Chapter 991 The awakened Buddha, the end of Zefa

"Why, old man, aren't you afraid?"

"How is it possible, I am also the admiral of the navy, if this is the case, then go crazy."

Strategies have a great impact on war, provided that the opponent is not a monster like Kaido who has no scruples and whose individual strength is beyond the charts. If you want to defeat this monster, you can only find a way to defeat it head-on with hard power.

Seeing that Zefa had made up his mind, Sengoku did not continue to dissuade him. This was a battle chosen by a veteran, and Sengoku had no reason to prevent him from risking his life in order to eliminate the pirates.

Looking at Zefa and Sengoku walking towards him, Kaido stopped his footsteps. He wanted to see what was going on with Whitebeard, but he didn't expect these two navies to give up.

"I'm not interested in you now."

"Don't be too arrogant, pirates, this is Marlin Vandor, it's a battlefield, do you think it's just a play house game that you like?!"

Warring States lost the coat of justice that was draped on the body, the strong muscles of the upper body were exposed, and the body began to swell, and a huge golden Buddha appeared in Marin Fando.

There are several light wheels flashing behind the golden Buddha's body, and there are also lotus-like flame streamers surrounding his body.

Human Fruit-Great Buddha Form - Awakening.

"Hey, thank you for reminding me, I haven't seen such a great battlefield for a long time, I almost forgot that this is war"

The available targets are much better, but Kaido ignores the essence of war. This is not a game, but a place where life and death are fought.

Looking at Sengoku, who has turned into a great Buddha again, and Zefa with a firm expression, Kaido also put away his playful thoughts and prepared his fighting posture.

Facing a real opponent, giving him death and letting him die in battle is Kaido's respect.

At the same time, a light wheel behind Sengoku rose up and gradually expanded in the sky, finally covering Kaido, Jhin and others, forming a hemispherical light curtain, even the ground was scattered by Sengoku. shrouded in golden light.

This is the ability of the Warring States that Zefa just mentioned. With the power of the Buddha fruit, the Warring States can create a special space, which is isolated from the outside world, like an independent field.

The faint golden light is a special power as strong as his Buddha body. With this, Sengoku can use restrictive skills that are much more effective than Doflamingo's birdcage.

In this space, the power of the explosive rock can be better exerted, causing higher damage to the internal targets while reducing the impact on the outside world.

"Hehehe, interesting, are you afraid that I will run away? Don't worry, since you still want to fight, then I will accompany you to the end, but don't expect me to stop halfway this time. You'd better be prepared to die, otherwise It's going to be boring."

Kaido, who had already untransformed, entered the human-beast form again, with flame clouds surrounding his body, and Kaido seemed to have seen something interesting, the corners of his mouth gradually raised, and the smile on his face became more obvious.

"Jin, Shaina, protect yourself, and don't meddle in my battle, no matter what happens, leave me alone!"

"Brother Kaito, you."

"Just watch it, Jhin, don't be like Quinn and Yamato, always let me worry about this kind of thing!"

"Yes, I see."

Looking at Shaina, Jhin and Shaina flew up into the sky, and finally stopped at the edge of the golden light curtain.

"Shatter it?"

Shaina measured twice against the light curtain. If necessary, it would not be difficult to break the red chain in her hand.

"Forget it, Brother Kaito said not to interfere with him, then this should be part of the battle." nOvelUSb.com

"I don't care about it, but the people on the Shiyuan sent me a message just now. The holy beasts are not far from here. It will be bad if it takes too long."

"So fast?"

"Otherwise, Lord Saint Beast has already obtained what he needs, the battle situation with Olga and Jack is also going well, and although there is a situation with Zeraora, it has also been resolved.

Now Mr. Kaido is left here, and it seems that this war will not end yet.

It seems that the people on the side of the white beard have not been rescued yet. Guess if they can succeed? "

"I don't know, the hero Karp is not easy to deal with, it depends on how far he will go."

The Blackbeard Pirates were directly scattered under the Tyrant Sea they attacked together, and those who survived were seriously injured. Now the ruins are also shrouded in the light curtain of the Warring States Period, so they are not in a hurry. Can these people Surviving the aftermath of the battle is unknown.

Let Kaido speak out to remind them to be careful, the next battle situation will not be easy no matter how you look at it.

"Buddha Shock!"

Sengoku slapped Kaido with his right palm, and the huge shock wave stopped Kaido temporarily, and Zefa's pulverizer also smashed into Kaido's face.

It's just that Kaido's performance is very strange. He obviously has other ways to block, but he directly uses defend.

"Come on, don't be dazed, let me see your trump card, I have cooperated with you so much, do you still hesitate?"

Zefa in his prime can still make Kaido interested, but this old and diseased Zefa can no longer satisfy Kaido in battle. Even with the Hailoushi weapon, it can only make him pay a little attention.

He made this move only after seeing some situations in the future prediction.

"You'll regret it, Kaido!"

Kaido's behavior did not dispel Zefa's determination, the wrist of his left hand turned black and he hit Kaido in front of him.

When it collided with Kaido's fist, the pulverizer had already crushed the device outside the explosive rock, and while it was in contact with oxygen, the pressure of the mechanical arm had also been applied to the explosive rock.

Purple light full of death threats emerged from Zefa's pulverizer, but Zefa did not throw it out, but held it to meet Kaido in front of him.

"Zefa!"

Zefa's actions were beyond Sengoku's expectations. He thought that Zefa would treat the thing as a dynamite bag and quickly move away after throwing it out, but Zefa chose to grab it and force Kaido to face him, not wanting to leave Kaido with anything. Opportunity to resist.

Boom! boom!

The explosion of Dynamite Rock triggered a vast purple torrent, and the purple energy wave surged in the area created by the Warring States Period, quickly filling the area.

Limited by the capabilities of the Warring States Period, the residual power of the explosion has nowhere to vent, so it can only accumulate continuously, and gradually reaches the upper limit of the Warring States Capacity.

Then the second explosion also came, but under the influence of the ability of the Warring States Period, the aftermath only spewed upwards, and did not fight around.

After the moves of the Warring States Period were broken, the entire Marine Force saw the terrifying purple mushroom cloud, and it was successfully transmitted to the whole world under Bucky's broadcast.

"Ahem, this movement is really loud"

Shaina in the sky removed her protective barrier, and then coughed several times due to choking. Jhin beside her was not idle, and her wings fanned out a gust of wind, dispelling the smoke and dust from the explosion below.

At the center of the explosion, Kaido and Zefa stood there motionless. The pulverizer on Zefa's right arm had disappeared, and even the entire right arm had disappeared, but his body was still tall and straight, maintaining the strength he had just swung. Fist gesture.

But Kaido in front of him suddenly moved, and he stretched out his hand to wipe the corner of his mouth, looked at the blood stains on his arm, and laughed again.

"Hey hehehe, it's really strong, this kind of attack is decent!"

The continuous use of defending will not fail, but will reduce the success rate, but Kaido just did not use defending or other defensive methods, but used his body to harden the explosion of the explosive rock.

Even Zefa, an incompetent person, dared to use Dynamite Rock like this, Kaido naturally didn't want to back down in his heart. Facts have proved that this thing is powerful enough, but it is still a lot worse.

"You're a good fighter, me."

Kaido raised the mace again, intending to give Zefa the last blow in front of him, but he stopped his movements abruptly, not because he was soft, but because it was unnecessary.

Eating the explosion of Dynamite Rock at close range, Zefa does not have the blessing of the animal system, and his physical condition is not good. Although he is still standing, he has already lost his vital signs

Chapter 992 The haze on the holy land, the arrival of Arceus and the red hair

"Dead? What a pity"

Kaido didn't do anything to the dead Zefa, he still recognized such an opponent, he just picked up his own wine gourd and started drinking, crying regardless of the occasion, as if he was remembering this opponent, but It's more about regretting his own battle.

Kaido is a person who is prone to lose control of his emotions. The two battles were not perfect for him. First, Blackbeard disrupted the situation, and then Zefa's body couldn't hold on, which always gave him a feeling of unfinished business.

Especially Zefa, judging from the results of the battle, Kaido won, but from the course of the battle, it is impossible to directly judge Zefa's defeat. Kaido is very upset that the enemy died in this way.

At this time, Sengoku slapped Kaido's chest with a palm, and Kaido, who was in a state of losing control of his emotions, didn't react, so Sengoku slapped him firmly on the chest, and Dragonman's body was also shot flying go out.

Looking at the dead Zefa, there was also a little sadness on the face of the Warring States Buddha.

But he was not overwhelmed by sadness, but continued to attack Kaido. The explosion of the explosive rock had some effect. If he didn't continue to fight now, Zefa's sacrifice would be in vain.novelusb.com

The Great Buddha and the Dragonman continued to fight, and the battlefield ahead became intense.

Ozzy opened the way to the execution platform with his own body. As strong as a hill, he finally fell to the ground under the siege of the navy, but his body also paved the way to the execution platform.

Garp couldn't strengthen his determination after all, he released the whole Great Route at Luffy, and was punched out.

It's just that Luffy, who doesn't have a key, can't open Hailoushi's chain, so he can only destroy the execution platform and let Ace run away with the chain to find the queen's lock picker.

The Whitebeard Pirates, who had completed their goal, did not love to fight, and started their own retreat, but the navy didn't want them to leave. If this was the case, the top battle would be a failure, so the navy started their own pursuit.

Even the big explosion that appeared behind Marin Fando didn't attract them. Many people were already red-eyed. The only thing on their minds now was to kill more enemies.

But on the battlefield, there is a group of very special people. They wear uniform white suits and shuttle around the battlefield. However, they neither treat the wounded, nor attack pirates or the navy. They just report with phone bugs. Condition.

They are CPOs sent by the world government, and they have only one job, which is to report all aspects of the battle in a timely manner.

At this very moment, pieces of news continue to appear in front of world government officials following CPO's return.

These officials are the secretaries of the Five Old Stars, who will filter out some unimportant information for them and report the more important ones to them.

"The navy's newly formed flying dragon unit has been hit hard. Those flying dragons are much worse than the original monster. It seems inappropriate to invest so much

"The air force is still good, but the overall situation is worse. The casualties of the navy are acceptable, but Zefa is dead"

"That guy should die if he dies. Anyway, he is not a pleasing guy, but his seniority is too high. There are too many students in the navy. It is better for such a person to die."

For the death of Zefa, the people of the world government did not remember or mourn, but applauded.

Among these people, there are many people who are not used to Zefa. After all, Zefa's actions are not in their interests.

"Akainu and Kizaru are still fighting Whitebeard, that guy is too scary after he regains his youth."

"Recovering the power of youth, this power is too enviable. Speaking of which, Quinn. This is an opportunity. After all, Wano Country failed. Their defense is too strong, and we have nothing."

"This is no longer something we can decide, let Wu Laoxing know."

After some irrelevant information was filtered, other information was delivered to Wulaoxing, and the information on the top was about Quinn.

The Five Old Stars didn't look through these things, they already knew enough about Quinn, and in a sense, Quinn was already famous.

"This proposal is good. Only Quinn has mastered the technology. Kaido is not as orderly as we imagined. It seems good to be able to hold Quinn directly."

