

ARCEUS' PIRATE JOURNEY

Chapter 6: Quinn was beaten at first sight

Chapter 6 Quinn who was beaten as soon as they met

Quinn held a large iron bucket and said to Kaido that whether Kaido could leave the institute by himself was Quinn's test for the captain he chose, and the bucket he was holding was full of rice cake azuki bean soup. , you can smell that sweet and greasy smell from far away.

"However, Big Brother Kai, you seem to have found a good subordinate, hey hey, what are you going to do!"

Before Quinn could finish speaking, a figure appeared in front of him, and his right leg, which was burning with flame, kicked his face fiercely. The iron bucket blocked the attack, but it also deformed because of it. The soup was scattered.

"You bastard, you are also a member of that research institute, right! I can't forget your face!"

It was Shaina who did it. Quinn belonged to that research institute before, and naturally participated in some research activities. Those faces were engraved in the back of her mind by Shaina.

Neither she nor Jhin has a pure genre. What they learn is just to fight better, but they each have their own areas of expertise. Jhin is better at sword-like weapons, while Shaina is used to unarmed combat and is good at kicking. skills.

"It's not me who is in charge of repair! And Lao Tzu's rice cake and azuki bean soup! I just took a bite!"

The mechanical hand on his left arm blocked Shaina's kick. The hot breath made his beard curl slightly, and the rice cake azuki bean soup spilled all over the floor was the reason for his anger.

Arceus didn't stop Shaina. He knew how much anger she had accumulated these days. Everyone in the institute was her target of venting, but it seemed that Quinn was also the target of Kaido's solicitation.

"You don't care?"

"It's just a fight, why bother? If we want to do things together in the future, instead of fighting every day, it's better to let her have a good time."

"She didn't promise to join you."

"But she obeys you very much, doesn't she consider joining my pirate group completely? I can give you the position of deputy governor."

"Not interested" before he finished speaking, he felt that the top of his head was wet with something, and when he raised his head, Kaido began to cry inexplicably again, and he brought a wine jar from somewhere to start drinking.

"What a pity. What a pity, Jhin, just do whatever you want, it won't work after today." He could feel that Jhin also resented Quinn, just not as impulsive as Shaina.

Kaido's words turned on Jhin's switch. Quinn and Shaina were not dominant in the battle. Although he was bigger, he couldn't touch Shaina at all, and air superiority was maximized.

The next moment, he also ushered in the attack of Jhin, and the whole person rolled to one side like a ball. Jhin and Shaina cooperated quite skillfully. In the past life, the two had always fought together, and the tacit understanding was extraordinary.

And watching Kaido weeping and drinking, Quinn understood that Kaido didn't mean to stop this kind of thing.

He wanted to see if Kaido's ability could really leave the institute, and Kaido seemed to have the same idea.

"You two bastards, this uncle is angry!" Quinn's skin began to become rough, the brownish yellow color began to spread, the already round body became taller, and a huge Brachiosaurus appeared in front of the two of them.

Dragon Dragon Fruit - Ancient Species - Brachiosaurus Form, quite rare ancient species of fauna.

But unlike ordinary animal-type abilities, Quinn has quite obvious traces of transformation. Not only his left hand, but also the tail end of the whip on his tail and head has mechanical hooks.

Although the attack just now caused him a lot of damage, the stamina and resilience of animal-type abilities are quite strong, and it is still far from his limit at this time.

I don't know what he did to his body, but he actually stuck out two gun barrels from his mouth, and the dense bullets shot at Shaina.

However, Shaina just blocked her wings in front of her, and a large amount of flames adhered to the wings, blocking all of Quinn's attacks.

The more the flames of the Lunaria burn, the stronger the defense will be, but the speed will become slower, and the flexible switching of forms is an important part of their battle.

Then Jhin took over Shaina's position, and Shaina's flaming feet kicked towards Quinn again. At this time, Jhin lacked a weapon. In this case, Shaina's fighting power was more powerful than him. powerful.

"Girl who plays with fire, try this trick, new banquet hot fist!" The mechanical claw at the end of the braid ignited a flame, and then grabbed Shaina under the control of Quinn.

However, as the flames on Shaina's back went out, her speed suddenly increased rapidly, and she kicked the opponent's face again, but she was still relatively weak, and the difference in body size did not achieve much victory.

Her growth cap is very high, but she is a little younger now, much worse than the blessings brought by Devil Fruit and mechanical transformation.

However, in a two-on-one situation, he was still severely cleaned up by Jin and Shaina.

Seeing Shaina and Jhin venting their resentment, Kaido also stopped the battle. The past grudges will be over from now on, and everyone will be on the same boat in the future, but Quinn is not convinced. .

"Have the ability to go heads-up! You two guys are head-to-head! This uncle will let you know what strength is!"

"Do you rely on your fat?"

"Don't talk nonsense, you little girl, I have muscles all over my body, and I'm so fat because I'm worried that I'll be too handsome after losing weight, and people will fall in love with me. If you see me losing weight, you'll be fascinated by it of!"

"Stop dreaming, narcissistic bastard, you won't be that strong even if you lose weight, but the animal-type abilities are really self-willed, and you will be alive after beating you up."

"Shaina, do you want similar power?" Arceus asked Shaina, and after getting a positive answer, the fireball slate appeared.

This is his summary of his ability in the past time. Arceus created the world, the world gave birth to Pokemon, and Arceus originally had the ability to use the power of slate to create Pokemon.

At this time, with a little modification, using the power of creation, he can do a lot of things, but he has not practiced it yet, and this is his attempt to his own power.

A special power flowed into Shaina's body, a burning sensation flowed through her body along the blood vessels, and the flames behind Shaina became more vigorous uncontrollably.

"Master Holy Beast, is this?"

"Try it, it should be similar to the so-called devil fruit."

Shaina mobilized the power in her body according to Arceus's instructions, her hands turned into sharp claws, and a red mask appeared on her face, and Kaido, who saw this change, suddenly regained consciousness, just like seeing the lover of her dreams. Same.

Saina, who was the client, felt the changes in her body.

Then, whether it was her, or as a bystander, Jhin's eyes were filled with the flame of hope.

The ability of the ability person comes from the devil fruit, which is a kind of common sense in the sea, and anyone with a little knowledge will know this kind of thing.

If this ability happened elsewhere, they would be puzzled, but this power comes from Arceus, the holy beast they worship, then everything becomes reasonable.

Why do you still bring a giant egg on the way to escape? This is a question that every new clan has asked.

At this time, parents will tell stories that have been passed down from ancient times to the present.

The enshrined sacred objects gave them stronger flame power, and those who received divine grace were bathed in the firelight and became the bravest warriors in the clan.

Once, this has always been an ethereal legend, but today, he saw the power of Arceus.

The sacred relic that has been enshrined for generations has awakened, and under the illumination of this power, Lunaria's glory will bloom again.
