Chapter 1521 The Prey Has Taken The Bait - Part 4

"Are you really going to parody their heads?" Castor asked Tang Shaoyang as they went back together.

He had fulfilled the deal on his side by asking help from one of the Admin Helpers, sending the bloodline. The reason he stuck to Tang Shaoyang was because the sky started to get dark. Without anything on his body, it would be safe to return with Tang Shaoyang. Even with an Admin Helper on his side, he felt safer with Tang Shaoyang.

Tang Shaoyang were holding two heads by their hair. The two heads belonged to the two Admin Helpers earlier. Both died with fear latched on their faces. It did not change even after hours.

"Yes. That's the only way for Amos to come to me. Unless he wants to lose his three precious juniors, he must get rid of me as soon as possible."

Castor's countenance crunched in disagreement, shaking his head, "I think you will provoke all Admin Helpers as well as the other Administrators by showing their heads. You are challenging all of them. You don't have to do this because Julian or Agnes will do the job for you."

At this moment, Castor realized that it was not impossible for Tang Shaoyang to kill an Administrator. That was after he found out that the seven were all Tang Shaoyang's summons. He did not know what they were at first, but he found out after the fight that the seven were all summons. With those seven, it would not be impossible for Tang Shaoyang to kill an Administrator. However, parodying the two heads would draw more Administrators or other Admin Helpers.

If it was just one of them, Tang Shaoyang still had a chance. It would be different if more than one Administrator or maybe more than ten Admin Helpers were targeting Tang Shaoyang. That was just stupid.

Tang Shaoyang waved his hand at Castor, "I will do things my way. You don't need to meddle in my matter."

Soon the enormous city wall came to their sight. Castor and the Admin Helper stopped to make a distance from Tang Shaoyang. The two did not want to be seen around Tang Shaoyang lest people would misunderstand their relationship.

Tang Shaoyang sensed the sharp glare at him as he got closer to the gate. The glares from the two guards at the gate. They were part of the Admin Helper, and they recognized the head in Tang Shaoyang's hand.

One of the old guards came forward, blocking Tang Shaoyang, "What do you mean by that!?" The old man with a white beard pointed at the two heads on Tang Shaoyang's shoulder. He only recognized one of them because the second one was burned. However, he could tell that the burning head was also an Admin Helper.

"Am I not allowed to bring the head into the city? Is there a specific rule? Ah also, I don't think I have to tell you everything about what I am doing in this trial. Your job is to guard the gate and ensure the city is safe from the harm of the calamity."

"You are still outside the city right now!" The old guard sent the threat.

Tang Shaoyang grinned instead of backing up, "Then come to me. I will get the third head so these people in the city will think twice before trying to kill me. Three heads are more convincing than two heads I guess."

The second guard came over and pulled the old guard, "This is not our problem, Garton. Let him be. That's his problem if all Admin Helpers come for his life." The second old guard was hinting to Tang Shaoyang that Garton meant well.

Tang Shaoyang entered the city with no problem. No one stopped him, but he became the center of attention. There were a lot of people gathered at the gate area because of the ranking list. As soon as he entered the city, everyone turned toward him. The small murmur echoed in the air as people whispered to their friends.

They might not recognize the head, but Tang Shaoyang was the first one to do this crazy thing. It was not a secret that some participants got the point by hunting the other participants. But no one is so blatant like Tang Shaoyang. No one knew that the heads belonged to Admin Helpers.

Tang Shaoyang ignored the crowd as he came to check on his rank. He should be number one on the list. He had killed a lot, including two Admin Helpers, and twenty-six Vigamaur Dgaror's members. It included Eson who was in the top twenty as well.

People were making way for a lunatic who dared to bring two heads into the city. No one dared to speak louder near Tang Shaoyang.

Tang Shaoyang laughed as he stood in front of the list.

Two names disappeared from the top twenty as a new name popped out into the rank. People could tell that two people died at Castor's party because their names were not on the list anymore.

Tang Shaoyang was a little bit surprised by his point. He expected to be the number one, but he did not expect to get this much. Timo and Eson alone gave him twenty thousand points. The remaining twenty-five may be around thirty to fifty thousand points. That was his estimation, less than a hundred thousand.

As more people gathered, the news spread out very fast that a lunatic brought two heads back to the city. It was not long until one of the participants recognized Oras as Admin Helper. That created more uproar until someone else recognized Tang Shaoyang as well, the ranked one on the list.

It created the effect he wanted. It was a war declaration to Amos, and also a humiliation for Amos. That was what he tried to achieve, provoking Amos further so Amos would come out.

Chapter 1522 God Order

"Our main character for today has returned!" Oby welcomed Tang Shaoyang with open arms, grinning ear to ear. The baldy looked so happy.

Tang Shaoyang raised his right eyebrow. It was unusual of Oby, and he noticed the bar was empty as well. There was no one except for him and Oby.

"What is this?"

"Come! Come!" Oby motioned to come to the usual seat, "Tonight is my treat. Everything is on me, drinks and meals. You can order anything you want."

Knowing no one could hurt him inside the city, Tang Shaoyang came over. He sat on his usual spot and looked Oby in the eyes.

"What are you planning?"

"You are too suspicious of me. That hurt me, you know." Imagine a baldy with a bulky build, wearing a white apron acted coquettish. That was what Oby did just now. That sent a shiver to Tang Shaoyang.

"You are too serious. Just relax and celebrate your first win."

"But why are you so happy for me? Do you have a grudge against Amos? Or against Vigamaur Dgaror?" Tang Shaoyang could not help but feel suspicious of Oby.

"Not a grudge, more like I am happy that you delivered a blow to Vigamaur Dgaror. That's enough to make me happy. And I would like to invite you to join me in God Order."

Tang Shaoyang expected there was something from Oby. But he never expected an invitation to join a faction, not from Oby. On top of that, the invitation came out of nowhere. They knew each other for over a week, but why now? The most logical would be on the last day of the stage one trial. He did not think that much and shook his head before declining the offer.

"I don't take orders from anyone. So I will not join your faction."

"Listen to me first, Tang. You will join me after you hear how big the influence of the God Order is in the God Realm. If you join us, no faction or alliance dare to touch you. Listen to me first..."

Tang Shaoyang did not mind listening to Oby. The cook started what God Order was. It was an alliance formed by strong factions in the God Realm. What was the purpose of God Order? Setting up an order in the God Realm. That was the God Order's ultimate goal.

That meant they wanted to conquer the God Realm and the other factions to create a proper reign. One of their jobs was to control the factions, making sure they were not growing too strong for the other factions. Vigamaur Dgaror was one of those factions. That was why Oby was so happy when he brought the two heads and wiped out twenty-six Vigamaur Dgaror. That would slow down the growth of Vigamaur Dgaror.

That sounded cool, bringing justice for the weak faction or alliance. If it was the old and naive Tang Shaoyang. That really sounded cool, but not the current Tang Shaoyang. That just convinced Tang Shaoyang not to join the God Order.

It felt like they were no different than Nirvana who he fought before. The Divine Church and the other factions thought that a person with a class like Tang Shaoyang should not exist. Who were they to make such a stupid decision? This God Order sounded similar, but Nirvana Alliance was into more specific things.

"As I said, I don't take orders from anyone. From what you tell me, joining you will require me to listen to a lot of orders. And I also have a faction of my own, so I have to decline your offer."

