuss things here with Kaido and Arceus face to face.

「In other words, Whitebeard already knows what's going on here, isn't that right?」

Kaido threw the Yamato in his hand aside, this is his daily training, and it is also something Yamato despairs, for some reason, the stronger she becomes, the less Kaido looks like a person.

"It's just speculation at the moment, but it's very likely."

"very good..."

Arceus could see very clearly that the corners of Kaido's mouth were raised, all he had was excitement in the face of the future.

"Unfortunately, it's still too early, otherwise an all-out war would have started."

As his own strength gradually grows, Kaido's vision becomes higher and higher. His enemy is no longer a certain pirate group, but the world leader who owns this navy.

In addition to becoming the One Piece, he also wants to overthrow the existing order and establish his own new order.

He wasn't afraid to go into an all-out war with Whitebeard, but not now, that wouldn't be in his interest.

The full-scale confrontation between the two pirate groups will break the existing balance of the new world. As a participant in the war, his interests will inevitably be damaged. Whether it is the world leader or the cooperating Charlotte Lingling, I am afraid that he will not do anything. .

Then Kaido also began to transform, not hitting the big ones doesn't mean not hitting, he is not the type to be beaten in place.

Chapter 524: Kaido's way of finding someone

"what are you going to do?"

Looking at Kaido who started to transform, Arceus asked him.

"Go and talk to that old guy with white beard, hehehehe, I want to see if his fists are still as strong as they were back then. That guy is not a fool. With this kind of information, he will definitely come to his door."

Whether White Beard has noticed or not, he only needs to try it to know.

But based on Kaido's understanding of Whitebeard, it is impossible for him to be indifferent. Instead of waiting here, he might as well go to the door.

Whitebeard's ability has too much influence on the surroundings. If that guy is allowed to fight in his own territory, I am afraid that many years of construction will be completely in vain.

"Do you know where Whitebeard is?"

Whitebeard and Kaido are different from Charlotte Lingling. He generally does not have a fixed island stationed, but has been living on the Moby Dick. As Whitebeard's flagship, this ship has been sailing freely on the sea, without will stop.

"I don't know, but those nasty flies out there do, and they'll tell me."

Said that Kaido has already flown to the open sea, and the flies in his mouth naturally refer to those naval surveillance ships. If the beasts and Whitebeard fight, this matter cannot be hidden from anyone.

There are people watching him outside of Wano, and there are naturally naval surveillance personnel near Whitebeard. In order not to waste time, Kaido intends to ask these people.

At this time, Yamato also crawled out of the ruins on the roof of Onishima in disgrace.

"Father, did father find someone to fight?"

"Probably, what's wrong?"

"I hope that guy is strong enough. It's best to let my father fight for ten days and a half months, and then rest for a year and a half because of the injury, so that he won't have time to torture me."

Yamato, who was often tortured physically and mentally exhausted, issued his own "blessing". As for Kaido's death in battle, Kaido had successfully used his own inhuman means to make Yamato realize that this monster would never die.

At the same time, among the surveillance ships around Wano Country, the navy on it reported the situation to the Navy Headquarters as usual.

Although this position is dangerous, it is actually a job of gambling. Sometimes those big pirates will not make any big moves for two or three years, and they can live in peace with each other. As long as they report news regularly, they can get high rewards. subsidy.

After seeing Kaido's figure through the telescope on the ship, the people on board were not particularly nervous at first, and just recorded the information casually.

"Kaido has appeared, and the destination is unknown to the southeast."

He drank a sip of tea like a retired veteran cadre, but when he looked up again, the hand holding the teacup couldn't help shaking a little. Kaido's huge figure was still in his field of vision, the difference was that he didn't look through the telescope this time. The observation port, but saw Kaido with the naked eye.

"Hello? And then, where did that guy go?"

"in...in front of me..."

"what?!"

"In front of me! Enemy attack!! Kaido has landed on the surveillance ship!"

Bang! Bang! Bang! Boom!

A series of gunshots rang out, and someone even pushed a cannon close to Kaido's face and shot Kaido. Judging from this reaction speed, the soldiers on the surveillance ship were indeed well-trained, but there was an essential gap between them.

The attacks of these weapons are the same as scratching an itch for Kaido, and they have no effect at all.

"I didn't come to kill you. After all, you are much quieter than the last batch of idiots. Now tell me, where is that old guy with white beard?"

Ignoring the navy beside him, Kaido found the suspected officer on the surveillance ship and asked him about the location of Whitebeard. They are the only ones who can keep track of the movements of the big pirates.

The last batch of surveillance ships were attacked by Kaido because they were too active. He is quite satisfied with these people now. In order to prevent the navy from sending a group of more disgusting guys after they were eliminated, he did not kill them this time. .

The navy did not intend to keep Whitebeard's whereabouts secret, and quickly revealed the information it had received from colleagues monitoring Whitebeard.

It wasn't until Kaido left here that they tremblingly picked up the phone bug and continued to report the situation.

I'm looking for Whitebeard, the motive is unknown"

After receiving the news, the Navy Headquarters became busy, including the CPO of the World Government. Kaido had an inexplicable connection with Charlotte Lingling, and Whitebeard was also a remnant of Lockes.

Although Rocks has disappeared for many years, these three people have also grown up. If these three monsters really join forces, what happens will be a catastrophe no less than that of the Rocks Pirates.

