

Arceus 581

Chapter 581: Sheep Keith Khan's overtime work day, the short seller who did not write the date

"pregnant?!"

「Not sure yet, just check again.」

At the beginning, it was just an ordinary physical examination, and the doctors were not sure about the result, so they asked Setsuna to do a more detailed examination. After a series of examinations and auscultation that looked like a doll, they finally confirmed the result.

"Congratulations, you are indeed pregnant."

「Really, it's been seven weeks now, and the result should be twins.」

Among the many Pokémon created by Arceus, Zeraora is the most special.

He is a Pokémon, but his body structure has been changed the most, and he is also the closest to the aborigines of the Pirate World, so he and Setsuna's offspring are the traditional viviparous of the fur tribe, not the egg-born of Pokémon.

The pregnancy period of the fur tribe is shorter than that of ordinary humans, and there are not so many restrictions here, so the doctor quickly told her the result.

Looking at the doctor's confirmed report, Setsu ran out directly. The fur tribe didn't have the same scruples as humans. Unless it was the period of labor, they could still pick up weapons and go to the battlefield, let alone she was just pregnant.

She was going to find Arceus. This news should be told to Zeraola as soon as possible, but Zeraora is not here now, so she went to Arceus.

Zeraora told her that Arceus was his father to him and that she wanted something from him.

"pregnant?"

"Well, the doctors have confirmed that Zeraora is going to be a father in a few months."

「Pay attention to rest, and talk to me if you need anything.」

Among the many phantom beasts he created, except Genesek, which has the possibility of breeding offspring, almost no other phantom beasts can do this kind of thing, even Manafei has no possibility, and now there are no Divers for him .

In terms of the status of Zeraora's eldest son, these two children are also "eldest grandchildren", so they will naturally receive some special care during this period.

"Hmm... Do you have any method to keep people healthy without getting sick? Although Zeraora said it was a bit difficult, I think you can do it."

「Who do you want this for?」

「It's Yang Jisi Khan, the senior always wants me to go back to succeed him, and the reasons for making up are getting more and more strange.

Bringing him to Wano Country this time is also to give him a good examination, but if he is not sick now, it doesn't mean that he won't get sick in the future, so I want to see if you have any special methods. "

「In this case...you can take this back and give him to eat.」

Purple, green, and blue rays of light condensed in the sky, and finally formed a strange three-color droplet. The life elements of the droplet slate and the turquoise slate plus the special ingredients of the poisonous slate, Arceus called it the poison of healing .

The highly toxic slate seems to be able to produce highly poisonous, but the toxins may not be aimed at life. For germs, the medicines that treat the human body are the biggest "toxins", so this drop of venom is aimed at foreign germs that may cause the body to get sick.

People who have been transformed by Arceus' ability are generally very strong, and such things as illness rarely happen. If Setsuna needs it, he can carry out a special transformation, but for outsiders, such things are enough.

"Thank you, I knew you could do it."

「Go and rest, I will inform Zeraora to come back as soon as possible.」

"Don't worry, the body of the fur tribe is still very strong, this is actually not a big deal."

Pregnancy does cause changes in the body, but it doesn't mean that you are weak, especially for these strong people.

Charlotte Lingling was pregnant almost non-stop when she was fighting the turf, but still few people could hurt her, and her powerful physique was still hard to come by in the sea.

Setsuna is not as good as Charlotte Ling, but she is also a strong woman among women. She does not need to protect herself like a fragile object. For Setsuna, this is a double blessing, but for Yang Jisihan, he seems to be " Disaster is imminent."

At that time, the nurse told her about it quietly after calling her away, but Ji Sihan didn't know about it yet.

Knowing what happened, only to see Setsuna leave here suddenly.

And when she came back, she poured herself a glass of water without saying a word, and put a strange pill into it in front of him.

"This is..."

"Your" medicine" Oh, take it first, senior, and then I have two news to tell you. "

Yang Jisihan didn't suspect anything, let's not say that Zowu never murdered the Duke, the current situation is outrageous, it's not that Shan Mo wanted to succeed, but he was in a hurry to retire, and Shan Mo didn't have any reason to harm him.

「What kind of medicine is this?」

After drinking it, Yang Jisihan asked this question.

"I asked Master Arceus for the special" vaccine", with this, your body will not have any problems for a long time, and there is also this. "

With Yang Jisihan's gaze slightly dull, Setsu handed him his obstetric inspection report.

"Pregnant? Yes, you have been married for so many years, congratulations."

"You're welcome, but let me do the math with you, your body must be fine now, no matter in the past, present, or future, do you understand this?"

The medical examination report ruled out the past, the healing poison brought by Arceus ruled out the future, and Yang Jisihan's physical condition has been guaranteed authoritatively.

"Look, it takes time to get pregnant and wait for delivery. After that, I have to raise a child. I can only think about Zou's affairs after the child grows up. In this way, if you persist for another seven years, you can retire after seven years. How about it?"

「Leave a proof, you make a proof for me!」

Due to the absoluteness of Zowu's royal power, Yang Jisi Khan, who handed over the royal power, has no way to refute the other party, and he doesn't know whether to thank Setsuna or what. of.

"Hey, don't be so impatient, seven years will soon pass, I'll just write you a note."

At the request of Yang Jisi Khan, Setsuna wrote a letter of guarantee for complete succession in seven years as he wished, but Yang Jisi Khan ignored a problem, and the date was not written on the letter of guarantee.

If she intends to succeed seven years later, the handover can indeed be done normally, but if the situation is not right, this guarantee will easily become a blank check.

Although Yang Jisihan has been a Duke for most of his life, he has never left Zowu. As a successful king, his experience in this area is far worse than that of Susu.

After receiving the news, Zeraora, who was outside, quickly settled the matter at hand and started to return. In the territory of Mandelfish, Nereus also brought his own group to the vicinity...

Chapter 582: "playboy"

In the territory Mandelfish is in charge of, Mandelfish is sitting helplessly on his beach chair.

「Strange, isn't this place my private residence? Why are there more and more people?」

To put it simply, it is very lively here. The entertainment facilities on the island have been activated. It seems that there is laughter and laughter. swim.

This situation is not surprising, for an amusement park, such a flow of people is even too small, but the problem is that this is not an amusement park open to the public, but a private residence he built.

"I'm sorry, Brother Mandelfisch, it seems...too lively here."

These people are all mermaids and murlocs, and most of them are about the same age as Xia Li. These are her friends on Murloc Island. The other adult murlocs are Aaron and his little brothers.

Although he said that he was not interested in this kind of thing at all, Aaron had already turned the Ferris wheel countless times.

Aaron naturally followed Tiger to come here. The island of beasts is not so easy to go to, and they live nearby here for the time being.

The young mermaids became interested in this place after seeing the photos of Xia Li when she was playing. In the end, they spread the word to ten, ten to hundreds, and gathered such a large number of visitors.

Naturally, Mandelfisch could refuse, but Rusaka liked such a lively environment, so he let it go. The equipment was built for fun, which added a little human touch to the amusement park. Make it more like an amusement park.

