

Arceus 941

Chapter 941 If you want to expand the scale of the conflict, I will accompany you to the end

When facing Mandelfisch, Stoloberg was kicked to the side by Mandelfisch.

He is a rare long-headed man. His head is naturally longer than others. After being kicked to the side, although he received effective treatment and did not leave too serious sequelae, it still caused a certain impact.

At this time, he also became the breakthrough point in front of Jin.

As Stoloberg fell, Huoshaoshan couldn't help but widen his squinting eyes, and the cigar at the corner of his mouth slipped to the ground.

There are many smokers in the navy. The navy is a profession with great pressure. Except for some heartless people who are not affected, the rest of the generals are often in a state of high pressure. Smoking and drinking become their pressure. The way.

Huoshaoshan is an experienced smoker among them. He never let go of his cigar, whether it is fighting or receiving intelligence, even if a disaster happened right before his eyes.

But Stoloberg was his colleague for many years. Seeing his colleagues and comrades-in-arms die in front of him, grief still swept his heart.

Originally, this was just a simple * mission. They never thought that such a big accident would occur in this operation.

"Stoloberg"

The pain is only temporary. Since the era of great pirates, the navy has been constantly facing casualties. He has no time to grieve. He is still in battle at this time.

After solving Stoloberg, all the pressure came to Huoshaoshan.

Clang! Clang!

There are no extra moves, Jhin is just slashing vigorously, and under the continuous heavy blows, his blade has shown signs of melting.

But Stoloberg's death bought a certain amount of time after all. Momotu, who picked up the weapon again, rejoined the battle, sharing a lot of pressure for Huoshaoshan.

"Lieutenant General Huoshaoshan, now is not the time to be sad."

"I know, Lieutenant General Momotu, I will try my best to attract his attention, and I will leave the main attack to you."

Among the three, Momotu's command is unquestionable. She is young, but she is stronger, otherwise she would not have the status of a general candidate.

But again, she is stronger than these ordinary lieutenant generals.nOVEluSB.COM

Based on the previous lesson, Momotu was a little more wary of Jhin's weapon. If the shark-toothed knife hadn't lifted the weapon away, Stolberg might not have died so quickly.

It's just that grief and anger may not be transformed into strength. Although they are angry at the death of their colleagues, this does not allow them to directly bridge the gap in strength between them and Jhin.

If only anger can defeat all enemies, then there is no point in exercising.

"Dark Water!"

Blackbeard, who had extinguished the flames on his body and recovered from the pain, stepped forward again. His fat body became very flexible. After avoiding Jhin's slash, he grabbed his ankle, allowing Jhin to release the fossilized pterosaur again. status.

He really wanted to watch the navy and Jhin fight, but the facts did not support him to do so. One of the three lieutenant admirals had already died, and Huoshaoshan had been stabbed by Jhin just now. Too likely.

Once the lunatic is freed, he must be the one who is unlucky. For his own sake, Blackbeard took the risk of getting close to Jhin.

The increase of blue flame and transformation is really unbearable. Blackbeard can't figure out why there are so many layers of buffs on Jhin's body. It may be good to eliminate one layer after all.

At the same time, Lafitte also intervened in this battle. He was the only one who could intervene among the rest of the people present, but he only dared to take the opportunity to sneak attack Jhin.

As for ordinary soldiers, their only fate now is to be written on the death list.

Once faced with an enemy that is too powerful in this sea, the best choice for ordinary soldiers is to stay away from the battlefield and become an atmosphere group, otherwise they can notify their families to receive pensions.

"Your navy has no other support! Do you really want to release such a monster back into the sea!"

At this time, Blackbeard is acting more like a navy than a navy, which is also unavoidable. When a person knows that a madman wants to kill himself at any cost, he definitely hopes that this person will disappear forever.

Otherwise, even if he escaped this time, he would have to worry about being hunted down by others in the future.

He despises Beasts for beating the young to grow old, but at the same time, he hopes that he can also come to bigger ones.

"Fire Dragon Emperor!"

Fire Dragon forced Taotu back in front of him, but Jhin did not continue to chase, but raised conditions instead.

"You can try, or I will give you a chance, how about everyone calling each other for support now? Mr. Kaido has been very free recently, and he wouldn't mind coming out for some activities."

It's not that Jhin can't call someone, if he wanted to call, he would have called, but this is Drake's business, he doesn't want other people to interfere with this matter, he wants to handle it himself, that's why it's delayed until now.

As for what he just said, he's betting the Navy won't do it.

Jhin doesn't have that much research on politics, but he knows that the navy has been controlling the scope of disputes and avoiding large-scale wars as much as possible, otherwise, he wouldn't just sit back and watch these sea emperors occupy the New World for so long.

In fact, just as he guessed, Momotu didn't know what the specific idea was, but without an order, don't take the initiative to provoke a war with the Four Emperors, and don't face the Four Emperors themselves. This is the rule of the navy .

Only sword troops are exempt from this rule, but correspondingly, the navy is not responsible for everything the sword does.

"As I said before, I'm not interested in who you want to take away. Leave this guy to me, and we can pretend that no one has seen anyone."

Peach Rabbit, Huoshaoshan, Blackbeard, and Lafitte, the four of them teamed up to restrict his actions, and Jhin wouldn't mind if he could get the navy to leave through this kind of small negotiation.

Beasts don't care about conflicts, but the main direction is development. According to Arceus, everything is ready, and the only thing left is the east wind. It has been over for decades, so there is no need to rush for a while.

"Hey, hey, I'm Shichibukai now, and you are the navy! You wouldn't make such a deal with a force of the Four Emperors, would you?"

Looking at Taotu's gloomy face, Blackbeard panicked. If Taotu agreed, then he would become a real "Blackbeard", the kind that was burnt black.

In fact, Tao Tutu was also a little annoyed. She knew that Jhin could achieve this level. She should not have intervened before she failed to win the opponent with a general candidate and two lieutenant generals.

The death of the lieutenant general of the headquarters for the sake of a Shichibukai is a real blood loss this time, but the matter has come to this point, and the peace talks have become impossible.

Accepting negotiations with pirates when a colleague is dead, no one can do this kind of thing, well, Kebi may be an exception.

Chapter 942 American Great Swordsman, A Song of Ice and Fire on the Sea

In the final analysis, this is the result of Momotu's underestimation of Jhin's strength. If Kaido or Whitebeard appeared in front of them instead of Jhin, then the navy would not say anything, and would definitely turn around and leave.

As for Blackbeard? They can also temporarily ignore the existence of each other, the shadow of famous trees, only those emperors of the sea are the real threats in the eyes of the navy.

"Lieutenant General Huoshaoshan, today may be the most dangerous time."

"It looks like it might die here, but I've thought about it since the day I joined the Navy."

Taking off his hat, Huo Shaoshan took out a cigar again, put his * together and made a spark, lit his cigar and smoked it to the bottom.

"I hope that the waste of the world government will move so fast in other places in the future."

The world government doesn't believe in pirates, and the pirates also don't believe in the world government. Today's Shichibukai has its own goals, so it uses the tiger skin of Qibukai to do things.

Protecting the country, stealing information, planning the future, and reducing troubles, none of them work for the world government.

So when Blackbeard traded, he asked the world government to publish the news in the newspaper before proceeding with the transaction, and after the transaction, he thoroughly authenticated his identity as Shichibukai.