Compared to Kaido, Quinn is already weaker than ever. If you take this opportunity to catch Quinn, many things will be solved.

Threats and lures can always get something out of his mouth.

"The Holy Land needs to be guarded. Now this time is critical. We cannot leave the Holy Land, and we don't have the right manpower. White Beard, Kaido, and Red Hair are about to arrive. Ordinary people are useless."

"A big event happened on Judiciary Island. Let's use that. In this case... a small cleaning is also possible. There are too many factors of chaos. This is not a good thing."

"That's something that Master Im can only use."

"But as servants, although we can't use what Lord Im uses, we are given the right to use other parts. I think it's time to start voting."

"Yes."

"Yes."

"be opposed to."

"Yes."

"be opposed to."

The decision was finally passed, and the five of them walked to another area together, discussing other things in the process.

In the open sea of Marin Fando, the initial artillery battle has not stopped, but now the purpose of the battle has changed again.

"Ace has been rescued, rush in! Take everyone back to the new world!"

"Stop them! These pirates can't leave without a ship! For justice, for the sacrificed comrades, destroy all these pirates!"

The gunfire was roaring, and both sides were fighting for their own goals, but as the battle progressed, someone discovered some abnormalities. On the distant sea, a new pirate ship was gradually approaching Marin Fand.

Marin Fanduo's temporary command office, at this time Crane has taken over the heavy responsibility of command, but the information sent is not optimistic, and the current situation is not going well for the navy.

"This is the Gate of Justice. Report now that the Shiyuan of the Hundred Beasts Pirates has appeared! The purpose is unknown, but they are approaching!"

"The man of the beasts again? Who is the leader?"

"Yes, Arceus."

Crane fell silent, one Kaido was enough for them, now with another second in command, the situation might be even more difficult.

But before Crane could make a decision, another piece of information was sent over.

"Report! The Red Voss appeared in Marin Vandor! The leader is... the red-haired Shanks! The third emperor of the sea... is here"

Chapter 993 Alternative usage of overlord color, Quinn who died together

"Red Haired Shanks What is he here for? This war is really a terrible decision."

Listening to the report from the soldiers, Crane also felt very headache. There is no problem with the arrangement of this war. If only the Whitebeard Pirates came, then there is no problem with their preparation.

Even if most of the people don't work hard, it is enough to complete their strategic goals, but up to now, the situation of the war on the top is completely beyond their control.novelusb.com

First Kaido and the white beard who has regained his youth, and then the prisoners from the city of advancement who appeared inexplicably. Those prisoners did not cause too many problems, but they became the last straw that crushed Garp.

Let him prevent one grandson from saving another grandson, he really can't do it. Now, even the redheads have come, except for BIG MOM, the sea emperor of the navy headquarters can make a mahjong table.

Those high-end combat powers on both sides can even play a round of werewolf killing, and the content of werewolf killing is also very special. Through debates, find out who is the ghost, who is fishing, and who is paddling.

"I hope there is no so-called Three Emperors Alliance, otherwise, the Navy Headquarters can't stand it anymore."

"Lieutenant General Crane! Emergency communication from Marie Gioia! Ask our people to stay away from Whitebeard and Kaido immediately."

"keep away?"

"Yes, stay away, the excess troops can be concentrated around Quinn, that's what they said."

The orderly did not understand why the world government issued such an order, but just conveyed every word truthfully.

These messengers have only one request, to convey the order truthfully, without any personal emotions, so as to prevent some strange orders from being issued.

Wuluoxing is still a bit measured. Although he plans to use some special means, he has no plans to attack indiscriminately. He just wants to target some people.

They are not Im, they cannot exert its full power, and it is impossible to directly destroy the entire Marin Fando.

In order not to accidentally injure too many of their own people, they sent the order to the navy, but that was all. If the time came, they would not care about the lives of the soldiers below.

"Lieutenant General He, what shall we do?"

"Go and deliver the order first, I hope there is still time"

He is very clear that this is not a discussion, but a notice from the world government. If they cannot respond in time, the world government will not stop.

It's just that on the battlefield where red eyes have been killed, some things can't be stopped just by saying, especially the battlefield of those monsters, and it's not easy to pass by just thinking about it.

"Oh! Come on, come on, foster father has finally finished his work."

When the big bang just happened, Yamato flew to the sky, wanting to see what Kaido was doing, so as to decide what to do next, and he happened to see the Siwon approaching.

From the beginning of the battle, she was thinking about a problem, how to get out of the battle smoothly, and Kaido had nothing to say. After thinking about it, she thought that the breakthrough was on Arceus.

During the battle just now, she released the freezing power in her body and used it to expand the ice layer near Marin Fando. This has only one purpose, so that the pirate ship cannot approach.

In this way, when the Siyuan approached, she could use opening the way as an excuse to get rid of the battle in front of her.

As long as she gets to the Siwon, there will be no reason for others to let her continue to fight, and Kaido will have nothing to say at that time.

"The battle is almost over."

"What are you talking about? Do you think this is a housekeeping game?"

"But it doesn't make sense for you to fight with me. Look over there, the Fire Fist and the Straw Hat have already run away. Why don't you catch them? Isn't that the purpose of your war? A beard is fine too, I don't want to fight with you now."

"You are really a wayward pirate to say such a thing"

"So, what is your decision, if you want to continue fighting, there is nothing you can do."

Staring at Yamato in front of her, Kuzan did not choose to continue fighting with her. Although she was a terrifying force, she had no intention of attacking the ordinary navy, and she was indifferent to the outcome of the battle. The only thing that intervened was a beetle. Safety.

After the whole war, she looked more like a hard worker who was forced to come to work.

Compared to Yamato, other pirates are more troublesome. Kuzan himself doesn't agree with this war very much. After confirming that Yamato is serious, he simply left here.

Yamato also flew towards the direction of the Siyuan as she planned, but on the way, she met a person who had the same idea as her.

"I said, Uncle Quinn, why did you appear here? Be careful. I told my father that you were passive and sabotaged and fled without a fight."

"Ms. Yamato, aren't you the same?"

As the paddling duo of Hundred Beasts, their thinking has been highly unified since before the war started. Before they came, they competed for the job of guarding the Wano Country, but now they are competing for the task of pioneering the way.

Quinn's idea is similar to that of Yamato, to help the Shiyuan ship open the way, and then he can naturally mix on the Siyuan ship, and use this to obtain the protection of Arceus and obtain absolute safety.

"Miss Yamato, let me do this kind of thing, how can I bother you to do this kind of trivial matter."

"No, no, no, the adoptive father said, you have to be responsible in doing things. I froze the sea outside, so of course I have to solve it."

There is no high-end combat power in the periphery. If they do it alone, it can be said that they are opening the way for Arceus's Shiyuan. If they go together, they are telling Kaido that they have done their best to catch fish.

Quinn secretly stretched his hands behind his back, intending to activate some special weapons. Now that Arceus has arrived, he is not afraid of attracting attention, but before he can make a move, Yamato's mace is already on the ground. on his neck.

"Miss Yamato, what are you doing?!"

"Don't move, Uncle Quinn, wait until I finish what I'm doing."

Speaking of domineering arrogance erupting from the body, he knocked down all the pirates and navy that might interfere with the progress of the Shiyuan along the way, and completed his work of opening the way.

Looking at Yamato who used the overlord color to clear the miscellaneous soldiers, Quinn looked like he was about to cry. He had a lot of weapons on his body, but he was not as fast as Yamato's overlord color. This innate talent disqualified him from the competition.

After the goal was achieved, Yamato showed a complacent look on his face, but he didn't notice that Quinn seemed to have made some kind of decision.

A few minutes later, Quinn and Yamato appeared on the Siwon together. Although they did not open the way, Quinn did not find someone to fight the fake match. Instead, he followed Yamato and boarded the Siwon.

"Uncle Quinn, what are you going to do? Father will feel something is wrong!"

"It doesn't matter, Ms. Yamato, if this is the case, let's die together."

Chapter 994 The Falling Sky, the Power of God

Yamato can't beat Quinn with a stick, that's not her character, and she has nothing to do when she can't beat Quinn and then starts to "play rascal".

"Uncle Quinn, what are you trying to do, don't you paddle well with Hancock?"

"Look at my robot arm, it will have to be replaced with a new one when I go back, doesn't it seem good?"

The petrification of aromatic feet is different from that of light. At the same time of petrification, it will also be accompanied by the impact of Hancock's kick, which has caused Quinn's mechanical hand to be broken.

Actually, it's not that Hancock is overdoing it, it's that this fake match is not very easy to play. Her sweet fruit is also a rule-based ability, and the petrification effect is more terrifying than the childlike fruit in a sense.

After the childlike fruit loses consciousness, the ability of the fruit will not be affected, but the sweet fruit is different. If it is petrified by Hancock, unless Hancock takes the initiative to release the ability, or the person who is petrified is domineering enough to be able to Immune to the ability of sweet fruit.

Otherwise, even if Hancock is killed, the petrification will not be released, and even the second sweet fruit user cannot cancel the petrification of the previous one.

Although under the coercion of Kaido and external threats, Quinn has developed a powerful armed color, but it is not yet immune to Hancock's ability. The most important thing is that he is lustful.

If it is an innocent person with no desires and desires, the sweet fruit will not be able to petrify at will, but Quinn is different.

If Hancock had changed his fighting style, the current Quinn might have been turned into a stone statue and packed away.

This is a character problem, Hancock's own ability just restrains this character of Quinn.

"Then can't you change someone?"

"Change someone? No, Ms. Yamato, you have to trust my intuition. I feel that something dirty is staring at me. It's safer to be with Master Arceus."

"What will happen to my father after that!"

"Miss Yamato, you are still young. With this record, Brother Kaito will definitely not let me go. I can't escape anyway, so I must be a little bit behind. You haven't heard about the water ghost in Wano Country. legend?"

Whether you are more unlucky or me is more unlucky at that time, it all depends on Brother Kaidou's mood. Maybe he has enjoyed the fight and will forget us all by then. "

Yamato didn't say anything, just kept staring at Quinn, making Quinn's hair stand straight.

"Brother Kaito has this personality, Miss Yamato, you should know."

"I know, but Uncle Quinn, I will remember what happened today."

"Yamato, Quinn, what are you two talking about there?"

Looking at Quinn and Yamato who were having a debate in the corner, Arceus called out to them and asked them to temporarily put this issue aside. At least Kaido would not do anything outrageous until he returned to Onigashima.

"I don't have a foster father, I'm thinking about how to repay Uncle Quinn in the future."

"Repay? Forget it, it's up to you, Quinn, what do those navy semaphores mean?"

Arceus would not interfere in private relationships, and the fights within Beasts had never stopped, but the scale was larger than outside fights, and his attention was still on the battlefield.

It can be seen that there are navy orderers waving flags from a high position, as if to convey some kind of signal.

In this kind of battlefield, it is difficult for ordinary communication methods to work. Although the navy has a loudspeaker that can expand the sound to the entire Marin Vando, the enemy will also hear it, so the traditional semaphore method is adopted.

Pirates didn't know this kind of information, but because of Doflamingo, Virgo has climbed to the position of lieutenant general in the navy, so it's not difficult to get the semaphore signal.

"Please wait a moment. All units stay away from the enemy's general, quickly away, and get out of battle as soon as possible. What do these navies want to do?"