An empty amusement park is not the right place for entertainment, that environment will look more like a haunted house.

As the two permanent residents of this island, they have no reason to object to hosting others to play Mandelfisch, and he doesn't feel the need for Xia Li to apologize.

The purpose of building here is to make Rusaka happy. Although the process has changed a little, the result is still very good.

「It's okay, but that guy Aaron...are you really a father?」

「This...is indeed a fact.」

"To be honest, if I didn't know it was impossible, I would doubt that Tiger is your biological father."

Mandelfisch's words were just a joke. The reason why he said that was because no one could control Aaron except Tiger.

"By the way, Charlie, how about divination for me? I always feel inexplicable."

「But Brother Mandelfisch, don't you not believe this?」

「Believe it or not, you can still refer to it.」

"Okay." Saying that, Charlie pulled out her crystal ball, something she'd always carried with her, a habit she'd kept since discovering her strange talent.

「Hmm... There may be new guests coming here, and it seems that some interesting things will happen between you.」

「Guest? Who else will come here... Rusaka, did you invite someone else!」

"No, Princess Otohime said something similar before, but you already knew about it? They shouldn't be counted as the new guests that Xia Li said."

This is one of Otohime's requests. It is impossible for the residents of Murloc Island to know more about humans if only relying on her propaganda alone, so Mandelfisch has become an excellent place to go.

In the past, Lusaka had few friends due to the inexplicable rumors. She was used to loneliness and longed for that kind of human touch. Mandelfish also reached a private agreement with Fishman Island, through which she also gained A sum of money is used to maintain the facilities of the amusement park.

As for his little brothers, they are not against the beautiful mermaids coming here to play, and even seem very excited. Because of the leading brother, Mandelfish's subordinates are the closest group to the murlocs among Beasts.

And there is another advantage here. Not only can you see the good side of human beings here, but also encounter the evil side. The pirates who come to attack here will not consider whether there are tourists.

This is also essential. It is not a good thing to blindly let the fish relax their vigilance.

people, but there are also countless ***.

「Nu, Brother Aaron, you've turned around more than 30 times, why don't you come down?」

Below the Ferris wheel, Xiao Ba came here with some food, his younger brothers have gone to other places, and now only Aaron is still in the car of the Ferris wheel.

"Go do your thing, I have to make sure that this island is safe, so many compatriots running around here unsuspecting will not work."

「New...」

Xiao Ba left here after hearing the words, but he didn't believe Aaron's words, anyone could see the way he was playing.

The Ferris wheel rotated slowly, bringing Aaron to the highest point, from which you can see most of the private island.

Naturally, he could also see that Rusaka and Xia Li were by Mandelfish's side at this time, and he could also see other humans and murlocs who were happily getting along on the island, but soon he turned his gaze to the distant sea horizon , The emotions in the eyes are very complicated.

Just as he was thinking about his life, a huge shadow appeared under the sea.

Aaron didn't pay attention at first, it's very common for sea beasts to live in the sea, it's nothing strange at all, but the shadow approached here at an extremely fast speed.

「Hey!! Something is coming!」

As soon as Aaron's voice came out, it was covered by the sound of sirens. This is the frontline island of beasts, and Mandelfish was born as a scout, so the island's alert level has always been high.

But Mandelfish was not in a hurry, because GT-2 didn't respond at all. As a "biological weapon", the super early warning of Genesect could not be unresponsive when the enemy came, unless it was not the enemy.

There was a burst of waves on the sea surface, and a huge red figure emerged from the water. Nereus' giant figure just walked to the shore, and behind her were several tyrannosaurs.

「Does Mandelfish live here?」

She didn't maintain the human form for much time, and with the usual customs of the Gyarados, the voice of her speech spread directly throughout the island.

Seeing the logo on the crown above her head, the tyrannosaurus behind her, and what she said just now, the people on the island were relieved. No one would dare to pretend to be the logo on the wrist of the universe, let alone the one behind her. Also follow the creatures created by Arceus.

It's just that the figure of Nereus made some people have strange thoughts, such as Aaron, who looked at Rusaka next to Mandelfisch from a high place, then at his sister, and finally He looked at the female giant suspected of having murloc blood on the coast.

「How many people did this guy hook up with...」

After thinking about it carefully, Aaron felt that Nereus might also be a mermaid, or a mermaid who split his legs at an old age.

Although the size is huge, Aaron has never seen giants on land. On the contrary, the murlocs on the seabed have such a large and special individual. Not everyone knows each other, and the possibility cannot be ruled out.

"You are..."

Mandelfish looked at the giantess in front of him in puzzlement.

"I am the queen of the Gyarados family just appointed by Lord Arceus. Lord Arceus bestowed on me the name Nereus. I am here to ask you for some advice."

「Queen? Ask me?」

He is not a real Gyarados, but he has the power of a Gyarados in his body, but this also made him understand why he has a strange feeling about Nereus, which seems to be the thing bestowed by Arceus is affecting him.

But he didn't understand what the other party had to ask him for advice. According to Nereus, she was originally a Gyarados, so she must be more familiar with Gyarados than himself.

Even the world champion of breaststroke can't teach frogs to learn breaststroke. Human breaststroke can't be more standard than that of frogs. It's the same reason for Gyarados.

"It's Mega. I heard that you have already mastered that power. I need stronger power. I will bother you for a while."

Nereus briefly explained his purpose of coming, and directly expressed his next plan.

The Mega Stone is a start, and mastering Mega needs practice. Among the beasts who have mastered the evolution of Mega, Mandelfish has the same power as hers, so he is naturally the most suitable person to teach her.

Although she has been crowned as a king, she doesn't think there is any shame in asking others for advice. As she herself said, she needs stronger power.

「Wait, you mean...you lived here all this time?」

"Don't worry, I usually live in the sea, and I won't disturb you. My group will also guard the nearby sea area for you during this time."

「Rusalka, look...」

"I have no opinion, Fei Xu, you can do whatever you want."

In the end, Nereus stayed here temporarily to start his own Mega teaching, but Aaron got off the sightseeing cable car, and then found Xia Li.

「Charlie, I have something to tell you.」

"What's the matter, let's just talk about it."

As half-brothers and sisters, the relationship between Xia Li and Aaron is not very friendly. Many times they are more like strangers because of their ideas.

「I admit that some humans are a little different.」

"Um?"

She can still believe this kind of words from the mouths of other murlocs, but Aaron, she suspects that the other party's Ferris wheel has been sitting too much, and his brain has turned bad.

"Don't interrupt, Mandelfish is probably not bad, but he is not a suitable partner. There are too many women who have relationships with this guy."

「What nonsense are you talking about? What does this have to do with me? I'm leaving, you go on to spin your Ferris wheel.」

Looking at Xia Li who slid into the swimming lane and freed here, Aaron felt a little dizzy. He originally thought that Rusaka was the only one who had something to do with Mandelfisch, so he said that.

But now it seems that it is far more than that, and this younger sister's attitude is also very strange. Except for the first time they got along, he has never heard the word Aaron brother again.

