Chapter 821 Mission Impossible

The changes in the new world did not have much impact on the first half of the paradise, at least Nicole Robin's life is not much related to the turmoil in the new world.

Robin's career as a teacher in Alabasta went smoothly, and at the same time, she also confirmed that the royal family staying here has a big secret, or a secret that cannot be found in conventional ways.

At the same time, Crocodile's plan is also quietly carrying out his plan. After Roger's death, he also entered the new world, but lost a lot of things there, and eventually became the first to accept the seat of Qibuhai one person.

Among the members of Shichibukai, he is also considered a more scheming person. Through various channels, he finally believed that Alabasta had hidden a big secret related to ancient weapons, and came here.

In the beginning, he kept hunting pirates as Shichibukai, and became a national hero in the newspapers many times, which also allowed him to complete his first goal - to make a name. In the eyes of civilians in Alabasta, he has already accumulated quite a lot reputation.

During this stage, he kept recruiting people and established the Baroque Work Agency, but these subordinates were just tools for him. The ability users of the natural department were almost invincible in the first half, and for him who had ventured into the new world, These people are indeed a little weaker.

Instigate conflicts and let the people overthrow the rule of the Alabasta royal family. He took the opportunity to seek what he needs. This is Crocodile's plan.

In the desert country, water is the most precious resource, but in this world, there is a special powder called dancing powder that is banned by the world government.

The original intention of inventing it is to allow arid countries to obtain rainwater. Only those who have experienced drought know the preciousness of water resources. The origin of the name Dancing Powder is also because the people will dance excitedly in the rain.

Dancing powder has serious side effects. It does not produce water out of thin air, but intercepts moisture in the air. Rain in one place leads to drought in other areas.

It is also relying on dancing fans that Crocodile's plan in Alabasta has begun to take shape.

In the past few months, public grievances have gradually emerged.

At this time, before Vivi and Ekram came to discuss with Nicole Robin, Crocodile had already invited Robin.

He needs someone who is familiar with the internal information of the royal family and has certain abilities. Nicole Robin from the Outsider just meets this requirement.

Soon after Robin was selected as a court teacher, he discovered that the other party's identity was a little special.

Now she is not O'Hara's orphan, nor is she the son of a demon wanted by the world government, but she has a certain reputation in the underground world. Even in Paradise, Crocodile has heard of this name.

In his opinion, it is impossible for such a woman to come to Alabasta for the salary of the court teacher. She must have other unknown secrets.

After some investigation, he found that Nicole Robin was very interested in the ruins in Alabasta, and he had also collected a lot of text information, which made him more convinced of his judgment.nOveLuSb.coM

It's just that he didn't know that the reason why the people he sent out could find Nicole Robin was because of her intention.

She was followed by a thousand-faced evader. Of course, the little lizard was not as good as Elizabeth, at least it hadn't learned two-color domineering, and it couldn't have a destructive effect with a single sniper shot. There was still more than enough fish.

It is also the Yusanjia who finally evolved. If you want to resist its attack, you have to train to the same level as a super true rookie.

Even in the desert, their ability to track and lurk is not as good as that of a thousand-faced evader. This is an inherent racial gap. Without professional training, they can't deal with a special treasure that has its own special agent equipment and can be invisible. Pokémon.

As a court teacher, Nicole Robin is qualified to stay in the palace. Not long ago, accompanied by the wind and sand at night, Crocodile's elemental body quietly sneaked into Nicole Robin's bedroom. Saw Robin in strange pajamas.

"Your hobby is really strange."

White tights, Crocodile didn't understand the style of this kind of clothes, and didn't know that this was a battle suit reproduced by Quinn, which had a very high defensive power.

"Better than some guy breaking into a women's room in the middle of the night, isn't it, Mr. Crocodile?"

His popularity is very high in Alabasta, whether it is a national hero or the identity of Shichibukai, it is strange that Nicole Robin cannot recognize him.

Then he looked at the notebook on the table, which contained some strange symbols and translations. A smile appeared on the corner of Crocodile's mouth when he saw these.

He affirmed his guess. Nicole Robin, who studies ancient ruins, must have special research on ancient characters.

"Nicole Robin, your resume shows that you are a smart person. I don't want to talk nonsense with you. I need your ability to do some things for me."

Whether it is the study of ancient texts or the actions within the royal family, Robin's ability is very convenient.

"Why?"

"Do things for me, you can get more documents, if you don't do this, your flower will only wither here."

Crocodile's right hand touched the flowers on the table. After a few breaths, the flowers in the vase withered and withered, turning into a pile of debris.

But for some reason, at this moment, he felt a sense of crisis, but he didn't find anything. Before he was woken up, there were some things that he was destined to never get back.

Even if he is a loser in the new world, he still has blind confidence in himself. Although Robin's resume seems to have stabbed many organizations in the back, he believes that he can control this woman.

After more than ten minutes of discussion, Crocodile believed that his coercion and temptation had worked, and turned into yellow sand and left here.

"Lotto, the other party has left."

Rotom's voice came from the roof, Xiaoli also released his invisibility from the corner, and at the same time turned off the safety of the nail gun in his hand, which was filled with high-purity sea stone spikes.

Thousand-faced evader realizes invisibility by secreting a special liquid, and even some carry-on items can also enter the invisibility state.

It hides in the corner with special weapons, Rotom and battle suits. In the case of insufficient information, Crocodile may not be Nico Robin's opponent at this time.

He thought he was the boss, but in reality, he was the one caught.

At this time, Weiwei and Icarem didn't know that the person in front of them was already a special undercover agent, and Crocodile didn't know that the person in front of him was always labeled as a beast.

"So you want me to go to that baroque work too?"

"Yes, but Sister Robin, this action is already very dangerous. If you are worried, it's okay if you don't agree."

After all, it is the royal family of a country. They are not blind, so they cannot discover anything. The current problems in the kingdom are inextricably linked to the Baroque Work Club.

But their ability is also limited. Everyone in this work agency does not use their real names. They are all called by code names, and they are all male and female partners. The male code name is Mr+number, the smaller the number, the stronger the strength, and the female code name is Miss+date/ Festive composition.

This is the few information they found. In order to find out who the mastermind behind the scenes is, Weiwei made this decision.

"Miss Robin, this matter is very abrupt, but after it is resolved, the Kingdom of Alabasta is willing to give you a reasonable reward. Please think about it."

Icarem also read Robin's resume back then, and his rich working experience made him feel that Robin could get mixed into this organization more easily, but Robin's next words shocked the two people in front of him.

"Actually, I received an invitation from this organization before you came here."

"What?!"

Vivi and Icarem's expressions changed drastically. If even Nicole Robin was within the scope of that organization's infiltration, there might be more people in the palace. What's more, if the person in front of him had agreed to received their invitation.

"Don't worry, I'm not interested in this matter, and it happened last night. You came here before I could tell you."

She told a fake time point, changing what happened earlier to yesterday.

If she wanted to, she could tell them now who the mastermind behind this work agency was, but she didn't do so. Crocodile's identity could be exchanged for greater benefits in the future.

She was just curious about the hidden history of this kingdom, and she didn't want to subvert the country, and she also had a good impression of Weiwei, and she didn't mind helping her, so she said this.

