

Arceus 861

Chapter 861 Strange signal jammer

"It feels powerful. It's nice."

Looking back at the cliff behind her, Misu couldn't help but sigh a little. If she had such strength more than ten years ago, she wouldn't have to pin all her hopes of having children on others.

The matter of Frevans was something she would never forget in her whole life. At that time, she could only pray, hoping that the soldiers would have the last kindness in their hearts, but unfortunately the result was not good.

Every time she dreams about those, she always wakes up from the dream, which is why she hopes that Rami will always lose his memory.

That kind of painful memory is of no benefit to her, it is better to start a new life directly.

"But Sister Missu, it must have been a while since you acquired this power? I haven't seen you use it much."

"Ah, that's true, it's just that it also represents another side of me, so I rarely use it, and you'll see why later."

"What about the radar results?"

Tiger didn't delve into it. Sometimes Misu's words are always mysterious. Now he is even more curious about where the stone slab is.

"Strange, the response of the radar has become more chaotic, what is there?"

Looking at the radar icon that remained unchanged, Misu patted it casually. This is the maintenance method that became popular after the popularization of electrical appliances in Onijima and Wano.

Under Wano Country's internal circular economy, product quality is the priority, and lax contact is the most common old problem. A pat is enough to solve most problems.

"Is this thing really broken?"

"It shouldn't be, the main test before departure, no problem."

Both Misu and Tiger began to struggle with whether to report directly.

"I have a guess, but I'm not sure. Let's go and ask, people here should know something."

Because he didn't want to cause too much misunderstanding, Misu asked the knights to stay where they were, and only Tiger and Misu, who had already lifted his transformation, came over.

At the same time, a few people in the distance also ran towards the forest. As early as when Misu, Tiger and others jumped off the cliff, they saw this group of strange people. Seeing that they were going in the wrong direction, they chose to take a small path back. report.

"Grandmother! Granny Yiliansha! It's not good! A group of people jumped off the cliff! It looks like they are coming to us. Here they come"

Before he finished speaking, he knew that he didn't need to say anything, because those people who jumped off the cliff were in front of him now, and they seemed to be discussing something with his mother-in-law.

He didn't know that for these well-trained supermen, jumping off a cliff of this level has no effect.

For ordinary residents living on Aska Island, this is a group of lunatics.

At first, they thought that those people were committing mass suicide, but without exception, those people walked towards the village after landing safely.

The villagers who discovered them rushed back to the gathering place to report the situation, but there was a huge difference in their physiques. Even if these villagers came back by taking a detour, the Arceus cultists entered here before them.

Although he saw that these people were still alive and well after jumping off the cliff, looking at Misu and Tiger who didn't have any scratches, he still couldn't believe his eyes.

"Okay Lacus, they are guests, don't make a fuss."

"Mother-in-law, they are outsiders. What if they are sent by pirates or naval dojos to inquire about the news, and that guy... looks very dangerous."

Lakes looked at Tiger. Misu looked harmless to humans and animals, but Tiger's appearance seemed fierce to most people.

After the kingdom of Aska fell, those who lived here had little chance to meet the murlocs.

"Even if it is, then we can only face it, so the two of you, what exactly are you here for?"

Sister Missu's costume made this mother-in-law less vigilant. The duties of a nun and a priestess are roughly similar. In her opinion, the other party does not seem to be looking for trouble.

"There may be something we are looking for here, but some unknown force on the island has affected our equipment. It seems that you have lived here for a while. I want to ask, do you know anything?"

"No, I haven't heard of that kind of thing on this island."

Hearing Misu's words, the hunched old woman suddenly straightened her back, and said that she didn't know anything, but from this appearance, no matter how you look at it, there is no silver three hundred taels here.novELus&.cOM

One's cognition determines one's own knowledge. In the eyes of the people of Aska Island, the only thing worth looking for by outsiders is the cursed Seven-Star Sword. Although the Seven-Star Sword is in someone else's hands now, she still doesn't want to say more things.

Before Misu could say anything, a girl's voice sounded outside the village.

"Navy Dojo! It's the people from the Navy Dojo! Those guys are here again!"

A blue-haired girl ran back with a package in a panic. Her name was Maya, and she was a priestess on the island.

It was at this time that Misu found that the radar display became more confusing, and there seemed to be something on the girl that affected the radar detection.

"Miss Maya, you and your mother-in-law and take the old and the weak to take refuge, we will stop those people."

Hearing the term Naval Dojo, except for a few people who stayed here to watch Tiger and Misu, all the young and strong in the village took up their weapons and rushed out of the village without looking back.

"Your Excellency Tiger, go and help them, I seem to have figured out what the problem is."

"No need for guests, you should leave here, this is our private matter, you don't need to get involved."

"Don't worry, Tiger is very strong, isn't he, Mr. Tiger?"

"Of course, leave this trivial matter to me."

Tiger quickly fulfilled what he said just now. The people in the naval dojo were like ants to Tiger. The three of them worked hard to repel the attacking navy, and also showed their own force.

When he came back, the villagers looked at him with vigilance, for fear that he would do something dangerous.

"Can we have a good talk now? Girl, the things in your package have affected my radar. If possible, I hope to destroy it. We are willing to compensate you at double the price."

The slate must be found, but Misu doesn't want to rely on violence to solve these, so he wants to discuss it with the other party.

"No, no! This one will never work!"

Listening to Misu's words, Maya turned pale with shock, and the expressions of the surrounding villagers also became ugly. The people in the naval dojo were extremely difficult to deal with, and Tiger just killed them all by himself.

If they really fight, they are not opponents at all.

Chapter 862 The Cursed Holy Sword

"Don't be so nervous, we don't want to cause any conflicts, but we have something to do, if it can't be destroyed, can you take it away from the island temporarily?"

I swear in the name of the * I enshrine, I can guarantee your safety, it only takes an hour. "

According to Lu Xun's theory of opening the skylight in the classics, Misu thought that they would readily agree to this request. After all, it was not a difficult task, but Maya still shook her head and looked at her grandma.

"In the name of God. Are you also a priestess dedicated to God?"

Elisa was also a priestess of this island when she was young, and she still attaches great importance to Missu's solemn oath.

For the clergy, there is no greater oath than this.

"I am just a lamb saved by the Lord, and I am also working hard for the Lord's goal. There is nothing wrong with your understanding, so can you consider our conditions?"

"You swear first, you have nothing to do with those people in the naval dojo, otherwise you will kill us and you will not get any information."

"No problem, not only the Navy Dojo, we and the Navy are not on the same side, and we don't want to do anything that will endanger you."

"Okay, but we still can't agree to your request"

"Grandma, are you kidding us?"

Hearing what the people in front of him said, Tiger's face darkened. They showed their favor just because they didn't want to add notoriety to their religion. That's why they put violent people into the Knights of Discipline.

But this does not mean that they are easy to bully, it is simply making fun of them.

"No, let the old man explain, if you are also believers in God, then you should have heard the legend of Aska Island, right?"

"I know a little bit, and I've heard about the Seven Star Sword, but that's not our goal, it's just a sword, and we're not interested in it."

"But there is the problem. The Seven Star Sword is a demon sword, a demon sword that has been revived. It doesn't want to revive itself all the time. These three gems are not ordinary things, they are the things that seal the demon sword.