Before this, although he was a quasi-Shichibukai, he had already been known to everyone, but many details were not announced. Outsiders only knew that there was a guy named Tiqi in the Qibukai.

With Stolberg's death in action and newspaper news going hand in hand, Momotu's choice now is to fight to the death.

Seeing Taotu and Huoshaoshan's plan, Blackbeard just heaved a sigh of relief when the fiery blade slashed in front of him again. As before, taking advantage of Jhin's opportunity to attack him, Blackbeard tried to contact him with the dark fruit ability. His body weakens his combat power.

Even if it is weakened, Jhin's defense is beyond their comprehension. If they don't use the dark fruit to contain it, they really can't do it.

Before, Jhin would try not to be caught by Blackbeard, and it was troublesome to switch forms frequently, but this time it was different, Jhin took the initiative to let Blackbeard grab his wrist.

And with the help of his defense in blue flame mode, he forcibly withstood the subsequent attacks.

"Blackbeard, do you have a strong vitality, or is it something special brought about by your fruit ability?"

"Um?"

"I just wanted to verify this question. Will you die without the fruit?"

Jin had a dangerous smile on his face, and then turned his wrist, pointing the handle of the knife at Blackbeard.

boom!

A gunshot appeared here untimely, and what Jhin did was once again beyond the understanding of Taotu and Huoshaoshan.

This guy obviously has great strength, but he is equipped with various insidious props.

At this time, the end of Jhin's knife handle turned into a gun muzzle, and the gunshot came from here, and a sharp nail shot out from his knife handle, pierced the skin and nailed Blackbeard's body.

"This kind of little fancy Hailou stone!?"

Blackbeard didn't expect that Jhin would use such a trick, nor did he think that someone could make bullets from Hailou stones. Even the navy only used large pieces of Hailou stones to make prison ammunition traps. Not only.

"The outside world cannot process sea stones in detail, but unlike in Wano country, sea stones can be processed into various fine shapes, and even more special things can be done."

Pfft! noVelusb.cOm

Jhin's blade pierced through Blackbeard's eye socket, and then pierced through the back of his head. With a miserable cry, Blackbeard lay powerlessly on the ground, trying to pull out the nail on his chest, but he couldn't. .

The purity of the sea tower stone is extremely high, and it poses a fatal danger to the ability users, and it is also Jhin's way of dealing with some ability users.

Despicable? Shameless? He never cared about these things, as long as he could solve the enemy and become the final victor, he didn't care about the process in the middle.

The hidden knuckles on the glove and the shark teeth in the blade are all designed to target different types of enemies, and the Hailou stone bullet in the handle is designed to give the ability user a surprise blow.

Some complex abilities are very difficult to deal with, even if there is domineering restraint, it is not easy to deal with. Compared with domineering, Hailoushi is much faster against capable people.

The beasts that occupy the origin of Hailou Stone will not leave Hailou Stone unused.

There are only a handful of craftsmen who can make this kind of high-purity sea stone weapons, and they are offered as treasures in Wano country.

"Your brain should have been pierced. It seems that this tenacious vitality comes from your body. If it is burned to ashes, will you still be alive?"

The guarded barrier expanded to both sides around Jhin, and he relied on his almost invincible characteristics to push Taotu and Huoshaoshan out, and then blue flames completely enveloped the area.

"Captain Teach!"

The high temperature made the air almost distorted, and Lafitte couldn't even get close to the battlefield below, and he didn't know what Blackbeard had become in the raging fire.

"I said, isn't it too hot here? Ice Age!"

"General Kuzan!"

The thick layer of ice spread towards the center of the island, freezing Blackbeard on the ground and Jhin who was about to continue wielding his knife inside.

The flames on the ground were also extinguished because of this, leaving only a large amount of water vapor. Ordinary ice could not extinguish Jhin's flames at once. In terms of the temperature of the flames, he was already a level ahead of the users who burned the fruits. up.

Although Kuzan frozen Jhin, it was only for a moment. The next moment, the ice layer on his body directly vaporized, and Jhin regained his freedom.

"Admiral of the headquarters, the people in the Aokiji Navy are really idle."

Lieutenant general, alternate general, and the current general, the speed of the navy's shaking made Jhin feel bored.

"Ah la la, I didn't expect there to be someone like you here, shouldn't you be by Kaido's side as his right-hand man?"

Instead of continuing to talk to Qingzhi, Jhin swung his knife to cut off Blackbeard's head, but Qingzhi came to Jin in an instant and stopped him.

Although there is a big difference in height, there is a strong sense of oppression.

"Your navy is really dedicated to Shichibukai."

"If you found him a few days earlier, it wouldn't matter if you killed him, but your movements are slower than those of those newspapers, which is troublesome.

What's more, there is Stolberg, you hot flame, you should go to the city to calm down. "

Stolberg's body was already lying on the side. The death of a lieutenant general in the headquarters was already considered a major accident. How to deal with it after the incident was a matter of the above. Kuzan did not intend to let Jhin leave just like that.

But he is only ice, unable to catch up to the pterosaur bathing in the fire. In a state where Blackbeard is half dead and no one can limit Jhin's ability, he can't keep Jhin, and can only watch Jhin fly away in the end.

Chapter 943 Strange vitality, gunpowder sculptor Quinn

Jin is the most realistic cadre, he doesn't care about means in battle, and he won't love to fight when he judges that the situation is not good for him.

With his current ability, it is not difficult to fight the general of the headquarters. Before the end of the blue flame mode, Kuzan can't help him. The problem is that it is meaningless. The general is not so easy to kill. It will take several days.

Unless you want to die, this kind of monster is very difficult to deal with. There is a peach rabbit next to it. Jin can't be distracted when facing Kuzan. At that time, the peach rabbit was a threat to him. NOvelUsB.coM

The current battle situation is not good for him, so he should retreat first and wait for the next opportunity. He doesn't want to be rescued after the car rolls over, then he will be completely ashamed to see others.

His fighting style has no bottom line in an ugly way, which also shows that he does not value face as much as others, but this does not mean that he does not want it at all.

As the chief cadre of Beasts, Arceus' family, being arrested by the navy is too embarrassing, he doesn't want to become the kind of person who works under Whitebeard.

Mere "Navy Red Deer", facing him a noble air force unit, he can only choose to look at him like this.

"General Kuzan, why are you here?"

"Entrusted by others, but it was not for this purpose."

According to the development of the original timeline, he should have reminded the Straw Hats and others because of Robin, but it is different now, he has nothing to do with that group of people, and is just patrolling the nearby sea area.

He appeared here and had a relationship with Garp.

Although Garp is not a regular person every day, he is a high-level navy after all, and the internal news cannot be hidden from him. Strictly speaking, Momotu is also a general who has a relatively close relationship with Garp and has a close relationship, so he let She will lead the team.

But Garp was still not at ease, worried that someone would attack Ace halfway, so he asked Kuzan to come over and take a look. As for himself

His identity is the navy, and he is also Ace's "grandpa". He was asked to personally * Ace. He was afraid that he could not help but make a mistake. It is always unknown how much sea he left in the war.

Referring to limited information, considering the extent of Marin Fanduo's damage when the Golden Lion attacked Marin Fanduo, one can't help but suspect that it was actually made by Karp.

At this stage, as long as he slips his hands, no one can say anything about him. The aura of a hero has brought Garp too much convenience, and his own strength can afford this aura. The world government is not good for this hob meat. deal with.

"General Kuzan, Lieutenant General Stolberg."

