

Army 117

Chapter 117 Blocking the retreat

The current situation ...

The Vanguard team led by red snake had been completely suppressed by Jiang Li's meches and suffered heavy losses. Even if red snake and the others joined the battle, it would be useless.

He was still being pushed back.

Furthermore ...

More and more monsters were corroded by the biochemical poison and turned into walking corpses. Jiang Li's Army seemed to be growing, which made the monsters even more terrified.

The most important thing was ...

Lan Yan tried to kill Jiang Li, but he failed and was stopped by the giant hammer mech.

In other words ...

They basically had no hope of winning.

He continued to fight.

There was only one outcome.

That would be a complete Wipeout.

so,

They had to retreat.

As for Jiang Li's information, they had to inform the Red Dragon Commandery Prince as soon as possible and let him make the decision himself because they had all underestimated Jiang Li. Jiang Li's power was far beyond what they had imagined.

Very strong!

It was extremely powerful!

Unless the Red Dragon Commandery Prince personally took action.

otherwise ...

Even if they sent out 100000 demon soldiers, they might not be able to take Jiang Li down.

the nightmare beast roared.

“Retreat!”

Hu Tianling shouted.

Bat Yeming shouted.

The red snake's full-power attack forced back several electric meches and quickly left the battlefield.

“Retreat?”

Jiang Li had recovered. His face was still pale, but his qi and blood had calmed down. He looked at the blue flames in the air with fear and didn't hide his killing intent at all. I won't give you a chance to escape.

“One hundred perfected-stage level two electric meches, it's your turn.”

shua! Shua! “Whoosh!”

The hundred perfected-stage level two electric-powered meches that had been lying in wait for a long time came out one after another. They stood in a row and blocked the entire road, blocking the retreat of the demon Army.

“You're looking for death! Get lost!”

Bi 'an beast charged at the very front. He was three meters tall and had a huge body, like a miniature giant. The weapon he held in his hand was a huge long blade.

Shua!

the power of his bloodline surged, and a fierce tiger phantom appeared. black bloodline mist condensed and turned into a huge saber radiance that slashed forward.

“Electric energy control!”

Kachaa!

The two electric-powered meches joined hands. Lightning-like electric arcs surrounded their bodies and then gathered in their hands, creating dazzling electric light.

The palm print was like thunder.

“BOOM!”

An explosion sounded.

“Ah!”

Kui shouye let out a blood-curdling screech as the black blade light was shattered. His massive body was sent flying, knocking away several demon soldiers. He spat out blood and crashed to the ground.

second-tier Suan ni, perfected stage two!

Beast Tamer ye was dumbstruck. He coughed up blood as he stared at the figure in front of him. His voice was filled with disbelief. how is this possible?!

“Kill!”

Kachaa! kachaa!

The hundred perfected-stage level two electric meches shouted in unison and activated the skill ‘electric energy control’. A large amount of lightning appeared all over their bodies, and it was extremely dazzling.

the electric arcs were like long snakes dancing in the air. it was a magnificent sight.

BOOM! boom! BOOM!

A hundred perfected stage-two experts charged into the demon Army. It was like a tiger charging into a flock of sheep. No demon could stop them. Even a stage-two demon was killed with a single palm.

Only the red snake and the others could resist it.

even a late-stage rank two could only block a few moves.

“Attack with full force and annihilate the enemy!”

stop! Jiang Li shouted.

da da da da

The firearm mech fired crazily. Countless bullets formed a rain of bullets. The muzzle spat out fire and the smell of gunpowder was extremely thick.

“Ah!”

Countless demon soldiers were either dead or injured, and it was extremely tragic.

“General!”

In the air.

The two adjutants of the blue flame Army were pale. The battlefield below had gradually turned into a one-sided massacre. The demon soldiers of the vanguard Army were killed one after another.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The anti-aircraft cannons fired continuously, blasting away demon soldiers one after another.

