

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 477

Ashley could not believe what she was seeing right now. She saw a man and a woman were copulating. Furthermore, they were doing it in an embarrassing position. The man was holding the woman's thigh while the woman spread her leg. Using his hands, the man brought the woman up and down.

"Ahn~ Ahn~" The moaning entered her ears, Ashley snapped out and slammed the door shut. Yes, she closed the door but she did not go out. She was afraid that her subordinate would listen to the moan. It would be embarrassing and humiliating if her subordinates saw this.

What infuriated her was that the man and the woman did not stop even though they heard the sound of the door being slammed. Standing in front of the mirror, the couple kept doing their business.

Selena and Tang Shaoyang of course noticed the intruder but they did nothing as the intruder was not hostile. He could feel that Little Shaoyang was being clamped tighter. The intruder's presence might be the cause. Selena must be excited because someone watched them from the side.

From being infuriated to be in a daze, Ashley watched the couple from the side. Her eyes locked on the woman's private region. She could see the big Little Shaoyang, 'How can that big thing fit inside her?' She could not help but question herself.

Ashley then looked at the woman's facial features. The woman's cheeks flushed red as she clearly enjoyed this. The woman was not in pain but enjoyed the sex. She could see the white fluid flowing down from the private region. The moan and the expression, all of that told Ashley that the woman enjoyed it very well.

Gulp!

Ashley swallowed mouthful saliva, but she could feel the heat rising inside her body. Her breath turned slightly hot as her breathing became irregular. On top of all of that, she felt that her private region was itching.

'What is this? What happens to my body?' This was the first time she experienced this feeling. Weird, this was so weird and she did not know what to do with her condition. The moaning filled the room as the heat kept rising inside her body.

Ashley wanted to escape from the room but her feet would not move. Her mind told her that she had to escape from the room but her body did not listen to her mind.

"Ahn~ Ahn~ Ahn~" While listening to the moaning of pleasure, Ashley's hand moved down toward her private region without realizing it. She did not wear the armor but casual clothes. Her hand sneaked into her pants and his finger started to touch her private region. She could feel wetness on her panties. With her finger, she rubbed her private region.

"Hngg~" A jolt of pleasure struck her body as a moan escaped from her mouth. She covered her mouth hastily. She was not expecting that this would feel this good. Selena's moans were getting louder.

Ashley looked toward the couple as she realized the man was speeding up. The louder moans stimulated her even more. Her hands started to rub her private region again. The jolt of pleasure attacked her body again. This time she did not resist as she kept rubbing her private region through her panties.

Before she realized it, she followed Selena's rhythm. Yes, Ashley followed the moan with her moan as she kept rubbing her private region. The scene continued for another five minutes before finally, Selena let out a long moan.

"Ahhhhh~" Following her moan, Tang Shaoyang also let out a sigh. He poured his liquid on her. Selena's belly was filled with his as the overflowing liquid poured from the gap of her private region.

At the same time, Ashley also let out a long sigh. She climaxed after hearing the long moan from Selena. She felt that warm liquid coming out from her private region, wetting her panties.

Then Ashley rooted on the spot as her eyes met with Tang Shaoyang's eyes. There was one thing that made this man look different than the others, it was his eyes. His purple eyes with yellow irises and slit pupils. It was not like a normal human's eyes. His eyes were fascinating.

Meanwhile, Tang Shaoyang scanned the girl who stood behind the door. She leaned her back against the door with her left hand inside her pants. He never actually saw Ashley's face, even once. He also did not force her to open her helmet as Crystal the Frost Knight assured him of her loyalty toward him.

He did not know what Crystal told Ashley but the cold Commander easily agreed to his proposal after the talk with her ancestor. Of course, he did not question Crystal's loyalty either. They were tied with the contract and the chance for her to be alive again was in his hand.

Tang Shaoyang walked toward the bed and put Selena on it as he whispered to her ears, "Get rest~," then he looked back toward the girl on the door, "Does Ashley send one of her maids to serve me?"

'Crystal, are you there?' He tried to question his spirit but received no response. Crystal must be cutting off their connection while he was doing the deed with Selena. Understandable.

Tang Shaoyang walked toward the girl, the girl had ashes-colored hair tied into a bun. Her sharp jawline and delicate rosy lips, and sharp blue eyes attracted her. The maid was a top beauty in his book. His eyes then moved downward toward the chest. Despite wearing loose clothes, he could see the breasts. This was her type for sure, 'She's really being considerate to me even sending my type of girl,' He thought as he arrived in front of the girl, 'Or maybe Crystal told her to satisfy me?'

Tang Shaoyang put his right hand around her waist and pulled the girl toward her. The girl was shorter than her. He leaned toward her and kissed her lips. The girl did not resist making sure that the girl was sent to serve him.

The girl did not resist as Tang Shaoyang pried her mouth open. From the kissing, he could tell the girl was inexperienced, 'She even sends me a virgin? I should commend her for doing a good job.' Tang Shaoyang reminded himself to praise the cold commander.