「It's hard to do...」

Aaron planned to talk to Tiger. For him, there was nothing he couldn't talk to Tiger, but after searching a lot, he couldn't find where Tiger was.

「Xiaoba, have you seen Big Brother?」

Looking at Hachi who was making takoyaki for others, Aaron asked him about Tiger's whereabouts.

「Brother Newtag, I saw him go to the seaside.」

Having an approximate location, Aaron walked towards the beach, and then he saw Tiger who was taking notes.

He didn't bother Tiger rashly, but planned to wait until Tiger finished talking, and Nereus' voice came from his ear.

After a period of control, Nereus' volume has been controlled in a relatively normal range, but if you listen carefully, you can still hear some fragments of words.

Although Mandelfish has mastered Mega Evolution, it is one thing to teach others. The first teaching did not produce results. After Mandelfish left here, he went back to rest and thought about how to teach At that time, Tiger came.

"Hello, my name is Tiger, Fisher Tiger. I heard you mention Lord Arceus several times before. I would like to take the liberty to ask you what you think of that Lord."

"Fisher Tiger...I've heard about you..."

She stayed in Wano country for a short time after she obtained the Great Enlightenment Fruit, and during that time she supplemented a lot of human information through the words of other pirates. The closer the news happened, the more she heard. Tai The name Ge is naturally among them.

「Why do you want to inquire about Master Arceus?

「Because...I saw the lights ahead in the endless darkness.」

For the next period of time, they chatted very happily. One was a fanatic who was influenced by the teachings and overinterpreted, and the other was the Gyarados created by Arceus. There was no contradiction in the communication between the two.

Nereus couldn't say anything bad about Arceus, even in Tiger's words, she felt that she underestimated the greatness of Arceus who created herself.

Under the influence of Nereus, Tiger is also full of more expectations for Wano Country.

At dawn, there were a lot of things in Tiger's notebook. He was full of energy after not sleeping all night, and seemed to have been greatly sublimated in spirit. When he left, he saw Aaron sleeping on the beach not far away. .

Yesterday, Tiger and Nereus were too involved in chatting, and had already ignored the passage of time. Aaron, who was on the side, wanted to wait for Tiger to finish talking, but fell asleep while waiting.

Looking at Aaron who was asleep, Tiger didn't wake him up, but left here quietly. He didn't want to disturb Aaron's sleep.

At the same time, on the Red Earth Continent, Tezolo also made a new decision.

Seeing the destination designated by Tezolo, Ann seemed very excited, not only Ann, Xin Duoli and Stella also showed interest, because the island Tezolo was pointing to was Eregia, also known as Music islands of the country.

O'Hara is a holy land of archeology, while Eregia is a holy land of music. He plans to take advantage of this team building activity to take artists to learn vocal music.

Chapter 584: Uta, Luffy, Heracross

As the all-round development of Beast Fruit Film and Television Department, music has become their biggest weakness. After Xin Duoli joined, she took the lead in dancing.

In terms of film and television, there are Tezzolo and Stella, and Ann also has great abilities in hosting and post-production, but they are the only ones who don't have any singers.

It's not that they can't sing, it's just that music has become a weak point compared to their respective specialties. Now Tezolo plans to take them to study collectively.

This is also the case for himself. His childhood ideal of standing on the big stage to express himself has been realized, but he also hopes to sing more beautiful music.

"Get ready to go. By the way, Tanaka, bring the newly recruited person from the Security Department with him. He seems to have some skills."

In addition to the people recruited by Tezolo himself, Beast Fruit also has its own headhunting company to search for suitable talents within its own business scope. This security department was newly established after he obtained the golden fruit.

In the past, the safety issues were all handed over to the Hundred Beasts Pirates, but after Doflamingo recognized his identity last time, he realized that he should bring some special talents with him when he goes out.

The people who can be taken out by him have naturally passed the assessment and are no longer ordinary employees. This time he recruited a man named Daisy, a strong man with a golden beard, and his armed practice is not bad.

But this is not the reason why he was selected. Baccarat's lucky fruit and Tanaka's wearing fruit were all recruited by him because of their particularity. Armed color is not a bad street, but it is really not easy to find someone who can be armed in the new world. Very troublesome.

The reason why Daisy was selected is that his body is very strange. Simply put, he is a severe trembling M. He feels pain differently from ordinary people. He doesn't know what pain is. On the contrary, the more the damage caused by the attack hurts, the more he feels. The more excited, even a strong sense of pleasure will appear.

Pain is the body's early warning of crisis. Not feeling pain means that in many cases he can display combats that are different from ordinary people, so he was included in the special training list.

Now that Arceus' power has been restored more and more perfect, the reward mechanism is also more systematic. Under the premise of the lottery, the prize pool will also have a certain plan according to the merits and individual differences.

Arceus has formulated the most suitable skills for some of these special people. For example, baccarat and waving fingers are perfect examples. Every year, those people with special talents will be collected on a list and sent to Ghost Island.

Daiss is the perfect fit for the "return punch" if it's the right fit.

Because of the huge business system, the people of Beasts Fruit didn't even need to make special arrangements for sailing. After everyone packed up, Tezolo took them on the merchant ship passing by Eregia.

At the same time, boys and girls in Donghai, Goa Kingdom, and Windmill Village are having their own competitions.

The boy is seven years old this year, and it is Monkey D. Luffy.

The girl's hair is half red and half white, and her name is Uta, the adopted daughter of the red-haired Shanks.

After snatching the rubber fruit from Foz Fau, Shanks' pirate group took Windmill Village as their base and temporarily stationed here. Even if they sailed, they never crossed the Red Earth Continent. The first half of the great route is active.

Different from Bucky who is still unknown, Shanks already has quite a reputation at this time.

Uta is his adopted daughter. Seven years ago, after the battle with other pirates, Shanks found the surviving Uta in their boxes. Seeing her as a child, Shanks thought of himself when he was a child. , so adopted the girl.

Children still need a playmate of the same age. After coming to Fengche Village, Uta quickly became friends with this boy of the same age, and various competition methods appeared one after another between the two.

Who can row a boat faster, who can eat fried chicken faster, the number of matches between the two reached 1@ in less than a year

A dividing line was drawn on the ground, and Luffy pointed to the mountains and forests on both sides to determine the scope of the two to capture.

"Don't afford to lose this time, I will definitely catch the biggest unicorn."

"I can't afford to lose, I won tomorrow!" Luffy refuted Uta's words, but when he spoke, Uta had already run into the woods.

「Damn it, I fell for it again!」

Reluctantly, he also turned around and ran into his own hunting ground, starting the 183rd match between the two.

「Hmph, that idiot Luffy, how could he catch the Unicorn with such a big noise.」

Even if the two act separately, Uta can still sense what Luffy is doing. Because of his recklessness, the birds in the forest are startled to fly out, and the Unicorn Immortal may have been scared away long ago.

「Huh, it's almost here, where does the wind come from~」

The melodious tune sang softly from her mouth. Her goal is to become the singer of the Red Hair Pirates. It is precisely because of the existence of Uta that Luffy thinks that being a musician on the pirate ship is a very important profession.