If they are gone, the demon sword will be revived, and the disaster will befall the sea again.

So you can't destroy it, and it can't leave the island.

Our job is to protect it, no matter the cost. "

Listening to Granny Elissa's explanation, Misu suddenly felt nostalgic for the past. She was naive at that time and believed that everything was fine, so she believed the soldier's promise.

Although her oaths at this time were all true, the old man in front of her was so naive that she didn't even suspect that she was lying.

In fact, Yi Liansha just wanted to see the reaction of the other party. According to her understanding of the people in the Navy Dojo, if Tiger and Misu really had something to do with them, they should have come to grab them long ago. This kind of strength is simply not enough. Need to discuss.

Seeing that the other party was willing to talk nonsense, she believed that these people really had other purposes.

Then she continued to explain to Missu and others what happened before.

"The name of the instructor of the Navy Dojo is Saka. He was a good man, but he accidentally drifted to our island. A few months ago, a group of pirates attacked us. In order to protect Maya, Saka accidentally picked up the Seven Star Sword.

After that, he was bewitched by the Seven Star Sword and became what he is now. Moreover, it also used the ability of the Seven Star Sword to confuse a large number of navies.

If the Seven Star Sword wants to be resurrected, it has to destroy these three pieces of precious jade, but the bewitched people cannot touch the precious jade, they must rely on the power of outsiders.

Didn't the navy that your Excellency defeated earlier still bring some pirates, they are the people that Saka coerced to * the precious jade, and those people will be sacrificed by him in the end..."

"So, as long as the issue of the Seven Star Sword is dealt with, the existence of those gems will be meaningless, right?"

"Well, there's nothing wrong with saying that."

"In this case, I understand. Let's destroy the Seven Star Sword. If we succeed, let me destroy that precious jade. Is that okay?"

"No, that sword is very dangerous. The witch sacrificed herself, and then sealed it with the power of Aska Seven Stars. Are mortals its opponents!"

"Although I have heard of this legend, mother-in-law, I think the fictional part is very large. If the gods of Askar really made a move, they should directly destroy it. I think this is just covering up other things.

Of course, it can also be true, but what the Aska Seven Star Gods can't deal with doesn't mean we can't deal with it. If we can deal with it, would you mind adding another belief? "

Eliensa's face was full of astonishment, this was the first time she heard such a request.

And this is also one of Misu's goals. They are not the original crusaders, as long as they don't believe in their own gods, they will be eliminated.

It is rare to meet a few "professionals", and Misu also wants to develop it.

"It's okay if you don't accept it, but our agreement is established, please wait a moment."

After Misu and the others left, Maya looked at Elissa with some hesitation: "Grandma, is it really okay to let them go like this?"

"There is still one year before the red moon that occurs once in a hundred years. The demon swords can't exert their strongest power. With their skills, they should be able to retreat completely.

It would be a good thing if they could deal with this.

That sword...is long overdue to disappear from the world. "

People who are mature and capable of living soberly for a long time will always have some unique insights.

Some people can rely on the instructions of their old grandma to sail on the great route without a navigator, and some people can recite the words of their grandma to kill all over Ionia. These old people can always play an extremely magical role in strange places .

Navy Dojo, a one-armed man was a little surprised when he heard that his subordinate's mission had failed, and that he had been killed in seconds.

"Second Kill?"

"It's a red murloc, he just throws a punch and everyone goes."

"Murloc? Why are there murlocs here?"

The one-armed man looked puzzled. He was Saka who was manipulated by the Seven-Star Sword. The Seven-Star Sword only affected his mind, and his original memory and intelligence were not lost.

Then his eyes suddenly glowed red, and he pulled out the long sword emitting green light from his left arm, and swung a slash to the side.

"Demon Fire Slash!"novelSb.com

The green flame merged into the sword energy, and the strange demon fire slashed at its enemy with a chill, but in the end, the ball of demon fire disappeared strangely.

Two black and purple sword blades were covered with faint blue flames, and the Demon Fire Slash released by the Seven Star Sword was just absorbed by it.

"The flame of hatred and unwillingness, this is really a demon sword."

Look carefully, the black and purple thing is not the blade, but the arm, and its owner is Misu who has transformed into the Cang Yan Blade Ghost.

Chapter 863 Cangyan Saber Ghost, the Sword of Abandoning the World-Repentance Sword

Cang Yan Saber, Fire Swordsman Pokémon, and the branch evolution of Charcoal Samurai, Pokémon that need to rely on the cursed armor to evolve in the game.

The futuristic purple armor wraps the whole body, and the blue ghost fire burns on the back of the head and on the blades of the arms. According to legend, the flaming swords in the arms of Cangyan Blade Ghost are the swords that fall before they burn. The grievances of the soldiers.

However, the Cang Yan Saber Ghost is not a swordsman. For it, the sword is just a tool for fighting. In order to win, the Cang Yan Saber Ghost will do whatever it takes, whether it is sneak attack or assassination, as long as it can win is enough.

What he is best at is to use his own speed to approach the enemy, and then attack from a dead angle.

The demon fire cut out by the Seven Star Sword is just nourishment to the Cangyan Saber Ghost, just like the Demon King of Songs is to Darkrai.

"Sister Misu, are you really okay?"

Even though Misu has completed her transformation, Tiger still doesn't quite believe her. After all, Tiger has never seen her fight.

"God, God, haven't we already discussed it on the road? I can still deal with opponents of this level, and how can the Lord's nuns be powerless? It takes some trying."

The way Misu and Tiger judge the enemy's strength is through the people in the previous naval dojo, and through the strength of the cadres, they can roughly judge the strength of a faction leader, except for Bucky.

The people in the navy dojo were easily killed by Tiger before. From this, it can be inferred that the strength of the enemy leader is not too strong. What needs to be considered is how far the Seven Star Sword can do it.

After confirming the ability to restrain, Misu also has more confidence.

"And this way of swinging the sword is quite familiar, a bit like the moves of the Shuangyue family."

The previous church did not teach Misu swordsmanship, but in Wano country, she learned some swordsmanship from the local dojo, including the swordsmanship of Shimotsuki's family.

In a sense, Saka and Misu happened to be from the same school.novelusb.com

Many years ago, Kozaburo Shimotsuki, a famous swordsmith in Wano Country, who created the characters of Enma and Hedao, took 24 clansmen to violate the ban of Wano Country, left Wano Country, and went to live in the open sea, including Shimotsuki Ushimaru sister - Shuangyue vibrator.

After coming to East China Sea, they fought against bandits who attacked a certain village in East China Sea, and won easily. Then 10 people settled here and established Shuangyue Village.

Kosaburo married a woman in the village and gave birth to Koshiro. After taking charge of Yixin Dojo, Koshiro accepted a disciple named Saka.

He and Sauron grew up at the same time, and determined to wield the sword of justice.

While dealing with a group of pirates with Sauron, Saka's arm was bound by a chain, and then the ship exploded, causing him to lose his right arm, and he came to Aska Island after several twists and turns.

Here he fell in love with Maya, and in order to protect Maya before, he accidentally touched the Seven Star Sword, and was then controlled by it, resulting in the goal of liberating the Seven Star Sword.

"Frost Moon."

This surname seemed to remind Saka of something, but a demon green light bloomed on the Seven Star Sword again, and his eyes were also filled with red blood light.