Flipping through the small book on his body, Quinn quickly understood the meaning of the navy orderly, and as the order was communicated, the navy moved again.

In such a huge battlefield, there will always be someone who can notice the signal of the semaphore. After that, they will notify their colleagues around them, and finally complete the message delivery.

At this time, the navies have already moved. Except for a few red-eyed people, most of the navies obeyed the order and began to stay away from those dangerous areas.

This is also the difference between the navy and most pirates, they execute orders more thoroughly.

It's just that the fighting hasn't stopped, they are still fighting with other pirates.

"Sakaski, there seems to be a new arrangement from above, let's stop for now."

Huang Yuan looked quite embarrassed, and the coat of justice behind him had disappeared. Seeing the order from the Navy Staff, of course he would not choose to disobey it.

"You withdraw first, and I will talk later."

"Sakaski."

Akakenu did not retreat immediately, but continued to fight with Whitebeard. Faced with this situation, Kizaru also rejoined the battle. Both of them are natural, even if there is any emergency, it is not impossible to deal with it.

The battle of the pirates continued, but the sky began to change. The clouds seemed to be pulled by unknown forces, spinning in the sky like a whirlpool, the light gradually dimmed, and a dark cloud shrouded Marin Vanduo.

Ordinary people don't care about the changes in the sky, but the stronger the person, the more they can notice the abnormality.

Huang Yuan used the eight-foot Qiong Gouyu to force the white beard back. Even the red dog did not continue to chase, but just looked at the sky vigilantly. Even they had never experienced such a thing.

At the same time, Sengoku, who was fighting Kaido, also distanced himself from Kaido. Looking at the center of the vortex in the sky, Kaido became very annoyed.

"Damn it, why are there always inexplicable things interfering with Lao Tzu's battle today?!"

Kaido angrily shot a wave of heat into the sky, but Kaido's attack was like a mud cow entering the sea, and after entering the sky, there were no waves.

On the Shiyuan, Yamato looked up at the sky, her body was sending out danger signals, and what made her feel dangerous was the mysterious vortex in the sky.

"There seems to be something on it?"

"Yamato, stand behind me."

"Yes, adoptive father."

Yamato didn't ask anything, she hadn't heard this sentence for many years, only when she was a child, Arceus would tell her this when he was out.

After many years, it is not good news for Yamato that this sentence appears again, which means that Arceus thinks that something in the sky may pose a threat to her.

"Interesting, eight hundred years of heritage, there is still something."

Above the sky, a terrifying eye seemed to be opened in the clouds. The dazzling light illuminated the entire Marin Vanduo. The dazzling brilliance made many people unable to open their eyes. At the same time, an extremely thick wave of light had also condensed .

The air seemed to be distorted under the influence of this force. Looking from below, it seemed that some terrifying monster was hidden in the sky, and it was about to tear open the sky and pour out its anger.

The next moment, the monster found its own breakthrough, a hideous gap opened in the distorted sky, and an indescribably terrifying light beam descended from the sky, and split into several rays during the falling process, searching for its target like a poisonous snake spitting out a letter.

The horrible breath made the people below stop their steps, waiting helplessly for the judgment above. The indescribable power made them have no courage to resist in their hearts. nOvElusB.com

The light curtain gradually descended, and the power like falling from the sky weighed on everyone's heart.

The faces of the people below gradually turned pale under the light. Even if the signs of the beams of light did not point at themselves, many people gave up struggling and just sat helplessly on the ground, waiting for the fate to come.

But things were different from what they had expected. The imaginary destruction did not come. An equally massive beam of light rose from the ground, forcibly stopping the attacks that fell from the sky in mid-air, even bit by bit. pushed back.

"Father, what is that?"

"It may be an ancient weapon, but don't worry, it will be over soon."

Bursts of brilliance shone from Qian Zhou's wrist, and the power released by Arceus pushed it back completely.

"If you want to judge, this is far from enough."

Boom! - buzz!

Before the force could dissipate completely, Arceus' attack pushed it back into the air and detonated it completely.

A helium-like explosion occurred above the sky, and the brilliance of death illuminated every corner. After the huge energy group was detonated, the violent wind swept across the entire Marin Fando. Countless navy and pirates were blown away by this force, and those who were too close to the center of the explosion were directly crushed to the ground. .

Only Shiyuan was wrapped in a colorful brilliance, standing still in the explosion, and all this, under the watchful eye of the phone bug in Bucky's hand, spread to every corner of the world.

Two more, the plot on the top should basically end before May, let's sort out the ending

Chapter 995: world shakes

Pata

On the Chambord Islands, the marker pen in the hand of a reporter fell to the ground, and the hand holding the notepad also fell down. As a reporter, this is unqualified, but he just saw it. scene.

The initial change in the sky didn't shock him, not because it wasn't powerful enough, but because the attack was similar to the prelude to the attack of the yellow ape, and he didn't realize what terror was until the attack was ready, just like the attack of the eye of destruction.

Earthquake, magma, tsunami, all kinds of attacks that erupted from Marin Vanduo before are enough to destroy an island, but compared with this last mysterious attack, these things give people a kind feeling.

Even if he can't fight, he can still feel the will to destroy through the screen.

What is even more shocking is that someone repelled the attack.

"Big news, big news! There aren't enough sections for Toutiao now! Have you written it all down? Send it back to the head office!"

The reporter who came back to his senses shook his companion. This is the photographer of their newspaper office, responsible for recording the video materials relayed by Marin Fando.

When the live broadcast signal was cut off before, he regretted for a long time because he didn't get the news immediately due to negligence.

"I got it! Don't rush me, just write your article, but now I want to kill the video phone bug at the scene, what kind of trash can make the picture like this!"

The signal of the war on the top was only broadcast to the Chambord Islands, so reporters from all over the world gathered here to intercept the first-hand information of the war.

But now, almost everyone's necks are crooked, in order to keep them level with the picture on the screen.

Even these ordinary reporters were shocked, let alone Morgans.

At this time, the headquarters of the World Economic News Agency was already in chaos.

In the office, papers were flying all over the sky, and the sound was extremely noisy. In order to arrange the newspaper offices in various regions, they did their best. Just now, Morgans, who is the backbone, even passed out because of being too excited.

"President! President Morgans! Wake up!"

Under the secretary's first aid, Morgans regained consciousness. There is nothing wrong with Morgans' body. He seems to be an ordinary albatross birdman. In fact, his combat effectiveness is not bad, much stronger than ordinary people.

This is what he practiced when he was a reporter on the front line. Without these two actions, he would have died suddenly. There is only one reason for his coma, which is too excited.

Big news is his lifelong pursuit. In his eyes, the war on the top is a wonderful start. This kind of grand war is the opportunity to find the breaking point.

During the duration of the war, the titles of the newspapers of the World Economic News Agency were constantly changing.

【World's Strongest Man vs. Navy Headquarters】

【The continuation of evil, Fire Fist Ace is the son of Goldo Roger】

【The Secret of Roger and Whitebeard】

【Son of the Dragon, the most vicious bloodline】

【The white beard that restores youth, the magic medicine of immortality? !】

The headlines they saved were enough to rotate for a week. When he saw Whitebeard regain his youth, Morgans found some calming drugs from the drawer to comfort his excited heart.

But he never expected that the navy would use such a terrifying weapon, and more importantly, the attack was blocked back!

"Leave me alone! I'm fine, go arrange the newspapers, the headlines in the world must be ours! This is the real big news! The power of the destroyer can reach such a level, it's so exciting!"

The live broadcast signal is not very clear, but you can still see the brilliance emitted by the Qianzhou wrist on the Siyuan, as well as the figure that is different from ordinary people.

The gunpowder smoke covered the figure of the Shiyuan, but this looming mystery gave it more deterrent power invisibly.

"I think about it, the indiscriminate attack from the top, the ruthless government that puts soldiers' lives at risk, and the pirates who protect their subordinates, this is a wonderful contrast."

"President. If you write like this, we will be targeted by the world government."

"What stupid things are you talking about? Those guys have already been eyeing us, but don't worry, this is not their bottom line, just do it,"

"yes!"

Morgans' hands trembled slightly. After grabbing the oxygen tank next to him, he pressed the special respirator on his bird's beak and took a deep breath to calm his excited heart.

"Make that photo look better! The group of Beasts have a special worship for that person, if they hold grudges because of a photo, it's not worth it."

Morgans sat down on the podium again, and began to direct the reporters below to prepare the newspaper modules.

For Arceus, a "special alien", he has a special understanding. After all, he doesn't like to show his true colors to others, and always protects his identity with albatross feathers. In his opinion, the other party and himself should be the same. one type.

Moreover, many people in Hundred Beasts have such a style of painting. The true faces of Jhin and Shaina are also a mystery to the outside world. According to the news from the underground world, all people who saw their true faces turned into dead people.

"Send a message to the people in the Chambord Islands. It's fine if the people in Marin Fando are unprofessional. Let them show me their professionalism. I will receive the news as soon as possible for everything that happens next!"

"Don't worry, President! All the people we send out are backbones!"

Morgans was not the only one who issued a similar order. For a while, the reporters in the Chambord Islands were like chicken blood, pointing their cameras at the screen of the broadcast, for fear of missing any news.

In addition to those reporters, the supernovas who are still in Chambord have also refreshed their worldview.

Thanks to Huang Yuan's release of water, although everyone was injured in these supernovas, none of them died. At this time, they were all observing the situation of the war on the top in the corner.

Hawkins fiddled with his cards, but his face had long since lost his usual composure, his clothes were wet with sweat, and the cards in his hand were scattered all over the place.

"Captain Hawkins"

"Can't see nothing."

"what did you say?"

"I can't see the future. The thread of fate has been cut by someone, and the goddess of fate is powerless to resist. The future there is like a deep whirlpool, mysterious, terrifying, and impossible to understand."

Hawkins is still trying, but no matter how hard he tries, the cards are scattered all over the ground. Looking at the cards on the ground, Hawkins seems to have strengthened his heart, got up and walked towards the distance.

"Walk."

"Captain, where are you going?"

"To the New World."

"Huh? Don't we see the outcome of this battle?"

Before they persuaded Hawkins to leave the Chambord Islands first, but Hawkins insisted on staying and watching the first-hand news of the war. Seeing that it was about to end, he didn't want to watch it.

"There is no need. The existence that can distort fate is not someone who can compete. The result of this war has long been doomed."

Hawkins left the Chambord Islands with his men, and was the first to embark on the road to the New World.

The other supernovas are different. Most of them are curious about the outcome of the war, and Drake is particularly nervous.

"How can the Navy have such a weapon if it's useless. What kind of monsters are those guys?"

Drake's heart was overwhelmed. Originally, he had absolute confidence in the navy, but the result of the war on the top made it difficult for him to accept, especially now that there is one more secret about the beasts.

To be precise, this is no longer as simple as a secret.

It is enough to dig out a simple secret slowly, but now this secret seems to have the terrifying power to destroy the world.

At this time, Drake felt a heavy burden on his shoulders, and his undercover mission seemed to be crucial to the future of the Navy.

And on the roof of a house, there was a man with trembling hands like Morgans. Kidd pressed his hand on his face, and a meaningful laugh came from his mouth.