Different from Lu Fei's flying and dog jumping, under the influence of Uta's singing, the surrounding small animals did not escape, but were attracted by her, and even butterflies landed on her fingertips.

「Unicorn Fairy, Unicorn Fairy, where are you, come out quickly...」

Continuing to sing her own song softly, Uta searched for the eyes of the Unicorn Fairy, but she seemed to have forgotten that besides ordinary small animals, there are also ferocious beasts in this mountain forest. A wild boar soon appeared in front of her .

Wild boars are not like domestic pigs. They are extremely dangerous beasts in the mountains and forests. Seeing the sudden appearance of wild boars, Uta couldn't help but stop the tune he was humming, and his body froze in place.

But the wild boar didn't think too much. Looking at the "two-legged beast" that broke into its territory, it thought that it was threatened, so it ran directly towards the opponent.

"what!!"

Screaming doesn't do anything, but it's one of the residual reactions when the human body encounters a crisis, but nothing happened after that. When Uta opened her eyes again, she saw a bird that was similar to her own. The tall unicorn stood in front of him.

「Hey!」

The huge unicorn blocked the wild boar's impact, and as its body began to exert strength, the wild boar was directly pushed up by it.

The unicorn fairy in this form is naturally Heracross. The reason why it stood up was because it was attracted by Uta's singing, so it chose to protect her.

Chapter 585: The first Pokémon battle in the history of pirates

It has been a while since the implementation of Heracross's release plan, and Heracross has also begun to enter other sea areas to start his new life.

It took many years for the Gyarados in the sea to find a stone slab, so Arceus was not in a hurry, but let the Heracrosses develop their own group first and expand the search manpower.

This Heracross appeared here for this reason. Most Heracrosses prefer peace and rarely fight.

But they are not incapable of fighting, and there are extremely terrifying power hidden in their bodies. Once they make a choice to fight, they will show a fighting power that is completely different from their appearance.

This Heracross was attracted by Uta's singing, so it did this.

Arceus is very friendly to humans, and most of the Pokémon he created are also like this. As long as other people do not actively attack them, they will not harm humans, and in most cases they will protect humans like this.

Ordinary wild boars are naturally no match for Heracross, and have disappeared without a trace after being hit by its horns.

"Hello."

After finishing the wild boar in front of him, Heracross turned his head to look at Uta, and stretched out his arm to her, trying to pull her up when she fell to the ground.

「What a big unicorn. Do you like to hear me sing?」 「Hello! Hilo.」

Heracross nodded and made a gesture of showing off his muscles. "You mean let me continue singing, you will protect me?"

Without the power of Chang Pan, she couldn't understand the specific meaning Heracross wanted to express, but she could hear it almost exactly through body language.

This is the magic of Pokémon. Facing like-minded people, they can express their hearts through that mysterious power.

「Hey!」

Seeing that Uta understood what he meant, Heracross simply sat on the ground. Reality is not a game, and the size of each Heracross is different.

When it stood up, Uta just reached the root of its horn, and as it sat cross-legged on the ground, Uta was just level with the tip of Hercules' horn.

Watching the audience get ready, Uta also started a new song. She is a singer who cares about fans' emotions, so she naturally takes care of this new fan.

She has stopped looking for a unicorn. In her opinion, there will be no unicorn bigger than this one.

The number of songs is over, and Uta also begins to "abduct" Heracross.

「Unicorn, how about you come with me, I can sing to you every day.」

Although he could not understand the words of the unicorn fairy, Uta understood that this unicorn fairy could accurately comprehend human language.

「Hello..」

Thinking for a moment, Heracross shook his head, and then began to gesture.

"Are you looking for something? That would be even better. You can go on Shanks' boat with me. Shanks will take us to various places to explore, so that you can find what you want along the way. "

"Hello?"

Listening to the scene described by Uta, Heracross seemed to think it was a good deal, and finally agreed to Uta's invitation.

「Then we are friends, let's go, help me win the 183rd game first!」

After speaking, he took Heracross's hand and ran to the meeting point, but Heracross seemed to think that Uta was running too slowly, so he pushed her on his back with his horn, and then waved his insect wings to point at Uta. direction to fly.

On the other hand, Luffy's experience is completely different from that of Uta. While Uta and Heracross are waiting at the agreed place, Luffy is holding a lot of wild fruits to lure something.

「Please, these are all for you, just follow me.」

In front of him is also a Heracross. The original Heracrosses were released in batches. If one appears here, it means that there are already a group of Heracrosses nearby, so Luffy also met a group of Heracrosses. Only.

It's just that it's different from the Heracross who has agreed to Uta because he is attracted by the singing. The Heracross in front of Luffy's eyes is obviously is a foodie, because Luffy "offered" a lot of fruits, so he reluctantly accepted this "servant".

These Heracrosses all have different personalities. Uta's one likes music and has an easy-going personality, while the one Luffy met is just a slightly arrogant glutton.

As for why Luffy took out food to lure each other, in his eyes, the unicorn is a special existence that can be equated with One Piece, and having such a unicorn is simply his biggest dream.

Under Luffy's constant begging and the temptation of food, this Heracross reluctantly agreed to the other party's request and found a regular feeder.

Its behavior is not considered a violation of Arceus' request. After all, Arceus' order is to settle in one place first, and having a stable breeder is also a good choice.

Due to different reasons, two Heracrosses released in different batches met unexpectedly. "Hello?"

「Hey!」

Heracross communicated in his own language, and Uta and Luffy also started a new round of quarrel for this.

"My unicorn is bigger! Its horns are longer!"

「Obviously mine is bigger, but its head is higher than yours!」

Uta and Luffy refused to admit defeat. Seeing that the sky was getting dark, they decided to go back and let Shanks be the referee for them.

"Really, where did you find two such big unicorns?"

Looking at the topic of debate between Luffy and Uta, Shanks scratched his head helplessly. He seldom participated in the competition between the two children. The final result is their own decision.

"It's in the mountains behind, Shanks, I promised to take it on board, let's take it on an adventure together in the future."

「Okay, just be your new friend.」

「Eh?! Why, I want to board the boat too! Shanks! Take me with you!」

The fact that Shanks agreed to Heracross boarding made Luffy very excited. He hugged Shanks' leg and expressed that he wanted to board the boat too, but in the end Shanks still didn't agree. A boy and a unicorn, this The meaning is completely different.

After the quarrel, it finally returned to the question of whose unicorn is bigger.

「I heard that some unicorns decide their status through duels. They should be of the same kind, or not?」

Jesus Bu on the side gave his own suggestions, and Luffy and Uta also looked at their own Heracross.

「Hello.」 「Hello.」

Neither of the two Heracrosses objected. Instead, they wanted to compete. Although Heracrosse has an easy-going personality, there are also fights among the same race, not to mention that they had promised to help each other with Luffy and Uta. win.

So they put on a posture and started their own duel, a battle of epoch-making significance in the world of pirates.

Chapter 586 The Country of Music, Elegia

Pokémon battles have become the norm in the Pokémon world, and it is common for trainers to compete with each other, but this is the world of pirates, and most of the Pokémon created by Arceus get along very well. joy.

