Contracted Spirit (3/6): [Karan - The Great Warrior] [Zaneos - The Demon Swordsman] [Zowen - The Lightning Magus]

—So the second class has its own level separated from the main level. That's quite interesting and explains why your attributes do not increase that much after getting the class.

Zaneos was checking the status screen together with Tang Shaoyang, 'It's indeed interesting, but how do I level up my second class? Does killing the beast and monsters will help or do I need something specific like Skill Point but it's Class Point instead to level up my second class?'

—The answer is easy, go outside and kill some monster. From level 1 to level 2 should be easy, if killing the monsters could not level up your second class, then we need to think about it, but that should not be different from your main class.

Zowen joined the conversation.

—What's more concerning is the Gods, they easily let out leave like that. That's too suspicious of them.

Zaneos voiced his concern. Tang Shaoyang was just coming out of the Radiant Temple with his subordinates. As soon as his subordinates got the blessing, they immediately left the temple.

Delia and Elin also got their Minor Blessing under Tang Shaoyang's persuasion. Both girls seemed happy even though it was just a Minor Blessing.

—You fed them the basic information and covered the essential part of it, but they just let you leave like that. They should be able to trap you in that space, but they did not

Yes, after the Gods were doing some tricks with the Supreme Blessing, he also kept the essential thing about The Game from the Gods. Even after all of that, The Gods let him leave.

—That's indeed suspicious, The God's ego is boundless, they will not like getting tricked by a mortal being for sure.

Zowen agreed to Zaneos as well.

—They should have a few tricks even if they can't directly make their move, you should be careful.

'Now you remind me, they said the number of the Gods is 8. On my way out, I saw all 8 statues, that should be them then what about the Church? Does the church not have the God they worship?' Tang Shaoyang then glanced at Arina who stuck close to him.

Fan Rui, Gu Yingjie, and even Cao Yuntai were having their conversation about their new class. Even Liang Suyin, Elin, and Delia also talked about their class.

He matched his steps with his slave and asked, "Do you know anything about the Church? You told me the Church also bestows their only followers a class too, do you know which God they worship?"

"If you are trying to get a blessing or a class from the Church, you better give up," Arina scanned the surroundings, making sure no one heard her conversation with Tang Shaoyang, "The Church's followers are a bunch of brainwashed lunatic, you better not across a path with them. As for God, they worship Goddess Luneia and Goddess Rubia, The Goddess of Love, and The Goddess Harmony."

"I see," he nodded his head, "Do they have a way to communicate with their Gods?" Arina did not know what her Master was up to, but she still replied to him honestly, "Yes, their Saintess could communicate with the Gods."

"I see, I see," Tang Shaoyang nodded his head as he had pictured what would happen to him, "What about their force? How strong are they compared to Adventurer Guild?"

"No one dares to mess with the Church. Their knights are extremely powerful, comparable to the Imperial Knight of the kingdom. Once your name is on their list, you will be hunted down until you perish," The fear was apparent in her tone when she mentioned this.

"If you want to compare their knight to the adventurer, the knight is about the same level as Emerald Rank or even Sky-Emerald Rank. There was a rumor saying that the high-rank Templar Knight is about the same level as Heaven-Diamond Rank."

—That's to be expected, they have the authority over class and skill, nurturing a powerful should be easy for them. You should better run away now, we don't know how strong they are, we should hide for the time being.

Zaneos spoke in his head.

"This is bad, I offended their Gods, we should hurry up back to the inn," when Arina heard him, her eyes widened in shock, "What do you mean by offending their Gods?"

The way he spoke was casual and she could see the grin on his face, it was as if this was just another casual matter. Arina was hoping what she heard was wrong, she hoped he was joking. She did not even question the man how he offended the gods.

"No time to explain, we have to go back to the inn quickly," Tang Shaoyang urged the others to pick their pace. They were confused why their Boss hurried them, but they followed his words nonetheless.

"We should leave the city, why would we go back to the inn?" Arina could not help but raise her voice. However, what she received was a glare from the man, "You can leave, and you don't follow me actually," Arina shut her mouth. She could tell the man was serious with his words.

She was not going to leave them because she was bonded with him. Even if he broke the bond between them, the brainwashed lunatic would still catch her. It was better to stick with the man since he had the plan.

The group returned to the inn in ten minutes. As soon as they entered the inn, Chief Rick immediately greeted Tang with a big smile, "Well, well, well, look who has returned, the sensational-" Tang Shaoyang immediately cut his words in the middle, "Cut the crap, you are in big trouble because of me."

Chief Rick studied the man's expression, it was still calm as water on the pond. He did not look like someone who was in trouble, at all. However, he could tell that he was serious with his words, "What do you mean?"

"Does your inn have a secret path? Like underground passage or something. We have to evacuate the villagers out of the city first, we don't have time to chit-chat," even though he asked for a secret passage, he did not have hope for the inn to have one like that.

"I do actually, I have prepared for the emergency such as when the beasts broke into the city," the old man took Tang Shaoyang's words seriously.

They immediately evacuated the villagers through the secret passage. The evacuation was quite fast, the inn was empty in three hours, leaving two people behind.