"Kidd, what's wrong with you?"

"I'm excited, Kira, look at these monsters in the new world, don't the strength of these monsters make people excited? Become stronger, then defeat them, and finally become One Piece, this is the way we have to go!"

Being instantly killed by Lamy did not teach Kidd a lesson. Looking at the monster and the terrifying weapon capable of destroying the world in the broadcast screen, his inner thoughts were still to challenge the opponent, and his head was comparable to Ulti.

Marin Fanduo, the people at the scene had a more intuitive feeling for the attack just now. Even if the attack was aimed at an individual, or even the reduced power, the aftermath was beyond the reach of ordinary people.

Whether it is the pirates or the navy, they are all on the ground at this time. Even the top fighters such as Sengoku and Kaido, Whitebeard and Akainu are looking at the sky with solemn faces.noVELus&.com

"Hey, Warring States, it seems that I still underestimated the background of your navy. Your weapons are really terrifying. No wonder he always said that the 800-year-old history of the world government should not be underestimated.

If this blow hits me, even I will feel bad.

But this attack should not be directed by you, if the attack just now hits, your body of the Buddha will not be able to bear it. "

There was a hint of sarcasm in Kaido's tone, as if he was mocking this kind of attack with huge aftermath, but Sengoku didn't reply. As the admiral of the navy, he also had some guesses about what that thing was. The biggest problem now is that this attack It was blocked back.

Although this behavior avoided the casualties of innocent soldiers, it also means that the threat level of the opponent has risen sharply.

"It's almost time to end. I thought it would be over before he came, but it doesn't matter. I had a good time playing this time. I will come to you again when you recover from your injury."

Blackbeard once, the attack in the sky once, his battle with Sengoku was interrupted twice in a row, this has affected Kaido's interest in the battle situation, and the time has come to the last moment, he should also find his target .

As for whether White Beard's goal has been achieved, it is no longer within the scope of his consideration. If White Beard can't save his own people under this kind of interference, then he has wasted his resurrection grass.

Looking at Kaido who left, Sengoku did not continue to interfere with his behavior, and let Kaido fight Whitebeard, but it is the most beneficial situation for the current navy.

From Kaido's tone, it can be seen that he knows the source of the attack. If the beasts have mastered this level of weapons, or possessed such powerful strength, then it would be meaningless to continue fighting them.

On the Shiyuan, thanks to the protection of the power of Arceus, the people on board were not affected in any way, but the sound of the explosion made their ears ache.

"I'm sure my hunch was right, only the power of Lord Arceus can deal with this kind of thing."

Quinn was thankful for his decision just now. Although it was written down by Yamato in his notebook, it seemed that it was all worth it now, and he couldn't resist this attack.

Just now Arceus transferred most of the impact to the sky, but even so, the aftermath had a huge impact on Marin Fando.

Under the influence of Whitebeard's vibration and the aftermath of Kaido's battle, Marin Fando almost turned into a dangerous building.

After experiencing this brand-new impact, it was completely turned into ruins, and directly below the explosion was sunken directly, and the seawater below could even be seen flowing through the deep cracks in the ground.

Judging from Quinn's research on weapons, the attack just now seems to have the ability to disperse, if he really separates out one and hits himself.

Getting rid of the terrifying picture in his mind, Quinn joined the atmosphere team on the ship, and started the bragg work with the members of the Siyuan.

"Yeyifu, what is that?"

"It's a small toy for the ancients, don't worry, it won't be used for the second time in a short time."

Arceus is not sure what it is, but he can be sure that this thing cannot be used for the time being. His attack just now is more than that simple.

For some reason, he felt a little bit resistant to things falling from the sky, so when he blocked the attack, he reflected most of the power back to the sky, paralyzing the thing that launched the attack.

"Is this your foster father's strength? You must be able to beat daddy hard, right? No, there are still four stone slabs left. If this is the case, this is not your foster father's strongest strength! So. hey-hey"

Breaking his fingers, Yamato seemed to have discovered some new land and began to imagine a bright future.

"It's three pieces. The news you brought back is very useful. There is indeed a stone slab in the whirlpool, but I used it elsewhere."

The attack launched by Wulaoxing is not the strongest blow, but Arceus is still not in full bloom. The three stone slabs are unknown, and the icicle slabs are temporarily separated from the body, countering Wulaoxing's killer, but it is incomplete. His plainness Just one hit.

"Put away your little thoughts. I promised at the beginning that I would not interfere in the problems between your father and daughter. You should find a way to solve Kaido's matter."

"Don't be like this, foster father, why don't you be flexible?"

Chapter 996 Strategic Deterrence

How terrifying Arceus was in its heyday is a mystery to the people of beasts, because no one has ever seen Arceus with all the slates.

It is a great feat for ordinary people to recover the slate, even if they only bring back news, it is worthy of great rewards, but among these people, Yamato has become an exception.

In other dynasties, she is an unassailable general, but she doesn't care about this kind of thing. The biggest goal now is to get rid of Kaido.

"Yamato, look at this battlefield. This is a * for the weak and a harvester of life. A decision by the superior will lead to countless deaths on this battlefield.

If the attack just now falls, it is not certain what the consequences will be. "

"So I hate war. I don't know why my father is so obsessed with war. What good is this kind of thing?"

"War is not a good thing, but peace is bought by force. It is impossible to count on the kindness of others. Being so strong that no one dares to beat you is the way of this chaotic world.

So I agree with your father's approach. Although it is quite tortured, it can urge you to become stronger and let you live better. "

"No, no, foster father, I think there is something wrong with your logic. It is obvious that there is something wrong with your father's brain. Do you think normal people would use domineering colors to wake people up?"

Recalling those days, Yamato still felt that it was outrageous, as long as she snoozes, she will be practiced by Kaido, but Kaido deliberately wakes her up with a domineering look.

At that time, she still couldn't bear Kaido's dominance, so she would be directly stunned by Kaido, so she was forced to be late, and then she was practiced by Kaido. This is just one of many examples.

Compared with training, she felt that Kaido was playing with her more.

"So you should work hard to become stronger. In this case, if you can master Zekrom's full power, the current Kaido is not your opponent."

"Wait, foster father, what do you mean now?"

It is about Kaido, Yamato's nerves are still very sharp, and he seems to have noticed something terrible.

"That's what it means now, you can experience more by yourself."

At this moment, a huge black shadow descended from the sky, and the eight-headed dragon landed in front of the Siyuan with a CPO in its mouth.

The aftermath of the attack just now affected not only the ground, but also the sky. The navy's flying dragon troops and the eight-headed dragons can be said to bear the brunt.

Under Wulaoxing's decision, the Flying Dragon Troop, which could still fight against the eight-headed evil dragon for a period of time, was successfully destroyed in the aftermath of the attack. The five of them never thought that someone could bounce back this kind of attack.

Even the eight-headed dragon lost its life because it was too close to the explosion point. This is already resurrected. As for the CPO in its mouth, it was caught when he passed by.

Its own creators hate these agents the most, and the eight-headed dragon is very clear about this. The resurrection of the Eight-Headed Dragon has an advantage. It will clear the debuff left on the body before, so the resurrected Eight-Headed Dragon will not be affected by any impact. Take him down.

"Roar~"

"Well, you did a good job. These CP agents are annoying to look at. Go ahead and see how far Kaido is going to get things."

Yamato on the ship is still thinking about life, but the Shiyuan has already continued to sail towards the interior of Marin Fando. Under the influence of the aftermath of the explosion, the ice surface of Marin Fando was shattered a lot, and a ready-made route has appeared at this time.

However, the CPO who was attacked by the eight-headed dragon was just one of them. The other CPOs active on the battlefield had already sent their news back to Marie Gioia.

"How is it possible? That attack was stopped?" ηovelUSB.cOm

The five old stars, who have been calm on weekdays, rarely show panic on their expressions. During their days in power, they received all kinds of strange news from all over the world every day.

The demise of the country, the fall of the royal family, the rise of pirates, and the advent of the era of great pirates, these news are nothing to them, except today, it is different.

"How could it be possible that Master Im didn't use it himself, but that power?"

As the controller of the world government, Im has a trump card that others cannot compete with. With this, even if the world has always been in a chaotic pattern, it can be well controlled.

Once something is out of control, let it be wiped out completely, this is how Im clears.

In the long history, countless islands have been annihilated for this reason. The Five Old Stars are not Yimu, and what they use is not what Yimu uses. They can only be said to be subsidiary weapons.

But judging from the feedback, the thing actually suffered damage, which is something that even the five old stars can't handle.

"Master Im will be angry when he wakes up"

"At least it hasn't been destroyed. It will be fine after Mr. Im repairs it. The question is, what should we do next?"

"How did he do it? Could it be... that ship is Hades? Or something made by the shipwrights of the capital of seven waters?"

They also have their own conjectures about Tom's whereabouts. Whitebeard and Kaido are the most closely related to the murlocs, but Whitebeard's character is only to protect the murloc island with a flag. The probability lies in the beasts.

In Wulaoxing's perception, ancient weapons are the most terrifying power in the world. Except for the weapons made by Pluto and the shipwrights of the legendary seven water capitals that can rival Pluto, they really can't think of what it is.

"The Wano country is intact, it is definitely not Hades, and this kind of thing is not important, whether it is the power of manpower or weapons, it means that the beasts have an ultimate weapon.

This thing can hit back our attack, which means it can hit more powerful ones! "

The voice of the bald Wulaoxing interrupted their argument and also made the point clear.

This is not the so-called blood factor technology. It needs to figure out how the power comes from. This is a terrifying deterrent comparable to ancient weapons.

Users, manufacturers, these are not important, what is important is that they have the ability to carry out devastating blows to the naval branch, to the alliance countries, and even to the world government.

"There is still that one, Mary Joya's safety is still fine"

"Let's postpone some actions. It's not a good thing to push them into a hurry. Let's deal with this matter after Master Im wakes up."

"Second, please suspend the actions against Quinn, this Arceus who usually has a very low sense of presence is the real big trouble,"

Before they didn't care, and they could maintain the order of the sea, so they let the pirates do their thing, and only sent some subordinates to deal with special problems.

But it is different now. The force displayed by the beasts forced them to pay more attention to these monsters. This brief confrontation made them choose to temporarily abandon the force action and plan other things instead.

"The war on the top was not successful. Since Kaido is eyeing Whitebeard, let him go."

"Alright, but the live broadcast there."

"Send someone to cut it off, and it's not good to spread the rest."

They have already made a decision to terminate the war, but the world government must not give up on their own initiative. They will only disclose this idea to the navy, and let them decide the rest, but before that, they decided to cut off the phone bug. Signal.

The new order was passed to CPO present, and they also had new actions.

At this moment, the person who was criticized as a waste by photographers all over the world also crawled out of the ruins.

From the moment Zefa detonated the explosive rock, Bucky understood that this war was not for him, so he used a detour as an excuse to take his little brothers around a large circle and began to stay away from the center of the battlefield.

Just when Bucky thought he was out of danger, a bigger crisis came.

"Ha! What is this thing! How could the Navy have such a horrible thing!"

Because of being too emotional, Bucky's body has been divided into several pieces, and the hand holding the phone bug is waving up and down, causing the reporters watching the broadcast to yell again.

