Chapter 911 Painful and broken choice, Xiaoju's change of attitude

"Hey! Poison Q! Is the captain really okay? He has been like this for a long time."

Long after Drake and Kikunojo left here, Blackbeard still maintained his original movements. At first, there was something like black smoke entwining his body, which was the dark fruit absorbing the damage on his body.

But now the black smoke has disappeared, but Blackbeard is still lying on the ground.

"It's okay, it's just too painful. If you were here, you might have died of pain. If you can take the double pain, you can only say that you are the captain."

Poison Q is preparing eye drops for Van Oka. For a sniper, Drake's flash technique is extremely harmful. If he is not careful, it may ruin his sniper career in the future.

The double pain of the dark fruit cannot be relieved. Wearing Hailoushi handcuffs may relieve the side effect of the double pain, but the damage caused by that cannot be reversed.

Between double pain and broken eggs, Blackbeard has to make a choice.

After a long time, Blackbeard stood up tremblingly, clutching his crotch and walking towards the port step by step.

"Captain, where are you going?"

"Drum Kingdom. I heard that the doctor there is good, I think I need to go and see it."

"Captain, you are looking down on my medical skills."

"Cut the * and lend me your horse"

"No, Captain, it can't carry you, you are too heavy."

Poison Q rejected the faltering Blackbeard's request to borrow a horse. In the end, the most central Badgers acted as a "horse" and left this sad town with Blackbeard who was inconvenient to move.

"Rotom, is the message still not getting out?"

"Sorry Loto, the body is damaged, communication failed Loto"

Rotom's main body was suspended above the boat, expressing helplessness about the communication failure. As one of the cadres, they also replaced the original phone bug with Rotom.

Rotom's abilities are much more convenient than phone bugs in all aspects, but there is a drawback. It is not Rotom that has the communication ability, but the electrical machine they host.

Ovens, refrigerators, lawn mowers, and Rotom residing in different bodies can exert different functions, but when the body is damaged, they become ordinary Pokémon, unable to communicate over a long distance and in real time as before.

"Did that Blackbeard's ability break it?"

"Yes Lotor, the battle damaged the electronic components and it's beyond the scope of repair, Lotor."

Rotom itself can also act as a repairman. They can clearly figure out where the damaged parts of the electrical appliances are and repair themselves, but they can't do anything about the root damage of the parts.

"He is really a troublesome guy, I still underestimate him after all."

Rotom's cell phone was damaged during her battle with Blackbeard, which is why Drake can't contact other people now. Although she thinks Blackbeard is not simple, she didn't expect that this guy hides so deeply.

"Miss Drake, the record pointer was also broken during the battle. We will lose our way if we sail like this."

"It's okay, we can always find a way out, it's better to leave that island first, there's something wrong with that guy, his body is so weird that he doesn't look like a human being, but any normal man will be half disabled if he doesn't die after taking that trick.

But that guy can still scream and fight back..."

Every time he was struck by lightning, Blackbeard would yell, but no matter how he looked, the guy was not fatally injured, especially the final ultimate Volt-crazy lightning flash did not make him lose consciousness. This is because Drake didn't thought of things.

Ultimate Volt Thunderbolt has no flaws in power except that the release action is a little awkward.

According to Blackbeard's self-exposure, he will feel twice the pain of ordinary people, and he can withstand double the attack of egg breaking. In a sense, this is also an alternative "strongest man".

"Okay, go to the helm, first find a way to contact Guidao, and you don't have to worry about the rest of the problem."

She didn't know what was wrong with her right eye, but she would definitely have to go back to Ghost Island to get it treated. Blackbeard's counterattack was not small at all.

It stands to reason that she should take a break, but now she has no time to rest. Kikunojo knows a lot of things, but he can't operate a boat. This is also the biggest disadvantage of the local residents of Wano Country.

Because of the closed-door policy, few of them are good at ocean sailing. Let Kikunojo take control of the ship. Derek is afraid that this small boat will really be here.

"I'm sorry, Miss Drake"

"Huh? Why are you apologizing for nothing?"

"I dragged you down, if it wasn't for the black beard's gravity to lock me in, you wouldn't let him catch me."

"It's okay, aren't you also fighting with his subordinates, it's also troublesome that Lafitte really got involved with me.

And if you have to say it, I didn't keep track of my opponent, so you don't have to blame yourself. "

"Cocoa is your eyes"

A few tears rolled down Kikunojo's face, he blamed himself for the injury to Drake's eye, and was full of self-blame for it.novElus&.COM

"Yo, not bad, it seems that this time you really treat me as a friend, it's different from a few years ago."

Looking at the crying Kikunojo, Derek felt a little rewarded. She had a lot of interest in this face at the beginning, but if Kikunojo still maintains her original attitude at this point, then she doesn't need to continue up.

From hostility to friendliness, to today's tears, it can be seen that in Kikunojo's heart, Drake is no longer a member of the original enemy.

She just wanted to tell Kikunojo that she was fine, and she would definitely be cured when she returned to Onishima. Pedro is a living example.

He was able to push back one eye since he dug it out, and the same reason is almost the same for himself.

But after thinking about it, due to his status, Kikunojo didn't know how strong the treatment on the holy mountain was, and he had never seen Pedro being cured. In his opinion, it can cure all diseases and damage the body organs are different.

So she didn't tell the truth, and leaned against Kikunojo behind her with a dizzy look.

Kikunojo did not push this time, and took the initiative to take care of Drake in the following voyage.

The temporary damage to one eye did not affect Drake too much, and his physical strength gradually recovered during the voyage, and he snatched a pirate ship again after a short voyage.

"You guys, why don't you even have a phone bug?! Pirates don't even need a phone now!"

A group of pirates huddled in the corner tremblingly, no one dared to refute Drake's questioning, at this time, Kikunojo found a special person through the telescope.

Chapter 912 Brothers meet again

The era of great pirates is not friendly. There are many pirate ships on the sea, which pose a great threat to the travel of merchant ships and civilians.

But for those who have enough strength, these pirate ships sailing on the sea are an opportunity. Previously, Kikunojo got a small boat at the port and left the island.

This was mainly because Derek's physical strength hadn't recovered much at the time, and he was not in a good condition after being hit by Lafitte twice on the chest. It might not be possible to get a big boat out.

However, on the great route, a small ship is not a long-term solution, so when they encountered other pirate ships, they chose to change ships. As for the method, of course, they followed the traditional rules of pirates.

Those pirates originally refused, but even if Drake temporarily lost an eye, he could easily deal with these newcomers.

Originally, she wanted to grab a phone bug, but the outer territories of Beasts still kept phone bugs as a basic means of communication. As long as she could contact someone, she could call for support or something.

There is nothing wrong with her thinking, but these pirates don't cooperate with her. Drake didn't expect that there are pirates but no phone bugs these days. NoveLusb.com

"Damn it, phone bugs don't have to pay phone bills, is it difficult for you to raise a phone bug!"

Different from Tezolo's mobile phone, as long as the fixed communication equipment is installed, the phone bug only needs to feed the snails. The phone bug's adaptability is not weak, even if it is frozen, as long as it is thawed in time, it will not affect its use.