Even without this incident, she did not intend to make Crocodile successful in the end. Judging from the information collected so far, the hidden history of Alabasta must be related to the main text of the history. This is enough for her to apply for support.

Anyway, she was ready to backstab Crocodile, so she naturally wouldn't mind exchanging him for favorability in the eyes of others at the right time.

Finally, she agreed to Vivi and Ikram's request, but they left with a preoccupied look.

"Princess Weiwei, will she betray us? If she tells this, you will be in danger."

"No, I believe her, and she really wants to betray me, so why tell us about it? Get ready to go, Icarem, there are still many things to prepare."

She is a princess of a country, and it is easy to be exposed if she wants to join an organization directly, so she plans to remain anonymous and start as a small bounty hunter. novelUs&.com

While they were struggling, Robin was calmly on the phone.

"Hey, Yamato, what's the matter?"

"It's nothing serious, I just want to ask you, how do you think you can persuade two people with serious conflicts?"

"Are you going to convince them?"

After pondering for a moment, Robin gave what she thought was the most suitable method for Yamato.

"Don't be so violent! I mean persuasion, persuasion, you have to be reasonable."

"With all due respect, Yamato, this method is not suitable for you."

Words may be able to resolve conflicts, but this method is not suitable for Yamato. In Robin's view, she is more suitable for physical persuasion.

"Damn it, are you so unconfident in me? I've changed a lot!"

"If you can convince them, then you don't have to look for me. Isn't it because you failed?"

"Yes, I will ask you for advice only if I fail."

"My suggestion is that you change to a new method, maybe if you become stronger, you can handle this matter well?"

Going around, the topic finally returned to the original point. It wasn't that Robin didn't want to help the other party, but Robin felt that this was a matter of getting twice the result with half the effort, and there was a high probability of failure. It is better to directly persuade the other party to use a method that he is better at.

“.”

"Look, you failed even to persuade me to teach you to persuade others, how can you use words to resolve two people with great contradictions, why don't you practice it first and see how to persuade me?"

In the end, Robin did not make it difficult for the other party, but gave a more reasonable practice plan to exercise Yamato's eloquence and thinking logic.

After getting an affirmative answer, they also started chatting.

"Speaking of which, how are you doing these days? Aunt Olivia is quite worried about you."

"It's not bad. By the way, I found something interesting outside. This system is very similar to ours."

"Huh? What system?"

"The system of numberers uses numbers to determine strength. The smaller the stronger, the weaker it is. The Mr.1 here may not even be able to beat our NO60."

After knowing the system of the Baroque Studio, Robin felt that this system was very familiar. It was very similar to the numbering system of Beasts. It was a type of plan on the whole, but the overall strength was very different.

Moreover, in terms of system, it is much more cruel than today's beasts. If the mission fails, they will be chased and killed by higher-level agents, and the people below will also attack their companions for the sake of superiority. Under Crocodile's loose management, this criminal organization The internal structure is very loose. .

"What, actually copied the number created by the adoptive father, wait for me to find time to go to your place to have fun."

"Okay, I'll contact you when it's time to act, but you may not be very interested."

Yamato's Wanwan may be devastating to some organizations. At this time, Crocodile did not know that he was just acting according to the plan, and was inexplicably targeted by monsters in the new world.

Now he is dealing with some matters of the Baroque studio. Nicole Robin has not been following Crocodile as in the original timeline and directly acted as his deputy, but is in a special assessment period.

Robin and Yamato's phone conversation had just ended when the phone bug on her body rang.

"BOSS?"

"Mr. 7 is dead, this is an opportunity, let me see your ability, you can gradually come here from the new world, you shouldn't be a woman with no power to restrain a chicken, right? Let that guy know that refusing to solicit you has to pay What price, Miss Allsunday.

In addition, Mr. 2 will contact you, please cooperate with him. "

Chapter 823 The three-sword style who was forced to sail due to getting lost

For Crocodile, Nicole Robin is full of mysteries. Even though he can learn about her past experiences from his own news channels, he doesn't know the details.

No matter which organization it is, those who have had close contact with her will inevitably end up being destroyed in the end. It seems that some terrifying force has intervened in it and wiped out all traces.

One time can be luck, and two times can also be luck, but so many times, unless your name is Bucky, you can't pass it smoothly by luck, so in Crocodile's view, this woman must have certain strength.

He wanted to take this opportunity to see how far the opponent's strength had reached. As for being afraid? He didn't have this kind of emotion. After all, he was the one who challenged the Four Emperors and fought with Barrett, so he didn't lose all his anger.

He doesn't care about Mr. 7's life or death. He is just an ordinary subordinate. He will die when he dies. He can't even beat a bounty hunter in the East China Sea. This kind of guy is just a waste of resources.

Robin intercepted part of Crocodile's news and sent it to Weiwei, reminding her to pay attention to the people in the palace, but Weiwei has left the palace at this time, and will not be able to deal with this problem by herself for a while.

After a while, Robin came to the joint coffee shop at an agreed time, and recognized Mr. 2 at a glance.

In Alabasta, ladyboys are a very rare group, which also makes Mr. 2 very conspicuous.

Mr-2, real name, von Klein, a senior agent of the Baroque Work Agency, and the only agent without a partner, and the reason why he has no partner may be because he is a mermaid.

"I have been waiting for a long time, Miss Allsunday, this is what Xiao 0 asked me to give you, and there is a specific mission location."

"Thank you."

In Wano Country, she has seen a lot of strange people. Even if there is a monster in front of her, her expression does not change, she just took her things in a flat manner.

It seems that there are some ancient characters written on it, but they are all worthless nonsense. Crocodile himself can't understand what is written on it. He just gave it to Robin to express some of his abilities. It is a cake for employees. .

"Hey, Miss-Allsunday, do you mind telling me, what does Zero look like? You should have seen him."

The style of other demons makes him often encounter strange eyes, but he doesn't care. He is a transvestite who is more masculine than many men on the road of transvestites, and strange gazes can't shake him.

But Robin's plainness is very different, which made him feel special, so he inquired about Crocodile's information.

"It's an ugly monster."

"What? Does Little 0 look ugly?" nOveLuSb.coM

"Yes, and it's not as good as you. Well, I still have something to do, so I'll take a step ahead."

Robin didn't intend to spend much time here, and wanted to leave here after a few simple conversations.

"Wait, Xiao 0 also gave other tasks, Miss Robin, do you usually have any acquaintances in the palace?"

When he said this, Von Klein put his right hand on his face, and the next moment, he turned into Robin.

After the death of Heitan Muchan, the imitation fruit was also reborn, and was eaten by Von Clay, becoming a new generation of ability to imitate the fruit.

His task is to enter the palace as Robin to contact more people in the kingdom to facilitate future actions.

When the materials were just submitted, the two had contact.

But after he completed the transformation, he found that there was a dark smile on Robin's face. Before he could react, several arms suddenly grew out of his body, locking his joints .

"Pain, pain, pain, what to do!"

"If I hear that you did something strange with this appearance, then don't blame me for being rude."

The ability to imitate the fruit She knows that the fruit's ability is also mentioned when reading documents in Wano Country, so she knows that this fruit imitates more than just the face.

"Got it, got it, I won't do things casually!"

After hearing the affirmative answer, Robin released her ability and answered some questions from Von Clay. The undercover work is still going on. Although she doesn't like this ability, she can barely accept it.