He realized why someone as strong as Oby was here, watching the trial as a cook. The bald man had another duty, it was to recruit the promising God Rank. He also realized that Oby pushed him to fight Amos as a test. It was a test of whether he had the quality to join the God Order. That was most likely what happened here. It was the same as the White Mystery again back then.

"There's no need to hurry to make the decision, Tang. You have more than a month to make the decision. So what do you want to eat for dinner," Oby took the refusal better than the White Mystery, "I wish you good luck against Amos. He might come after you tomorrow." The cook grinned ear to ear.

Tang Shaoyang hoped Oby would stay this way during the trial. Fighting the Administrator excited him, but he would not go all the way to pick a fight on his own.

He put aside his thoughts and ordered the usual order. After his dinner, he returned to his room. Tomorrow might be the day of his clash against Amos.

"I believe you will come to me on your own. But don't worry, my invitation to you will not expire. You are welcome anytime." That was Oby's last words before they parted. 'Does that mean Oby is using you to cull Vigamaur Dgaror's number?' Avyn did not like that.

"It's a trade, just a business. Didn't he promise to hold the other Administrators?"

'What about the three Administrators with Amos? You have to be prepared to fight them all.' Vandir reminded Tang Shaoyang.

It was the day when his point deducted that he met with the other three overseers for the trial, the other three Administrators.

"That's true. Fortunately, I have seen their faces. We can retreat anytime if they are with Amos," That was his reason for leaving his spirits.

Even after creating an uproar yesterday, Tang Shaoyang started his day just like usual. Having his breakfast as well as coffee for the morning. Then he walked out of the lodging. As soon as he was out, he noticed many eyes on him.

It was not just four people, but he saw more than twenty people monitoring him. A few of them acted like a disguise, and the remaining of them were Admin Helpers. It seemed like he pissed a lot of people off by bringing Oras' head back.

'Are you ready for the main fight today?' Tang Shaoyang asked his spirits. He felt today might be the day he fought an Administrator.

Chapter 1523 Weirdly Normal - Part 1

Tang Shaoyang decided to go to the north side this time. It was to avoid a trap, in case, the people who hated him prepared a trap to the west side since he went to the west yesterday. He would rather avoid the trap while fighting the administrator.

More than twenty people followed him to the south. Twenty-three people followed him, and he quickly found out that everyone was Admin Helper. There were no participants between those twenty-three people who followed him.

As Castor predicted, he drew hate and anger from the Admin Helper who was not related to Amos by bringing back those two hates.

As he headed to the south gate, the other participants gave him a look. All of the people he passed by. Almost all participants recognized him right now. From the unknown participant, he had become the center of attention.

Upon arriving at the south gate, his followers increased. From twenty-three, it became thirty-two.

"Can we really handle all of them?" Karoen, The Void Knight asked in a concerned tone.

There were thirty-two Admin Helpers, not just two. The two they fought yesterday might not be as strong as they thought. But there might be someone stronger than the two Admin Helpers yesterday.

'We can isolate them in the domain if they are too much for us. The worst scenario, we will teleport back.' Vandir replied eagerly. Between all his remaining spirits, Vandir was the one most eager to fight.

Tang Shaoyang did not bother checking the ranking anymore. At this point, the ranking did not really matter to him. Amos was his only target, eliminating the threat before he did something weird with all the authority he had.

He did not know much about the Administrator. It would be better to fight Amos right now, when Amos still underestimated him than facing Amos with all his tricks as Administrator.

Just like yesterday, his followers stopped following him as soon as he stepped out of the city. No one was going after him. Even after he made such a long distance, no one was chasing after him. That was weird, especially after what he did yesterday.

He stayed in the forest nearby to watch the situation. Hiding behind the tree, he watched the south gate. A few parties went out, but there were no Admin Helpers. No one was chasing him from the Admin Helpers.

He tried to look with his Chaos Eyes around. Maybe the Administrator had prepared their people ahead. However, he only found the party who hunted the calamity. There were no suspicious people who waited for an ambush.

Tang Shaoyang decided to go ahead and maybe they would send people after him later. He ended up hunting calamity all day, and there was no one coming after him. Not even Amos.

That was so weird. He felt like those two heads and Vigamaur Dgaror's members were the perfect bait. It looked like it was not enough.

He returned to the city and checked the ranking. Maybe Amos found another loophole to deduct his points. That was not the case as he still kept his first place. However, there were still people tailing him in the city. Even though there were fewer people than this morning, eight people were waiting for him at the south gate.

Doing his routine, sending his loot to the market then he headed to the Scorching Bar before returning to his lodging. Oby still acted the same as if their conversation yesterday never happened. Everything was normal despite what he did yesterday, it was weird. Too normal to his liking.

The following day was the same. He went to the east this time, and the people who watched him only followed him until the gate. No one was going after him outside the city.

The following day was also the same. For two weeks, there was no action from Amos or the other Administrators, or even the Admin Helpers. In those two weeks, he easily maintained his number-one place.

He practically just slaughtered all calamities they encountered, except for the Rank 7 and above. That was how Tang Shaoyang maintained his first place. But two weeks were more than enough to have a big change in the ranking. Even in the top twenty, not just the top hundred.

Some names disappeared from the ranking list. It was easy to guess that person was killed by the other participants. Easy to find out because a new name popped out right after another name disappeared. It was a normal occurrence as many parties split up from their original party as well. A lot happened, but there was no movement from the Administrator yet.

After the incident two weeks ago, the trend of hunting Calamity had changed. The other participants started to target their fellow participants for their points. Especially whose names were on the top hundred.

2. Ian Carmen Lorentia - 104202
 3. Novoa Valentine - 72758
 4. Niere Pallares - 58929
 5. Tiyaana Viveiros - 58929
 6. Gerda Eva Lorenzen - 520893
 7. Quinten van Holsman - 49854
 8. Willem van Holsman - 49854
 9. Clement Salle - 45781
 10. Negasu - 45781
 11. Jules Asanda - 45781
 12. Agnes Neteri Iosava - 40950
 13. Carlos Borges - 38974
 14. Juan Arganito - 38974
 15. Zellen van Holsman - 37620
 16. Martinez - 35892
 17. Andre Silveira - 33857
 18. Branco Amaral - 33857
 19. Gaspar Sabella - 33857
 20. Castor Bach Justesen - 30891

The three Holsman brothers were the famous ones after Tang Shaoyang. They made it known who they had killed and several of them were in the top twenty. Agnes joined a party with Clement Salle, the reason she could hold her position in the top twenty.

However, there was no change within the top five. It remained untouchable for two weeks. Gerda solidified her position in the sixth a few days until today. The ranking explained a lot about what transpired in the trial.

As for the people who went after other participants, it was whether they were inspired by Tang Shaoyang. Or it might be their original plan, hunting the people who had gathered a lot of points after a certain time. That was a shortcut to reach the top, after all.

Chapter 1524 Weirdly Normal - Part 2

Today was the same as usual, finishing his break, Tang Shaoyang went out. He went to the Scorching Bar instead of going out of the city. He had run out of his stock for Scorching Beer.

Amos and the other Administrators along with the Admin Helpers never tried to do anything but watch his movement. He still saw the same fourteen people who followed him in the last two weeks.

In the last two weeks, he tried to look for Gerda, Tiyaana, and Niere as well. However, Amos was doing a good job hiding their traces from him. He could not find anything about those three. He thought Amos would come for him after he killed all his juniors, but he could not find anything about the three.