"I saw it, let's gather up the body first, and talk about it when we go back, but what is this black thing?"

"This is... Blackbeard who arrested Fire Fist Ace. He was also the target of Fire Calamity. It was my mistake in judgment. I should take full responsibility for Stolberg's death."

"Okay, we are the navy, and this kind of thing is inevitable. Don't blame yourself too much, go back to Marlin Vandor first. The higher-ups seem to value this fire fist very much, and they don't know what they are planning."

Speaking of which, Kuzan fell in love with the black unknown object on the ground. Although Kuzan's ice extinguished Jin's fire, Blackbeard was burned enough before that, and the blood hole on his eye was also bleeding out, but judging from the rising and falling chest, this guy still seems to have a breath.

The aged and decrepit Whitebeard can last for a while after being cut off half of his head by Akainu. It is not surprising that the alien Blackbeard is still alive.

Except for a few unlucky ones, most people's vitality is extremely strong, and Poison Q also tremblingly came to Blackbeard.

After some groping, he pulled out the pointed nail of the sea tower stone. After the sea tower stone left the body, darkness shrouded the black beard's body again, and the damage reduction effect of the dark fruit once again acted on the body.

"Captain Teach, it seems that we can still be saved."

"Is it difficult?"

"It's very difficult, more than 80% of the severe burns, the left eye was pierced by a knife, and it seems to have been blown up by some force, which means that the body of Captain Tiqi is an abnormal shape, otherwise he should have died a long time ago."

Looking at the seriously injured Blackbeard, Poison Q wasn't worried, but rather excited, as if he was very interested in such a seriously injured number.

"But that guy's knife is really weird, is there a bomb on the blade?"

"It's not a bomb, it's the usage of armed colors, it's too early to tell you this."

Van Oka is definitely hopeless, first rescue Captain Teach, otherwise we should prepare to break up.

"Ahem, cough, that's an interesting activity. I hope our captain is strong enough, and I hope this dark fruit is as magical as he said, but this eye is useless. It's fate that the captain has to throw it away too. only eyes?"

After Poison Q gave Blackbeard an emergency treatment, the Blackbeard Pirates returned to the Navy headquarters with Ace and the Navy. The action will be Jhin kills a back carbine.

At the same time, Quinn is conducting a new experiment in the laboratory of Ghost Island. The blue wave ball sent by the fast dragons has entered his analysis table, which provided him with a good idea.

But the final result is a bit problematic. This drug is not suitable for human beings. If it is to be used by human ability users, it needs to be updated and a lot of fine-tuning is required.

At this time, Quinn was using an experimental bacterium to check the results of the new blue wave ball, but it has not been successfully cultivated.

And he didn't wait, he was currently shaping the gunpowder.

The equipment on his body is not those ordinary flintlock guns, which can be used with just a little black powder. Those small missiles have extremely high requirements for gunpowder, not only the quality, but also the shape.

Due to the small size, in order to ensure sufficient range, the gunpowder fuel must be fully burned.

But his missile hits seem to be a bit problematic, and he always accidentally injures himself. For the sake of accuracy, he carried out a secondary design on the small missile installed in the body.

It's just that this kind of highly sensitive gunpowder is difficult to make in one shot with a machine, so it can only be carved with bare hands. When carving, each knife must be extremely careful, and there should be no static electricity or sparks in the whole process, otherwise the gunpowder will burn violently. Even explode.

"Very good, slowly, slowly, it's almost there"

Quinn talked to himself about his progress, and slowly moved the carving knife with his right hand.

"Master Quinn! Your petri dish is successful. It is successful."

"Boom!"

He previously asked his assistant to notify himself as soon as the experiment of the new Rambo ball had results, and his subordinates followed his order, but looking at the disheartened Quinn, he felt that he came at a bit of an inappropriate time.

Chapter 944 Kaido who tested the medicine

"Ahem, idiot! Who told you to rush in so recklessly!"

Wiping off the smoke left by the explosion on the measuring glasses, Quinn looked angrily at the younger brother behind him.

I don't know what's wrong with the attack system he set up. According to his design, after he uses the Brachial Dragon Snake, the rest of his body should become a powerful fixed-point turret.

I don't know why, the intensity of the firepower has gone up, but the accuracy has gone wrong.

Say it is inaccurate, the attack can hit the target 100%, say it is accurate, that thing 100% attacks himself, and it has suddenly become a self-abuse tool.

After thinking about it, he felt that there must be something wrong with the gunpowder, otherwise how could he just hit himself, so he started the work of gunpowder carving.

He has been carving for several days, but he did not expect to be interrupted at a critical moment.

If it weren't for his rough skin and thick flesh, he would have to be sent away this time. According to his previous temper, he would definitely throw this little brother to the arena directly, but Quinn had to make changes under the eaves.

Faced with the iron law above, he didn't have the courage to violate it.

"Give me a suitable reason, or I will let you practice against Brother Kaidou!"

"It's you."

"When did I let you come over!"

"It was you who said that as soon as the petri dish responds, I will notify you immediately"

There is nothing scarier than sparring with Kaido. If there is, it is that Kaido finds someone to practice sparring after drinking. During the days when Yamato was traveling, they obviously felt that their captain's temper became much more grumpy.

Immediately repeated Quinn's previous instructions.

"Petri dish? I seem to mean it, but you boy. Why are you holding the trash can?"

"Master Quinn, you may not believe that the things in the petri dish have been unresponsive, but the failed product that was dumped yesterday has survived."

A strange situation, things cultivated in the laboratory can survive in various strange places, but they cannot survive in petri dishes. Because the changes of this waste product are a bit special, he brought it here to show Quinn.

"Damned."

"So, Lord Quinn, look"

"I'll deal with things over there by myself, don't let anyone disturb me, you clean up here for me, but be careful of the explosion."

Quinn left a last warning in a dark tone, but he was only threatening the little brother.

It is not particularly difficult to find a few who can fight, but it is really not easy for him to find some smart ones. He has not found a few suitable ones for the huge beasts and beasts. assistant.

This little brother is already considered a rare talent, and he will not waste it for inexplicable reasons, but it does not prevent Quinn from increasing his psychological pressure.

Things that have been blown up will not explode again, and the things made by Quinn can still guarantee that there are no duds.

After the cultivation was successful, Quinn plunged into the laboratory again. It was very simple for him to deduce the production method based on the finished product. He was just transforming it, which is roughly similar to improving veterinary medicine and making it a human medicine.

"I have to say, this is a genius idea, but in front of Uncle Quinn, it's still a trivial idea! Hahahaha!"

After going through several experiments, Quinn successfully produced a finished product, and he is boasting.

He admitted that the design concept of the blue wave ball is good. It can start with the fixed shape changes of the animal system in this way, and the thinking can be regarded as a powerful and unconstrained style. If it had seen this kind of achievement decades earlier, MADS would have a lot of interest in it. .

But that's all, Quinn still firmly believes that he will not lose to the opponent in this regard.

"You failed seventeen times in total and blew up the laboratory six times. Do you call this trivial?"

"Mi, the little thorn is right, it makes a lot of sense."

"Don't learn from that nasty prickly ammonite! Is it difficult to flatter me at this time?!"

The spiny ammonite backstabs Quinn with words as always, and it can't explain why it always does this. It can only be said that it is used to it. As for Xie Mi, she was affected by the environment, and the spiny ammonite taught her something bad.

But it only stays in words, and has not yet evolved to the point of greeting him with air slash.

