

Arceus 931

Chapter 931 Ability users are at sea, so don't be too arrogant

Lu Qi quickly assigned tasks. As the strongest of CP9, he is also the actual leader of this team, and the orders he issued are far more effective than Spandam.

His strength is obvious to all, and other members are also willing to follow his arrangements, as for Spandam.

If it weren't for his good reincarnation skills, he would never even think about joining the secret service organization in this life, let alone being the leader of CP9.

Under Lu Qi's arrangement, Kaku started a feint attack, and Bruno also opened the air door and got into the space of the door to wait for an opportunity.

There is nothing wrong with such an arrangement. In the face of an unknown giant beast and a person who is suspected to be able to control this giant beast, he must first solve the controller first, but he has some problems in estimating the strength of the enemy.

If it wasn't for saving people, Tiger would have more ways to deal with this matter.

"Speaking of which, I don't want to fight with you, it's just that I have to take some people away, how about you leave voluntarily?"

"This is the sea train used by the world government to * prisoners. Your actions are provoking the world government and disrupting the order of this world. You should be the one who should be arrested."

"It looks like the negotiation broke down."

Then Tiger threw a punch out of nowhere under the Gator, just as Bruno just opened an air door there.

As the ability user of the door fruit, Bruno can open the door anywhere. After opening the door in the air, there will be a unique space behind the door for him to hide.

Whether it is a sneak attack or a transfer, this is a very convenient ability. Lu Qi and Kaku talked to Tiger before, and they also wanted to give Bruno a better chance.

It's just that Bruno's attack has already been perceived by Tiger's knowledge.

This is not predicting the future. Looking at the entire sea, there are only a handful of people who can predict the future, but the essence of knowledge is to predict the next attack.

Ordinary knowledge and knowledge can actually be counted as predicting the future, but it is not as detailed as the knowledge and knowledge that predicts the future, and the time is not as long.

"The ability of the space system? It's quite troublesome."

Bruno's ability made Tiger feel tricky, and he also regarded him as an enemy to be defeated first.

In order not to expose his original identity, before he acted, he completed his transformation in a place where no one noticed, and directly entered the almighty form.

Blindly forbearance cannot change the status quo. This is the truth that Tiger has long understood. He gave the other party a chance before, but no one chose to leave.

So when attacking, he didn't hold back his hand.

Bruno, who jumped out of the air door, wanted to harass the crocodile, but Tiger perceived his actions.

The murloc karate air-strike technique was effective at this moment. Bruno felt his chest was hit by a sledgehammer, and a lot of blood flowed from the corner of his mouth.

He wanted to open the door from behind to temporarily leave the battlefield, but the crocodile didn't give him a chance. Before the air door opened, the crocodile's claws had already swung at him.

"Iron Block Steel!"

Tiger's blow just now made it difficult for him to move. Before his ability was used, he had no choice but to try to carry it with an iron block. He might not be able to carry it with an iron block, but he would definitely not be able to carry it without an iron block.

Even if he gathered all the strength in his body, he looked very small in the face of the attack of the crocodile. The body of the iron block was cut open by the sharp claws, and the white bones were exposed from the wound. It was all thanks to him that he was not caught into several pieces at once. of iron.

CP9's strength at this time can be temporarily evaluated by power. The power of a naval soldier holding a weapon is 10, while the power of the lion is 810.

In the battle on Judiciary Island in the original timeline, Chopper, who ate three Rumble Balls and entered the monster state, knocked out Nugget with his palm.

But the strength of the giant crocodile is much stronger than the Chopper who lost consciousness and entered the monster form.

Bruno who was hit was like a cannonball, and immediately flew backwards, smashing through several train carriages before finally stopping.

"Bruno!"

Looking at Bruno who flew upside down, Kaku anxiously called his name, but didn't check his situation. The battle wasn't over yet, and if the guys in front of him were not dealt with, it would only cause more trouble.

Although Lu Qi didn't speak, his brows were also frowned, and his body swelled into a panther-man state.

"Uncle Tom, you and the crocodile go to rescue your disciple, Xiaoba and the others will assist you underwater, just leave it to me here.

The gods of water are coming soon, we have to save people before the tsunami arrives. "

Tiger didn't care about Bruno who was beaten into the air. If the crocodile couldn't even deal with such a person, it would be despised by its "brothers and sisters".

Listening to Tiger's order, the crocodile planned to take Tom to continue searching the carriage, but Kaku did not give up resistance, and still carried out the task assigned to him by Lu Qi, trying to harass the crocodile.

"I said, this little brother with a square nose, I advise you not to intervene, otherwise you will die if you don't make it right."

The hazy foot proposed by Kaku was crushed by Tiger in his hand, and at the same time his fist also hit Kaku's neck. Seeing that Tiger had made a move, the crocodile didn't have any intention of answering Kaku, and handed over his back with confidence. Give it to Tiger, and then swim towards the rear compartment.

It was also at this time that Lu Qi's figure also disappeared in place.

"Six Types of Mysteries, Six King Spears!"

Without too much probing, Lu Qi used his strongest move as soon as he made a move. This is a skill he comprehended after he mastered the six moves and practiced them to the extreme.

is also his most powerful move. Tiger's performance gave Lu Qi a sense of crisis. His instinct told him that this enemy should not be given any chance.

Lucci came to Tiger's side with the combined skill of Shave and Moon Step, and swung his fists with both hands at the same time. The strength of his body was condensed between his fists, and he hit Tiger in the form of an impact.

Boom!

A puff of white smoke came out of Tiger's body, and Rob Lucci's Six Kings Spear hit the bull's-eye. It was only a layer of black domineering that completely isolated the power of Lu Qi's Six Kings Spear.

"It hurts a bit, and the strength is good, but it's not a good thing for a capable person to show off in the sea."

The Six Kings Spear has a strong penetrating power, but the pain is graded. Even being bitten by a mosquito can be called pain. Tiger's feeling is not so exaggerated, but Lu Qi's Six Kings Spear can't cause any effective effect. harm.

Subsequently, several water rings gradually condensed on Tiger's arm. As the water ring began to rotate, the sea water below began to gather towards Tiger's arm as if it had been guided.

"Murloc Karate·Water Ring Punch!"

Chapter 932 The Fallen Genius

Water flow ring, a relatively rare recovery skill, but it has nothing to do with Tiger's water flow ring.

Shui Liu·Huan Chong Fist is the punctuation of his moves. The water ring around his arm is actually the technique of Shuiliu Tail, but instead of using his tail, he used his arms to attack.

The effect of water diversion is stronger than that of murloc karate, it can manipulate the seawater below out of thin air without physical contact.

The water of water-type Pokémon can be divided into two types, one is the water transformed from the energy in the body, and the other is the water from the outside world. There is no essential difference between the two, but the latter has a great influence on the ability. .

Unless this person's ability comes from Arceus, he will not be able to escape the disgust of the sea after all.

Under the influence of PYROBROIN particles, although the ability user whose whole body is soaked in seawater will not lose his ability, his whole body will fall into a state of weakness.

Fruit ability can bring a considerable increase to a person's combat power, but in Tiger's eyes, Lu Qi's ability is just a debuff.

Regardless of whether he has the leopard form or not, Tiger's physique is stronger than him. Although he is proficient in the Six Forms, there is still a certain gap between the Six Forms and Domineering.

Iron block and paper painting are more like simplified versions of armed color and knowledge color. The difficulty of practice is relatively low, and the strength is slightly weakened, but it allows more people to master this skill.

Even if Lu Qi is a member who can master the awakening within two years and become a member of CPO, that is something in the future.

With the help of the great officer Spandam, Lu Qi's growth has been delayed for several years. He may be a genius, but a genius who has not really grown up is nothing.

Looking at the water jet hitting him, Lu Qi just wanted to dodge, but his figure suddenly tilted. The muscles of his left leg were sunken out of thin air, and his whole body lost its balance.

Kaku on the side also had the same result. Although he was not in the direction of Tiger's punching, his body still had a depression out of thin air.

Tiger's punch is a combination of the mutant water flow tail and murloc karate. In addition to the water flow, it also has the unique strike method of murloc karate.