The world government needs balance. What they want is a turbulent new world. The combination of these three people may really be able to integrate all the pirates in the new world, which is not what they want to see.

Even if Kaido wants to fight Whitebeard, they have to think about how to deal with the follow-up matters.

After a while, Moby Dick boards.

The returning Yizang and Fossa reported their experiences.

"You mean, your younger brother seems to have been coerced into joining the Beast Pirates?"

"Yes, Dad, I think Oda-sama might..."

Yizang didn't finish his words, but the smile on Whitebeard's face no longer was the same as before. He is not a foolhardy person, a big pirate in the new world, even Charlotte Lingling is an online IQ when she is not sick of.

Not to mention that White Beard is the only one among the current emperors of the sea who has not dumped all the daily affairs, and he can think of anything Yizang can think of.

"Did that kid enter Wano Country..."

Whitebeard's last impression of Kaido was in the Valley of the Gods. After that, he never had a face-to-face encounter with Kaido. At the same time, he was also recalling Oden's past.

After the farewell that day, there was no news from Oden. Roger told him the news of Oden's return to Wano Country. Although he didn't know why Oden didn't keep his promise to return, he respected the other party's choice.

Now it seems that there has been no news for more than ten years, and something serious may have happened to Kozuki Oden.

"Daddy, what shall we do?"

"Yeah, dad, what happened to Oden, and Izo's younger brother, we have to figure it out!"

The surrounding pirates are all concerned about Oden and Izo's younger brother. These are the backbone veterans of the Whitebeard Pirates, and the newcomers are also trying to figure out who Oden is.

"Of course we have to take care of it, that's our family, little ones, get ready to go!"

"Boom!"

Whitebeard had just issued an order, but something changed on the deck. Something fell on the deck. As the dust cleared, a figure also walked out of it.

"Hmm, Newgate, long time no see."

Chapter 525: Gauntlet

Kaido's burly figure stood up on the Mordibeque. He can fly and naturally has a more stable way to appear on the stage, but that would make him appear unreliable. In order to appear more deterrent, he chose to appear from the Jump from high in the air.

However, I have to say that the quality of Whitebeard's flagship is still very good, and the general ship may be destroyed if Kaido makes such a trip.

Kaido greeted Whitebeard like an old acquaintance, and those who didn't know thought he was here to visit.

But Whitebeard's expression is not so friendly, after all, this is his ship.

"Get out of the way, that's not someone you can deal with!"

Although I haven't seen him for many years, it can be seen from his expressiveness back then and Kaido's news in recent years that Kaido is already an out-and-out monster, and that is not an enemy his sons can deal with.

Looking at the members who wanted to attack Kaido because of his invasion, the first thing Whitebeard did was to stop them.

Then Kaido walked up to Whitebeard step by step under the watchful eyes of all the members of the Whitebeard Pirates.

"Newgate, you are getting old."

Back then, there was long golden hair that could not be concealed under the white beard hat, but now the white beard has wrapped a turban, and there are many wrinkles on his face. Although the 61-year-old white beard is not yet old, he is Also an old man.

Kaido is 46 years old this year, which is the heyday in terms of the world of pirates. Ed Newgate, Lockes, and Roger are all people who have left a deep impression on him.

Watching the original monster grow old, he also felt a little touched.

"Little devil, you are really brave. You dared to come on my boat, but you came just in time. What happened to my younger brother Yutian!"

"Is that idiot your brother? He died, as early as 7 years ago, in a rebellion plotted by Heitan Orochi."

Kaido said lies with a face of indifference. Everyone knows some facts, but they just can't tell them. At least the cause of Kozuki Oden's death is currently like this.

He who died in Heitan's rebellion is the best way for beasts to rule Wano.

Mita is dead.

This word spread to the ears of many crew members of the Whitebeard Pirates like a lightning strike. Even Whitebeard's pupils constricted with excitement. The next moment, he held the big knife beside him with both hands. Domineering slashed at Kaido.

The Twelve Craftsmen of the Supreme Quick Knife - Cong Yungie, a weapon that has been fighting with Whitebeard for many years, he does not have the ability to use the shaking fruit, because when using the fruit ability here, the first to suffer is his crew.

"How is it possible for Oden! He died because of the conspiracy of an unknown person!"

"Hey, good time!"

Bazhai is also surrounded by domineering, not armed color, but domineering color!

The same is true for Cong Yungie with the white beard. Although he is old now, he is not yet terminally ill, and in a sense, the health medicine produced by beasts has made his body stronger.

Although he is an old man now, his strength is still in its heyday, and he has not yet reached the point where he cannot gather the domineering look.

The mace and the broadsword collided together, and the domineering collision also unfolded. The two terrifying auras spread out from the center of the collision. The crew members who were close to them were the first to suffer. The sharp pirate flew out backwards.

There was a creaking sound on the fence on the side of the ship, and a few cracks appeared on the hull under the aftermath of the washing.

"Take care of the people next to you! All the newcomers go back! This level of battle is not something you can watch!"

Marco's feet turned into bird claws and grabbed into the deck, even under the impact of this breath, he felt like he was about to fly out.

The sea created even bigger waves, and the clouds in the sky left because of this. The sea breeze blew past and made a roar, as if the world was mourning because of the collision of the two.

On the surveillance ship in the distance, the navy soldiers were roaring and reporting the information they saw.