If he did not know what they looked like, how was he supposed to look for them? It was still the same, Vigamaur Dgaror had such a big influence that no one dared to tell him anything about Vigamaur Dgaror. He was at the wits' end to lure out Amos. He even tried to spy on Amos, but the Administrator never got out of the city. It was two weeks of frustration, not being able to do anything to the person who wanted to kill him.

"Do you have my drink, old man!?" Tang Shaoyang pushed the door.

There was a barrel on the counter, and there was someone he did not expect to meet, Ira, The Admin Helper. Ira had been avoiding him for two weeks. Now the woman was sitting behind the counter, holding a glass of wine.

Tang Shaoyang shrugged, thinking this might be a coincidence. The barkeeper was right behind the counter and pointed at the barrel. The barrel was his order. He grabbed the barrel and saved it in his inventory.

"Aren't you going to say hi to me?"

Ira finally spoke as Tang Shaoyang was about to leave. He halted his steps and glanced at Ira, "Aren't you avoiding me? And I think it's better if no one knows that we know each other, no?"

He felt nothing but grateful to Ira. She was the one who gave him the list of the Vigamaur Dgaror's members. Even though it led to nothing right now, at least, she tried to help him.

"That's true, that's why I am here to meet you," Ira turned toward Tang Shaoyang, "I am here to warn you about something. I don't want to lose my bet."

"Does Amos finally make his move?"

Ira shrugged, "First, The Holsman brothers will go after your life. Not just you, but also Ian Carmen and Novoa Valentine. Haven't you heard it yet? They announced this morning at the four gates."

Tang Shaoyang heard about the rumor about The Holsman brothers. Announcing their target to the public before going after their target. At first, people laughed at them when they announced that they would target one of the parties in the top twenty.

But they silenced the people who laughed at them as they wiped out a party of three in the top twenty and entered the top twenty. After that day, they continued announcing their target name. That name kept continuing to announce the name.

One of Clement Salle's party, Zeyn Moorlehem was killed by them. The tournament's champion party, Alderoi, Uruwakan, and Adriano were killed by them as well. That was how their names became notorious among the participants. They had become the God of Death among the participants. The name they mentioned would die in the following days.

"Let them come to me then. I have killed most calamities near the city, and it's hard to find them around lately."

"As I thought, you will underestimate them," Ira shook her head, "Don't underestimate them just because you have killed two Admin Helpers. The two you killed are in the bottom rung between all Admin Helpers. The Holsman brothers can also kill Oras and Shirkan. That's not important. They are also God Order's candidates, just like you. That means God Order's evaluation of you and the Holsman brothers are similar."

Tang Shaoyang was surprised when the God Order was mentioned. It was a private conversation between him and Oby. How did Ira find out? But there was something wrong, he was not a candidate. He already got the invitation, and he would immediately become God Order's member if he agreed to join.

If the Holsman brothers were a candidate, that meant the God Order had not yet accepted them. The Holsman brothers had not passed the test yet. When his thoughts reached that, he had a wild guess. Killing him might be a test for the Holsman brothers if they wanted to join the God Order. He did not correct Ira about him as a candidate.

"Second, it's not just Amos. But the other Administrators will make a move on you. They covet you just like The God Order. However, what if they realize they can't get you? They will get rid of you. You should be more careful."

Tang Shaoyang did not know what happened behind, but it seemed like a lot happened, especially in the rank of Administrators as well as the Admin Helpers who were here to recruit the God Rank with big potential.

"Thank you for the information," Tang Shaoyang nodded and left the bar afterward.

The barkeeper chuckled as he watched Tang Shaoyang's back, shaking his head, "That young man doesn't trust us. But sometimes a young man like him needed an actual experience. If he passes this ordeal, he might become even more powerful. Not just his strength but also his awareness."

Ira let out a sigh, shaking her head.

Even though Tang Shaoyang did not look like cared about what he just heard on the outside. He thought about it inside his head. The Trial of God was more than just a trial. It was an event for a big faction to recruit a strong candidate. That was what he learned in the last two weeks. A lot of people contacted him, asking him to join. However, he refused all the invitations. He did not plan to work under someone else ever again, after all.

'Aren't we in trouble if what that woman said is the truth?' Baccara, the black phoenix, asked in a concern. She did not want Tang Shaoyang to die before she could kill The Dragon Guardian. She saw a big potential in Tang Shaoyang, and she did not know how long she had to wait to meet a Master like Tang Shaoyang.

"That's what he meant by I would come to look for him on his own." Tang Shaoyang muttered in a low voice as he remembered what Oby told him two weeks ago.

Chapter 1525 Novoa Valentine

Tang Shaoyang regarded the warning seriously, but he still did everything as usual. Going out for a hunt as usual. The plan was to look for a rank 7 Calamity. He had a few on the list, but he changed his mind after the warning.

The rank 7 calamity was still unknown to him. He did not want to get interrupted while fighting a new monster. Heading to the west gate, he noticed his followers increased. There were another three people following him, making it seventeen.

The three followers looked like participants just like him. He could tell by their outfit since Admin Helper had their own outfits and a badge. The new three followers did not have those two things.

"Are they the Holsman brothers?" While he heard a lot of rumors about the Holsman brothers, he never met them in person. He did not know what they looked like.

As he left the city through the west gate, no one followed him. Including the three participants. He waited for another hour outside to ensure that he was not being tailed. No one followed him again today.

Tang Shaoyang shrugged and went to look for his prey for today. Another thing he realized after three weeks. The difficulty of the trial was not just about killing the calamity, but also looking for them. It was hard to find a high-ranking calamity. Even the rank six was hard to find as most of them moved alone instead of in a group.

'Are we going to enter the ruin today?' Vindir asked.

Tang Shaoyang found a ruin that had become a nest of rank six calamity. That was right, the ruin was infested with thousands of rank six calamities. There were also eight rank seven calamities and one rank eight calamity. It was the only rank six calamity and above that lived in a colony so far, the only one.

"Maybe we should go for it to maintain our first place."

Even though his focus was on Amos, he still wanted first place since he was at the top already. That ruin might widen the gap further between him and Ian.

Tang Shaoyang decided to go to the ruin with the rank six calamity. When he said a ruin, it was a ruined city. A massive ruined city, bigger than the Tang Capital. The city was surrounded by a massive wall, a hundred meters wall. The wall looked daunting even though it was in a ruin already.

The rank six calamity residing in the city was a giant spider. The spider's legs were covered in white fur with twelve legs. Their abdomen was pitch black like an obsidian, and the city was covered in the black web.

Through the Chaos Eyes, he could find dozens of these spiders near the wall. Even though they lived in the same city. They were separated by a certain distance. As if they had their territory in the city. However, he had tried to fight one, and he did not know how, but the nearby spiders would come for them as well the moment he started to fight one. They worked together even though they looked like a creature that lived in solitude.

"Today is going to be fun!" Afi was quite excited as this might be the first time they fought a lot of calamities at the same time. Beforehand, Tang Shaoyang still used his hunting method. Luring the calamity one by one, ambushing them. Killing them before the calamity could fight back. That was a boring way to fight, and today would be different.

Tang Shaoyang was about to make his way to the ruin when he felt a vibration on the ground. He turned to the right where the vibration came from. There was a fight there. His Chaos Eyes covered a thousand-meter area, but he could not see the fight. That meant the fight was further than a thousand meters.