"You must be, the most suitable sacrifice"

Saka's voice became extremely strange, as if entangled by thousands of undead, filled with bursts of dead silence.

Water can overcome fire, but fire is full of water and dry. Cangyan Blade Ghost's ability can certainly restrain Seven Star Sword, but if Seven Star Sword can swallow Cang Yan Blade Ghost, then its own ability will also undergo a qualitative change. As long as you can get this power, even if it is not On the day of the red moon, it can also be reborn.

So it manipulates Saka and wants to drink Misu's blood.

As the holy sword in the past, the demon sword at this time, the Seven Star Sword has experienced countless battles, but compared with the ability bestowed by Arceus himself, there is a huge gap.

Moreover, the sword body of the Seven Star Sword is another layer of seal for it. Although Saka has rich combat experience, the improvement brought by Cangyan Blade Ghost also allows Misu to deal with it with ease, but Tiger on the side doesn't know what to do. Rate this fight.

Whether it is Misu or Saka, their strength cannot be said to be weak, and they also have a foothold in the first half of the great route.

But Tiger is a person who can compete with others in the new world. From Tiger's perspective, after excluding the strange abilities of Seven Star Sword and Cangyan Blade Ghost, the two are pecking at each other.

This also reassured him a lot, even if something really happened, he would have the confidence to stop the opponent in time.

"I heard that you are also the one who wields a sword for justice? If you really think so, then you shouldn't be controlled by this demon sword."

"Justice. What determines justice? It is not legal order, but strength! Only the strong can become omnipotent gods!"

Dedicate your strength, you can get everything in the future world! "

A strange force erupted from the Seven Star Sword again, as if it wanted to control Misu's mind, but as Misu's twin swords slashed across, several cracks appeared on the Seven Star Sword's body instead.

Looking at the seven-star sword that started to collapse, Misu didn't realize it. She didn't expect that the sword would be broken so easily.

It stands to reason that after the Seven Star Sword is destroyed, her goal is over.

But Cang Yan Saber Ghost's ability made her understand that this incident is not over yet, the strange power still exists and has entered Saka's body, the green sword-shaped logo on his chest is a new proof.

"The day of the red moon has not yet arrived, your strength is worth the risk"

Saka's voice was completely different from before. It wasn't him who spoke at all, but the strange will of the Seven Star Sword, and a blade made of green demon fire also replaced Saka's left arm. It seemed to be learning from the blue sword. Behavior of the flame blade ghost.

"Nun, do you have any new moves? I think there is something wrong with this guy"

"Tiger, do you know why the Lord gave me this strength?"

"ah?"

"Because I can perfectly use this move and unleash its full power."

Some people's abilities are randomly selected, such as most of the grassroots cadres of Beasts, and the specially trained new generation is the ability he selects according to his physical condition. An exclusive move of the flame blade ghost - the sword of remorse.

The Sword of Regret is a special attack that concentrates the nostalgia for the world on the tip of the sword to slash the opponent. If you want to exert its greatest power, you must abandon all nostalgia for the world. Only in this way can you exert its greatest power.

The more nostalgia you have for the world, the harder it is for this sword to exert its due effect. It is a sword of fire that only those who have left the world can use.

As a survivor of Frevans, Misu faces the world with a smile on weekdays, but under this smile, she has an unknown despair.

Chapter 864 Earth Slate, Tiger's Ability

If Arceus didn't exist, she would have been a dead person more than ten years ago, or in Misu's mind, she would have been a dead person already.

Arceus has become her new belief and her new sustenance. In the Arceus religion, she seems to be the most rational one, but the belief in her heart is also the closest to the crazy one.

Faith is greater than life to her, she can die for it, and has no attachment to the world, so she can use the power of the Sword of Repentance to the extreme.

Misu's breath became strange, and even Tiger felt a chill.

Although it was a fire-attribute move, Tiger didn't feel any warmth, and the demon fire emitted by the Seven Star Sword had been covered by the flames of the Cangyan Blade Ghost, and Saka's was pierced by the blade on Misu's arm.

It was clearly pierced by the sword blade, but there was no trace of blood on the wound, but the symbol symbolizing the Seven Star Sword had been completely broken.

"Sister Missu. Didn't you promise Miss Maya not to hurt this person?"

"I didn't hurt him, I just looked scary."

Misu took two steps back, and Saka also slumped on the ground as if he lost his strength, but no scars could be seen on his chest.

This is the ability brought by Cangyan Blade Ghost's own ghost system. Many ghost systems can do this, using their own spirit body to avoid damage to entities. Just now Misu used this ability.

Of course, she also has a way to harm the body, but she just didn't use it.

Then Misu swung a few swords into the air again, the will to escape from Saka's body was cut off, and the energy released by the Seven Star Sword was absorbed by her.

This also means that the seven-star sword, the demon sword, has disappeared in this world at this time, and there will be no more deceptive things about the seven-star sword.

Then Tiger picked up Saka, and Misu returned to the camp of Maya and others with the fragment of the Seven Star Sword.

"Mother-in-law, we have already fulfilled our agreement, that matter?"

"Don't bother you, just now, the three precious jades shattered by themselves, and the Seven Star Sword disappeared. Maybe they have no meaning to exist."

As early as when Misu disposed of the Seven Star Sword, the three precious jades shattered on their own. No one can tell what is hidden inside.

With the shattering of the precious jade, the radar in Misu's hand finally returned to normal. Following the signal of the radar, Misu and Tiger came to a lake.

"It should be below, Mr. Tiger, please."

"I see."

With the exact location, Tiger quickly found a very special stone slab at the bottom of the lake, and his search method is also very simple, just punching at the bottom of the lake is enough.

He is a murloc, and the power of punching will not be affected by the water. Through this most traditional method, Tiger quickly found this slate-like object from the mud at the bottom of the lake.

Afterwards, Misu discussed the issue of the new belief with them, and then left here with Tiger and the members of the Knights.

What Saka's life will look like after recovery, and what the people on the island will do in the future, it has nothing to do with them for the time being.

When deciding where to go, they also throw darts from time to time to determine the destination, and then re-adjust the route, which is much simpler when returning.

But they traveled a long distance, and it would take a while to return to Oni Island.

During this time, Tezolo completed a new layout, had Cavendish eliminate a large number of pirates as evidence of his "repentance", and contacted some news organizations to blame him for what he did. When it comes to his personality.

Established Cavendish as a poor "mental patient". Through the operation of the upper-level economy, he solved the problem of Cavendish's reward, and then Cavendish's * career.

In the past, he was famous only by his appearance, but as he started to enter the road of acting, it was obvious that he would not be able to do anything. Various teachers began to teach him how to be an artist, and he embarked on a new career as a trainee .

And in the Murloc Mining Company, they also had new gains.

While mining seabed minerals, Watatsumi found a piece of historical text from underwater ruins.

When Van der Daken IX was dealt with, Mianjin saw that this large murloc was also recruited, and used "labor" to repay his previous mistakes.

Because of his size, each of them can do the work of a hundred, and usually one person can be in charge of a mining area.

While clearing a crumbling stone, Mitsumi discovered the mysterious historical text.

In the end it was sent to New Murloc Island, and when Tiger came back here, he handed it over to Tiger, and he brought it and the stone slab he found to Wano Country.