"This is Surveillance Ship 127! This is Surveillance Ship 127! Kaido and Whitebeard fought on the Moby Dick, repeat! Whitebeard and Kaido fought!"

After Kaido asked Whitebeard's whereabouts from another surveillance ship, he was in charge of monitoring

Watching Whitebeard's surveillance ship move, their nerves have been tense for several days, but until today, they found that they still underestimated the world's top combat power.

"Little ghost, you have grown up a lot these years."

In the wrestling with Whitebeard, Kaido was not at a disadvantage at all. Whether it was his own strange power or the entangled overlord color, he fought back and forth with Whitebeard. At this time, Whitebeard also deeply understood one thing. , Today's Kaido is no longer the brat he was back then.

At the beginning, he relied on the protection of Charlotte Lingling to live smoothly on the ship, but now he is already a monster of the same level as himself.

"You are the one, old man, you are still like a monster at such an age."

"What happened to Oden!"

"Didn't I say that, that guy died 7 years ago because of the conspiracy of his subordinates."

Boom!

The big knife and the mace clashed again, and the white beard's face was already covered with anger.

"If you kid wanted to * me off, then you've already succeeded. Did you just show up at this time to inform me of Mi Tian's death!"

Kaido also appeared here after Yizang discovered the problem, so you don't need to think about it to know that there is a problem.

"It doesn't matter whether you believe it or not, this is the fact of the Wano country today, that guy's daughter is now the general of the Wano country, and I am the protector of the Wano country, which is now Lao Tzu's territory.nOvεlusb.com

I'm not here to chat with you, but to fight for you. Of course, you don't have to worry about beating me now, as long as you can afford the loss! "

During the wrestling process, Kaido realized his own transformation. It is not so easy to escape from the battle without entering the human form, and Whitebeard did not pursue it. As Kaido said, he could not bear the loss.

Now fighting Kaido with all his strength, no matter the outcome, his sons will suffer heavy casualties.

"Fight?"

"Seven days later, we will have a showdown on this island. If you don't believe the cause of that Mita's death, then I'll talk about it after winning there!"

As he spoke, he dropped the eternal pointer of an island, and then grabbed the flame cloud and flew away. He knew very well that Whitebeard would definitely accept this invitation to fight.

This is his idea. It is not in his own interest to go to war in an all-round way. If he does not go to war, his hands will be itchy.

However, in his heart, Oden's evaluation has dropped again. It is not just stupid to have the identity of the younger brother with a white beard.

Chapter 526: stay out of my fight

Back then, Beasts were still developing. If Roger and Whitebeard really got here at the same time, in order to protect the foundation he just saved, he would definitely lead people to evacuate there first.

Otherwise he and Arceus would not lose, but the beasts might lose.

He is not afraid of a full-scale war now, but the follow-up world government and navy will give him a big headache. His military strength is not enough, and he has not yet reached the point where he can involve the Red Earth Continent in the flames of war.

Furthermore, the battle in One Piece World is simply a duel of top combat power. As long as he and Whitebeard can decide the outcome, the outcome of the battle is almost certain.

「Father, let's go to Wano Country!」

「Yeah dad, you can't let this guy be so presumptuous!」

It was Kaido who said that Mita died, why Mita's daughter was serving as a general, what happened to his son and wife, and what happened in the first place, these are all things they wanted to figure out.

As for Heitan in Kaido's mouth, they didn't believe it, especially after hearing Yizo say that Heitan Orochi was an ordinary servant. In their hearts, the mighty Oden would not die from such indiscriminate methods. of.

"No, head here, I will do it myself."

But after thinking about it again and again, Whitebeard rejected the proposal of his sons. If Oden is still alive, then Whitebeard will attack Wano at any cost. His family is very important, and he can accept some sacrifices to save his family.

The premise is that the family is still alive. The short fight has made him understand the changes in Kaido's strength. He is not an opponent he can easily deal with. Coupled with the terrain of Wano Country, attacking there will pay huge casualties.

For the dead family members to sacrifice more sons, and it may not necessarily result in victory, he will not do this kind of thing.

And he also knows that the world government and the navy have been looking for opportunities, and that shopping is not in the interests of both parties. Kaido's one-on-one invitation is in line with his wishes. As long as Kaido is defeated, many things will be easy.

So throwing out the permanent pointer left by Kaido, Whitebeard gave his order.

"Father, is there a conspiracy? This is where the enemy picked..."

「Gu la la la, silly son, am I afraid of such a conspiracy? And that guy won't do it, but let everyone be prepared, as long as I win, we will go to Wano country.」

"Yes!"

The Whitebeard Pirates headed directly to their destination, while Kaido flew back to Wano after a few days.

"I made an appointment with the guy with the white beard on the place of the decisive battle. Although it is not a full-scale war, I still have to take some people away. During this period, Wano Country will be handed over to you. Those guys will not stop after receiving the news. "

Kaido explained some things to Arceus, which is why those big pirates avoided all-out war. No one can be sure whether they will be stabbed from behind when they fight.

A suitable person to guard the territory is very important, so Kaido handed over this matter to Arceus with confidence.

「Don't worry, no one can invade here.」

"Jin, Shaina, Zeraora, Olga, I will take the four of them, and... Yamato! Get ready, and see what the world's top combat power looks like!"

...

Kaido yelled to the side, he had already noticed Yamato's position.

But at this time, Kaido's phone bug rang, and as Kaido picked up the phone bug, Charlotte Lingling's expression appeared on the snail.

