

Arceus 671

Chapter 671: Pokémon "Fubao"

Before Arceus left Ghost Island, these mandible ants had been created. Burrowing is the housekeeping skill of most ground-type Pokémon, and they all have the ability to build underground caves.

But among the many ground-type Pokémon, the situation of mandible ants is quite special. Not only can they dig holes, they are also experts in making underground traps, and they also have special needs for water sources.

Mandaw ants are not very dependent on water, but their evolution is different. Their evolution method is similar to that of Kira, and they all have a cocooning process. To successfully evolve into ultrasonic larvae, they need an environment with plenty of water.

There is a dangerous area on Izabe Island in the Pokémon World. It is called the underground labyrinth of mandible ants. The surface is full of nests of mandible ants.

The seemingly arid environment actually hides another mystery. Under the ground, there is a huge underground lake, so the mandaw ants are sent here. The abundant underground rivers below the island meet their needs for water sources.

The natural ability to make traps allows them to further improve the security level of the underground labyrinth, and the needs of evolution make them more adaptable to the specific environment of that island.

Their lairs, that is, the traps for the enemy, are shaped like garlic bowls. They are death traps that claim that once the prey falls, they can never climb out again. Even if they don't evolve, they are enough to serve as guards.

After they evolve, the power they can exert will naturally be even more terrifying.

「These guys feel silly, are they really okay?」

Many mandaw ants on the deck are struggling to straighten their bodies with the help of their companions. Although their growth environment requires water, they are ground-type Pokémon after all, and they usually don't know how to take a boat.

There was a small-scale tsunami on the sea just now, and many mandible ants were turned upside down, and the disadvantages of their body structure were also revealed.

The pair of giant jaws are the weapons they rely on for survival, they can easily crush rocks, but their huge heads also make them top-heavy, and it is difficult for them to turn over by themselves when they are overturned.

When the mandaw ants fell in groups, the scene became very joyful.

"When did the things created by Master Arceus have any accidents? It's just that this is not a place for them to display their abilities. Let's go. If you have time to watch here, why don't you turn them over?"

A few pirates joined the mandaw ant rescue team. As the pirate said, their activities were restricted by the ship. If they were on the ground, they could gnaw a hole directly on the ground and then adjust their body shape .

But here is a boat, if you do that, the boat will turn into a plank in a few days, and finally sink to the bottom directly, which leads to the situation of "killing" in groups of mandibular ants.

As for why these people are so enthusiastic, this is the current characteristic of the Hundred Beasts Pirates. The created Pokémon regard them as allies, but that is only the reputation of the camp.

Pokémon will not attack them, nor like them much, only treat them as familiar strangers.

If you want to get along well with Pokémon, you have to go to personal reputation. For now, getting familiar with Pokémon is only good, not bad.

For example, if the inspection team in Wano Country can get the approval of the wolf dog, it can become a small boss. If even the wolf dog doesn't like it, it can only be a nobody.

This is just an example. Many positions can only be filled by people who get along well with Pokémon. Every time a new Pokémon is born, there will be more positions inside Beasts. This is also consistent with the expansion of Beasts. Very fit.

In the eyes of these pirates, these newly born mandaw ants are a way to get promoted. As for why they like to get promoted so much, it has a lot to do with their boss. Mandelfisch has gathered a large number of "community animals" "type talents.

The goal is to work hard to get promoted, and then retire smoothly with a good position.

These people are busy brushing their proficiency with the mandible ants, and some brave people are teasing the mandible ants, such as Ulti.

Now she is holding the fish that Peggy Wan just caught as bait, dangling in front of the mandible ants. These seemingly cute guys are real carnivores, and the bite force of the big mouth is even more light.

Easily bite off human hand bones.

Having failed to eat the fish several times in a row, the mandible ant became obviously impatient.

「Sister, isn't this too dangerous」

"It's okay, it's not that I don't give it food, it's just for fun."

While speaking, the mandible ant bit the fish with one bite. Looking at the neat cuts on the fish, one could estimate how much force the mandaw ant had used. After several times in succession, Peggy Wan also panicked a little.

"Enough old lady, there is only half a fish left, it's too dangerous!"

"It's okay, isn't it quite long, what are you afraid of?"

"Of course you are not afraid! That is my hand!" Peggy Wan pulled out his hand and threw the fish tail tied to it directly to the mandible ant. After he caught the fish before, Ulti suddenly tied the fish to his arm, and then played this dangerous game.

It was relatively safe at first, and he didn't resist much, but as the remaining part of the fish's body became shorter and shorter, he was really scared, and broke away from Ulti after directly becoming capable.

"Okay, Peggy Wan, don't make trouble, go to scout that ship over there, there is something wrong with the ship's course."

Mandelfish's voice stopped the fighting between the siblings, or saved Peggy Wan from the bitter sea. Many people on this ship were from the original scout team, and it was not up to the siblings to investigate.

But this trip was meant to train the siblings, so Mandelfisch sent Peggy Wan out.

The current position is close to the entrance of the new world, and here, the deterrence of the Pirate Flag of Beasts begins to decline. The new pirates have just set sail, arrived at the Chambord Islands, and arrived at the new world. most expansive.

At this time, they dared to touch anything. Looking at the course of the ship, Mandelfish felt that something was wrong.

"I see."

No matter what the mission is, it is a good thing to be able to get out of Urti's tiger's mouth. Peggy Wan directly rolled over the side of the ship and flew into the sky, but some things cannot be avoided by flying.

His take-off needed a cushion, and by this time Ulti had jumped onto his back and had a firm grip on his dorsal fin.

"Old sister!"

"Let's go! Hurry up and scout, don't care about such trivial things!"

Looking at the two siblings taking off, the younger brother next to them complained about their indecency.

"Brother, the two of them are too young, so they are not suitable for the job of scouting."

「People always need some tempering, get ready to fight, I think that ship is a bit strange.」

Chapter 672: bash my teammate

"Brother Mandelfish, is it really necessary for us to do this? Is it enough to have two sea kings nearby?"

While the siblings ran to investigate the situation, the younger brother beside Mandelfisch was a little unaware of the operation plan.

"Sea kings? Where do you think there are more sea kings than near Murloc Island? That's a depth of 10,000 meters. Sea kings alone can't scare those guys, and sea kings don't listen to orders. Do you think murlocs Do you destroy yourself?"

Neptunes will not only attack pirate ships that are not pleasing to the eye, murlocs and mermaids are also the targets of their attacks. Except for Neptunes and Manafei, there is currently no technology that can control Neptunes.

White Xing wants to awaken the Neptune for how long. As for Manafei, it is not a good choice to let him be tied near the island because of this kind of thing. He can only persuade the Neptune to give him face.

If one day they are not around, it is not certain whether the sea kings will give other murlocs or mermaids face, and the benefits that mermaids can bring are too great, and the deep sea of 10,000 meters can't stop them. Want to solve those troubles, isn't it? It can be done in a day or two.

"Okay, don't get entangled in the decision above, bring the mandible ants back to the cabin and drop them into the sea is troublesome. "

Maggnathus ants can't swim. His intuition tells him that a battle is likely to happen in a while, and now it's just a matter of taking precautions.

Arranging his subordinates to prepare for the battle, he also observed the situation of Ulti and Peggy Wan. Although they are still young, their ability to fly is their biggest advantage, and theoretically, they will not encounter risks if they can fly.