Even if there are conflicts and fights between individual individuals, they have never fought with individuals who are also Pokémon under the command of humans.

Uta and Luffy don't know what Pokémon represents yet, but for the purpose of their competition, the final duel between Heracross is the first time since Pokémon was born in this world, in the human race. Combat under command.

"Oh, it looks like you are full of fighting spirit, then go out and compare, don't make trouble here."

Seeing that the two Heracrosses were really planning to duel, Shanks took a child with one hand and took them out of Maginot's tavern, and other members of the red-haired pirates also followed Shanks out of here, except for one person- Kapoo.

Lion-like beastman, although he looks scary, but his heart is very gentle, and he is afraid of bugs.

Heracross is also a kind of bug. Even though they are much bigger than normal bugs, it still belongs to the category of bugs. After Uta and Heracross brought them back, Gabu felt uncomfortable.

Fortunately, Hercules is a beetle. If it were a bug like a caterpillar, he might collapse.

The duel of the unicorns is a child's trick, but it is the first time they have seen such a big unicorn duel. With the overall character of the red-haired pirates, they certainly will not miss this opportunity to watch the excitement.

Jesus Bu, who proposed a duel, even marked out a field for the Heracrossers in the open space. The competition method is also very simple. Just push the opponent out of the circle, which is similar to a sumo wrestler's competition.

"If you're ready. Let's begin!"

Looking at the two unicorns in place, Shanks gave the start order like the referee.

The level of the two Heracrosses is not very high, but their "trainer" level is lower. Uta and Luffy don't know what Pokémon is, let alone Pokémon's skills, so the command of the battle Very weak, just cheering.

The horns of the two Heracrosses meet together, which is also the usual way of Heracles duels.

"Come on! Unicorn Fairy, I'll treat you to a delicious juice later!"

"Not only do I invite you to drink juice, I also invite you to listen to my new song!"

In addition to material incentives, they can't do anything else. The two children are cheering for Heracross because of their desire to win, but others have discovered that Heracross is different.

The current red-haired pirates in the East China Sea are completely bullying people. The people on board are also strong on the great route. Naturally, it can be seen that Heracross is unusual.

"Shanks, ordinary unicorns shouldn't have such great strength, and they are too smart."

"Who knows, isn't it because of these unknowns that people want to explore the sea, and Uta is very happy."

Speaking of Shanks also blended into the booing crowd, the duel finally ended with Uta's victory, because she inadvertently used the strongest skill in the Pokémon world-quickly avoid.

Before Luffy's Heracross ran into him, she tried to make Heracross listen to her and avoid the opponent's attack, because the way they decide the winner is to see who gets out of the circle first.

Whether it is being knocked out or rushing out by yourself, it is a way to get out of the circle.

In the end, Heracross listened to her opinion, which led to the final result.

"Yeah! The 183rd win, Luffy, you lost again."

"It doesn't count! You are cheating! How did you let it escape!"

"Slightly slightly~ I didn't say that I couldn't dodge, you little guy who can't afford to lose."

"No, I'll let you do it once, but I obviously won the first 182 times!"

Amidst the quarrel between Uta and Luffy, the duel ended here, and there were two more Heracross figures in their lives.

Happy time is always short, and soon Shanks' travel time will arrive. This time their destination is also Elegia, where he plans to take Uta, who is outstanding in music, to study music.

"Uta! Come back early!"

By the seaside of Windmill Village, Luffy and his Heracross watch as the Redfirth leaves his sight.

The Redvers set sail from Windmill Village, and Tezolo's merchant ship set sail from the Red Earth Continent. Although the starting point was different, and Tezolo sailed earlier, because the merchant ship had to transport supplies along the way, the distance Tezolo sailed was longer. Farther than Shanks.

So the two ships arrived at Eregia at almost the same time, and even Shanks arrived a few days earlier.

"Mr. Tezolo, it's the Red Hair Pirates, do you want to land as usual?"

"Log in normally, don't worry, those are not vicious pirates, even we don't need to be afraid, but why are they here?"

Shanks' reputation is not small now, and he is the most famous among the "newcomers" today. The former crew of the One Piece, coupled with his own good strength, made him a big pirate on the sea, but for some reason, he never entered the new world.

Among the pirates, the red-haired pirates are undoubtedly the more "friendly" type, and there has been no negative news about him so far.

"Then Mr. Tezolo, where are we going now?"

"Go and meet the king here first, the team building time will not be short this time, we will disturb you here for a long time, Tanaka, you should send the visiting letter first."

"I understand, please wait a moment."

After that, Tanaka sent a letter in the name of Beast Fruit Performing Arts Department. The main content was that he and others planned to exchange and study here for a period of time, and hoped that he could arrange admission.

This kind of thing is not uncommon in Eregia. Foreign students are even the main economic and trade source of this island. Every year, many people come here to learn vocal music, and there are many nobles among them. They will give generous sponsorship money.

Tezolo thought that Elegia had no reason to reject the visit, and he led the people on board into the streets of Elegia, where they encountered an unexpected creature.

"Xiaobai, where are you going?"

Walking on the street, the cat boss who had been following Stella suddenly ran in another direction. The abnormal behavior of the cat boss made Tezolo and others feel a little strange, so they followed the trend, and then saw the cat boss stop in front of a large unicorn.

"Heracross? Are there any creatures created by Master Arceus here?"

Recommended words: Qiao Luo traveled to the world of pirates and became a private first class in the navy. There is only one month left before the war on the top. In desperation, Qiao Luo complained to his cat that there was no way out in this world.

But he didn't expect that his cat would steal a pair of Sharingan from him.

Chapter 587 Uta's Star Chasing Scene, Olga and Shanks' Past Records

Outsiders don't know Pokémon, but the senior cadres of Hundred Beasts are familiar with the known Pokémon. Although those O'Hara scholars have just turned to study Pokémon not long ago, even if the information is hand-painted, Rotom But it has long been popularized.

In order to prevent outside members from recognizing the Pokémon created by Arceus, the Rotom phone will update the type of Pokémon created by Arceus, but there is nothing in the database except for the race name, appearance and preferences up.

This is similar to a low-level illustration book. The principle is very simple. The carrier of these mobile phones Rotom has a central network on the ghost island, which can carry out real-time data transmission. It has become a beast to check the update news of Rotom mobile phones in your spare time. Cadres' spare time.

Even ordinary members without mobile phones can get the news through other channels in the station. As Tezolo is a senior cadre, his family members are naturally familiar with the types of Pokémon.

"Really, I didn't expect it to be so fast, Xiaobai, did you come here because you sensed the breath of other Pokémon?"

"Meow~"

Tezolo stroked Xiaobai's cat head while looking at the surrounding environment.

"This... is the Conservatory of Elegia, right? Why is Heracross here? Heracross, have you found anything here?"

"Hello, hello."

Heracross shook his head, then pointed in the direction of the academy.

"Loto, it said its friend is in class, so it's waiting for her here."