"Captain Bucky! The third brother was stunned just now, and then he was kidnapped by the unicorn next to the straw hat boy!"

"What did you say?? The unicorn fairy kidnapped Mr. 3?? Forget it, let's slip away first. I don't have time to deal with him at this time. I will miss you, Mr. 3"

Bucky muttered his own thoughts, and then made a slightly sad expression, but the explosion just now made these pirates dizzy, and blood flowed out of many people's ears, they didn't have Arceus to protect them They have lost a lot of hearing.

Mr-3's Candle Barrier can block a certain amount of impact, but it is very limited, and only slightly reduces some damage.

Due to poor hearing and Bucky's exaggerated expression, they automatically made up some outrageous words.

"Save the third brother!"

"Down with the Straw Hat, and save the third brother!"

"You guys are enough!"

Baki looked at the pirate in front of him angrily, but his head flew straight up, and a blue sickle slashed on the ice behind him.

"Who is it! How dare you attack me!"

Looking back, a man in a white suit and a clown mask was staring at Bucky.

"Bucky the Clown, hand over the phone bug in your hand immediately."

"Don't even think about it! My uncle's plan to become famous hasn't started yet, so don't try to stop me!"

Fleeing and fleeing, Bucky did not give up his previous ideas. In his opinion, there is no contradiction between running away and becoming famous, and it just needs some small operations.

"The bounty of 15 million Baileys, Bucky the Clown, you are too self-righteous."

"Do you think this uncle is still me before? Little ones! Catch him for me!"

Due to unspeakable and terrible luck, these prisoners who advanced into the city were willing to work for Bucky.

However, they still overestimated themselves. These prisoners in the first two layers are not opponents at all against CPO.

Under his skillful Six Forms, the pirates who rushed up quickly retreated, and were soon defeated.

The prisoners on the first two floors are basically the prisoners in the first half of the great route. If they are prisoners from all over the world, they will usually be detained directly nearby, and only a few will be sent to the city of advancement.

It's okay for them to bully ordinary people, but it's too bad to face the elite agents of the world government.

"Captain Bucky! This guy is amazing!"

"Captain Bucky, please act quickly, we are not his opponent!"

The younger brothers around looked eagerly at Bucky behind, waiting for Bucky to show off his power, and those gazes set Bucky on fire again, and he couldn't run or fight for a while.

"Captain Bucky, are you scared? Seeing the younger brothers fighting, you actually flinched!"

"I, I. Actually"

While Bucky was still struggling, CPO had broken through the attacks of those pirates, came to Bucky and grabbed his head, but at this moment, a terrifying killing intent shrouded this CPO.

"This is my brother, can you give me a face and stop for now?"

"Did you hear that? He actually said that Captain Bucky is his brother!"

"I heard that, this is the red-haired Shanks! To be able to call the red-haired Shanks brothers and sisters, is worthy of the man who wants to remove the head of the white beard."

"I see! Captain Bucky is here to find Red Hair! He doesn't want Red Hair to interfere with his battle, so he came here to block him!"

"Captain Bucky, we will always follow you!"

All the prisoners fell into self-movement again, only the CPO was sweating profusely looking at the red hair in front of him, facing the Four Emperors, which was not what he wanted to do.

"Red-haired Shanks, this is an order from the World Government"

"I'll say it just once, get out of the way."

“.”

This CPO doesn't want to be an enemy of the Four Emperors, but he has the orders of the Five Old Stars. Under the premise of orders, these CPOs dare to do anything, whether it is to interfere with Kaido's battle, or not to give the redhead face, It's nothing to them.

"Shaved."

In front of Shanks, this CPO attacked Bucky, and only Griffin's blade was waiting for him.

After lightly solving the CPO in front of him, Shanks looked at Bucky beside him.

"Long time no see, Bucky."

"Long time no see. You still look like this! I am so angry when I see you! Have you forgotten, I only have hatred for you!"

"Huh? Is this the case? Didn't I just save you? You should thank me."

"Who should thank you! Bastard! If it weren't for you, I wouldn't have eaten a Devil Fruit by mistake, and I wouldn't be what I am today! Who do you think is the fault of all this!"

Red-haired Shanks, the youngest of the Four Emperors, a monster in the new world, and the man Bucky is most afraid of.

In front of Whitebeard and Kaido, Bucky could only pretend to be calm, but in front of Shanks, he really dared to show his face.

"Wait, why are you here, bastard!"

After roaring for a long time, Bucky suddenly realized that this is Marin Vanduo, and it is not a good thing for Shanks, who is the emperor of the sea, to come here.

"Me? I'm here to advise people. This war should end."

Speaking of which, Shanks put away Griffin, patted the dust on his body, and walked in the direction of the Siyuan

Chapter 997: Taken Shanks, The Last Captain's Order

Beasts, Whitebeard, Navy Headquarters, and the three forces are the protagonists of this war. As for the prisoners and the revolutionary army who escaped from the city, they cannot play a decisive role at all.

As long as the Navy and the Whitebeard Pirates are willing to give up the fight, the battle will naturally end.

But the problem is, now that there is an unexpected factor of Kaido, that fighting mad character is not suitable for mediation.

Shanks envisioned the situation where he would mediate the war

Suppose he said in front of Kaido 【Stop, or we will be your opponent! 】

This sentence is a bit deterrent to others, but it is a joke to Kaido.

【Hey, that's great, let's fight! 】

Kaido will probably reply him like this, and happily start a new war, which is not the situation he wants.

But there is good news, that is, Beasts is a wonderful dual-talker system.

This kind of system is almost impossible in any big power. It is outrageous that there are two powers in one power without conflicts. But in Hundred Beasts, this system has been implemented.

According to Uta's gossip, Arceus has a great say in Beasts, and even Kaido will refer to his opinions, which gave Shanks another way of thinking.

The aftermath that erupted just now strengthened his idea, directed the aftermath to the sky, and did not carry out a second attack. Compared with Kaido, this is undoubtedly a peacemaker.

There are no fools in the Four Emperors. Even the current Charlotte Lingling used to be an extremely shrewd person, but it may be that she had too many children, which made her personality more and more abnormal.

The red-haired face has always been a very strange thing, except for Bucky, those who don't give him face will always suffer from misfortune inexplicably, and the degree of backlash varies according to their own strength.

But he himself doesn't care much about face, and sometimes he can even use "low voice" to describe his actions. Among the four emperors, red hair is also a person full of mysteries.

Big Mom who established the world, Kaido who advocates war, and Whitebeard who is looking for his family. The purpose of these three people is very clear. Only red hair, his purpose and identity are unpredictable.

"Boss, what should we do now?"

"Go to the battlefield first, but don't continue to expand the war, I will be there soon."

Shanks and his subordinates parted ways, and walked alone on the only way that the Shiyuan must pass.

"Excuse me, mind if I come on board and talk about something?"

"Father, it's Uta's adoptive father, do you want him to come up?"

On the ice, Shanks, like a passenger who wanted a ride, waved his arm at the Siwon.

This is a small etiquette in the Pirate World. Going to the enemy ship alone is a way of showing sincerity, and it is usually easier to be accepted by the other party.

"Let him come up, I want to see what he has to say."

The Siwon did not stop, but after receiving Yamato's gesture of agreement, the red hair appeared on the deck of the Siwon, and saw the speaker in front of him.

"Red-haired Shanks, what do you want to do?"

There is no need for Arceus to speak, Quinn has already taken the initiative to stand up as the interrogator, and Shanks didn't care about this kind of thing, and cut directly to the point.

"Your Excellency Arceus, how do you want this war to develop?"

"Hey, redhead, don't take yourself too seriously! Do I need to tell you what Lord Arceus means! Don't think that your daughter is a popular singer who has brought us a lot of benefits, so she can treat her well. We point fingers!"

Quinn spoke very disrespectfully to the redhead, but the redhead's reaction was still very flat, just observing Arceus's reaction, the younger brother dared to speak like this, and the boss hadn't stopped him, which meant that this was the other's boss' acquiescence.

It's just that Shanks didn't understand how Quinn connected this kind of thing with Uta.

"I came here with sincerity. It doesn't make any sense for this war to continue. Both the navy and Whitebeard have already paid huge casualties.

Your beasts are in business, there's no point in turning the ocean into a mess, is there?

I know that you are looking for something. Although I don't know where it is, I can help a little. I have a lot of people under my command. You can search the territory, which will be useful after all. "

"I have no interest in this kind of war, but Kaido's affairs are not over yet. His purpose is to fight Whitebeard to the death. After the battle is over, he will naturally stop interfering in the affairs here."

The red hair got a relatively good result, at least the other party did not plan to continue to expand the war.

Now that the Whitebeard Pirates are at their best, Jack and Olga may have occupied most of Whitebeard's territory without any interference. A recommendation.

"In this case, I will assist Kaido to clean up those who interfere with him. Correspondingly, after his battle is over, can this war be brought to an end? Of course, my previous words are still valid."

That terrifying attack was enough to destroy Marin Fando. If it happened again, no one could protect the people on the island, so Redhead put himself directly on the weak side, proposed this agreement in the form of a transaction, and first stated that Things you can do yourself.

According to Uta, the other party is easy to talk to, as long as the conditions are right, they will not make things difficult for others.

"Can."

This is the purpose of the beasts. Even without Shanks, Kaido would not continue after the battle. Now there is a bully who takes the initiative to send it to the door, and that is free labor.

Ideally, the redhead hopes that the battle will stop immediately, but he can't do it. There are too many top-level combat forces involved in this war. He can only stop the other side by uniting one side.

It's a pity that Wu Laoxing has some doubts about him now, otherwise he might have informed him of his decision long ago. If Hongfa knows that the world government has the idea of ending the war, I don't know what expression he will make.

When the red hair reached an agreement with Arceus and marched towards the center of the battlefield, Marlin Vandor was also completely divided into two halves. Relying on the terrifying power of the shaking fruit, Whitebeard abruptly shattered the entire island.

"Dad! What are you going to do? Come here!"

"Gu la la la, there is no need, little ones, listen up, the next is the final order of the captain! The rest of the people, let me return to the new world alive, and everything that happens to me is my fault. own choice.

No matter what my ending is, no thoughts of revenge are allowed! "

Chapter 998: Give me face, this war, it's time to end

Siyuan and Red Fors are approaching the center of the battlefield at this time, but Shanks has already returned to his ship, and he did not go with Arceus.

Wu Laoxing didn't know what was wrong, and he actually suspected that he had some ulterior motives. His visit to Marin Fando was enough to make many things unclear. If he was on the same ship as the beasts On board, it's even more troublesome.

Some misunderstandings may not be eliminated, but there is no need to let the misunderstanding continue to expand.

During this process, the soldiers of the navy also had different reactions. The aftermath of the explosion just now had a more serious impact on the grassroots combat power. Although most of the power was directed to the sky, it still dispersed most of the navy's formation .

These people had just stood up when the Siyuan and Hongfa started to move towards the battlefield.

For the red-eyed soldiers, the identity of the enemy has become no longer important, and killing their own enemies has become their only obsession.

Several soldiers lifted the cannon on the ground with difficulty, and aimed the muzzle at the Siyuan.

