

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 712

The black flame spread out, but Tang Shaoyang could control his spreading flame this time. He focused the flame on spreading to the front when the black flame met with the lava. An interesting occurrence happened. Instead of clashing at each other, the black flame turned the lava wave into black lava.

Tang Shaoyang expected a clash or explosion between the two different flames, but it was unexpected when he gained control over the black lava wave. Just like that, the lava land turned into black lava land. "I guess this is one of Chaos Fire's traits?" Chaos Fire was a new evolved skill when his race evolved into half-demon, half-dragon, and half-human, which he named Tang.

He controlled the lava wave and returned the wave into normal lava. Ailo City had become one of his cities, so he did not want to destroy the land with a skill on a big scale like this. Even though the attribute of the flame had changed, Robert was fine, even if he was standing on top of the black flame.

"Guess we have the result whose flame is stronger?" Tang Shaoyang smiled while Robert Kingsley gritted his teeth. "You look so concerned. Is it because of your reckless grandson?" Second Prince Wilis had lost his power and had stopped screaming as his body was dangling in the air, weakly.

"Let's add one more concern for you, Sir Robert. Rather than worrying about the grandson you can't save, you should worry more about your other grandson. My main force just arrived in the city." Tang Shaoyang pointed to the top of the wall. Ava and Aleesa had arrived a while ago and just showed up when they noticed the battle.

Robert Kingsley followed the finger and found two Elven standing next to Alton and Allan. His pupil enlarged in shock to see Elven. Seeing Elves on the battlefield was a bad omen as it signified one thing, Elven participated in the battle. 'If The Elven Kingdom participates in this war, does that mean they have another Legend Rank?' He was aware that The Elven King was a Legend Rank.

"Y-you a-are Elven Queen?" What made it worse, Robert recognized one of the Elven. If The Queen was on the battlefield, The King should be here as well. That meant there were four Legend Ranks here.

Ava looked at the human who called her name, and she recognized Robert was one of the human powerhouses. "I am no longer The Queen of the Elven Kingdom. I am General Ava of The Tang Empire now."

Robert Kingsley's mind went blank for a moment. If those words did not come from the involved herself. He took that as a joke, but it was different when Queen Ava admitted that. 'No longer Queen, General, and The Tang Empire.' The Right-Wing Guardian immediately realized that the third party in the war between the Revolution Army and the Lionax Kingdom was the Tang Empire.

"It's a late introduction, but I am The Emperor of The Tang Empire, Tang Shaoyang." Tang Shaoyang introduced himself with a big grin. "It seems I hit your nerve for you to have that kind of expression. Let's add one more concern to your head. You said I should be concerned because half of your force attacked my backline? I assume it's the Left-Wing Guardian who leads that force? Then it should be you who worries about your subordinates. I placed Kalliyen the Kirin, Moonsong the Moon Chief and his Moon Tribe, and the former Elven King Revalor and also the current King of the Elven Kingdom."

Robert Kingsley's eyes widened in shock when he heard that from Tang Shaoyang. He raised his right, pointing at Tang Shaoyang while taking a few steps back. "This... You... How..." his mind quickly thought the worst possible. "You have conquered Gigante Forest?"

"Bingo! You are right. Unfortunately, I can't reward you anything." Tang Shaoyang smiled. "There's no more Gigante Forest, but only the Tang Empire. The Lionax Kingdom, The Malecia Kingdom, and The Warmir Kingdom will also cease to exist soon."

Robert wanted not to believe what Tang Shaoyang said to him, but the former Elven Queen's appearance was enough proof that his enemy was not lying. That meant the Lionax Kingdom's new enemy was not just part of Gigante Forest's tribes but the whole forest under the banner of the Tang Empire.

Terror and fear filled Robert's head, and he lost his will to fight upon realizing his enemy was a force that had conquered the Gigante Forest. 'We can't win. I have to escape from them. Yes, escape. As long as I am alive, there's always a chance for me to make a comeback. I can ask for help from the main continent or seek the Sunfire Kingdom's help. I have to escape!'

Robert Kingsley turned his back toward Tang Shaoyang and darted away from Ailo City. He did not care about his two grandsons anymore and fled as fast as he could. Tang Shaoyang wanted to crush Robert's mental state as a form of vengeance for his subordinates, the former members of The Fotia Legion. However, he did not expect Robert to run away between his tail like this.

"Like hell, I will let you escape!" Tang Shaoyang's figure flashed after Robert Kingsley. Before that, he gave his command to Zara. "Please entertain our guest while I am away, Zara."

The Angel of Death understood her Master's order. She glanced at the confused Powan. The Legend Rank Warrior tried to comprehend his situation and why Robert Kingsley suddenly ran away? Everything did not make sense for the Legend Rank Warrior because his ally fled after a short conversation.

'I don't care, and I don't know what happened, but I have to escape too.' Since Robert ran away, there was no way he would win this fight alone. He was about to make his run, but the angel suddenly appeared in front of him, smiling at him while holding a black sword... "Damn you, Robert!" He cursed Robert for running away alone.