If you want, you can buy some decorations to create your own exclusive phone bug. If you don't want to, it doesn't matter if you don't have decorations. As a result, these pirates just don't have any.

"This big sister, there are only a dozen of us, and we don't need this thing at all."

"Shut up, old lady! There is no ship doctor, no phone bug, not even medicine. It is a miracle that your ship can get here! Except for this record pointer, there is nothing useful. Are you newcomers who have just set sail? !"

"How do you know we only sailed three days ago?"

"It's better for you to play house as soon as possible, the life of a pirate is not suitable for you."

Passing his head weakly, Derek couldn't think of a suitable word to describe these naive pirates. If they weren't born on the great route, they probably wouldn't even be able to pass the level of Upside Down Mountain.

"Miss Drake, I found a pirate ship, maybe we can get a little help from that ship."

"Huh? Our people?"

"No, it is. The man with the white beard."

Kikunojo came over with a telescope and brought a message that Drake couldn't understand.

"I said Aju, although I just had a fight with Blackbeard, it is impossible for you to use this to contact them. Don't be naive, we are pirates, and Whitebeard and Beasts are hostile to each other. ."

If you see the forces of red hair or BIG MOM, or the forces of the Empress, Doflamingo, etc., Drake can go there, but White Beard can't.

Nowadays, when the forces of Whitebeard and Beasts meet outside, they are restrained not to fight, let alone ask for help.

"No, I saw my brother on that boat."

"Eh? Brother? You have another brother on the Whitebeard boat?"

"Yes, in fact, you have seen it before, when you went out to fight with Miss Iska."

Under the reminder of Kikunojo, Derek realized what he said.

I also know why Kikunojo's reaction was so strange during that battle. No one explored this issue at that time, and Kikunojo didn't take the initiative to mention this matter, so it was nothing in the end.

Just now when he was observing other ships on the sea, he happened to see Yizang on the ship.

After Ace left, Whitebeard was still not at ease. Although he was limited by the environment of the new world, he couldn't leave there, but he still sent a few capable cadres to go out to find Ace and help him deal with Blackbeard's problem.

Izang was one of them, but they never caught up with Ace, and his boat powered by burning fruit was too fast.

Ordinary pirate ships couldn't catch up at all, and because of the time difference, Yizang and others couldn't catch up to Ace.

"Is it the person dressed as a geisha back then? I'm a bit impressed when you say that."

"Yes, Miss Drake, please believe me, your eyes cannot be delayed any longer."

As one of the most important organs of the human body, the existence of the eyes is very special. Once they are injured, they may cause the attack of the autoimmune system. If not handled properly, the problem of one eye can easily lead to spread.

Derek's physique is very strong, and there is no problem such as eye infection, but in Kikunojo's view, it still needs to be dealt with as soon as possible.

"It's a captain, so I trust you."

According to what the pirates said, there is still half a month's journey to the next island, and she doesn't want to delay any longer.

This injury won't kill her, but it will hurt. She is not a dizzy M, so it must be dealt with as soon as possible.

At this time, a small pirate ship in the shape of a whale is sailing on the sea.

The Whitebeard Pirates have a large scale. In addition to the Moby Dick and the ships imitated according to the shape of the Moby Dick, there are similar small ships to facilitate their travel.

"Captain Yizang! A ship is approaching us! They semaphore and say they are your acquaintances."

"Acquaintances? How can I have acquaintances in this kind of place? Give me the telescope."

Although he was puzzled, Izo still asked for a telescope, and then saw Kikunojo waving to him.

"Aju?!"

Izo did not follow Kozuki Oden to board Roger's ship, nor did he follow him back to Wano Country. From the day he boarded Whitebeard's ship, Izo has been staying here.

In the original timeline, he maintained his identity as a member of Whitebeard. In the end, because his belief in Oden was not firm enough, he lost the faction buff and died in the decisive battle on Onijima.

The last time he saw Kikunojo was in the war with the Beasts, and it was that time that the Whitebeard Pirates discovered the problem with Oden, but after the battle between Whitebeard and Kaido, the matter was finally shelved down.

"Is that pirate ship the power of beasts?"

"I haven't heard of it, and I haven't heard of this pirate group among the newcomers."

The emperors of the sea also know the basics, and some outsiders don't know their trump cards, but they still know which pirate groups are affiliated forces of other sea emperors, especially those famous pirates.

Being neither an old man nor a well-known newcomer, this almost eliminated the possibility that the other party was a beast force.

"Very good"

"what did you say?"

"I said to bring the boat closer, that is indeed my acquaintance."

The joy in Yizang's heart didn't last long, because besides his younger brother, he also saw the cadres belonging to Beasts.

"Aju, what's going on?"

"Brother, the situation is a bit complicated. If possible, can we find a quiet place to talk?"

Looking at the pirates around, Kikunojo didn't seem to want to discuss this kind of topic at this time, but signaled for Yizang to talk in another place.

"There is an island nearby, so let's go there."

This is the difference between newcomer pirates and veteran pirates in the new world. Ordinary navigation tools are completely ineffective in the great route. If you want to go to the next island, you must rely on the record pointer.

Veteran pirates have a large number of permanent pointers in their hands, and they can go directly to their destination without storing a magnetic field.

Because the magnetic field of the island in Zangkou is not strong, that's why the record pointer of the previous pirate ship pointed to another island.

"Okay, let's talk now, the people on the boat can't hear us talking."

Izo didn't know why Kaido's cadres would go out with his younger brother alone, and he didn't even know what happened to Kikunojo during this time, so he just looked at Drake warily.

Even if one of her eyes is bandaged, she is still an extremely difficult opponent in Yi Zang's eyes.

"Don't be so nervous, my lord~ I'm not here to fight with you this time. To be precise, we are still an alliance for the time being. After all, my injury was left by your traitor."

"Wait, who are you calling big brother?"

"Isn't that you? Aren't you Aju's elder brother? In that case, it doesn't seem to be a problem for me to call you that."

"stop!"

Because of the existence of Kikunojo, they didn't fight, but Drake's words were a bit too informative, so I couldn't accept it for a while.

"Aju, what's going on?"

"Brother, it's not what you think, I mainly want to borrow a phone bug from you, and Miss Derek's injury was caused by that guy named Blackbeard"

"Is that guy Tiki so strong?"

Kikunojo's description made Yizang's face look ugly. He didn't like Drake, after all, they were enemies, but he recognized the opponent's strength. None of the single-digit numbers of beasts was easy to deal with. The former cadres have become more famous recently.

Blackbeard can hurt No.4 Drake, which has far exceeded Yizang's expectations for him.

Originally, he thought that Blackbeard was able to kill Sage through a sneak attack, but now it seems that this matter is far from that simple.

"That guy has been on your ship for so many years, haven't you even figured out the details? If this is Brother Quinn, I'm afraid he even found out information about his ancestors."

"Aju, this opportunity is rare, why don't you just go with me, don't go back to Wano Country, just go back to Dad with me."

Izo persuaded Kikunojo face to face, and wanted to take him back to the Whitebeard Pirates.