But before he could react, Peggy Wan suddenly crashed. Just as he was about to act, Rotom flew out of his body and started the forced call mode.

This is also the ability of the full version of the Rotom mobile phone. People with higher authority can forcibly connect to the Rotom of people with lower authority. Rotom residing in the mobile phone will analyze the situation and environment to decide whether to report the news immediately. .

Looking at the Rotom that he flew out of, Mandelfish frowned.

"Hey, who is it? I'm busy now, let me tell you something."

"It's me, Mandelfish, are you adrift? Send someone to blow up my boat??"

"Miss Olga? I don't have one, I'm almost at the Fishman Island, Peggy Wan?! Wait, is that ship yours?!"

Olga on the opposite side of the screen adjusted her angle, revealing Peggy Wan and Ulti behind her, which made Mandelfisch figure out what happened.

There is no possibility of accidents in Rotom, and in his sight, the unknown pirate ship gradually became unreal, and finally turned into the Shadow Fox.

「Now do you know what happened?」

"Ms. Eolga, wait a minute, I'll just lean over. The alert is lifted! It's my own!"

His intuition is correct, there is indeed a problem with that ship, but this problem is not the problem he thought, but another weird problem.

Olga's daily activities are activities around Chambord, hunting those nasty slave traders. At the beginning, she concealed her true identity in this regard, and often used other pirate groups to hunt those slave traders.

Every time the Chambord auction starts, the human trafficker will also become active, and that is her hunting time.

Although those traffickers had complicated backgrounds in the sea, Olga never worried about this issue.

Even if some re-captured slaves leaked her information, no one could find her, because every time she did it, she used a different face, gender, age, body shape, everything about her was a mystery.

Except for the entourage on the ship, even if they are members of the same pirate group, they don't know what identity Olga is using.

She recognized Mandelfish's boat, but she didn't remove the disguise. There were fish she caught nearby, and she didn't want to reveal her identity. According to common sense, Mandelfish would not attack other boats out of nowhere.

Earlier Mandelfisch felt that the trajectory of the Shadow Fox was strange, because the navigator of the Shadow Fox was asking Olga if

It depends on the past tense, which is caused by the short stay.

The distance between the two ships was not very far, and they passed by quickly, and the scene seemed awkward for a while.

"Miss Olga."

「The two of them said you sent them out.」

"That's right. I'll take them out to practice, but I just let them scout the situation. Which of you two can give me an explanation?"

Mandelfish looked at the siblings, wanting to know what was going on.

"Brother Mandelfish, this is actually an accident..."

Peggy Wan explained what happened before, and the time went back a few minutes, and he brought Ulti closer to the ship.

Olga's phantom lasts for a long time, but she was a little lazy at the time. Seeing that there were no targets nearby, she reduced the number of NPCs. Therefore, from the perspective of outsiders, this ship is just like a ghost ship. No.

Under normal circumstances, they only need to go back and report, and many things will be revealed by then, but Ulti chose an unusually rough situation.

Since there is a problem, let's take a look at it, and then spit a dragon's breath towards the deck.

The illusion used for camouflage is not the same as the illusion used to deceive the opponent's thinking. At this time, Olga is using the most common illusion, which will reveal her original shape when she is attacked, but she is not yet unable to react to the attacks of the two children.

After counteracting Ulti's dragon breath, they captured the two people, and then contacted Mandelfisch, and the current situation came into being.

Conclusion: In her first mission, Urti successfully attacked the camouflaged friendly forces, achieving an epoch-making feat.

「Miss Olga, there is no loss.

Bar? "

"That's not true, but such a reckless character is not acceptable, lend her to me, and give her a little punishment along the way."

itself is not a big deal, after all, she is still a child, but she wants to let the other party know that there is a price to be paid for being too reckless.

Here Olga has the highest status. Since it was caused by Urti's recklessness, Mandelfisch didn't fight anything, allowing Olga to take Urti away.

Then she was changed into a cute dress by Olga like a doll.

"Well, yes, it's cute, just be a bait for me honestly, and forget about this time."

No matter how realistic the false phantom is, it is not as real as the real bait. Ulti is very beautiful when dressed up. The little girl at this age is the favorite of traffickers. Then she and Peggy Wan were put on the boat and pretended to be a lifeboat. The appearance is released.

She is going to use the siblings as bait.

Chapter 673: Moon Hunter Katrina Depon

"Miss Olga, are you overly skilled?"

At this moment, both Mandelfish's ship and the Shadow Fox disappeared into the sea and entered a stealth mode. If you don't hide the hook when fishing, it will be difficult for those big fish to bite the hook.

Watching the people on the Shadow Fox enter their posts skillfully, Mandelfish felt that he had a misunderstanding. He used to think that Olga was a relatively normal one among the big cadres. Now it seems that her Bad taste is very high.

"Huh? You don't have many opportunities to deal with those traffickers. Those guys are ghosts and ghosts. You may not be able to catch them without some tricks."

In recent years, she has also been fighting wits and courage with this group, and fishing law enforcement can only be regarded as the most basic method.

"But Miss Olga, this may not be able to catch the traffickers."

"Yes, but when you are fishing, do you only stare at one fish to catch? Whoever bites the hook will be unlucky, that kind of guy will never kill the wrong one. If you are in a hurry, go there first, in a few days I'll send these two little guys over to you."

Fishing is an activity that tests patience, and Olga doesn't think that fish will bite the hook immediately after she casts the bait.

"Okay, then leave it to the eldest sister."

Before Mandelfish finished speaking, a pirate ship appeared nearby, and it seemed to have seen the bait they released, and moved towards this side.

"It seems that you can wait a little longer, hey! You two little devils, behave better!"

Olga shouted at the two people under the side of the ship. Although they couldn't see anything on the sea, the two siblings were very close to the Shadow Fox. If they had good hearing, they could even hear what the other was saying.

Ulti and Peggy Wan on the small boat can't see where the Shadow Fox is now, but they can hear Olga's message.

For Peggy Wan, it is very happy to see the target appear so soon. He hopes to end this voyage as soon as possible than Ulti, because he was also changed into a female outfit.

This is Olga's bad taste. She thinks that girls are more suitable as bait than boys, so she directly changed Peggy Wan into a women's outfit.

In the same family, Peggy Wan is still a "handsome girl" if she dresses up a little bit. As the saying goes, if a man really has no achievements, he can consider wearing women's clothing to harm one party. Peggy Wan has a face that meets the requirements.

In addition, he is also growing long hair, after treatment, it is a pair of sisters.

"Help! Help!"

Peggy Wan squeezed his throat and waved his arms towards the approaching pirate ship, wanting to end this suffering as soon as possible.

"Xiao Pei, don't work so hard, it's quite leisurely, and it's the first time I've discovered that you wear a skirt so well."

"Shut up! Who do you think all this is because of!"

"Woo Xiaopei, you're actually * me off!"

Looking at the fake crying Urti, there was a smile on the corner of Peggy Wan's mouth. He had already guessed that Urti would be like this. At this time, a fake crying sister is more in line with the image.

At this time, the other party's pirate ship is getting closer and closer to them.

The probability of shipwreck on the great route is very high. Seeing unknown floating objects in the sea, many pirates have the habit of going to have a look. If they are lucky, they can salvage a batch of treasures.

