ARMIPOTENT Chapter 407

The fire prison shrunk before it exploded. The explosion caused the wall to collapse. It was fortunate that the Tarriors were still far from the wall.

Sheron looked into the fire. Even though she said goodbye, she felt that the fire was not enough to kill the human, 'King Biron told me to be careful…'

She looked into the blazing fire, then she saw the shadow of the wing. The wing moved, slapping the fire away.

"Why are you in a hurry to say goodbye? The battle just started," Tang Shaoyang appeared in his [Dragon Transformation]. Sharon was a stage-9 zombie, he did not know how strong the female zombie was, but it was better to be safe than sorry.

He did not underestimate the enemy and went all out from the start. Especially after witnessing Sheron's magic. He could not let go to face the army, his army was fragile in front of destructive magic power.

They were not ready for that yet so he had to keep this female zombie.

He could hear the female zombie let out a gasp of shock.

"You are not a human!?" The grayed eyes scanned Tang Shaoyang from the top to bottom before a wide grin formed on her lips, "Maybe this is my chance to overthrow that stupid Biron!"

The shock was changed quickly into a delight as if she just discovered a treasure, "Yes, you and me, let's take over the Daian Kingdom!"

"That's my initial plan, and I never include you in my plan. It will be just me and my Empire! You and your zombie swarm are just a stepping stone for us!" Tang Shaoyang did not know what was wrong with this zombie's head. Maybe her brain was getting rotten as well when she turned into a zombie.

"Kuhahahaha!" Sheron had unrestrained laughter when she heard that from Tang Shaoyang. Her breasts were jiggling up and down as she laughed, unladylike.

"Do you think you can defeat King Biron? You have no chance to win against him, human!" Sheron shook her head, "Turn yourself into one of us, then you have a chance against him! Like I said, you and me, let's overthrow Biron!"

"Nah, with or without your consent, I will still turn you into a zombie!" Sheron licked her red lips as her figure disappeared.

Tang Shaoyang was quite surprised, but again, his Spirit Eyes could see everything in his surroundings. Sheron appeared right behind.

He turned around as his hand moved to reach her neck. This time, it was Sheron's turn to get surprised as her neck was grabbed this quick. She used the mage's teleportation skill, how could he know where she would appear.

"If you are only this strong, it seems that Biron is not that strong either," Tang Shaoyang was quite disappointed.

The mage was supposed to fight from a distance, but she got closer to him. Sheron was done right after she was caught.

Sheron overcame her shock and looked toward the violet eyes. Looking closer, she smiled widely, "You look disappointed?"

"I am, I thought I would meet a worthy opponent, but it seems you are too weak," stage-9 zombie, he thought she could give him a decent fight.

"As you said, this is just the start," tentacles made of earth rose from below. Dozens of them moved up and immediately caught Tang Shaoyang's feet. At the same time, two more earth tentacles wrapped around his arms.

Tang Shaoyang could feel a huge force trying to pull him down, but him in [Dragon Transformation]. The force was nothing to him. He remained in the air, grabbing Sheron by the neck. His wing maintained his position in the air as Sheron froze.

The female zombie was shocked for the second time. The scenario in her mind was that the human would be slammed by her earth tentacle. However, nothing happened.

She witnessed that the earth tentacle was cracked from pressuring the man who was getting protected by the black scales.

"This is not over!" Sheron bellowed. At the same time, she tried to use teleportation to escape from the man's grip. But then she realized that she could not use teleportation while being held by the man.

"It seems your senses and your brains are dead when you die," Tang Shaoyang used his Slayer Energy, enveloping the female zombie with this mysterious power.

He did not think this would work, he negated the female zombie's magic with it. The earth tentacles crumbled as the female zombie struggled very hard.

"This is why I don't want to be a mage. They are very weak when their ability to cast the spells is blocked. They are nothing but a powerless weakling!" Tang Shaoyang commented while he watched the struggling Sheron.

—That because this mage is stupid. No mage fights like her. Which mage put herself close to the enemy!

Zowen was offended after hearing the harsh comment from Tang Shaoyang. She was a transcended mage, a Magus.

—That's because she overlooked Tang Shaoyang's ability. His Spirit Eyes left him with no opening. On top of that, she seemed to be so eager to turn you into a zombie as well. Maybe that's the one that caused her to decide to get closer with her teleportation spell.

Zaneos was more inclined to believe that Tang Shaoyang was the bane of the mage. He just did not say it, afraid it would hurt Zowen's pride even more.

"The outcome would not change even if she did not come for me. Just like you in our first meeting. You looked so complacent and underestimating your opponents, me. I can easily catch her off guard with [Flash Step]," Tang Shaoyang had no intention to belittle Zowen, but that was the fact in the battlefield.

"But still, Slayer Energy is the winner here. I don't expect that this mysterious energy could prevent the mage from using mana. It seems my next advancement would be [Magus Slayer]?" Tang Shaoyang chuckled.

Zowen could not refute that. The Slayer Energy seemed to be superior to Mana. She was not expecting to encounter such mysterious and powerful energy either.

"Is that you, My Lord?" A shaky voice echoed through the air.

Tang Shaoyang recognized the voice, it was Yu Shun's voice. He looked toward the voice and found Yu Shun was sitting on top of Wen. The young man looked shocked by his form.

"It's me," Tang Shaoyang replied while waving at the young man with his free hand, "Let's go there!" He pointed at the wall.

He landed on the wall while Wen and Yu Shun followed after him, "What about her, do you want to add her into your collection?"

Yu Shun in a daze, his eyes scanning Tang Shaoyang from the top to bottom. The horn, the black scale, and the wing. Hearing Tang Shaoyang's words, he broke out from his fantasy and looked toward the struggling Sheron.

The young man looked for a while before his eyes shone brightly as if he found the best treasure in his life, "Of course, I do!" Yu Shun immediately came over.

"What did you do to me? Why can't I use my magic?" The struggling Sheron asked Tang Shaoyang but she was ignored by him.

"Can you do it while I am holding her like now? If I release her now, she might escape with teleportation," Tang Shaoyang asked the young man.

"Mnnn, no problem," Yu Shun nodded and extended his hand to the back of Sheron's head.