In Izo's view, the current Wano country is a tiger's lair and a wolf's den. Of course, it would be great if he could escape, but Kikunojo's thinking is different from Izo's. .

"I'm sorry, brother, I can't leave with you now."

"Why? You don't have to worry about so many things"

"No, sir, I have my reasons. I can't just leave with you. If it's convenient, please lend us the phone bug."

Looking at Kikunojo's firm gaze, Izo finally chose to respect his brother's opinion. He believed in his brother and thought that he would not insist on one thing without reason.

After leaving behind a phone bug, Izo left the island with the Whitebeard Pirates, and continued to pursue the trail of Blackbeard and Ace according to the information provided by Kikunojo.

"Hey, Brother Jin, how are you resting recently?"

Among the major cadres, she only has Jhin's personal phone number, and when Rotom's body is damaged, the only one she can contact is Jhin.

"Speak straight."

"That... I had an accident here, can you express me a doctor? It's best to have a surgery or an ophthalmology department to give me temporary treatment."

"Wait."

Jin's answer was very straightforward, two words ended the communication with Drake, and made Drake feel the current speed of the beasts.

About four hours after the call was hung up, two fast dragons appeared above the island. They came here with two doctors and medical equipment from Ghost Island according to the instructions of the life card.

If it weren't for the equipment and doctors, the fast dragons could have come faster.

Kikunojo and Drake also temporarily separated to do their own things after returning to Onijima.

Kikunojo went to report the situation to Kozuki Hiyori, while Drake was taken directly to Jhin by Kuailong.

"Brother Jin, long time no see."

"Waste."

"Hey, hey, brother Jin, I will be sad if you say that. Is that how you welcome your dear subordinates?"

"Stop talking nonsense, letting you, a careless guy, become my deputy must be my biggest mistake. You know everything on the holy mountain, and I have already arranged for you. Get out and get treatment yourself."

"Well, Brother Jin, how about I go there a few days later?"

The doctors said her condition was very serious before, which made Kikunojo very nervous on the way. NovelUsb.com

She intends to take advantage of her injury, and there will be no second chance like this.

"What do you think?"

Seeing that Jhin was about to draw his sword to cut someone down, Drake stopped talking nonsense, turned his head and walked towards the holy mountain.

At the same time, Jhin also left the palace in the Capital of Flowers and went directly to Ghost Island.

Arzeus and Shaina were not there, and only Kaido, who had nothing to do and was watching a musical in Ghost Island, saw Jhin coming, and threw a wine jar directly.

"Brother Kaito."

"Jin, come and drink, these guys' new plays are quite interesting."

In order to cater to Kaido's preferences, Wano Country's drama industry has also ushered in spring. It has been developing vigorously over the years, and many new classic dramas have also been spawned.

"No Brother Kaidou, I have something to go out for a while, please arrange the latest mission to someone else first."

"Huh? Is something wrong?"

"It's not a big deal, but my subordinate has something to do, and I'm going to help her settle the account."

Chapter 914 is only 81 million

"Go if you want, it doesn't matter if you make any bigger disturbances. After all, you are also Lao Tzu's subordinate, but the person who was injured recently. Drake? Jhin, you really care about that girl. Is it your own tenderness?"

The fire disaster, the phantom disaster, the epidemic disaster, and Jack, who is not sure what the disaster is, all have bad names. The names of their disasters are all names destined for blood and cruelty in large-scale wars.

Coupled with the banner of the beasts on its body, it is also a monster that can stop children from crying outside.

No matter how cruel they are, people outside will believe it, but it is a joke to say that these people are gentle.

"Brother Kaidou, don't be joking, he is a troublesome guy. He just lost his face outside and has to be found."

"Hey lol, whatever you want to say, anyway, there is nothing to do recently, explain it to Quinn, and you can go about your business."

"yes."

"Wait a minute, that guy named Tiki should be careful, that guy might not be as simple as he looks."

Before Jhin set off, Kaido suddenly remembered something. When he forced Shanks to drink with him to make smoke bombs, the red hair didn't say a word the whole time.

told Kaido a bunch of nonsense in Kaido's ears, probably about world balance and other messy things.

But he remembered that the red hair seemed to mention the strength of the black beard, and thought it was not wise for Ace to hunt down the black beard.

"That guy seems to have left scars on that redhead, maybe he has some special hole cards. Of course, I believe you are good enough to deal with him, but don't be careless. He is also a scheming guy who can bear it for so long."

Kaido's arrangement is not a problem in a sense, but as the handover, Quinn has some opinions.

"It's obvious that you, the torturer, are going to find a place for others, so why am I the one who works overtime in the end? I've lost weight these days!"

"Do you really think I don't know what you looked like before? If you have any objections, you can go to Brother Kaido."

Although Quinn wanted to protest with Kaido in person, his rationality told him that it was not a wise behavior, and the only result would be to turn overtime into extra training.

Quinn, who was working overtime, was left behind, and Jhin embarked on the road of tracking Blackbeard, but it was not easy for Jhin to find Blackbeard. The location of the previous battle is speculated.

Although the new world has a way of making life cards, except for the current Beasts who collectively make life cards for those who stay on the ghost island because of the internal review mechanism, no pirate group will make life cards for all members.

Even the Whitebeard Pirates don't have Blackbeard's life card, otherwise it wouldn't be that complicated for them to find Blackbeard.

Jhin's mobility is extremely strong, this time he didn't even sail the boat, but embarked on the journey of hunting alone by flying, but it would take some time to find Blackbeard.

While Jhin was still tracking Blackbeard, the Straw Hats and the others had already reached Alabasta through a series of adventures.

"Everyone, Alabasta has arrived. I also told you that the behind-the-scenes boss of Baroque Works is Crocodile, one of the Shichibukai under the king." NoVelusD.COM

After the Merry arrived at the port of Alabasta, Wei Wei, Luffy and others emphasized the root of the current turmoil in Alabasta.

"As the legal pirates recognized by the world government, their strength is very difficult to deal with, but don't worry, someone can help us. The most difficult thing to deal with now is Crocodile himself.

On the day he became King Shichibukai, his original bounty was cancelled, but it was also the pirate who put a bounty of 81 million Baileys many years ago. "

"81 million?!"

"What, it turned out to be only 81 million."

"Yeah, I was scared to death. I thought it was some kind of terrifying monster. It turned out that it didn't even reach 100 million."

Except for Chopper, who was shocked by the amount not long after boarding the ship, both Nami and Usopp were very calm, and even looked down on the amount, which made Weiwei a little puzzled.

"But Luffy's reward is only 30 million, which is more than double."

"It's okay, Weiwei, you don't understand, there is a saying that you can't be burdened with too much debt"

"Yeah, compared to those monsters, this might be a miscellaneous soldier."

It's not so much that Nami and Usopp are not afraid, it's better to say that she sees it away. The original reward of 81 million, the identity of Shichibukai under the king, these are really oppressive, but it depends on who you compare with.

Luffy has already regarded Kaido, who has a bounty of more than 4 billion, as the target to be defeated. Compared with Kaido's monster bounty, Crocodile is really insignificant.

Offering a reward cannot explain everything, but for most people, offering a reward is the most intuitive way to judge strength.