The other party's pirate ship naturally had this in mind, and as they got closer, the pirate flag on the ship became more obvious.

"Peggy Wan is quite talented. Has he decided where to go? I think he is very suitable for this bait job."

"Not yet, but Jack seems to want to transfer Peggy Wan to his fleet."

"Really, they have a really good relationship. Which pirate is on the other side, haven't you found any news yet?"

"I found my eldest sister, she is this year's supernova, Wakazuki Hunter - Katerina Depon, the bounty of 390 million Baileys is so high."

The pirate next to him found information about the other party in a stack of reward orders, and sighed slightly about the reward offered by the other party.

The bounty of this amount is also at the level of cadres in the pirate group of the new world. A pirate who has just finished the first half can reach this bounty.

There are not many pirates who dare to attack Judiciary Island. There is no such feat, and those who can make the bounty exceed 300 million are rare monsters.

"Three hundred and ninety million? She is really an amazing newcomer. I hope she is a sensible person."

In the process of hunting human traffickers, Olga will also do another thing, such as recruiting new people for the Pirates, or exchanging these people for money.

The battle between pirates is not limited to killing or subduing. If they are recognized opponents, they will bury each other, but in most cases, they will not waste the rewards on the pirates.

This is the norm in the territory of the sea emperor in the New World. At least half of the pirates who came to provoke him were given to the navy in exchange for money. There are also underground merchants who make a living from this in the New World.

After all, pirates can't go to the naval base to exchange money, which gives these middlemen the opportunity to make a difference. Olga has done a better job in this regard. Due to her own ability, she doesn't even need to find middlemen.
nOvElusB.Com

Ulti and Peggy Wan's boat was pulled onto the deck by the opponent, but they didn't know that someone was already watching them just a short distance away.

"Captain, they are two very beautiful little girls!"

A pirate shouted to the back, accentuating the word beautiful, but there was a trace of regret in his tone, because his captain had a very bad character in this regard.

She will hunt and kill women who are more beautiful than her, regardless of age, as long as she is not pleasing to the eye, and women who are more beautiful than her are her targets.

The hunter's nickname has something to do with this. The faces of those she hunted will be peeled off to make specimens. Such a bad behavior made her have such a high reward at the halfway point of the voyage.

And the appearance of the captain

It's not that he doesn't have confidence, it's that his captain really doesn't have the qualifications to make him confident. Fortunately, this beauty is based on her own subjective consciousness, and she is very confident in herself, otherwise the women she saw would basically have no way out up.

This is also why she will keep some women by her side, because she feels that those people are not as beautiful as herself, and if she wants to live peacefully by her side, she has to show her admiration and satisfy her needs when De Peng thinks she is more beautiful. vanity.

Of course, he would never dare to say this in person, otherwise he would definitely be whipped to death.

Following such a captain, they have already figured out the captain's character. According to her habits, these two little girls are likely to be unlucky.

"Hey, let me see, I really picked up something great."

Chapter 674 Why do you have the illusion that you are not deceived by illusions?

On the deck, a woman with heavy make-up came out, dressed luxuriously, with a lot of accessories on her body, a square face and a special long nose formed a unique landscape.

Her taste is not bad. If you don't look at the face, the matching of her body is actually perfect, but her own face shape may only be saved by plastic surgery.

"Two nice little dolls, there are just two vacancies on my table, huh huh~"

There was a slightly cruel smile on the corner of Dai Peng's mouth. Even with the mask behind, some things still couldn't be covered up. She was about to reach out her hand to take a good look at the faces of the two little devils, but suddenly there was something in her heart. Kind of inexplicable feeling.

She couldn't tell what this feeling was, but looking at the pirate next to her, she suddenly picked up the whip around her waist and whipped it.

This is the weapon she is most used to. After a burst of piercing sound, the whip hit the pirate's body, and immediately drew a bloodstain on his chest.

"Strange, this feels a little strange."

Looking at the wailing pirate on the ground, she looked at the weapon in her hand with some hesitation.

She couldn't tell what was wrong, but she felt that there was something wrong, and then she took out her pistol and started shooting continuously at the howling pirate, until she emptied the magazine.

"Boat captain, why? Did he do anything?"

"No, I just suddenly felt that there was something wrong with this person."

If it was an ordinary person, she would not do such a thing even if she felt strange, but she is different. As a person who pursues "freedom", she will use whatever she wants to the extreme.

Between the lives of her subordinates and her intuition, she chose to trust her intuition.

In the past, although Dai Peng was cruel, her opponents were quite unrestrained. Now her behavior frightens the surrounding pirates to take two steps back unconsciously.

"How did you two get here?"

Looking at Peggy Wan and Ulti, De Peng began to doubt the identities of these two people. After these two people appeared, she felt a strange feeling in her heart, and she felt that there must be some kind of connection between them.

Although she was asking a question, she didn't wait for the siblings to answer at all. With the other hand, she pulled out the dagger from her waist and stabbed at their necks.

Whether it is a sword or a gun, Dai Peng is very skilled. She was born in a noble family and was originally a rich lady.

Whether it is swordsmanship or marksmanship, she has reached the point of proficiency, but it does not conform to the local aesthetics, whether it is character or appearance. In the eyes of the local people, she does not look like a rich lady at all.

In order to pursue that "freedom", she finally embarked on this pirate road.

She was confident that she could completely cut off that face with this sword, but just as her hand swung out, she was firmly grasped in mid-air.

"Very good combat intuition, you can detect abnormalities, you are still the first among newcomers."

There was a ripple in the air, and Olga's figure appeared in front of De Peng out of thin air. Looking at Olga who appeared, De Peng was not too scared.

"Hoohoo, these two brats really have problems, do they have the ability to pretend? The new world is really exciting."

"Hope you can say that in a few minutes, you're not bad for a rookie, but that's about it."

As Olga began to assume the role of disaster, fewer and fewer people could see through her ability. If she didn't make a move first, few people could find her trace.

Strictly speaking, De Peng didn't find Olga either, but her fighting instincts made her feel that something was wrong, and she used an alternative method to force Olga out. She had to ensure the safety of her "bait".

"Captain of the ship! She is the chief cadre of all beasts! It's a phantom disaster!"

Dai Peng didn't panic, but it doesn't mean that her little brother won't be afraid. After reaching this position, although there are still many stunned youths, there are also many pirates who know the reputation of the emperor of the sea.

Olga removed not only her own disguise, but also the disguise of the two pirate ships, looking at the pirate flag belonging to the beasts on the Shadow Fox and Mandelfish's pirate ship that was close at hand, some well-informed people will inevitably have a sense of fear.

"Hoohoo. You are really a big shot. What do you want to do? Recruit me?"

"Solicitation? No, I'm just going to exchange you for some pocket money. The things in your cabin are disgusting. Sir Arceus hates pirates like you the most."

She had already checked the whole circle on the ship before, and those "collections" made her feel unappetizing, and the appearance of the other party did not meet the recruitment requirements of Hundred Beasts.

Most of the female pirates in Beasts have fairly good looks, and the crooked painting style of Dai Peng is seriously inconsistent with Beasts.

As a fisherman, when catching some scourges like scavengers, he also needs to protect the environment.

