

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 680

"Can't wait to kill them, are you?" Viona heard a familiar next to her. She was startled and turned to the side. Lord Tang Shaoyang was standing right next to her, and she did not notice when he arrived. Her heart was beating furiously as she imagined if the one who came next to her unnoticed was her enemy.

She quickly responded with a nod. "Yes, I can't wait to start the fight. I feel like I want to charge forward and kill everyone that is part of the Revolution Army!" The deep hatred in her tone was vivid.

"Yeah, you can go wild, but don't let your anger cloud your head, or else you will die in their hands instead. There were a few Epic Ranks, one Ancient Rank, and one Myth Rank on their side. If you catch their attention, you will die before you can kill them." Tang Shaoyang smirked at the woman who was getting excited about killing the Revolution Army.

Viona made a surprised expression and looked at The Emperor. He came to check up on her, and she was not expecting the lofty Emperor would check up on her in person even though he said that with a smirk. She could tell that he was concerned about her.

"Don't get me wrong. You have used a precious Change Class Scroll, so it will be a waste for a good class holder like you to die so soon when you haven't contributed anything to the Empire." Tang Shaoyang poured cold water on Viona's imagination that ran wild. "Also, I come to cast [Spirit Fusion] on you."

Tang Shaoyang then extended his hand toward her and cast the skill. As Lilliana integrated into her body, she felt like she was being rejuvenated as boundless energy entered her body. After that, He got closer to her ear. "I feel like I want to do it tonight, kinda enjoying having an affair, but I think we have to skip it tonight. Good luck with your battle."

Tang Shaoyang turned around and disappeared. He did not have some kind of stealth skill, but he just moved too fast that Viona could not see his movement.

—Don't get upset with him. He is just like that because you treated him like a Lord instead of your man. If you treat him like he is your husband, then he will soften too.

Lilliana tried to comfort Viona, who seemed upset, but she was wrong as soon as she noticed Viona's cheek flushed red. She could tell that Viona's heartbeat also accelerated.

—Stupid me to worry about you. However, this only makes even more curious the feel of having sex with that man. All women will get attached to him once you have sex with him, so I wonder- Can you tell me how good it is?

Viona's eyes widened a little bit, and her face was as red as a tomato now as Lilliana caught her red-handed. She shook her head and waved her hand frantically. "W-what are you talking about? I-I a-am not enjoying it." After that, she ran away back to the camp with the other knights.

—You can't run from me, Stupid Girl. I am inside you, so it's useless if you run away. Just tell me, how does it feel? Don't lie to me. I watched you do it with him, and your face told me that you enjoyed it- No, It's more than just enjoying. You are in pleasure.

The Elven Division came under the leadership of the former Elder and former Queen of the Elven. General Aleesa and Vice General Ava were leading the elven forces.

The knights made a ruckus with the Elven appearance, but most kept their distance from the Elven. It was not unknown that The Elven was prideful and lofty. On top of that, of course, the Elven were known for their might. One of the great fours of Gigante Forest.

"Look at the two women. They are so pretty and hot." One of the knights whispered amongst their friends. "I don't mind losing ten years of my life if I can sleep with one of them."

The other knights slapped the knight's head and scolded in a low voice. "Fool! Do you want to die? General Aleesa is Lord Tang Shaoyang's wife, and Vice General Ava is Elven's former Queen. She is the wife of Elven's former King. If you want to die, then die alone. Don't implicate us with your foolishness!"

Viona heard the conversation, and her eyes fell to General Aleesa. Looking at the stunning figure, she could not help but compare herself with Aleesa. She admitted that Aleesa was far prettier than her.

—You don't have to get depressed like that, Girl. She might be prettier than you, but he had not touched her yet. You defeated her in a way, so cheer up.

Lilliana was exposing her Master.