Another use of Rotom going out is that they can act as Pokémon translators with the human voice system. With the translation function of Rotom, Tezolo and the others can easily figure out what Heracross wants to express .

At this time, the school bell rang, and Tezolo and the others also saw Uta running towards here from a distance.

"Tezolo, this child has nothing to do with us, right? Why is Heracross with her?"

"Master Arceus said that Pokémon will understand the hearts of humans, and if it is a sincere relationship, Pokémon will also give back. It should have chosen this girl.

Never mind this, if it goes well, we will live here for a while, Ann, you have to study hard. "

"Understood, I will study hard."

Tezolo, Stella and others also intend to come here to study, but they are different from An, even Xin Duoli is already an adult, and their shaping period has long been over, only An can take this opportunity Get more systematic exercise.

At this time, Uta, who saw the figure of Heracross, also came here.

"Axian, why did you come here. Ms. Stella?!"

A Xian is the name she gave Heracross. Because she didn't know the race of the other party, she just randomly named it after the unicorn fairy, but when she saw Stella, the hair on the back stood up excitedly .

"Are you the real Ms. Stella? Wow, you are Mr. Tezolo, are you all here yet?!"

Uta, who lives in Windmill Village, is not a person who does not hear things outside the window. She is not only the daughter of Shanks, but also the daughter of the entire Red Hair Pirates. Because of her hobby, the Red Hair Pirates People can find her albums released everywhere.

Tezolo and Stella are not pure musicians, but they are also famous stars in the world. The effect of close contact with a pair of sunglasses is limited, and they were quickly recognized by Uta.

"It's us, this Heracross is your friend?"

"Heracross? It's called Xian, are you what Xian is looking for?"

Uta's tone became a little excited, she didn't want this friend to leave here so soon.

"No, Heracross is its race name. This kind of unicorn is collectively called Heracross. Is this understandable?"

Through the relationship of Heracross, Stella quickly got acquainted with Uta, and even helped to sign Uta.

"Ms. Stella, do you know Miss Karina and Ms. Maria Napoleon?"

"It's still familiar, what's the matter?"

"Are they here? They are the musicians I admire the most, and I want to be such a famous singer!"

"Unfortunately, they and I are not in the same brokerage company. Let me introduce you to each other when I have a chance in the future."

They belong to different brokerage companies, but they are all in the same circle, and the two parties have also had some cooperation.

In this circle, as long as there is no blood feud, it means that the two parties are partners who can cooperate. Stella is just polite at this time, and it is not certain whether they will meet again in the future.

Unknowingly, Stella and Uta chatted for a long time, and Uta, who hadn't come home after school, also attracted Shanks' search. It didn't take long for Shanks to come here .

"Uta! It's time to go back!"

"Shanks~ Let me talk for a while, this is the real Miss Stella, my favorite artist is ranked third~"

Uta hugged Shanks' leg and began to act coquettishly, but she didn't pay attention, Shanks' eyes became rare and serious, Uta didn't know what the Beast Fruit meant, but Shanks knew it very well.

"Hey, what are you doing here, Mr. Tezoro or Mr. Sakagi?"

"Huh? Your intelligence is quite strong. Of course, we are here to study music. We are serious artists. This is just the company's team building. Shanks or... red hair?"

Different names represent different meanings. Tezoro doesn't know where Shanks got the information about his code name. This has already reflected the ability of the other party. When he appeared as Sakagi, he did nothing. Then it's legal.

The same is true for his address, which is also a questioning method among pirates. For pirates who are not familiar with it, the name and the title of the bounty represent different meanings. If he chooses red hair, it means that he is not friendly.

"Indeed, it's just learning music. There is a music tavern next to it. How about going for a drink?"

In a blink of an eye, two strange men walked shoulder to shoulder and walked to the side bar, and Uta also continued to ask Stella some questions about the entertainment industry.

It's not that Shanks has a big heart. Besides him, other members of the red-haired pirates such as Beckman have also appeared nearby, so he let Uta chat with others with confidence.

After sitting down, Shanks seemed to be thinking about something, but Tezolo opened up a topic first.

"Suddenly remembered, Sister Olga said, who will say hello to you when she sees you?"

"Olga"

"The girl with the red nose is no match for you even if you join forces, well, that's what Miss Olga said, don't you remember?"

Chapter 588 Tot Musica-The Devil of Songs

"Ah, I still remember, how can I forget this."

Speaking of Olga, Shanks also remembered what happened back then. He and Bucky were helpless opponents, and they lost to each other twice in the same way.

He also felt a little embarrassed when he mentioned what happened back then, and at the same time, he also thought of Bucky who went to treasure hunting somewhere now, so he couldn't help feeling a little nostalgic.

"Does she remember so clearly?"

"After you became famous, Miss Olga was very dissatisfied. At that time, that red-haired kid also became a big pirate. The navy is really incompetent. Well, that's what she said."

"Hahahaha, that's really interesting. If there is a chance, I should ask for another lesson. She is the first person to make me lose twice in a row."

For the dark history of that year, Shanks didn't hold a grudge. Instead, he talked about it with a smile. Although the result was not beautiful, it was also a memory of his youth.

Borrowing a few glasses of beer, Shanks and Tezolo chatted temporarily until the topic came to a person.

"Tezolo, you are a man of beasts, right?"

"Shanks, it's good for everyone if you don't tell the truth about some things. Since your news can know the code name, then I don't need to explain some things clearly."

"Although this is the case, I still want to ask what happened to Mr. Mita."

After the battle between Kaido and Whitebeard, it was revealed that the base camp of Hundred Beasts was in Wano Country. Although Whitebeard didn't mention too much about Kozuki Oden, what happened in Wano Country also made people wonder. Some people were puzzled.

"I joined later, if you don't want me to give an answer. Heitan's rebellion killed him, his wife and children are missing, and his daughter Kozuki Hiyawa is now the general of Wano country."

This is the unified caliber of the beasts, and it is also the words written by the beasts in history as the victors. After a few years, there may be latecomers who will dig out the real history, but by that time, the naturalized Wano Kingdom will not be concerned about this influence.

"His tombstone is in the Wano country. If you want to, you can visit it, if you have the courage."

He is not surprised why Shanks asked this. He knows that Shanks is also one of Roger's crew members, and Oden has been on Roger's ship, so it is not surprising that Shanks knew each other.

"This is the answer I can give you. If you are not satisfied, you can go to Mr. Kaido and have a try."

Shanks' face darkened for a moment, but then he laughed again.

"Forget it, let's not talk about this, I will ask about it later, let's have a good drink now, I think you get along quite well."

He is no longer a child, so he naturally understands some truths. If Kaido cannot be defeated, then the truth of the result is meaningless at all.

As for the relationship with Tezolo, for the pirates, even if they are in a hostile camp, as long as their personalities are compatible, they can sit together and drink happily during non-war times. Shanks can find something by virtue of his own ability, but Tezoro Zolo's apparent identity has never been related to pirates.

In addition, now that Stella and Uta are chatting very happily, he temporarily put aside those unpleasant topics.

"Hey, do you think my daughter can debut?"