Lu Qi and Kaku both had a lot of water in their bodies, and they were attracted by the water blasted by Tiger. Facing Tiger's sophisticated blow, they couldn't make an effective defense at all.

The moment their bodies lost their balance, they were swept in by the sea water induced by Tiger.

In the dim sea current, Kaku endured the pain and tried his best to catch Lu Qi before he sank to the bottom. No matter how powerful they are, when they fall into the sea, there is nothing they can do. , can only rely on the rescue of companions.

The official members of CP9 also have their fetters. In the original timeline, a group of people also raised medical expenses for Lu Qi through performing arts.

That's why Kaku took the risk to bring Lu Qi up again in this weather.

"Lu Qi, that murloc has a problem."

Pushing Lu Qi onto the track of the sea train, he also climbed up with great effort, his body returned to normal after swelling several times, and temporarily contained the injuries in his body by returning his life.

"I know, go to Khalifa's compartment, these guys are targeting Franky, these guys must not let him take him away."

Lucci thought of what happened a few years ago, almost at the same location, the sea train escorting Tom was attacked by the murlocs, and then Tom disappeared.

Today, also on the sea train, also attacked by the murlocs, Lu Qi instinctively connected these two things together, and confirmed his own judgment - the design of Pluto must be on Franky.

He thinks that those murlocs rescued Tom probably because of Pluto. After so many years, maybe their preparation work has ended, and there is only a blueprint for the construction of Pluto, so they returned to the capital of seven waters to look for Franky.

Otherwise, it is impossible to explain the appearance of these murlocs. The arrest of Franky was their temporary action, so no matter how you think about it, it should not be exposed.

"Use Bruno's ability to transfer him to a safe place. If it doesn't work, kill him. The power of ancient weapons must not fall into the hands of outsiders."

Lu Qi got up and wanted to go to the rear compartment, but a big hand pressed his shoulder.

"Unfortunately, you made the wrong choice."

Tiger's thinking has changed, but he still rarely kills people. If Kaku and Lu Qi leave, he will not pursue and kill them.

But CP9 are all loyal dogs of the world government. Under the brainwashing work of the world government since childhood, the world government is their only "master".

Even if the world government had plans to kill them, after the world government changed their minds, they would still choose to accept recruitment and rejoin the CP team.

Tiger has observed the strength of the * team. Except for Lu Qi and Kaku, the others are not a threat at all. Tom is not very good at force, but as a senior shipbuilder, his own strength is amazing, and he can easily lift A medium-sized pirate ship.NOVELUSB.COM

With the assistance of the crocodile, they are enough to complete the rescue work, so Tiger did not leave immediately after defeating Lu Qi and Kaku, but planned to see their follow-up actions before making a decision.

"What!. Gululu."

Lu Qi and Kaku didn't notice how Tiger was approaching at all, and before they could speak, the tsunami that came with Tiger swept them into the deep sea.

Tiger adopted a similar tactic to Jack at this time - sinking to the bottom.

For the murlocs, the deep sea is the best battlefield, and a body that can breathe underwater has a unique advantage.

The sea water choked their lungs and drowned out their voices

Wave treading is a skill that almost all water-type Pokémon can master. There are only a handful of water-type Pokémon that cannot learn to tread waves. Compared with the naturally occurring waves before, the waves controlled by Tiger are more threatening. The power in the tide Hit all of Kaku and Lu Qi's bodies.

At the same time, Tiger's strange power was also destroying their bodies.

In the ocean, Lu Qi had already lost the strength to resist, and Kaku had no chance to resist.

With the physique of the murlocs and the boost of Dolphin Man's almighty form, Tiger simply broke their cervical vertebrae.

Tiger has no interest in torturing people, even if it is killed, it will not cause the enemy much pain.

Tens of seconds later, Tiger reappeared on the surface of the sea, and the dead bodies of Kaku and Lu Qi were rushed to the unknown sea by the raging waves.

At this point, Rob Lucci, known as the most talented CP9 in the past 800 years, died in his own mission, preventing him from receiving the bonus of the version buff, inexplicably awakening and lowering the possibility of the Four Emperors being forced.

At the same time, Tom and the alligator also found the carriage where Franky was escorted, but it has already become a mess here.

Chapter 933 CP9 suffered heavy losses, red hair questioned

Bruno was lying on the ground unconsciously at this time. The crocodile's slap hit him directly to the last compartment. When he was unconscious, CP9 did not immediately transfer Franky.

And Frankie also took advantage of the chaos to break free from the chains that bound him. In terms of normal human body structure, this chain is impossible to break free, but Franky is a reformed person, and his hands have undergone mechanical transformation.

Thanks to the transformation, Franky freed his hands and started fighting with Kalifa.

After all the powerful people were lured away by Crocodile and Tiger, the remaining Kalifa and Nero, who hadn't even learned all six moves, would have to work hard to deal with Franky.

"Come on, bastard, come and experience Ben's super explosion!"

Frankie's * has swelled up at this time, and he looks like he is going to die together.

In the previous battle, the stench released by Nero made Franky's iron nose almost fall off. Although the semi-finished fruit bought by Spandam had a lot of side effects, the skunk's ability was preserved.

Frankie managed to find an opportunity to temporarily scare Khalifa and Nero away by self-destructing.

But he didn't really blow himself up, he didn't have this ability himself, but took out a notebook from the interlayer in his stomach.

"I'm lying to you! Frankie. Super Flame!"

The paper manuscript full of age was reduced to ashes under the flames, and Frankie also showed a relaxed expression on his face.

"This is something passed down from generation to generation by the shipbuilders of the capital of seven waters. This is never a blueprint for a weapon, but something that is entrusted to the future.

It is to create something to resist when ancient weapons fall into the hands of people like you.

But rather than let it fall into your hands, let it be completely destroyed! "

"Asshole, what we've worked on all these years"

Franky's words are very clear, that book is the blueprint they want to search for, but now, everything is gone

"Hahaha, get angry, but it's useless, so next"

Thorn it!

The roof of the carriage was not lifted, and the crocodile found its target. Under Tom's instructions, he grabbed Franky and left here without saying a word, and the giant tsunami also hit at this time.

This is not Tiger's handwriting, but the gods of water have come.

The paralyzed sea train was crumbling under the baptism of the water gods. Under the tide, no one cared about other things, so they could only try their best to protect themselves, with the exception of the murlocs, who had successfully left here with the help of the crocodile.

"Mr. Tom! Great, you are still alive!"

"Gang!"

On the island near the capital of seven waters, frogs, cyborgs, and murlocs huddled together, and the eyes of Frankie and yokozuna were filled with tears.

Franky, who is proud of being a pervert, cries like a child.

"Okay, Frankie, don't cry. I have secretly seen you and Bingshan these years. You have grown up very well, and you are all good disciples of mine."

"Mr. Tom, where have you been all these years?"

"It doesn't matter, Franky, you have to change your way of life, you should also be on the list of the world government.

Find Bingshan to help you arrange a new identity, or change your identity to live on an island. If it doesn't work, you can go to this island to contact them. They will arrange a suitable job for you. It's okay to bring more people. . "

"Wait, Mr. Tom, let me continue to follow you. My technology has gotten better now. I'll go back to the capital of seven waters to deal with some things first."

"Frankie, this is too dangerous, and this position is not suitable for you. Just do as I say, and we will meet again when you settle down."

Tom didn't choose to take Franky away. He is a murloc himself, and they can move around with Tiger at will. It's not convenient for Franky to follow them.

And Tom knew what he was doing, he didn't want Franky to get involved completely, but just left him a business card as a way out for him.

After Tom and Frankie said goodbye, they dived into the deep sea and left here, while Frankie secretly returned to the capital of seven waters. He also had the younger brothers of Frankie's house to arrange, and he didn't intend to just leave like this Let it go.

A day later, in Judicial Island.

Spandam was being scolded, and Spandain, who was on the opposite side of the phone bug, was very angry, and said all the words that could be cursed except relatives.

"Trash! How can you have such a trash son! Rob Lucci and Kaku are dead?! Trash!"