“Retreat!”

lan yan looked at the 100 figures of the perfected stage of tier 2 with a grave expression. he even felt his hands and feet turn cold.

it was too terrifying.

“Make him stay!”

Jiang Li stared at the blue flame.

JJ01 switched to an energy bullet magazine and fired a shot. The energy bullet tore through the air, broke through the sound barrier, and instantly shot toward the blue flames.

“This can’t hurt me.”

Thump!

The blue flame spear thrust out and blocked the energy bomb.

“Bombard him to death!”

Humph! Jiang Li snorted. He mobilized a hundred perfected-stage transport meches and aimed a hundred 130mm anti-aircraft guns at the blue flame.

one had to know.

Among the vanguard troops of the demon race.

The blue flame was the biggest threat to Jiang Li. It could fly, was powerful, and was extremely fast. If the giant hammer meches weren't elite soldiers, they might not be able to stop the blue flame.

so,

Lan Yan had to die.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The cannoneers adjusted the angle of the cannons and fired at the same time. A hundred cannonballs broke through the air and bombarded the blue flames.

“This is a Kasaya.”

Lan Yan's pupils contracted. He felt a fatal danger.

“Whoosh!”

without any hesitation.

the blue flames moved at full speed, and the wings flapped. the blue silk dharma form let out a long cry, and its speed was pushed to the limit. its body was like an extreme blue stream of light.

He dodged it!

With his speed, the blue flames dodged the anti-aircraft missiles one after another!

“Pfft!”

In the end.

only ten cannonballs hit the blue flames.

“damn it!”

Lan Yan vomited blood, and his injuries worsened. The blue hair on his body fell off, and the Tier 2 peak-grade blue scale armor he wore cracked.

Obviously.

The transport meches were different from the cannoneers. Their main function was to transport, and the cannoneers didn’t have accurate firing skills.

Plus ...

Anti-aircraft guns were rigid and could not fire flexibly.

Of course.

The most important thing was that the cannoneers didn’t have the corresponding skills.

For example, JJ01.

He now had gun fighting technique and Eagle Eye.

during a battle, the two skills could be used to predict and block the enemy’s movement trajectory, lock onto the target, and hit the enemy.

The blue flames could avoid the anti-aircraft guns, but they could not avoid JJ01’s shots.

“Rumble!”

Nearly a hundred cannonballs exploded in the air.

“Ah!”

although the blue flames dodged the cannonballs, the cannonballs continued to bombard the other birdman demon soldiers. the explosions killed many demon soldiers.

Another thousand demon soldiers died.

Even the two adjutants of blue flame were injured.

“what kind of power does jiang li have? How can he make such a terrifying weapon with such destructive power and range? it’s a perfect weapon for the battlefield.”

Lan Yan’s gaze was grave.

“Continue!”

stop! Jiang Li shouted.

kachaa! Kachaa!

The hundred mech artilleries adjusted the angle of their cannons and loaded the cannonballs. They aimed at the blue flames and prepared for the next round of fire.

Lan Yan’s pupils contracted.

Obviously.

Even if the blue flames could Dodge most of the cannonballs, they couldn’t Dodge all of them. As his injuries worsened, he would definitely be exhausted to death.

“Jiang Li!”

The next moment.

The blue flames were determined to go all out.

He let out a long roar and the power of his bloodline erupted. Blue flames erupted like a volcano and shot into the sky. The blue silk Dharma form let out a long cry that resounded throughout the entire battlefield.

“Blue flame general!”

The red snake raised its head. There was a black palm print on its chest. It had obviously been hit by the electric-powered mech. Blood flowed from the corner of its mouth.

“Burn your bloodline!”

Bat Yeming’s eyes widened. the blue flame general is going all out.

“I’ve been forced to this extent.”

Hu Tianling’s heart was filled with shock.

The nightmare beast also raised its head to look up. you must succeed!

die! Lan Yan roared. His body was like fire. Lan Xiao’s Dharma form merged into one and turned into an extreme flaming spear. It pierced through the void and charged at Jiang Li.

