

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 398

Tang Shaoyang raised the battle-ax, the red energy shrouded the battle-ax. Not only that, at the same time, he activated [Raged Alteration] and [Enhanced Strength]. Both skills increased his Strength Attribute temporarily.

Swoosh!

He swung the battle-ax forward the incoming Death Knight. The sword and the battle-ax clashed.

Clang!

Zolkan's sword flew toward the air as the battle-ax struck toward his chest. The Death Knight was sent flying back to the building. He crashed toward the building, breaking through to the back.

The crash caused the five floors building to collapse.

"Human!" The furious call echoed through the air. At the same time, dark fog exploded from the building debris. The dark fog quickly spread and covered the open space.

The dark fog blocked everyone's vision, including Tang Shaoyang.

Zhang Mengyao was about to rush to help, but Wei Xi pulled her aside, "What are you doing, General? Why don't you put your trust in Lord Shaoyang? If he can't handle the situation, none of us can."

Deep inside, Wei Xi felt funny. Tang Shaoyang was the strongest amongst all of them. If that man could not win against the Death Knight then none of them could win against it.

Of course, the dark fog was not an issue for Tang Shaoyang. After he got the bloodline, he could see mana flowing in the air. At the same time, he could also see mana inside the body.

Through the dark fog, he could easily see the Death Knight who tried to circle toward his back.

"Let's end this once for all!" He then turned around.

The Death Knight was right behind. Zolkan was surprised that Tang Shaoyang could know where he would come from, "How do you know!?" He blurted it out.

"There's no need for you to know!" Tang Shaoyang grinned as his both hands reached the Death Knight's right hand that held the sword.

He pulled the Death Knight toward him and turned around once again. With his strength, he easily slammed the Death Knight. He was performing the judo slam, but with his strength multiplied.

Dump!

The paving ground cracked as the Death Knight's figure sunk to the ground. Tang Shaoyang immediately stomped the Death Knight on the chest, pinning him down on the ground.

He did not stop there, he did not give any mercy to the Death Knight. He pulled up the battle-ax from the ground.

With both hands holding it, Tang Shaoyang pointed the pointy tip of the Dragon Destroyer toward Zolkan's chest. There was no hesitation behind his action as he pushed the Dragon Destroyer.

"Arghhhh!!!" The Death Knight grunted in pain. He could not kill the spirit, but this was enough to hurt the spirit. At the same time, a notification rang in his head.

[You have forcefully subdued Tier B+ Spirit, Zolkan the Death Knight!]

[Do you want to form a spiritual contract with Zolkan the Death Knight? Yes/No?]

Tang Shaoyang gazed at the headless knight. Looking at the undead, he remembered a skill he never used before, "Maybe it's time to try [Spirit Sacrifice]?"

He did not know what this [Spirit Sacrifice] did as he had to sacrifice a spirit to use the skill. He was fond of all the spirits he had, he did not want to sacrifice any of them.

But now he had a spirit that could be sacrificed. Zolkan was unyielding even though the Death Knight had been subdued by him. It kept struggling to break free. Furthermore, Zolkan was an undead, [Spirit Integration] was impossible.

—Let's try! I want to know what this [Spirit Sacrifice] does as well! We have a perfect sacrifice to try the skill.

Zaneos was the first one to agree with Tang Shaoyang's thought. The support from Zaneos washed away Tang Shaoyang's hesitation. He cast [Spirit Sacrifice] on the Death Knight.

[Do you want to sacrifice Zolkan the Death Knight? Yes/No?]

He chose yes. As soon as he made the choice, Zolkan's spiritual body popped out into a ball of bright light. Then the bright light shot toward his forehead, entering his body.

Tang Shaoyang felt a warm current flowing inside his body. He enjoyed the feeling for a moment until a notification rang in his head. The notification caused him to grin ear to ear.

[You have sacrificed Tier B+ Spirit, Zolkan the Death Knight!]

[You gained 22 levels and a random skill of Zolkan the Death Knight!]

[You have obtained a skill, [Abyss Domain]]

The battle between Lord Shaoyang and the spirit was a one-sided battle where their Lord dominated the headless spirit.

The man easily overpowered the opponent. However, it was unfortunate for them to not be able to continue watching the battle because of the Death Knight's skill.

When the fog disappeared, what they saw was

Lord Shaoyang alone. The man was standing alone as the headless spirit was nowhere to be seen.

Almost all of them had the same question, where did the spirit go? The question would remain unanswered unless a brave soul dared to ask it openly.

Of course, no one that stupid to do that. Most of them held their curiosity, but Su Hong. Su Hong glanced at Fan Rui, "Do you know where the spirit goes?"

"I don't know," Fan Rui shook his head. He was not as curious as Su Hong to have such a thought.

'He summons the spirit and fights it, what's the point of all of this?' Su Hong thought to himself. This was weird to him.

Meanwhile, a giant swarm of zombies was moving toward the center of Zhejiang.

In the middle of the swarm, there was a zombie with armor and a spear on its back. The zombie was just two meters in height, having a pale complexion, but his skin was smooth.

There was no rotten meat on his body. People might misunderstand him as a human if they met at the human city.

Opposite to his size, the zombies that surrounded him varied in size with all of them having a bigger frame than him. The smallest one was three meters tall while the highest one reached nine meters in height.

"All of the time, why are humans attacking Us now!?" King Biron was angry when his connection with all zombies in Jiaxing City was cut. Meaning, the army he left in Jiaxing City was killed.

Yes, the zombie was the King of the Daian Kingdom, King Biron. He led more than thirty million zombies to take over Jinhua City from the Dacian Kingdom.

What frustrated him was that he and his force were near Jinhua City while those rats were destroying his backline. He was much closer to Jinhua than Jiaxing.

"Since they are in Jiaxing, their next destination should be Hangzhou," King Biron muttered in a low voice, "From Doron's information, their number should be less than ten thousand people."

"Sharon and my ten million armies should be enough. Even if humans are strong and Sharon could not kill the human, they should be able to buy enough time for me to return,"

"Rudin! I just need to kill that disgusting fellow and I can take his army. After that, I will eradicate all the pesky humans!"