"Disgusting? It seems that you don't understand art at all. Only in this way can you ensure that those things will not wither. Although you are not close, you can barely be included. You are just an old guy who went to sea a few years ago. I really think Are you invincible?"

Even a newcomer has his own arrogance. Hearing that Olga belittled her collection, De Peng was very upset. The identity of the other party did not scare her. With a flick of her wrist, the whip on the other hand pointed at Olga. Erjia's direction pulled away.

But in mid-air, her braids broke into several knots inexplicably, and Olga in front of her turned into a illusory bubble again.

"Why do you think that the one who grabs your arm must be the real body?"

The surrounding environment trembled like the surface of water, black and purple energy swept the entire deck, and the hostile pirates on the ship suddenly entered a state of cannibalism.

Strong people can crush the weak, but Olga is different. These people who have just entered the new world and only have a glimpse of domineering have no ability to resist her.

Intuition can make De Peng aware of the abnormality, but it can't help her reverse the victory.

Olga in front of De Peng suddenly turned into Elizabeth, and the one who cut off her whip just now was the blade hidden in Elizabeth's tail.

And on her fingertips, the water energy has also been condensed.

Looking at the rippling water splash, Dai Peng felt a creepy feeling in his heart, but before she could make an evasive action, the claws wrapped in evil energy hit her on the neck.

This time Olga's body appeared, and the vital attack hit the bull's-eye, and Dai Peng's consciousness fell into a blank for a moment, and then the fluctuation of the water hit the bull's-eye, directly hitting her into the sea.

These are different schools within Beasts. The reckless faction headed by Kaido uses hard power to be reckless no matter what they do, but in addition, a special moderate faction was born. Olga is the moderate faction. representatives.

In battle, even if the opponent's strength is not as good as her own, she will not choose to be reckless head-on, but use illusions to interfere with the opponent's judgment, give a fatal blow from the dark, and at the same time pull Elizabeth to beat the opponent in groups without talking about martial arts .

Although she can win recklessly, it is not necessary. If she can avoid it, there is no need to fight hard. This is her current fighting philosophy.

This has something to do with her wicked personality and her experience of surviving in the belly of Neptunes. When she meets an opponent like Jack, she can still lose clearly, but when she faces Olga, many people lose very aggrievedly.

Chapter 675: Arceus' "Grandfather" Career

Following the attack on the vital points and the wave of water hitting one after another, Dai Peng was directly blasted out. According to the normal situation, she would fall directly into the sea, and Elizabeth would make another knife for her underwater.

But the result was not so easy. A cloud of pink smoke exploded from Dai Peng's body in mid-air, several fluffy tails appeared from behind, and his hands and feet became like canines.

Then he kicked his feet out of thin air and returned to the deck again.

Moonstep-like skills are not uncommon in the new world, but it is very rare for a pirate who has just entered the new world to use this method. Of course, what is even rarer is her ability to resist blows.

"Oh? An animal-type ability user? No wonder it's so strong."

Seeing that De Peng didn't lose consciousness directly, Olga was a little shocked. Under normal circumstances, such a person would definitely be recruited.

It seems that it is not an ordinary animal, but a rare phantom beast. Ordinary beasts do not have nine tails.

In fact, this is exactly the case. Dai Peng itself is an ability user in the form of a nine-tailed fox of the dog-dog fruit phantom beast species. The rare phantom beast species makes her physique different from ordinary people, so she can resist Olga's attack and not lose consciousness.

It's just that the collections in her cabin made Olga feel sick, and she didn't mean to recruit such people at all.

It is not surprising that there are a few talented newcomers occasionally. Since you failed to defeat them once, you can do it again.

Two clusters of pitch-black energy condensed in Olga's palm, and the Diablo Explosion was ready to go.

But Dai Peng, who was in mid-air, was suddenly wrapped in a cloud of pink smoke, and fell to the deck by the impact of the dark explosion. After the smoke cleared, Dai Peng's figure had disappeared, replaced by two Exactly the same Ulti.

「Hey, playing this trick in front of me...you look down on me a bit.」

The ability brought by the nine-tailed fox fruit is imitation, which is similar to the imitation fruit, which can make her look like other people, and to a certain extent, the nine-tailed fox's changes are more delicate, whether it is body shape or clothing, it can become exactly the same .

Although it is not the same as the illusion, in the final analysis, the effect achieved is similar. Olga has studied the illusion for more than ten years, and using this in front of her is really a bit contemptuous.

In fact, De Peng has nothing to do. Although he still retains consciousness and has not fainted, Olga's attack is not easy to bear. Olga is not the type to fight head-on, but it depends on who he compares with.

Her ability to fight head-on against opponents of the same level is nothing, but for newcomers, it is still not so easy to bear. If such an attack comes again, Di Peng will not be able to bear it.

Pirates advocate freedom, but the premise of freedom is to survive, so although you can't escape here, you can try to fish in troubled waters, and then look for the next opportunity.

It's just that she chose the wrong target. The people present have countless ways to distinguish the true from the false. For example, Elizabeth and Olga can detect the difference in the breath of the two.

For Pokémon capable users, the power aura that also comes from Arceus is particularly obvious. They don't need much advanced knowledge and knowledge. As long as the opponent is standing by their side, they can accurately lock the opponent.

Not to mention the Rotom on his body, the identity card, his own ability transformation and a series of methods to verify his identity.

Failing to solve a newcomer twice in a row is also a shameful thing for Olga. She is also a fox, and she is not afraid of a nine-tailed fox.

The animalized sharp claws were wrapped in armed domineering, and then mercilessly hit the opponent's face, leaving her no chance to speak.

Without her reservations, Da Peng lost consciousness in confusion. She didn't understand why the other party locked her identity so easily.

「Clean it up! Hurry up and get rid of this place. If there is a reward, take it for money, and if there is no reward, let's deal with it!」

After confirming that De Peng was in a coma, the younger brothers immediately took out Hailoushi handcuffs, handcuffed them aside, and waited to give them to the Navy for a bounty. Come the highest profit way.

The battle ended quickly, but Ulti didn't feel

Great, watching an identical self being beaten, it feels very strange to say.

After the short baiting career ended, the two groups parted ways. Mandelfish led them to New Fishman Island, while Olga headed to the nearest G5 branch, intending to send the Daipenbeard team to the island quickly. discounted.

At the same time, another ship continued its voyage.

In the first half of the great voyage, the entire front deck of the Shiyuan was vacated. Except for Shaina, no one dares to stay here now. The style of painting here made them unacceptable for a while.

"Master Holy Beast, isn't it... um... a bit inappropriate for you to bring the two of them out?"

"It's just two little guys, don't you think this is very similar to ten years ago? Then Kai Yamato and Jack are also such little guys."

"That's not what I mean. Your decision is naturally correct, but these two little guys are too lively."

Saying that, Shaina threw out the red chain in her hand, and caught Meowna and Wolf who were climbing on the side of the ship.

「At least Setsuna should be brought along, right? She and Zeraora are not here, I always feel weird.」

Grabbing a little guy with one hand, Shaina threw the two of them back to the lucky egg next to them. Their liveliness was far beyond expectations.

Based on age, Meowna and Worf belong to the three generations within Beasts. Because of their status as the eldest sons of Zeraora, the siblings were also born with golden spoons in their mouths.