The two of them were not the only ones who died. Nero, who was in reserve, also died among the gods of water. Only Kalifa and Bruno survived from CP9 performing missions in the capital of seven waters.novelusb.COM

But they couldn't tell exactly who attacked the sea train. Bruno was slapped unconscious before he even saw the face of the person opposite, and Kalifa only saw the "unknown sea king".

In addition, another team also had an accident during the mission.

Otono Owl, Gabra, and Xiongshi Nugget did not participate in the undercover work in the capital of seven waters, but participated in the plan to assassinate the head of the Revolutionary Army branch.

Originally their mission was to assassinate three people, but Otonashi Owl accidentally told others about the plan because of his big mouth. In order to complete the plan, they killed 23 people.

Although the mission was successful, the impact it caused was very bad. In addition to the death of the talented member, Spandam, as the supreme officer, could not be blamed for his position, so he had to go to his father to clear the relationship.

"Father, the result."

"The result? Your position is preserved. Now the world government is busy with other things, and has no time to care about such trivial matters."

Holy Land, Mary Gioia, a rushing voice resounded in the empty hall.

"Five old stars! Five old stars!"

"What's wrong?"

"The fleet heading to the New World was defeated a few days ago, and the Four Emperors, the red-haired Shanks and the white-bearded Edward Newgate, came into direct contact!"

"What?"

It doesn't matter if the emperors of the sea fight, they sit down and talk is something the world government doesn't want to see, especially if this kind of thing has happened once before.

"First Kaido and red hair, now red hair and white beard, what are these guys trying to do?"

"Think about it carefully, that Kaido guy doesn't seem to have done anything that has too much impact recently?"

"Defeating the two branches of the East China Sea and defeating a king Qiwuhai, isn't this impact big enough?"

"His daughter can't represent him, maybe it's the rebellious period?"

The five old stars discussed with each other about the meeting of the four emperors, and finally came to a strange conclusion.

"Is there a possibility that it wasn't Kaido who contacted Redhead last time, but Redhead took the initiative to contact Kaido?"

Chapter 934 The hub of the runaway era, the sharp blade that cuts to Blackbeard

Red-haired Shanks, the most special one among the four emperors today.

He is not only the youngest of the Four Emperors, but also a trainee of Roger, and also has the privilege of communicating with the Five Old Stars.

【He is not someone who shakes the balance of the world because of his own desires】

This is the evaluation of Shanks by the five old stars before, but now, they are beginning to doubt whether there is a problem with this judgment.

The meeting between Red Hair and Kaido made them feel that something was wrong.

When they questioned what the redhead and Kaido were talking about, he actually said that Kaido went to drink with him specially.

The five old stars don't believe this kind of reason at all, and feel that Shanks is just perfunctory them. If it's just drinking, Kaido doesn't need to go this way at all, and if Shanks doesn't want to, can Kaido force him to drink? ?NovEluSb.com

From then on, Wu Laoxing felt that Shanks might be hiding something.

Red Hair doesn't look like a vicious pirate, but it is for his own power. In order to protect the pirates under his command, he will also destroy the enemy with one blow. Kidd in the original timeline has a deep understanding of this.

As for Kaido, this guy looks like a reckless man. In fact, he is a ghost. The five old stars also don't think that Kaido will ask the red hair to do something meaningless like drinking. If it is a fight, they will be willing to believe a little.

"So what he showed us before was all illusions?"

"Probably not, if it's all fake, there's no need for the redhead to expose herself like this, it's just that this guy's purpose is confusing.

It was also Red Hair who destroyed that fleet, and his strength seems to have become stronger. "

"Don't forget, Kaido, Whitebeard, and Big Mom are all Lockes' remnants, but the redhead is an outsider. If Kaido has something big to do, he should go to Big Mom."

Kaido's inexplicable actions completely disrupted the thinking of the five old stars. In their view, Kaido is not a person who can't use his brain.

Otherwise, they wouldn't be doing business with the World Government, but the problem is that they can't figure out Kaido's brain circuits, which leads to more and more deviations in the direction of the discussion.

"At least they haven't taken any further action. Let's observe first. If the status quo can be maintained, it seems to be a better result?"

"I hope so. Having said that, according to the report from CP9, Rob Lucci died during the mission, and the design drawings were also destroyed."

The blond Wu Laoxing seemed to remember something, and mentioned Rob Lucci's name in front of the other four.

"It's a pity, but if you die, you will die. Compared with the current situation, this loss is nothing. You all know where Pluto is, and the design has no effect."

"That is, instead of talking about this, why not think about that Blackbeard's proposal? Are you really going to let this guy fill Shichibukai's position?"

The five old stars with a knife knocked on the ground with a knife, and skipped the matter of Rob Lucci. Dead people have no value to them.

Shichibukai was originally an organization established for balance, and Crocodile's defeat was not good news for them.

Blackbeard, who took the initiative to seek the position of Qiwuhai, is even more unusual in their eyes.

"He has a grudge against Whitebeard, if he can prove his strength, then it's not impossible."

"That's it, remember to send a new surveillance ship, it's best to find out the content of the meeting between the red hair and the white beard."

The conversation of five people determines the future direction of the world, and on the sea, the conversation of two people also has a huge impact on the future.

The meeting of the red-haired and the white-bearded made soldiers in several naval bases stand ready.

"I heard that the fleet was defeated, is it true?"

"It's true, that redhead and white beard are about to touch."

"Attention!"

The general's yelling interrupted the whispering of the soldiers, and a general was lecturing the soldiers under his command.

"Listen well, everyone, we don't know what will happen next. The highest level of alert is for all staff. Once any special circumstances arise, we will appear on the front line! For the justice of the navy!"
"yes!"

At the same time, at the junction of the territories of Red Hair and White Beard, the Moby Dick has already furled its sails, and the Red Forth has also made the same action.

Crack, crack, crack.

The people on Whitebeard's ship fell one by one, and the unsteady pirates couldn't hold on to Shanks' overbearing look. Under the scolding of Marco and others, those who thought they were not strong enough had already left the deck. Hide back inside the cabin.

Following the sound of footsteps, Shanks came to Whitebeard.

"Gu la la la, the kid on Roger's boat has grown up. Where is the red nose with you? Is it dead?"

"Bucky? I heard that he is still a pirate. We separated after Captain Roger died, but White Beard, I'm not here to catch up with you.

I've been through countless battles, and I've been wounded countless times, but this scar is the only one that always makes me ache. "

Pointing to the scar on his face, Shanks raised his black beard.

"That guy has been forbearing, not seeking fame, not seeking the position of captain, he is waiting for the opportunity, and he will not start until he gains strength. Sooner or later, he will aim at your position."

"Then what do you want me to do?"

"Stop Ace from getting near Blackbeard."

"Gu la la la, the runny-nosed brat has become eloquent and started to teach me how to do things"

"The times are turbulent, Whitebeard, you will die one day when you are old, but others are still young, such as Kaido, that guy is full of wars, although he hasn't made any big moves in these years, he has been accumulating strength.

Waiting for him to launch the war machine of beasts and lose your Whitebeard Pirates, is there any way to resist him? ! "

Lack of a person who can carry the banner after Whitebeard, this is the dilemma faced by the Whitebeard Pirates.

In other words, only the Red Hair Pirates and the Beasts Pirates still have people who can carry the banner after losing their captains.

Katakuri and Marko are still a little behind.

The red-haired words reached Whitebeard's heart, but Whitebeard would not accept these words face to face.

The sky seemed to be affected by the two of them. As the conversation between the two gradually reached a stalemate, the sky became darker, and the thick clouds gathered together, covering the originally bright sunshine.

"I'm getting old, but I'm a white beard!"

Cong Yunqie waved it in Whitebeard's hand, and he wanted to use force to prove that he was still the same Whitebeard back then.

Under the potion treatment of Beast Fruit, White Beard still maintains a relatively healthy state, the big sword is danced vigorously, and his domineering color is also wrapped around the blade.

Did not use the power of the shaking fruit, Whitebeard simply relied on domineering and brute force, and swung a knife at Shanks.

Clang!

Griffin was unsheathed, and the equally powerful, or even stronger Overlord Color wrapped around Griffin, blocking Whitebeard's slash from bottom to top.