「Well, well, Kaido, I heard that you and Whitebeard are going to war.」

「Where did you get the message from?」

"It has been spread all over the sea, haven't you read today's newspaper? Let's not talk about it, Kaido, do you want to join forces with me, let's kill that guy with white beard, and then you and I can share the whole new world equally !"

Listening to the voice in the phone bug, Kaido was not delighted, but instead had a burst of anger in his heart.

"Lingling."

"Um?"

「This is Lao Tzu's battle alone, if you dare to intervene,

Then I will kill you first! "

There was a moment of silence on the other side of the phone bug, and then Charlotte Lingling's voice became deeper and deeper.

「Kaido, do you know what you are talking about?」

「I know very well, but Lingling, don't meddle in my battle, understand?!」

「Well~ If this is the case, forget it.」

As she said that, she hung up the phone bug. She knew Kaido well. Since he really said that, if he had to intervene, he might really attack himself first. The two sides have friendship, but the premise is that they can't touch the bottom line of the other party.

Kaido is a fighting faction, he doesn't like outsiders intervening in his battles, especially this kind of agreed duel.

Even Kaido in the original timeline is still like this, because of Kurotan Muchan's intervention Kozuki Oden got a stick on the back of the head, but after that Kaido killed Kurotan Muchan because she intervened in his own battle.

Even if she doesn't intervene, Kaido may not necessarily lose. Although Kozuki Oden left him with indelible scars, he did not use the strongest animal form of the animal system.

In terms of the resilience of the animal system, as long as he can enter a protracted battle, he will not lose.

Kaido in the original timeline has this idea, let alone this enhanced version of Kaido. He can go to Whitebeard's boat to fight the war alone, so naturally he won't let other people interfere with him. In order to prevent some situations.

"The situation has changed a bit. You still have to take precautions against that old woman Lingling. Maybe that crazy woman will do something."

After hanging up the phone, Kaido asked Arceus to be careful. The two sides have some overlap, but they can't be completely trusted.

"Understood, do whatever you want, but don't overturn yourself."

「Ugh, how is it possible, I am no longer who I was back then...」

...

In the direction Kaido spoke just now, Yamato and others are gathering people to study the newspaper in front of them.

Beasts vs Whitebeard

The duel between the strongest creature and the strongest man!

Morgans' newspaper spent another entire page on this matter, but this time he did not have first-hand information, and even the photos were edited and put together from previous photos, which really looked like that something happened.

「Yamato, remember to record the video, I also want to see Captain Kaido with my own eyes 's heroic appearance. "

「Yes, the battle between Captain Kaido and Whitebeard is exciting just thinking about it.」

Maria and Jack are asking Yamato to record the scene at that time. Kaido has no intention of taking them there, but at this time Ulti's words reminded them.

"You expect her to remember things, you might as well talk to Rotom directly."

Although this sentence has some ironic meaning, Maria and Jack glanced at each other and felt that what Ulti said was right.

Chapter 527: "War Reporter"

「What is this called? Do you guys have so little confidence in me?!」

Her rebuttal was not responded to, and in a sense, her rough nerves have been recognized by everyone around her.

Video recording naturally requires a device. The most commonly used devices in this world include ordinary video cameras, video phone bugs, sky islands and even photo shells. However, in the Beasts Pirates, the most commonly used electrical equipment is Rotom.

Compared with phone bugs, they are more stable and reliable as electronic devices, and they are more tolerant of extreme weather. Compared with ordinary devices, they have unique electronic AI.

Under Ulti's reminder, they shifted their target to Rotom. Originally, Beast had planned to broadcast the battle live. This is an excellent opportunity to show off Kaido's force.

Of course, if Kaido loses, it will also be a blow to his majesty, but none of the members of Beasts think that Kaido will lose. Those who joined Beasts all have a feeling that Kaido is invincible.

In fact, even if Kaido really rolls over, his status will not be hit, because the object of his declaration of war is Whitebeard, the man who is known as the closest to the position of One Piece after Roger's death.

Today, when the powerhouses of the old era are gradually coming to an end, Whitebeard is the brightest player on the bright side. Losing to him is no shame, and winning him means greater popularity. This is also why countless supernovas want to challenge the sea every year. Emperor's reason.

Yamato is a person with a special viewing angle. He is also Rotom's camera stand. It is a big problem to shoot stably in that environment. It requires a person with enough strength to resist the shock wave.

Although there were quite a few high-ranking cadres accompanying them, they also had their own tasks, so this matter naturally fell to Yamato, an idler.

「Lotto, don't worry about Loto, the important information has been recorded.」

Obviously, Rotom's answer is more convincing than Yamato's. After all, as long as a machine's program is recorded, there will be no other problems if there are no accidents.

And the topic of their entrusting Yamato has also been changed, from asking her not to forget the video to not forgetting to bring Rotom.

「Xiao Pei, what are you looking at?」

Amid the noise, Ulti felt that something was missing. Turning his head, Peggy Wan was reading the follow-up content of the newspaper. They were all on the front page. They didn't pay attention to the follow-up content, and had already thrown it aside.

「Nothing, the singer I like seems to have released a new song.」

There is a saying that the next time must be, but this next time is not necessarily the next time. This is a kind of mysterious power in the dark. Some people only need to release a new song or want to get the headlines of the newspaper, then they must There will be surprises.