Viona was surprised that Lord Tang Shaoyang had not touched his Elven Wife. From the look and the shape of Aleesa's body, Aleesa was perfect. But then Viona rolled her eyes. "Is that supposed to be a compliment?"

Fifteen minutes after the Elven Division arrived, The Tang Empire's force made their move.

Aleesa and Ava led their forces to the front. They took out the bow from their inventory and pulled the string without an arrow. As the two pulled the bowstring to maximum stretch, an arrow made of mana formed.

"We will blow the gate, get your men ready, General Goldien! General Arsi!" Aleesa signaled the other two Generals to get ready. Slowly, the wind enveloped the mana arrow, swirling the mana arrow.

The plan was simple, Aleesa and Ava would blow the gate with their arrows. The Elven armies would snipe the archers and mage on top of the wall. The Elven came to support them from the back.

"We are ready!" General Golden and General Arsi signaled to the Elven General from their position. Along with the signal, Aleesa and Ava released their arrows.

Fwoosh! Fwoosh!

The arrows sped up toward the city gate, and "Boom!".

The two arrows blew up the gate, and it did not stop there as the arrows went through into the city. The two arrows destroyed a few buildings before the arrows dispersed.

As the gate into the city opened, General Goldien and General Arsi led their force into the city. The Archer and the Mage of The Revolution Army tried to defend the city, but the arrows killed them before they could launch their attacks.

The Elven sniped the guards from hundred meters away from the city wall. Thanks to the excellent support from the Elven, the vanguard reached the city gate without casualty.

Viona was amongst the vanguard, and she witnessed the power of the Elven from a close range. 'If the Elven wanted to, they could destroy the city from afar. They are scarier than I thought.' Such a thought crossed her mind as she looked at the damaged gate.

—But we are here not to destroy the city or kill civilians. If that's our goal, Tang Shaoyang will do that by himself. It only takes him less than a minute to raze this city.

Lilliana interjected.

"I know! Our goal is the Revolution Army." Viona's eyes sharpened at the sight of the rows of knights behind after she entered the city. Her eyes filled with deep hatred as she pulled out the sword. She picked up her face and activated her skill, [Shadow Step].

Her figure disappeared into her own shadow, and she appeared again from the shadow of one of the Revolution Army's knights. She followed up with [Shadow Blade], and the scythe made of shadow cut through the seven knights at once.

Viona usually would look away from the bloody scene, but she did not this time. She watched the falling bodies as she smiled widely. The thrilling excitement from killing the Revolution Army's knights took over her.

The other knights from the Revolution Army were caught in surprise as an enemy suddenly appeared from their comrade's shadow. Viona took this chance to launch another attack. She activated [Guardian Rush] and charged at the closest knight in front of her.

The knight was flown backward and hit more knights behind him. Then she turned to the closest knight. She learned the lesson from the previous battle: stab and slash her sword to instantly kill the enemy. She thrust her sword knight's neck, and then she twisted the sword.

The knight was holding his neck and struggling, but in the next second, the body stopped moving and fell to the side as Viona pulled her sword. After one attack and followed with another, Viona was dancing amidst her enemy, killing them cruelly. Her sword would slice the enemy's neck or pierce through her enemy's skull. If not for the helmet, everyone would see that crazed smile as she killed the knights.

Tang Shaoyang watched the whole battle from the sky, and no one noticed that he was above Braum City. "It seems I worried for nothing."

Even though this was not a battle with no casualties, one of his knights' lives was traded for twenty to forty knights of the enemy's sides. The strong were getting stronger, and the weak would be eliminated from his force. A natural selection for his Warriors.

"But this surprises me that the enemy's Myth Rank will go after Aleesa and Ava." Tang Shaoyang muttered in a low voice as he glanced at the knight that confronted the two sisters. Both sisters were Myth Rank, but of course, the enemy could not use their [Basic Detection] because of the tool the Lionax Kingdom created to ward off against the [Basic Detection].

"Another victory with no surprise, I guess."