"What I said is the truth, and, is your meatball really successful?"

Chopper's ramball is no different in size from Mai Lisu, but the one made by Quinn is about the same size as a braised lion's head, and the color is much darker. It doesn't look like a success.

"What do you know about a snail? Although it doesn't look good, the effect of the medicine is definitely no problem. Let me think about asking someone to try it."

"Aren't you an ability user of the animal department?"

"Ahem, as a researcher, I have to observe its effect, how to observe it after eating it myself. NOVELUSb.com

Besides, Master Arceus has modified my ability, who knows if this thing will conflict with Master Arceus' power.

If you don't understand academic issues, go and monitor your information honestly! My uncle is going to report to work. "

People with artificial fruit abilities, pure Pokémon abilities, and fruit-reformed Pokémon abilities are not suitable subjects for the experiment. Quinn plans to find an ordinary ability person to try the Rumble Ball he made. Effect.

But for a while, he really couldn't find such a person. The general quantification is artificial fruit, most of the cadres have the ability of Pokémon, and a few people with pure fruit ability are not there.

"The world has changed, why is it so hard to find common species?"

After looking around, Quinn finally bumped into Kaido.

"Quinn, what are you doing wandering around?"

"Brother Kaidou? I just want to find someone to try the medicine. I cracked the thing sent back from Sky Island before. I want to experiment with the effect, but I won't be able to find a suitable person for a while."

"A pure ability user? Show me."

"Brother Kaikedo! You mean you want to come by yourself?"

"What's the matter? Am I not a pure ability user? Anyway, even if you come up with any poison, it won't kill me, so it's okay to try it for you."

"But, I think."

"Stop talking nonsense, bring it here!"

Looking at the black and blue ball made by Quinn, Kaido threw it into his mouth, trying to see how magical the so-called form transformation is.

"How is it, Brother Kaito? How do you feel?"

Kaido insisted on making this attempt, and Quinn naturally couldn't stop him, so he could only ask about his feelings afterwards, but before asking, he silently took a few big steps back.

"Feeling. A little angry"

"Angry?"

"How should I put it, there is no physical change, and there is no breakthrough in form change, but now I really want to fight."

Chapter 945 Miss Drake, can you please explain your eyes?

"Brother Kaidou, science is a rigorous question, please think about it carefully, didn't you really say that on purpose because you wanted to fight!" NOVELUSb.com

Listening to Kaido's words, Quinn's eyeballs almost popped out. The rambo ball he pushed back really failed. He won't be too upset. After all, this is only the first finished product, and many things are still being explored. nothing.

But failure became a stimulant, and Kaido ate it, so it's not an interesting thing.

With Kaido's character, he is very likely to play such a game.

"No, I do feel angry now."

"Hmph, Brother Kaidou, you've exposed yourself. If you really get angry, you can't hold back now!"

Quinn seemed to see through everything, and didn't believe Kaido's words at all.

"Brother Kaito, if you really got angry because of external factors, you should have started fighting now"

"Boom!"

"Grunt."

Swallowed, looking at the mace that fell on his feet, Quinn suddenly remembered something, whether Kaido was really angry or pretended to be angry, he seemed unable to hide.

"Your cleverness is in the wrong place, Quinn, I really want to hit you, do I still need to find a reason?"

Kaido blocked all possibilities with one sentence. He was right. As a person who believes that force is everything, Kaido doesn't need a reason to do things, because he wants to do it, so he does it. This is his reason for action. fundamental.

"However, this thing of yours really hasn't changed in form. On the contrary, it makes people a lot more angry. Your research seems to have failed."

"In that case, I'll go back and continue my research. It shouldn't be difficult."

From acting on the body to acting on the spirit, he must have made a mistake in some way, as long as the experiment is rearranged.

And he didn't want to be destroyed by Kaido, but when he was just about to leave, the eight fists had blocked his way.

"It's already like this, you want to go straight away? Wei Lei Gossip!"

"Brother Kaito, you insisted on trying it yourself!"

This is the reason why Quinn didn't want Kaido to try it. He wasn't afraid of poisoning Kaido to death. Anyway, his physique would definitely not kill him. He was afraid that Kaido would go crazy, but there are some things that cannot be avoided after all.

Even Kaido developed new moves because of this. In a sense, he is also a great contributor.

On the beach of Baimai, due to the aftermath of Onijima, the inland sea of Wano Country became no longer calm, and the raging waves brought a few fishermen back to the shore.

"Lord Ming Wang has started again."

"After all, it is Lord Ming, and it is the power of Lord Ming that makes us live like this."

The faces of these people are a little younger. Most of them didn't understand anything on the night of the Wano country's coup. Growing up in such an environment, they didn't have any resistance to beasts at all. Come, they should rule here.

Along the inland river, there are ordinary residents along the banks. Occasionally, they will see a few Pokémon following them, and some unlucky ones are accidentally injured and are pushed into the Pokémon Center for treatment.

Nowadays, there is even a specialization called the Electric Injury Department of Mali sheep. There are always people who do not believe in evil, and touch the Mali sheep with bare hands, causing them to be injured by electric shock.

Nowadays, I have never been electrocuted by Mali Yang, so I am ashamed to say that I work there.

Following the inland river, we arrived at the Capital of Flowers. In the palace, Drake was reading the newspaper that had just been delivered.

"Wow, Big Brother Jhin really did something amazing."

【Fire Calamity Ember-Kaido's right-hand man】

【Lieutenant Admiral Stoloberg died in action, the Navy mourned for him】

【The Navy has lost face, and a more dangerous era is coming】

"Morgans is so courageous, he dares to write this kind of thing."

Picked up a bottle of rum and drank it down. Even Derek admired Morgans' courage. He really dared to be a headline party and dared to write about everything.

Although Jhin has not returned yet, the news of the battle has already been sent back to Wano Country, but there is not much news about Blackbeard and Ace. The World Government is still preparing something about it and has not announced it immediately.

Looking at the big events one after another in the newspaper, Derek couldn't help being a little surprised. During the period after her return, a lot of things seemed to have happened on the sea.

At this time, there was a knock on the door, and Kikunojo walked in, with a flower therapy wreath floating above his head.

"Miss Derek, everyone said to drink less alcohol recently. The doctor said that the petal water in the flower therapy ring can promote wound healing. Your eyes are still... still"

Looking at Drake, Kikunojo suddenly noticed something was wrong.

"Miss Drake, if I remember correctly, you injured your right eye, right? Could you please tell me why your blindfold is on your left eye?"

Since returning to Wano Country, Drake has taken up a lot of Kikunojo's time on the grounds of being injured.

He also thinks that it is because of himself that Drake's eyes have problems, so he basically obeys Drake's request, but now, he finds that he seems to have misunderstood something.

Her right eye appears to be intact.

"Huh?"

Touching his blindfold, Derek discovered the problem.

Her eyes were healed not long after returning to Wano Country. Except for the pain for a few days, nothing was affected, but this did not prevent her from taking advantage of the injury to plan her own private affairs.

For example, wearing a blindfold to pretend that something is really wrong with her, but Kikunojo was not there when she was reading the newspaper before, so she took off the blindfold because she thought it was getting in the way and felt uncomfortable.

The content of the news gave her a lot of shock, so when Kikunojo came in, she who didn't leave any scars grabbed the blindfold and put it on backwards.

"This... In fact, this eye is just a prosthetic eye, specially made by Brother Quinn, and my eyes can see through, so wearing an eye patch doesn't affect my seeing."