Now the siblings are in their early three and a half years old, the age at which even dogs dislike them, coupled with Arceus' love, sometimes they can be said to be lawless.

And Setsuna is also the most caring mother Shaina knows. Although there is no danger in coming out with Arceus, she dares to let go directly at this age, which can only be said to be a characteristic of the fur tribe.

But considering that the young men of the Fur tribe generally dared to sneak out of Zou when they were young, these became very reasonable again.

"Let them go, maybe they will have a new child when they go back this time."

He just helped to look after the children casually, letting them see the world ahead of time.

「Master Arceus, we caught a strange thing in the sea!」

Not long after, Meowna and Worf came to Arceus with a drift bottle in their arms. Inside was a note and a map with slightly provocative words written on it.

【If you are the pirate among the pirates among the pirates... come to this island with a trusted partner! 】

Chapter 676: why are you here

"Master Holy Beast, it seems to be a bait, someone wants to deliberately lure pirates to that island."

After taking the bottle that Meowna and Wolf brought over, Shaina checked the contents. In addition to a chart near the island, there was also a permanent pointer tied to the bottle.

"Carnival Island is the only place of entertainment on the Great Route. Carnival parties are held every day on the island. There are abundant hot springs and beauty salons. Beauties from all over the world will accompany you to have a good night at night... This is an idiot fishing with a straight hook?"

Shaina read the contents of the note, women, treasures, food, that island seems to have everything, and as long as you go to the island, you can enjoy it, plus the pirate in front of the pirate, the provocative The meaning is very obvious.noVelUsB.com

Such things are not uncommon on the great route. Some bounty hunters will gather together to forge similar carnival islands, lure the pirates there and entertain them enthusiastically, and wait for everyone to get drunk before starting.

「Meowna, Wolf, where did you find this?」

In Shaina's view, this kind of bait is very stupid, but every year countless pirates take the bait, some are naive, and some go to the target island with the purpose of robbery. As for what will happen in the end, it can only be seen personal strength.

「I caught it from the sea.」

「We were fishing, but my brother caught this strange thing suddenly.」

The two brothers and sisters described the specific situation one by one. Although they are only three and a half years old, the children of the fur tribe are not ordinary little ghosts. They can easily knock down ordinary adults.

This is especially true for Meowna and Worf. They haven't acquired the ability yet, but they have inherited part of their parents' power. The power of waveguide is not so easy to develop, but the power of thunder and lightning is different. The electric energy of the two of them is stronger than that of ordinary adult fur people. powerful.

And this is also related to their mother's education. Now, the two of them are the three generations of a very small number of beasts. Naturally, they don't have to worry about food and drink, but some survival skills are still taught.

Instant education is still the traditional way of the fur tribe, and in the life of the fur tribe, fishing in the fire-breathing rain is the basis for the survival of the fur tribe.

So the two of them already have the ability to fish, and the success rate is even higher than that of Peggy Wan. Sometimes they can directly fish.

"Aunt Shaina, can I go to this island? Carnival seems to be a very interesting thing."

They are still not very literate, but Shaina has already read them all. They didn't take Shaina's complaints to heart, but became interested in the party instead.

「Wait a minute, Carnival Island...Emaline! Is this island on the route?」

Shaina shouted to the side, no one on the deck, it doesn't mean they all disappeared, they just kept a certain distance, and orders can still be heard.

"No, big sister, this island is not marked on the sea chart, and the record pointer does not point there. It should be an island on another route."

Four Seas can enter the Great Route after crossing the Upside-Down Mountain, but there are not one, but seven routes leading to the Chambord Islands from the Great Route.

The magnetic field of the islands on these routes is more attractive, and only rely on the recording pointer to advance, and there will be no cross-threading, unless there are special permanent pointers. ...

Nautical charts are of little significance in the great route, because it is difficult to identify the direction without relying on the recording pointer. You may get lost in the sea on a rainy day, but the nautical chart is not useless.

It can at least let people know what the next island is. People who have just entered the great route do not have this kind of thing, but the beasts are different. They are looking for things every day. They have their own marks on many islands. "No... Lord Holy Beast, do you want to change course? This seems to be an unknown island."

The unrecorded island II and Beasts have a higher priority, but this is not their scheduled route, and the final decision-making power is still in the hands of Arceus.

"Turn around, these two little guys can have fun if they want to go, and let the people on the boat take a vacation."

The journey to find the slate is not always smooth. It is good to find the slate, but there is nothing to do if you can't find it.

mark.

The process of sailing is very boring, and the life of these pirates also needs to be adjusted. It would be nice to have such an island for parties. As for whether it is bait or not, there is no fishing rod that can catch the origin.

"Understood, I'll make arrangements."

After receiving the order, the Siyuan began to turn. This might be a trap, but no one took it seriously. The force of such a ship was not afraid of any conspiracy at all in the first half of the great voyage.

The mark on the Qianzhou wrist fluttered with the wind, and the Siyuan was heading towards a new destination.

The location of the island is not very far. Within a few days, a tropical island appeared in their field of vision, and the moment they landed, Arceus noticed a familiar aura.

It is not the breath of the slate, but the breath of the Pokémon he created.

At this moment, the space in front of them was distorted, a black hole appeared in front of everyone, and Darkley appeared in front of them.

"My lord, why are you here?"

"Passing by, but why are you here? I remember the last time I contacted...was in Beihai, right? How long has it been since you ended your exploration there? When I created you, I probably didn't add anything to you It's a strange attribute."

「This is a coincidence, I just arrived here, and then I felt a very strange smell on the island, the breath of the dead, I think this place may be related to the entrance of that world.

But before I had time to investigate, I found that your lord has also arrived. "

Coincidence, referring to how he came here without knowing how.

Darkley often borrows black holes when he is on his way, but the magnetic field in this world is very chaotic, which makes him often make mistakes in positioning. At least on the same island, Darkley still has a strong sense of direction.

「That's really a coincidence, let's go, just to see what you perceive.

Shaina, you can take other people to the island to move freely, the sailing is long enough, rest here for two days, remember to look after those two little guys. "

「I understand, please feel free, I will take care of them.」

Arceus said so, obviously did not find what he wanted, Arceus has already made arrangements, so she just follow suit.

According to the map in the drifting bottle, there should be other things on this island, so Arceus and Darkrai walked towards the center of the island, and Shaina also walked in with the staff on the Shiyuan Rainforest on the island.

Chapter 677: "Undead"

"Meowna, Worf, don't run around, follow me obediently, or I'll let Setsuna spank your * when I go back!"

The rainforest seems to have inspired the wildness of the two little guys. As soon as they entered here, they had a strong curiosity about their surroundings.

Not long ago, she saw that when Setsuna took the children out, they tied a rope around their waists. At that time, she thought it was strange that Setsuna was a mother, but now she understood the other's mood.

Either let people watch, or tie a rope, otherwise these two little guys can run away without a trace in a few minutes.

Especially Miaona, although she is a girl, she is harder to find than Wolff in running. She seems to have a talent for climbing trees in her bones.

Seemingly feeling insecure, Shaina simply handed the two of them over to Ji Lidan, and forbade Ji Lidan to let go.

"You are all old people, and I don't want to talk nonsense. The Lord Saint Beast's order is to rest and relax, but please take it easy. If something special happens, don't blame me for being ruthless if anyone dares to lose the chain!"