The sky became the victim of the overlord color collision, and the thick clouds dispersed under the impact of momentum, leaving a deep gully in the sea of clouds just like Moses divided the sea.

Shanks understood that Whitebeard did not listen to his words after all, and the turmoil of the times has become an unstoppable thing.

During the time when the navy was vigilant, neither the white beard nor the red hair did anything radical.

Instead, the Navy Headquarters received orders from the World Government, and finally formed a team headed by Gion, supplemented by Huoshaoshan and Stolberg.

Three lieutenant generals and three warships formed a small fleet, advancing towards the destination given by the world government. They were going to receive a crucial prisoner.

A few days later, a group of Blackbeard Pirates waited for the arrival of the navy on a deserted pier. The island was once prosperous, but under the ravages of the era of great pirates, it has long since become dilapidated.

Except for Blackbeard and others, the island can be said to be empty.

To be precise, in addition to them, there was an extra Ace. The Burning Fruit lost to the Dark Fruit in the end, and Ace became a bargaining chip in the hands of Blackbeard.

"Thief hahaha, Captain Ace, the navy will be here soon, if you repent now, you may still have a chance, are you really not going to be my partner?"

When you are handed over to the navy, you will have no chance to regret it. "

"Oh, Tiki, you're dreaming."

"Human beings have a future because they have dreams, but Captain Ace, I'm afraid you won't be able to see this future. Badgers, look after Captain Ace. It's not easy to get this pair of sea stone handcuffs. If you let him it will be troublesome to pick the lock."

At this time, a figure burning with flames crossed the sky.

Jhin's pupils are reflecting the figures of Blackbeard and others.

"Finally let me find you."

Following the trail of Blackbeard, Jhin chased him all the way, and only two days ago he found a town that had been smoothed by the dark fruit. Through probing the townspeople, he finally locked the location of Blackbeard.

The black beard standing below only felt a shadow flashing from above, and then a deadly sense of crisis rose in his heart.

Boom!

The pier was shattered, and the slash from the sky split the pier in two, leaving a terrifying trace on the shore.

Looking at the seawater pouring into the cut mark, Blackbeard felt a little afraid in his heart, if he was cut on his body by this blow.

"who is it!"

As soon as the voice fell, Jhin's figure had already landed in front of him. The tall figure brought a strong sense of oppression, and the flames behind him were burning like a ghost from hell.

"Flame Disaster. Ember."

Blackbeard swallowed his saliva, he thought it was the Whitebeard Pirates' support, but he didn't expect it to be the big sign of Beasts.

"Blackbeard, Marshall D. Teach."

"Thief hahaha, it's really an honor for someone like you to know my name, I shouldn't have offended you, right?"

"No, but my subordinate has been taken care of by you, and I am here for her, to pay the debt!"

Chapter 935 Jhin of Debt Collection, False Burning Fruit

"Are you kidding? Is it because of this reason?"

Blackbeard still vividly remembers the last battle with Drake. Drake's kick was affected by the double pain of the dark fruit. Although he failed to kill him, it made him realize what life is worse than life. die.

In those few days, as long as he thought about this battle, his lower body would ache. More importantly, it had been a long time since this incident.

During this period, the newspapers are what Blackbeard reads the most. Morgans' news cannot be trusted completely, but the major events happening around the world cannot escape his eyes. It is the best way for pirates to understand the world and collect information.

Blackbeard's plan is very complicated. He needs information from various regions in order to decide the next direction.

At the same time, he is also paying attention to the movements of the sea emperors in the new world. The successive meetings between Red Hair, Kaido and White Beard make him excited. Only in turbulent times can he better seize the opportunity.

During this process, he also paid attention to the movements of some cadres. For example, the captain of the Whitebeard Pirates inexplicably appeared in the first half of the great route.

He knew that those people must have come for himself.

Compared to the Whitebeard Pirates, he didn't pay much attention to the movements of the Beasts Pirates.

It is the rule of the Whitebeard Pirates not to hurt their companions. He knows that he has violated the taboo of Whitebeard, so he will stay away from the new world first.

Although there was a fight with Beasts, Drake escaped smoothly. He didn't think that Beasts would come all the way to trouble him for an injured cadre.

Whitebeard's cadre title is Captain, BIG MOM's cadre title is General Star, and Hundred Beasts is Disaster.

Those who established their reputation with terror are not good no matter how they think about it, they shouldn't care so much about their subordinates.

Now it seems that he was wrong. Recalling the situation in the newspaper, I am afraid that not long after that, Jhin started chasing and killing himself.

"Joke? Sorry, I never joke, King Cross!"

Jhin's upper body was slightly lowered, and the wings behind his back were wrapped in white light, and then he drew a cross-shaped slash forward. After the slash was formed, the blade in Jhin's hand stabbed forward, and the light of the blade and the slash formed a huge cross. The tip of the gun rushed towards the black beard in front of him.

The glowing wings are the effect of steel wings. For Lunaria, the wings on the back are extra hands. After the steel wings are strengthened, these wings are two sharp blades for Jhin.

With the saber in his hand, a special "Three Swords Style" was born.

"Asshole, are all beasts like this kind of lunatics!"

Seeing the slash flying towards him, Blackbeard trembled in his heart. The huge cross sword energy not only brought him into the attack range, but also other members of the Blackbeard Pirates, including Ace behind him, were also within Jhin's attack range. within.

Blackbeard doesn't believe that, as the current big sign, Jhin, the leader of the three disasters of the Beast Pirates, can't recognize the captain of the second team of the Whitebeard Pirates.

Ace's restrained appearance clearly shows that he has lost his fighting power, and he will definitely not be able to withstand this kind of attack, but in this case, Jhin still chose to attack indiscriminately, not worrying about the consequences of killing Ace at all.

"Dark Water!"

Blackbeard raised his hands horizontally, bursts of black smoke came out of his body, and the strong gravitational force tried to absorb Jhin's slash.

Jhin doesn't care about Ace's life or death, but Blackbeard doesn't. If Ace dies in Jhin's hands, he will have no cards to trade, and the whole plan will collapse completely.

So he had to protect Ace's safety and use the fruit ability to absorb Jhin's attack.

"So, this ability, no wonder it will make Drake overturn."

The explosive power of Ultra Volt Thunderbolt is no worse than his own attack. Seeing Blackbeard's method, Jhin understands how he evaded Drake's attack.

However, Jhin's slash was just a temptation. Seeing Blackbeard trying to absorb his own slash, Jhin was not idle.

Boom! boom! boom! boom!

Four boulders landed around Blackbeard out of thin air, and then squeezed towards his body.

Boom!

"ah!" ηoveUs&.com

A trace of blood flowed from the corner of Blackbeard's mouth, and the impact of the rock blockade had a considerable impact on his body.

Dark fruit does not have the passive elementalization of natural fruits. If you want to absorb attacks, you have to actively respond.

If it hit him before he used the dark water, the severe pain would still make him roll all over the floor.

And if he wants to absorb the attack painlessly, he has to rely on his hands. In the war on the top of the original timeline, because of his arrogance, his hands were controlled by Whitebeard. In the end, he could only use his body to resist the damage of Whitebeard.

If it weren't for the fact that Whitebeard's life was dying at the time, Blackbeard's own vitality was very special, and the passive effect of the dark fruit could not avoid damage, but absorb the impact of the damage, the vibration of Whitebeard might really send him away.

At this time, Blackbeard's hands were absorbing Jhin's slashing blows, and he couldn't make the same reaction as before when facing the boulders from all sides.

The darkness gushing out of the body is counteracting the damage caused by the rock blockade, and the gravity of the darkness is also grinding the boulders made by Jhin little by little, but Jhin's new round of attacks has arrived.

"Emperor Yan!"

The flames soared into the sky, and the rocks blocked the rocks to form a special stove, and Blackbeard was the "prey" on the stove.

"Ah!! It hurts! It hurts!"

Screaming screams spread all over the coast, and even Ace, who was captured by Blackbeard, stared blankly at everything in front of him. It seemed that the damage caused by the flame to Blackbeard was stronger than his own.

Looking at the burning embers behind him again, Ace felt that he had eaten a fake burning fruit.