Then she took an approximate address and left Alabasta as well.

After a period of time, Nicole Robin came to the East China Sea, where Mr. 7 died, and the person who killed him was Roronoa Zoro, a well-known bounty hunter in the East China Sea.

Originally, he practiced with Koshiro in Shuangyue Village, but after going out to sea once, he couldn't go back. No matter how others gave him directions, he would end up in the wrong place, and he couldn't return to Shuangyue Village after going around.

After running out of money, he started working as a bounty hunter, but he still couldn't go back.

Even if he took a boat, he would still get lost after getting off the boat nearby, and then stay away from Frost Moon Village again, as if he had been cursed.

Finally, he had no choice but to resign himself to his fate, and randomly moved to various islands in the East China Sea. Anyway, he couldn't control his own direction. In Sauron's view, this might be his own destiny, and it happened to be the time to work hard towards the goal of the year.

By the way, you can also look for the underworld that the mysterious black guy said.

Under Garp's periodic plowing, the East China Sea has become the weakest sea worthy of the name.

It is not difficult for Sauron to make a name for himself in this sea area, and this naturally led to the recruitment of the Baroque studio.

Their outlying organization is a bounty hunter gathering, which gathers bounty hunters from various sea areas at the Whiskey Mountain near the entrance of the Great Airway.

Facing the recruitment of Mr. 7, his answer was that he could consider the position of boss. Hearing this answer, Mr. 7 was very unhappy, and wanted to kill Sauron, and then he was chopped off.

"The green-haired gentleman? Could you please wait?"

On this day, Sauron, who had just repaired the slightly damaged Hedao, was stopped by a strange voice. When he turned his head, he saw a woman with a wheat-colored complexion and a little lizard dressed like a cowboy.

"Why, do you want to ask for directions?"

"Pfft, of course not. It took me a lot of effort to find you. Make sure, you are the pirate hunter, Roronoa Zoro, right?"

According to the existing information, it was not difficult to find Sauron.

He is also a celebrity in Donghai, so it is not difficult to find out his whereabouts. The problem is that Robin blocked him several times on the way he must pass, but he just didn't meet him.

Originally, I just came to the East China Sea to change my mood and take a perfunctory Crocodile on the way. The East China Sea is so big that it is reasonable to find no one.

But after such a toss, she was aroused with a strange sense of competitiveness. She must block the other party once to see how he evades her own detection.

Chapter 824 Give me back the knife!

"Ah, it's me. If you don't ask for directions, you are also here to ask for trouble?"

He has encountered many such things. The group of bounty hunters has no threshold. As long as they dare to do it, anyone can become a bounty hunter.

It's just that Sauron's foundation is much more solid than those who are desperate for money, and years of training have been reflected, making him famous in the East China Sea very quickly.

The pirates in the new world want to challenge the Four Emperors to become famous, but in the East China Sea, Sauron has become the target of some people's challenge and solicitation.

At the age of sixteen, he is just at the age of youth, and he is easily impulsive. After confirming the hostile relationship, fighting is always inevitable.

Regardless of men and women, as long as he is determined to be an enemy, he will fight to the end. However, in most cases, he will use the back of his sword when fighting women. At this time, he has already held He Daoyi in his hand.

"Looking for trouble? Maybe that's the case for you, but I'm more interested in understanding some things. Having said that, it is rumored that you are a three-sword swordsman, so why did you only bring one sword?" noVeLusb.coM

Robin did not say that she is now related to Baroque Works. A Crocodile is not worth her full effort. Her mother, childhood elders, and friends are all in Wano Country, and she already has her own destination.

What he is doing now is just exploring the mysterious history.

Those insignificant little things are not as important as the number of opponent's knives.

"It's broken, I don't have money for a new knife."

Sauron is also a real earner. To be precise, he doesn't even have a fixed salary.

He will not grab things directly, and the trophies may not be in his hands. It has always been his dream to buy two good knives that are similar.

His current occupation is a bounty hunter, but in Donghai, it is quite rare to offer a bounty of tens of millions, and it is basically impossible to get rich all at once.

Although he caught some bounty criminals on weekdays, after deducting daily expenses, there was not much money left. The most common samurai sword cost 50,000 Baileys, and he really couldn't afford the money now.

His fighting style is very violent. Ordinary knives can't withstand this level of fighting. He doesn't know how to be domineering. Those ordinary knives usually break into several sections in a short time.

Even if the Hedaoyi character is one of the twenty-one swords made by Kozaburo Shimotsuki, it will be damaged in such a high-intensity battle.

"Well, actually, I don't really want to waste your time, but can you tell me how you evaded my detection and bypassed me?"

"What nonsense are you talking about, woman? When did I do such a thing as anti-reconnaissance?"

"If you tell the truth, I can give you some money to buy a suitable knife."

"Even if you say that... I haven't done that kind of thing, but what is the purpose of you spending so much time looking for me?"

"Didn't I tell you a long time ago, in order to understand some things, it seems that you don't want to cooperate with me."

The thinking of the two people has never been on the same level. At this time, Robin can't believe that human Lu Chi can reach this level, thinking that the other party's anti-reconnaissance ability is outstanding.

In Sauron's view, this is a crazy woman who speaks nonsense, so it's better to quickly put her down and leave here.

"One knife style, no amount.."

But before he could make a move, several arms grew up and down from his body, and he was buckled on the ground at once, and the words He Dao were sent to Robin alternately by the arms growing on the ground.

"It looks like a famous knife, no wonder it has been in your hand."

Robin, who trained his physical fitness in Wano Country and spent a long time in actual combat on the great route, was not comparable to the fledgling Sauron. He couldn't break free from the strength of several arms clasped together. Taking this opportunity, she also confirmed that The quality of the knife.

"Bastard! What do you woman want?! Give it back to me!"

"Don't worry, I will return it to you. There is a small town about 5 kilometers to the east. I will wait for you there. As long as you find it as fast as you can, I will return it to you. Now, please go to sleep for a while."

The arm transformed from the fruit ability cut precisely on the back of the neck, causing Sauron to temporarily lose consciousness.

"Little lizard, I'll go to the town and wait first. You take Rotom to watch him and see what he's doing, understand?"

"Cha~"

Since the other party is not telling the truth, then force him a little bit. Robin judged from Sauron's plan to fight with the back of his sword that he is a swordsman who abides by certain inheritance, and such swordsmen generally value their sabers very much. Especially famous knives.

She didn't believe that when the knife was taken away, the other party would still hide her abilities. She gave the approximate location of the town, but if she wanted to find it, she had to follow the traces left by her, otherwise it would be easy to find the wrong place .

After leaving Lizard to monitor the other party, Robin left here first.

Not long after, Sauron woke up and hammered the ground angrily, then rushed to the west, no matter what, he couldn't lose the knife.

Affected by his mood, he even temporarily forgot about a "witch" who could summon his arms.

"?"

After Sauron left, a question mark appeared on the face of the invisible creek. It didn't understand why this man walked west without looking back.

Until sunset, Sauron still couldn't find the town, and the little lizard also rang Robin's phone.

Until then, Robin realized the truth. This is not someone with outstanding anti-reconnaissance ability, but a weird person with no sense of direction at all.

Under normal circumstances, he would be able to reach the vicinity in an hour. Considering his physique, a few minutes is almost enough, but Zoro finally found Robin the next morning, and he still took two A special way of being three-legged.

