

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 103

With dirty thoughts inside his head, Tang Shaoyang approached the girl with a big step only then Kang Xue noticed his presence. She looked up and saw the man who had saved her life a few times.

She said nothing as a complicated feeling welled on the inside. After two days of staying in this base, she finally found out the man's identity. He was the Leader of this base by setting up the order within the base with violence. At least, it was the rumors that spread around. Of course, many respected him because he was not only her savior but these people's savior as well.

On top of all of those rumors and saying about him, she also found out the man had a woman. For some reason, it hurt her after the man confessed to her back then.

After a moment of silence, she stood up, "You should not come here, your girlfriend may misunderstand us!" Her tone was quite sharp when she said those words to Tang Shaoyang. She was trying to create a distance between the two.

Hearing this, Tang Shaoyang halted his steps and looked at the girl in the eyes. He tried to comprehend her words, then he realized what she tried to convey to him. The girlfriend in her mouth was Zhang Mengyao for sure.

"Huuu, I heard some saltiness from those words," He grinned as he continued his advance to the girl, "Based on your look, you have heard everything about me, right?"

Seeing the man advanced, she subconsciously stepped back. As the man took a step forward, she would take a step backward. It continued until her back hit against the wall, she was about to move to the side but the man's hand blocked her path.

"Have you heard the rumor about the crazy leader who dreams to be an Emperor?" Tang Shaoyang's face was a few centimeters away from Kang Xue's face. The girl nodded her head two times before she shook her head vigorously, "That's right, I am that person," he pasted his nose around her neck, smelling her fragrant body.

"Do you know the common thing about the past Emperors?" He did not stop with his question. Kang Xue's body stiffened but to her surprise, she could not reject the man's advance. She did not try to push him but only shook her head in response.

"They have more than a woman in their life, so me having more than one woman is justified. If I only have one woman, I would be the shame of the name of an emperor!" Hearing those words come out of Tang Shaoyang's mouth directly left her speechless.

'Who said those words straightforward like you!' She thought to herself. For some reason, those words lessened her nervousness, and she could face the man right face to face, "That's not how the emperor court the ladies," she talked back calmly.

To her surprise, Tang Shaoyang's eyes were widened in surprise. But then, a wide grin formed on his lips, and she noticed his eyes were looking to her lips.

It was so fast, the man's lips touched hers. Kang Xue should have expected this but she had not really prepared for him to kiss her after her answer. She was shocked and subconsciously opened her mouth with a little gap. The man took this chance, his tongue drilled into her mouth and touched her tongue. She felt goosebumps all over her body, she tried to step back but a wall blocked her path to retreat. She tried to shake to the side, but the man followed her movement.

She tried to hide her tongue from the man's, but she did not know why their tongues got intertwined instead. The man was aware of her random movement, so soon, she felt an arm curled on his waist, locking her on the spot.

Kang Xue tried to push the man since the path to escape was blocked. However, for some reason, she lost all her energy all of sudden, her weak push was futile. The man in front of her was just like a strong wall that could not be pushed.

'Huh!?' His tongue has a similar taste to mint candy, it's so refreshing,' in the middle of kissing, such thought popped out in her. Her eyes widened in shock when she realized how inappropriate her thought was. The kiss lasted a little bit longer until she was out of breath.

The moment their lips parted, she greedily sucked for air. Her cheeks puffed out as she looked at the man angrily for kissing her. It was as if the man could read her thoughts, "What? You were the one who asked for it! You said you wanted me to court the ladies like an emperor, so I did it," Tang Shaoyang explained why he kissed her, "Unfortunately, the Emperors in the past do not need to court the ladies, they only need a decree, and the lady will be delivered to the room. That was what I am doing right now,"

Kang Xue finally understood the grin before the man kissed her. It was her words that basically delivered herself to the man. She was about to refute the man that not all emperors like that, but the words could not come out as the man did not give her a chance to speak. His lips blocked her mouth, once again his lips sneaked into her mouth. Once again, she tried to hide her tongue from his, but hiding in the small space was practically impossible. Once again, her tongue was intertwining with the man's tongue.