Those with low rewards are not necessarily weak, but those with high rewards are definitely not weak. This principle also applies to Quinn. After removing all the blame from him, Quinn's own strength is still a monster.

Whether it is the domineering Kaido tempered, or the various weapons and equipment on his body, they can cause devastating results. With his ability, it is not difficult for him to destroy the country if there is no strong person to stop him.

At the same time, Yamato and his party arrived in the desert country of Alabasta after the trip.

"Okay, you go back first, I will call you again when needed."

Yamato did not continue to carry the steel armored crow, but let it return to the steel armored crow's lair. Alabasta's climate is not very suitable for the steel armored crow's survival.

The night is fine, but in the hot daytime, the wings of the armored crow become extremely hot due to the sun exposure, and it can already be processed for teppanyaki.

"It's so hot. I don't like it here. Let's change to another country. I think the previous island is good. It seems that their potato carnival is not over yet."

Ulti has a special preference for potatoes. Fried potatoes are much more delicious to her than sea beast meat. The previous carnival made her very happy.

Alabasta's food is okay, but the temperature is unacceptable to her.

"Don't worry, it won't be long, Robin also has a big discovery, and you can leave after solving this matter, but... I always feel that the land of peace will become unlucky."

"I haven't figured out the location given by those thousand-year-old dragons yet. Hurry up and ask her to translate the map and leave here."

"That's right, let's go. Robin's news says that she is in the capital, and there seems to be a war breaking out there."

Chapter 915 This drooling for several years, can you stop it?

Pata.

The flint of the lighter emits sparks, and the lit cigar emits bursts of smoke.

In the cool room, Crocodile opened the curtains and looked outside. The barren desert was full of dead silence, and this environment was his natural home.

"Alabasta, the country of the desert, even if the towns in the desert have experienced thousands of years of history, they still can't cover up the death in the desert. When this country was born, it must have been shrouded in death."

Crocodile lamented this desert of death. Even the locals who lived here all year round would probably get lost in the desert, but it was just a sigh.

Now he is the man behind the incident in Alabasta. The death in the desert and the dry oasis are all related to him.

"Is there almost everything that needs to be done?"

"Probably, but according to the latest news, the ships of the hundreds of millions of elders sent to Narohara were all wiped out by unknown people."

"There are as many substitutes for that kind of person, and it won't affect my plan at all, but Nicole Robin, have you been acting a little more in private recently?"

The billionaire elder sounds majestic, but he is just the leader of the baroque work agency.

Street gangsters, bounty hunters, ordinary pirates, these people can all be substitutes, relying on Crocodile's own ability, he doesn't care how many such people there are in the first half of the great route.

Compared to this, he pays more attention to some special actions of Robin. She is always collecting some meaningless things in his opinion.

"I do not know what you're talking about."

"Oh, it doesn't matter, as long as you can complete what I told you, I don't care what you did, but I have to remind you that I am completely different from those idiots you knew before."

"Ala God, I understand, I will take care of what you arranged."

Robin admitted that Crocodile is much better than the guys from the previous organizations, but that's all. Yamato sent her a message the day before yesterday, saying that they had arrived in Alabasta. The good old days are numbered.

Crocodile has his plan, Robin has hers, Vivi and the others also have their own plans, and even Yamato has a special plan for the operation, and when these plans finally conflict, everything has to go back to the original plan. Primitive stage of the fist.

There is no doubt that Yamato's fist is the biggest one at this time.

But at this moment, the group with the biggest fist is traveling in the desert at a leisurely pace.

Ordinary people rely on camels to travel in the Alabasta desert, but Yamato is different from them. At this time, two huge lizards are honestly serving as a means of transportation. nOveLuSb.com

Alabasta's desert also gave birth to a large number of unique species, and the Santa Dora lizard is one of them.

This giant lizard usually hunts in twos together. Because of its huge size, fangs and sharp claws, it has always been at the top of the food chain in the Alabasta desert. It is also one of the most feared creatures in the desert, but at this moment, they have already Forced to become a mount.

The two big bags on the head said everything. Yamato used an extremely friendly way to persuade the two lizards to send them to the direction of the king's capital obediently.

In order to escape the heat, Yamato also built two igloos on the back of the lizard with abilities, which greatly relieved the dry heat of the desert.

But under the scorching sun, the ice made by Yamato lasted for a limited time, and it didn't take long for it to melt into ice water, which made the lizards feel a lot more comfortable.

Ulti in the dragon state is lying on the back of a lizard. The reason why she entered the dragon state is simply to fight against the sun. Dinosaur skins are here to fight the scorching sun.

"Remember to block the person who should be blocked, but I don't think there is any difference. Kaido will definitely not let you go."

"Don't mention it! It's hard for me to completely forget about it!"

It is not only Nami and Usopp who are not burdened with debts, but also Yamato. She knows very well that there are some things that cannot be escaped before she can defeat her father head-on.

In order not to affect her travel mood, she chose to temporarily seal some memories.

As for Peggy Wan, he is working hard to reduce his sense of existence. Before the two lizards came to his door, Urtike had been trying to trick him into using them as a means of transportation.

The huge biting land shark can fly, run, and escape from the ground. Except that it cannot swim, it can be called an all-terrain transportation tool.

Only Peggy Wan really hoped that these two lizards could be stronger, otherwise it would really be his turn if no other suitable creatures could be found.

On the other side, compared with Yamato, Ulti and others' special way of advancing, the Straw Hats and the others are much more normal, but they also encountered a difficult opponent-Kung Fu Manatee.

It looks like a manatee, but has a special structure like a turtle shell. It is an amphibious creature, entrenched in the desert rivers of Alabasta and the surrounding oceans.

"If you want to go ashore, try to defeat me, if you don't dare, go back to the opposite side, that's what it said."

Chopper acts as a deer-shaped interpreter, conveying the words of Kung Fu Manatee to Luffy and the others.

Although Luffy defeated these manatees, he saw a brand new move.

"Wow, do these manatees drool so much?"

The Merry, which has experienced vicissitudes, has new wounds. A water arrow with strong penetrating power passes through the hull, leaving a light-transmitting hole.

Even Luffy's pants were cut out.

"Master Li said to them that as long as they can practice enough to pierce rocks with water, it will come back and teach them more things. Now that Master Li hasn't come back, it must be because they haven't trained well enough.

If we are going to the other side, can you help them ask the lizard master if they are qualified, that's what they said. "

At the beginning, Xiaoli tricked these kung fu manatees with a water gun in order to find a reason to get rid of them.

The kung fu manatees have been repeating the action ever since, and after years of practice, they have literally developed their very own water pistols.

They can't store water like Qianmianfu, but they can hold river water or sea water in their mouths, and then spit them out like bullets.

Chapter 916 Kingdom Wars, Differences between Father and Daughter Ideas

"Why does the word Master Li sound so familiar to me?"

After leaving the area where Kung Fu manatees gathered, Weiwei felt the word more and more familiar the more she heard it, but she couldn't remember where she had seen it before.

"What's the matter Weiwei, by the way, the capital is also on the other side of the river, Weiwei, have you seen the lizard master they are talking about?"