The rock became scorched black under the burning of the flames, but a deeper darkness emerged from within. When the rock was swallowed by the darkness, Blackbeard had already half-kneeled on the ground, beads of sweat gathered into threads, and fell down unstoppably.

Jhin has a unique research on torture. In addition to the pinching of rocks and burning of flames, there is also the burning torture brought by red-hot rocks. The triple damage plus the doubling of the dark fruit, the pain that Blackbeard experienced is beyond words.

"What? Is this not enough? There is still a lot of time, this is just a little interest."

"Captain Teach!"

Blackbeard's miserable appearance also refreshed his younger brothers' perception of him. Blackbeard has been beaten almost all the way since his debut, but it was the first time he was beaten so badly when he met face to face.

Jhin didn't even give Blackbeard a chance to brag about his abilities, and started to attack violently.

Boom!

A bullet was fired from Van Orka's gun. His sniping skills were excellent, and the bullet shot towards Jhin's exposed pupils.

Hearing the movement of his younger brother making a move, Black Beard was not only not happy, but panicked instead.

"Idiot! Don't shoot, this is not a guy you can provoke!"

Chapter 936 What is the use of this dark fruit? Quinn the Targeted

In the previous ambush of Drake and the battle with Ace, Blackbeard's younger brothers all shot briefly.

This is also something that Blackbeard tacitly agrees to. He values the future of these people, but if these guys want to grow up, there is still a long way to go. They have to let them know how uneven the world is.

But this time was different from before, Jhin showed far more killing intent than usual, and Van Oka didn't seem to notice this.

Blackbeard wanted to stop Van Oka, but it was too late.

In this sea where most people use special-made flintlock rifles, Van Oka has a rare sniper rifle. The quality of the gun is much better than that of ordinary people. Also a tough opponent.

But the premise is that his opponent cannot be a cadre from the new world.

He just has better sniper skills, not as powerful and domineering as * Bu or Beckman.

Facing Ace of the natural department, Van Orka's sniping seemed weak, let alone Jhin of the animal department.

Jhin just closed his eyelids to block the incoming bullet.

Mosquito bites themselves cannot directly harm the human body, but they can make people angry.

In the midsummer night, a cool breeze finally blows, and just fell asleep but was awakened by the sound of mosquitoes. Many people's reaction was to try to slap it to death.

Van Oka, who shot, is such a mosquito to Jhin.

"Speaking of which, you were the one who attacked my subordinates first. In this case, it is reasonable for me to move your subordinates."

"Stop!"

Bass!

Jin didn't ignore what Blackbeard said, he came to seek revenge, and both he and Shaina seemed extreme in certain aspects.

Said to be a subordinate, but sometimes, Jhin has treated Drake like a younger sister.

Borrowing money is an example. Let alone borrowing money, ordinary members will be cautious when seeing Jhin, lest they offend him.

Everything related to Blackbeard this time is the target of his revenge this time.

The sharp blade sliced through the air, and the sniper rifle in Van Orka's hand was split into two along the front sight, and a bloodstain appeared on his face.

"A very fast knife"

Fan Oka uttered the last sentence in his life, and immediately spurted a lot of blood, and his whole body was also divided into two, and fell to the sides.

Blackbeard finally missed, and could only watch Jhin kill Van Oka.

"You bastard, this is the partner I chose with great difficulty!"

What Blackbeard cares about is not the companionship, but the value of Van Oka. This is his plan for the future. In his opinion, after Van Oka grows up, he will definitely be of great help to him.

But now Jhin strangled Van Oka in the cradle in front of his face.

"Are you angry? Don't worry, there are three more, I will not let go of any of them, including you of course."

"You lunatic, compared to that woman, I was hurt more seriously!"

Blackbeard doesn't know if Beasts can cure Drake's eyes, but in his opinion, the torture he suffered is definitely much more serious than Drake's, not to mention double, even if it is not doubled, the crotch Even a normal person can't stand such a kick.

Whitebeard would not interfere in the small fights of his subordinates, and would only take action when there was death. As a result, the cadres of Beasts were even crazier than Whitebeard.

"So what? You are not my subordinate. Since you are eyeing her ability, you have to be prepared to pay the price."

"Run! Stay away from this guy! Dark cave!"

This is his basic strategy. Blackbeard doesn't want all his subordinates to die in Jhin's hands, and his efforts during this period will be in vain.

Normally, he would definitely choose to retreat and settle accounts with Jin after the plan is successful, but now it is different, he has a new idea.

The Navy's * troops are on the way, he doesn't know who the Navy will send to meet him, but facing the captain of Whitebeard's second team - Fire Fist Ace and him who can defeat Ace, he can't be a waste

When they arrive, he can team up with the navy to take Jhin, and regard it as his achievement of Shichibukai, and he can also make Jhin pay for it.

Darkness scattered from his feet to the surroundings, and countless darkness grasped Jhin like a ghost from hell. His ability was transformed from a pteranodon. Although it is different from ordinary devil fruits, it still has the same place.

Blackbeard's dark fruit has a stronger adsorption to Jhin than to Drake, but it doesn't have as much restraint on Ace.

Even though bound by gravity, Jhin still slashed at Lafitte next to him for the second time.

Clang! novel SB.cOm

Lafitte's cane turned black. At this time, he held the cane with both hands, and blocked Jhin's slash with difficulty.

"Domineering? Isn't it all useless waste?"

Being able to single-handedly enter Marie Gioia's claim for the seat of Shichibukai for Blackbeard, and open the door of justice with hypnosis, Lafitte's strength is different from that of Van Oka and others at this time.

However, his hands were still numb from the shock of Jhin. Taking advantage of this opportunity, Blackbeard also came to Jhin again. Although the height difference was not small, he still reached out and grabbed Jhin's wrist, and then an embarrassing scene appeared. .

The flames are still there, the wings are still there, and Jhin still maintains the original posture.

"Hey, what kind of monsters are you guys!"

Once again, his fruit ability failed again. Obviously, the dark fruit played a miraculous effect in the fight against Ace before, but once it was placed on the man of beasts, this ability became invalid again.

Obviously, it wasn't his fruit that had a problem, but those beasts with abilities.

In fact, the dark fruit of Blackbeard still has an effect on Jhin. It can suppress the power that originally belonged to Pteranodon, which means that Jhin cannot transform temporarily.

But the power from the fossil pterosaurs and Lunaria people, the dark fruit is powerless, Jhin can still use the skills of Pokémon, and can still release the flame brought by his talent, let alone lose his wings.

But Blackbeard doesn't know this. With the example of Derek, he had deep doubts about the abilities of beasts, and even thought of Quinn's reward.

【That guy can create an ability user immune to the dark fruit. He must be eliminated】

At this moment, the past reports about Quinn appeared in Blackbeard's memory, and he even felt that Quinn was the biggest foreshadowing of his future plans.

"How dare you be distracted at such a time? Hell Flame Emperor!"

The flames bathed the whole body, and the flames of Jhin enveloped himself and Blackbeard, and then he flapped his wings, got rid of the dark gravity of Blackbeard, went to the sky, and transformed into the form of a fossilized pterosaur.

"I will kill all your subordinates in front of your face, and come to experience the hunting methods of ancient pterosaurs!"

Chapter 937 It's just the navy, who said I'm going to escape?

If Quinn knew what Blackbeard was thinking at this time, he would definitely regret that he didn't give Jhin some special plague bombs, so that he could directly crush Blackbeard to ashes.

The navy was after him, and he endured it. It is very common for pirates to be wanted by the navy. Even without these things, he would definitely be wanted.

The world government was after him, and he endured it.

Isn't it just a blame, and I got used to carrying it behind my back. Although the only alive was very aimed at him, there was nothing I could do about it. He took the blame, but he also got the corresponding reward.

When the news that Blackbeard is also targeting him reaches Quinn's ears, he will definitely explode on the spot.

A mere black beard, why should he focus on him, Uncle Quinn.

But Quinn doesn't need to worry about this kind of thing for the time being. At this time, Jhin is conducting an indiscriminate attack on the Blackbeard Pirates.

