

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 965

Tang Shaoyang brought the demon swordsman to his father-in-law. He told the old man everything about Zaneos' background, hiding nothing from the old man even though Zaneos was a demon. Earth lacked history with demons aside from the fiction where all demons were bad. Of course, the old man had a different vision than those people in the fiction or the people of other worlds with demons in their history.

Kang Jiayi accepted Zaneos with a welcome hand. The old man did not have a prejudice against the demon. In fact, the old man was excited when he heard the demon could also teach sword techniques. Zaneos was willing to share his technique with TEIS. The old man also willingly offered a high rank in TEIS, but the demon rejected.

"Please let me start from the bottom. I have no knowledge about the structure of TEIS, and I want to learn everything by experiencing it before accepting a certain position. The thing I hate the most is nepotism," The demon declared when Kang Jiayi wanted to put the demon into a position.

"Nepotism is bad, but we know you are more capable than the TEIS patrol. It would be a waste to have you patrol around the city when you can do much more. It's not nepotism, but giving you the right position for someone as capable as you," Tang Shaoyang shook his head. He also did not like the idea of nepotism, but he did not mind if someone skipped some ranks if that someone was capable.

"NO," The demon firmly rejected the idea of skipping the ranks, "I want to start from the bottom. That way, maybe I can make some friends on the way, too," Zaneos repeatedly nodded his head. He knew no one in this new world. Starting from the bottom, getting to know more people, a new friend to talk with... "And maybe find a wife or two wives." He let his mouth speak what was in his mind.

Tang Shaoyang waved his hand, "Do whatever you want, Zaneos. This is your new life, after all."

Kang Jiayi was puzzled by the last part because Tang Shaoyang did not tell the old man that Zaneos was a spirit who got resurrected. He hid that fact as he was afraid that the old man thought that he could resurrect the dead, saving the trouble of explaining anything about his class to the old man. He separated from Zaneos after that, leaving the demon to the old man. While the old man was weak in terms of strength, the old man had his own way of controlling his people. A lot of TEIS people were level 300 to level 600, while the old man was barely level 300, level 312 to be more exact. He trusted his father-in-law could guide the demon better than him.

"So, do you want to start from the bottom, Zaneos?" Kang Jiayi was quite shocked to hear the demon's level in front of him. Level 2100, meaning the demon was one of the strongest in the empire.

"Yes, Sir," Zaneos replied with a nod.

"Let's get everything clear before we start your employment. The bottom in your mind is the lowest rank in TEIS, or do you want to start from the recruitment? We hold recruitment once a month for now, and we will reduce it to three months next year, and later, we only hold recruitment twice a year." Kang Jiayi shared his plan with the demon.

The demon wanted to ask why they reduced the recruitment, but he kept the question in his head. He wanted to learn everything as a blank slate, without influence from the others, "Let's start with the recruitment."

"If you don't mind the hassle of the recruitment, then I will put your name on the list. It's not like you will fail the test anyway," Kang Jiayi thought there was no way a level 2100 individual would fail the recruitment test for level 100 to level 200. "Then let's start with the registration. Do you have your Empire ID? Let me copy your EID, then I will have my subordinates take care of the paperwork for you."

The demon paused for a moment before blurting out, "Empire ID? What's that?"

Kang Jiayi paused for a moment before letting out a sigh, "So we will start from that point, huh."

Zhang Mengyao had her hand on the bed, raising her butt, and a moan escaped from her lips. Tang Shaoyang held her waist, ramming her from behind. Her eyes rolled up in pleasure as if it had been a while since the last time they were doing it.

"Ahhnnnn~" She let out a long moan as she felt the warm liquid inside her womb. Tang Shaoyang released her, and her body fell to the bed. Her face was red as her breathing was hurried, "I love it...." Zhang Mengyao muttered in a low voice.

Meanwhile, Kang Xue turned her head to the side and stared at Tang Shaoyang longingly, "It's my turn~."

Tang Shaoyang climbed up on the bed, opened up her butt cheeks, and aimed the little Shaoyang to the nether region. He started the seventh round and the fourth round for Kang Xue. A different moan resounded in the room, and the battle continued for another half an hour.

He laid down on the bed, looking at the ceiling with two women on his chest. The two girls hugged him from the side. They looked tired, but they had not slept yet.

"Do you have something in your mind?" Zhang Mengyao opened the conversation. Kang Xue turned up, looking at his expression. Both seemed to realize that he had something in his mind.

"This is just a boring story. Do you want to hear it?"

By the end of his story, the two women stared at him with wide eyes. They were surprised the man had a mental meltdown yesterday. In their mind, Tang Shaoyang was not just strong physically, but he was strong mentally too. But then, it dumbfounded them that the reason why he had a mental break was them, his women.

"If you feel guilty because of me, then you don't have to. Even though there's some truth that you force yourself upon us, we choose to stay in the end. If we don't like staying on your side, we will leave by now. We are strong enough to escape from you, but here we are," Kang Xue told Tang Shaoyang her honest thought, "Of course, this is one of many reasons why I am staying with you." She grabbed the erected little Shaoyang with her right hand.

"If anything else I want from you, I think your harem is enough, no? It's not that I am greedy and that I don't want to share you with the others, but I am just afraid of future discord with the other girls. We are fine for now, but I am not sure if the number will increase. The girls are harmonious for now, but we might end up killing each other for you if somehow, you bring a psycho girl," Zhang Mengyao was serious, but Kang Xue giggled when she heard the last part.