"Those kung fu manatees say that Master Li is a weirdo dressed like a human cowboy who can cut rocks with water just by waving his fingers.

Under Chopper's description, Master Li's figure gradually overlapped with Xiao Li who was following Robin, and she found that she couldn't understand this former teacher more and more.

But this did not delay their trip. In order to stop Crocodile's actions, they continued to advance in the vast sand sea day and night.

After a while, Yamato and his party arrived at the royal city of Albana.

According to Robin, they just need to wait a few days in Wangcheng, and she will go there as soon as she finishes handling some things.

As the royal city of Alabasta, even if droughts occurred in other areas due to Crocodile's actions, this place still maintains a certain degree of prosperity.

But even in the bustling Wangcheng, it is rare to welcome such big-spending customers. They have booked the most luxurious hotel here at a very low price. In fact, even if they do not book the room, few people here enter.

The rebel army in Alabasta is on the move, and the country's economy has been slightly depressed in recent years, so there are very few tourists in the capital. Yamato, a rich lady, has saved this almost bankrupt hotel and reinjected it. part of the liquidity.

"Everyone, I heard that there are rebels active recently, but the royal city is still safe, but just in case, it is recommended not to go out at night."

Seeing the three people and some strange animals, the waiter of the tavern left the courtyard of Yamato and others.

In Alabasta, people here have a strong acceptance of all kinds of strange creatures.

The fastest creature in the kingdom of Alabasta - the running duck, a large duck like a chocobo. There is also a special running duck troop in the country.

Sea cats with strong symbolic meaning, sea and land transfer turtles that are also not slow, plus a series of creatures with different personalities such as kung fu manatees, banana crocodiles, and deceitful birds.

Although Tutu and Happy Egg are different in appearance, they look very friendly. It is very common for a rich lady to keep some special pets.

At this time, Peggy Wan was studying the updated video game on Rotom's mobile phone in the room, and Yamato was "basking on the moon" with Ulti at this time.

"It's so cold. This country is really not suitable for me to live in."

As night falls, the heat of the day dissipates and is replaced by chills.

The air in Alabasta is very dry, with little precipitation and few clouds, which cannot absorb the heat radiation of the sun

During the day, when light and heat from the sun hit the desert, the sand grains on top of the desert absorb heat and release it back into the air, superheating the air and causing temperatures to soar.

At night, most of the heat in the sand is quickly lost, making the sand and its surroundings cooler.

The less rainy environment is also one of the reasons why Crocodile chose this place. His ability will be greatly weakened in rainy days. Compared with this, the huge temperature difference is nothing.NovElsB.Com

But Ulti doesn't like this kind of climate. This level of heat and cold can't help her, but compared with the comfortable environment in the past, the climate here is simply terrible.

People will miss winter in summer, and express the feeling that they would rather freeze to death than be heated to death, but when it is really cold winter, this feeling will be reversed, and the emotion will be expressed again that they would rather die of heat than freeze to death.

Ulti is in this state at this time, the only thing she likes in this country is all kinds of fruits.

"How on earth did Robin stay here for so many years?"

"Well, I remember that she didn't stay here all the time. She was exploring around in the first half. According to her, it's reasonable to take advantage of other people's money to do her own business? No, what's that word called? I can't remember."

It was clearly on the lips, but Yamato couldn't figure out how to pronounce the word, so he just let it go.

"Speaking of which, this country is really depressed. It seems that we have seen a lot of ruins along the way."

"It doesn't matter anymore. There are more countries in this world. It's not like you haven't seen the worse situation in the New World. Can you manage it?"

"I can't manage it now, but it won't be so when I can."

"Why didn't you think you wanted to take care of so many things before?"

"It's not that I want to take care of it, it's just that it's uncomfortable to look at like this. It's good to be like Wano. As for the past... maybe all I would think about was fighting with that * dad?"

"Be confident, you think the same way now, I'll go see what Xiaopei is doing, you can do whatever you want."

As he said that, he jumped directly into the second floor of the courtyard. It is almost a skill handed down by the new generation of beasts without going through the door or the window. Except for Jack, who is too big and not flexible enough, everyone else has a flexible way to open the window. All thanks to Kaido.

After Ulti jumped back into the room from the window, there was a noise coming from it, and Yamato also looked at the Tutu dog who was painting on the wall, and made a video for the happy eggs and the happy eggs of Onishima, I continued to study the stars in the sky.

After dawn the next day, Yamato wanted to enjoy the sights of the capital, but was interrupted by an explosion.

What the hotel waiter said was wrong. Under the instigation of Crocodile, a large number of rebels had surrounded the capital.

Originally they were in a state of confrontation, but the people from the Baroque Work Agency had already mixed into the Royal Army. When he deliberately slipped his hand down, the defensive artillery roared, which also set off the prelude to the war.

The relationship between the two sides has long been like a powder keg, and this shot directly blew up the battlefield.

Countless camel cavalry raised countless dust, braving the Royal Army's artillery fire and began to attack the capital.

"This is war, did father grow up in this environment?"

Whether it is a battle between pirates or a battle between pirates and the navy, it is not considered a formal war in terms of scale, but this time is different. As a big country, Alabasta has great advantages in both land and population. .

The number of people affected by this war is far beyond Yamato's previous cognition.

"I really don't like this environment."

Looking at Kaido's favorite war, Yamato didn't understand why Kaido was so obsessed with war. At this time, Robin sent her a new communication.

"Fairy, put down the knife first"

In the five thousand three hundred and sixty-seventh year of Tianyuan, there was a demon who bullied men and women, bullied others, and did all kinds of evil. Man and God were all angry, and he wanted to turn the world into a purgatory.

Good news: With the development of the plot, after a few years, the Son of Destiny will lead the confidante to kill the devil.

Bad news: Now... I'm the boss...

Chapter 917 This is the mercenary service of beasts, please choose the right price 0veLuSb.com

In the palace of Alabasta, Weiwei wanted to send a signal by blowing up the palace, so as to tell the truth to everyone, but when the fuze of the explosive was about to burn out, Crocodile appeared in the palace.

At this time, he has already regarded Alabasta as his territory, so of course he will not sit back and watch Wei Wei blow up here.

Cobra, who is the king, has fallen into the hands of Crocodile at this time. Although there are many guards in the kingdom, these people are not regarded by Crocodile. Seeing that he is about to complete his work, his ambition has already swelled .

"If the kingdom is destroyed, it is normal for the royal family to die with it. You father and daughter should be ready to die here."

"I didn't let your plan go, but you should understand that there are many ways to die. If you don't want to die in extreme pain and let your daughter experience the same pain, you'd better answer honestly. I have a question.

Cobra, Pluto, Pluto, where is it? "

The death threat did not change Cobra's face, but Pluto's name did.

"How do you know this name?"

"It seems that you know the existence of this thing, Pluto, the king of the underworld. It is said that a single shot can wipe out an island. The most evil ancient weapon with the name of a god. According to the information I found, it should be in the Somewhere in the country is right.

This is my purpose from the beginning. As long as I have it, I can build the strongest military country here, recruit people, increase power, and one day I can become a force that overrides the world government! "

As an ambitious man, Crocodile has great ambitions. Compared with the so-called One Piece, his goal is closer to the king of the world.