"It's the pirate ship of Hundred Beasts, ready to attack, reload I said reload! Didn't you hear?"

"Sir.. I can't move my body anymore, I can't move at all."

The soldier holding the cannonball responded with difficulty to the other navy. The navy as the officer wanted to reprimand him, but the next moment he found that his body was also frozen.

"What's up Doflamigo?! What are you * doing!"

Out of the corner of his eye, he saw Doflamigo walking over with very aggressive steps, and his slightly twitching fingers had already explained the reason why their bodies could not move.

"Don't you want your Shichibukai's position?"

"Don't be so excited, the world government will not deprive me of my identity just because you are a rear admiral.

And you'd better understand that I'm saving you, and it's not a good thing to make people on that ship angry. "

Bass!

The scimitar made of yellow sand came from below, but the thread in Doflamingo's hand had already caught the clouds in the sky, and then he retracted his fingers to avoid the attack from Crocodile.

But the navy had no such luck. The water in their bodies was quickly sucked dry by the sand blade, and soon turned into mummies.

"Crocodile bastard, didn't I tell you that today is over?

You make it difficult for me. "

"Why should I listen to you? And you are such a kind person? Rescuing a navy that you never know is not what you should do."

"轰轰轰轰, I just don't want to be affected, see, crocodile bastard, these monsters are the masters of the future!"

In the Seven Seas of Martial Arts, Doflamingo is the most excited person after seeing the attack in the sky being stopped. Being able to compete with the world government by force is the most dreamy cooperation partner.

"So what? What does that have to do with me?"

"Oh, I'm sorry, I almost forgot, you were sent to Jinjin City by that young lady, but I think you didn't go to Jinjin City in vain. This trip is not small."

“.”

Crocodile's already gloomy face became even darker, and the resentment on him was almost materialized, and a cloud of sand in his hand was also condensing.

"Enough, crocodile bastard, if you are not an idiot, you can see that this war is over, whether to continue fighting or to see the final result of it, I believe you can make a smart decision, now You still have a chance to join me."

"Dreaming."

Crocodile still rejected Doflamingo, but did not continue to attack him.

After his body turned into a touch of yellow sand, he flew in another direction.

After searching for ancient weapons for countless years, he saw this terrifying power for the first time. In his heart, this was the legendary ancient weapon. After all, Nicole Robin was sent by Beasts. Believe it or not, Hundred Beasts has no information about ancient weapons.

【If you have this kind of power】

If you have such terrifying power, then you can establish a militarized country with absolute force deterrence, so as to create your own ideal town.

He wants to see what kind of direction the beasts with this power will make the world.

【Brother Tai, is this the power you follow? 】

Jinbe jumped out of the sea, and brought up a few navies along the way. In normal warfare, he was paddling, and he missed the attack from time to time. He was finishing the finishing work, and these navies were ready-made witnesses.

Because of the location, Jinbe was pushed directly into the water by the impact of the explosion just now, and even across the sea, he saw the terrifying power.

【Jinbe, I have found what I am after. If there is that power, if the Lord restores his power, then the dream world will definitely come. 】

Tiger's words echoed in Jinbe's ears, making Jinbe unable to calm down for a long time. At this time, he initially understood why the teachings of the Arceus religion have always emphasized the mighty power of the Lord.

Hancock didn't feel much about this, and looked at the direction of the Siyuan eagerly. Although Quinn had already indicated that Olga had other tasks, the support of all the beasts had arrived, and Olga might come soon.

Hawkeye's gaze is similar to that of Hancock, but he has another idea.

【Swordsman. Can reach this level.】

At the corner of the battlefield, Absalom, who was invisible, dragged Moria away.

Moria couldn't bring up Kaido's interest at all, which led to Moria being knocked down by a stick, and no one paid attention to him at all.

Only the loyal Absalom took the risk to rescue Moriah. At this time, he had already got a small boat and fled Marlin Vandro with the unconscious Moriah.

Meanwhile, Whitebeard's battle continues.

The current situation is relatively ideal for Whitebeard. Ace has been successfully rescued. As long as they can leave the Navy headquarters, the rescue plan will be considered a success.

The rescue operation is even much smoother than the original timeline, and no one is chasing and killing Ace now. It's not that the navy doesn't want to, but they have the will. Either they are weak or they can't get away.

Except for the general-level combat power, no one can forcefully kill Ace in front of all the captains and the captains of the new world. NoVELu&b.coM

But Zefa died in battle, Sengoku was fighting Kaido, Akainu and Kizaru were firmly watched by Whitebeard, even if they resisted the damage of the two, Whitebeard didn't give them a chance to intervene in other battles.

It is impossible for Garp to hunt down his two grandsons. As for Kuzan, although Yamato slipped away, Kuzan also rejoined the battlefield, but he does not have the same obsession with Ace and Luffy as Sakasuki.

Even if it is Whitebeard, it is not easy to take several attacks in order to hold them back.

Whitebeard doesn't have the body of a phantom beast, nor does he have the talent of a steel balloon, but from the moment he came to Marlin Vandro, he never thought of leaving alive.

He is seventy-two years old this year, and he doesn't have too much nostalgia for life. In the days when the Whitebeard Pirates were established, he also gained what he wanted, and the company of his family made him extremely satisfied.

The people I knew when I was young ended and disappeared one by one, which made Whitebeard feel that he was the remnant of the times.

Like Zeff, he also hopes to find a suitable place for his ending.

No matter how much Whitebeard's body is taken care of, it will eventually decay. It is already a rare experience for the old man to regain the power of youth at this moment.

And to this day, what he cares about is not himself, but the future of the crew, and the final captain's order is for them.

Without Whitebeard, the Whitebeard Pirates are dead in name only. Without the combat power of the Four Emperors, the Whitebeard Pirates will automatically withdraw from the position of Emperor of the Sea. Judging from the current situation of the sea, no one can fill this position. vacant.

The rise of beasts has become a certainty.

White Beard admitted that Kaido's intervention indirectly made the rescue smoother, but he knew very well that he had no friendship with Kaido, and what Kaido did was to fight.

When fighting more than ten years ago, facing Kaido, he felt powerless. He would lose and die in battle, but this is a situation Whitebeard can accept.

He was afraid that his silly son would be upset and wanted to avenge him and all the beasts.

That kind of behavior is undoubtedly sending death, but pirates are such a group, knowing that they will die, they will still use their brains. In order to prevent this situation, Whitebeard issued the so-called captain's order.

"The last captain's order? Dad, what are you talking about! Don't say such unlucky words! We should go back to the new world together and build our new ship!"

"Gu la la la, I am a remnant of the old era, and in the new world, there is no boat that can carry me! Remember my order! Go back alive! No. Revenge!"

Across the cliff he created, Whitebeard gave his final order, and during this process, he didn't look back, and kept facing his sons with his back.

"Are you kidding, you pirates should all be wiped out here! Meteor Volcano!"

Akainu wanted to continue attacking, but Whitebeard didn't give him this chance. He smashed his fists into the air in front of him, and Whitebeard interrupted Akainu's forward swing of attack.

"Magma kid, your opponent is me, don't even think about getting involved in other battles!"

Whitebeard doesn't know where Kaido is, and he's not that keen on fighting, but no matter what happens, he won't let these guys who can threaten his son out of his sight.

"Porusalino! I will stand up here, and you go catch those escaped guys!"

Akazuki shouted the name of Kizaru, and kept fighting with Whitebeard. Akainu didn't know what was going on in other battlefields, so he planned to drag Whitebeard by himself and let Kizaru deal with the escaped Ace.

Whitebeard was already staring at the two of them, and he couldn't get away by himself, so Huang Yuan was able to distance himself from Whitebeard by virtue of his ability.

Hearing the words, Huang Yuan suddenly turned into a flash of light, planning to break away from the battle with Whitebeard.

White Beard naturally would not allow the yellow ape to leave. After forcing the red dog in front of him back, he attacked the yellow ape in the sky.

Taking advantage of this gap, Akainu's whole body entered a state of magma, and slammed into Whitebeard's body, but his knowledge and knowledge suddenly sensed a dangerous signal, and his body immediately turned into magma and scattered.

At the same time, Kaido's mace has been smashed down.

"This old guy is my opponent, can you marines go away?"

In order to hold back Kizaru, Whitebeard even gave up his defense against Akainu. If Akainu's attack is carried out, Whitebeard's body will not be able to bear it. This is undoubtedly a situation that Kaido does not want to see.

His battle has been interfered twice, in order not to let this most critical battle be destroyed again, he took action to stop Akainu.

"Newgate, your son has also been rescued, it's time to fulfill the previous promise."

"This isn't really running away, Kaido."

"So, it's because your sons are too weak, and they need to rely on others even to escape. You guys really found a lot of trouble."

Looking at Kaido who was talking with Whitebeard, neither Kizaru nor Akainu acted rashly.

It goes without saying about Kizaru's character. He has been forced to put in a lot of effort in this war. Akainu just doesn't want to fight two Four Emperors at the same time.

Judging by Kaido's tone, he obviously came to fight with Whitebeard. The pirate's infighting is a good opportunity for the navy, and he doesn't want to help Kaido and Whitebeard form a united front.

How to let Whitebeard and Kaido continue to fight, and he went to hunt down those fleeing pirates, which became a question for Akainu to think about, but he didn't struggle for long, because the top combat power of both sides had already come here.

Sengoku, Garp, Crane, Arceus and Red Hair, at this moment, the high-level combat power gathered here has surpassed the Battle of the Valley of the Gods.

"You seem to be stronger again? Have you found your thing?"

"I found it, but why have you been here for so long? According to the original plan, it should be over now."

"There are always accidents, just like that thing in the sky, the guy who gets in the way helps me deal with it, and the rest of the battle won't be too long."

Seeing Arceus coming, Kaido didn't believe there was any unexpected factor that could interfere with his battle. If even Arceus couldn't prevent that accident, then he could only start a more advanced melee.

Compared with Kaido's ease, the navy is different.

The deputy captain of Beasts and the red-haired pirates, this is not good news.

"Red-haired Shanks, why are you here?!"

"It's very simple, I hope this war ends here, there is no need to continue."

"Are you kidding, the Navy has paid such a huge sacrifice, do you want us to give up this war because of your few words!"

Listening to Shanks' words, Akainu immediately refuted Shanks' words.

For this top war, the Navy has invested a lot of energy and time, but has not reaped any results. If it ends like this, it will be a shame for the Navy.

"No, I just hope that you can recognize the current situation. If you continue to fight, the red-haired pirates will also be your enemy."

Chapter 999 The end of the war, the final battle

Redhead never thought that he could use words to persuade a certain party to give up fighting, so after reaching an agreement with Arceus, threatening the navy with force became his goal.

There are not many beasts and red-haired people, but they are all top-level fighters.

Arceus, Kaido, Yamato, Shaina, Jhin, Quinn, Beckman, Shanks, these people plus the Whitebeard Pirates, even the Navy Headquarters can't stand it.

The most important thing is Arceus' strategic deterrence. The red hair believes that there are still sensible people in the world government, and that kind of devastating attack is enough for them to stop.

Facts are as he guessed. Facing the threat of red hair, the faces of the navy present have turned extremely livid, and even Sengoku pressed Garp's shoulder.