The number of people on the Siwon trip this time is two hundred, not many, but they are all elites, and within the Hundred Beasts Pirates, the friendship of partners is relatively the least, only those at the beginning can barely be called partners, After that, there are more subordinates.

If they can't prove their abilities, they might not even be able to remember their names. These people are Shaina's cronies, but they still have a certain distance from their partners. Emmaline and Shaina's personal relationship is better.

This situation is not an exception, unless it is a small pirate group with only a few dozen people, the people on board are naturally familiar with it.

However, these large pirate groups often have tens of thousands of people, and are composed of small groups internally. Talents with similar strength and status are more likely to develop friendship.

Even the captain couldn't remember the names of all his subordinates.

Of course, among many cadres, Shaina is the friendliest to her subordinates, as long as her bottom line is not touched.

「Don't worry big sister, we all understand.」

"Yeah, after all these years, don't you know us?"

Their tone was very relaxed. As long as the night watchmen didn't die suddenly, they were enough to deal with 90% of the situations, and the remaining 10% required Shaina's action.

As for Arceus, unless it is a very special situation like Huang Quan, he does not need to do it himself here. If any cat or dog can make Arceus take action, it is simply an insult to these pirates.

Soon, there was a sound of music in the forest ahead, and a carnival park appeared in their eyes, led by a man riding an elephant with a strange tropical hairstyle on his head, but most importantly, he There is also a strange flower on the shoulder.

The flowers have smiles like human faces, and the people who appear next to them also have a characteristic. They all have two blades of grass growing on top of their heads.

"O pirates galloping on my great voyage! I am the owner of this island - the Baron of Carnival, and I will be in charge of entertaining you from now on. Enjoy the carnival to your heart's content! But before that, you must accept the * trial here. practice!"

"Big sister, I don't feel any strong person, and the leader doesn't have a strong aura, how to deal with it."

Emmaline asked beside Shaina. Although there were many people on the other side, most of them were ordinary people. If necessary, she was confident that she would lead a team to deal with these people within 10 minutes.

"Play with the two little guys for a while, you look at the arrangement, unexpectedly there is such a thing here..."

Shaina's attention was all on the flowers on Baron Carnival's shoulders, and Emmaline felt a little strange because of this.

Shaina still maintains the change of form, but the mask will not block her eyes. Based on Emmaline's understanding of Shaina, Shaina seems to want that thing.

"Elder Sister, or else..."

"No need, I'll have to take another look to be sure, and I haven't seen this thing in years. Maybe you enjoy the party, I'm here to watch."

Under Shaina's gesture, the beasts

The pirates scrambled to participate in each other's games, not because they love to play, but to express themselves.

Arceus has his own preference. More than a decade ago, this preference was Yamato. This is well known in Beasts. As Yamato grows older, the previous situation of coaxing children naturally no longer exists.

But with the birth of Meowna and Worf, Arceus' preference tends to shift slightly to them. In the past, except for Yamato, Arceus would not bring other children out to play while searching for the slate.

This trip to Carnival Island obviously meant to take care of two children, and their parents were the senior cadres in the pirate group and the cadres who were second only to the senior cadres. Let the two of them remember themselves and take care of their own development There is no harm in Baili.

Fishing for goldfish, hoops, and all kinds of weird games appeared on Carnival Island. The result is not important, but the two children had a lot of fun, even if they were basically just pendants in the game.

The project is still going on, and some pirates of beasts also chatted with the baron's men, and in the process, they discovered some strange things.

「Hello? Are you kidding me? Haven't you heard of beasts?」

「I've never heard of it, is it a famous pirate group?」

「You bastard...」

At first, Emmaline thought that the other party didn't recognize the pattern of Qian Zhou's wrist. After all, the sea is still dominated by Kaido's flag, but when they didn't respond to the pirates of beasts, Emmaline felt that it's not that simple.

But this is not the most important point. The sea is very vast, and there are many ignorant pirates in the first half. The next topic is what makes Emmaline suspicious.

"Actually, we are also famous pirates, the Red Arrow Pirates, have you heard of it? Not long ago we had a face-to-face meeting with Goldo Roger."

She doesn't know about the Red Arrow Pirates, but she still knows about Roger's reputation.

"Roger? He's been dead for sixteen years."

"How is it possible? We met him not long ago. He was a remarkable man. He was the first man to conquer the great route. On that stormy night...the stormy night...the storm that night was particularly powerful..."

Having said that, he suddenly stopped, his expression became terrified, the leaves above his head began to wither, a large amount of sweat fell from his forehead, his skin began to shrink, gradually turned purple, and finally became like a dry zombie Same.

"this is..."

"It seems that I am not mistaken, these people are dead."

"Big Sister? What's going on?" Looking at Shaina behind her, Emmaline asked puzzled.

Chapter 678: Possessed by Riddler

「This is a very long story. It's better that you don't know some things. In short, these people have died a long time ago, and their memories are stuck in more than ten years ago.」

「Is that so? Then these people were resurrected by...」

This can explain why these people know nothing about Beasts. When Roger first became One Piece, Beasts hadn't reached the top yet, but they were just the stronger pirates in the New World.

The execution of Gol D. Roger is a well-known thing in the sea. Whether it is a pirate or a navy, a civilian or a policeman, everyone knows that Roger has been executed by the world government.

These self-proclaimed members of the Red Arrow Pirates don't know anything about it. This is obviously not in line with common sense. If they were dead before Roger's death, then everything would make sense.

But if they were already dead, then what are these people in front of them?

The word resurrection appeared in Emmaline's mind at this time, but it was quickly rejected by Shaina.

"It's not resurrection, they don't have this ability yet, it's just an alternative taboo usage, be prepared, it may take a lot of effort in a while."

A flame appeared in Shaina's palm, and after simple compression, the flame was directly thrown into the sky by her.

The flames gathered in the sky like fireworks, and the scattered pirates also saw the cross fireworks in the sky, dropped their things one after another, and gathered towards the flames.

This is the gathering signal of all the beasts, even if they don't know the reason, they are still coming here.

「Big Sister, is the enemy hard to deal with?」

Apart from Arceus and Darkrai who don't know where they went, the two are the highest combat power on the ship. If they can't be dealt with, then it's pointless to call the men.

At this time, it is more appropriate to send out a signal for help, but Shaina is just calling her subordinates.

"You'll have to try it out, but don't worry, I haven't heard of the name of the Red Arrow Pirates more than ten years ago. This kind of ability doesn't enhance the strength, but it's very troublesome. It's just to prevent accidents. ."

Soon the pirates of Beasts gathered, Miao Na and Worf were also brought here by the lucky eggs, and the surrounding area was surrounded by members of the Red Arrow Pirates. As for the changed pirate, At this time, it was already lying on the ground like a corpse.

In terms of the human definition of life, he has lost all signs of life.

The expressions of those people looking at the "corpse" on the ground are a bit strange, but they are also accustomed to it. In their cognition, this seems to have become a normal state.

There was only one exception, the owner of the island, Baron Carnival, his face became very ugly when he saw his subordinate who had turned into a "corpse".

「The rest is over, let's continue the trial in hell!」

"I really can't wait, Meowna, Worf, have you two had enough fun?"

「Hmm, um, that big fish is so interesting.」

「Those people are also very interesting, some of them look like kappa.」

Facing the baron's words, Shaina was not nervous, but asked if the two children had had enough fun. After getting a positive answer, she also changed her attitude.