"Let's check that area first. I don't want to be disturbed during our fight."

The vibration on the ground was getting stronger and stronger as he got closer to where the fight took place. Through Chaos Eyes, he spotted who fought. It was three against one, not a calamity, but fellow participants.

Three men with silver hairs ganged up on a woman who had long white hair. He did not recognize all of them, but they were the crop participants. He could see that by the impact of their fight. They were stronger even compared to Timo, Eson, and Castor.

The woman with white hair dodged all the assaults with her bat-like wings. The three men could transform into a white wolf anytime, chasing after the woman ferociously. The three men's laughter could be heard from time to time.

Tang Shaoyang recognized that the woman was a vampire. He felt something familiar from the woman from Zhang Mengyao who had Vampire Bloodline. Though Zhang Mengyao was just half-vampire. If she fully inherited the bloodline, her race would change to be a vampire.

As he watched the fight, he noticed the fight came closer to him. The woman brought the fight to his side. As if she knew there was someone here.

His gut was right, the woman sensed him. As the distance reduced to just a hundred meters, the woman yelled, "Hey, you! Help me fight them! I will let you have all the kills! They are the Holsman brothers!"

The Holsman brothers stopped their assault when they heard the woman's words, realizing there was someone close. That brief moment gave the woman a chance to get to Tang Shaoyang's side.

"If you help me, I will let you have the kill! They are the Holsman brothers. Killing them all should be enough to boost you to the top ten!" She arrived below the tree where Tang Shaoyang stood. Her eyes locked on the three brothers who were still chasing after her.

One of the Holsman brothers recognized Tang Shaoyang and cursed out, "Fuck! Why is he here? I thought his hunting ground was in the south?"

Tang Shaoyang has become a sensational topic in the city. Especially after killing two Admin Helpers by himself. It had become a hot topic among the participants even now. Their feat wiping out the champion's part was shadowed by Tang Shaoyang's feat. Willem van Holsman had seen Tang Shaoyang from a distance before, hence he immediately recognized Tang Shaoyang.

The woman with white hair turned toward Tang Shaoyang, looking at Tang Shaoyang's face. His eyes widened a little bit with a realization. She was trying to run from the wolves, but she came to the dragon.

Tang Shaoyang's name was no less notorious than the Holsman brothers. Not just about the feat of killing Admin Helper, but also the culprit who annihilated The Sorc Clan as well as The Vigamaur Dgaror. Even though Tang Shaoyang did not announce it like the Holsman brothers. Everyone could guess the disappearance of the Vigamaur Dgaror and The Sorc Clan related to Tang Shaoyang.

"Who is he?" The other two Holsman brothers asked curiously.

"He is Tang Shaoyang!" Even though the Holsman brothers announced that they wanted to kill the first, second, and third place. However, they prioritized killing the other two, and he put Tang Shaoyang as the last target. Willem was not stupid to prioritize the person who could kill two Admin Helpers on his own.

"Aren't we lucky then, Will?" One of the Holsman brothers had the opposite direction. Meeting Tang Shaoyang just made him excited. That meant they could get rid of the first and third place.

"Are you stupid, Zellen? We have been chasing that bitch for an hour, and we can't kill her. Now we have this guy, Admin Helper killer as well. Let's retreat!" Willem van Holsman was more sane than his youngest brother, Zellen van Holsman. He was not that crazy to face Novoa Valentine and Tang Shaoyang at the same time.

"Are you going to join me or not?" Novoa Valentine asked Tang Shaoyang once more. She had been dodging the fight as she did not want to fight the trio. But the chance of her winning would be higher with Tang Shaoyang despite the high risk. Tang Shaoyang might come after her after killing the trio.

"Are you scared, Will?" Zellen grinned ear to ear, making a face to mock his brother, "I will face that Tang guy, and you two go for that bitch!"

Without waiting for an answer, Zellen Holsman turned into a wolf and leaped toward Tang Shaoyang, leaving a white trail. But soon he faced a blade, a black blade right between his eyes. He moved too fast, and the blade came out of nowhere as well. He thought the blade would cut him through for sure until he felt a force behind him, pulling him from the blade.

Swoosh!

Quinten van Holsman narrowly saved his brother from being cut into two. If not for his quick movement and reaction. Zellen's body would be cut into two. He threw Zellen's body backward as he also retreated next to where his brother crashed. Willem also joined his two brothers.

Tang Shaoyang clicked his tongue. He almost got one of them on that first try.

Even though Zellen narrowly avoided his death. The man was still laughing as he stood up. There was a thin cut on his forehead and blood flowed, turning the white fur into red. A half second later, his skull was split into two, and yet the man still let out a manic laughter.

"JAJAJAJAJAJAJA! This will be fun!" Zellen turned toward his brother, "I owe you one, Quinten. You and Will just focus on that bitch. I will not let my guard down this time!"

Chapter 1526 Vandir's New Creation

Novoa Valentine looked at Tang Shaoyang's back. That happened so fast, that she could not see Tang Shaoyang's attack. If it was her, she would not escape unscathed from the sword. But of course, the same trick won't work for the second time. But that was an assurance that she could trust Tang Shaoyang to hold one or two Holsman brothers.

"I will hold the two brothers myself. Finish Zellen first then help me!" She thought Tang Shaoyang agreed to work together with her to fight the Holsman brothers.

Tang Shaoyang turned around and waved his hand at Novoa, "You can leave. I don't need your help."

Novoa Valentine was not the only one surprised by that remark. Even the Holsman brothers were surprised.

Willem van Holsman's eyes shone, holding his brother's hand. It was better to wait for Novoa to leave and kill Tang Shaoyang. He did not like an unknown variable such as Tang Shaoyang.

"Don't you dare underestimate me, TANG! You will die in my hands!" Zellen was outright angry, pouncing toward Tang Shaoyang. His figure flashed as he turned fully into a wolf.

Tang Shaoyang opened Divine Armory and took out a pair of shields. He received the claw with the shield. The series of clanking sounds resounded in the air as Zellen attacked Tang Shaoyang relentlessly. The gray fire burst out as the claw hit the shield. That was Zellen's elemental power, gray-colored fire.

Willem and Quinten kept an eye on Novoa Valentine. No one moved from their spots.

Novoa looked at the fight between Tang Shaoyang and Zellen. Even though both were in a stalemate right now, she had not seen Tang Shaoyang's transformation yet. That meant Tang Shaoyang was still holding his card, not fully going all out.

If she had to choose, she wanted to leave just like what Tang Shaoyang told her to. However, she could not do that. The guilt of leaving him would haunt her for the rest of her life. The Holsman brothers were going after her, and she purposely led them to him. She could not leave even if she wanted to.

Boom!

The gray fire exploded, sending Tang Shaoyang backward. He skidded over and stopped right next to Novoa Valentine.

"Why haven't you left yet?" He furrowed his brow.

He was waiting for Novoa to leave so he could summon the spirits. The reason was to keep his spirit secret. However, the woman did not move from her spot from the start of the clash. It had been a few minutes, and the woman stayed still there.

If he did not know the identity of the Holsman brothers. He might think this was a trap set up by four of them. They wanted his points. If he did not know the Holsman. But he knew them, and they had announced about killing him. This was not an act, but the woman won't listen.

"If you want to fight them, then I will leave. I don't want an intervention in my fight!"