As Charlotte Lingling said on the phone, the news has spread all over the world, especially the world of pirates, who is incomparable to this battle, but that is not something they can intervene in.

Charlotte Lingling, the only one qualified to intervene, also gave up this plan. Originally, she wanted to cooperate with Kaido to eliminate Whitebeard, but she didn't expect Kaido to reject it so strongly.

She still knows about this little brother. If she forcibly intervenes in this battle, Kaido can really fight her first, and the loss outweighs the gain, but she doesn't do nothing.

"Katakuri."

"Mom, I'm here."

"Mobilize manpower."

「Mom, what do you want to do?」

Katakuri, who watched the whole process, didn't understand why Charlotte Lingling still wanted to mobilize troops.

"We are pirates. Since Kaido refused to join forces, we will just wait. If something happens to someone, it will be our chance."

The snipe and the clam fight, the fisherman wins, and Whitebeard and Kaido go to war. No matter who is at a disadvantage, she can take the opportunity to get a share. This is why neither Whitebeard nor Kaido want to fight an all-out war. They are not the only two in the new world. individual.

Charlotte Lingling is just an example, there are many other pirates like this, but the most troublesome one is still the world **.

After the news came out, the world government and

The navy's intelligence department is already busy, and they are all working overtime to investigate the specific situation. Up to now, they have made some preparations.

In the Naval Headquarters, Garp flipped through the Sengoku drawer with a displeased face.

「Why did you call me back! I was just going to see my grandson!」

「Garp, you've taken enough vacations, and put down my senbei!」

At this time, Warring States is already Kong's designated successor, and the rights to many things are gradually being handed over to him, including the command of some large-scale missions.

The frolic between the two finally ended with Garp swallowing all the senbei in one gulp. At this time, Sengoku also ordered Garp to do related tasks.

"Garp, this is an order from the World Government. If either Kaido or Whitebeard is defeated, he will be arrested."

「Where is the manpower?」

"Porusolino and Sakalski will go with you, but Garp, keep an eye on Sakalsky, if they don't decide the winner, we will not participate in this battle, this is the order of the World Government."

As he spoke, he handed Karp a file, and after he finished browsing, he took it back and fed it to the lamb beside him. It was a special file destroyer for the Warring States Period, and his daily job was to eat those confidential files.

"The fleet has assembled at the g1 branch, pay attention to safety, Garp."

「I know, by the way, I took your senbei away, you can buy it again later.」

Garp had two packs of senbei in his arms at some point, and then amidst the scolding of Sengoku, Garp walked out with a slightly dignified expression.

At the same time, a fleet was also assembled below Mary Gioia, but these ships were not painted with the seagull flag of the navy, but the cross flag of the world government, and a large number of people in suits were painted on them.

The order they received was to tentatively attack Wano Country. If the opportunity is right, they do not rule out the plan to regain control of the island.

At the same time when the various forces started to act, Kaido also prepared to set off with his manpower. There were not many people, and there were only two pirate ships on the trip, but they were all elites.

They are mainly used to pretend to be ostentatious and to deal with unexpected situations. Otherwise, it would be embarrassing for a small soldier to have to be shot by Kaido himself.

But before Kaido left, a rather fatal phone call came. The caller was Morgans. The news that Kaido and Whitebeard were about to fight made this newspaper quite popular.

In order to obtain first-hand information, Morgans wanted to act as a "war reporter" himself, reporting the first-hand news live. He and Whitebeard were not very familiar, so he found Beast here with the information from the underground world.

Chapter 528: peak duel

And the reason for Morgans to go out in person is also very simple. Although there must be a brave man under a heavy reward, he has to spend his life to make money. Live broadcasting this battle can certainly bring huge benefits. A trick in the press It is not impossible to become famous.

But it was too dangerous, no one dared to do such a horrible thing, so in the end Morgans decided to go to the live broadcast in person.

In the end, Morgans and Hundred Beasts reached a certain exchange of interests, and in exchange for some information, they obtained a seat as a war reporter.

Although Morgans seems to be the least profitable person in the underground world, in fact he has a lot of secret information in his hands. For a news agency, timeliness is very important.

And the world government will arrange for him to disclose some news regularly, which can even affect the rise and fall of an industry. Platinum lead back then was an example.

"Zeraola, you go alone, take that guy there, be careful, don't let him die."

The battle was imminent, and they didn't have time to wait for Morgans alone, otherwise, when he came, Whitebeard would be there. Facing this kind of appointment, being late is a very bad behavior.

「Master Arceus, don't you need to call them back?」

The only exception among Eudemons, Zeraora would not call Arceus Lord in public, this is his special identity and the privilege of his eldest son.

The people in his mouth are his "brothers and sisters". In his opinion, they can return to Wano country at this time when they are wandering in the open sea.

"No need, they are not needed here, besides, give Quinn a little face, he is also a "disaster". "

As the left-behind personnel in the big kanban, Quinn has no problem guarding the island, and there are not only Eudemons living in the sea. Although there are not many types now, the number is more and more sufficient.

"clear. "

Then Zeraola walked in one direction first, which was Morgans' position at this time. Although Morgans would take the headquarters of the World Economic News Agency away after doing some big things, he would reappear in the crowd after the limelight in view.

As Zeraora left first, Kaido also took people to the destination. The location of their appointment was on the edge of the windless belt, and there was a certain distance from the territory of both sides. The aftermath of the battle must also be taken into consideration. thing.

