

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 967

Tang Shaoyang stared at the ceiling of the room, thinking of all her women's answers when he asked them about their goals. The weird thing was their goal mostly did not involve themselves, but for someone, they loved or the home they loved. Aside from Ashley, Aleesa, and Sylvia, all the women's goal was him. They wanted to be with him forever and wanted to be a help to him.

Then the girl on his chest moved slightly. He looked at the woman's face, Jasmine, The Queen of the Malecia Kingdom, and also Ava, the former Queen of the Elven Kingdom. He asked them about their goal too. Ava's answer was simple; she just wanted to enjoy the remainder of her life. That was her original goal, but it changed when she came in contact with him. She wanted to help him like the other girls.

Jasmine gave him a clearer answer as a ruler of a kingdom. "As a Queen, I don't have an ambition such as making my kingdom the mightiest kingdom or expanding the kingdom. I just want my people to have a good life and not be harmed. It's more like a duty but also my goal. As for my personal goal... I don't have any, actually. I just go with the flow, enjoying what I have."

Tang Shaoyang finally realized something about the Empire. He established an Empire because he did not want to be under someone else anymore, an Emperor. A silly reason because he just needed to be strong to protect himself if he did not want to be under someone else. Because of that silly reason, he was at a loss with the Empire. What did he want to do with the Empire? With ambition, he realized that he did not have ambition for the empire.

"Since I have built the Empire, I want it to be the most powerful empire in the world, at least, on Earth," he muttered by himself. After coming up with that, he shut his eyes. It was the first peaceful sleep ever since the realization struck him.

Tang Shaoyang did not know how long he slept, but he awakened as he felt something soft rub the little Shaoyang. He opened his eyes and looked down. The former Elven Queen, Ava, was on his crotch, spoiling little Shaoyang with her lips and tongue.

Looking at the former Queen, he felt bitter, but it was sweet sweet bitter. He never expected a Queen of a kingdom would do this before, but it happened right now. When Ava realized the man woke up, she cast a loving smile.

Jasmine's charming visage blocked the sight as she planted her lips on his. He responded to the kiss as her tongue broke into his. Their tongues intertwined as Jasmine breathed faster. Two Queens served in the morning. This was the bliss of his life, and his selfish side did not want to lose this. He hated the way he obtained their bodies, but he also did not want to lose them.

He threw the thought when he felt the little Shaoyang enter Ava's nether region. The lustful moan rang in the room as Ava moved her hip up and down. His hand subconsciously moved to Jasmine's nether region. Muffled moans escaped from Jasmine's mouth.

Ava lasted for thirteen minutes before her womb was filled with a warm liquid. Her body fell to the side afterward as she relished the sensation all over her body. Jasmine pulled Ava to the side and grabbed little Shaoyang. She did not wait any longer as she directed the erected little Shaoyang into her nether region.

"Hngggggg~" Jasmine tried to suppress her moan. She moved up and down slowly, then it got faster and faster. The Queen, who was respected by her people, made unbelievable expressions as her movements got faster and faster. After a few minutes, she let out another suppressed moan, but this time longer as she reached the climax. She stopped for a moment for a rest, but the stimulated Tang Shaoyang could not stop.

He sat up and held Jasmine's butt cheeks. Then he started to move Jasmine up and down, "Ahn~ Ahn~ Ahn~" The Malecia Kingdom Queen could no longer hold her moan. Her unrestrained voice filled the room. Meanwhile, Tang Shaoyang buried his face in the supple breasts.

Around eleven minutes later, Tang Shaoyang let out a long sigh as he released everything inside Jasmine. The Queen slumped onto her face, resting her chin on his shoulder as she tried to calm her breathing. Tang Shaoyang put his hand on her waist and lifted her up, putting her next to him. Ava was waiting for him, staring at him with her golden eyes filled with desire.

Tang Shaoyang motioned for her to come off the bed as he stood next to the bed. Ava's eyes brightened as she immediately followed him. The moment she came off the bed, she turned her back on him and bent her body to the bed, sticking out her butt to him. This was her favorite position because this way, little Shaoyang could fill her completely.

Her eyes rolled up as soon as she felt little Shaoyang enter her, "AHNNNNNN~" Tang Shaoyang started to ram her from behind, as she let out a loud moan. Ava held the position as long as she could because this was the position where she could feel all the pleasure. His hands started to grab her breasts, playing with her chest, which stimulated her even more. She did not know how long they had been in the same position, but she had reached the peak four times. When she reached a climax for the fifth time, she felt a gush of warm liquid inside her once more. She fell forward to the bed as the liquid dripped down from her nether region.

At this time, Jasmine had recovered and sat on the bed, looking at the everlasting little Shaoyang. Tang Shaoyang opened his arms, and Jasmine immediately rushed toward him. She jumped into her embrace, clinging onto him as she directed the little Shaoyang into her nether region while he held her. Yes, this was her favorite position, and Tang Shaoyang remembered all his women's favorite positions.

The morning wrestle lasted for another hour before the two women raised the white flag. They returned to their original position on the bed with Ava to his left and Jasmine to his right.

"I don't know if I should say this to you...." Ava started to speak while looking at him. There was a fear in her eyes as he looked at her, "It just does not feel right to hide it from you either. I am pregnant."