Novoa Valentine was caught off guard when she heard the reason. He did not want her to interfere with the fight. And here, she was concerned about this man. She heard the rumor about him killing two Admin Helpers. However, that was just a rumor, and the Holsman brothers might be stronger than those two Admin Helpers.

But she could not say it out loud to Tang Shaoyang. Looking the man in the eyes, she found the man was serious. If she did not leave, he would go. Willem and Quinten would chase her for sure.

After a short consideration, she put her life first rather than her morals. She turned around and ran fast but she held back a little. Deep inside, she still hoped Willem or Quinten would chase after her. That would make her less guilty. However, no one from the Holsman brothers chased her.

Zellen was fuming, he was genuinely angry. It was the same as a humiliation to him. It was always he who looked down on the others.

"Don't try to be a hero, Tang! You are a prey! You are my prey!" Zellen screamed and turned toward his brothers, "Don't help me! Don't you dare or I will kill you two and fight Tang myself!"

Willem forgot about the youngest's temper. The youngest was crazy enough to do that. Zellen would work together to kill him and Quinten only to fight Tang Shaoyang alone. Yep, the youngest was that crazy.

Zellen once more pounced on Tang Shaoyang after throwing the threat to his brothers. He became faster, but mid-way to reach Tang Shaoyang, he sensed three presences right above him. They were above him, coming for him.

His eyes widened in shock, and that just fueled his anger even further. Not only did Tang Shaoyang look down on him, but he also played dirty. He realized why Tang Shaoyang asked Novoa Valentine to leave. That was just a scheme that made him think that Tang Shaoyang was alone. However, Tang Shaoyang was not alone. His friends were waiting in the ambush and made a move at the right time.

Once more he felt a huge force pulling his ankles. Once more, he was thrown backward. But this time, Willem and Quinten moved at the same time. They sensed the ambush quicker than Zellen. That was how both managed to save their brother once more.

Boom!

Zara, Avyn, and Afi landed on the ground. It was not an ambush, but it was their way of announcing their presence. The plan was to ambush Zellen, but the three just did not execute the plan.

"Why? Why don't you guys kill him?" Tang Shaoyang asked Zara.

Killing Zellen in that state was a piece of cake. However, Zara did not use her Void to create the portal gate. If she used it, Willem and Quinten did not have time to save their hot-tempered brother.

Zara did not reply, but she glanced at Avyn. She was telling Tang Shaoyang it was Avyn's idea.

"Let us fight. We don't know how long until we can fight strong opponents like these people. Once we return to Earth. We will not have the chance to fight people like them anymore," It was Doombringer who spoke.

Baccara, Doombringer, and Karoen revealed themselves. Tang Shaoyang had summoned them before he used Heavenly Revoke. But he told them to hide until the white-haired woman left. He told them to kill Zellen, and they could fight the two brothers. However, it seemed like all his spirits agreed not to kill Zellen with the ambush.

Vandir also landed right next to Tang Shaoyang, "Can I use "that", Master? I want to try "that" to fight an actual God Rank."

Tang Shaoyang shook his head, "There's no need to use "that" fighting those three. Seven of you is enough to get rid of them, no?"

"I want to test it against an actual God Rank instead of Calamity. We need to know the limit before facing Amos, no?" Vandir asked for permission.

"Whatever." Tang Shaoyang gave up and let Vandir do whatever he wanted.

The flame in his socket burned brightly, waving excitedly. It was a test against the actual God Rank rather than just a calamity.

Meanwhile, Quinten and Willem exchanged glances, realizing the situation might be worse for them. The moment Novoa Valentine left, these creatures appeared. They could not feel the aura of these creatures, but they all looked strong.

For the first time, Quinten's expressionless face changed. A frown formed on his forehead, observing the creature one by one. He recognized the behemoth, the black phoenix, the fallen angel, and as well The Lich. He did not know anything about Karoen and Afi. As for Avyn, she looked awfully the same as a human. Without being able to sense their aura, he could not measure how strong they were all.

Zellen regained his footing and stood next to his brothers. He became more calm after the ambush. However, his sharp eyes are still locked on Tang Shaoyang.

The calm Quinten slapped the back of Zellen's head, "Calm down, Zell. I am not going to save your ass for the third time!"

"Yes, brother," Zellen nodded.

"Huh!? There are two Tang Shaoyang," Willem's surprised voice echoed.

Zellen and Quinten focused on the massive creature, and now they saw another Tang Shaoyang. They stood side by side, and they looked alike but with different outfits. The real Tang Shaoyang was the one with the black coat. The second Tang Shaoyang was equipped with black-red armor, from the chest down to the boot.

However, they could not pinpoint what made the second Tang Shaoyang fake. The only thing that made a difference was that he could not feel an aura from the second Tang Shaoyang. It was the same just like the other seven.

"The second Tang Shaoyang might be the real one," Willem was confused. There was a chance the real Tang Shaoyang was the one who hid the aura.

That was right, Vandir used Tang Shaoyang's dead body and resurrected him as an undead. That was Vandir's newly developed weapon. After researching the body for months, he could not get anything from that. There was nothing he could do aside from classifying Tang Shaoyang's body as a unique case. Everything about Tang Shaoyang was new to him, so he ended up using the body as one of his summons. The result was satisfying so far, and it was now the final test against The God Rank.

The three brothers were confused with the second Tang Shaoyang. The second Tang Shaoyang made a move, using a transformation skill. That was right, the undead Tang Shaoyang could also use the Dragon Transformation.

The regrettable thing was that Vandir did not get the body with Chaos Energy. The undead Tang Shaoyang still had his Heavenly Energy and Slayer Energy separated. Not the current Tang Shaoyang who had harmonized the Heavenly Energy and Slayer Energy that became Chaos Energy. At the same time, Tang Shaoyang also used his Transformation. Using transformation would make his spirit stronger. That meant the undead Tang Shaoyang also got stronger. During the transformation, the undead Tang Shaoyang and the real Tang Shaoyang looked identical.

"You puny human! Become my test subject and witness Vadir's greatest creation!" The skeleton was so happy to get permission to use the Undead Tang Shaoyang.

Chapter 1527 Holsman Brothers - 1

The three Holsman brothers turned into a wolf as they were surrounded. Even though they were being outnumbered, the three brothers did not think of running away.

The first one to pounce was Afi. He leaped into the air with his body. His fur turned into lava as he slammed his paw down at Quinten.

Quinten did not run from the challenge. His fur turned into a gray flame. He pushed himself into the air and met the paw with his fist.

Boom!

The lava spurted out everywhere and the same with the gray flame, spreading out, burning the area. Quinten managed to hold the paw with his fist without getting pushed down. Deep inside, he was relieved that he could match with Afi. However, it was not a duel, one against one.

Karoen appeared right below Afi, and Quinten failed to anticipate someone would come for him right after. He saw Karoen, but there was nothing he could do because the tip of the sword was just an inch away from his belly. Karoen's sword pierced through his belly and went through to the other side.

Quinten reacted by sending a kick at Karoen, but his kick was blocked with a shield. As his body started to fall from the air, he noticed a shadow hovering above him. As he turned around, the black phoenix dove toward him.

Boom!

The black flame spread out as Baccara brought Quinten down with her. Everything happened in three seconds. Willem and Zellen could not do anything to help their brother.

"Quin!" Zellen and Willem were about to rush over to help.