"I see, do I look like a fool? What prosthetic eye can be so flexible?"

"You know our technology too, well, in fact, it was cured a few days ago, and it is no different from the original now."

"Very good!"

"Um?"

"If your eyes are fine, that's better than anything else."

Kikunojo didn't care about Drake's pretending to be sick. Compared to this, her body is really fine, which makes Kikunojo happy.

"You guys are so naive, it's surprising, but that's okay, I've been holding back for a few days, I'm going to have a banquet, do you want to come together?"

"Miss Drake, can't you save some money?"

"No, people, you might die in the sea at any time. Instead of saving money, it's better to be smart and have enough."

Chapter 946 Oden has to knock one if he is alive, Moria's hidden switch

Kikunojo's character Drake has also been figured out. He is kind-hearted, and he is an overly kind-hearted type. He thinks about others most of the time. As long as Mitatoxin can be eliminated, there is no big problem.

It was just his reaction after he found out that he was pretending to be blind. The blandness made Derek a little guilty, and he felt that this was not good.

However, this kind of guilt existed for a short time, and was quickly forgotten by Derek, and he dragged Kikunojo to the banquet.

"Miss Drake, you are not conducive to life"

"There are not so many things, although I really want to see the ideal world that Arceus-sama and Yamato-san have imagined, but no one can guarantee whether they will really make it to that day.

If I really die on the way, I don't want to regret it, but if I die, those people should never forget me. After all, if that's the case, no one will pay back their money.

Let's go, go, go to the banquet! "nOveluSib.coM

Under Drake's dragging, Kikunojo was pulled out by her, which was also part of his attitude change, which the previous Drake couldn't do.

And all of this was seen by Denjiro in the palace.

Although he has always supported Kikunojo's betrayal of lust, he feels that it seems a bit too much after this period of time, especially after the time he came out, Kikunojo's attitude has changed dramatically.

Shortly after Kikunojo left, Kawamatsu also returned here.

"Is there any problem with Xiaosheng?"

"White-haired Kamatsu, have you gone to play with the two of them again?"

Kikunojo's daily life is being harassed by Drake, while Kawamatsu's daily life is to exchange some "kappa experience" with Lotte Kappa. Sometimes Miao Na and Wolf are also very interested in him as a kappa. .

After Kozuki Rihe grew up, and his state of mind had undergone a huge change, his reliance on them was not as serious as before. This made Kawamatsu want to find some sense of presence, so when he was not assigned a task, he would act as A companion character.

"Yes, the way they look at Xiaosheng is normal."

There are a large number of murlocs and fur tribes in Hundred Beasts today, so they don't have the special eyesight of the local residents of Wano Country on the "alien" like Kawamatsu.

Especially there are murlocs and fur tribes at the top of Beasts. They are more accepting of these two races than the local residents of Wano country. There, Kawamatsu feels a sense of relaxation.

"He Song, you have fallen too"

"Fallen?"

"Don't forget the year"

"Although I don't want to admit it, Denjiro, you were very smart before, you should understand what the current Wano country is like.

If Mita-sama is still alive

He might smile and give Wano Country to Kaido, and then take us out to sea. "

Kawamatsu is right. Denjiro knows what the current Wano country is like. Except that the country has not been completely established, everything is infinitely stronger than it was 18 years ago.

The current generation of young people in Wano Country, whoever allows them to return to their past lives, they will probably fight desperately with whoever.

Originally there were some loyalists, but those people actually came up with the act of assassinating Kozuki Hiyori. This behavior was beyond the comprehension of Denjiro, and this behavior eventually led to the "blackening" of Kozuki Hiyori.

"It's difficult"

"Yeah, if you really want to blame it, the big snake is the culprit."

Drake, who had finished pretending to be sick, started his own banquet again. Jhin was still on his way back, and the World Government was continuing to discuss the issue. In the Terrible Triangle, Luffy and his party also met so far. The strongest enemy.

They were trapped on the empty island and were delayed for a long time. After leaving, they went to participate in an adventure activity organized by a pirate, and obtained a treasure from it.

When they arrived at the capital of seven waters, they just bumped into Franky who planned to build a boat to find Tom.

It has always been Franky's dream to build a dream boat, but he has no money, which makes him unable to buy good materials.

At this time, he met the Straw Hats who were rich but could not repair the Merry. After being moved by their feelings for the ship, they cooperated to build the Sunshine.

His purpose was to find Tom. As for the other members of the Franky family, with the help of the business card Tom gave, they started their new jobs in a dismantling factory under Beast Fruit.

Because the shadow was taken away, they had to start a battle with Moria, and because of the appearance of Von Kray, they even successfully completed-Pirate 6 Fusion-Giant-Emperor, but it was useless.

In the East China Sea, I saw the power of the world. After being wiped out by the Batmen, the Straw Hats began to think about life. They also developed new moves, but they were not proficient. Not much success was achieved.

The skinny camel is bigger than the horse. Moriah was also a ruthless person back then, but it's a pity that he met a more ruthless person.

Years of life in a fat house have ruined his physical skills, and his closed heart has lost his original domineering. Originally, Moria was already at a disadvantage, but because of Luffy's words, he fell into a rage.

"Down with Kaido? How dare you... How dare you say such things! Why do you do such things! You weaklings, why do you have such courage!"

Moria walked out of the zombie made by Oz, holding a pair of scissors, he entered a state of near madness because of a name.

The word Kaido was almost his nightmare for the rest of his life. His partner, his dream, and everything about him were destroyed in that battle. After that, he hid in this fog and began to plan his zombie army.

Seeing this group of weak people threatening to defeat that monster, Moria felt his heart was hit violently. It was like telling him to his face that he was a waste.

"Eighty million Baileys, just a pirate with 80 million Baileys, why do you think you can challenge Kaido!"

Luffy's record is far less brilliant than in the past. It is very rare to be able to mention this price. Although he has strength now, he is not a member of the supernova at all. By the way, Helo's reward is 10,000 Bei profit.

Since the special existence of Arceus appeared, the navy began to offer additional rewards for some non-human creatures, and Hero also avoided the fate of being less valuable than newspapers.

The word Kaido seems to have turned on a hidden switch in Moriah's body, causing him to explode with far more combat power than usual.

"What the * happened to this guy!"

Luffy doesn't understand what makes Moria's strength

"I remembered, I heard that he once challenged Kaido, one of the four emperors, but because of failure, all his partners were killed!"

Lola seems to have recalled some information and answered the doubts of everyone present, but this has no practical significance.

Chapter 947: The strengths of relationships

Today's BIG MOM Pirates and Beasts Pirates are more closely connected. Charlotte Lingling also mentioned the past to her children when she was idle on weekdays.

is also known as the emperor of the sea, and some topics are always unavoidable, so Laura also heard Charlotte Lingling talk about those things by chance.

Shichibukai is also a respectable pirate in the sea. Even if some people are decadent now, they have had their own glory.

At that time, Charlotte Lingling talked about some things about Qiwuhai's past.

Aiming at the navy, known as the eagle eye of the navy hunter, the Pirate Empress who became famous in World War I, these are all well-known names in Shichibukai, and some people have proved their strength through defeat.

For example, Moria who lost to Kaido, although all his companions were killed, he himself is still alive. Among the pirates who invaded Kaido's base camp, this is an extremely rare case.

Just when this matter was mentioned, Laura remembered that Charlotte Lingling gritted her teeth, because many pastry chefs couldn't stand the temptation of the Frosty Milk Fairy, and ran from her territory to Kaido's.

