

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 265

This was her third time, but she tensed up each time he started. Tang Shaoyang could feel her body stiffened up a little bit, "Just relax," his voice was deep and charismatic. She calmed down as something was touching her wet region.

"You seem ready for the pleasure of the night," Selena nodded her head furiously as she relaxed her body. The hand on her butts raised her and positioned the thing into her region.

"Ahnnn~" she could not hold the moan when little Shaoyang entered her. At first, it was him who moved her ass up and down, but she moved on her own later on.

"Ahnnn~ Ahnnn~" her mind blanked except, for one thing, moving her body. Her brain had only one order now, it was to move her body, up and down repeatedly.

She never felt tired as she kept increasing the pace. The noise of her bouncy butts hitting his lap resounded along with her moan. Her bouncy breasts were also under the man's care, he played her pinky nipples with his mouth and hand.

They did not change position for like twelve minutes until she reached the climax.

"Ahnnn~" she released a long moan, and her body went weak onto Tang. She breathed heavily on his ears. Selena knew this was far from over. From her two experiences, she would have a long night.

She could also feel her region was still tightly clamping little Shaoyang. The battle was just started, she knew that well.

Nine hours later, Selena was snuggling in the man's chest. Their stark naked bodies covered in a blanket, and she heard light breathing from the side. She looked up, the man was sleeping soundly, completely unguarded.

'Maybe that's because I am a Cleric, so he does not put his guard on me,' she thought to herself while gazing at the man's face. His sleeping face was completely different than his usual one.

The sharp and prudent gazes were nowhere to be seen. He appeared just like any other man which was a rare side to see from him. Her hand moved to his cheek, she gently stroked his cheek.

Suddenly she recalled his words last night, her revenge. What he said was right, the judge was involved in the case, but for some reason, she was thankful to the judge. If the judge punished Aren accordingly, she would never get a meeting with Tang.

'Am I becoming a slut? Or am I truly falling for him?' She could not help but question herself. She never had this feeling before they had sex, her mind was filled with a vengeance back then. Now, she felt that she could give up her vengeance for him.

'Did he use a charm or something? But what kind of spell that activated after having sex?'

Usually, people used charm spells to have sex with a woman or a man they wanted, so the charm was mostly used before they did the deeds, 'Nah, don't care,'

She moved his hand from her body and snuck out of the blanket. It was time for her to go back to the city. She searched for her clothes and dressed up, "Where are you going?" She heard Tang's faint voice.

"I am going back to the city," Selena replied while dressing up, "Why? You don't have to gather information for me anymore, you can stay with me."

She smiled when he asked her to stay. She was happy for that, at least, she was still treated humanely even though she was his slave, "But my vengeance is not over yet. I will be investigating the judge and anyone related to the case, you are going to help me, right?"

"Mnn, just give me the name list, I will get everything done," he promised while in his half-sleeping state.

"Thank you. I will also investigate the Diamond Rank Parties. I heard they are interesting to take the quest too,"

"Don't bother with them, let them come to me. Just don't get involved with them," in his sleep, he waved his hand at her.

"I will be careful," Selena's smile was getting wider, "I leave the four skill scrolls on the bed, then I will leave," The girl left the treehouse on her own.

—That [Profound Pleasure] skill is ridiculous. Just like that, he gets an obedient pawn, and he was having fun too.

Zowen could see the intoxication in Selena's eyes. She could tell that the girl had fallen for the man, for her Master. From a forceful relation changed into a submissive girl that was willing to listen to anything he asked.

—Indeed, from my rich experiences with human girls, I never made my slave be that submissive even after having sex. They would still see me as a disgusting creature. Maybe, after having your body back, you should try Tang's [Profound Pleasure] too, Lightning Bitch. I want to see this prideful bitch be a submissive bitch, hahaha...

Karan was laughing in his head, causing Tang to frown, "Come on, guys. This is still early, you should have helped mediate these two too, Teacher."

Zowen ignored Tang Shaoyang's plea, of course.

—What did you say, you Horny Orc? I dare you to say it again! I will roast you with my lightning.

—Please roast me, bitch. If you can, of course

The sarcasm in Karan's words was so clear that it pissed Zowen more. The argument continued and Tang Shaoyang had to cut off their connection to save himself from the spirits.

Thanks to those two, he could not continue his sleep. He sat up and dressed up. His eyes immediately fell to the four scrolls on the bed. He picked one of them.

[Skill Scroll]

Advanced Skill: Mana Shroud

"Hah... I hate the lack of explanation of what the skill does," Tang Shaoyang muttered frustratedly. Of course, he could guess what the skill did based on the name, and this skill should be the defensive skill.

-----

[Skill Scroll]

Advanced Skill: Dispersal (Passive)

-----

From the word passive, he could tell this was another defensive skill. But he could not really tell since the skill's name was so intricate for him to understand.

-----

[Skill Scroll]

Advanced Skill: Flame Shield

This time he was sure this was a defensive skill, the word shield basically told him what the skill did. Then he recalled that Selena told him she ended up buying three defensive skills. She told him the three skills were quite rare, that was why she purchased three defensive skills instead of two.

"Then the last scroll will answer my confusion of the second skill," he muttered while picking up the last scroll.

[Skill Scroll]

Advanced Skill: Invisible Slash

-----

"Then the second scroll is a defensive skill, is it?" He was guessing, he could ask his spirits actually, but recalling the argument between Karan and Zowen, he immediately shook his head.

It would take at least ten minutes to half an hour before they stopped arguing, "Let's try this [Invisible Slash], quite fancy from the name."

[Do you want to learn [Invisible Slash]?]

[You have learned [Invisible Slash]!]

"Let's try the skill outside, but I wonder will my scythe work with a slash? And I have to repair my battle-ax too, should I ask Selena to do that?" He muttered in a low voice as he made his way outside the house.

When he got outside, an old man was waiting for him. Carlos Artura the Guild Master was standing ten meters away from the treehouse, "Let's talk, Tang."