After a period of time, Morgans with a messy face was taken to the boat of Beasts. Morgans, who is an albatross fruit, can't fly, and they couldn't take the boat slowly when they were in a hurry, so Morgans was taken Zeraora brought it here.

Even if the flying speed was within the range he could endure, the feathers on his body were blown into a mess, but thanks to Zeraola, Morgans also experienced the feeling of flying.

"stop!"

Kaido ordered the two ships to stop when there was still a considerable distance from the destination.

「Brother Kaito, this place is still far from the destination.」

"It's far away, but it's almost here. If you keep getting closer, you won't be able to bear the aftermath of the battle."

Whitebeard's ability on the sea can easily set off a tsunami. If they continue to approach, the safety of the ship will become a problem. The tsunami will not be able to tell whose ship it is, so Kaido does not intend to let them move forward.

「Mr. Kaido, don't worry about this matter, Lord Sacred Beast is ready.」

Saying that, Shaina touched the heads of the two Laplaces beside her. This is the means to protect their ships from tsunamis.

"Hey lol, he's really well-prepared, but it's almost done here, Shaina, you and Olga stay here, Jhin, you and Zeraora come with me."

"Yes."

Then Kaido turned into a green dragon and flew into the sky, Jhin followed him into the sky, and on the other ship, Zeraora, who got the news, also flew up with Morgans, and at the same time, Yamato also stood up. He followed up on top of his Genesect.

Although this Genesect is a miniature version, it has no problem as a flying tool.

At the same time, the Moby Dick also stopped in the nearby waters. Compared with Kaido's ship, the Moby Dick stayed even farther away.

「Dad, stop here?」

「It's dangerous to go any further, okay sons, just wait here for me to come back!」

Whitebeard jumped off the side of the ship as he said that. Unlike Kaido, although the Zhenzhen Fruit brought powerful destructive power, it did not have any ability to fly, and it was impossible to fly over.

So Whitebeard's choice was to run over, rushing towards the target island in the sky in a way similar to moon steps.

Although the moon step is a special physical skill mastered by the world government and navy, it is only the development of the limit of the body. For a strong man at the level of Whitebeard, even if he does not know similar skills, it is enough to read it a few times. Do it all with explosiveness.

The air almost became Whitebeard's pedal, and Marco waved his flaming wings to keep up with Whitebeard's pace. Who made the Whitebeard Pirates have so few abilities to fly, except for him, only Nairi jumped into it. The water followed.

Although they can't fly, the murloc's ability to sneak under the sea is also useful at this moment.

Although Whitebeard's movement method cannot stay in the air for a long time, it is enough to rush on the road in a short time.

In the end, Kaido, who was still able to fly, arrived at the island first. The island was bare, and whether the rocks were removed or not, such an island just met his needs.

"Yamato."

"Um?"

「Look carefully, you will soon understand why I said that what you have experienced is just a joke.

Said that Kaido landed on the island ahead of time, but Yamato and Morgans did not land on the island, they just stayed in the sky above the island, Whitebeard didn't keep them waiting for long, a few minutes later, Jhin and Zeraora looked at In the distance, even Yamato noticed something.

It was an undisguised breath, and Morgans even felt that the feathers on his body had stood up. Although he didn't see anything, fear had already spread to his heart.

His fingers began to tremble, but he still took off the lens cap with a little excitement.

「Big news, this world's top matchup must be rare big news!」

Not long after, a figure appeared in everyone's field of vision. The white beard in his heyday was even faster than Marco, and the cold light on Cong Yunque didn't need to be concealed, and he and white beard came to the island in an instant .

「Kaido, you kid is really early!」

Cong Yunque drew a full moon in the sky and slashed straight at Kaido's face. Kaido seemed defenseless, but in fact he had already entered his own fighting state. There was a new round of collision with Cong Yunque.

Chapter 529: The earth collapses, the sea sinks, the sky collapses

Without too many words, the two immediately started fighting as soon as they met. The mace and the broadsword were colliding in the most primitive way. There was no skill, and some were just brute force.

Both Ba Zhai and Cong Yunque are heavy weapons, and brutal confrontation has become their way to compete.

Cong Yunque ranks among the top twelve sharp swords, and it is a rare treasure sword. Although Kaido's eight fests have not gone through six generations like Yamato's Ajan, they have also been forged several times, and they are mixed with a lot of rare swords. Metal, there is not much difference between them in the quality of weapons.

"Hey, Newgate, the warm-up is almost over, let's forget about this kid's temptation."

「Goooooh, brat, self-confidence is a good thing, but conceit is not.」

Although he said so, Baibear didn't carelessly, and changed the posture of holding the knife with both hands, and a white ball of light floated on Cong Yunque's knife.

He is a person with the ability to shake the fruit, and he can create a terrifying earthquake with a wave of his hand. Over the years, he has already developed the power of the fruit to the extreme, even if he uses a weapon, he can also launch the power of the fruit. can.

The white ball of light seems ordinary, but everything around it seems to be distorted.

「That's right, this is the battle I want!」

The blue scale armor appeared on Kaido's body, and the huge dragon tail appeared behind him. Seeing that Whitebeard used the shocking fruit, Kaido naturally wouldn't push it too far. He was the top powerhouse he knew, For the strong, it is a kind of respect to use all the strength.

* mode, Kaido's muscles bulged, and Hachizhai's domineering and thunder began to spread.