"Lord, your believers have finally brought back what you need. May our actions contribute to the arrival of the new world and allow your glory to reappear as soon as possible."

The moment the stone slab approached Wano Country, it was summoned by its master and returned to Arceus' body, and this time, Arceus' aura became more calm.

The return of each stone slab will bring about some changes in breath. This trace of calmness and thickness is just the privilege brought by the earth slate.noveLusB.com

It also means that the property of the fourteenth tablet is ground.

"Good job, you deserve to be rewarded, so what do you want, Missu?"

"Lord, I don't need anything. Finding what you need is our mission. This is just a small contribution, and it is the only thing we can do."

"Okay, I get it, since this is the case, let's talk about it when you need it, this promise is valid forever."

Misu chose not to, but Arceus had to give it, otherwise the rules established for so many years would be in vain. Not only her, members of the Knights Templar also have their own awards, and Tiger is naturally on the list.

"Tiger, you have proven your ability, and you are also eligible for your new ability."

Misu already has the ability, so in addition to strengthening, there are additional promises, but Tiger is different.

In the early years, he thought that he hadn't done anything, so he wasn't eligible for the ability, but now that he and Misu have found the most important thing, they are naturally qualified for the ability.

In addition to the slate, Tiger also brought the historical text. Although it is not the text of the road sign, it is also a very important thing.

"Now you are the number one powerhouse in Murloc Island, so do you have the determination to protect Murloc Island?"

"Of course, it has been my goal from the beginning to the end to let my compatriots stand under the sun on an equal footing."

"Very well, then this power is yours, the power of the hero of the sea."

Chapter 865 Hero of the Sea, Dolphin Man

For the water-fighting race of the murlocs, water-type Pokémon are more suitable for them.

Sasagi himself has eaten a devil fruit, and he is not affected by this because he cannot swim. Jack is purely a personal preference. He has an alternative fascination with elephants.

For Tiger, the selected ability is a very special water-type Pokémon-Dolphin Man.

The water-type dolphin Pokémon, a special individual evolved from the Pope dolphin, is also one of the few Pokémon that seem to have no difference between evolution and non-evolution.

Although it looks ordinary, Dolphin Man is very special. It has a characteristic called Almighty Transformation.

Dolphin Man and Xie Mi are similar, both have two different forms, one is their life appearance, called the ordinary form.

The Dolphinman in ordinary form is similar to the Pope dolphin in terms of appearance and physical fitness. Like Superman wearing glasses, no one can recognize them in the crowd.

When the partners of their group encounter a crisis, Dolphin will awaken and enter the omnipotent form.

The almighty form of Dolphin Man contains the power from the ancient times. The most intuitive thing to evolve from the Pope dolphin to the Dolphin Man is to master the power to control the ancient genes. Break your wrists.

Whether it is speed or strength, Dolphin is one of the best Pokémon in the sea.

The huge monster force can easily lift the cruise ship with one hand, and it is not inferior in speed.

As dolphin-like Pokémon, they naturally have the ability to use ultrasonic waves, so they can detect the cries of their companions for help from a very long distance, and then they will sprint at full speed at a speed of 50 knots to rescue those drowning people.

There is no side effect of the characteristics of the king of leave, plus the kindness of nature, so they are called the heroes of the sea.

It's just that almost no one has seen Dolphinman's transformation process. In this regard, Dolphinman follows a tradition and will never let outsiders see their transformation.

In normal times, they are just ordinary dolphins. After all, this powerful power cannot be used all the time.

The Dolphinman in almighty form may not be handsome, but it is strong enough, which gives it a unique beauty of strength. For Tiger, the transformation of abilities is also a special skin-changing process.

It made him change from the original red murloc to the same skin color as Jinbei, and he looks a lot more simple and honest. For the first time, he was still in an ordinary form.

"The power of the ancient gene is in your body, which represents the power of protection. If you are more familiar with it, it will also allow you to better grasp this power, so that you can protect the people you want to protect." NoVeluSb.com

It is very simple for Dolphinman in the game to enter the omnipotent form, just retract the ball and release it again, but it is different here, the Dolphinman who has transformed into an ability, wants to enter the omnipotent form, it depends on Tiger's ability.

"Understood, I will not let down this power, I will let this power show enough value."

After gaining this power, Tiger did not stay in Oni Island, but returned to Murloc Island after saying goodbye. He spent a lot of time out, and during this time, Jinbei was basically handling all the big and small matters in Murloc Island. .

Although he is not the king of Murloc Island, he is the only one who can speak equally to others in terms of strength.

Nepton and Otohime can convey some opinions to the world government, but that is of no practical significance.

The status of the Dragon Palace Kingdom is still very low, and most people's attitudes towards the murlocs and mermaids have not changed.

"Shaina, send the historical text to the above, and let those people translate it. What are these?"

"Yes, I'll do it right away."

The above mentioned by Arceus does not have any extended meaning, it just refers to the empty island floating above the ghost island.

Although some scholars who study paleontology started to study Pokémon, they usually observed the living habits of Pokémon on farms or ranches, and studied the extremely mysterious evolution, but most of them still studied history.

Hundred beasts now have a total of three road sign historical texts and five ordinary historical texts. It can be said that among the forces that still exist today, they have the most history.

As O'Hara's scholars can translate more and more things, the blank 100 years will become more mysterious. Some historical texts have no connection, which gives them endless room for imagination.

Although they are collecting historical texts, neither the navy nor the world government thinks that the beasts will pose a threat in this regard. In their view, the purpose of the beasts is completely different from that of O'Hara.

Since Roger, countless pirates want to reach the final island. Of course, the world government knows that to reach the final island, the historical text of road signs is an indispensable thing.

As the top power in the new world, Kaido will make them feel strange if he doesn't go looking for those stones.

And they don't think that someone from the outside world can translate the historical text, so they didn't attract the attention of the world government at all, and they focused more on Quinn.

The man-made devil fruit made by Caesar has become a hot product under Quinn's troubled waters. Animal-type abilities are not as expressive as Superman-type and Nature-type, but it is also a big enhancement.

There are those successful examples, and many forces have special thoughts on this.

In order to increase some credibility, Doflamingo really mixed some completed finished products with Caesar's semi-finished products and sold them. Those forces who bought the fruit were just like opening blind boxes, very high.

Anyway, they are just ordinary subordinates. Spending money to enhance them will not suffer at all. This kind of gambler mentality has led to "losers" who can only laugh in many forces except Beasts.

Caesar and Quinn frequently appeared on the desk of the intelligence department for a while, and at the same time, they were also thinking about a strange question, why did the MADS people, after breaking away from the control of the government, act like geniuses and always come up with various Kind of weird.

Through this sale, Quinn's small coffers were also enriched once, but most of the money was donated by him.

"You said. These are all donated by Your Excellency Quinn?"

"Yes, Sister, Your Excellency Quinn donated a lot here and there."

In the monastery, Misu looked at the ledger handed over by Lamy, and was a little confused about what happened. The Arceus religion had abundant funds, and Quinn had never made such a donation before. Misu is very puzzled.

"Did he say anything else?"

"Uncle Er Quinn said that this is what he should do, and he only kept a little hard work and snack money for himself."

Chapter 866 Overbearing Panda and Hippopotamus

Arceus really doesn't care what those fruits are used for. Anyway, in his eyes, they are just recycled waste products, but he doesn't care, which doesn't mean that other people don't care.