"The world government will never sit back and watch you, a pirate, do that kind of thing."

"That's why I need Pluto. Without absolute force, how could I directly be an enemy of the World Government?"

He regarded everyone present as dead, that's why he exposed his ambition. He had been planning this for a long time. If no one knew about it, he would lose a lot of fun.

But he didn't see the expression he wanted on Cobra.

"I don't know, I don't know where that thing is, and it may not be in this country."

"Well, this answer is not surprising, or, I also know that Pluto may just be a legend.

However, according to my plan, after 20 minutes, the rebels will arrive at the square and start fighting, and after 30 minutes, my people will launch a special artillery shell at the palace, and the explosion range of five kilometers will raze everything here Flat land.

Mr. Cobra, let me change the question. Since you don't know where Pluto is, tell me, where is the historical text? "

From the very beginning, Crocodile never expected to get the location of Pluto from Cobra. He found someone who had a certain understanding of the historical text, and his goal was to decipher it himself.

The previous threats and the threat of bombs, the ultimate goal is to get the text of history, but when Cobra just gave a response, Robin couldn't help laughing.

"What's wrong, Miss-Allsunday? Are my words ridiculous?"

"No, it's not funny, at least it's not funny to me, but my friend said that you are full of useless nonsense, and even she thinks you are useless, which is really funny."

Crocodile's complexion became ugly, and he couldn't understand why Nicole Robin had to show an attitude of tearing faces with him at this moment.

It wasn't just Crocodile who couldn't understand, Weiwei couldn't understand either. She thought Robin was waiting for an opportunity, but she didn't expect to make such a statement at this time.

"What? Seeing that I am planning to kill this princess, you, as her former teacher, can't help it? Do you really think I don't know about the connection between you? I plan to use you again because of your ability. , it seems that you don't intend to cherish this opportunity."

Speaking, Crocodile took out a stack of papers from his arms, which were some of Robin's notes, but in Crocodile's eyes, this was actually a dictionary for translating historical texts.

He wanted to show in this way that he had already seen everything and was in control of the situation.

But Nicole Robin's attitude still exceeded Crocodile's expectations. She was not flustered or shocked, but talked about business with Cobra.

"Your Majesty Cobra, in fact, I am also very interested in historical texts. Of course, I also have a business I want to discuss with you. According to our rules, the price of intervening in a battle is usually estimated according to the strength of the enemy.

Crocodile originally offered a bounty of 81 million Berries, Shichibukai's identity was a premium of 300 million Berries, and the initial price of the battle between countries was 500 million Berries, which will be slightly adjusted according to the scale.

With the scale of the Alabasta rebel army, 1 billion can be dealt with cleanly, whether it is extermination or capture alive, you can do it according to your requirements.

So as long as you are willing to pay 1.381 billion Baileys, plus the information of the historical text, this matter can be perfectly settled, what do you think?

There was no sound, whether it was Cobra or Vivi, Crocodile or the guards of the kingdom, they all fell silent because of Robin's question.

"Miss Robin, stop joking. If you really have any arrangements, deal with them quickly. I promise you this price on behalf of my father!"

Weiwei reacted first. From the time she learned some knowledge from Robin, Robin gave her a feeling of omnipotence. At this time, she is more willing to believe that Robin really has arrangements.

"Guhahaha. Nicole Robin, I thought you were a smart person at first, but now it seems that you are also an idiot. Do you think there are people in Alabasta who can deal with me? Or, do you think that straw hat boy and Can his beetle knock me down?"

"Of course not, the natural-type ability users are very strong in the great route, but Mr. O, is there a possibility that some people are not from Alabasta?"

Zila

A strange sound came to everyone's ears. In Alabasta during the day, a strange phenomenon was happening. A thin layer of ice spread from a distance to the palace, and within a few breaths, the entire desert was covered. The palace is completely frozen.

And a figure gradually approached from a distance.

The cold air brought by the ice layer also makes people feel chills in the hot summer, but this fear lasts for a short time.

"Robin, here I come, does this appearance meet your requirements? Isn't it cool!"

Chapter 918 The Baptism of Overlord Color

As the most powerful armed group in the New World, in addition to the huge income brought by Beast Fruit, war is also the main business of Beast,

In this chaotic era, high-quality ammunition has always been a bestseller, and mercenary services are one of them.

Before Quinn's persecution paranoia broke out, he often went out to perform similar missions, and the Kingdom War in the East China Sea was one of them.

In addition to Kaido, Beast's cadres have performed similar tasks, especially Jack recently. In order to hone himself in battle, he walks on the road of finding trouble and fighting every day. As long as the enemy is strong enough, he will participate in the way of experience. go in.

If the enemy is not strong enough, he will throw the task to his little brother.

Today, Jack's ship has become the team with the highest battle damage rate among the many beast teams, but also the team with the highest actual combat experience.

Yamato complained a lot in the chat a few days ago, she didn't like the way Alabasta was about to go to war, so she just gave Yamato a reason to intervene in the war, and made some extra money along the way.

As an external brain, sometimes it is quite tiring.

A handsome appearance, this is the only condition Robin gave to Yamato, this will make the buyer feel that it is worth the money, and thus pay more willingly.

"Not bad, but remember to ask me this question next time after the fight."

Create an ice field in the desert kingdom, which is full of style, but the last sentence makes all the foreshadowing laid before it go to waste.

"Say it earlier, you didn't say it before, so you can do whatever I want next?"

"Wait a minute, let us see if His Majesty the King or His Royal Highness has any other requests, Vivi, or His Majesty Cobra, what else do you want?"

Let me introduce, this is our eldest lady - Yamato, who is worth more than 2 billion Baileys. This shot is a great benefit. "

If Robin had to make an evaluation, it was just getting used to it. If Yamato made a perfect move, the target must be Kaido, and it doesn't affect anything now.

"All the citizens are innocent, and they were instigated by Crocodile to lead to this result. Can you help me minimize casualties?"

"That's it, it's not difficult, it's just that there are too many people, you can deal with it yourself after the end."

Bass!

As soon as Yamato finished speaking, before the people nearby figured out what she meant, a gust of wind blew out around her, and the majestic momentum crushed the audience.

Plop, plop.

Weiwei felt a boulder pressing on her chest, and the huge pressure made her feel a strong sense of suffocation. The original Yamato was just a tall girl, but now she is more like a beast in human skin.

Bang Dang

The weapons in the hands of several guards slipped to the ground, and their legs became unable to support their bodies, and finally sat on the ground paralyzed. This was the result of Yamato controlling the power because the distance was close enough.

Whoosh~

The strong wind rolled up the yellow sand, blowing it on people's faces with the whistling sound

When the smoke and dust cleared, the crowd outside Wangdu Heights fell to the ground like wheat harvesters.

The Royal Army, the Rebel Army, the civilians, the pirates of the Baroque Works, and the Navy following Smoker, no matter what their identities are, they all lost consciousness and fell to the ground at this time.

"What's the matter? Is it the secret weapon of the Royal Army? It knocked down tens of thousands of people with one blow."