On the way to the west, he met Johnny and Joseph, two bounty hunters who admired him and recognized him as his elder brother. They hunted bandits nearby and had settled for a while, so they knew where the town Robin was talking about , leading Sauron to find him.

But even if they lead the way one after the other, Sauron will still unknowingly go off the road, so that they have to adopt this special way forward.

"Woman! Come out! Hiding in such a hard-to-find place on purpose, what on earth are you trying to do?!"

Sauron at the gate of the town untied the rope on his feet, shouted angrily into the town, and made all the people nearby look at him.

Looking at the straight road leading to the outside world at the entrance of the town, they didn't know what kind of stimulation this man had received to find a woman here early in the morning.

Chapter 825 The seven-year agreement, the regent's dream moment

"Here, here, Mr. Lu Chi, I am behind you." ηOVELuSb.coM

"Who do you call a road idiot!"

"Based on your footsteps, it only takes 20 minutes at most to get here from yesterday's position, but it took you a full 15 hours to circle the entire mountain. I can't find any other words to describe it. is you.

By the way, this is your knife, return it to you, I even did maintenance for you. "

Robin got the result she wanted, because she overcomplicated things, and the person in front of her simply didn't know her way, rather than having a strong sense of anti-reconnaissance.

According to his detour method, his estimated position really can't block him.

According to Sauron's performance, she also put the label of unknown self-awareness on the back of Lu Chi.

After throwing the knife back, Robin lost interest in it, and planned to go on a trip with public funds as originally planned, but Johnny and Joseph saw that the woman their elder brother had worked so hard to find wanted to leave like this, and immediately wanted to leave. stop each other.

"etc!"

"Speak clearly!"

"Four rounds of flowers blooming and tripping ropes."

Then there was a sound of falling, the ankles of the two were grabbed, and they fell straight to the ground, and Zoro, who was at the side, also enjoyed this treatment again.

At this time, Sauron noticed that what appeared on the ground was nothing but arms.

"You guy. Who the * are you?"

"It's just a traveler looking for an answer. Now that I've got the desired result, I'm naturally not interested in entangled with you. As for this, haven't you heard of Devil Fruit?"

"So in your eyes, I'm just a toy?"

The name of the pirate hunter is gradually gaining popularity, and he is also a little arrogant now. He thought that he had taken a big step away from the agreement back then, but now it seems that he thinks too much.

"I didn't mean that. It's better not to think about it too much. By the way, in this East China Sea, you are already considered relatively strong."

"Where are you from?"

"Where? Let's talk about it now, Great Route."

"Are the people there strong?"

"Very strong. Now that you are on the great route, I'm afraid you won't be able to stir up even a single splash. Well, these answers will be my compensation for tossing you. Goodbye, Mr. Lu Chi."

After answering some Sauron's questions, Nicole Robin turned around and left here, but Sauron who stood up again did not do anything radical. He saw the farther world in advance, and a smile filled the corner of his mouth .

"It's decided, Johnny, Joseph, I also want to go to the Great Route."

His goal is the world's number one swordsman. This is the path he will take sooner or later, provided he can recognize the path. With his current situation, it is not easy to find Reversing Mountain.

"Wait, brother Sauron, where are you going now?"

"Leaving this town, where else can I go?"

"But... the way out is over there."

They didn't dissuade Sauron. In their view, Sauron might really be able to make a fortune on the great route. Of course, it is more important to take him out of here first.

After traveling around the East China Sea at public expense and exploring one or two relics, Robin returned to Alabasta under the pretext that he did not find Sauron. This result did not make Crocodile suspicious, except for the original Mr. No one who went out could find Sauron.

Yamato will try to reason with Ssangyong every once in a while, and then because he can't reason and can't play physics, he returns to the origin again. Arceus and Kaido go out to search alternately, and the time comes to 1517 bit by bit. the end of.

Wano Country, Kuri, Meowna and Wolf are very happy recently, and their seventh birthday will be coming soon.

This means that they are one year older, want to grow up, and like to celebrate birthdays. This is the childlike innocence exclusive to children. I didn't expect that much.

It is not only Meowna and Wolf who are looking forward to this day, but also Yang Jisihan.

"Master Regent, why are you so happy?"

In the Furry Principality, Gith Khan, a sheep looking excited with a lion fur, doesn't quite understand it, and it's not a special day recently.

"You don't understand, Sicilian, I should have retired many years ago. At the beginning, she said that she was still young, so I was a Duke for a few more years.

But Setsuna's child. She abruptly made a seven-year agreement for me. Now that her child has grown up, her strength is strong enough, and the date of the agreement has come. Let me see what she can do! "

While talking, Yang Jisihan touched the top of his head. After giving up the duke position, he no longer wore the crown. At this time, there were no ornaments on his head, and even his own hair was thinning a lot.

Everything in Zowu is developing towards the bright side, but as a manager, he has to deal with more and more things.

At first, he thought that Setsuna was still a naive child, but he didn't expect her to be so cunning. After gaining the power of the Duke, he took advantage of the loophole that the Duke could order all fur tribes, and made him, an old senior, work overtime for seven years.

'Moo! '

The Elephant Lord uttered a cry, and then stopped his footsteps. According to the previous communication, it came to the vicinity of Wano Country again.

Looking at the Wano country above the sea, Yang Jisihan left Zou directly and ran towards Setsuna's residence.

He also came to Setsuna and Zeraola's house more than once, so it can be said that he is familiar with the road, but this time he found that there are many more ducks here.

"Setsuna! Setsuna! Come out! It's time! I finally waited for this day!"

As soon as he arrived nearby, he couldn't hold back the joy in his heart, but he yelled a few times, and only Meowna and Wolf came out in the end.

"Grandpa Yang Jisihan, what can you do with your mother?"

"Meowna, Worf, where is your mother? I'm here to give her a gift, and I have your birthday present too. You will soon be the prince and princess of the Furry Principality. You are not happy."

Although the supreme leader is called the Duke, he is actually the king of Zou, so there is nothing wrong with this title.

In the past, when the leader of Zou Wu gave up the position of duke, he might not have any heirs, and this moment was considered a precedent.

"Is there any benefit in that identity?"

"Yeah, what can I change?"

"This... When you go back and ask your parents, first tell me where your mother is."

"have no idea."

"Yeah, I don't know. Mom said she went out to play before, but she didn't tell us where she went."

Hearing the answers of the two children, Yang Jisihan was not surprised. He had expected that this matter would not go so smoothly.

Immediately took out Setsuna's life card, the two children's birthdays were approaching, and he didn't believe that this mother would leave Wano Country.

Today two Ming four

Chapter 826 You will succeed me honestly!

Following the guidance of the life card, Yang Jisihan gradually came to Baiwu from Jiuli. According to the guidance of the life card, Setsu should be near here, just in front of him.

【Women's hot springs, not for men】

The huge sign stood in front, directly blocking Yang Jisihan's footsteps.

There are many hot springs in Wano. Although there are mixed baths, most areas are divided into men and women. Even if there are mixed baths, most of them are middle-aged and elderly people from Wano.

Of course, this has nothing to do with Yang Jisihan, he is not interested in mixed bathing, he just wants to capture Setsuna to succeed him.