Pteranodon was a sky creature that lived in the Cretaceous period. The large Pteranodon had a wingspan of up to twelve meters. Soaring in the sky, they would hunt fish in the water and weak animals on the shore.

The fossil pterosaur is the overlord of the ancient sky. It is said that it is a ferocious Pokémon that can soar in the vast ancient sky while screaming. Anything that moves may become the target of their attacks.

Blackbeard once again suffered from the pain of burning flames. He didn't understand why all the ability users of the beasts could ignore his dark fruit. Ace also didn't understand. When he was caught by Blackbeard, his ability was useless not come out.

But Jhin was caught by Blackbeard, so what to do.

The example of Van Oka comes first, followed by Blackbeard's warning. Other members of the Blackbeard Pirates also started their own self-protection, commonly known as escape.

"It starts with you."

Jhin's eyes turned back and forth a few times, and finally locked on Lafitte, the innocent-looking Badgers, and the poisonous Q with a sudden death expression on his face, in Jhin's view, only Lafite who can fly The possibility of special escape is the greatest.

So he has to deal with the guy who is most likely to escape first.

Wings flapped, and within a few blinks, Lafitte found himself covered by a shadow, and a huge claw was catching him.

In terms of kicking skills, Jhin is not as good as Shaina, but it doesn't mean he can't. Since the beast form is a pterosaur, he also has his own use of his legs.

Jhin doesn't have a fixed fighting style, and his whole body can be used as his weapon.

In the original timeline, when he learned that BIGMOM and his pirate group were invading Wano Country by the main ship "Queen Mother Anthem" by a waterfall, he transformed into a Pteranodon and went to take the ship together. Kicking off the waterfall, this was also the highlight moment before he turned into Yan Calamity.

Lafitte flapped his wings vigorously, but he couldn't get rid of Jhin's pursuit, and his sharp claws were getting closer and closer to him.

Seeing that he couldn't escape, Lafitte turned around, concentrated the armed domineering aura to the front of the cane, and stabbed towards Jin's claws.

Click.

With a crisp sound, Lafitte's cane broke in two. There is also an upper limit to domineering, once the domineering is exhausted, it will take a while to recover.

Except for a very small number of people, no one will choose the full-body armed color model. The metropolis will concentrate its domineering on one point, which is what Lafitte did just now.

A small amount of arrogance maintains the weapon, and most of the arrogance is condensed to the tip of the cane, but until the cane is broken, Jhin's movements are not affected in any way.

On the contrary, it added a lot of white feathers in the sky.

"That's not how you use wings."

The people of Lunaria learn to crawl first, and then walk. When they can run, they will learn how to fly. This is the survival instinct of this family. Jhin can say that he is the authority when it comes to flying with wings.
*novel*uSB.cOm

"Stop it!"

When Jhin was about to kill Lafitte, the black beard below suddenly rushed up, darkness swirled above his left hand, and a powerful gravitational vortex captured Jhin's actions in the sky, while his right fist was covered. A pair of claw blades grabbed Jhin above.

Blackbeard didn't want to fight Jhin, but he couldn't watch him destroy his own base, so he had to make this choice.

Unlike Jhin and Lafitte's flying abilities, Blackbeard came to this position entirely by relying on physical skills. At this time, black smoke kept rising from behind him, and some crushed rocks were smashed like cannonballs. To Jhin.

It's just that this kind of attack makes Jhin have no desire to dodge at all. What Lunaria people are most proud of is not the ability to manipulate flames and flight, but their tenacious vitality.

The flames behind them represent their own form. When the flames are burning, their defense is very strong. This kind of ordinary attack cannot break their defense at all.

It's just that the appearance of Blackbeard also gave Lafitte a space to breathe, allowing him to escape from Jhin's attack smoothly.

"Do you still have the courage to take the initiative to attack?"

"I have planned a dream for decades, how could I let you ruin it here! Dark water!"

Facing Blackbeard's attack, Jhin didn't choose to make contact, but waved his wings to open the distance. The previous contact made him understand what Blackbeard's ability is.

Although being touched doesn't matter, he can still fly in the air, but Jhin doesn't want Blackbeard to limit his ability like this.

"If you have the ability, stop them all to have a look, Flying Martian Emperor!"

The rockfall and flame merged, and a more powerful fireball fell from the sky.

Not as powerful as Akainu's Meteor Volcano, but the flaming boulder covers a huge area.

Whether it's Blackbeard in front of you, Lafitte pulling away, or Badgers and Poison Q who are fleeing, they are all covered by the rain of fire.

"Dark hole!"

Blackbeard can only choose to open the darkness to resist Jhin's attack, but at this moment, Jhin's peripheral vision sees something different. On the horizon, three flagpoles gradually emerge, and the navy's seagull flag appears on Jhin's side. in sight.

Blackbeard, who was knocked down to the ground again, also saw the three warships that appeared, and laughed immediately.

"Thief ha ha ha! Here we come, finally here, I can't imagine, I have already made a deal with the navy, and now my identity is the king's Qiwuhai!"

The country is easy to change, and the nature is hard to change. Arrogance is Blackbeard's nature. Even though he has suffered a lot in this, he still hasn't changed this habit.

The appearance of the navy made him feel that he had reinforcements and regained the confidence to speak.

According to the agreement between Blackbeard and the navy, he handed over Ace to the navy in exchange for the seat of Shichibukai, the king.

"Just wait, today's hatred, I will return it to you sooner or later!"

"Why sooner or later? Why not figure it out now?"

Jhin's words interrupted Blackbeard's train of thought. He originally thought that Jhin would choose to retreat when he saw the navy's support. Facing this opponent who could fly, Blackbeard had no choice but to speak harshly.

He didn't expect that Jhin had no intention of retreating in the face of the navy's warships.

"You bastard."

"The guys who get in the way are here, and the cat-and-mouse game should be over, but you can try, can these guys save you!"

In order not to be disturbed, Jhin decided to get rid of Blackbeard as soon as possible.

Jin's appearance began to change. The pterosaur's body was covered by white light. When the light faded, several sharp rock thorns appeared on his wings and body.

Chapter 938 I'm just notifying you

This is Jhin's Mega evolution. For fossil pterosaurs, its Mega is very special.

Since the fossilized pterosaur is a Pokémon from ancient times, its specific form has never been determined.

After the evolution of Mega, the whole body of the fossil pterosaur will be covered with a layer of sharp rocks, which seem to be just ordinary rocks, but these rocks are very special, they are harder than diamonds.

The fossilized pterosaurs that have obtained this layer of rock-thorn armor will be more ferocious than before, whether it is defense or attack.

It's just that some scholars have always argued that this appearance is the real fossil pterosaur. In the opinion of some scholars, the Mega of the fossil pterosaur is not super-evolved, but has returned to its original appearance.

Whether this should be regarded as the original return or Mega evolution is something that scholars in the Pokémon world should consider. Jhin only has a little feeling, and the power is constantly gushing out from his body.

The wings of the fossil pterosaur in the sky folded together. When the wings spread out again, Jhin's missing arm had returned, but the dragon wing of the fossil pterosaur was still behind him. He entered the human-beast form and became serious at this time.

"The sky is my domain."

With a shake of the wings, Jhin had already appeared in front of Blackbeard, a raging fire was burning on the blade, and the roar of the fire dragon could be vaguely heard.

"The fire dragon kills the emperor!"

"Ah! Ah!"

A powerful blow hit Blackbeard's shoulder, and the front part of the blade had completely cut into Blackbeard's body. The burning flames burned his body, and with Blackbeard's screams, he was thrown from the sky by Jin. cut off.

And Jhin didn't stop, with the strength given by his wings, he kept pressing Blackbeard from the sky to the ground.

Blackbeard doesn't have any advantage in sky battles, he is just Jhin's toy without any leverage points, and only his subordinates are thankful for this, after all, it is a great thing for them that Jhin has changed his target.

"monster"

The pain from the wings reminded Lafitte that he was only a thin line away from death just now. Since he was recruited by Blackbeard, it was the first time he felt that death was so close to him.

Not to mention the two people below, Poison Q and Zhuang Zhuang have always been in a weak and sickly state, and they are able to survive at this time, thanks to Badgers, who is stupid.