Quinn's behavior was to divide the pot. After using his authority to take away a batch of transformed fruits, he carried out this wave of transactions.

If you learn more lessons, you will gain more experience. In order to prevent problems before they happen, Quinn directly donated a large part. Anyway, he has enough money to spend.

Anyway, after he processed the donation, his reselling of the fruits was acquiesced, and no one cared where the completed fruits went.

Nine miles, Meowna and Wolf ushered in the most anticipated time for children-parents are not at home.

At this moment, it is the working time of the moment, Zou is leading the government affairs assistants to deal with Zou's affairs, there is still a long time before the end of get off work, and Zeraola has gone out to carry out the task, taking the nine-year-old brother and sister Feel free to stay here.

Safety is definitely no problem, but it is not certain that people who take care of children are reliable.

"Look, you have to spit like this, Wushi Bingya!"

Nine miles of the sea, Yamato spat out a fang of ice towards the sea. The extremely cold air formed an ice bridge on the sea. She was trying to teach Mowna and Wolf to use their abilities.

Although Yamato seldom uses his brains, his talent for fighting has never been questioned.

Teaching seems to be a kind of inheritance within Hundred Beasts. She was always on the way of being "taught" before, and Kaido can make her feel the feeling of dying every time.

Now she also begins to teach others, but she doesn't use Kaido's way, but uses what she thinks is a reasonable way.

The power of the mutated Kyurem made her control over the ice far beyond her original timeline, and two targets-like things appeared at the end of the ice bridge.

"Come on, aim at that target, gather energy into your mouth, and then spit it out with all your strength, it's that simple."

Under her leadership, a group of sparks exploded on the target, and there were a few traces of lightning mixed in the explosive flames. This is Worf's special lightning fireball, inherited from his father's power of lightning and the flame of the fire-spotted cat. Combined, he finally completed his unique moves.

Meowna next to her was flying a cosmic wrist made of leaves, and finally flew out like a dart. It was a magic leaf affected by the power of waveguide, and it was even more mysterious in its detailed manipulation.

"Sister Yamato, did you really train like this when you were nine years old?"

"Yes, was your training that simple then?"

In fact, it was Miao Na and Worf who took the initiative to find him, because they heard that when Yamato was at this age, there was no match among his peers.

"There must be a little difference, but this level is enough for you. Believe me, you won't like my training method."

The overlord's color shock is used as an alarm clock for waking up, and he has to face attacks from unknown sources every day. Thinking of what happened to him more than ten years ago, Yamato feels lucky that he can survive to this day.

Shaking his head violently, Yamato seemed to have thought of something terrifying, and then changed the subject.

"It's almost enough. By the way, foster father still has a new divine grace ceremony today. Let's go and see the excitement."

After each divine grace ceremony, people who have newly acquired abilities usually fight, which is what Yamato said.

Beasts are martial as a whole, and Kaido is a war madman. Under his influence, many descendants of the members of the regiment also advocate force. The big kanban is out of reach for them, but ordinary cadres can still work hard

When Yamato brought Meowna and Worf to Ghost Island, the endowment session was over, and a new round of battle had begun amidst the shouts of the onlookers.

There are ordinary hand-to-hand combats all around. Honey badgers, tigers, cobras, antelopes, and several people with artificial fruit abilities are fighting.

This is a new round of introversion of Beasts. The kings who succeeded in the first round, like Harper and Rory at the beginning, have obtained their own abilities, but their battles are far from the excitement in the middle. They are two newly born benefactors.

Duo Peng, an uncle who looks a bit vicissitudes, is also an early member of Hundred Beasts. With a new round of involution, he re-emerged and gained his own ability-Hippo Beast

Blisguera is a middle-aged man with triangular blond hair, and his name is tattooed on his chest. Compared with Duopeng, he looks much more energetic, with a leaf dangling from the corner of his mouth. It's a domineering panda

"Lie down for me!" NoVefuSb.com

Doppen, who turned into a hippopotamus, opened his mouth wide and bit Blissgra in front of him. It is the most powerful weapon of the hippopotamus. The huge mouth has an exaggerated bite force. Even a car will be bitten into pieces of copper. Rotten iron.

At the same time, the hole on his back was spewing yellow sand, and under the control of the power of the hippopotamus, it turned into a powerful sandstorm.

This is also the housekeeping skill of hippopotamuses. Their bodies store a large amount of yellow sand, and they can eject the sand stored in their bodies upwards from the holes in their bodies, creating huge tornadoes to attack.

After the hippopotamus turned into an ability, the release of this yellow sand became a special ability that consumes energy.

Like ordinary hippopotamuses in nature, these guys don't look scary, but even they are called the demon dragon king scorpion of sand, and they will shy away from hippopotamuses.

As his opponent, Bliss Guerra has not flinched, his arms are holding Doppen's mouth to contend with him.

"Uncle, at such an advanced age, you should step aside!"

The big mouth and teeth are the weapons of the hippopotamus, while the domineering panda relies on its own fists. It is also a very wild Pokémon that is proud of its wrist strength.

The hippopotamus can bite a car into pieces of scrap iron, and the domineering panda can smash it into pieces of scrap iron with its fists. Compared with Duopeng, the ability displayed by Blisguera is not so fancy, but the explosive power of the body also attracts Cheers came from the people watching the battle below.

The two played evenly at the beginning, but as time passed, the venue gradually became Duopeng's home court.

Although he is older than the opponent and not as physically strong as the opponent, he uses the field more and uses time to build his own home court.

The yellow sand on the ground formed a special quicksand hell, which made Blisguera's legs tightly trapped in it, and finally lost the battle of ability demonstration.

Chapter 867 Species Invasion and Biological Control in Wano Country

"Damn it, a real man should fight hard! What kind of sand are you playing with!"

Blisguera, who crawled out of the quicksand, was a little aggrieved, unable to fight with all his brute strength, and this feeling of failure made him very unhappy.

"You young people are too irritable. How can you waste your own abilities?"

Whether you lose or not, you lose if you lose, and the enemy will not choose a fair duel. Blissgra just complained a few words, and then left here with Duopeng.

But Blisguera plans to take a bath first, the yellow sand all over his body makes him very uncomfortable.

They haven't reached the point where they can decide the winner in a few days and nights, and Dopper took advantage of the hippopotamus ability, which led to the end of the battle between him and Bliss Guerra even faster.

The battle of those artificial fruit ability users around them is still going on. While Miao Na and Worf are watching the fun, Yamato comes to Arceus.

"Father, are these two benefactors this time?"

"There are not many tasks recently, and the number is less. What's the matter?"

"No, but adoptive father, father should not come back in a while, right?"

"Who knows? You also know that it is normal for Kaido to disappear every day. Maybe he will find someone to fight with again. What do you want to do?"

"It's nothing else, just asking. I'm going to catch ants if I have nothing to do. It just so happens that the two little guys over there are almost trained. Let's take them to have fun. Worf's ability should be quite suitable for this matter." Yes."

"Wait, catch ants?"

Hearing Yamato's plan, Arceus was once puzzled. It wasn't more than ten years ago, and Miao Na and Worf weren't three or four years old. No matter how they looked at it, they shouldn't be interested in this thing.

And you have to use your ability to catch ants, what kind of ant is this?