Good news, Setsuna is still in Wano Country, at least she hasn't completely lost her integrity, bad news, she is in a place that she can't enter at all.

At this moment, Yang Jisihan's expression has not changed much. The hot spring is just a bath, which is nothing more than a few hours.

Finding a tree stump nearby, Yang Jisihan silently waited for the other party to come out, her life was stuck in her hand, and she couldn't disappear out of thin air.

But until sunset, he did not see the figure of Setsuna.

"咩~咩~"

Several Mali sheep passed by nearby, looked at Ji Sihan, who was sitting next to him in a daze, and sent greetings to him.

"Well, this lady, can you please go in and find someone for me?"

After waiting for a long time, Jisi Khan finally couldn't sit still, looked at the shepherd girl passing by, and sent an aid application to her.

"Ah, but there"

Looking at the place Yang Jisihan pointed at, she showed hesitant eyes.

The identity of the fur clan has been successfully integrated into the Wano country, and no one will think that they are monsters.

Under the ruling system of Hundred Beasts, the number of animal-type abilities has increased sharply, and the appearance of animals has become a symbol of strength. In addition, the fur tribes who often stay in Wano Country are either big cadres or family members of cadres. They have long been used to all this.

"What's the matter, isn't it a women's hot spring?"

"That's right, but it is a high-level club for cadres. Only cadres, their family members, and staff can enter, and ordinary people cannot enter."

Explained the situation to Yang Jisihan, and the girl left here with the sheep, leaving Yang Jisihan here at a loss.

The exclusive club for cadres, men are not allowed to enter, and they cannot enter without the cadres. He felt that he seemed to be caught.

At the same time, in the hot spring, Setsu also looked at the life card in his hand while soaking in the hot spring.

"Sure enough, it's here, it's too punctual."

"Sister, I heard from my mother that you always wanted to be a Duke when you were a child, why do you not want to succeed now?"

"Wanda, people always change. Do you remember your childhood dream?"

As an older sister, although she doesn't have the aura of an older sister, she can still use this identity to teach the other party.

"I really don't remember when I was a child. I didn't want anything special back then, but now I want more things."

"So people will always change. I used to think that the position of the Duke is high and can command the entire Zou, which is extremely majestic, but then I found that the position of the Duke bears too much responsibility.

Yang Jisihan can remember everyone's names, but I don't have that ability. Except for a few acquaintances, I can't remember the names of so many fur tribes. "

"But sister, you are strong enough. Whether it is you or Zeraora, they are stronger than the previous dukes. The stone that can make people enter the state of the moon and lion, and the ability to communicate with the elephant owner, these things were unimaginable before. ."

"That is the power of Lord Arceus, without his power, none of us would be able to do this."

Saying that, Setsu used the power of waveguide to bring over the iced tea on the table tens of meters away, and drank it clean in one gulp.

"So Wanda, you should work harder, don't stay in Zou all the time, go out and work harder, so that I can also let Zeraora talk to Lord Arceus and find you a similar ability."

As he spoke, he stood up from the hot spring, came to a piece of ground covered with hay, and dried his fur with electric energy.

"Huh? Sister, are you going out now?"

"Yeah, I don't want to spend the night here."

"I thought you were planning to let Yang Jisi Khan back out of trouble here."

Setsu pulled her here early in the morning, and she thought that Setsu planned to practice dragging words so that Yang Jisihan would never find her.

"It's useless. He hasn't left for a day. He just wants to wait. After all, it's not the first time he's urged me to succeed me. It's not the same thing if he spends so much time."

"Hey, where's your sister?"

"She said...to discuss with Yang Jisi Khan about succession."

When Ling returned here, Setsuna had long since disappeared, leaving only Wanda with a look of astonishment on her face.

"I'm afraid she has figured out some new tricks. Yang Jisihan really worked hard."

Even if Setsu ran away from home when she was very young, Ling also knew that this daughter was very playful, and she would never stay in Zou as a king like Yang Jisihan.

But she didn't know what kind of rhetoric Setsuna had prepared.

"Senior Yang Jisihan, what are you doing sitting here alone?"

Su Mo appeared in front of Yang Jisi Khan with an innocent face, but Yang Ji Si Khan didn't believe this innocent face at all. This date was agreed upon when they left last time, he couldn't remember Ji Su Mo.

"What do you think?" noVeLusb.coM

"It's boring, senior, why don't you think about it, how about I just hand over the Duke's position to someone else?"

"Do you think that other than you, if someone else is sitting in this position, other people will agree?"

The Duke of Zowu has great power. He could designate the heir at will, and the people usually would not object. However, Moji brought too many changes to Zou, and created a precedent for being able to communicate with the elephant owner.

Even if she personally appoints it, it will be difficult for others to convince others without meritorious achievements.

"Don't play tricks on me! I didn't mean to harm you by letting you succeed as the Duke. When you were a child, you were arguing every day for my position, why didn't you think that you would have today?"

"You didn't promise me then!"

"But I promised a few years ago, and don't forget, you made a written agreement with me!"

As he spoke, Yang Jisihan took out the written receipt from that year, on which there was still the signature and handprint of Setsu.

【Seven years later, return to Zowu to inherit the title of duke. 】

Yang Jisihan looked at the particularly bold font on the document and showed a satisfied smile, and the moment was the same.

"It seems that you are finally ready to succeed."

"Ah? I'm ready, I will succeed in seven years."

"What did you say?? This document was signed seven years ago!"

"But there is no date written on it, it only says that he will succeed after seven years."

Chapter 827 Solve the problem from the root

【Date not written. Date not written】

The words lingered in Yang Jisihan's ears. The simple and honest he did not expect that this heir had learned so many tricks outside.

"You planned it from seven years ago?!"

When he was creating the written evidence, he almost took apart every word and interpreted it several times. He was afraid that Shu Mo would leave him a text trap, and she ended up tampering with the date.

Seven years and seven years, he has had enough of being the duke, wait another seven years. He will really be bald, and there is no such delay in delaying retirement.

"Hey, just kidding, how could I do this, I will go back to Zou to succeed in a few days, don't worry."

Seeing that Jisi Khan was gradually on the verge of collapse, Su Mo suddenly changed the topic, and did not use time as an excuse to delay another seven years. After all, Jisi Khan could not wait another seven years no matter what, which was too long for him up.

"Um?"

Even if he is an honest man, he has learned to be shrewd now, and he always feels that there is something in Shan Mo's words, and it is impossible to succeed to the throne so honestly.

After all, she can play tricks on written documents, how could she be so happy. noVεlusb.coM

"Look, it's written in the paperwork. It's just a joke. You're an old man, so you can't afford it."

Even if she can use this method to delay for another seven years, seven years later, she has to face the reality that she needs a once-and-for-all solution until a suitable heir appears again.

"Do you mind if I stay at your place for a few nights?"

In order to prevent the other party from running away, he decided to stay at Setsuna's house for a few days. Although it was a bit abrupt, in order to prevent the heir from running away, he had no choice but to do so.

Having a life card doesn't mean he can find someone. He doesn't really believe in Setsu's integrity now, and thinks that she can do a wonderful thing like a family trip.

"No problem, no problem, I'll let someone prepare a room for you."

"No need, I'll just pitch a tent."