"Now that you've had enough fun, please be good to me. The adults have to do their own things, everyone! Defensive formation, the next first goal, protect yourself! Emmaline, you and the lucky egg Take care of the two little ones."

「Big sister, don't you want to annihilate them?」

Shaina's order was a little strange to them. They obviously meant to start a war, but they chose to defend. This is a very rare example in the past experience of Hundred Beasts, and the enemy is still an unknown enemy.

"The dead can't be killed, I want to find something, you may have to hold on for a while."

"clear."

Today's Shaina spoke a little strangely, but this did not affect their execution of orders, and soon formed a semicircular square formation.

「Are you going to give up the trial and start resisting?」 novelSB.COM

「Don't talk nonsense, the game is over, I don't want to waste time

Between, where is the body of the flower? "

「You...what are you talking about? What flower body?」

Hearing Shaina's question, the baron's expression suddenly became stiff, and his expression was no longer as relaxed as before. As if he had discovered the biggest secret, he quickly denied it.

「Stop pretending, the lily carnation on your shoulder has already explained everything. These plant puppets are the most taboo usage...」

「Shut up! What nonsense are you talking about!」

A longbow suddenly appeared in the baron's left hand, and weird plant vines appeared in his right hand, and finally turned into a bow and arrow.

「Do it!」

After the bow and arrow was shot, it suddenly turned into a rain of arrows, and after drawing several arcs in the sky, they shot at Shaina.

「An attack of this level...it seems that I was too worried.」

Seeing the rain of arrows flying, Shaina felt a lot more relaxed, and didn't even make a defensive move. Those arrows were burnt to ashes just as they approached her.

Just when she was about to capture the baron and ask about the whereabouts of the flower body, a huge black pipe suddenly waved wildly in the center of the island, and it seemed to let out bursts of wailing.

「This kind of breath...is bad!」

That is not a black pipe, but the body of the flower that Shaina was looking for, and there are very familiar energy fluctuations coming from there.

Spreading her wings, Shaina flew over there. The baron's strength is not considered a threat. Emmaline is more than enough to deal with him, but this kind of opportunity may not be available in the future.

"Lily!"

Seeing the vision in the center of the island, the baron panicked completely, and also rushed in that direction, but he was destined not to be able to keep up with Shaina's speed as he couldn't fly.

The principals of the two parties disappeared here, but those who stayed here were not affected, and they soon fought together. After this fight, Emmaline understood what was going on.

Those people are very weak, there is nothing they can do about these elite beasts, but their bodies are different from ordinary people.

Just now, her arm that turned into a sickle was chopped on a person. Even a body made of rock would be divided into two by her, but the person was not injured at all except for the gap in the clothes.

The results of other people's battles are also the same. No matter whether they are hacked with knives or axes, those people will only be beaten into the air, but will not be injured. A strange corpse.

Seeing this situation, they no longer fought hard, but launched a defensive counterattack.

On the other side, in the center of the island, looking at the giant flower stem in front of him, Darkrai's exposed one eye flashed a trace of disappointment.

「Sorry, Your Majesty, this is not what I thought...」

「Master Holy Beast! Be merciful, don't touch that thing yet!」

Chapter 679: Father and mother, the correct use of Lily Carnation

Before anyone arrived, the voice came first. Shaina's voice came from a distance, and then stopped in front of Arceus with an abrupt stop.

"Shaina? What's going on in such a hurry? This isn't like you."

Looking at Shaina who was in a hurry, Arceus felt that it was very abnormal. Since leaving the laboratory that year, he had never seen Shaina so anxious, as if she was afraid of accidents.

「Sorry, Lord Holy Beast, I lost my composure, but this thing is so rare that I never thought I would have the chance to see it again.」

Seeing that the plant in front of her was still in a complete state, Shaina finally felt relieved that what she wanted was in it.

「Are you interested in this plant?」

Arceus and Darkrai had arrived here before. Darkrai thought that the breath here was similar to the breath of the kingdom of the dead, but when he came here, he found that he was wrong.

This is not the entrance to the underworld, but a stronghold of the dead. This strange plant retains the souls of the dead by virtue of some unknown characteristics, and it is still an incomplete soul.

The wailing of the plant just now was the pain that Darkley brought to the plant when he was trying to find the entrance.

"Master Holy Beast, the name of this plant is called Lily Carnation. A long time ago, our family called it the flower of mother.

But then... the enemy came, and the number of people in the tribe became less and less. This flower gradually disappeared during the long journey. I didn't expect that there were still remaining seeds here. "

In front of Arceus, she didn't shy away from anything, and directly spoke out about the memory of the flower.

Emaline knew that the things about Lunaria were meaningless and would only bring danger to herself. There was Darkrai here, but as a creature created by Arceus, Shaina had no defense against him.

「The main body of this flower...is it too big?」

Looking at the hundreds of meters of plant rhizomes, Arceus didn't quite understand how the Lunarians cultivated this kind of flowers. He didn't pay attention to this kind of thing.

"No, Lord Holy Beast, this is the wrong way of breeding, Lily Carnation will only become like this when it violates taboos, this is not its real usage, I just want to get its seeds from here.

This is not the real ontology, but people in the past couldn't think of a suitable name, so they said so.

Lily Carnation can be divided into two parts. In this wrong way, the flower and consciousness will reside on the human body, and absorb nourishment through the root of this ontology.

If it is destroyed, the flower will not die, but will be transferred to another part, but the seeds conceived inside will be destroyed.

It's just that this kind of flower looks huge, but the seeds are actually very fragile. If it's not good, it will be destroyed. It takes a special method to get it out, so I'm a little impatient, please forgive me. "

"Nothing, just do whatever you want, Darkrai has already confirmed that matter."noveLUsb.com

「Then I will...」

「Get away from it!」

Shaina hadn't moved yet, when a roar came from behind, and Baron Carnival ran over over the mountain at this time, seeing that they were planning to attack Lily Carnation's mountain top, he immediately let out an angry roar.

The bow in his hand shot out several arrows again, but those arrows were all sucked together by the black hole thrown by Darkrai.

「Master Holy Beast, let me handle it, I will take care of everything.」

After obtaining the consent of Arceus, Shaina looked at the huge rhizome, and then a flame ignited in the palm of her hand, and stabbed at a position, and the burning fire on her shoulder began to burn the body of the plant.

The burning of the flame is the special method she said. Before the baron could react, the little flower on his shoulder suddenly let out a piercing cry.

But it was of no use. There were already several seeds in Shaina's palm, and the seemingly huge and hard plant part suddenly turned into fly ash.

Immediately afterwards, Shaina compared one hand to a gun looked like, shooting a line of fire at the flowers on the Baron's shoulders. After the outside body was destroyed, the flowers on his shoulders would become extremely fragile, no different from wild flowers on the roadside, and ordinary people's attacks would destroy it.

At that moment, the members of the Red Arrow Pirates who had besieged the members of Beasts stopped their movements one after another, and then turned into immobile plants.

Looking at the wreckage of Lily Carnation that fell on his shoulder, the baron almost collapsed.

「Lily! You...don't die! If you die...my friends...」

He wanted to extinguish the flame above, but it was useless at all. Shaina's flame mercilessly burned it to ashes.