"No, those guys from the Kingdom Army have also fainted, what the * is this?"

There are always exceptions in the crowd. Some people are propping their arms on the ground, using their last strength to maintain body consciousness, but they still fall to the ground in the end, and then they completely lose consciousness.

Occasionally, a few strong-willed people sat there blankly under the baptism of this momentum, not knowing what to do next.

In her opinion, as long as everyone faints, there will naturally be no casualties, so she exploded her domineering arrogance to the greatest extent. NovE!usb.cOm

There are too many people to distinguish, and it is easy to cause a unilateral massacre if only deterring one side, so except for the area near her, she adopted an indiscriminate attack on the distance.

In order to make these people faint longer, she released her domineering energy to the greatest extent.

During years of tempering, her domineering look has also gradually changed. The powerful deterrent force made the soldiers in the battle lose their fighting power in an instant, and perfectly achieved the goal.

Plop, plop,

In addition to the people who fell at the beginning, people with slightly weaker strength will also be affected.

In the city of Albana, Mr. 1 Daz Bonis was fighting against Sauron, but as Yamato's domineering color crossed the border, the two couldn't help but knelt on the ground on one knee, and looked in the direction of the palace with shocking faces. .

Usopp outside the city was even foaming at the mouth and passed out. They didn't understand what kind of power this was.

Only a very few well-informed people know what this is.

Such as Crocodile.

"Overbearing. Domineering"

The new world is a special place. Even if the overlord color is born only once in a million people, it is not uncommon in the new world.

According to New World, a person with overlord color is like a crucian carp crossing the river. Crocodile used to be a well-informed person, but he hasn't experienced the impact of overlord color for more than ten years.

"It's wrong for someone like you, Nicole Robin, you're hiding deep enough."

Crocodile originally wanted to ask why someone like Yamato appeared here, but thinking about what Robin said just now, all this is no longer a problem.

"Are the beasts also interested in Pluto?"

Although settled in Alabasta, Crocodile still has some understanding of the situation in the new world, and returning to the new world is one of his goals. For him, before becoming the king of the world, the position of One Piece is A nice pedal.

It is no secret that Kaido loves war. In Crocodile's view, he will not let go of this kind of war weapon.

It's a pity that he doesn't know that Pluto is always under the feet of beasts. If he knew this, his mentality might explode on the spot.

"We have no interest in that kind of thing. In fact, we just came here to drop in, and I wanted to beat you up many years ago. My friend is not something you can threaten."

Yamato's words made Crocodile confused. He could understand every word, but when they were connected together, he didn't understand what Yamato wanted to express.

Before he could say anything, a soldier who retained consciousness staggered in.

"It's no good, Your Majesty, the latest news from the front line, 200,000 rebels and our defenders are all unconscious due to unknown forces."

Three shifts, four shifts tomorrow, a little tired

Chapter 919 What kind of king did you just say you want to be?

When the overlord color is released, it will release powerful coercion around the releaser himself. If it is weaker than the releaser too much, he will be stunned and lose consciousness. It has always been an excellent skill of Qing Xiaobing.

Especially after the version update, the appearance of Overlord Color Coil has almost become the top match for the strong.

When the Overlord Color is awakened for the first time, the Overlord Color will cause indiscriminate attacks on all creatures around it, but as the Overlord Color is used proficiently, it can be released against a certain person or a few people in the crowd.

Yamato's domineering color has long been very proficient, but in the face of tens of thousands of royal troops and rebel troops, she really doesn't know how to distinguish between enemy and friend.

Therefore, a certain area around them is regarded as a "no-injury circle", which is only to deter outsiders.

The Royal Army, who was on the high ground observing the surrounding battle situation, was less affected, so they were still able to report the situation.

Hundreds of thousands of people fainted, this is a weird situation that they never thought of.

Of course, the situation here is even more shocking to the guards than outside. Even though Crocodile has been planning for several years, Cobra still has a certain amount of popular support, and the guards in the royal city still believe in their king.

The chaotic situation here now made him not know what to do, and he stood on the square in a daze for a while.

However, his mission has been completed, and the battle situation he brought is enough for the people here to understand what happened outside.

"How about it, His Majesty Cobra, Princess Weiwei, is this result okay? They will be in a coma for a long time at least, this period of time should be enough for you to arrange follow-up matters, isn't the 1.381 billion worth spending? ?"

"value."

War is a waste of time and money, let alone this kind of civil strife in the kingdom. In addition to the casualties on both sides, there will be big problems in the development of the kingdom's economy after that. It can be handled so happily by spending more than a billion yuan. It can be said that they still saved a lot of money.

What's more, this seems to be the fastest way to stop the war. Both the rebel army and the royal army have undercover agents from the Baroque Work Agency. It is very difficult to stop them. Now that both sides have passed out, naturally there is no need to fight.

Of course, for Cobra, the most important thing is to save the citizens from casualties.

"Our rule is to charge money to do things. If you don't mind, can you take me to read the historical text? Yamato, please deal with it here. It depends on your mood how you want to deal with it."

Yamato is not interested in complicated history, and accordingly, Robin is not very interested in fighting. Leaving Yamato to deal with Crocodile, she and Cobra study the text of history is the most time-saving way.

Yamato gestured at Robin to indicate that there was no problem. It seemed that he planned to follow the previous opinions and ask other questions after the matter was over.

"Well, I have no objection, but the current situation...isn't it appropriate?"

Cobra didn't intend to breach the contract. His original plan was to drag Crocodile to die together, and use the mechanism located in the underground temple to bury him forever underground in Alabasta.

If he gets Alabasta, then the people here will never have peace, this is the last thing he can do as a king.

As a royal family that has been passed down for thousands of years, it is strange that there is no mechanism in the place where the secrets are kept.

But the situation has changed now. This group of people has no interest in Alabasta, and the force they have shown far exceeds that of Crocodile.

The secret of the historical text has been exposed. At that point, the historical text cannot be preserved, and Alabasta will have to go through another devastation. It is better to take this opportunity to solve this problem quickly.

At the next World Conference, he can also discuss some issues about the Shichibukai's persecution of the kings of the allied countries, and the navy's ineffectiveness.

Crocodile was very displeased with Robin's tone of ignoring himself and treating himself as a cargo. When she watched her plan to release Cobra, the yellow sand also flew up.

"I said, don't pretend that I don't exist! Desert Sword!"

Crocodile's right arm turned into yellow sand and lifted upwards. Countless sand and gravel gathered together and flowed at high speed, giving his desert sword a strong cutting ability. NovelusB.Com

The ground of the palace was split in half by Sand Ren, and Sand Ren also rushed towards Robin with undiminished power.

"Thunder gossip!"

Boom!

Robin and Cobra were unharmed, but Crocodile was thrown out by Yamato with a stick, turning into a pool of loose sand on the wall.

"So weak, I said, are you really Shichibukai? Both Jinbe and Hancock are much stronger than you."

Whether it is Shiping or Hancock, they both have a certain relationship with the beasts, and this has led to the fate that they cannot escape the fate of fighting. In the battle with them, Yamato has a different view on the strength of Qi Wuhai. Approximate cognitive range.