In the end, Yang Jisihan rejected the room arranged by Shan Su, but pitched a tent at the gate of their house. As the former Duke of Zowu and now the regent, he was forced to become a door god.

"Baibai, Lubaibai."

When Yang Jisihan followed Setsuna back to Jiuli's residence, Lotte Kappa was playing with two children by the river. Playing with fire and water has always been something that adults worry about, but these two children are different. Good hands on electricity and waveguides.

With the addition of special Pokémon like Lotte Kappa to play with, you can already ignore the dangers brought by most of the natural environment. Of course, this is not possible in the inner sea, but in the outer sea.

With the weird climate and currents in the New World, small water-type Pokémon may be knocked out by the waves if they don't pay attention, let alone have to take care of the children beside them.

There is also a small amusement park here, which looks somewhat similar in style to the Soap Bubble Park in the Chambord Islands. This is all thanks to Mandelfisch. In order to please his wife, he used all his life savings to build the amusement park.

And that construction team is also a team under Beast Fruit. After gaining experience, similar paradises were built on Gulan Tezolo in Tezolo and on the square of New Murloc.

Even Wano Country has a mini version, and this team has even become professionals in this regard.

The yard is simply planted with flowers and plants, living with various types of Pokémon, beautiful scenery and complete facilities. This is simply a dreamlike retirement place.

Yang Jisihan even has the idea of coming here to settle down after retirement, but the premise of all this is to let Setsuna succeed to the throne honestly.

"Mom, why is Grandpa Yang Jisihan at the door all the time?"

"Yeah, it's been several days, won't he come home at night?"

Two people were lying by the window on the third floor, watching Yang Jisihan who was camping outside.

"This is his persistence to accomplish a certain goal, you will understand later."

If you don't do this, Yang Jisihan is afraid of running away in an instant, but if he really lives in someone's house, he feels that he will disturb their life, so he has no choice but to make a bad move. But for a few days, things are developing in a good direction, and gradually come to The day of the official succession.

Until this morning, Setsuna didn't do anything strange, but returned to Zowu with his family and Yang Jisihan.

Under the watchful eyes of the residents of the Furry Principality, Setsuna officially put on the crown that symbolizes Zou's royal power, but it is a reset version. The size of the crown of Yang Jisihan was not suitable for her.

"Sicilian, lead the fur clan musketeers, and swear allegiance to you."

Lion, zebra, fox, and three fur tribes stood at the front.

Sicilian is the captain of the musketeers at this time, and the zebra fur Giovanni and fox fur Conslot behind them are called the musketeers, and they are the elite of the fur clan elite.

"BB Black Buck, leading the Beluga Forest Knights, swears allegiance to you."

A chimpanzee fur did the same thing. The official delivery of the two armed forces of the fur tribe also meant that Setsuna officially became the Duke of Zou.

"moo~"

Elephant Lord's timely voice of approval was accompanied by the cheers of the people. These years, Sha Mo has been a titular duke, but the changes she brings reflect her role all the time, and her reputation has already reached its peak.

That's why Yang Jisihan said that others can't do this job at all.

Everything has been settled, and Yang Jisihan's hanging heart is also relieved.

In the moment, there is no such thing as an emperor and a courtier. Even if the fur tribe encourages births these years, their total population is less than 30,000, so it doesn't need to be so complicated.

By using the assistants trained by Yang Jisihan, she quickly set up a team and handled Zou's affairs.

But Keith Khan had just rested for a few days and was planning to start a leisurely life when Sicilian came to the door.

"Sicilian? What do you want?"

"Eh, I am here to send you a new letter of appointment by the Duke's order"

This is the reason why Setsuna came back to take over the throne. It is impossible to delay it all the time. She decided to solve the problem from the root cause, such as changing Zou's political system.

According to the different types of fur people living on Zou, she subdivided the fur people into several clans, and each clan voted on its own to elect a member of the council of elders.

These people are the official officials of the fur clan, and they assist the "king" to deal with some major issues. Only when they encounter things that they cannot decide, the king needs to make a decision himself.

Yang Jisi Khan deservedly became the consul of the Council of Elders due to his reputation, experience, qualifications, and experience. He had just got rid of the status of regent and was appointed again.

"Setsuna! No, Lord Duke! Please explain to me, what the * is this!"

Note: This is just playing tricks, 827 succeeds normally

Chapter 828 Seniors who retired smoothly, gifts from grandchildren

When he saw the letter of appointment sent by Sicilian, Yang Jisihan couldn't sit still. He thought that he had given up those strange methods in a moment, but he didn't expect that she would have a back hand here.

Yang Jisihan left the residence immediately, took the letter of appointment to find Setsuna, and wanted a reasonable explanation.

"Is there any problem? By the way, just call me by my name. Uncle Yang Jisihan, I am not used to calling me like that."

"The title is not a problem, my lord, can you explain to me why you let me be this so-called consul!"

"Because you have experience. If you let others do it, they won't dare to decide on too many things. They will definitely come to me for everything. Instead of doing this, it's better to find a reliable person to do it. After thinking about it, it's only you can do that."

"You didn't do it like this! Although Zuo Wu respects you very much, aren't you afraid of making any trouble like this?"

"No way. In the past, everyone discussed things. Now I just clearly divided the responsibilities, and for the Musketeers and Knights, the highest authority is still in the hands of the Duke. What will happen?"

Zou's situation is different. It is hard for the outside kingdom to imagine how special the management method of this ethnic group is.

Setsu doesn't want to ask about all the trivial matters of life, such as most of the people's livelihood issues, just arrange a few experienced people to deal with them.

It can be said that she gave up civil power, but still has military, judicial, and priestly powers.

So far, the Duke of the fur tribe is still the strongest in the tribe, so she dared to try to change the management method.

"No, it won't work like this. I don't worry about what you say, and our descendants can believe it, but what about after that? After you find a suitable heir and hand over the throne to him, if he can't suppress those people, there will definitely be troubles .

According to this division, there may still be contradictions, you probably haven't issued a complete order yet."

In the middle of speaking, he suddenly felt something was wrong, because there was no rebuttal in a moment.

"Are you waiting for me here?"

"It's not all, so I really need your help, senior. I'm still better at fighting. Only Sicilian knows about the consul, and only you and I know about the parliamentary system. It hasn't been announced yet. What do you think is a problem? If it's big, that's fine."

"What the * are you thinking"

"I discussed it with the elephant owner. It has no interest in the outside sea for the time being, so it will move or rest around Wano country. It won't be long before I come here from Wano country. I will handle most of the things.

Leave some small things to the assistants you selected before. They should be familiar with the process after so many years.

But I may go back there at night, and occasionally take a vacation, so I will leave it to you, senior. "

"Scared me, I thought you were going to continue to squeeze me, an old guy, but it turned out that I was just a secretary to help you with some trivial matters, and you can still be idle when you are idle. This can still be done."

This is something he can accept. He also came here in the same way back then. Setsuna has handled some affairs remotely over the years, but he hasn't really been in power yet. Now that she has officially succeeded to the throne, it's okay for him to help.

He just didn't know why, but he still felt a little strange, as if all this was arranged by the other party.

Originally the duke was a throne, but Setsuna turned it into a job and set his own commute time.

Yang Jisihan, who successfully completed the semi-retirement, is quite satisfied.

"By the way, senior, do you want to think about it and ask Master Arceus to empower you? In this case, you will be the veritable third strongest of the fur clan."

