

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 270

Tang Shaoyang pulled Arina to the back. She thought it was just an excuse until the nine beastmen in the afternoon came into her sight. Yeah, nine of them came from the north to the village with ill intent for sure.

"Fortunately, that I come out to watch out, or it will be a big disaster," he took the scythe out of the inventory immediately, "I saved you guys for later, but you hand your lives over now."

"That lion head told us that we are lucky that the man retreated, let's slap his face in front of the other tribes by bringing that man's head to the Grand Assembly!" Coyoman spoke while having his gaze on Tang Shaoyang.

"Grand Assembly? It seems the beast is up to something," Tang Shaoyang muttered while hearing their conversation. Both were just listening but ignoring each other, "Ah, it must be the Beast Stampede."

"Can you go back to the village? I will take care of the beastmen but you have to warn the people in the village, just in case some of them slip out," he was concerned about the villagers, did not want the same incident repeated.

"I can stay! The cleric is not just about healing, but I have buff skills too!" Arina refused to leave. She wanted to fight along with Tang Shaoyang.

"It's not that I want to fight along with you, but the villagers' safety is our priority," as he finished his words, the three Coyoman moved. They circled Tang Shaoyang and Arina, cutting their path to return to the village.

Their movement unusually fast, they easily reached the other side, "Do you think you can run away from us?" Coyoman raised his claw, the shiny claws came out of the paw threateningly.

"Then we can try to fight these doggy heads first, but buff yourself," he pulled the girl closer to him and whispered, "Follow me closely, okay?" Arina nodded her head.

"Good, move on my words," he took a deep breath, then "Move!"

Tang Shaoyang activated [Flash Step], his figure flashed forward toward the three Coyoman. He raised the scythe and cast [Invisible Slash].

Swoosh!

The scythe made a big swoosh, sweeping through toward the three Coyoman's heads. Two out of three Coyoman managed to leap back to avoid the scythe. One failed to react in time and got his head separated from his body

However, the two who managed to dodge suffered the same fate too. As soon as they landed on the ground, their heads also fell off. Not only their heads, but the bamboo on their back also got slashed off. The slash range was five meters, cutting every bamboo in the range.

'That should be [Invisible Flash, ] about,' Tang Shaoyang thought to himself

Arina's mind focused on following Tang Shaoyang, she cast [Speed Up] on herself dashed at where Tang Shaoyang went. As soon as she caught up, she found out the three Coyoman were dead already.

Not only Arina but the six remaining beastmen were shocked that their friend died just like that. It was not even a fight, but a slaughter. Their friends were slaughtered before they could even fight back.

"Get more distance, I will finish them off quickly!" Tang Shaoyang whispered to Arina as he cast [Spirit Integration] with Zowen. [Flash Step] was an amazing movement, but there was a limitation to the skill. He could not use that continuously, especially if he was not in [Spirit Integration].

Hence he integrated with Zowen to take advantage of the [Lightning Flash], wanting to end the fight his surprise element.

Arina nodded her head and retreated while Tang Shaoyang flashed ahead, leaving a trail of lightning. The six remaining beastmen were still shocked by what happened to their friends so they failed to react in time when Tang Shaoyang appeared in front of them.

The six beastmen were about to distance themselves from Tang Shaoyang until the lightning cage rose, confining them together with Tang Shaoyang.

Realizing their path retreat was blocked, the six beastmen looked at each other. It took a short amount of time for them to gain their composure. The six beastmen spread out, surrounding Tang Shaoyang from all sides.

The three Lizardmen put their hands on the ground.

Poof! Poof! Poof!

Iron spikes kept coming out from the ground, heading toward Tang Shaoyang. It was a predictable attack, he easily dodged the spikes. But the deer beastmen did their part, their iron antlers were glowing before three of them charged at him by putting their antlers forward.

"The way they fight is so predictable," Tang Shaoyang muttered, "They are for sure stronger than a normal Guardian Knight, but they are so predictable."

Even though the Guardian Knight's level did not pass Level 130, they put up a fight with their fighting style, "Beast is just a beast I guest."

He extended his hand and cast [Lightning Chain]. The lightning struck the frontmost deer beastmen, the lightning transmitted to the back, striking the remaining two deer beastmen.

The three deer beastmen were stiffened and their charge was slowed down. He cast [Thunder Wrath] three times continuously, hitting the three deer beastmen at the same time. The thunder stopped the three beastmen's charge, their bodies kept swaying after the thunder struck them.

The next part was quite easy for him, he just rushed toward them and cut their heads with his scythe.

His second class leveled up again after killing the three deer beastmen. He immediately turned toward the remaining three Lizardmen.

The beastmen were smarter than the normal beast. They knew that the man in front of them was too strong for them. Escape was not an option as well since the lightning cage confined them. If they were normal beasts, they would just attack Tang Shaoyang anyway.

The three Lizardmen knelt and brought their head to the ground, "We are very sorry for our rudeness and mistake! Please spare our lives!" The three Lizardmen's thoughts seemed to be connected as they spoke the exact same words together.

"Unfortunately, I don't give mercy to my enemies," Tang Shaoyang rushed toward the kneeling Lizardmen with his scythe. Just as he was about to kill the three Lizardmen, the Lightning Cage disintegrated as a curved blade made of wind struck toward him from the top.

Swoosh!

He stopped his advance as the wind blade struck the ground, right a few centimeters away ahead of him. If not for the [Spirit Eyes], the wind blade might hit him.

Tang Shaoyang looked up, a green streak descended from the dark sky. The green flash then landed in front of the three kneeling Lizardmen. The eagle head beastmen protected the three Lizardmen.

"It should be enough, they don't have any will to fight you anymore!" The eagle spoke, the words directed toward Tang Shaoyang. Of course, the latter ignored the beastmen as he immediately cast [Basic Detection].