"Karp, your grandson's problem is solved now, don't tell me you are too old to withstand your grandson's fist."

He was Garp's grandson before, and it's not easy for the Warring States Period to force him to do anything, but in the face of these monsters, if Garp continues to paddle, then their brothers will have nothing to do.

"I know that was just careless just now."

"Be more serious to me."

In all fairness, the Warring States Period no longer wants the war to continue. The current situation does not have the slightest advantage over the navy, but they have not achieved any results, so it is impossible to just give up like this.

When the Warring States period was tangled, the phone bug on Crane's body rang, and the latest order from Wulaoxing finally reached the Navy headquarters.

"Wuluoxing, are you serious?"

"Of course, Warring States, execute the order. Based on the order, minimize the impact, this is what you will do next."

"yes."

Several people in the navy had already heard the order from Wulaoxing. Garp and Crane seemed to be used to this kind of thing, and the yellow ape also showed indifference. Only Sakaski widened his eyes.

If Zhan Guo hadn't hung up on Bug, he would definitely have had a debate with Wulaoxing.

But facing the order that has been confirmed, all he can do is execute this one thing.

"The war can end, but the live broadcast of that phone bug must be cut off first."

The end of the war is the order of the five old stars. In their view, if even that weapon fails to work, it will be futile to fight any further, so they simply chose to stop the loss.

This is in line with Zhan Guo's inner thinking, but the premise is that you can't admit defeat under the live broadcast.

There are more than 100,000 people on the battlefield. This news cannot be stopped, but the news that spreads afterwards can still be sophistry. If you admit defeat in front of the phone bug, the navy will really lose face.

For a while, Bucky with the phone bug became everyone's focus.

"Beckman, do me a favor and find Bucky for me. I told you what he looks like."

"Shaina, Jhin, you two should go together, remember to bring the phone bug."

Shanks and Arceus successively issued orders to their subordinates, intending to get the phone bug first, and Sengoku also issued new orders.

"Porusalino, go and bring Kuzan back, and let the messenger inform you that the war is over, but pay attention to the impact."

Before the video is cut off, it is impossible for the Navy to announce the word armistice to the world. This approach is the last line.

If the top-level combat power does not make a move, the casualties caused by the battle of the people below will be within the acceptable range. For the high-level, the face of the navy is still more important than the lives of some soldiers.

"Newgate, you heard it too, now you can fight with confidence."

Kaido doesn't care about the final outcome of this war, he just wants to fight now, a peak battle with no one to interfere. NoVELusb.coM

"Gu la la la, kid, if you die by my hands, don't complain."

"Hey lol lol, in that case, it can only show that I am incompetent, come on Newgate, this battle, either you die or I die!"

The biggest problem is solved, and Kaido can't wait any longer.

Whitebeard has been fighting Akainu and Kizaru before, but Kaido is also fighting Sengoku and Zefa. Both sides have put in a certain amount of physical strength, which can be regarded as fair.

Arzeus will not intervene in Kaido's battle, and the red hair did not participate because of the previous agreement, and the navy will not stop them. For the navy, Kaido and Whitebeard will die together is the best ending.

So the rest of the people just entered the state of marking each other. As far as the navy is concerned, they also need to control the aftermath of the battle between these two monsters so that they do not affect more places.

After getting a positive answer from Whitebeard, Kaido's body has already moved.

"Kaido, you are really impatient!"

Cong Yunqie waved it in Whitebeard's hand, and slashed at Kaido who was rushing towards him. With bursts of wild laughter, Ba Zhaijie and Cong Yunqie bombarded together.

The two of them didn't have any nonsense. The mace and the broadsword were constantly bombarding each other in the simplest way. There was nothing fancy in it, and some were just a pure competition of strength.

Whether it is Ba Zhai or Cong Yunqie, they are all heavy weapons, and the strength of Whitebeard and Kaido are also men who have reached their peak.

The roar of the collision between the knife and the stick can be heard endlessly, but for the two of them, this is just the beginning.

"Hey, Newgate, we are all old acquaintances, so this level of temptation is unnecessary, right?"

"Gu la la la, that's right, you are no longer the brat you were back then"

A white ball of light appeared on the blade of Cong Yunqie in Baibeard's hand, and under the vibrating light ball, the domineering arrogance of the king's color also shot out like thunder and lightning.

Recalling back then, it was Whitebeard who conveyed Lockes' words and brought Kaido into the pirate group. Time has passed, and the kid back then has become a monster of the same level as himself.

"Uhhhhhhhh. That's it, that's the kind of fight I want!"

Kaido's body began to swell, blue dragon scales wrapped his whole body, and the overlord-like arrogance also appeared on his weapon.

"David Thunder Gossip!"

The thunder and lightning on Bazhai began to overflow, and the light ball formed by the shocking fruit also exploded. If the people around did not block the aftermath of their attack with domineering, then Marin Fando would really become a flat ground.

In other words, it is the basin. After all, the aftermath of Arceus' detonation attack left a huge deep pit on the ground.

The bodies of the two stood firm during the attack, but the ground under their feet had reached its limit, and the rocks began to crack. square. .

As more stones were crushed into powder by the impact, a large amount of dust poured into the air, and Whitebeard jumped high in the smoke and dust, and Cong Yunqie slashed at Kaido again with great force.

Although Kaido still blocked the blow, Whitebeard's attack was far more than this time.

By taking advantage of the recoil from the weapon collision, Whitebeard came behind Kaido and punched out of nowhere.

The air left marks after his hammering, and the space almost collapsed under this blow.

But Whitebeard knew very well that this was not enough. While hitting the shock wave, Whitebeard's heel also had the force of the shock. With the power of falling, Whitebeard kicked Kaido below.

The previous attack was just a feint, but the current attack is real.

"Newgate, you are still as terrifying as you were back then, both in terms of strength and fighting spirit."

But there was no panic in Kaido's tone, an impenetrable barrier had appeared around him.

"But this is not the first time we have fought, you should remember this!"

The absolute defense of defending is relative, depending on the user's level, the upper limit of defending is also different.

The power that the young Whitebeard can explode is naturally much more terrifying than the old Whitebeard, but Kaido has not stood still in recent years.

Compared with the last battle, Kaido has become stronger. Correspondingly, the upper limit of his defense has become more terrifying. For him, it is not impossible for him to rely on the barrier face to catch the gods.

Whitebeard is back to his peak period, but Kaido is constantly improving his upper limit.

"Of course I haven't forgotten, and you don't forget, I have a way to attack you through your barrier!"

Boom!

Whitebeard's attack was blocked from the outside world by the barrier, but Whitebeard's attack did not disappear.

Under the influence of the vibration, the air guarding the rear also began to vibrate, extending the damage to him with the vibration of space, and that vibration seemed to cause resonance in his body, causing damage to the body like the high-level armed color.

This is the awakening of the shaking fruit, the ability to maximize the ability of shaking.

In this state, the vibration in the space is like the extension of Whitebeard's hands and feet. Unless the barrier isolates another small world, otherwise Whitebeard's attack can penetrate the barrier and attack the body.

Kaido still remembers Whitebeard's fighting style, and Whitebeard also remembers Kaido's defense, so he didn't waste any time. After the battle started, he directly entered the awakening state.

The island was affected by Whitebeard's ability. Under Whitebeard's relentless attack, a large number of cracks appeared on Marin Fando, and the island even showed a tendency to split under the influence of the vibration.

The battle between Kaido and Whitebeard caused a huge aftermath. The strong wind rolled around them around them, and the sky above their heads split again.

From the beginning of the war on the top, the sky of Marin Fando is suffering misfortune.

The power of Arceus left a cloud ring in the sky before, and the ring-shaped cloud cluster floated in the sky like the boundary of the ring, but now this ring was cut off again with a knife.

"Agni Dragon Dance Gossip!"

The scorching dragon flames enveloped his body, especially the flames burning more violently on the tail behind him. At the same time, his body was twisting slightly. With the dancing of his body, Kaido's mace also swung at Whitebeard again. .

Anyone who has seen the dragon dance will not allow their opponents to use the dragon dance again. Ordinary people will be ruthlessly interrupted by the white beard before they even have a chance to use the dragon dance.

But Kaido is different. As he becomes more familiar with the dragon dance, he has already integrated this skill into the battle. Whether it is swinging or moving, he can use the dragon dance in the process

Boom!

Even though White Beard's body was also domineering, there was still a muffled sound.

Although he was drawn by Kaido, the attack in Whitebeard's hand did not stop. Cong Yunqie slashed down, leaving a large string of sparks on the dragon scale on Kaido's shoulder.

The hard dragon scales and powerful arrogance prevented him from breaking the defense, but that force had already penetrated into his body. Both Kaido and Whitebeard possessed the top-level armed colors. As long as they were hit, they would not May be completely immune to the opponent's damage.

The attacks of both sides hit at the same time, but for Whitebeard, this is not worthwhile.

Relying on the ability of the shaking fruit, Whitebeard has a certain advantage in attack power, but Kaido's defense and recovery power are far superior to Whitebeard, and he also hits the opponent, even though Kaido suffers more serious injuries, and finally fails It will also be white beard.

Not to mention they are not playing a turn-based game.

Whitebeard's vibration needs to rely on the swaying of the limbs to exert its power, but Kaido is different.

Besides the mace, he has other weapons on his body.

It's not Jhin's kind of equipment, and Jhin's fighting style is not what Kaido likes. For Kaido, the most trustworthy thing is still his body.

Whitebeard's slash was blocked by Kaido's arrogance, but the scales on Kaido's body suddenly stood up, and then those scales shot out like bullets, and there was a powerful armed arrogance attached to them.

Whitebeard's attack seems to trigger anti-armor damage, but this is not anti-injury, but a skill released by Kaido on his own initiative.

Dragon-type Pokémon's scale-shooting attack, based on the advanced application of dragon-type Pokémon's own scales, they can launch them as weapons, and in many cases can have unexpected effects.

Dense scales shot at Whitebeard, even his body had a lot of blood marks, and then he saw bursts of white light emitting from his whole body, and the powerful vibration force bounced all the scattered scales out.

"It's not over yet! Jiang III! Yin Naraku·Dragon Scale Dance!"

Thunder, domineering, dragon power, Kaido used his strongest blow at this time, and even the air wailed in the place where Ba Zhai passed.

Whether it is the scales shot before or the scales kicked off by the white beard, they all form a whole under the traction of Kaido's eight fists.

The waving mace almost turned into a roaring dragon, using the powerful overlord color as his dragon's breath, and launched his own charge towards Whitebeard.

"Well done!"

Watching Kaido's attack and feeling the power of youth in his body, Whitebeard's heart was also excited. At this time, he was no longer fighting for his son, but a contest with a powerful opponent.

He doesn't like Kaido, but he can't deny that Kaido is a strong opponent. In Kaido, Whitebeard even found the feeling of fighting Roger back then. Roger.

Emmmmm, I can't bear it anymore, I'm short of 2,000, I'll write it tomorrow during the day (May 1st no pigeons.jpg)

Chapter 1000 You succumbed to the times, and the times succumbed to me

Dragon scales fluttered, and Kaido's figure became much lighter.

