

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 429

The battle truly took a huge toll on the soldiers. Most of them went straight to sleep while a few stayed awake to keep on watch.

Pride, Kairu, and Wen, the three beastment stayed awake. They learned their lesson from the unexpected attack from King Biron hence the three made their plan for the remaining noon.

The three would patrol three different areas of the city, making sure the city was safe from the attack.

The City Steele Building

The building where the City Steele was, the most tightly guarded building. A twelve-story building in the center of Hangzhou.

Selena and Arina received a message from Elin. She said it was important and asked them to come here. Even though both were healers, they had armor on.

Arina had a bow and quiver on her back while Selena was holding a spear in her right hand. Both girls entered the building guarded by eight Tarrriors at the entrance.

The eight Tarrriors bowed their heads at the sight of the two while the two girls nodded in response. Four hours passed after the battle, the city was calm as most of the soldiers were asleep in the surrounding buildings

Selena and Arina got to see the City Steele at the end of the lobby. This one was bigger than the one in Jiaxing. Maybe, the City Steele represented the scale of the city. Hangzhou was without a doubt a bigger city than Jiaxing.

The two girls did not stop to check the City Steele as they went to the elevator. The technology that only existed in this world. It did not use mana or magic to operate this thing but a machine.

They entered the elevator and pressed number 12. The message told them to come to the 12th floor and come to the room on the left. They did as they were instructed to, now both were standing at the said room's door.

Selena and Arina exchanged glances. Elin came from the same world as them. The person they trusted the most after their man. The two wondered why Elin called them here.

Selena nodded her head and her hand reached the doorknob. Arina nodded in response.

Selena then opened the door and they were immediately stunned to see Elin right behind the door. The two were stunned because Elin was stark naked, leaning against the wall. Her face flushed red and a satisfied smile hung on her face.

Selena snapped out of her thought as she pulled Arina into the room and closed the door. Arina's eyes were focused on Elin's vital spot, she could see the dripping liquid.

"Ahnnn~" before none of them could speak, they heard a moan from inside the room. It was a familiar moan to Selena and Arina.

"I need your help," Elin opened her mouth as she smiled, "As much as I want to accompany him, but I have to get prepared the dinner for our soldiers," a clear reluctance could be detected from her tone.

Elin had become the head cook, everyone in the logistic team needed her to prepare a meal for a thousand soldiers. That was her responsibility. A lot of preparation was needed to make a thousand meals or maybe more. The armies had not eaten yet from the morning.

"Even if you don't ask me, I am willing to do that for you," Selena smiled charmingly as her bright red eyes shone.

She put her armor and weapon into inventory, revealing the clothes she wore beneath the armor. It was a black long sleeve shirt and long black pants. But the clothes she wore were so tight, showing her curvaceous body.

"He really loved big breasts," Elin commented unnecessarily while looking at Selena's breasts.

Selena chuckled, "But yours are bigger than mine, Sister Elin. You should have realized that a long time ago."

The girl tapped Elin's shoulder, "You can leave the rest to me, Sister Elin. I will do my best," after saying that, Selene entered the room boldly, leaving the confused and nervous girl behind.

Despite her relationship with Tang Shaoyang, she was not as bold as Selena. There was an embarrassment that she could not shake off even after having a threesome a few times.

"Hehe, if you want to stay around Shaoyang, you should get used to this," Elin let out a chuckle, "Or you can maintain that as well. Your embarrassment may evoke his desire even more."

Elin came closer to Arina and planted a kiss. It was a deep kiss as Elin's tongue entered Arina's. Arina was not expecting this yet she was shocked to push Elin. After some time, Elin released her, "You are quite sweet, I am expecting to have you for my next sweet section."

After saying that, the violet-haired girl went to the bathroom, leaving the blue-haired girl rooted on the spot.

Meanwhile, Selena swiftly followed the moan and entered the bedroom. There, she saw Delia. The girl had her back against the transparent glass while Tang Shaoyang was holding her.

Delia embraced Tang Shaoyang's neck as her chin rested on his shoulder. Her face flushed red while having a blissful facade. Pleasure moans filled the room.

"Do I make the same face when I am doing it?" Selena wondered as she watched the two.

"You will know soon, babe," Tang Shaoyang echoed in the room as Delia released a long moan. She had a long, pleasurable orgasm.

Tang Shaoyang turned around while carrying Delia. He put the girl on the bed before he kissed her on the lips.

After that, he approached Selena who was standing at the door. He kissed her as Selena responded to the kiss while circling her hand on his neck. His hand moved to her bouncy yet firm butts. He played with its softness for a while before his hands moved to her chest.

With a slight force, he tore the black shirt and exposed the black bra beneath the shirt. A slightly impatient with the protection that covered his treasure, he tore the fabric connection between the cups, exposing the firm and plump breast.

Tang Shaoyang buried his head on Selena's chest.

"You do really like big... Ahnn~" she had not finished her words as a jolt of pleasure assaulted her body. It was just merely a lick on her breast, but she could feel pleasure from it.

Selena let him play with her breasts as she enjoyed a new pleasure. This was the first time that she felt this good just being sucked on the breast. A new moan filled the room.

Delia who rested her body on the bed immediately got up, "I can't stay or I will get stimulated again," she decided to drag her body out of the room.

When he was about to get into the bathroom, she encountered Arina. Delia smiled at her as she entered the bathroom.

He was not satisfied with just breasts. His hand moved down to her vital area. He tore the crotch part, exposing the sexy black lingerie. His hand went into a punitive expedition, "Huh!? You are already wet."

Selena managed to roll her eyes at him, "Of course, I am. It would be strange if I am not wet... Don't stop~"
