Chapter 122 Promotion

“Eh?!”

soul Tinder? ” Jiang Li was stunned because he just remembered something. I almost forgot that the resources needed for an elite troop to upgrade are twice as much as a normal troop. In other words, an elite troop needs two level-three soul Tinders to upgrade to level three.

“I only have one in my hands at the moment,” alright, it seems like I can give up on being promoted to an elite troop class. There’s no need to be so conflicted.

Soon after.

Jiang Li opened the information of JJ01, SH01, and GD01, Wang Gang, and showed it to him.

“Which one should I promote?”

Jiang Li muttered to himself.

you must know that the reason why I didn’t hesitate to risk all the soul Tinders to fuse a level-three soul Tinder was not to kill the enemy, but to ensure my own safety.

SH01. Jiang Li murmured, “JJ01 is powerful, but it can’t protect me. Wang Gang is good at close combat, but he’s not as good as SH01.

“SH01 is considered to be a more perfect type of troop type among the 1st tier ones.”

not only does he have long-range attack abilities, but he also has extremely strong close-combat strength. His biochemical physique can even repair his own injuries. He’s a pretty strong meat shield.

“Then it’s decided.”

jiang li took a deep breath and made the final decision. “upgrade biochemical mech no. sh01.”

Soon after.

Jiang Li summoned biochemical mech SH01 to his bedroom.

Buzzzzzz!

Jiang Li operated the Dominator panel and used the only level-three soul Tinder and 10000 energy points to upgrade Biomech SH01 to level three.

Shua! Shua!

The pure white level-three soul Tinder was integrated into the body of biochemical mech SH01, and 10000 energy points were also integrated.

His entire body flickered with light.

It was undergoing an all-rounded transformation and upgrade of SH01.

A few seconds later.

The light disappeared.

The promotion was completed.

The biochemical mech SH01’s appearance changed. The rocket launcher on its right arm and the rotating gatling cannon on its left arm disappeared.

At the same time.

The red leather clothes had turned black, and the leather armor covered his entire body. He was 2.1 meters tall, and his body was burly and strong, like a small giant. He had no hair or eyebrows.

He took a closer look.

SH01's entire body seemed to be covered with a layer of dark light.

Shua!

[unit type: psionic biochemical soldiers]

[rank: early stage of rank three]

[No.: Ynsh01]

“skill 1: level-one ultimate biochemical poison skill 2: rank-two ultimate biochemical physique skill 3: level three low-grade psionic control biochemical machinery: Chi Chi (omitted) ”

[mechanical psionic energy: a special type of mechanical psionic energy that is converted from the ‘machinery heart’. it has a strong destructive power and requires the skill’ psionic control ‘to control it.]

“advancement requirement: 200000 energy points

Detailed information appeared.

“Psionic bio-soldiers.”

mech? “Jiang Li looked at the tall mech and sized it up. He clearly felt a sense of pressure. It was much stronger than the blue flames.

After all ...

The blue flames were forcibly advanced by burning one’s bloodline, and it had yet to reach the third level. It was only infinitely close to the early stage of the third level, but the psionic biochemical soldier in front of him was a genuine third level.

“Good, very good.”

Jiang Li was quite satisfied with this promotion.

Psionic bio-soldier.

The small ‘psionic cannons’ on both shoulders could gather psionic energy and fire psionic cannonballs. They were powerful, even more powerful than the cannons of the mechanical artillery.

In addition, he had close-combat abilities and could control his underlings with biochemical toxins.

It was a troop type that was developed in all aspects.

The only flaw was ...

The psionic bio-soldiers did not have exclusive equipment.

His military rank had also been promoted from first lieutenant to first lieutenant.

Shua!

The Dominator panel opened.

The number of energy points had been reduced to 992475 points, falling below one million.

“Upgrade the psionic biochemical weapon.”

Jiang Li used 200000 energy points.

Buzzzzzz!

Several rays of light flashed on the body of the psionic biochemical soldier, and it had completed its advancement. It had advanced from the early stage of the third level to the middle stage of the third level, but there were no changes to its appearance.

His strength had increased.

“again,”

...

Jiang Li gritted his teeth and used 400000 energy points to upgrade the psionic biochemical soldier to the late stage of level three.

This time.

The power of the psionic biochemical weapon increased greatly. Black psionic luster flowed around its body like a stream of water, slowly disappearing.

At the same time.

The psionic bio-soldier’s military rank had reached lieutenant colonel.

Ynsh01 was the highest rank among all the meches Jiang Li had.

“guard the door and ensure my safety.”

go! Jiang Li ordered.

“Yes.”

Ynsh01 nodded and left the bedroom. He stood at the door like a statue, not moving, but he could sense everything around him.

“I can finally sleep in peace.”

okay. Jiang Li relaxed.

That night.

It was a night worth celebrating for Jiang Li.

Jiang Li had a powerful level-three troop class.

But at this moment.

At the border between Red Dragon County and Yehuang County.

boom! boom! BOOM!

In the air.

There were two figures fighting in the air, and the sound of a boom resounded in all directions. The clash of powerful bloodline powers produced a terrifying aftermath, crushing the surrounding trees and cracking the ground.

The ice cold Lake even had huge waves.

Roar!

suddenly.

A red flood Dragon appeared and rushed forward.

Clang!

the golden sword radiance slashed down, as if boundless sword qi had gathered. it collided with the red flood dragon in the air, and the two sides clashed continuously before both of them were annihilated.

