[You have completed your Talent Advancement!]

Tang Shaoyang chose to get 1 Talent Point for his reward. Zaneos was not the reason he chose for the Talent Point. There was another reason for his decision, that was because he felt that his talent was incomplete.

He wanted to complete his talent, the real Divine Body. By getting one Talent Point, he just needed two more Talent Points to get [Divine Body (Agility)] and [Divine Body (Stamina)]. By then, his talent would reach its full potential. He wanted to know the full potential of his talent.

Contracted Spirit (6/15): [Karan - The Great Warrior] [Zaneos - The Demon Swordsman] [Zowen - The Lightning Magus], [Rumru - The Black Dragon (Sealed)], [Malki - The Fire Ant Empero, [Feera - The Chimera]

One survival game boosted his attribute from hundreds to ten thousands. It was a stunning growth for Tang Shaoyang. If not for Rumru's spirit was sealed back in the original world of his, Tang Shaoyang was pretty much invincible now.

—But you are now in a bottleneck.

Zaneos commented after seeing Tang Shaoyang's current attributes.

—Why? With his current strength, he should be able to level up faster than anyone.

Zowen questioned back in confusion. The stronger Tang Shaoyang was, the easier it was for him to level up.

—Because the zombies on Earth are too low in level. The zombies could not help him to level up, do you understand? His level is too high for Earth that just started the Game, at least by this world's standard. He needs to cross to another world to find a worthy monster to level up, a high level and high-evolution monster.

Zaneos explained slowly, and the Lightning Magus quickly understood the thing she overlooked. Tang Shaoyang's world, she knew nothing about the Earth. But from Zaneos's information, he knew that the Earth was pretty backward than any others they had visited.

—Then he needs to find another Survival Game

Lightning Magus quickly realized Tang Shaoyang's predicament. If Tang Shaoyang's level was stuck, the progress of their revival plan would be stuck too.

—Or Earth evolved quickly to grow stronger undead and beasts for him to kill.

Zanoes added.

"Take it slowly guys. We need to explore the unknown about the game too. Maybe we can find something that could be used to help your revival. There are many things we don't know about the Game yet," Tang Shaoyang could tell that Zowen panicked a little bit. He tried to comfort her, "Moreover, we have to find a way to cross to another world. We can't be relying on the game for that since we need a specific destination. Come up with a theory with a spell for that, then you can think of your survival. If not, it will be the same, you will be stuck on Earth with me."

Zowen and Zaneos fell silent. What Tang Shaoyang was right, even if they could be resurrected now, they would be trapped on Earth. They still needed to wait before they could solve their vengeance.

"Alright, the reward is received, it's time to head back!" Tang Shaoyang stood up and walked toward the portal. He was still in the same white room, the best place for his Talent Advancement.

When he got outside, he quickly noticed that everyone was talking to each other. The crowds were bustling and to his surprise, he could hear everyone. Word by word, whether it was a whisper and a normal conversation.

Most of them were talking about the reward, and it seemed he was the last one to come out. He quickly became the center of attention, most of them were curious what the number one got.

Of course, no one dared to ask what their Boss got. They wisely chose to stay silent. Zhang Mengyao and the other girls approached him, making a barrier that was impossible to approach.

Tang Shaoyang did not ask what they got and did not tell them what he got as well. It was not that he did not trust them, that was because he was in the public.

As the portal disappeared, the invisible barrier that protected the HZ Bay also disappeared. It was a sign that the Survival Game was over.

Dump! Dump! Dump! Dump!

As the barrier disappeared, the ground started to shake. Tang Shaoyang looked toward the direction where the faint noise came from. The faint noise came from the exit gate of the HZ Bay as their camp was near the entrance gate.

Of course, only Tang Shaoyang, and a few high-level ones could feel the incoming zombies. The others were too happy to notice the impending danger that was about to come. That meant the zombie horde was still far from the HZ Bay.

"Gather the non-combatant and the kids to the house!" Tang Shaoyang called out and pointed to the house near him. The house in HZ Bay was big, a house of three floors was enough to accommodate the non-combatant ones.

Many of them were confused by the others. They looked toward Tang Shaoyang in a puzzled, "Right now!" When the Boss yelled for the second time, only then they realized Tang Shaoyang was serious.

The crowd and the soldiers with family pushed their wives and children to the house. They did not know what happened, but they followed the order. The people who were on the punishment list thought that Tang Shaoyang was going to punish them right now.

"Lu An, go check what is coming for us! The rest of you get ready for a battle!" When everyone heard that, they quickly realized that something was coming for them.

Wen who was at loss at first transformed into a giant eagle, the beast form. The Jade Eagle looked toward the young man, "Hop on, we can scout the enemy effectively from the top."

Lu An hopped on top of the Jade Eagle and they flew toward the noises. It was quick scouting, the pair returned less than a minute.

"A zombie horde is heading toward our direction and will arrive at the gate in one to three minutes," Lu An reported the discovery.

"We have killed all the zombies on the way here, how come there is a horde coming toward us now?" Tang Shaoyang was quite confused for a moment, but he quickly ordered his men, "We will fight them outside the gate, get our men ready!" He instructed Zhang Mengyao to create the formation since she was more familiar with these people's strengths.

"How many of them?" As he walked toward the entrance gate, he asked Lu An.

"I estimate it is about thousands if not over ten thousand," Wen was the one who answered it quickly as Lu An was late with the answer. The Jade Eagle even winked his green eye at Lu An as he knew that Lu An forgot to make his estimation.

"What about their composition?" Tang Shaoyang asked for more details while Zhang Mengyao also listened.

"Most of them were still stage-1 but the horde mixed with a lot of stage-2 and stage-3 too," Lu An was more knowledgeable about this as he answered quickly, "But from the movement, it seems a Zombie Lord is controlling the horde."

"Shouldn't we escape while we can?" Cao Yuntai was quite nervous when he heard the number.

He dared to propose such a proposal because he had become quite close to Tang Shaoyang during the fifth portal. The older man knew that Tang Shaoyang was someone who opened with a discussion. He was not that afraid to speak out now.

"Escape?" Cao Yuntai could see the maniac grin formed on his Boss's lips, "Isn't this the right time to test what you have gotten from the portal? Isn't this the right time to see how strong you guys have become? Do you think I will miss this chance to see that?"

"Escape is not in our dictionary, we fight them!" Tang Shaoyang responded in a firm tone.

"I have Li Na and the other girls stayed behind to protect the house, the rest can be dispatched to fight against the zombie horde!" Zhang Mengyao reported that they were ready to fight. Since they fought outside the gate, leaving a few capable fighters behind was enough to guarantee the kid's safety.

"The battle is not over, there's still a long way to go!"