There is a TV on the Redforth that can receive the signal of the phone bug, and the owner of the TV channel is Uta. He also watched the programs of Tezolo and Stella with Uta on it, and even in the Murloc TV series. I have seen familiar scenes in the movie replays of the island.

He also knew about the other party's status in the entertainment industry, and the reason why he brought Uta to Elegia was because he wanted to fulfill her wish. Now that he met a professional, he naturally wanted to inquire about it.

"The talent is great, she has the ability to lead an era at her age."

After so many years, he has also gained enough professionalism, listening to the other party's singing, he naturally made a judgment.

"How about it, if you are her guardian, do you want to sign a contract with us? I am sure to make her famous and let the whole world listen to her singing."

"If she has this idea, I have no objection, but it still depends on her, and we will all respect her opinion."

"Mr. Tezolo, it has been discussed. King Gordon has agreed to our admission application."

Tanaka and ghosts got out from the wall beside them, reporting their achievements.

"Enrollment? Are you here to enroll?"

"The company's team building is just a side study."

The encounter on the first day was not bad, and in the following days, Tezolo and others also carried out their own training activities in Eregia as planned before, and An and Uta even met in the same class study.

time is passing by little by little, and

Compared to Uta, Ann seems to be an amateur singer, completely overwhelmed by the other party in terms of talent, and Uta's outstanding talent also caught Gordon's attention.

Gordon's appearance looks like Frankenstein, and he doesn't need makeup to be a weirdo at a Halloween party, but he is a good person in essence, and he is also the king of Eregia and the piano master.

"This child's singing voice is simply a treasure bestowed by God to the world. Let her stay here, we can give her the most comprehensive teaching, so that her talent can be fully displayed."

Gordon found Shanks and made his own request. In his opinion, there is no one more suitable for Uta than Eregia. This country is simply built for Uta.

Shanks did not give a direct answer, but left the choice to Uta. It is her dream to become a singer, but if the price of becoming a singer is to be separated from Shanks, she cannot accept it.

She rejected Gordon's kindness and chose to continue to follow Shanks. Although it was a pity, Gordon also respected Shanks' ideas.

On the eve of the red-haired pirates leaving here, the people of Eregia held a grand concert to send Uta away.

And the accident happened at this time, a special sheet music-TotMuscia was sealed underground in Eregia.

It is not only people who recognize Uta's talent for music, but also the sealed score, which is written by the devil. In order to break the seal, it came to Uta's hands by itself, and let Uta know nothing. Then sang the taboo chapter.

The sealed Demon King of Song thus broke the seal, lodged in Uta, and massacred the people of Eregia.

"Hey! Don't be dumb, how to solve this thing?!"

The insectoid Tezolo grabbed Gordon and asked how to deal with the monster.

Chapter 589 Why are you so poor here!

Not so long ago, this was an auditorium filled with laughter.

Gordon told all the citizens the news that Uta was about to leave. People who settled in this country have a special love for music. When they knew that Uta would leave with the red-haired pirates the next day, they felt a little bit in their hearts. Reluctant.

So with this farewell party, they all want to hear Uta's songs again.

Some people brought their own music score, wanting to hear the effect of Uta singing it, and some people brought special souvenirs.

Uta lived up to their expectations, took the score and walked onto her stage with the accompaniment of the band.

But as the singing came into the ground, the score moved.

While taking a break, Uta suddenly found a few sheets of music scattered on the stool. She thought it was something other people had accidentally scattered, so she picked it up and hummed a few words, which led to this out-of-control situation.

The ground of the meeting place cracked, and in the shaking of the earth, the mutation just happened.

Waving the insect wings, Tezolo brought Stella and Gordon to a safe place, and handed Stella to his subordinates.

"Daiss! Tanaka! Protect them! Bacala, don't use your abilities until the critical moment! If the situation gets out of control, retreat to the port immediately and stay away from here!"

Kicking away a flying boulder, Tezolo continued to give his orders to the people around him. Baccarat's finger waving skill is easy to use, but facing this natural disaster-like environment, it will take a lot of effort to exert its effect. She has a lot of physical strength.

In this case, Tezzolo quickly made a judgment, that is to retreat.

He doesn't mind helping here if he can handle the situation, but once things exceed his ability, he will take Stella out of here without hesitation. To him, the whole country is no better than Stella alone important.

But it hasn't reached that point yet, so he tried to deal with it, and then he looked at Gordon who was brought out by him.

"Hey, aren't you the king? Don't be stupid! Or you don't know anything!"

"That's .TotMusica, the taboo sheet music that utilizes the fruit of Uta"

Uta itself is also an ability user, a superman-type song fruit ability user, who can materialize singing voices to create note soldiers and note demon kings.

It can also lead others into the spiritual world through singing, and can also control people who are sleepwalking in the real world to a certain extent.

But the current level of Uta's fruit development is still very low, but it can use the fruit to spread its voice farther.

The singing fruit itself can't make people sing better, so Uta's singing talent has nothing to do with it, because there is no expressive power of any fruit, and Gordon didn't notice this detail.

"What the * is that? Cut the crap."

"It uses Uta. It discovered that Uta is the capable person before me. Once the capable person of the singing fruit sings this song, it can make it unsealed."

"Good, so how to deal with it? Knowing these details, has anyone experienced something similar before?"

An event that can be handed down intact means that there are witnesses or witnesses who survived. Since the devil can be sealed, it means that someone has sealed it before, and there is a solution.

"The Demon King of Songs does not only exist in the real world, it will also appear in another dream world, or the world of the soul, but once it appears, the two worlds will merge with each other. If you want to defeat it, you have to be in both worlds." The whole world must attack it simultaneously."

"Are you toothpaste! I have to ask you a question? How do you get there!"

"No, I don't know. It stands to reason that a person with the ability to sing and sing fruit can send us there, but Uta is now."

"Asshole. Where is your treasure house? Take me there!"

At this time, a huge monster was flying in the sky, wearing a black suit and top hat, a hideous white wizard mask, surrounded by other hideous skeletons from shoulder to chest, and its two arms were like extended piano keyboards.

The ferocious mouth spat out thunder and lightning, wantonly destroying the city.

This kind of giant enemy is Tezolo's most annoying opponent. He tried to attack it before, but it didn't work at all. He couldn't do it without thinking of other ways.

Even if he doesn't care about the life and death of ordinary people, he can find a way to delay time for Stella.

"Shanks, what should we do!"

The red-haired pirates looked helpless at the monster Uta turned into, and their attacks had no effect on the demon's body.

"Damn! Uta! Wake up, don't let this thing manipulate you!"

The ship doctor Dege of the red-haired pirates yelled at the devil, but it didn't make any sense.

At this time, Gordon was also thrown over, and the question Tezzolo asked was also asked by Shanks again.

"So. Can we just wait until Uta's physical strength is exhausted?"

According to Gordon's description, the appearance of the Demon King of Songs depends on the space of the singing fruit, and many abilities will fail when the fruit-capable person loses consciousness. This seems to be their only choice.