"Don't come here! Watch your back!" Quinten's voice was heard from the explosion. It was then followed by a wave, clearing the black flame and dust in the air. The two figures were revealed, and Quinten held Baccara with his barrier. He managed to form a defensive barrier.

However, the attack did not stop there as Afi followed with another strike with his paw at the barrier. With a bang, his paw struck the barrier. The sturdy barrier cracked as the lava slipped through the crack. The strike went through as the lava melted the barrier, forcing Quinten to dodge. He leaped to the side, intending to regroup with his brothers.

However, he sensed someone was ready for him. He remembered the knight who stabbed him. The knight with weird heads.

Sure enough, the knight was ready for him. He was about to launch an attack until he noticed a portal formed in front of the knight. The portal was not big, just ten centimeters, big enough for a sword, but not for a human. Then he saw the knight's sword, aiming at the portal.

The distance between him and the knight was still fifteen meters. But why did the knight aim the sword at the portal? He soon got the answer as he felt a sharp pain in his back. He turned around and found a portal, similar size to the one near the knight. The knight used the portal to stab him.

The stab threw him off the balance, crashing to the ground. He was rolling on the ground for a few meters and immediately got back on his feet. The bird and the bear were right behind him.

As he stood up, sure enough, the bear was already in his range. He saw an incoming paw covered in lava. He met the paw with his fist. An image of a gray wolf appeared behind him as he launched his fist to meet with the paw. The image let out a furious howl at the same time.

Not willing to lose out, Afi also let out a deafening roar. The paw and the first met in the air. This time the gray flame was overwhelmed by the lava, and Quinten's body was thrown from the impact.

Quinten heard the screech coming after him. Even though he did not look, he knew the bird was coming for him. The cooperation between the knight, the bear, and the bird was good, almost flawless. If it was flawless teamwork, he might be dead already.

"Isolate them in your domain and fight them one by one!" That was Quinten's last words for his brother before activating his domain. He just wanted to take the bird, but the bear was too close. He ended up pulling Afi and Baccara to his domain.

Zellen and Willem watched the fight from a distance. Quinten was the oldest and also the strongest among the Holsman brothers. Seeing their older brother cornered like that, shocked them.

Just as they thought their brother would lose, they heard their brother's voice. Zellen was the first one to make a move. He was quick as he rushed toward Tang Shaoyang. The undead and the real Tang Shaoyang were side by side, and he pulled both into his domain.

Tang Shaoyang expected Zellen would come for him, but he did not expect for Zellen to pull the undead Tang Shaoyang as well. The two Tang Shaoyang exchanged glances as they arrived in another dimension.

"Welcome to the Gray Hell!" Zellen's voice echoed.

They were surrounded by gray flame, a dimension made by gray flame hence Gray Hell. Zellen was standing between the blazing flames. His body had turned into a gray flame as well. The feature of the wolf completely disappeared. He turned his physical body into an elemental body.

Tang Shaoyang completely ignored Zellen as he gave another look at his undead version, "Can you speak?"

The undead Tang Shaoyang shook his head.

"Do you want a weapon?" Tang Shaoyang took out the battle-axe, Abyssal Bone.

The undead Tang Shaoyang took the battle-axe from Tang Shaoyang's hand. As if he was familiar with the battle ax, he swung it a few times. The Undead Tang Shaoyang looked satisfied with his weapon.

"I will make you regret underestimating me in my domain!" Zellen was furious, but he kept his head cool. He learned his lesson after almost dying two times.

His elemental body dissipated and blended with the domain. He became untraceable in the eyes.

Chapter 1528 Holsman Brothers - 2

The undead Tang Shaoyang and the real Tang Shaoyang exchanged glances, smiling. They smiled because of Zellen. What Zellen did might be a problem for others, but not for Tang Shaoyang who could see energy.

Tang Shaoyang could see the unusual movement of a lump of energy. The domain had a steady energy flow, and there was a lump energy that moved differently. He could see Zellen with his Chaos Eyes.

The Undead Tang Shaoyang also could see the movement with his Spirit Eyes. The unusual energy moved in the domain. The undead formed two axes in his hand from Slayer Energy and threw at the lump energy. It was one of Tang Shaoyang's skills, Wild Axes.

Zellen was caught off guard as the two spinning axes came for him, right where he was. He deflected the spinning axes with the back of his hand. He slapped them away, but he was shocked as to how Tang Shaoyang found his location.

'Can they see me? Impossible!'

Not willing to believe that Tang Shaoyang could see him. He once more blended into his domain. This time it was not throwing axes. Tang Shaoyang with the battle-axe jumped toward him, aiming the battle-axe at him.

Zellen was surprised as to how Tang Shaoyang could find him in his domain. However, he did not escape or even form a barrier. He grinned and let the battle ax hit him. The physical attack did not work on him when he was in his elemental body.

As the blade of the battle ax reached his left shoulder, his eyes widened in shock. He felt a sharp pain when the battle-ax reached him. He immediately kicked the ground, but the battle-ax still cut the surface of his body.

Zellen came out from his camouflage and looked at his left shoulder. A deep cut on his shoulder, and a swallow cut from his left chest down to his belly. If he did not react in time, he would lose his entire left arm or even a quarter of his body.

He looked up at Tang Shaoyang in shock, "HOW!?" The attack is supposed to go through his elemental body. The battle-ax should not be able to harm him during that state. He did not understand how Tang Shaoyang hurt him.

Swoosh!

Zellen saw a blade flash before him. Before he could react, he saw his left arm fall as the blood spurted out followed by a sharp pain. Again, his elemental body was cut. He leaped backward while screaming in pain.

The two Tang Shaoyang stood side by side, smiling as if the smile was mocking Zellen. Zellen lost his reason as he used a full transformation. He turned into a ten-meter gray wolf. The fur was made of flame, the black fang, his eyes glowed in crimson, and with three lines of scratch on its forehead. The scratch was also glowing in crimson.

The wound instantly healed as the missing arm regenerated. He stood on four right, furiously howling at Tang Shaoyang.

The real Tang Shaoyang pushed the undead Tang Shaoyang, grinning ear to ear, "I will fight him myself. Let's go all out!"

Without a second thought, he also activated True Dragon Transformation. Zellen who growled furiously early blanked, slowly looking up at the massive creature in front of him. He knew Tang Shaoyang had a Dragon Bloodline. However, he did not know Tang Shaoyang had the True Transformation.

One must need to inherit the bloodline directly, through a ritual in order to obtain True Transformation skill. He and his two brothers obtained the bloodline through ritual. But he did not expect that Tang Shaoyang could also use True Transformation. That meant one thing, Tang Shaoyang inherited his bloodline directly from an actual dragon. It was unheard of that a dragon was willing to die just to inherit the bloodline of a human. On top of that, it was not just a normal dragon, but a five-headed dragon, the known accursed dragon.

All five heads were looking at him and roared. The roar created a massive shock wave and blew the gray flame away. Lost before even fighting, that was what Zellen experienced right now. This was not his first experience when he felt this way, the overwhelming aura as well as murderous intent enveloped him.

This was not the first time, but the third time. This happened when he sparred against his grandfather and also The Holsman Family's guardian. It was the same feeling, the same situation. He saw one of the heads open and a black flame burst out toward him.

Zellen was swept by the black flame and his scream filled the dimension. The gray flame in his body was replaced by the black flame. The black flame was slowly eating his flame. He was lying down to the side, powerless. A massive shadow came to him from above and landed right on top of him.