However, there was something different this time, she felt his hand slowly crept up to her chest area. She was about to hold the hand from reaching her chest, but his hand was faster than her. The hand reached her left chest, with a gentle motion, he kneaded her left breast, a gentle knead.

Kang Xue's body quivered just like someone got electrocuted, a pleasant electric shock spread around to her body, and it ended with a pleasant hummed moan.

"Hummm~ Hummm~ Hummm~" at this moment, all her weak resistance to the man had gone. Her mind was blank yet messed up at the same time. Subconsciously, her hand moved and circled around his neck. She lost to her desire as she followed the man's rhythm.

Tang Shaoyang was not satisfied by just kneading her breast with a layer of the shirt. His both hands snuck into her shirt from the lower part. He tried to pull her shirt up, but when it reached the lower part of her bra, the sound of a door being knocked on resounded.

Kang Xue snapped out of her trance state, along with the knocks, her cheeks flushed red and hot. Then she panicked, but then she noticed the man grinned playfully at her.

"We will continue our unfinished business tonight in your room, my beautiful swan," his deep voice entered her ears. Those words only made her cheeks flushed even redder, no words or refusal came out from her mouth. It was as if she accepted his offer to come to her room tonight.

After saying those words, Tang Shaoyang happily hummed. He went out of the office and made the culprit who ruined his moment. It was a female in a white nurse outfit, he glared at the nurse for a split second, and the nurse instantly shrunk her neck back, not expecting the Big Boss was here.

After the event in her office, Kang Xue's heart was flustered anxiously. She could not focus on her work as she tried to comprehend what actually happened back then. She did not know why but she could not reject the man. If she recalled everything correctly, she was in fact accepting the man rather than rejecting his advance. Her mind told her to reject the man but she could not do it for some reason.

Even after she finished her work for the day, her mind was preoccupied with those thoughts. Her mind was in chaos as she did not know what to do. She entered the lobby, a lot of people passed by, most of them were just like her who just finished their words. Most of these people were part of Warriors and the slave group.

She lowered her head as she walked toward the elevator. For some reason, she was embarrassed to raise her head. She was standing in front of the elevator, but she did not know why as she was just standing in front of the elevator but she became the center of attention.

Almost all people looked at her by just standing in front of the elevator. It only embarrassed her even more, the moment the elevator opened, she immediately dashed into the elevator, hiding from the people's gazes. The girl was not aware that the elevator she used now was an exclusive elevator for Tang Shaoyang.

She did not dare to go back to her room, so she pressed the number 2 button. Kang Xue decided to go to the cafeteria first to have dinner. She spent one and half an hour in the cafeteria as she did not know what to do in her situation.

In the end, she resigned herself to fate as she left the cafeteria to her room. When the elevator reached the highest floor, she peeked her head outside, searching for people in the living room but she could not find the man. She was relieved for a little bit and went back to her room.

She washed up and changed her attire. As Kang Xue opened her wardrobe, she noticed more new clothes inside. There were also pajamas, and next to the pajamas was sexy lingerie. Her hand was about to reach the sexy lingerie but she changed her mind and took the normal pajama instead.

Dressed in white pajamas, she was laying down on the bed. While she was on the bed, her eyes subconsciously darted toward the door. For some reason, she did not lock the door even though the man said he would visit her.

Kang Xue was not aware that she was expecting the man to come. However, after hours of waiting, the door remained closed. It was midnight, but the man who said that he would come never appeared.

She was relieved but also upset at the same time. That was right, she did not know why but she was truly upset for some reason.

Meanwhile, inside Kang Xue's opposite room, a pleasant moan filled the room. At the same time, the king-size bed was shaking.

Zhang Mengyao laid down on the bed with her face facing the bed as a lovely rhythm of moan flowed out from her mouth, "Mnnn~ More~ More~,"

On her back was Tang Shaoyang, he thrust her from the back. From each little shaoyang's thrust, a lovely moan would come out from Zhang Mengyao's mouth.
