

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 675

"For Shadow Knight, you have a high-speed movement with your Shadow Elemental too, but you can adapt to sneak attack style of fighting. You don't have to confront the enemy head-on. I think I understand why he recommended you the Shadow Knight." Lilliana nodded her head. "If you want to know the depth of each class. We can continue our conversation, and it might take hours for that."

Viona fell silent for a moment and thought about it. She still did not understand how Shadow Elemental worked because Rosikh Family did not have that information. Lilliana also did not go into the details about the Shadow Elemental. Viona looked at the man who was standing on the platform outside the tower. The man was gazing in Yoram City's direction.

It reminded her that they were attacking Yoram City. 'The battle is not over yet? That means I can join the battle. I can't waste my time on more depth information about the classes. I have to join the fight to level up! Since they recommend me Shadow Knight, might as well I choose it.'

Viona shook her head at Lilliana and approached the man. "I choose Shadow Knight."

"Good choice." Tang Shaoyang turned around and smiled as he threw the golden scroll toward Viona. "Get your class now, and you might join the battle if you go there right now."

Viona did not hesitate to tap yes when the system asked if she wanted to get the class. There was no special effect for getting class, but there were many notifications in her head.

It took a while for Viona to sort out all things she got from the advancement. For some reason, she, who did not like the violence before, could not wait to jump into the battlefield now. There were so many things she wanted to try: all her new skills, the new her who had become Grand Knight.

Viona finally understood why Lord Tang Shaoyang said that both classes were good. It was a class that evolved as she reached a higher level. Such a class was uncommon even in the Lionax Kingdom. Yes, not all knights could become Grand Knight by leveling up, but her new class was an exception.

"Are you ready to join the battle? Or do you want to wait until the next attack?" Tang Shaoyang asked the woman who was in her own little world. He could tell that she was in an excited mood, and he understood why.

"Yes!" Viona snapped out of her thoughts and immediately replied.

Tang Shaoyang nodded his head and glanced at Lilliana. Lilliana had to return to the Spiritual World so he could cast [Spirit Fusion]. The former nodded her head and returned to the Spiritual World.

"Do I still need [Spirit Fusion]?" Viona asked. There was reluctance in her tone because she did not want to get that exhausted because of the [Spirit Fusion] just like before.

"Yes, unless you want to die." Tang Shaoyang rolled his eyes at Viona. This woman was complacent just because she had advanced to Grand Knight, thinking she could survive on her own. "I have heard about the last battle from Lilliana. If not for her guiding you, you would die before you could swing your sword. Furthermore, the enemy you will face is stronger than the beforehand, who are mostly hunters instead of proper knights. There are still many knights stronger and more experienced knight than you. I don't want my precious scroll to go to waste just because of your foolish bravado."

"I-," Viona realized that she had made a blunder. What the man said was right; she could not get full of herself just because she got a new class. The class did not determine who would die on the battlefield. Many other factors would determine who would die there. "I am sorry, Lord Tang Shaoyang. I get full of myself."

"It's good if you realize that." Tang Shaoyang shook his head and cast [Spirit Fusion]. After that, he summoned Vera, the Legendary Beast. Then he flicked The Golden Dragon, who was sleeping on his shoulder.

"Wake up, you lazy bum! I have a task for you." Wrath woke up as he went with, "Ouch!"

"Task? What task? Just let me sleep, Master." The Golden Dragon whined, but Tang Shaoyang ignored the dragon and pointed at Viona. "Your task is to protect her! There's no but, or you will have to go die for a month!"

When Tang Shaoyang brought up the diet, Wrath immediately flew outside the tower and returned to his original size. "Hop on, Woman! Let's rock them up."

Viona hesitated for a while before she hopped onto the dragon.