"Killed all the partners?"

"I don't know exactly what's going on. Anyway, he once confronted Kaido, and because of this, he became Shichibukai. Kaido may be his pain."

Lola hid behind a pillar and told Luffy what she knew.

"Is that Kaido such a violent person? His subordinates seem to be quite kind."

During the time on Sky Island, Batman didn't make things difficult for them. After all, Unicorn Fairy also has face, and Batman thought that these guys might be colleagues in the future, so he didn't do anything other than ask for a part-time job.

"Be kind? That's the Four Emperors of the New World, the most vicious big pirate in the world! Why do you think that guy is kind!"

The current four emperors can be divided into two categories. The three males are considered to be able to make a living for the people in the territory, but to the outside world, no matter whether they are white beards or red hair, they leave behind a terrible reputation.

As for Charlotte Lingling, she mainly depends on her mental state. When her mental state is abnormal, she poses a greater threat to the territory. Even her own son can't stop her.

For Luffy's judgment, Laura didn't even know where to condemn him.

"Kaido? I haven't heard of this person, but I have heard of the name Charlotte Lingling. She seems to be a very destructive little girl."

A skeleton is also thinking about this sentence, but his logic is more special.

This skeleton is exactly Brook, who was also trapped in the terrifying three-masted sailing ship because his shadow was taken away.

The swordsman and musician of the Rumba Pirates. When the Rumba Pirates sailed to the Devil's Triangle, they encountered a huge change and were wiped out. Only Brook survived because of the fruit of the underworld.

It's just that when his soul came out of the underworld and was about to return to his body, he was lost in the thick fog of the Devil's Triangle for a year, and when he found his body, his body had turned into a skeleton.

Compared with others, Brooke is old enough and experienced enough. To him, Roger is a newcomer, and Charlotte Lingling has not made a big name. As for Kaido, Kaido at that time Still a soldier of the Royal Army, he didn't go to sea at all.

Boom!

A boulder fell, interrupting this untimely conversation.

"That's the end of the chat! You don't know at all, you don't know anything at all, it's because you are alive that you lose it! The shadow gathering place-the shadow emperor!"

The shadows on the island were summoned by Moria to gather in his body, and Moria's size continued to expand as a result, gradually turning into an exaggerated giant.

"You may be strong, but in order to protect my companions, I have sworn that I will not be defeated again!"

This is the oath he made to protect his partner when he left Sky Island, but fulfilling this oath is extremely difficult.

"Being able to say such things shows that your qualifications are still low! You, who have never experienced the cruelty of the new world, do not understand the horror of this world at all!"

Ridiculous, this is the only thought in Moria's mind. Looking at this energetic newcomer, the anger in Moria's heart began to swell. He doesn't know why, but looking at this hopeful face, he seems to have lost something Same.

The furious Moriah launched a fierce attack on Luffy and his party. Compared with Moriah back then, Moriah now has lost the sharpest minions, but the shadow fruit and the gigantic body still give way Fei and his party were miserable.

Although they are still getting stronger, compared to the original timeline, they lack a deathmatch. Sauron and Sanji fought against the cadres of Crocodile in Alabasta, but Luffy didn't. Batman replaced Enel, and also let Luffy know what is difficult, but he lost his life and death with CP9 fight.

Even if the second and third gears are also developed, he is still a bit worse than the original timeline.

Moria was touched by a hidden switch because of the word Kaido, and broke out with even higher fighting power under the rage.

Physical strength is constantly being consumed, and Luffy is gradually approaching the limit in the collision again and again.

"It looks like your oath is about to be broken!"

Moria's condition is not very good. If he was more than 20 years ago, he would never lose to these people in front of him, but now, maintaining this shadow emperor is already a great consumption for him. His will Power is suffering all the time.

Luffy is okay, but their partners have a very difficult time parrying Moria who is attacking indiscriminately in a rage.

"Let's experience the pain of loss well!" NovEluS&.cOM

Seizing the opportunity, when Moria was planning to attack the other members of the Straw Hat Pirates, a sudden change occurred, and the entire island was suddenly covered by an unknown attack.

Seeing from above, a bear paw-shaped imprint suddenly appeared on the island. Whether it was Moriah, Luffy, or the people next to him, they all lost consciousness under the blow.

At the moment Moria lost consciousness, countless shadows began to return to his body, and his body shape also began to return to normal, and then he was taken to another place in a nearly teleported posture.

"Bartholomew Bear! What do you mean!"

Moria woke up quickly, and after waking up, he didn't feel hurt at all. Looking at the person in front of him, he also understood what happened just now.

"Killing those few people, you can't win, you will still lose, it's meaningless. Your body can't bear his next attack anymore."

The huge red bubble bear paw floated in the sky, which was the pain suffered by Moriah. After part of the bear was sent back into Moriah's body, he finally understood the meaning of the bear's words.

"What the * are you here for?"

Chapter 948 Moria's request, the mysterious shadow

Because the Straw Hat in the original timeline defeated Crocodile first, then invaded Judiciary Island, and survived the Demon Slaying Order, it attracted great attention from the World Government. Since he entered Moria's territory, Bear has own task.

If Moriah is defeated, everyone must be wiped out together, and Qibukai cannot be defeated by the same person in a row. In that case, the status of Shichibukai and the face of the world government will be lost.

But it's different now. The Straw Hat Pirates are just a mediocre pirate group. They would not have attracted too much attention from the World Government. The bear came here not to obliterate Moria, but to convey some special orders on behalf of the World Government. .

After Fire Fist Ace was arrested, they finally made the decision to execute the sentence. The reason for the public was that Roger's criminal bloodline needed to end, but in fact, their real purpose was to question the new world structure.

Redhead secretly contacted Whitebeard and Kaido, not knowing what they were doing, facing the ever-expanding new world, they needed to curb this trend.

Targeting Ace, ending Whitebeard, and improving the Navy's prestige, that's what they intend.

For this reason, the navy is secretly drawing troops from all over the world and summoning the Qiwuhai.

But Shichibukai is not always obedient. Due to his own particularity, Xiong obeys the orders of the world government. His order is to convey this order to Moria and take him there.

"What does Lao Tzu's battle have to do with you?! What does killing them have to do with you!"

"Whether I come or not, I will lose to the Straw Hat in the end. The ending is the same."

"It's not the same, that naive kid, why does that naive guy still have his own partner! The pain of loss is what he should experience."

Moriah didn't finish his sentence, the bear's palm was already placed on his forehead, the implication was self-evident.

"I'm here to convey to you the order of the world government, about their future combat plan"

"Is the target Whitebeard?"

"And regarding the outside world, let the news of your defeat spread.

If I don't come, things will continue in this direction, and what I do, you'd better keep your mouth shut. "

"Bear, you bastard!"

"My time is running out, you should have heard of some, the decision is up to you, but you have to understand, you are not my opponent."

Xiong's tone didn't fluctuate at all, like a ruthless robot.

According to Xiong's agreement, there is not much time before he is transformed into a mindless pacifist, which amounts to a special kind of death for him, and he doesn't mind doing something during this last time.

Who made Luffy the son of the dragon? If it wasn't for this, Xiong wouldn't have interfered with these people at all. He would have prevented Moriah from hurting Luffy's partner, and it was because of this.

"There is a record pointer on the ship, you can go where you need to go, and I have to deal with some things related to the straw hat."