"Ah, don't you know, foster father? It seems that some ants were brought in in the goods brought in from outside. Those ants will eat the house. People in Jiuli hate them."

"Termites? Didn't Wano Country have these before?"

The houses in Wano Country are mostly wooden structures. Termites have always been a headache, but cleaning them should not be so troublesome.

"It's bigger than them, and the shells of those ants are very hard, and the number has been increasing recently."

Listening to Yamato's description, Arceus thought it was a phenomenon of biological invasion.

Alien species have no natural enemies and reproduce wantonly in a comfortable environment, eventually destroying the original ecological level.

There are many islands in this world, and countless islands are isolated from the world. Such islands will naturally develop their own ecological environment.

The dinosaurs on the ancient island and the giant beasts on the beast island are all creatures left by natural selection.

When a foreign species invades here, the original natural regulation will easily lose its effect.

People in Wano Country didn't take this matter to heart, no one reported it at all, and the people below didn't care about a few ordinary ants.

Although those ants are much more troublesome than the local ants, they are not the kind of army ants.

"Father, do you want to catch ants too?"

"No, forget it, you go and take the two of them to play, I will arrange someone to deal with this matter."

Yamato didn't delve into this matter. In her opinion, ants are not a big problem. As insects, they are almost everywhere, and countless people have done various strange behaviors to ant nests when they were young.

Arceus just wants to prevent these things from becoming a real disaster, and intends to control them.

The environment of Wano Country has undergone several improvements before, and the extremely huge ocean currents outside are one of them. Due to those ocean currents, the corals outside Wano Country have grown rapidly, and finally the Good and Bad Star Prevention and Control Project was launched.

There is no similar ocean current in Wano, but as the place where Arceus stays most often, coupled with the influence of the power spread on Fujiyama, the environment here is suitable for the survival of almost any creature, let alone insects with strong adaptability.

A few days later, in the scallion field in Jiuli, several scallion ducks were smashing the ground with their scallions. This is an ant nest. Those ants not only caused damage to the structure of the house, but also endangered part of the agriculture.

The scallions of the scallion duck are one of the victims.

Their scallions often need to be replaced. The scallion field here is another lifeblood for them. Facing the ants that endanger the scallions, they are merciless, waving the scallions to kill the ants below.

Originally, ants were also included in the recipe of the duck with green onions, but the taste of these ants is very bad. For the duck with green onions, it feels like eating rust, and it is impossible to swallow.
noVeLUsb.cOm

At this time, a creature similar to an anteater emerged from the green onion field next to it. After a brief conversation, the green onion duck gave way to the anteater.

That is not an ordinary anteater, but a member of the same Pokémon - the melting anteater.

After a simple investigation, the source of these ants has been clarified. When the beasts transported fragile materials outside, the straw and soil used as fillings were mixed with ants from the outer island.

This kind of ants live on islands with a lot of metal minerals. During the long evolution, their bodies have also been similarly affected, and there are special acids in their bodies that can corrode metals.

They have many natural enemies on that island, but in Wano country, the creatures here are not interested in these unpalatable ants.

In order to prevent them from overrunning Wano, Arceus created some Ants.

Professional things need professional Pokémon to do. When it comes to ants, Molten Ant is obviously much better than Scallion Duck.

As fire-type Pokémon, their tongues can burn high-temperature flames. In the Hezhong area, they usually hunt iron ants. Those iron ants wrapped in metal shells can't do anything about them, let alone these ants up.

The appearance of the anteater is very similar to that of an anteater, but it has orange-red patterns, and the abdomen has a tubular part connected to the tail.

The air holes at the tail * in air, and the temperature of the flame on the tongue also increases accordingly. The tongue of fire in the true sense goes deep into the ant nest, and a large number of ants are scorched and turned into their food.

Different Pokémon have completely different tastes. Food that is difficult to swallow for Scallion Duck is delicious for Molten Ant.

With its sharp claws, it dug up the soil outside the ant nest, and the Ant Beast enjoyed its own delicacy, and left here after a while to find the location of the next ant nest.

These ants themselves are not very strong creatures. After possessing natural enemies, they were quickly contained to a range that would not affect the environment.

Chapter 868 Escaped Test Item - Huge Battleship San Juan Wolf

Several melting ant beasts and these invading ants formed a new biological balance, and in Wano, the good and bad stars were also led by the super bad stars to clean up the newly grown corals.

Some corals with good shapes will be kept by them as some special ornaments. In this sea where giant sea kings are bred, there are countless coral reefs, so coral products rarely sell at high prices.

It is no different from ordinary crafts.

When the good and bad stars were adsorbed on the rock formation, a whale on the distant ocean current also swam over. On its back, Mana Fei was basking in the sun leisurely.

Among the many Phantom Beast Pokémon, Manafei's dispatch time is relatively long.

Zeraora relied on her own speed to act as a firefighter. Although she was on Ghost Island on weekdays, she could quickly arrive at the destination when needed. Darkrai traveled around, and many Genesects are stationed in different islands.

Di Anxi and Xie Mi basically squat at home and rarely go out, while Manafei has been stationed at the mining company for a long time, and this time he came back from vacation to play.

He could choose to swim by himself or take a boat back, but he still chose the most comfortable way in the end.

"Okay, big man, just stay in this sea area, don't run around, there are a few of you, don't bully it!"

Whales are considered to be the tyrants of the ocean in other worlds. Their huge size makes them rarely encounter opponents, but it is different in the dangerous new world. The threat of sea beasts and sea kings is much greater than that of a whale.

That's why Manafei told it not to run around, and made its own request to the nearby Gyarados.

As for why he came back on a whale, it was only because the back of the whale was more comfortable.

Accompanied by the cry of the whale, Manafei passed the waterfall by himself and returned to Wano.

"Master, long time no see, this is a gift from me."

A bunch of strange grapes was taken out by Manafei. Although he was in charge of a mining company, he also worked part-time in deep sea salvage. In this era of great piracy, in addition to countless new pirates, there are also countless shipwrecks every day. into the sea.

The treasure left on the ship is also one of their goals, and this grape-like devil fruit is one of them.

Although the devil fruit is unpalatable, it has a characteristic, it will not rot, and it will not attract mosquitoes, otherwise there may be countless flies in the world that only eat the human fruit.

Their unpalatableness is a conceptual unpalatable. No matter what kind of creature, devil fruit will be the most unpalatable thing for them, even flies are no exception.

"Have you finished dealing with the matter on Murloc Island?"

"Everything has been dealt with, and no new mines have been discovered recently, and Tezolo decided to give the mining company an annual leave, and came back after nothing happened."

"Then take a good rest and let Tianxi show you around more. The changes here are great."

But at this time, there was a problem in the waters of New Murloc Island. They encountered an attacker who should never be here. Novelusb.com

In front of the murlocs, he was an extremely exaggerated giant. Even if part of his body was underwater, the exposed part was still the same as the hill.

Right now, he is approaching the New Murloc Island little by little. With this guy's size, he will definitely cause irreversible damage to the New Murloc Island.

The murlocs were attacking his body underwater, but the difference in their size was too large. Even in the water, the murlocs couldn't cause effective damage to him, but he could bring a considerable amount of damage to the murlocs with every gesture. Trouble.

"Attack! Don't let this guy get close! Damn, how can there be such a big giant?!"