Burning his bloodline!

This was the monster race's last resort, but it was an ability that only monsters with third-grade bloodlines or above could have. Lan Yan's bloodline was third-grade.

After burning his bloodline.

The blue flame's strength was virtually infinitely close to initial-stage Tier 3.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

Hundreds of anti-aircraft guns fired at the same time, and the shells crossed the sky and bombarded the blue flames.

“Whoosh!”

The blue flame's speed suddenly increased, and it dodged in the air. It was as if a spear burning with blue flames had a mind of its own, dodging the cannonballs one after another.

Bang! Bang! bang! bang! Bang! Bang!

JJ01 fired three shots in a row. Three platinum-colored energy bullets formed a triangle and locked down Lan Yan's position. All of them hit Lan Yan.

but ...

All the energy bombs exploded.

However ...

After receiving JJ01's attack, although the blue flames had destroyed it, his movement technique had been affected. He was hit by the remaining 10 anti-aircraft cannon shells.

“Rumble!”

The Cannonball landed on his body and exploded into flames that filled the sky.

It could be seen.

the intensity of the blue flame's aura had clearly decreased.

Shua!

However, he still charged at Jiang Li.

kachaa! Kachaa!

SH01 removed the weapons from his arms. His arms were twisted and transformed into two scythes of flesh and blood. He activated his [biohazard] ability.

“Whoosh!!!”

The biochemical fog surrounded his body.

“Kill!”

SH01 was the first to charge forward. He crossed his two blades and slashed out, forming an ‘x’ shaped blood-red blade aura.

“shake!”

BOOM!

Wang Gang shouted and punched out with both fists, which caused a violent shock. Ripples spread out and the power of the shock exploded.

“Meteor strike!”

Finally.

The giant hammer mech roared and attacked with all his might. The giant hammer fell from the sky like a small hill.

The air waves rolled!

“Rumble!”

The three perfected-stage level two meches all had strong close-range combat abilities. They clashed with the blue flame spear at the same time, making a loud sound.

Kachaa! Kachaa!

The ground cracked and spiderweb-like cracks spread out.

Bang! Bang!

jj01 fired another shot from a distance. the energy bullet tore through the air and hit the blue flame spear with a loud bang.

“Pfft!”

Lan Yan coughed up blood, his face as white as a sheet.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The blue flames scattered in all directions.

“Pfft!”

Kachaa!

SH01's flesh scythe was broken, and blood splattered everywhere. His body was sent flying over a hundred meters away, smashing into a large tree in the distance.

“Thump!”

Wang Gang's arms were twisted, with electric sparks and blue flames covering his body. He was also sent flying.

BOOM!

Finally.

The mech's meteorites were also blocked. The powerful force was dissolved. The giant hammer mech was pushed back more than ten meters before he could stabilize himself.

* cough cough *

The blue flames seemed to be extinguished.

Lan Yan was coughing up blood. His face was pale, and he held the spear in his hand. He raised his head, and his face was thin, but he carried a fierce evil aura.

Jiang Li, you've lost.

The blue flame raised the spear in its hand, gathering the last of its power.

“Is that so?”

let's go. Jiang Li waved his right hand calmly.

After that.

A hundred mech drivers rushed out of the hundred transport trucks behind Jiang Li.

He stood in front of Jiang Li.

One had to know.

Although the mech drivers weren't combat soldiers, they were perfected-stage level two meches.

“Kill him!”

Jiang Li said.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The hundred mech drivers didn't say a word and punched at Lan Yan at the same time. Lan Yan saw a hundred sandbag-sized fists hitting his face.

This time.

Lan Yan was dumbfounded. He was completely dumbfounded. He was roaring in his heart. 'We've already fought so far, and you're still hiding 100 subordinates at the perfected stage of Tier 2? how the!! ck are we going to play?! “!! ck you!