"etc."

"Um?"

"I promise you, but there are still my partners on board. Hogbak doesn't know what happened, but Absalom must still be alive. Bring them out, and I will agree to your request, otherwise...don't forget, I It's also the Qiwuhai!"

"Yes, I agree to your request."

"Deal, I won't say anything you do."

It is normal for Shichibukai to have their own ghosts. Moriah is not interested in what the bear is going to do. As long as he can do what he asks, he doesn't care about other things.

After calming down, he also knew that what Xiong said was right, that blow was his last blow, and after that, he was likely to fail.

After the bear left, Moria stared blankly at his hands, and his former partner reappeared in his memory like a revolving lantern, and Luffy's innocent smiling face kept reappearing in his mind.

"Protect your partner. Oh, straw hat boy, you will know the pain of the new world"

After leaving here, Xiong conducted his own assessment of the Straw Hats. He thought that although these people were strange, they were all a group of qualified partners, so he left here with confidence. Help is comparable to a real father.

And Luffy and the others ended the battle inexplicably. Except for Hero and Zoro, no one knew what happened on the island, but they didn't tell it.

"Speaking of which, what's going on, why did everyone faint all of a sudden?"

"I don't know, I seem to see a dark shadow."

Nami and Usopp were discussing what happened in the end, while Luffy was staring at the life card in his hand from the bow in a daze.

When leaving the Terrible Triangle sea area, Laura presented a new life card and said that the life card is a card that can feed back the vitality of the owner. If the card starts to burn, it means that the owner is not in good condition.

It's just that he still doesn't know what caused this incident.

"Hello, hello."

"Ah, I'm fine hehe, I believe in Ace, he should be fine, okay, let's not think about it, Ace doesn't want me to worry about him because of this kind of thing."

Putting his thoughts back on the boat, Luffy looked at his new partner Brook, and at this time he was also analyzing the so-called mysterious shadow.

"Yohohohoho, it's really an interesting guess, but speaking of it, I have also seen a strange black shadow in the past two years, and that may be an emissary from the underworld."

"The messenger of the underworld?!"

"Yeah, I was taken aback at the time. The black figure suddenly appeared beside me and asked me where Huang Quan was, but unfortunately, I didn't know where that thing was.

At that time, he still didn't believe it, so I had a nightmare before leaving. "

In terms of telling ghost stories, Brook has a lot of talent, at least he scares Nami and Chopper enough.

"Does Huanghuangquan really have messengers?"

"I don't know, but it's definitely not that guy, Brooke. Is the black shadow you're talking about a guy with white hair and only one eye?"

"Yeah, and no legs. Have you seen him?"

"I've seen it before, that guy seems to have been looking for Huang Quan, and then he asked me for directions, he must have lost his way.

If I knew where that place was, I would really like to visit it. "

“.”

The terrifying atmosphere created by Brook disappeared suddenly, and a person who asked Sauron for directions

Chopper and Nami looked at each other. If there is no accident, they should never meet this kind of person in this life.

Chapter 949 Phantom Calamity Takes Off Her Invisibility Curtain

"Boa Hancock! Do you know what you're talking about?!"

"Of course I know, but I'm not interested in your affairs, no matter if it's Whitebeard or anyone else, I don't want to participate."

"You better think it through!"

"It's time for the concubine's lunch break, and I will naturally think about it when I feel better."

Patter, Hancock hung up the phone, completely ignoring the people on the World Government side.

"Hancock! You're like this"

"Okay, mother-in-law, I don't want to talk about this topic. For the sake of my beauty, you can study this kind of thing yourself, okay?"

"OK"

In addition to petrification, the ability of the sweet fruit to use the characteristic of "beauty" is also very powerful. Even Gu Luoliosa couldn't avoid the influence of this ability. When she realized it, Hancock had already disappeared.

"Alas" Gu Luoliosa is also very helpless, Hancock is strong enough, there is no problem in protecting the safety of Nine Snakes, it is this character that makes people don't know what to do.

She used this method because she was in a good mood. If she was in a bad mood, she might just go straight to her feet.

But complaints are complaints. She really has to think about what to do in the future. The world government is not ready yet, so no specific information has been published in the newspaper.

Even summoning Qiwuhai was only the first time. They knew very well that it was impossible to recruit all these people with ulterior motives at once.

Even in the phone call just now, the world government didn't say exactly what to do, it just asked Hancock to obey and prepare for the next action.

In today's Qibukai, only Xiong knows the most detailed actions, because of his particularity, at this time, Xiong has a level of trust that other Qibukai have never had.

What the World Government wants to do Hancock is not interested, she doesn't like the World Government itself, and she cares more about the things in front of her than the so-called convening of the World Government.

"Sister Olga~ It's been a long time. Let's try the special products of Nine Snakes. These are all sea animals caught in the windless zone, and there is no fruit at all."

If the person who called before saw Hancock's reaction at this time, he would definitely drop his jaw in shock.

There was no coldness in Hancock's tone, but only countless tenderness. The reason why she hung up the phone in a hurry was because Olga had come to Nine Snakes for vacation again.

She was able to speak patiently before hanging up the phone because she was in a better mood.

"Ah, it's okay to have some fruit occasionally. I think grilled pineapple is quite delicious recently."

The problem of nausea when seeing fruit at the beginning is almost healed now, but Olga is still used to processing it before eating it. Grilled pineapple is an example.

Although grilled fruit sounds outrageous, the taste of grilled pineapple is still good. The high temperature will destroy its structure, so that the pineapple will not "pickle the mouth", and at the same time it can further stimulate its sweetness.

"Didn't you hear me! What are you doing standing there! Go and prepare the grilled pineapple! Please wait a moment, Sister Olga~ It will be ready soon, soon."

Hancock showed how to change faces in Sichuan opera, instructing the cook outside the door. In fact, she wanted to cook by herself, but her past experiments have proved that she does not have that talent.

The food she made was not said to be poisonous, but it was a bit hard to swallow. In order not to lose this person, she still gave up this idea.

"I just said so casually, what happened to the call from the World Government just now?"

"They seem to be planning a war, and they want to recruit Qiwuhai to join the war."

"War? It's over, Captain Kaido has to get excited again."

Leaning on the cushion behind her, Olga seemed to think of her busy future.

"I haven't agreed to the summoning order yet, do I need to reply to them, and then inquire about information? They didn't say that the target is a hundred beasts."

"Don't worry, this will be abnormal, just watch it when the time comes, they won't tell you until they start fighting."

It doesn't matter if it's against anyone. Captain Kaido is a war freak. No matter who the war is against, if the scale is large enough, he will definitely join in the fun. I just don't know how many people will be brought this time. Anyway, Uncle Quinn must be in trouble up."

It's not that Kaido has never done this kind of thing. For example, when he was wandering around, he saw pirates fighting. Ordinary people would stay away to avoid trouble, and some people would sit on the mountain and watch tigers fight, wanting to reap the benefits, but Kaido is different. .

As long as these people are capable, he will attack directly and indiscriminately, turning the battle into a melee to satisfy his own preferences.

There are only a few people worthy of the World Government going to war, Kaido will never miss such a thing.

"By the way, give me your Rotom, I almost forgot the business, it's time to update the system for you."

"Update system?"

Although he didn't understand, Hancock still handed over the Rotom phone.

Her version is just an ordinary foreign trade version, lacking some internal software of Beast.