He carried Ace in his left hand, and Poison Q and Strong in his right hand. He just survived the fire rain, but his body was seriously injured.

"Captain Teach."

Badgers may not be very strong, but he is loyal enough to Blackbeard. This is the first time he has seen Blackbeard being beaten in all directions. Although Blackbeard screamed miserably in the past, he was still able to fight back.

But this time is different, even if Blackbeard's fist hits Jhin's body, it will have no effect, and Jhin will punch him backhanded.

Boom!

The land was cracked inch by inch, and in the huge deep pit, darkness kept pouring into the surroundings, and the flames were also burning fiercely, but Jhin sensed something was wrong.

"Your body is really strong."

The goal of his knife was to cut Blackbeard in two. The blade also left a huge scar on Blackbeard's body, but he couldn't cut it any further.

Domineering and darkness, two forces resisting his slash at the same time.

He had been in the air before, and after being attacked by Jhin, Blackbeard began to fall. Jhin didn't notice any abnormalities during the fall, and he didn't feel the strength of Blackbeard's body until he came into contact with the ground and had the "cutting board" of the earth. special.

"Thief hahaha, it's useless, whether it's slashing or flames, it's useless after all. Although I don't know why your abilities can ignore the darkness, your attacks can be absorbed by the darkness after all!"

"When I chop off your head, I hope you can still be so stubborn."

Jhin only has a knife, but he also has wings.

At this time, Jhin restrained Blackbeard's right arm with the blade, and stepped on his left hand with his left foot.

"Dark hole!"

Darkness surges up, but the target is not Jhin, but Blackbeard himself. He is the power user of the dark fruit. Although the expressive power of the dark fruit is similar to a black hole, the essence is darkness. He cannot elementize, but can blend into the darkness.

In addition to devouring foreign objects, he also has the ability to enter his own darkness. At this time, the dark cave has become the escape channel for Blackbeard.

It's just that this action is much slower than other natural elements. Although he escaped the fatal blow, he still had three * cuts on his body.

The wound was deep enough to show the bone, but it was gradually being merged by the darkness. During this period, there was even less wailing. For Blackbeard, wailing was a way to relieve the pain, but now he has no energy to waste on this matter.

"Thief hahaha, I won, Yan Calamity, it's time for you to retreat now."

The location where they fought was close to the coast. Although the island has been deserted, the port can still dock large ships, which is why Blackbeard chose to trade here.

After transferring through the darkness, Blackbeard also came to a relatively safe position, and the manpower sent by the navy also appeared behind him.

If you want to choose the most indignified pirate, then Blackbeard is probably on the list. He has done such things as kneeling and begging for mercy. He doesn't think there is any problem with relying on the navy.

After all, he seeks the position of Qiwuhai, and also has the idea of using naval power.

"Hey, sir, according to the agreement, I have prepared Fire Fist Ace, and I should be Shichibukai by now.

This guy is the chief cadre of Beast Kaido, let's take him down together! "

"Get out of the way, out of the way."

Regarding Blackbeard's words, the leader Momotu didn't take it seriously at all, and instead kicked him aside. Novelusb.com

Most navies will not care about Shichibukai's suggestion unless there is an order from Shangfeng.

Momotu received the order only to * Ace, and Jhin was not in the task target at all.

None of the navies who carried out this * mission were hawks, and they didn't have the idea of destroying the pirates immediately when they saw them.

"Blaze, Jhin, you are not the target of this mission, I don't want to cause meaningless battles."

The order of the world government was for her to * Ace back first. She didn't know why, but she still chose to carry it out.

"Coincidentally, I'm not interested in you either. I don't care what Ace wants, but Blackbeard's life is mine."

"Pirate, we didn't make a deal with you."

"I'm just informing you!"

Chapter 939: Alternate General, Jhin's Blue Flame

As soon as the words fell, Jhin had turned into a pterosaur, with a cold light shining on both wings, and rushed towards the direction of Blackbeard.

"Dan Gong Huang!"

The wings are like knives. At a very high speed, a sound of sonic boom spread to the ears of the people present, and the two air blades have already cut towards the sides.

The attack hadn't hit Blackbeard yet, but the person next to him suffered an unwarranted disaster first.

There is no one of his own here, and for Jhin, everything here is a target that can be killed.

"Get down!"

Lafitte, who came to Badgers, bent down against several people, looking at the falling hair, even Ace seemed terrified, and he almost cut it off together.

Before, he thought that if Jhin got rid of Blackbeard, he could take the opportunity to escape, but now it seems that Jhin is even crazier than he imagined. The three vice admirals and the ordinary captain of the Whitebeard Pirates also have to avoid the edge for the time being. .

But Jhin wanted to kill Blackbeard in front of them, completely ignoring the consequences.

And this is the consistent tradition of Hundred Beasts. Today's Hundred Beasts will consider many things before making a move, such as not doing it first because of the impact of scruples.

But as long as they start fighting, starting from Kaido, none of them will consider the consequences. Influence?

They have already started fighting, and it is useless to talk about it after the fighting is over.

Ace? Who is that? unfamiliar.

The cadre of the Whitebeard Pirates died in the aftermath of the battle of the cadres of the Beasts Pirates. It can only be described as embarrassing.

"You saw it! This guy is a lunatic! This is the chief cadre of Beasts, aren't you a navy? Isn't it your duty to catch pirates!" novelSB.com

Surrounded by the sea, Blackbeard alone cannot escape Jhin's pursuit. As Jhin said, in front of Blackbeard, Jhin is the overlord of the sky, and Jhin, who has the upper hand in the sky, will never let him go.

"Shut up, you're just a pirate, you're not qualified to tell the navy about such things."

Momotu, whose real name is Gion, is a lieutenant general of the Navy headquarters, but at the same time she has another identity-admiral candidate.

Momotasa doesn't care how many people die in the internal fighting among pirates. Although she is not a radical hawk, she is also a member of the navy, and as a candidate for admiral, she is different from an ordinary vice admiral.

Not only is it stronger in strength, but there is no problem with its own position.

It's just that she really can't let Blackbeard just die here.

The defeat of Crocodile has already made the world government feel that it has lost its face. Blackbeard originally appeared as a substitute for Crocodile to fill the vacancy of Shichibukai.

As Blackbeard said, since Taotu appeared here, his identity as Qiwuhai has been confirmed, and Qiwuhai was slaughtered within a few minutes of taking office. The world government can't afford to lose this person.

Golden Piro unsheathed, Momotu's blade was already aimed at Jhin.

"Don't be careless, that guy is a monster, an out-and-out monster!"

Peach Rabbit doesn't want to care about Blackbeard, and Black Beard doesn't want to care about Tao Rabbit either. If it wasn't for fear that Tao Rabbit would be unlucky if it overturned in Jhin's hands, he wouldn't have reminded Tao Rabbit at all.

But Blackbeard didn't intend to make a move, but hid behind. If Momotu and the others were really not opponents, Blackbeard would help fight the enemy together. He didn't want to expose all his abilities in front of the navy.

Although the dark fruit appeared on the devil fruit illustrated book, the abilities recorded on it are only a part, and some abilities were also discovered by Blackbeard himself.

The dark fruit helped him offset a lot of damage, but there were still hideous bloodstains on his body, which just gave him a reason to hide.

At the same time, Huoshaoshan and Stoloberg also reacted, but they did not participate in the battle, but looked at Blackbeard vigilantly. The pirates are not very trustworthy. I can't fully believe this so-called Qiwuhai.

The reason why Taotu, a general candidate, brought two lieutenant generals from the headquarters to hand over, was because he was worried that there was some conspiracy in the middle.

Clang!

Jinpira chopped on Jhin's wings, and a huge force came from the blade. The gender difference between the two parties is inherently different. Coupled with the differences in body shape and race, Jhin's strength far surpasses Gion. If it is, Momotu feels that he will definitely be carried into the air by Jhin.

So she didn't make a hard catch, but slid her wrist forward, and at the same time made a posture of an iron bridge, using her own arm and blade as the fulcrum, and slid down.

But at this stage, her blade was always clinging to Jhin's body, and she was using Jhin's impact to make Jhin hurt herself.