"Wake up, they are already dead, Lily Carnation can't resurrect the dead, it's just a missing body with the same behavior patterns and memories as them. You have also trapped and killed many people over the years, as its nourishment?"

Looking at the wreckage of the surrounding ships and the size of the previous plants, Shaina can roughly infer how many people died here.

「Asshole...you don't even know what this is! After that storm...Lily and the others can survive! It's the flower of death and rebirth, if it weren't for you...they would definitely be resurrected!」

During the storm 16 years ago, all the baron's men died, but he found Lily Carnation here by accident, and thus started his own action.

Sustaining those people depends on the lives of other people, so the baron is constantly abducting people to the island to use them as fodder for flowers.

"Poor idiot... may you and your mates be reunited over there."

The afterimage flickered, and Shaina broke the baron's neck at an extremely fast speed, ending his life.

To say he is a fool is because he crazily induces others to die for some illusions, and to say he is pitiful is because he cares and misses his partner. After the storm, he only lives alone and cannot accept this reality. this road.

But Shaina still killed him. His feeding method has violated the Lunaria family rules.

Picking up a seed, Shaina scratched her fingertips and let the blood drip on it. As the blood dripped, a seed quickly germinated, but there was no smiling face of the flower on the baron's shoulder.

After the seeds evolved into flower buds, two figures also appeared behind the flowers, with white hair and brown skin, pure black wings, and a raging fire behind them, all of which are the characteristics of the Lunaria people.

「Dad, Mom, long time no see...」

This time is the correct usage from Shaina's mouth. Using her own blood as a guide, she can briefly meet the blood relatives in her memory. Even if she knows it is an illusion, it can temporarily satisfy the longing in her heart.

Chapter 680: Lunaria's prayer, the idea of reversing the world

"Girl, we... don't know you, you probably have the wrong person."

"Yes, although we do have a daughter, she is only four years old. You are probably older than us. We don't have such an old daughter."

Two members of the Lunaria tribe, a man and a woman, gave negative answers one after another, but Shaina didn't think it was strange, she just canceled the ability to transform, revealing her original face.

"Ah, you... Are you a child of my cousin's family? It's really a bit like Shaina. She will be as beautiful as you when she grows up, dear, don't you think so?"

The face of the female Lunaria and Shayna have an eight-point resemblance, but with a little less perseverance and a little more cuteness. At this time, she asked the male Lunaria next to her.

That was her husband, who was also Shaina's father, with a stern face and dull eyes.

He has short white hair on his head and a small amount of stubble on his chin. With a cigarette in his mouth, he was wearing a black windbreaker and a black suit on his face. When he looked at his wife, there was a kind smile on his face.

"Of course, our daughter is the cutest in the world. Speaking of which, this girl really looks like a cousin."

「Sure, how could I be wrong, but the direction they escaped shouldn't be here... No! I remember we were being besieged by the navy...」

The woman suddenly felt a little headache and began to recall the previous details.

"We encountered a storm on the way, and later changed our course. We just saw you being besieged. Shaina and Abel hid in another place with the large army. I will stay and take care of you few wounded. Don't worry, you will be able to soon reunited."

Shayina did not choose to recognize her parents, but lied to get things over with.

Lily Carnation has a limitation. It cannot make the deceased realize that they are dead. When they realize that they are dead, the effect of Lily Carnation will end.

In the records of the Lunaria people, Lily Carnation is not a flower of rebirth, but a flower of nostalgia. With their own strong vitality, their blood is enough to give birth to this flower.

The deceased in the memory will gradually appear as the flowers grow, and finally form the false thought body in front of them.

What the blood supplier remembers, the thought body will also remember clearly, after all, they are formed by the memory of the blood supplier.

It's just that the memory of the missing body lasts until death at most, and there is no way to fill it later.

But this is not the most amazing thing. What is amazing is that these thought bodies are not just memories, but will generate unique "AI" based on those memories, and operate in a special way.

This makes the missing body more like a living person, their operating mode is as high as 90% similar to the deceased, basically no different from a real person.

This was originally Lily Carnation's method of predation. They are a carnivorous plant, and they will hunt down a group of people in this way.

The Lunaria tribe cultivated this flower and improved its usage, calling that wild way of predation taboo.

Only use this method to remember their loved ones on the death day of their loved ones. Even if they know it is false, it is difficult for them to refuse this kind of thing.

This is also the reason why Shaina values Lily Carnation's seeds so much. If she misses this opportunity, she doesn't know if there is any possibility of finding Lily Carnation in the future.

Only the Lunaria tribe can do this kind of thing. Their vitality is different from ordinary people, so they can remember their ancestors with their own blood.

Ordinary people may not be able to do this kind of thing even if they bleed dry, and it is easy to be backlashed by Lily Carnation.

The behavior of the baron is a taboo of the Lunaria clan. If the companion dies near Lily Carnation, it can create a more realistic missing body, and there is no need to worry about any troubles caused by recognizing the other party.

But the time is limited, if you want to maintain it, you have to keep feeding the same kind of life.

Life and death are separated, that kind of getting along is like poison, once it starts, it is difficult to stop, so the Lunaria tribe will always prohibit that kind of behavior for.

"That's it, it's good that they are fine, those chasing soldiers are getting more and more difficult to deal with, girl, you have to be careful too."

They didn't doubt Shaina's identity. Except for the Lunaria tribe, there is no race that can catch fire. Shaina has all the characteristics of the Lunaria tribe, including tattoos.

"However, it's a coincidence that your tattoo is the one we want to tattoo on our daughter. We hope she can grow up safely."

"Darkley, go and inform the others, and ask them not to come here temporarily."

Shaina had very little time to take off her disguise, and looking at the similar faces, one could guess what their relationship with Shaina was, even if it was false, it was a very good memory.

The original Lily Carnation has been destroyed, and the Red Arrow Pirates have completely become history. In another world, they should still be partners on a ship.

But the facilities on the island still exist. In order to lure other people to the island, Baron Carnival spent a lot of effort to build those facilities, and they are still available for use now.

"Obey."

Short-distance movement will not trigger Darkrai's lost buff. Arceus is not worried about Darkrai running to some strange place, so he safely entrusts this task to him.

Time passed bit by bit, the sun climbed out from the horizon again, and Shaina knew that the time was almost up.

"Goodbye, Dad, Mom, Abel and I are fine now, you don't have to worry about other things."

The beauty of the past is nostalgic, but people can't immerse themselves in the past. It feels like the time is almost up. Shaina burned the seeds in her hands to ashes, and the two thoughts began to become empty and turbulent. At this moment, they seemed to be Also understood what happened.

After showing an indifferent smile, he disappeared there silently.

"Master Holy Beast, I'm sorry, I wasted a lot of time."

The mask covered the face again, and the original thoughts had been covered up again by her, but the few remaining seeds had been collected by her.

「No need to apologize, just wait, time will prove many things, when the remaining power returns one after another, I will realize your dream.」

Life and death are separated, Arceus has no intention of breaking this restriction, otherwise the world will inevitably be chaotic, but he is the creator in a complete state, space and time belong to his power.

The original world is not easy to interfere, but it is not difficult for him to create a reversed world. He also has a new arrangement for the reversed world. It will not be a dilapidated and destroyed world, but a brand new kingdom of God.