"How did he get here?! Are the people outside blind? Let this thing come to this position!"

The new murlocs have their own guard post to prevent the enemy from invading. Usually Rieux can't escape their surveillance even with ordinary boats, but today this giant approached quietly.

And just now he directly attacked the transport ship of Murloc Island. If it wasn't for the murlocs on board, who ran fast in the sea, he might have been eaten by this guy along with the cargo on the ship.

At this moment, the corner of his mouth was drooling, and his eyes were sluggishly moving forward. They dare not let such a guy get close to Murloc Island.

"Who is this guy? Looking at the clothes, he should be a prisoner. Haven't you heard of such a person before?"

"No matter who he is, what we have to do now is to stop him!"

"Brother Jinpei, you are here."

Seeing Jinbe appear, the flustered murlocs were relieved, and they temporarily found their backbone.

Along with Jinbe, there is also a desert dragonfly team, and now those desert dragonflies are bombarding the giants below at high altitude.

It's just that the attack effect is not obvious. The giant's defense is extraordinary. Coupled with the size difference, the desert dragonfly's attack is almost the same as a firecracker.

Although Pokémon have the ability to become extremely giant, these desert dragonflies will not become extremely giant, so they can only try to block each other in their own way

"Brother Jinpei, what should we do? If this continues, he will be close to New Murloc Island in at most three minutes."

"What else can I do, I have to stop him with my life. The people on the island don't want to transfer so fast. I contacted the support, and it should be here soon."

Jinbe doesn't know what the origin of this giant is, and the root of all this is because this giant is a heavy criminal that the world government wants to erase its traces-San Juan Wolf.

The height of an adult giant is usually twelve meters away, but San Juan Dire Wolf is as high as 180 meters, so he is nicknamed a huge battleship. He alone can cause destructive power comparable to a giant fleet.

He was originally one of the legendary criminals imprisoned on the sixth floor of the city, and was sentenced to life imprisonment by the world government, because his crimes were so brutal that he had to be erased from history.

The reason why he was outside was because the World Government wanted to conduct some special experiments, so they got him out of the city.

They think that the failure of some experiments is that the test subjects are not strong enough, so they want to do some experiments with San Juan Wolf.

But he ran away accidentally.

Originally, this kind of thing should be warned immediately, and people should be sent to recapture him, but for the sake of their own dignity, and at the same time not causing unnecessary panic, the world government did not make this matter public at all.

Except for a small number of people, no one else knew that San Juan Bad Wolf had successfully escaped, let alone other information about this person.

Chapter 869 The danger of super-large giants

Body size has a huge impact. Today, Elbaf is still recognized as the number one power in the world. Except for the strength of the unknown giant king and a few strong men, the strongest of the giants is actually the average combat power.

Although most of the giants who appeared on the stage were deflated, those who made them deflate were the strong among ordinary humans, and there were not many people who could reach this level.

In a more basic combat force, ordinary giant soldiers can easily deal with hundreds of ordinary human soldiers.

The most powerful country in the world does not only look at personal strength, but the overall strength of the country.

The size of San Juan Dire Wolf is extremely rare among giants. Whether it is Oz, who is an ancient giant, or Watsumi, a giant murloc, they are far different from Dire Wolves.

"Hey, there are fish biting my feet, why are these bees stinging me, it's so annoying."

San Juan Dire Wolf muttered to himself, then looked up at the sky.

He can withstand the damage of the desert dragonflies, but that doesn't mean he won't feel pain. He is waving his arms to drive those desert dragonflies away, and sometimes he bends down to grab a handful of sand from the bottom of the sea and throws it into the air.

There are no gorgeous moves, but the strange power brought by this size is not comfortable for the desert dragonfly even if it is an ordinary stone. The impact forced him to fly backwards for a long distance.

"I'm so hungry, there should be a lot of food on that island, right? Are there big fish?"

The wolf suddenly felt that his feet were caught by something, and he felt a strong pain.

He doesn't care if small fish and shrimp bite his feet, but big fish are different, not only because these big fish bite more painful, but also because these big fish can make him full, although he doesn't want to eat fish now, but It is not impossible to use it to fill your stomach.

I saw San Juan Bad Wolf kicking vigorously, and a small sea king was kicked out by him.

This is a sea king tamed by Manafei. Most sea kings just give Manafei a face and give him a place.

But there are always some special individuals who are easier to get along with, and they become individuals tamed by Manafei. Facing this super giant, Jinping naturally found some relatively large helpers.

It's just that the large sea kings with hundreds of meters are not included, otherwise it would not be so troublesome to stop the wolf.

"What a big fish. Huh? You guys are so annoying."

Looking at the Neptune, San Juan Dire Wolf just wanted to move, but the underwater suddenly stretched out two arms to hug San Juan Dire Wolf.

Under the wolf's struggle, a murloc struggling to hug his thigh also revealed himself. It was Mitsumi who had followed Vander Daken IX back then.

Mianjin is huge in size, but kind-hearted. After Van der Daken IX and Hody Jones were liquidated, he stayed in the mining company. As the biggest guy in Fishman Island, he was naturally taken away. Come here, otherwise Jinbei wouldn't have taken so long to get here.

At this time, he is also working hard to protect his homeland, and it is his power that has just restricted San Juan Wolf.

"Go away, I'm going to the island, I've had enough fish!"

"Don't even think about it, I won't let you pass, Boss Jinbe said, I can't let you go to the island!"

This is another characteristic of Mianjinjian, loyal, his heart is more like a child, and he has always obeyed the words of those who treat him well.

Can become a ferocious criminal who the world government wants to obliterate its existence. San Juan Wolf is naturally not a good person. His huge fist smashed at the top of Mianzumi's head. He was kicked out by the wolf.

However, he did not run away because of this. Instead, he began to take a big breath, and his size continued to expand as a result.

He is a type of puffer murloc, with the ability to absorb gas and water to expand rapidly. Although it has no practical effect, it can greatly deter the opponent visually.

"Here you come! Puff.."

Without saying a few words, Mianjin covered his mouth with his hand, because talking would make him leak air, and once the air leaked, he would not be able to maintain his inflated figure.

Watatsumi, who became bigger, caught the attention of San Juan Wolf, and at this moment, in the sea area next to him, Jinbe made a move.

"Murloc Karate, Mystery, Wu Laiguan!"

A water polo turned into a powerful water wave in Jinbe's hands. The powerful impact even pierced through the huge body of San Juan Wolf.

Wu Laiguan is one of the mysteries of murloc karate. Although the powerful penetrating power pierced San Juan Wolf's body, it failed to achieve the expected effect.

"Damn it, didn't you just stop him this time?"

Jinbe knows that it is very difficult to kill such a giant directly, so his goal is to restrict the wolf's movement. When he attacked just now, he aimed at the wolf's knee. Originally, Jinbe thought that if he pierced the opponent's knee, the wolf would be able to attack. Fall due to loss of balance.

The attack was successful, but Jinbe seemed to have underestimated the wolf's physical strength. Even if his knee was pierced by Takerai, it only made him stagger a bit, and did not fall because of it.

And after the attack, the experimental medicine remaining in the wolf's body seemed to take effect again, and the wolf's eyes turned red, and it began to attack the surrounding things indiscriminately.

During the wild dance, the huge body even set off a small tsunami, even if Shi Ping wanted to maintain his balance in this kind of ocean current, it was not a small task.

