Tang Shaoyang furrowed his brow as he felt that the last skill was useless compared to the first three skills. 'Does this mean Steel Skeleton evolution is not that good? I don't think I can decide it yet until Kaiser reaches his final form.'

'If I follow the human's advancement, the next advancement should be at level 200.' Tang Shaoyang looked at the captured people. They were in despair as they realized that they were used as fertilizers for the Skeletons. There was no hope for them to escape alive from this Demon's hands.

Tang Shaoyang got another five people for Kaiser as he calculated it would take five to six knights of level 400 and above for Kaiser to level up. This time, Kaiser used his skill to kill these five people. It transformed its right hand into a blade and cut the five men's heads.

Tang Shaoyang's prediction was right on the spot, five people for Kaiser to reach the next level.

"Hmmm…" Tang Shaoyang caressed his chin as he tried to recall his attributes when he was level 200.

—You have more attributes than the Skeleton, but it's because of your bloodline and the second class. Your attributes back then were above five thousand, about five times of Kaiser. If you don't have those two, this Skeleton should be stronger than you on the same level.

Zowen's memory was sharper than Tang Shaoyang's, and she still remembered his attributes when he was level 200.

Tang Shaoyang nodded his head and concluded that these skeletons were more valuable than the human armies. Of course, the fact that he could get Bloodline and second class was a variable that made the human's potential bigger than the skeleton. The Skeleton had a specific path for them while humans did not have that path, but they could create their path based on their luck and courage.

If Tang Shaoyang did not have the courage to face the Zombie just like the others, he would not get a talent early that made him strong from the start. He had to add luck in part of his strength because of his encounter with Rumru, The Beast King.

[Your {Silver Skeleton} has met the condition for the advancement!]

[Do you want to proceed {Silver Skeleton} advancement? {Yes} {No}]

[Please choose your Silver Skeleton's advancement: (Evolution) (Class)]

Tang Shaoyang chose evolution without a second thought.

[Your {Silver Skeleton} has advanced to Golden Skeleton!]

Kaiser's body was shrouded in bright golden light for thirty seconds before it dimmed and showed its new frame. Just like he guessed, Kaiser's frame turned into gold, shining under the moonlight. Aside from the new frame, he noticed that Kaiser was more expressive than before. This guy now could smile like a human; the golden bone was elastic as Kaiser could make a perfect smile.

Tang Shaoyang was not happy with that as it made Kaiser even more creepy than before. However, it could not speak as it made a clanking noise still, expressing its happiness after the evolution. He tried to ignore Kaiser and thought about the next evolution. "Hmmm, if the skeleton followed human's advancement, then the next evolution should be at level 400. I am curious about what Kaiser's next evolution will be. Platinum?"

This time, Tang Shaoyang pulled ten more people with [Gravity Pull]. He placed all of them in front of Kaiser. "Go for it!"

Kaiser looked at Tang Shaoyang, and its eye socket enlarged a little bit. It was surprised, but then Kaiser formed a broad smile on its face and formed a blade with its right hand. Then the Golden Skeleton started to cut the people's heads.

"Stop!" At the eighth head, Tang Shaoyang stopped Kaiser because he heard a notification in his head. Of course, he was too late as Kaiser had already killed the ninth person, but it stopped after that, looking at Tang Shaoyang in confusion.

[Your {Golden Skeleton} has met the condition for the advancement!]

[Do you want to proceed {Golden Skeleton} advancement? {Yes} {No}]

[Please choose your Golden Skeleton's advancement: (Evolution) (Class)]

Tang Shaoyang ignored Kaiser's gaze and opened the Golden Skeleton's window status.

[Golden Skeleton]

Name: Kaiser

Level: 300

Class: -

Attributes:

Strength: 2016

Agility: 2176

Vitality: 2116

Stamina: 1906

Magic Power: 1806

Mana: 18060

Skill: [Frame Shaper], [Advanced Hardened Frame], [Advanced Regrowth], [Advanced Sprint], [Frame Molder], [Impale].

——————————

"Huh? Level 300?" Tang Shaoyang thought that the eight knights were enough for Kaiser to reach level 400, but he did not expect that the Golden Skeleton was still level 300. "It's different, after all. Does this mean the Skeleton will advance per one hundred levels?" While talking to himself, Tang Shaoyang tapped yes for the advancement, and he chose evolution again.

[Your Golden Skeleton has advanced to the Obsidian Skeleton!]

It was not Platinum or Diamond, but Obsidian. This was unexpected as Tang Shaoyang expected platinum or maybe any kind of gems. The evolution lasted for thirty seconds, and Kaiser's new frame came into his sight; from the bright gold, Kaiser turned into the obsidian black. From the change of Kaiser's emotion, Tang Shaoyang could tell that this stupid Skeleton liked its beforehand evolution even though he became stronger.

'I thought only girls like shiny things, but this skeleton has a unique taste too.' Tang Shaoyang shook his head as he pulled another twenty people and put everyone in front of Kaiser. So, there were twenty-one people in total. "You can kill them now."

Tang Shaoyang motioned Kaiser to continue the slaughter, and the latter continued to cut the heads. One strike, one kill, the knight could not scream as they died. This time, Tang Shaoyang was listening carefully for the notification so he could stop Kaiser in time so it would not waste the experience.

[Your {Obsidian Skeleton} has met the condition for the advancement!]

[Do you want to proceed {Obsidian Skeleton} advancement? {Yes} {No}]

"Stop!" Tang Shaoyang stopped Kaiser when it was at the eighteenth head and chose evolution once again right after.

[Your Obsidian Skeleton has advanced to Meteorite Skeleton!]