Although they are not young, except for Zeraola and Setsuna, the young people of the Fur Race are really no match for this old man. If they are empowered, they will definitely bring about new qualitative changes.

"No, I'm not interested in that. You and Zeraora are enough to protect the fur tribe. I, an old guy, don't want to join in the fun."

Now he has to act as a civil secretary. If he is strengthened like this again, he will be even more restless.

Of course, that's what he said. If there is any crisis in the fur tribe, he will still go to the front line. It is precisely because of this sense of responsibility that he has been helping Setsuna deal with Zou's problem.

The mother has officially succeeded to the Duke, but the lives of Miaona and Worf are no different from before, except that sometimes they will go to Zou to "work" with Setsuna in the morning, and sometimes they will stay in Zou, which makes them feel much better. A friend of the same age as the fur family.

Yang Keith Khan enjoyed more than half a month of vacation, but he felt a little uncomfortable when he was suddenly idle.

Coincidentally, Setsuna also ushered in her first vacation at this time, and she was going back to Wano Country to prepare a birthday party for her two children, so she asked Yang Jisihan to take care of trivial matters for the time being.

It's just an ordinary birthday party. There shouldn't be any surprises, but children usually learn what they see. In their cognition, Yang Jisihan finally achieved his goal by pitching a tent.

Although the method was tortuous, the throne was successfully handed over.

At the end of the birthday party, the two of them did not leave, but waited expectantly in front of Arceus.

"What's the matter? Do you have anything else to do?"

"Well, Lord Arceus, we are already seven years old."

"Yeah, we have grown up, and the seven-year-old fur tribe can sneak away from the elephant master to go out on adventures, so we want to get an ability as a gift."

He knew that Meowna and Wolf had always wanted abilities, but he had been worried that the two children would make a big fuss. At present, they are not ignorant people, and they have successfully succeeded to the throne in an instant. It's time to change too. NOVELS&COM

It's just that the power in their bodies is somewhat complicated.

"Well, let me give you a test to see how well you have mastered the power in your body. If you master it well, I will satisfy your wishes."

They haven't started the domineering practice yet, so what Arceus wants to test is waveguide and lightning.

"Master Arceus, is this okay?"

"It's not bad, but you are still a little younger. If you are given the ultimate power directly, your body will not be suitable. It's better to master the evolution slowly from the very beginning. As for the ability, that's fine."

The power of the green and evil-faced slate was injected into Meowna's body, and when he was about to transform Worf, Wolf made a very special request.

I, political pull, hateful

Chapter 829 Fire Spotted Meow and New Leaf Meow, The Accident

Due to the particularity of the fur tribe, Arceus generally uses the fur type of the fur tribe when empowering the fur tribe, even if the two of them are children of Zeraora.

The ability given to Miao Na is Xin Ye Miao, the Royal Sanjia in the Partia area.

As Arceus said, they are young and have a lot of strength in their bodies, which directly makes them have the final evolutionary type, and their bodies may not be able to adapt. It is better to start from the initial stage and get familiar with the new abilities a little bit, so that they become part of themselves.

Originally, only the power of the green slate was enough, and the evil face slate was only transforming their bodies to help them become more familiar with the subsequent powers, such as the final evolution of New Leaf Meow-Magic Mask Meow.

The power of the big cadres has also been combed by him in the later stage, and the advance is only to make their road smoother. As grandchildren, they also have part of Arceus' preference.

When Worf was about to accept the ability, he requested a timeout, and then brought Arceus to a place a little farther away.

"Master Arceus, is this okay?"

"Give me a reason."

"Because Miaona is a cat fur, her abilities should be related to cats. In that case, I think it's better that I am also a cat." Novelusb.cOM

"anything else?"

"Also. Although I am a wolf fur, wolves are also canids. I had a fight with Miao Na before. She always said that I don't understand cats at all. If my ability is also cats, I can understand cats and cats at the same time. Wolf, so I can understand her.

If my parents quarrel in the future, I can also persuade them. "

"Huh? Have your parents ever quarreled?"

"No, but I heard people say that some parents quarrel very fiercely. I don't want to see that picture."

"You've thought far ahead, so the last question, why don't you let Miao Na get to know you?"

"Because... I'm an older brother. If it's different, it should be very painful. Miao Na is very afraid of pain. I should protect her, so let me do it."

"He is really a good brother, don't worry, it doesn't hurt at all, the reason why the fur tribe transforms the same type of ability is because it doesn't need to change the fighting style, and can be quickly mastered.

You are still young, so you don't have to worry about this aspect. Since you want to, I will satisfy you. "

Originally, he planned to choose an ability from the canine Pokémon. Since he asked for it, let's change it a little.

The Evil Face Slate has not been withdrawn, but the Fireball Slate has replaced the Green Slate. It is also a cat-type Pokémon. The Evil Face Slate is also paving the way for his future, and Worf's ability comes from the imperial power of the Alola region. Sanjia-Fire Spot Meow.

Miaona and Worf obtained their own abilities, and left here happily after thanking them. After seeing Worf's choice, Miaona's mood was also very complicated, but it didn't take long before the two had a quarrel again. group.

And Meowna was surprised to find that Worf seemed to understand her thoughts better, which is why he wanted cat-type Pokémon. Through body movements and micro-expressions, he could better understand the thoughts of cat fur.

Only Setsu thought it was weird. Although Worf's essence was still wolf fur, after his transformation, it was like having an extra cat at home. But there is also good news, that is, the cat teaser she prepared can play More useful.

"Zeraora, do you feel that since Lord Arceus gave them the ability, they get along more harmoniously?"

It is also common for brothers and sisters to quarrel. Although most children of this age do not hold grudges, it is quite difficult to deal with them when they quarrel. This is undoubtedly a good thing for Setsuna.

"Isn't that good?"

"It's pretty good, it's the little guy Worf, what's wrong with wolves."

"Of course, the wolf is the best."

When the two showed their affection, Miao Na and Worf were also controlling their abilities, but unlike others, most animal-type ability users were first familiar with the human-beast form, but they ran freely in the animal form with.

The cat running ahead has black hair all over its body, with red stripes and whiskers on its face. Although it looks more like a tiger, it looks more like a tiger, but now it is really a cat, and it will lick it from time to time. Lick the hair on the body.

This is the characteristic of fire-spotted cats. The fur is rich in oil. These hairs are the fuel for fire-spotted cats. After Wolf acquires this ability, they don't need to pick up firewood when they go camping. Just stick it on a few times.

This kind of special hair is very burn-resistant, and it can be called a must-have item for travel. Even if there is not enough hair, it is also very effective for igniting fire.

The cat following behind is light green all over, with a dark green pattern in the center of its face that resembles four overlapping leaves, and green collar-like hair on its chest.

Grass cat Pokémon-New Leaf Meow, Meowna is also grooming her hair, but her cat fur cannot be used like that. As a grass-type Pokémon, her hair has similarities to plants, and can obtain energy through photosynthesis. It also exudes a charming natural aroma.

The birthdays of the two are near the end of the year, and 1518 is just around the corner. The elephant owner has also approached Wano Country. He plans to take an annual leave here and stay for a few days

"Unfortunately, there are many things going on now, and I will have to prepare to go back to work soon. When will someone with higher prestige than me appear to succeed me?"