In reality.

Since the start of the battle.

Red Dragon and Ye Huang had exhausted a lot of their energy. Their abilities were almost the same, and it was difficult to determine a winner in their battle. That was why the battle for the spiritual herbs had been delayed until now.

“Red Dragon, how about you give me this grade seven Ice Spirit Lotus?”

at this moment.

Both sides stopped.

Ye Huang stood in the air with his sword in his right hand. The golden sword glowed with an extremely sharp aura. His long hair fluttered behind him and he had delicate features.

“on what basis?”

The Red Dragon was in another direction. His body was burning with red flames, and behind him was a lifelike red flood Dragon with red hair and eyebrows.

“red dragon, your bloodline is of the red flood dragon and is of the fire attribute. the grade seven ice spirit lotus is a grade three ice attribute elixir. even if you get it, it won’t be of much use to you.”

Ye Huang said.

“So what?”

even if I can’t use it, ” the Red Dragon said arrogantly, ” I can exchange it for spirit herbs that I can use. Why should I give it to you? ”

“i can compensate you.”

ye huang frowned.

“What kind of compensation?”

The Red Dragon asked.

“This is it.”

shua!

Ye Huang waved his left hand and a red flame flashed. He opened his hand and a crystal clear pearl appeared in his palm. It was red all over and there seemed to be lava flowing inside.

“The volcanic Pearl!”

The Red Dragon recognized it at a glance.

“Yes, I am.”

Ye Huang nodded, ” although the value of the volcanic Pearl can’t be compared to the grade seven Ice Spirit Lotus, it’s still a grade three treasure. Moreover, it’s of the fire element. It should be enough as compensation.

“This bi an ...”

The Red Dragon muttered to himself as his eyes flickered with greed.

Shua!

Suddenly.

A figure was rushing over.

“My King, I have something to report.”

The figure knelt on the ground.

“What’s the matter?”

The Red Dragon lowered its head and asked in a deep voice.

“Please take a look, my King.”

The figure took out a letter.

shua!

The Red Dragon waved his right hand, and the letter flew into his hand. He opened it and read ten lines at a glance.

“Whoosh!!!”

The next moment.

The letter was burned to ashes, and the Red dragon’s eyes were filled with coldness. The flames danced, as if they had formed a ferocious Ghost Face.

His killing intent surged.

“jiang li!” the vanguards he sent were all killed by jiang li.

“i’ve really underestimated you.”

the red dragon snorted coldly.

“I agree to it.”

“however, one volcano pearl is not enough. i still need you to lend me 50000 demon soldiers. otherwise, don’t even think about getting the grade seven ice spirit lotus.”

“you’re so silly!”

Ye Huang’s expression darkened. Crimson Dragon, don’t push your luck.

“So there’s no room for discussion?”

The Red Dragon shouted.

“Roar!”

The red flood Dragon roared.

you're so silly. Fifty thousand is too much. I can only lend you thirty thousand at most.

Ye Huang thought about it and finally compromised.

This was because the grade-seven Ice Spirit Lotus was extremely important to him. If he could get a grade-three Alchemist to help him refine the grade-seven Ice Spirit Lotus into a grade-three elixir, Ye Huang would have the chance to break through again and increase his strength.

“Thirty thousand it is.”

the red dragon nodded.

On the second day.

The 30,000 demon soldiers of yehuang County arrived at Red Dragon County and met up with the Army of Red Dragon County. Although the 30000 demon soldiers of yehuang County were not elite demon soldiers, they did not use the old, weak, sick, and disabled to fool Red Dragon.

Red Dragon County.

In the military camp.

70,000 demon soldiers gathered and stood in neat rows, forming three major armies. Looking out, they were filled with the aura of iron and blood.

“Very good,” he said.

The Red Dragon walked over and stood at the highest point, looking down at the demon soldiers.

“I kneel before the Prince of Red Dragon County!”

The next moment.

Led by the generals, the 70000 demon soldiers knelt on one knee and shouted in unison.

It was menacing and unstoppable.

This was definitely a strong Army.

” the red dragon county’s army can’t be underestimated. this force is truly powerful. ”

On the other side.

Ye Zhihe, the commander of the 30000 demon troops of Ye Huang, took a deep breath. His eyes were slightly respectful as he looked at the 70000 demon troops in front of him.

“Commander, from the looks of it, Red Dragon is planning to mobilize all the demon soldiers of Red Dragon County. In addition to our 30000 demon soldiers, there are a total of 100000 demon soldiers.”

The Deputy commander Xiong de whispered in ye Zhihe’s ear, ” “100000 demon soldiers, led by a 3rd rank Red Dragon. What are they doing? Attack which place?”

“I’m not too sure.”

Ye Zhihe shook his head. I don’t think Junwang yehuang knows either.

“All troops, move out!”

The Red Dragon looked at his Army with satisfaction. The cavalry, Air Force, bow, and infantry. The four great armies worked together to form a powerful demon Army. our target is the Black Dragon County of the great Qian dynasty!

“yes!”

“All troops, attack!”

All the regiment commanders shouted loudly.

“The Red Dragon is actually going to attack the great gan Lord dynasty.”

xiong de was stunned. “and it’s the black dragon county.”

“Don’t just stand there. All troops, follow.”

Ye Zhihe shouted.