"Princess Otome, everyone has almost left, you should leave first, this place is dangerous."

In New Murloc Island, they decided to evacuate the murlocs living here first in order to prevent any problems before they happened. Even the mandible ants left here through the escape passage with the help of bubble coral.

But Otohime still commanded the evacuation inside.

"No, I'll be the last one to leave. As long as I'm still here, everyone won't feel flustered, so that they can leave in an orderly manner."

The most feared thing about evacuation is chaos. The stampede incidents that accompany the chaos are more likely to cause casualties, and people who could have left would also lose their lives.

Otohime has no way to change this situation, but she can find a way to make them feel at ease. As a royal family, she is still here, which is the greatest peace of mind for the people.

"But the princess."

"Don't worry, I already feel it, someone has returned."

"What are you talking about?"

"I mean, the murloc hero has returned."

Otohime already has an extremely powerful sense of knowledge, and after acquiring the ability of Dolphin Man, Tiger also possessed the ability of ultrasonic communication. With this ability, his sense of knowledge has also been greatly enhanced, and he successfully To establish a connection with Otohime.

Chapter 870 The hero debuts, the official staff who wash the land

But Otohime didn't dare to stay here because she knew that Tiger was on his way back, and she didn't know whether Tiger could deal with San Juan Wolf.

Although Otohime is innocent and kind-hearted, she loves her people from the bottom of her heart. Staying here to appease the people is also for the safety of the people.

Not far outside New Murloc Island, due to the pierced knee, the severe pain caused the residue of the experimental drug to further increase, and San Juan Dire Wolf began to slap the water surface indiscriminately.

It is not uncommon for the world government to use the prisoners in the city of advancement to conduct experiments. Whether it is the study of the blood factor or the study of the human body, this step is indispensable.

"Brother Jinbe! Be careful!"

Under the concern of others, Jinbe dived into the seabed to avoid the attack of the wolf.

With the size of the evil wolf, even if he was accidentally rubbed, he would probably be seriously injured. Even with Mianjin's body size, the fist of the evil wolf caused him great pain.

Wu Laiguan's attack was effective, but the wolf didn't give Jinbe another chance to attack. He also knew whose attack would hurt him more.

And this is also the characteristic of the giant race. The defense is not high, but the blood is thick. It will take a lot of time to grind these giants to death. If it is not close to New Fishman Island, then Jinping can take time to deal with him slowly. , but not now.

He must stop the evil wolf before it approaches New Murloc Island. Although the evil wolf is furious now, it is a good thing for Jinbe, at least he has successfully attracted the opponent's attention.

While he was preparing for a new round of attacks, a familiar yet unfamiliar figure appeared beside him, it was the blue Tiger, and at this time Tiger had entered the all-powerful form.

There is a red heart-shaped pattern formed by the combination of two fish fins on the chest, and the streamer composed of water flows on the shoulders like the shoulder armor. Although the appearance has changed a lot, Jinbei can still see the identity of the other party at a glance.
~~nove~~Usb.com

"Brother Tai?! Are you?"

"Ah, it's nothing, I have gained a little strength, just keep attacking that guy's legs, and leave the other things to me."

Tiger's body was wrapped by the surrounding water flow, and then the water flow, like a seaspout, rushed out of the sea with Tiger, and just hit the wolf's forehead.

By using the ability of jetting water, Tiger quickly charged in front of the wolf.

"Ah, a mere fly, how can it get so much strength!"

The jet of water made San Juan Bad Wolf feel the pain of being rubbed against his skull by an electric drill, and a big hand slapped towards his forehead, but in the end it missed.

Tiger has sensitively come directly above him.

"Murloc karate, esoteric, ghost tile roundhouse kick!"

The body rotated, and Tiger hit the top of San Juan Wolf's head with a blow. The forest-like hair on his head was directly parted in the middle by Tiger, and the huge force penetrated directly into the wolf's body through the bones.

San Juan Wolf's body shook slightly, but he still didn't fall down.

While Tiger was attacking the wolf, Jinbe also sent out his Wu Laigun to the wolf's other leg, and Mitsu Mie, who was on the side, also mustered up his courage, and hit the wolf's abdomen with a head hammer.

However, Mianjin saw that he was a little dizzy from the beating before, so that the position of his impact was slightly lower.

But it had a miraculous effect. San Juan Bad Wolf bent down in pain, and his eyes were wide open.

Facing San Juan Wolf's bowed neck, Tiger's whole body was wrapped in a special layer of water, and with the undulating charge as the final blow, he hit the wolf's neck.

Even San Juan Dire Wolf, known as a huge battleship, couldn't stand the series of attacks. Its huge body splashed water like a tsunami. They finally knocked down San Juan Dire Wolf before he reached New Murloc Island. .

San Juan Wolf, who fell into the water, wanted to struggle, but Mianjin directly pressed up, and the nearby murloc warriors also threw spears with iron chains, controlling this huge giant underwater.

"Brother Tai, fortunately you came back quickly, you have become stronger."

"You have also helped me a lot, especially Mianjin.

But let's talk about this later, the troubles don't seem to be over yet, Jinbe, don't call me big brother for now, some annoying guys are coming. "

Before, Tiger's attention was all on San Juan Wolf, and he didn't pay attention to his surroundings, but after they knocked down the wolf together, Tiger discovered several new auras.

"Jinbe, you deal with these guys."

Speaking of Tiger, he dived directly into the water, and several agents in suits also appeared here in time.

In many worlds, officials play the role of scrubbing the ground. For example, members of the Metropolitan Police Department in the world of Ke Xue have always served as the background board for detectives.

Those who appeared here at this time were the agents of the world government. They did not report the news of San Juan Dire Wolf, but it did not mean that they gave up the news about San Juan Diligent Wolf and sent people to follow this guy.

In order to prevent this guy from getting close to places they shouldn't be close to, they originally wanted to wait for the wolf's physical strength to be exhausted before finding a chance to catch it back, but they didn't expect the people from Fishman Island to help a lot.

"Jinbe, this guy is a prisoner of the World Government. It is a very good thing that you can catch him, and then leave it to us."

These people in front of them all know the identity of Jinbei Shichibukai, so there is no pressure in the command of Jinbei. In their view, Shichibukai is just a "dog" attached to the world government, and he does not deserve their respect at all.

They just want to take San Juan Bad Wolf back, after all, there are still many secrets in his body.

But they forgot one thing, while they didn't take Jinbe seriously, Jinbe didn't take them seriously either.

"Why should I listen to you? Who is this guy, you should give me an explanation?"

"Sea Xia Jinpei, that's not something you should know. It is your duty to help the world government arrest pirates."

Whoosh!

Jinbe's fist stopped an inch in front of him, leaving a few drops of cold sweat on his forehead in fright.

"You CPs, don't be so self-righteous."

"Jinbe, you guy"

The skirmish did not intensify this time, and the CP team of the World Government did not want to conflict with Jinbe at sea, and Otohime who arrived not long after also resolved their conflict.

In her opinion, it is nothing to hand over this guy to the World Government, after all, the World Government is the current ruler of the sea.

In view of Otohime's prestige, San Juan Wolf was re-handed to those CPs, but they did not act immediately, but made a few phone calls, and soon after, the cranes stationed at the Navy Headquarters arrived here .