"It won't be easy, but it shouldn't take long. You don't have much to do anyway, so just check in."

Before Zeraora finished speaking, the phone bug suddenly rang.

"Huh? What's the matter, Senior Yang Jisihan, is there anything urgent?"

Since she took over Zowu, she has not encountered any troubles. The assistants prepared by Yang Jisihan handled the trivial matters in an orderly manner. When she was on vacation, Yang Jisihan never bothered her.

"Something went wrong. Pokmus just called. Pedro and Japo had an accident in BIG MOM's territory. It seems to be related to some red stone.

Pokemus said that someone might die. He is delaying the time, but he doesn't know how long it will last. I hope you will go to save people as soon as possible. "

After hanging up the phone, he looked at Zeraora for a moment.

"I know, just wait for me, I will go to Lord Arceus first."

It's about the BIG MOM Pirates, Beasts are not afraid of them, but as the cadres under them, they don't have the right to take the initiative to start a war.

As soon as Zeraora finished speaking, Arceus remembered some details, and then called Kaido again.

"Hey, why did you call me? Is there anything new?"

"Well, there is something wrong with the fur family. To make a long story short, BIG MOM has a piece of red history text in his hand. I want to exchange text messages with her using Wano country's piece. Do you have any opinions?"

Chapter 830 Old man, you still don't know much about pirates

Arceus is not interested in the so-called One Piece, but Kaido is different. Dreams and goals do not conflict. His goal is to start the greatest war, which is not inconsistent with his desire to become One Piece.

For the current members of the Four Emperors, they all think that their captain will be the new One Piece.

To find the final island, the historical text of the road sign is indispensable. Now Kaido has two pieces, which is far ahead of other pirates.

If you move these things, you will still ask Kaido for his opinion.

"You can't do this by yourself, I thought you wanted to start a war with that old woman right now.

Is it necessary to exchange so early? I'm also planning to find another way to get it when the time comes.

Or did the people you sent find the fourth piece? "

Kaido knows that Charlotte Lingling has a piece of historical text, but Charlotte Lingling does not know that Kaido has it. Whether it is the hinterland of Wano Country or the back of Zou's elephant, the BIG MOM Pirates have never set foot The place.

Kaido could choose to exchange with Charlotte Lingling before, but he didn't do that, even if it was the elder sister who took care of him in the past, even if the two parties have certain business contacts now, when the purpose conflicts, he will not Keep your hands.

The method he was referring to was obviously grabbing, which was a pretty good target for him.

"No, something went wrong"

Arceus briefly explained the situation, but Kaido's answer was a bit special.

"Oh, no problem, but remember to get her a fake one."

"Fake?"

"Ah, I said, we are pirates, you usually just deal with people honestly, but this time is different, when you brought O'Hara back, we have the ability to translate historical texts.

But guess how the old woman translated it? "

"Three-eyed family?"

"Didn't you know that it's the three-eyed tribe? That woman has a mixed-race daughter of the three-eyed tribe. I heard that after awakening, the third eye of the three-eyed tribe can spy on secrets. She probably intends to use this to interpret the text of history." .

I don't know if it can be done, but I can be sure that the little girl hasn't opened her eyes yet.

We have more than one piece of historical text in our hands, most of which were rubbed for her, and at the same time, some common historical texts were mixed in, which she couldn't see. "

Charlotte Lingling, who transcribed the historical text, would not believe it, and no one could do it. If those complicated patterns were wrongly written, the meaning expressed would be completely different. Even if it is a rubbing, there must be a video Proof is enough. After all, there is no ps technology prevailing in this sea, and if there is a video, it will be regarded as real by default.

The stele of the historical text is very large, and it cannot be rubbed on a small piece of paper alone. This is the room for manipulation in Kaido's eyes.

Beasts has been collecting historical texts, and found a few pieces of ordinary historical texts here and there, with nine truths and one false mixed in, and people who don't know how to translate can't get it in.

"However. Remember to get a real copy and bring it with you. The old woman's child is not so easy to fool. If she accepts it directly, give her a fake one. If there are other requirements, then give her the real one."

"You don't need to teach me this little thing, I know how to deal with it."

"Hey lol lol, of course, I'm sure you can do things with confidence, but I'm much more familiar with the transactions between pirates than you are."

Kaido wanted to say something, but suddenly there was an explosion.

Boom!

The explosion was deafening, making Arceus feel that the explosion was not that simple.

"what happened?"

"Ah, it's nothing, Punk Hazard exploded, and the whole island is almost going to heaven."

"You blew up Punk Hazard?"

"Hey hehe, although it is indeed something I can do, but this time it is really not me, I just came out for a ride, but this scene is really spectacular."

At this time, the smoke of Punk Hazard was soaring into the sky, and a large amount of chemical gas flew into the air. The smell even Kaido and the eight-headed dragon felt pungent. Waving the wings on their backs, the eight-headed dragon dispersed the poisonous smoke, and then took Kaido to the sky. Fly away.

Kaido is telling the truth, he really just came out for a drive, and stopped by to see if there are any venues worth fighting for himself, newcomers worth recruiting, and so on.

As a result, Punk Hazard blew himself up as soon as he passed by.

From the smoke cloud of the explosion, it can be seen that this is an internal explosion, but Kaido has no interest in this environment, so he stays away from here.

"Okay, you can deal with what you have to do first, I will hang up here first."

Said that Kaido hung up the phone directly, as if he was worried that something would be delayed

According to Kaido's intention, Zeraora quickly finished two rubbings of the historical text, one true and one false, and then planned to go to Cake Island.

"Wait, Zeraora, take me with you."

"what are you going to do?"

"I am the king of Zowu. Although I don't like to deal with government affairs very much, it is the responsibility of King Zowu to protect other fur tribes. Even if there is any trouble, I should deal with it."

He didn't say much, but disappeared on Onigi Island with Setsuna. As long as the target's body can bear it, bringing someone along won't affect Zeraora's speed, and Setsuna's body has undoubtedly reached the standard.

Not long ago, Cake Island, just as Yang Jisihan said, Pok Mousse was pleading with BIG MOM to delay time.

Pedro and Jiebo were still sailing before, and their search target has changed to the slate and historical text needed by the beasts. It was their own decision to infiltrate the BIG MOM pirates. They underestimated the power of Cake Island. guard.

Especially the information that Roger once stole the history text, which made Charlotte Lingling pay more attention to the safety of this stone.

Facing such a thief, she would naturally make him pay the price.

"Get out of the way, Pokmus, you look so ugly!"

"Please, Mom! Please forgive them just once!"

Ignoring the anger from others, Pokmus just knelt on the ground and wept. He knew that Charlotte Lingling was the absolute master on this cake island. Only by persuading her would it be possible for Pedro and Jebo is alive.

"Pokmus, I didn't kill them directly. I'm already very tolerant. They must participate in this game. This is the rule of the BIG MOM Pirates."

A roulette with painted hands and feet and numbers was pushed up by Homiz. It was similar in shape to the reward roulette of beasts, but it was a punishment roulette, and what the punished paid was a part of the body or lifespan. .

As a member of the BIG MOM pirate group, Pokmus knows exactly what that means.

He had no ability to stop Charlotte Lingling, so he could only try his best to delay the time and pin his hopes on the previous phone call.