「David Thunder Gossip!」

Most of Kaido's moves are the extended version of Thunder Eight Diagrams, and the same is true for Dawei De Thunder Eight Diagrams. He has a stronger domineering look and a faster swing speed. He can only use the complete form of this trick with the bonus.

Boom!

Boom!

The attacks of the two collided in the air. Although they were cold weapons, they made a loud noise that was difficult for artillery to reach.

The thunder and lightning on Bazhai began to overflow, and the light ball formed by the shaking fruit also exploded. The huge impact spread to the entire island centered on the two of them. The two of them were like the eye of the storm, and the strong wind suddenly swept around.

People in the sky retreated to higher places, otherwise it would be difficult for them to stabilize their bodies under the aftermath of this attack.

Yamato held Genesect's body with one hand and Rotom with the other, otherwise Rotom would fly somewhere.

The strong airflow made Morgans almost unable to open his eyes, but he still buckled on a pair of goggles with difficulty, and then desperately pressed the shutter.

As long as he opens his mouth, the gust of wind will be drawn into his mouth, but this does not prevent him from giving out a slightly twitching smile. He has already seen the impact of this confrontation of the century.

The rock under the feet of Kaido and Whitebeard began to crack, and the huge crack spread rapidly centered on the two of them. Then the attacks of the two seemed to have reached their limit. Amidst the huge roar, the dust that soared into the sky temporarily separated them.

The line of sight is blocked, but in the face of two monsters with top knowledge and knowledge, the influence of these dusts has become negligible, but it has become impossible to predict the opponent's actions.

Their knowledge and knowledge have almost entered a state of mutual cancellation, and the biggest effect is to ignore some things that block the vision.

White Beard jumped high in the smoke and dust, and Cong Yunque slashed at Kaido again with great strength.

Although Kaido still blocked the blow, Whitebeard's attack was far more than this time. He has already noticed Kaido's change. He is no longer a trainee on the Rocks Pirates, but has become a A scary monster.

From the little brother at the beginning to the little giant who is now taller than himself, Kaido is constantly growing visible to the naked eye.

This is an opponent of the same level as him, and he cannot be easily defeated.

Using the position where the blade and the mace are in contact as the fulcrum, Whitebeard's body completed the flip quite flexibly. He is like a pole

Spinning in mid-air like a pole, it almost turned itself into Cong Yunchee's new blade.

The same ball of light as on the previous blade was attached to his heel, and he slammed into Kaido's back with his kick.

The previous knife was his feint, and this kick was his ultimate move.

"Newgate, you are still as scary as before."

When he was on the Rocks ship, many people regarded Whitebeard as a brute force warrior because of his size and ability, but that was all an illusion, because most of the enemies only needed to use brute force.

Now he has not been stabbed in the heart by his son, he is not so old and sick that he is infused with oxygen every day, and he has not been pierced in the chest by Polusalino. The white beard in his prime can display far more than brute force.

But there was no panic in Kaido's tone, an impenetrable barrier had appeared behind him.

The absolute defense of defending is relative. Depending on the level of the user, the upper limit of defending is different. An ordinary person may not be able to take Whitebeard's attack with defending, but as an opponent of the same level as him, Kaido can.

This is his favorite skill, the enemy's feeling of being caught off guard because his own attack is ineffective always brings him an opportunity.

However, although Kaido's defense blocked Whitebeard's attack, the aftermath of the vibration still had a huge impact on the surrounding environment.

Different from the confrontation just now, this time the attack was directed downwards, and Kaido did not attack, but blocked the blow with defense, which caused the aftermath of the shock to pass him and hit the island.

The land began to crack, and even the surrounding sea water rushed to the surroundings frantically. After a moment of silence, the sea seemed to collapse, and the raging waves gathered into a tsunami and rushed to the surroundings.

Namuel, who originally followed from the sea, is now holding Marco's feet and hovering in the sky. After the battle between Whitebeard and Kaido, even the deep sea is no longer safe.

They also finally understood why Whitebeard stopped the Moby Dick so far away.

Morgans was still pressing the shutter. At this time, he had changed to a brand new film, and Yamato looked at the sky inadvertently, and then her eyes widened.

The sky is falling!

The battle between Kaido and Whitebeard caused a huge aftermath, and the strong wind rolled around them around them, which caused the air around them to flow around quickly, and now the surrounding air began to flow back into the fighting area.

The impact of the previous battle had already split the clouds, and under the influence of atmospheric pressure, the air began to flow back, and the clouds were also attracted, and the feedback brought by this phenomenon in the eyes of humans was only four words-the sky fell.

Chapter 530: Dragon dance gossip!

The way Yamato stared blankly at the top of his head naturally attracted Morgans' attention. As he also looked at the collapsed sky, the excitement in his eyes could no longer be concealed. He couldn't think of any photo that was more suitable for the cover than this.

Morgans is just here to take pictures, he can't broadcast this kind of thing live, otherwise the world's police will come to hunt him down, after the event, it's the limit of what they can bear, if Morgans broadcasts this thing to promote it The force of the two pirates is just touching the bottom line.

So now the only live broadcast of this battle is Onijima.

「Rotom, come on, hold on!」

「Loto, I'm working hard!」

It is also difficult to stabilize the camera under the huge impact. Although Rotom's camera can capture the battle scene, it is extremely unstable, and the shake of the camera is enough to make the audience feel dizzy.

