

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 450

Wen described the encounter against the force of the Lionax Kingdom on the way out of the building.

Tang Shaoyang realized what happened, Wen did not fight them but he ran away as soon as he found out how strong the enemies were. There was nothing to be ashamed of running away. Fighting the inevitable defeat while you could escape was just stupid.

Wen made the right decision by escaping to him and reported the situation, "Over level 600 hundred, surely they are not an earthling," he muttered and walked out of the building.

From the fifth floor, Li Shuang and Zowen stood side by side as they looked at the uninvited guests. Even though they were separated by the glass, Li Shuang could feel the fierce aura from the group of knights.

"Are you sure he will be fine? Why don't you go down and help him?" Li Shuang was concerned with the situation and asked Zowen to help, "I and my daughter will be fine here."

"Not really," Zowen shook her head as she motioned toward the knight. Li Shuang followed the gaze and found one of the knights waving his hand at them. They were spotted easily.

"Don't worry, he will be fine. If he is defeated by them there's nothing I can do to help," Zowen explained with a firm belief in Tang Shaoyang, "Just watch how your man will crush these people. Look, he's out."

Tang Shaoyang walked out of the building. He was strolling casually despite the enemy outnumbered him and Wen. The fight was about to start.

"Are you the master of that Eagle?" Prince Kaiden questioned Tang Shaoyang with his authoritative tone while pointing at Wen who stood behind Tang Shaoyang.

The latter ignored the prince as he cast [Basic Detection] to confirm Wen's report. Not that he did not believe Wen, but he just wanted to confirm with his eyes.

The three in front of the group were over level 600 with the highest was level 683. The one in the middle was a Prince while the other was a Captain Knight.

He scanned the other knights who followed the three. He was surprised to find their average level. Above level 400 with most of them around level 440 to level 460, 'No wonder the Dacian Kingdom fell easily...' the doubt was cleared.

Their force level was higher than King Biron. Meaning King Rudin was doomed to meet the Lionax Kingdom in their first encounter.

'But Elemental Knight?' The knight all had the same class, it was Elemental Knight, 'Is that a combination between an Elementalist and a Knight?'

As for the two Captain Knights, their class was different as well. The level 679 Captain Knight was Blaze Knight while level 683 Captain Knight was Gale Knight. As for the Prince, he was not a knight but Archmaster Elementalist.

"Prince, huh!?" Tang Shaoyang muttered. Upon seeing the knights with his own eyes, he believed that these people should be from another. An average level of level 450, that was not possible for them to be Earthling. Only a few of his people reached that level even after the Survival Game, he did not believe the others could reach higher than them unless they had slain dragons and gods which were more impossible to happen.

'So what should I do with the prince? Kill him?' Tang Shaoyang was in his own world, ignoring the livid prince, 'No, I can't kill him. Maybe there are some uses for him being alive rather than dead. Also, I need to find where the gate that connected our world and theirs,'

"You dare to ignore this Prince! You are dead! Deader than dead!" Prince Kaiden drew his sword and rushed toward Tang Shaoyang.

"No, Don't-" Captain Knight Reed was about to hold the Prince back to not attack the man, but he was too late.

Only then Tang Shaoyang looked toward the prince. The prince was fast, but it was not his natural speed. He could see the mana that formed wind swirled around the prince's feet and body, pushing the prince toward him. The Prince used the wind to make him move faster.

"Get back, Wen. I will take care of this!" Tang Shaoyang took out his Dragon Destroyer and clashed against the sword. Wen heeded his words. The Jade Eagle retreated to a safe distance.

Dang!

The sword clashed against the battle-ax as fire exploded from the sword, engulfing Tang Shaoyang as a whole, "This is your punishment for ignoring this Noble Prince!" Prince Kaiden claimed arrogantly.

"Interesting," Tang Shaoyang's voice resounded within the blazing fire, "Unfortunately, your fire does not work on me, Prince," as the fire dispersed, Tang Shaoyang was still standing on the spot, unscathed.

He said it was interesting how this prince applied the elemental into a sword attack. From what he knew about Elementalist, they were similar to a mage, but they controlled the elements while mage covered an extensive scoop, not limited to elemental.

Prince Kaiden's eyes widened in shock, but he quickly recovered. He used the wind to push his body away from Tang Shaoyang, "This is not over!"

The earth spike shot upward from the ground where Tang Shaoyang was standing. The spike rose to five meters, but it did not injure him. Tang Shaoyang was flung into the air by the earth spike.

Prince Kaiden had expected the earth spike would not work against Tang Shaoyang. He prepared another attack as he imbued lightning into his sword. He would launch the attack as soon as Tang Shaoyang landed.

To the prince's surprise, the man never landed on the ground. The man stayed in the air, floating normally as if he was standing on the ground. This shocked the prince even more.

Prince Kaiden was alarmed. From the first exchange, he was sure that the man was of the warrior-type class. How did he float like that? Was he a mage?

Prince Kaiden immediately cast [Basic Detection] on Tang Shaoyang.