Boom!

Tang Shaoyang pinned the pitiful wolf with his feet. The five heads were observing the wolf, disappointed. He thought Zellen would give him a challenge with the True Transformation.

Zellen noticed the disappointment on all five heads. The five heads shared the same disappointment. If it was before, he would be furious. However, he had accepted his loss, his death. The moment Tang Shaoyang used True Dragon Transformation, he realized that he had a zero chance of winning. He did not even think about escaping. He closed his eyes at the last moment.

The domain was canceled right after the user died. Tang Shaoyang and undead Tang Shaoyang returned with the dead Zellen on the ground.

Tang Shaoyang checked the situation. He saw Doombringer, Karoen, and Vandir. That meant Willem took Zara and Avyn into his domain. He could not help but chuckle as Willem just chose the worst opponent.

"Why don't you let your twin fight!?" The first thing he heard was a complaint from Vandir. It was supposed to be a test drive for the undead Tang Shaoyang. It was Undead Tang Shaoyang's debut against the God Rank. However, Tang Shaoyang took over the fight and finished Zellen pretty much quickly. Inside the domain, the Undead Tang Shaoyang only did two attacks, and that was not enough data for Vampir.

"Oopsie. I am getting too excited."

Chapter 1529 Spirit Advancement 1

Novoa Valentine made it far away and no one pursued her. The Holsman brothers just left her alone at the cost of a stranger she just met. As she got further, the guilt kept haunting her. Until at one moment, she stopped running and turned around.

Even though she knew what she did was stupid, she made up her mind to fight the Holsman brothers with the stranger. Not just because of the guilt, but because she did not like to be indebted to someone. She had run for almost ten minutes, making it far away, halfway to the city. But she ran faster to go back at the Holsman brothers.

She hoped Tang Shaoyang was still alive, deep inside, she was being hopeful. At the same time, she made a plan in her head. If Tang Shaoyang was still alive, but not in the state to fight anymore, she made an escape plan. With several scenarios and escape plans in her head, she returned to the area.

Novoa Valentine's heart dropped as she did not hear the fighting sound. A God Rank fighting would cause a big scene, but she did not hear anything or even feel the ripple of energy clashed between the God Rank. She picked up her pace and arrived at the area right where she met the stranger.

Her mouth opened and her eyes widened in surprise, at seeing the man standing alone. That was right, she did not see the Holsman brothers around. However, she saw a few traces of a fight. A fight broke out right after she left, but there was not that much for a fight between the God Rank.

She was curious, there was no way she was not curious about how Tang Shaoyang defeated the Holsman brothers this fast. But the question stuck in her throat after noticing the stranger's face, irritated at her presence. Sure enough, she was right after hearing the words come out from the man.

"Why are you here!? Didn't I tell you to leave!?"

Novoa was convinced from his tone that the man did not like her. That irritated her a little bit, but she did not have the right to get mad at this man. He saved her from the Holsman brothers. She could not get mad at her savior.

"I wanted to help you, but it looks like you don't need me." She smiled wryly.

"Now you know! Can you leave now or do you want to fight me for the point?" Tang Shaoyang squinted his eyes suspiciously at Novoa.

That was a possibility that this woman returned to claim the point. The first rank and the Holsman brothers' points. That would ensure her to stay in the first rank until the end of the stage.

"No! I don't want your useless points. I came to help, why are you so suspicious of me?" Novoa Valentine tried to explain, but then she gave up, "Alright, I will leave."

She was so curious how this man defeated the Holsman brothers. But she knew the man would not give the answer she wanted even if she asked. What made her curious was how fast the man defeated the three brothers. She had the confidence to beat the Holsman brothers but with a price. She might die with them altogether, but it would take time, not just a few minutes.

Novoa was about to leave until she sensed something. She looked in that direction. Two women were holding a body, a dead body. She did not recognize the two women, but she recognized the dead body. It was Willem van Holsman's lifeless body.

She immediately observed the two women. One to the left looked like a normal human but with an exceptionally beautiful look. The woman on the right was an angel with three pairs of wings, a fallen angel. She recognized the race, but this was her first time meeting one.

She immediately turned toward Tang Shaoyang with the look of asking for an explanation. But she knew the man would not say a single thing. Then she heard a sigh from Tang Shaoyang.

"Hahh.... I told you to leave, and now you see them. I have to kill you as well!"

Her eyes widened in shock upon hearing that. She finally knew the reason why he asked her to leave. He told her to leave not out of good will, but to keep his secret from her. Now she found his secret, and she would be silenced.

Novoa was about to say that she would not tell anyone, but then she sensed a sharp glare from the two women. Not just the two women, she also sensed a few were eyeing from behind. She could feel she was being watched.

"I will not tell anyone about them! I will make an oath with my life that I will tell no souls about what I see here!" Right after saying that, she made an oath. Even without a priest, she could make the oath, and it was recognized by the System.

"Leave now!"

Novoa Valentine did not waste her time as she turned around and ran. The man was the first to give her a genuine fear in this trial. That is because she could not sense the aura from the two women as well as the people behind him. There was not a slightest aura from them. That reminded him of a tale her grandfather told her.

"If you ever met someone with a Spirit Contractor class in the same rank. Don't ever think about fighting them. Spirit Contractor is two or three or even maybe ten times stronger than their current rank."

Then she asked her grandfather how to tell how to identify a Spirit Contractor.

"It's hard to identify them, but there's a way. If you can't feel the aura from the people around him, that person might be a Spirit Contractor. Not reliable, but you can "

She consumed energy to replenish her and evolve further as a vampire. No matter how smart or good someone is at suppressing their aura. She could still feel their aura even if someone tried to hide it. And she felt nothing from the two women as well as the people behind him.

She might be wrong, but she would not take the chance. Because she remembered what her grandfather told her. If she ever met one or a Spirit Contractor came to kill her for unknown reasons. Never tried to fight them, but tried her best to run from the Spirit Contractor. That was her grandfather's advice.

Even though it was just a suspicion, she did not hesitate to make an oath and escape the moment Tang Shaoyang told her to.

If the Spirit Contractor was several times stronger than those in the same rank, then how to defeat a God Rank Spirit Contractor?

Novoa could not get rid of the thoughts as she made her escape. She could not imagine how strong Tang Shaoyang was. Did that mean Tang Shaoyang was the strongest person in this trial? When she questioned that, she included the Administrator. That was because she felt the dragon aura, in fact, the dragon aura was dominant which made her think that Tang Shaoyang inherited his bloodline directly from a living dragon.

The combination of dragon bloodline and Spirit Contractor. He could not imagine how strong Tang Shaoyang was.

"He killed two Admin Helpers, and he might be really stronger than the Administrator...." She muttered in a low voice.

*** **

"Are you sure about letting her go?" Avyn watched in the direction where Novoa left, "If you got her, Ian can never catch up to you."

"Fighting her might be fun and exciting. Killing her might be an easy task. But I don't want to face the consequences after killing her. My hands are full with this Amos and The Nirvana Alliance. I don't think I should add another one." Tang Shaoyang shook his head.

Novoa Valentine was the third rank, and someone as strong as her should come from a big background. If he killed her, then the people behind her might come after him. He did not want that. That was the reason, not because he trusted the oath.

Avyn just shrugged and threw the body in front of Tang Shaoyang, "Haven't Baccara and Afi come out yet?"