Then in the battle with Hawkeye, she confirmed that there was no problem with her cognition, but Crocodile's performance made her wonder if there was something wrong with Shichibukai's composition.

"Ahem. You bastard"

Crocodile, who was beaten into a pool of loose sand, re-condensed into shape, but the blood had already stained most of his face red, looking very hideous.

"How. How is it possible? Just one hit"

Weiwei opened her mouth wide, she couldn't believe what was happening before her eyes. She spent a lot of time dealing with Crocodile, but there was still nothing she could do.

The previous Crocodile showed his arrogance to the extreme, but now he was beaten like this with just one blow. In fact, Wei Wei didn't know that this was just a tentative attack, and the Yamato in human form was useless at all. How much strength.

"Ah? Why are you still here, hurry up and get out of here with Robin, and be careful of accidental injury later."

"Hey, even if you are a pirate in the new world, show me some respect. When I was sailing, you were still a baby! Heavy Shalan!"

The yellow sand was flying all over the sky, and the huge yellow sand tornado gradually enveloped the entire palace. Even the yellow sand outside was attracted by this place and gathered towards the palace.

"I will find Pluto and become the king of the world. It's just a woman. Why should a woman stop me?"

Boom!

Before Crocodile finished speaking, Yamato broke through the sand he created and gave him another head-on blow.

Looking at Crocodile with white eyes, Yamato patted his ears and shook the sand out.

"The wind is a bit strong, you just said, what kind of king are you going to be?"

Chapter 920 Crocodile, you are the worst class I have ever taught

When you shout in front of Kaido that you want to become king, there is a certain chance that Kaido will trigger his passive, and most people will be knocked down with a stick, and then accept the questioning of the other party.

【What kind of king do you want to be? 】

If you can continue to answer, it means that Kaido's "teaching activities" have been successful, if you can't answer, it means failure.

As Kaido's daughter, Yamato somehow inherited this talent and let Crocodile trigger this passive.

The domineering Ajan VII made Crocodile experience pain again.

Domineering can touch natural-type entities, but it will not seal the opponent's abilities. After the attack is over, the body of the natural-type capable person can still transform into an elemental form.

Crocodile was like a slime in Yamato's hands because of his natural ability, and the impact of the two beatings made his internal organs tumbling.

"Hey, get up quickly, I kept my hand, if you lose consciousness like this, then I really have to re-evaluate Qi Wuhai's strength, Rotom, help me record it, make it better."

There are more than one reasons for beating Crocodile, one of the reasons was the words a few years ago, and Yamato's goal is to go back to Onijima.

The Four Emperors, the Navy, and the Qiwu Sea are the three major powers known as the Great Route. She has often had conflicts with the Navy before, but these navies are all mixed soldiers from the East China Sea and have no reference value.

But Qibukai is different, knocking over a Qiwukai, at least it can show that he has not completely fished, and he can deal with Kaido when he goes back.

But there is a prerequisite for all this, Crocodile must not be too weak, otherwise it will be the same as the navy in the East China Sea, and it will be of no value.

"You will regret this!"

Bass!

The golden hook of his left hand got stuck on Yamato's ankle. Seeing the child's tricks, Yamato lost interest in Crocodile.

"Tch, I thought you were some kind of powerful guy, but it turned out to be such a method that can't stand on the stage. I shouldn't make you stupid."

She doesn't discriminate against Crocodile's use of this hook as a weapon. According to Kaido's teaching, whether it's teeth or nails, biting or scratching in battle, it's all part of the battle.

But the premise is that this attack is useful. She thinks that she has shown her strength with the two sticks just now, but Crocodile still uses this ineffective method to attack her.

It looked like there was poison on it, but as the king Qiwuhai, he used such a despicable and ineffective method to attack her, which made her suspect that this person had long forgotten what power is.

In fact, in terms of Yamato's strength, even if she doesn't defend and let Crocodile's toxins enter her body, those toxins may not be the opponent of her immune system. NovelusB.Com

"I heard that you have also ventured into the New World before, but in the end you don't even know how to do things like domineering? If that's the case, that old man won't approve of it."

"That princess, and that king, what do you want to do with him?"

“.”

Even if the facts were right in front of them, Weiwei and Cobra couldn't believe the fact that Crocodile, which had been a disaster in Alabasta for several years, was actually knocked down by someone and played like a toy.

Yamato's words came to his ears, and Crocodile's mind began to flash various pictures like a revolving lantern.

The battle with Barrett when he was young, Roger's high spirits as a spectator when he was executed, the complacency when the era of great pirates began, and then the horror experienced when he challenged Whitebeard, and Ivankov's annoying face.

Placing his right hand on the ground, Crocodile used a new move in anger, as if returning to the light.

"Erosion of reincarnation!"

As a natural type of sand fruit, Crocodile can turn any part of his body into sand, and his other ability is to absorb water.

His right hand can absorb the moisture of everything it touches, wood will wither, rocks will turn into sand, and people will become dry.

As the character of Shichibukai who appeared in the early stage, Crocodile can be said to be well-known at 50-50. He can fight with Barrett, bump into Whitebeard, and be blasted by the Flying Hammer at the bottom.

But among Qiwuhai, he is definitely the most ambitious one.

Yamato's tone of examining the goods, mocking his strength, and contemptuous of his own attitude are mercilessly whipping him to death.

He couldn't accept it, years of planning failed because of a woman who didn't know why she appeared here.

Domineering is a familiar and distant thing to him. He is obviously not a good student, and he has not recovered what he lost in battle like his predecessor, Golden Lion.

Even the legendary "Awakening Stick" couldn't directly wake him up, but he still made plans to kill him.

His current goal is the entire palace!

"Guhahaha. Die!"

The grass around his palm quickly withered, the ground cracked at a speed visible to the naked eye, and the walls of the palace also showed signs of collapse. Due to the geographical environment, the palace of Alabasta was built on a high ground.

Crocodile wants to collapse this place directly, and then bury everything completely. According to Cobra, the text of the history should be in the palace. As long as everything is turned into yellow sand, he can search for it slowly.

"It's useless, even if your domineering color can stun most people, it is impossible to stop the bomb, everything will be destroyed, on the yellow sand, only I am the master!"

Crocodile just wanted to increase his ability to completely erode and corrode this place, but he suddenly discovered that his erosion cycle had failed.

The ground became extremely cold, and the sharp ice layer had frozen his palm and began to spread upwards. Although he managed to break free, a large piece of flesh and blood remained on the ground.

He can absorb moisture in objects, but Yamato blocked his ability with his own ice, and the transformed Kyurem and the power of Daguchi created a protective film on the ground.

Before Crocodile absorbed the water, the extreme cold froze the blood in his palm. If he didn't break free, he would turn into an ice sculpture before he absorbed the water.

"You seem to have misunderstood something. I'm asking the employer how to solve you. It's not that I can't solve you. Thunder gossip!",

This time, Yamato didn't keep his hand, and made Crocodile lose consciousness cleanly, and then picked up his own Rotom.

"Moxi, Moxi, Ur-chan, Xiao Pei, please stop playing.

Work hard, bring down all the people who are still standing nearby, and then look for things like cannons or bombs. "