The Rotom of the insiders is different from that of the outside world. Some special software can only be updated on Ghost Island, or it can be transmitted through the upgraded Rotom. What Olga helped Hancock update is the internal version of the mast express.

"Okay, then there is no problem. In the future, whatever you buy can be delivered within a day, and it can also deliver newspapers and information for you, so that it will be much more convenient for you to collect external information."

News Bird will not enter the calm zone, so there will be a certain delay in the update of the news of Hydra.

"Recently, Tezolo is still cooperating with Morgans, planning to create an electronic daily, which will be more convenient in the future. If you need anything else, I will help you deal with it."

It was a rare visit, and Olga wanted to deal with everything at once, but she didn't get a reply after waiting for a long time.

When she raised her head again, she saw a pair of red eyes. NovEluS&.cOM

"I said, did you misunderstand me? Don't think about those messy things!"

A hand knife knocked Hancock back to God, and Olga brought the topic back on track, such as recording the geographical location of Nine Snakes, so as to give the fast dragons a permanent pointer to Nine Snakes.

On the other side, after a period of flying, Jhin returned to Wano Country again, but his mood was slightly complicated.

"Cheers to Brother Jin!"

"cheers!"

Although Jhin did not kill him, Jhin also made Blackbeard burn himself several times, and that eye was considered useless. If Blackbeard's eyes can be recovered, Jhin will go to discuss with Marco, who will be the one? It's a real phoenix.

As for why he was in a complicated mood, it was because Drake and others were having a banquet around his new reward order, as if celebrating his big breakthrough in the reward.

There is nothing wrong with this, but seeing Drake drink too much to toast his bounty order, he couldn't help it.

Chapter 950: Strange style of painting, gathered Qibuhai

"Frances Drake! What are you doing?!"

"Eh? Why is there another bonfire? Are there people coming again? Don't you understand the rule of not bringing guests? You pay for that table yourself!"

When a person starts to call his subordinates by their first and last names in an informal setting, it means that his attitude has changed to a certain extent.

Looking at the reward order placed on the empty seat, Jin clenched his fists tightly.

With the development of the times, the effectiveness of the reward order is not as good as before. The reward order issued to curb illegal activities has become the capital of the pirates to show off.

It is not uncommon to enlarge the reward order and hang the reward order of idols on the wall. Some people have made wax figures of some famous big pirates for collection.

Looking at the photo on the reward order, Jhin has to admire the photographer, because on his new reward order, the background flame is blue.

That was the first time he used the blue flame mode outside, and the action should have been captured when he stabbed Blackbeard in the eye socket. For this, he had to admire the photographers on board the navy. How much worse is the CP agent.

But a good-looking photo of the reward order does not mean that he can get used to being placed on the table by others, which makes Jhin feel that he is very conspicuous.

If he had to comfort himself, he could only be thankful that Derek didn't pour the wine on the ground, otherwise it would be even more outrageous.

Facing the sudden questioning, Derek didn't grasp the point. It was night, and she was holding her own banquet as usual.

Jhin's habit of wearing black clothes allows him to blend into the background well, and there is always a flame burning behind his head. When he drinks too much, it is really easy to cause misunderstandings.

Derek is more concerned about who called the person. She likes to treat guests and spread money. It is a personal hobby and living habit, but this does not mean that she likes to be taken advantage of.

Her generosity is only aimed at the people she invites. The sea emperor's pirate group is as large as ten thousand people. Even the team stationed in Wano country has thousands of people. No one can guarantee to get along with thousands of people. Some people don't like it, even if she is a cadre.

"Miss Drake, that's not a bonfire, it's Jh... Mr. Jhin."

Kikunojo, who was pulled over, froze for a moment, and finally picked out a fairly suitable word.

"Jin? Impossible, Big Brother Jin may come back, how can it be so fast, what are you all doing in a daze? Keep drinking!"

The surroundings became silent, and the appearance of Jhin made them feel uneasy. They were not Drake, who dared to be so presumptuous in front of Jhin, although it was because of Drake's drinking too much.

But if it were them, even if they were drunk, Jhin would probably greet him with his own fist.

"How much did she drink?"

"One day."

A new quantifier appeared here. Because the banquet was too long, it changed from an ordinary banquet during the day to a bonfire party at night. In the end, she could only use time to estimate how much she drank.

"call"

Sighing, Jhin snapped his fingers and gave Drake the head, which is a special physical sobering method.

Alcohol can make people intoxicated because alcohol contains ethanol, which will make the human body enter a state of excitement, but at the level of Drake, the body is already different from ordinary people.

Like Kaido, if you don't want to get drunk, you can't get drunk even after drinking for a day.

But in order to experience the feeling of being drunk, they will control their bodies not to resist.

As long as there is a special situation, their body functions will skip the thought control and sober up directly. External attack is the best special situation.

But no one can generalize. Even if Jhin just snapped his fingers, he still flipped Drake over.

"Are you awake now?"

"It hurts, brother Jin, what are you doing? I'm celebrating for you. This is two billion. There are a few pirates in the sea who have offered a reward of more than two billion!"

"Why don't you give me incense?"

Derek glanced at the dimly lit banquet place. Under the light of the fire, the photo in front of Jhin seemed a little ominous.

"Hey, don't worry about it, brother Jin, at worst, you can put my photo on it next time, I don't care at all, let's have a drink."

It's not that Jhin can't eat in front of outsiders, his mask has openings, as long as his head is transformed into a pterosaur, he can eat through the extended mouth, but Jhin has no interest in it at this time .

"I had a little accident this time and let that guy run away. When I meet him again, I will bring his head back."

"That guy escaped from Brother Jin?!"

"There are a little more people in the navy, and that guy's vitality is extremely tenacious, not as tenacious as a human being, but next time he won't have this chance again.

He collected some interest for you, his eye must be useless, I don't believe in that situation, there are other people who can heal his eye. "

In a sense, Jhin has also set up his own flag, but for those who are strong enough, accidents cannot exist forever, unless the person opposite is called Bucky.

Jhin guessed right, at this time Blackbeard has already put on the blindfold like Drake before.

Different from Drake's deception, there is a hole under Blackbeard's right eye. In order to prevent other areas from being infected, Poison Q has removed Blackbeard's right eye.

After returning with the navy, this group of people stayed in Marie Gioia for the time being. The reason was to respond to the arrangement of the world government, but in fact, Blackbeard was secretly planning the next step.

"Captain Tiki, your body is really strange, and you recovered so quickly." nOvelusB.com

"Thief hahaha, as long as you don't die, there are infinite possibilities, and your dreams can continue. It's a pity that Van Oka died, so we have to recruit one more talent. Lafayette, you can be sure. ,Right?"

"Of course, I'm fine with that."

Blackbeard did not give up on himself because of the loss of an eye, but thought it was the blessing of God, and even after losing a crew member, he made more detailed arrangements for the future.

In the meeting room of the world government, the staff office of the world government is also discussing the topic of Qiwuhai.

"Blackbeard is in Marie Gioia, he has just joined Shichibukai and he is very cooperative, Bartholomew Okuma has already brought Moonlight Moria to take his place.

Hawkeye agrees to go to war, but nothing happens yet.

Pirate Empress and Kaixia Jinbei expressed their refusal, Doflamingo's attitude is ambiguous, less than half of the Shichibukai are now in place, and some people in the navy are against this war."

"We are the world government, what the navy has to do is not to give opinions, but to execute orders.

Warring States is a little unclear about his position. Maybe after this war, it's time for a new marshal? "