The left arm pulled out the Griffin at the waist, and Shanks slashed towards the arm of the Demon King of Songs. Only by breaking the monster as soon as possible can Uta be liberated as soon as possible.

Shanks has always been a left-hander, and the power of swinging a knife with his left arm is much greater than that of his right arm, but even he failed to leave any traces on the demon king, and instead angered it.

Just as the monster opened its mouth wide and was about to release the thunder, a pair of golden hands suddenly stretched out from a distance and grabbed it from behind.

"Gordon, you king is too poor!"

Tezolo has also studied here for more than a month, and getting along with Gordon is not as strange as it was at the beginning.

The reason he was looking for the treasure house was to use his golden fruit. Originally, he wanted to make a golden giant to attract the opponent's attention, but the treasure reserves of the Kingdom of Elegia did not support him at all, and in the end he just made a golden giant. A pair of golden hands.

But he also managed to attract the attention of the Demon King of Songs. While he was turning his head, Shanks swung his knife and slashed at its mask again. The Demon King roared in pain, but the thunder and lightning were still released. , leaving a large ruin in the kingdom.

"This * demon Tezolo! Can you completely control it?!"

"Can't do it! There's too little gold here!"

If this is the Golden Island, then he can still try one or two times, but such a small amount of gold has reached his limit, even if the gold controlled by his golden fruit will be strengthened, his big golden hand will still be slowly broken away Come.

"Then try again, I owe you a favor!"

Chapter 590: Bonds of Pokémon

There are three ways in front of them. First, according to what Gordon said, attack the Demon King from both worlds together to relieve this state, but they can't do this now.

Second, wake up Uta and let her use her own consciousness to solve this problem, but this is also impossible, so there is only the last method left, which is dragging until Uta is exhausted.

The difficulty of dragging is not high, and the peak moment of the red-haired pirates is still far away, but now they have begun to thrive, and it is not difficult for the cadres of the red-haired pirates to entangle the devil of song.

But there are countless ordinary people on this island, killing people is much easier than saving them. If you want to kill a person, these cadres present have countless ways, but those who want to protect the island, There is nothing they can do.

Overlord-colored deterrence is useless to this thing at all, and among the strong pirates, Shanks is the one with the poorest wide-range attack. His single-target attack is strong enough, but he can deal with a monster with infinite blood. It doesn't make sense at all.

The casualties on the island have been increasing, and the extra ruins on Eregia have already explained everything. Tezolo is only temporarily slowing down the opponent's pace.

Even if you say so, it doesn't mean you can do it

Tezolo felt the struggle of the monster in front of him. In order to be free forever, the Demon King of Songs tried his best to destroy everything here. In its cognition, human beings are the chief culprits that caused him to be sealed.

At this moment, several flashes of fire suddenly flashed across the sky, and a large number of meteors fell from the sky, hitting the monster's body.

The attack failed to have a fatal effect, but the dense meteors also suppressed the thing's footsteps. That's Dragon Star Group? Stella. I see.

Taking advantage of the suppression of the Demon King of Song by the Dragon Star Group, the two big golden hands made by Tezolo held together, and a heavy hammer hit the opponent's head. No matter what kind of creature it is, it is always okay to hit the head first. of.

Even for undead creatures, smashing their heads is enough to slow them down.

No one here can release the dragon star group, Kaido and Arceus can't be here, the only possibility is Baccarat's waving skills.

Having her own order, Baccarat couldn't do it at will, unless someone else made a request to her, and the only person here who could do this kind of thing was Stella.

It seems that Stella doesn't want the tragedy to continue. In this case, he went all out, and it would not do him any good to let this thing act recklessly in Eregia.

I don't know how long it can last, so I'll give it a try first!

Beckman, you bring a few people to rescue people, leave this to us!

Seeing Tezolo's actions, Shanks pressed his straw hat, and the red-haired pirates also divided into two teams at his request, and Beckman took * cloth around to help people evacuate. The people below began to besiege the monster in front of them.

In the distance, in a relatively safe place, Bacala was lying on the deck panting, and there were also a few people who dared not move.

Baccarat is because the dragon star group consumes too much physical strength. The consumption of waving fingers has a lot to do with the skills selected by the master, and this time the dragon star group is still very large, and her physical strength has been exhausted .

As for the other people who dare not move around, in order to achieve better results, she borrowed a little luck from them. In this case, not moving is the best choice. They didn't even dare to breathe loudly, lest something unlucky happen to them. body.

Ma'am, let's retreat a little further, the boss can fly, so it's better for us to be a burden here, and bring as many people from the island as possible.

Looking at the thundering light and the roaring center of the island, Stella had a trace of worry in her eyes. In fact, Tezolo knew something wrong. She hoped that Tezolo would take advantage of the gap created by the dragon star group to withdraw directly.

Saving people should be within the scope of one's ability. He has already saved many people. There is no need to involve himself in it for them. This is also her selfishness, and no one has the right to condemn her selfishness.

And in his

When our ship sailed and began to avoid risks, Stella seemed to see a black shadow passing through the night sky, and the destination was the center of Eregia.

Roar!

Gabu fired a sonic cannon from his mouth. This is his attack method, but the orc appearance resembles a beast. The sonic cannon fired from his mouth inevitably makes people think that he has something to do with Edrago who ate the sonic fruit.

The attacks of the red-haired pirates fell on the Demon King of Songs one after another, but no matter who the attacks were, including Shanks and Tezolo, they couldn't cause effective damage to him. It seemed that something blocked all of this. Boom!

The Demon King of Uta's body was full of lightning, and electric currents danced like silver snakes, rushing from its mouth to his body, not only temporarily forcing back the red-haired pirates who approached its body, but also melting Tezoro's two gold coins. big hand.

But even if the melted gold is still under the control of the golden fruit, under the manipulation of Tezolo, the liquid gold rushes towards the opponent's face, but for this special living body, this has no effect .

UTA! Wake up! Is this something you want to see!

The battle didn't end, but the members of the red-haired pirates were trying to wake Uta up. Unfortunately, Uta's consciousness was completely occupied by the Demon King of Uta, and he couldn't hear any voice from his companions.

And in this group, there are not only humans. Hello! Hello!

Axian waved his insect wings and flew in front of that demon mask. Human beings are related to human beings, but sometimes, creatures of other races value the bond with human beings more, and Pokémon is one of them.

Regardless of whether the owner is a hero or a hero, they are the whole life of a Pokémon. There are countless such examples in the Pokémon world. Watching the girl with a beautiful singing voice become this monster, Heracross did not Fear, only sadness.

Heracross! Stay away! It's not UTA now!

Tezolo's words didn't work. Only Arceus can force Pokémon to order. Unless Arceus himself is here, outsiders can't stop Pokémon's personal wishes.

It was still trying to wake Uta up, and a burst of special insect chirping sounded into the ears of the Demon of Songs, but this did not wake Uta up, but only further angered the demon.

Roar!

There was a harsh roar, and two strange hands slapped Heracross in front of him. The huge strange hands left Heracross with almost no room to hide.

Shanks wanted to save Uta's new friend, but he saw a black hole swallowing the unicorn, and then another strange figure appeared here...