Because it was a live broadcast, the sound of howling wind was also transmitted to Wano Country through Rotom, so no one complained about the situation of the camera, even if they only listened, they could imagine how terrifying the scene was.

In addition to guarding against the pirates in the open sea, the Beast members in Wano are watching the first situation on the battlefield brought by Yamato. Kaido's display of force has already made them feel excited. After all, the person who did this thing it was their captain.

On the other side, Aju was also held by Derek to watch the live broadcast of the battlefield in the palace of the Capital of Flowers.

"Aju, do you understand what kind of enemy you want to meet? That is Lord Kaido, and what you see is only a part, give it up, it is an impossible fantasy, no, it is a delusion."

Things that are likely to be realized are called dreams, and they are unlikely to be called fantasies. Derek can't think of other words to describe them except for the word delusion.

While saying that, he pinched his face and made him look in the direction of Kozuki Hiyori, even adult warriors like them would be shocked by it, let alone Kozuki Hiyori who had never seen the world before.

The terrifying scene of falling from the sky was deeply engraved in her mind, and a seed called fear took root in her heart.

People in the distance can only experience the horror of the scene through this method. However, the strong wind is not fatal. Those who dare to stay around to watch the battle have their own abilities, and only one Morgan is a bit out of place.

In their view, the deadliest aftermath of this duel was the tsunami.

The tsunami caused by the aftermath of the quake fruit has already rushed to the surroundings. Both the Moby Dick and the King of Beasts are within the range affected by the tsunami.

Among them, Moby Dick is farther away, and as Whitebeard's flagship, it has a design to deal with tsunami.

「Grab the things around you! Daddy is mad!」

Joz held the rudder himself. Under the turbulent tsunami, it was not easy to hold the rudder. The bow of the white whale was heaving in the tsunami, and they escaped this time without any danger. wave.

On the King of Beasts, the tsunami was even more violent. After all, Whitebeard still had to pay attention when exerting force. Although the Moby Dick could not avoid risks, it could at least reduce the impact.

But the King of Beasts is different. Looking at the tsunami that destroys the world, even they are unavoidably flustered.

「Laplace, it's up to you.」

Shaina patted the two Lapses beside her, and then they jumped into the water one after another.

「Muyi!」

Amidst Laplace's roar, their bodies gradually became larger, and the gigantic Laplace appeared here.

Then two freezing rays shot out from their mouths. They were not extremely giant moves like in the game that could only be used a few times, but the extremely giant version of freezing rays.

The terrifying waves gradually froze under the influence of Gigantic Laplace, and finally turned into broken ice and fell into the sea.

The aftermath of Whitebeard's attack had already been considered by Arceus, otherwise Laplace would not have been specially accompanied.

...

"Kido Kaido, you seem to have some incredible things, really good abilities."

One of Own

Whether the attack had an effect? Of course Whitebeard knew that the mysterious barrier actually blocked his attack. If this is also the ability of his fruit, then Kaido's ability is too powerful.

But he said that he was capable, but Whitebeard showed no mercy in his hands. After failing to succeed in one blow, he turned around and Cong Yungie slashed at Kaido's neck again.

If one blow fails, two strikes will be made, and if not, it will be done again. No matter how hard the barrier is, it has its own upper limit of defense. He does not believe that Kaido is really invulnerable.

But Kaido is not the type to be beaten in place. Keep it up and get it back. The biggest flaw is that it cannot be used continuously.

By using the rest of Whitebeard's kick just now, Kaido jumped forward, swinging his body with his hands on the ground.

「Agni-Dragon Dance Gossip!」

There are many people who have obtained Pokémon skills, and the most ordinary people will only release their skills on the spot like a turret, imitating according to the script.

Slightly talented people develop their own usage according to the characteristics of the skill, and these people are ordinary numberers.

People with stronger talents integrate their skills into their fighting habits, and develop more abilities according to the characteristics of Pokémon attributes. These are what the big kanbans do.

When he came to Kaido, he not only integrated those skills, but also developed brand new skills according to the characteristics of the skills!

The scorching dragon flames enveloped his body, especially the flames burning more violently on the tail behind him. At the same time, his body twisted slightly, which was a sign of him using the dragon dance.

At this moment, he was using his body as the axis, using the dragon's tail as a mace, surrounded by powerful arrogance in the flames, and his tail was drawn to Whitebeard's chest at a much faster speed than before.

Boom!

Even though White Beard's body was also domineering, there was still a muffled sound.

Although he was drawn by Kaido, the attack in Whitebeard's hand did not stop, and Cong Yungie slashed down, leaving a large string of sparks on the dragon scale on Kaido's shoulder.

The hard dragon scales and powerful arrogance prevented him from breaking through the defense, but that strength had already penetrated into his body. Both Kaido and Whitebeard have the top-level armed colors, as long as they are hit, they will not May be completely immune to the opponent's damage.

"It hurts, Newgate, you're still as scary as ever, old man."

He said it hurts, but Kaido has picked up the mace and hit Whitebeard again, and Whitebeard has also noticed Kaido's abnormality. Compared with Kaido just now, his current offensive has become more fierce. Whether it is attack or speed, it has gone up a level.

「Are you afraid? Then you admit defeat! Newgate!」

「Are you kidding, I am! White beard!」

Boom! A devastating wave came from the island, and the sea and sky boiled again under this attack...