Right after Avyn asked that Baccara and Afi return. The Black Phoenix immediately flew to the sky, letting out a satisfied screech. Afi was laughing satisfyingly and kicked the dead body toward Tang Shaoyang. It seemed like Quinten gave the two a good time.

However, there were two who were dissatisfied with the seven spirits. The first one was Doombringer. The Holsman brothers completely ignored him. Willem chose Avyn and Zara. Zellen chose two Tang Shaoyang. Quinten brought Afi and Baccara. The Behemoth did not get a chance to fight.

The second one was of course Vandir. That was because Tang Shaoyang ruined undead Tang Shaoyang's debut against the God Rank.

"There's no need to be sulking you two. We have a whole city worth of Calamity. There are several Rank 7 Calamities as well as one Rank 8 Calamity. You guys can fight it!"

Chapter 1530 Spirit Advancement 2

Tang Shaoyang watched his spirits go on a rampage in the ruin. The Rank 6 Calamity was not that big a problem for them. Even the Grade SSS Spirit who he rarely summoned during the trial also joined the fight. They worked together to fight one Rank 6 Calamity.

The difference between the Archaic Spirit and Grade SSS Spirit was just too big. It was obvious when they were summoned altogether to fight the same thing. Afi destroyed the spider in less than a minute. Meanwhile, it took ten to fifteen minutes for eight Grade SSS Spirits to kill one spider.

Not just his spirits, but his Skelly Clan also joined the fight this time. He summoned them, but just the main member, not the whole army. The eleven Skelly Family's main members fought together and to his surprise, his skeleton was doing better than his Grade SSS Spirits.

It did not mean the Grade SSS Spirit was weaker. The teamwork for the Skelly Family was flawless. And of course, Kaiser with his dragon bloodline was the main character in the team. He became the core, and the others' skellies adjusted Kaiser's movement.

"What if I use Calamity to upgrade them? Will it affect their evolution?" The thought of using calamity for his skeleton crossed.

He never thought about it since he was trading the materials for the equipment. But he had gotten the things he wanted and extras. He now kept the corpses in his inventory.

Not just that, he prepared the calamity to advance his current spirit. He did not plan to summon more spirits with what he had. He thought of using the materials to make them stronger instead. Since he had a skeleton army, he did not need another army.

As he was deep in his thoughts, a shriek disturbed them. The voice came from the center of the city. Through Chaos Eyes, he saw a fifty-meter spider come out from the hole. It was followed by another eleven of thirty-meter spiders.

The fifty meters was the Rank 8 Calamity, and the other eleven were the Rank 7 Calamity. The ten-meter Rank 6 Calamity looked small compared to them. He had not said anything, but all Archaic Spirits ignored the Rank 6 Calamity in front of them and rushed to the center.

The six Archaic Spirits were fighting over who would fight the Rank 8 Calamity. At the same time, their voices rang in Tang Shaoyang's head.

"You are not allowed to participate!!"

Even Zara, who was not crazy about fighting, also joined. It started from Doombringer, then to Afi, then Avyn and Vandir. Now Baccara and Zara are also infected by them.

Of course, he would not listen to what they said. He also wanted to know how strong the Rank 8 Calamity was. That was for sure not because he was the same as them. He wanted the data for future hunting.

Tang Shaoyang was about to follow them until he noticed a group of four outside the ruin. A party was approaching the gate. He furrowed his brows as he found two familiar faces among them, Clement Salle and Agnes. The same elf in Timo's party.

He let out a sigh of regret and went to the city wall. The party was still in the distance, approaching the ruin cautiously. As they got closer to the wall, he revealed himself.

"This is my hunting place. Please leave!"

The moment he said that he remembered something. It was his issue with The Sorc Clan. He was in the same situation, but he was in a different position. But of course, he had a different reason to keep them away. Not because he wanted to take everything for himself, but because he did not want them to see his spirits and skeletons

'And I use "please", I am more polite than those bears.'

Clement Salle stopped his members and looked up with a frown. He felt the voice was familiar but he did not remember the face. It was until he heard Agnes.

"Tang Shaoyang! He is Tang Shaoyang! We should leave!"

Clement Salle finally remembered the man he met on the first day. Although, the man was totally different than the first time. He saw the aura he failed to notice that day.

"I think he is reasonable to talk with," He waved at Agnes and looked up at Tang Shaoyang, "Don't you think it's unreasonable to claim a hunting ground for yourselves? Don't worry! We are here not to steal your prey. We come to hunt as well."

After he said that, Clement felt something was wrong with his words. Tang Shaoyang was known as a solo participant, and it was obvious with the point. But there was something weird here. The man was in front of them, but he still heard the fighting noise from inside the ruin.

Tang Shaoyang shook his head, "It's unreasonable, but I still can't let any of you enter the ruin."

"What if we force our way!" The baldy from Clement Salle's party spoke defiantly. He did not like how overbearing Tang Shaoyang was. It did not matter if the man in front of me was in the first place. There were four of them, and Tang Shaoyang was alone. In fact, this was their chance to take the point.

"You can try because I will also try to stop you."

Clement Salle stopped his friend and whispered, "There are still people inside. He is not alone."

That reminder just made the other realize that there were people fighting inside the ruin. That meant Tang Shaoyang was not alone. But it did not make sense considering Tang Shaoyang was a solo participant.

"Is he hiring people to hunt for him? Is that how he maintains the first place?" The baldy could not help but think so.

Clement Salle let out a sigh of regret. He knew this ruin and the thing inside, but he did not dare to enter until he heard the sound of fighting inside the ruin. He thought of taking the chance to sneak in and take advantage of the party that came first. The spider would be pulled into the first party, and he thought of stealing a few or maybe a dozen spiders.

"We will leave!"

As the leader, he made up his mind and made the decision for his party. He did not think that four of them could beat Tang Shaoyang or maybe the people behind who killed the two Admin Helpers. Regardless, they were not in a position to challenge Tang Shaoyang.

Agnes readily agreed to leave the ruin as soon as she saw Tang Shaoyang. Although the other two were reluctant to leave, but they followed Clement Salle's decision. As they got further from the ruin, the ground shook crazily. It was followed by an explosion that came from the ruin.

They were not that far from the ruin. They could still see the city wall, and they saw a massive tower of ice formed. The ice was so tall that they could see it from afar, and they saw the thing inside the ice. With the sun, they could see through what was inside the ice. A fifty-meter spider, the Rank 8 Calamity inside the ruin, and the reason why they had been avoiding the ruin even though there were many Rank 6 Calamity.

Looking at the giant spider, he was relieved that he had made a great decision. He avoided a fight against a group who tried to kill the Rank 8 Calamity, "Let's not get on his bad side from now on."

Tang Shaoyang was caught off guard as the ice rose to the sky. He immediately made his run because he wanted to fight it even for a moment. As he arrived, he heard the notification in his head. The Rank 8 Calamity was dead, killed by his Archaic Spirit.

Avyn was still in her transformation, making a satisfied smile as she looked at the thing inside the ice. The other eleven Rank 7 Calamity also had been taken care of. Tang Shaoyang was left with just the remains.

Seeing the result of how his spirit could take care of such a high Rank 8 Calamity, he was convinced to use the materials to advance his Grade SSS Spirit. Even though there were still more than a hundred Rank 6 Calamity, he was not in the mood to fight them.

Tang Shaoyang checked his spirits, one of the hardest parts, choosing which spirit to upgrade.