The idea is good, but there is a big gap in reality. Jinpira brought out a series of sparks on Jin's body, but there was not even a piece of stone debris on the ground.

In terms of defensive power, Jhin in a full fire state is even more terrifying than the steel-type Jack. On the premise of not opening and defending the barrier, Jhin's defensive power is the best among beasts, and the name of the race of Lunalia human gods No, it's not for nothing.

Besides, Jhin did not intend to attack Taotu, Blackbeard was his main target. After passing Taotu, he continued to rush towards Blackbeard.

"Asshole, do you want to get along with me, you lunatic!"

Jin in the fossilized pterosaur state used his wings as knives, and Blackbeard had no choice but to use his hands to block the wings of Jhin with dark water, but after he came into contact with Jhin, there was a scene he didn't expect, and Jhin returned to his human form.

The power of the Devil Fruit will still be restrained by the Dark Fruit, and the Fossil Pterosaur is still transformed from the Pteranodon. Although Jhin can still use skills when in contact, it cannot maintain the transformed state, and the Mega form will automatically exit.

After exiting from the beast form, their actions changed to that of Blackbeard grabbing Jhin's arms.

"Thief hahaha, it seems that my ability is still effective, you guys are not completely immune!"

"Yeah, quite a troublesome ability, but do you think this is enough?"

"Idiot! Why are you still watching! Why don't you do it now!"

He wanted Haijun to fight Jinh, but Haijun actually had the same intentions, so he didn't make a move right away.

But Blackbeard panicked, his dark fruit is not a sea tower stone, it can directly make the ability user lose strength, and until now he doesn't know what kind of strange ability Jhin is.

Blackbeard felt a sense of crisis in his heart, and immediately shouted.

Navy is watching the show, but when the opportunity really comes, they will not stand by. Stolberg and Huoshaoshan's attacks came at the same time, and Momotu's slash followed closely behind Jin's neck.

The attack of the three hit Jhin's body, but the touch from their hands told them that they couldn't hurt Jhin at all.

With the combined attack of the three, Blackbeard successfully got rid of Jhin, and Jhin also flew a certain distance under their combined attack.

But at the next moment, Jhin's body mutated again.

"His fire gone?"

"No, it didn't disappear, this guy's fire turned blue!"

Chapter 940 Saiyans read it and call them experts

At first, they thought that the flames behind Jhin had gone out, but quickly overturned this view, because the air above Jhin seemed to be distorted.

That is a phenomenon that only occurs when the gas rises under high temperature. Looking further down, flames of completely different colors are burning on the ember-black clothing.

It turns out that his flame has never been extinguished, but because of the color change, it is not as obvious as before. Under the reflection of the blue sky and ocean, Jhin's blue fire gives people the illusion of being extinguished.

The limited information about Blackbeard comes from Drake, but Drake is not a power user transformed from the fruit, but a pure ability given by Arceus, and the dark fruit's sealing ability is useless to her.

Jhin has also been in contact with Blackbeard now, but he didn't transform at all at that time, so until this time, the sealing ability of Blackbeard's dark fruit did not exert its effect on Jhin.

Although the ability of his fossil pterosaur cannot be fully utilized, it doesn't matter, he has more than one hole card.

As Lunaria people, he and Shaina are born with their own racial talents.

Wings and flames are the external manifestations.

The defense power will increase when the flame is burning, and the speed will increase when the flame is extinguished. This is a posture derived by the Lunaria to deal with different situations, but their posture is not only that.

Flames are their playthings. For the Lunaria people, it is their instinct to control the flames. After freedom, Jhin and Shaina are constantly exercising, and the purpose is to make themselves stronger.

For ordinary Lunarians, ordinary flames are their upper limit, but Arceus broke the upper limit of Jhin and Shaina, giving them more possibilities.

Jin's blue fire is one of the manifestations.

There are many reasons for the formation of blue flames in nature. The fullness of combustion and the burning material will cause the color of the flame to change, but there is only one reason for the flame on Jhin's body-temperature.

In this form, the flames of the Lunaria people will not be extinguished. It should be said that they will not actively extinguish the flames. As long as the flames can still burn, he can have both the defense of the previous flame form and the speed of the non-fire form.

According to a certain cosmic race, at this time he is a super Lunaria who surpasses ordinary Lunaria.

Since Blackbeard can affect his state, then change to a state that he cannot affect.

"The second round has begun."

The limitation of body functions is usually to protect one's own body. The previous Lunaria's flame mode is an example. If speed and defense are taken into account, their bodies may not be able to bear it, so they evolved this ability.

But now, Jhin has broken this restriction, his current body can bear this load, if there are any disadvantages, it is not very durable.

Boom!

The flames exploded, and Jhin's wings were completely covered by the flames. The originally nearly colorless flames gradually stabilized, showing a dark blue, hot breath that made Huoshaoshan and Stoloberry take two steps back.

This is the third stance of Super Lunaria - Attack.

The higher flame temperature made up for the disadvantages of their original attack power, making them infinitely close to the hexagonal fighters.

"The guy who gets in the way, just die with that guy! Ghost Flame Emperor!"

Different from cats bullying the weak when they catch mice, Jhin first targets Taotu. Although she is a woman, she is the most difficult one in Jhin's eyes.

The blue flame cut outward like a sickle. Although Momotu escaped the knife, the hair on his forehead was burned into a ball just because he was close to the high-temperature slash, and gave off a burst of scorching. stink.

bump! Clang!

The blades collided repeatedly, and Taotu fell into the stage of passive defense. As a general candidate, she had good knowledge and knowledge, but her body couldn't keep up with Jin's speed.

Facing the continuous slashing attacks, he could only barely parry.

The alternate generals are not generals after all. There is a certain gap between them and the generals, but it is not that huge. If there is no one available, they can temporarily replace that position.

Similar to the explosion of Setsuna and Mandelfish, they also have a method of bursting their strength in a short time.

But she can't always be treated as a general, otherwise, when the world recruits troops, she and the tea dolphin should be in the same position at the same time.

When Taotu was parrying Jhin's onslaught, a scream came into her ears. The first knife didn't cut completely, but fell on Blackbeard, who was burned by the blue flame, and let out another miserable cry. .

Jhin knew it might not burn him dead, but enough to make him miserable.

Click!

After another parry, Momotu found that his blade was stuck, and upon closer inspection, Jhin's weapon had turned into a shark-toothed knife.

Flipping her wrist, Taotu's weapon was thrown out by Jhin just like that. She never thought that Jhin would use this method in the duel.

"Despicable. Is this also a swordsman!"

"Whether it's a knife or a sword, they are all styles of fighting. They are just weapons, nothing more."

Jhin's shark-toothed knife is almost specially prepared to deal with swordsmen, and it can often have unexpected effects. After picking up Taotu's weapon, the shark teeth on Jhin's blade closed again, and swung the knife again to slash at Taotu. rabbit.

Taotu, who lost her weapon, had no choice but to evade, and wanted to take the opportunity to get her weapon back, but facing Jhin in blue flame mode without her weapon, she couldn't break free at all, and without the influence of the dark fruit, Jhin has re-entered human-beast form.

With the double blessing, Momotu soon fell into crisis.

Click!

Stoloberg and Huoshaoshan appeared at the same time, crossing their knives to block Jhin's attack. When Taotu and Jhin were fighting just now, they didn't watch the show, but Jhin unilaterally ignored their attack and let their weapons chop on the ground. body.

That kind of innocuous attack can't touch Jhin in blue flame mode at all. It is not easy for them to find this opportunity to intervene, but the result of intervening in the battle is not friendly.

Clang!

Pfft!

The weapons of the two were bounced off at the same time, Huoshaoshan narrowly avoided Jhin's slash, but Stoloberry was not so lucky.

Although he avoided the blade, he couldn't avoid Jhin's wings. The wings of the fossilized pterosaur were like sharp razors.

"Lieutenant General Stolberg!"

Stoloberry fell to his knees powerlessly, and Jhin's wings were pulled out from his chest immediately.

A lot of blood flowed out of Stoloberry's mouth, but not a single drop of blood flowed from the wound on his chest. The hideous wound had long been sealed by Jhin's flames