Scale shooting is a kind of armor-removing behavior for dragon-type Pokémon. At the cost of temporarily abandoning the scales, in exchange for faster movement speed, this has no effect on their bodies. In terms of their physical fitness, the scales The regeneration speed is extremely fast, and it won't take long for it to return to its original state.

This is especially true for Kaido. In this world, whether it is a broken bone or missing teeth, a glass of milk can restore it to the original.

So for Kaido, the time to end this state is entirely up to him. Whenever he wants to complete his defense, the missing scales will naturally be replenished.

"Oh, by the way, your betrayed subordinate has been killed by my subordinate, and the vitality of that alien species is really tenacious."

While typing, Kaido suddenly remembered about Blackbeard, so he casually told Whitebeard about it.

"Gu la la la, thank you so much, but Kaido, your tone of voice seems to have convinced me."

Blackbeard is dead, which is also good news for Whitebeard. The pirate who can brutally kill his companions is also Whitebeard's heart disease. If he is not dealt with, it will be a disaster after all.

Kekaido's tone gave White Beard a strange feeling, as if he was afraid that he would leave uneasy, so he deliberately explained the key things. NoVelusb.cOm

He admits that Kaido is strong, but this attitude still makes him feel uncomfortable.

"Your character is not what Roger wants to see!"

Boom!

The scales fired by Kaido were scattered with his fist, and Whitebeard mentioned Roger again. Unknowingly, he had put the original trainee and the former One Piece on the same level.

After Roger returned from Ralph Drew, he had a chat with Whitebeard, and even planned to tell Whitebeard the route to Ralph Drew, but Whitebeard was never interested in One Piece, so he rejected Roger's proposal.

But he still got a lot of secret information from Roger, and he also had a certain understanding of what Roger was looking forward to.

"That kind of thing doesn't matter at all, I don't need his acknowledgment, his opinion has nothing to do with me!"

Facing Whitebeard's fist head-on, Kaido was full of disdain for Whitebeard's words.

"I don't believe in fate. If fate says something, then I must smash him! Newgate, you seem to have said before that you are a remnant of the old era, and the new world has no ships that can carry you, right??"

"It's true, there are not many old guys left."

"So Newgate, you are old after all. Although your body has regained its youth, your heart has not.

If you do the calculations like this, I can be regarded as a contemporary of you. Since the era has no boats that can carry it, let the era become a new boat! In the next era, I will be its master! "

Destined fate, this sentence is something Kaido hates very much. He chose Wano Country as his territory, which is also related to this kind of thing. He wants to prove with facts that the so-called fate is all nonsense.

In this regard, Kaido has a very strong rebellious psychology. Whitebeard's idea of succumbing to time disappointed him. Controlling the era and letting the era advance in his own way is Kaido's current goal.

The position of One Piece is a process, but it is not the ultimate goal. For Kaido, that position is just a pedal.

". Gu la la la, I really underestimated your ambition, Kaido."

After a moment of silence, Whitebeard felt strange to Kaido, he was far from the trainee at the beginning.

"That's right, I'm a white beard, Kaido, let me give you a ride with the tail of my era, don't die here, brat."

A white halo emerged from Whitebeard's body, this time it didn't condense on his hands, feet or weapons alone, but enveloped his entire body, and then this power was gradually absorbed by Whitebeard's body, and then disappeared without a trace .

But the vibrating force still exists, as can be seen from the ground at White Beard's feet. The stones at his feet have been shaking, and finally turned into powder directly under the vibration.

The resurrection grass healed the body, but Kaido's words awakened his heart. When the body and heart rejuvenate at the same time, the real white beard will be shown, and this is exactly what Kaido wants.

As an alternative "education expert", fighting him can always achieve good results. If Kaido has any natural enemies, Mitian Diary must be one of them.

However, Whitebeard's own resistance was not poisoned by Oden. In other words, after Roger completed the voyage, Oden's silent return to Wano Country disappointed Whitebeard.

The trainees back then were still ambitious, which touched White Beard a lot.

Ba Zhaijie and Cong Yunqie collided again. This time, the power of the shaking fruit could not be seen on Whitebeard's blade, but only the domineering air revealed, but at the moment of the real fight, Kaido felt the power of the far away. The power of vibration beyond the past.

Different from the power that erupted after Whitebeard's awakening just now, if Whitebeard's attack before was a terrifying external explosion, then it is a silent internal destruction at this moment. At this moment, Whitebeard has transformed into a real Shock people.

"I knew, you old guy is more capable than that, it seems that this time you can really enjoy yourself."

Kaido's eyes changed, and the flame cloud surrounding his body also burned like a flame, and the dragon claws extended from his arms, adding an extra weapon to Bazhai.

Dragon claws, dragon tails, dragon scales, and dragon-type attacks are mostly related to body parts. Through the use of energy in the body to strengthen a certain part of the body, for dragon-type Pokémon, this is their "dominant spirit" ".

At this time, the dragon claws were turned into spikes on the eight fists by Kaido. For Kaido, this is how power is applied.

The scales that were launched before were also replenished, and entered a new round of battle with Whitebeard.

Kaido had a great time, and Whitebeard began to enjoy the fight, but the onlookers were not so happy.

This is the headquarters of the navy, and it is the place of justice that cannot be broken in the eyes of the navy.

The legend that the city cannot escape from the prison has long been broken, and the Golden Lion's escape can still deceive the ears and steal the bell, but this large-scale escape operation, the entire Marine Vando Navy has seen it all.

Although Marin Fando was also broken into by pirates, those pirates who broke in were all arrested and imprisoned in the end. This incident is no exception.

This time is different. The two sea emperors fought in the navy headquarters majestically, while the navy generals just watched from the sidelines and did not directly attack. This was a heavy blow to the hearts of many navies.

From the perspective of the high-level navy, this is already the optimal solution.

No matter how Kaido and Whitebeard fight, they will not threaten the status of the navy, and their internal friction will also benefit the future development of the navy.

The growing strength of the Pirates put the navy at a disadvantage at this time. Coupled with the order of the Five Old Stars, the Warring States chose to cease the war. Letting them fight without interfering is also part of the armistice agreement.

It's just that the people below won't understand this kind of thing, especially if the order hasn't been fully communicated.

Some navies feel that the top navies are waiting for an opportunity to make a profit in the end. In fact, if the internal friction among the pirates is a little more serious, the navies will indeed do so, but the chances are very slim.

Except for Kaido and Whitebeard, everyone else is very restrained at this time, and has been watching the other naval forces.

There are also some people who have guessed the thoughts of the higher-ups, and they are just silent about it. Obedience is the most basic requirement of a soldier. Except for a small number of thorns, the naval soldiers who can be recruited here will faithfully carry out the orders of the commander.

Near the central area, the navy has stopped their actions, and they are waiting for an order from the upper peak.

Most of the pirates also began to flee to the distance under the command of the captain of Whitebeard, but a small number of people still stayed on the edge of the cliff created by Whitebeard, watching the battle of Whitebeard.

On the edge of the battlefield away from Whitebeard and Kaido, it is a completely different scene.

This war has not stopped, but has intensified.

The interruption of the phone bug is a signal of a truce, and before this signal is received, the battle is still going on. The top combat power has been restrained, but the grassroots has not, so in this last time, they are still fighting for the war.

In the ruins, the corpses of the navy and pirates were stacked together. Many people have forgotten what the purpose of coming here is, and now they only have one last thought, to kill the enemy in front of them.

"Kerby, Kirby, what's wrong with you!"

In a pile of rubble, Belumeb dug Keby out of it.

At the beginning of the war on the top, the two were frightened by Whitebeard's destructive power and wanted to sneak away, but they met the red dog who executed the deserter, and were finally scared back to the battlefield by the red dog.

Enduring the fear in their hearts, they also participated in several irrelevant battles, soldiers against soldiers, generals against generals, the two of them are now able to deal with some ordinary pirates, any captain from the new world is enough kill them.

In the ensuing time, the battle between Yamato and Kuzan, the confrontation between Whitebeard and two generals, the weapon of Dynamite Rock, and the shots of Wulaoxing and Arceus, the aftermath of every battle is huge for them frightened.

And in the final aftermath, the flying stones buried them directly.

Under the double pressure of external force and psychology, these two people passed out directly, and only woke up at this time.

Belumebo woke up later than Kebi, but when he woke up, he saw Kebi covering his ears in pain, sitting on the ground motionless as if frightened.

Facing Bellumebo's shout, Kebi didn't give any response, because he was about to be overwhelmed by the voice in his head.

【Help. Someone help me.】

【It hurts so much. I don't want to die, I want to go home..】

【Help me..Help me.】

【Brother, I avenged you, wait for me, I'll come to you right now.】

The noisy voice lingered in his mind, and Ke couldn't tell whether it was the voice of pirates or the navy, and some were just the fear of war.

One after another voices kept disappearing in his mind. Before those voices disappeared, the last groan let Keby understand that the owner of these voices was dead.

"Be sober, Kebi, the war is about to end, Marshal Warring States has ordered a truce!"

This is the news brought to Bellumebo by the messenger who just passed by. Originally, this order was only conveyed to the generals at all levels, but the two of them followed Garp every day, and they were familiar with each other in the Navy headquarters, so Warring States The orderly only mentioned it incidentally.

"Continue to attack! Destroy those pirates! Leave them in Marin Fando!"

At the same time, a loud voice came into the ears of the two.

"Beilumebo, didn't you say that you are going to stop the war?"

"That's what the messenger said. Maybe Major General Uchimura hasn't received the order yet."

Now Akainu and others are near Whitebeard and Kaido, and they have no time to pay attention to these ordinary battlefields. The deterrent power of these pirates combined is not as good as a cadre over there.

Even Ace has to sit in the back row now. For Akainu, Quinn is more attractive than Ace at this time.

Ace can say nothing except the name of the son of the One Piece, but Quinn is different. In terms of threat, Quinn has the title of the first person under the Four Emperors.

The combat power is much stronger than him, but it is so eye-catching, I really can't find a second one.

Compared to the threat of Quinn and the others, the existence of Keby has nothing to do with Akainu, and there is no chance of that collision.

Hitting his head hard with both hands, the voice in his head gradually disappeared, and Keby also stood up again, staggered and ran in front of Uchimura.

"Stop it, Major General Uchimura, the headquarters has decided to stop the war! There is no need for soldiers to sacrifice meaninglessly!"

"It hasn't stopped yet, let me get out of the way, and those little devils who haven't even prepared for war should point out! Look at your rank, you have no right to stop me!"

Uchimura received the order, but he could not accept it.

Especially the previous inexplicable attack. Although the pirates were also affected, many innocent soldiers were also affected. This is the result of Arceus stopping it. If the attack hits the target, the impact will be even more terrifying.

All of this is within the acceptable range of the Five Old Stars. If the cost of eliminating Kaido and Whitebeard is tens of thousands of soldiers, then they are willing to make this sacrifice. For them, life is just a value, and Whitebeard and Whitebeard Kaido's threat is far greater than this number of soldiers.

First the war, and then the aftermath of the unknown attack. Too many comrades and subordinates died in this war because of these.

Now they say that it will stop if it stops. If this is the end, why are they dying so many people?

He did receive instructions to prepare for a truce, but the truce is only a preparation for a truce, not an immediate truce, so he must seize this last time to kill more enemies
