

Army 123

Chapter 123 admiral

At noon.

Jiang Li felt like he had rested enough.

He once again gathered his forces.

In the military camp that had not been built yet.

more than 30000 soldiers, including the walking corpse puppets, gathered and formed several corps.

Since Jiang Li already had a level-three psionic biochemical weapon, he became more daring.

One had to know.

let's go. Jiang Li had already taken care of the vanguard, which was the Alliance of the four cities of Red Dragon County.

In other words ...

The four demon cities in Red Dragon County were currently unguarded.

so,

jiang li planned to attack the demon city in red dragon county today and plunder resources. with the mobility of the meches, he could travel between red dragon county and black dragon county in one day.

He left after the fight.

The most important thing was ...

Jiang Li didn't have many energy points left. He only had 392475 energy points left. He didn't even have 400000 energy points. He couldn't even upgrade his psionic biochemical soldier to the perfected stage of level three.

Jiang Li needed to replenish his energy points urgently.

The best way.

That was to take down the demon City of Red Dragon County.

Since Jiang Li couldn't find anyone to trade with and the half-monster Alliance had disappeared, the four major cities of the Black Dragon County had basically bought all the common herbs.

He could go to other counties in the great gan dynasty, but the distance was too far and it would take a lot of time.

There was more.

Jiang Li had almost used up all the wealth he got from the green scale city last time. He only had about seven million taels of gold left.

Seven million gold coins

Actually, it was not a small amount.

“City Lord, gather the troops. Are you going to exterminate the monsters again?”

Hong Tianqi looked at the regrouped troops, swallowed his saliva and asked in a low voice.

“is there a problem?”

Jiang Li glanced at it.

“There’s no Qianqian, there’s no Qianqian at all”

” no! ” hong tianqi quickly waved his hand. ” my lord, you are a god at commanding troops. your powerful troops are invincible. you can easily destroy the monster race. ”

however, I just want to remind you that the Commandery Prince of Red Dragon County, Red Dragon, is most likely a third-rank demon who has just awakened his bloodline.

“City Lord, you have to be careful.”

“Yes, yes.”

In the surroundings.

Hu Dong and the others agreed.

it could be said that ...

Hong Tianqi, Hu Dong, Xu Ya, and the others were already in the same boat as Jiang Li. If something happened to Jiang Li, they wouldn’t be able to survive.

“Third rank.”

Jiang Li smiled and looked at the psionic biochemical soldier on his right.

I have one too!

“Where’s County Lord han? I don’t think I’ve seen him today.”

Jiang Li looked around.

One had to know.

If han Liqi had known that he was gathering his Army to once again 'exterminate the demons', he would definitely have come. However, he had not seen him today.

He was a little surprised.

County Lord han has been waiting at the city gate since this morning. He seems to be waiting for someone.

Hong Tianqi said.

"I'm waiting for someone."

jiang li raised his eyebrows. " who is it that made the state lord wait at the city gate so early in the morning? it seems that someone important is coming to great xia city. "

"it's possible."

Hong Tianqi said.

"let's go," he said.

let's go. Jiang Li waved his hand. let's go and see it too.

"Yes, city Lord."

okay. Hong Tianqi, Xu Ya, and the others nodded. They looked at each other and immediately followed Jiang Li.

At the city gate.

Han Liqi had indeed been standing there for a long time. His eyes were looking out, and his body was covered in frost. There were several subordinates following him.

“City Lord,”

“greetings, city lord.”

“General Hong.”

In the surroundings.

The city guards and the residents saluted and greeted him with respect.

“City Lord, why have you come?”

han liqi heard the noise and turned around. he saw jiang li and unconsciously used honorifics to show his respect.

I heard that county Lord han has been waiting at the city gate since this morning. I’m curious as to which Lord from the Imperial court could make County Lord han so respectful.

Jiang Li smiled. that’s why I’m here. I want to see it.

“Ah,” he said.

han liqi seemed to have just reacted and said apologetically, ” “City Lord Jiang, it was my mistake. I didn’t inform you in advance that Jiang Boyi, Admiral Jiang, would be coming from the capital today.”

“Inspector.”

Hong Tianqi’s pupils contracted.

Suddenly.

The sound of horse hooves came from the front.

Everyone looked up.

There were a total of five people.

They were all riding horses, no carriages.

He took a closer look.

The horses these five people were riding on were all extraordinary. Their bodies were covered with shiny black scales, and their hooves were covered with fiery red fur. They were extremely handsome.

Not only that.

The horse in the lead had a spiral-shaped horn on its forehead, which glowed faintly.

“We welcome you to the great Xia city, Admiral Jiang!”

Han Liqi immediately knelt on the ground and shouted with respect.

“Welcome, Admiral Jiang.”

Soon after.

Han Liqi's subordinates and constables all knelt down to pay their respects.

"Yes."

The five people on horses stopped at the city gate.

soon after.

The five of them got off their horses one by one.

Jiang Boyi stood in the middle of the five people. He was 1.9 meters tall, had a square face, thick eyebrows, and big eyes. There was a strong murderous aura between his eyebrows, and he was very majestic.

He was wearing light leather armor and the weapon at his waist was a nine-chain machete.

The remaining four.

They were naturally Jiang Boyi's subordinates. They were half a step behind Jiang Boyi, expressionless, and their right hands were gently placed on the hilt of the saber at their waist, constantly alert of their surroundings.

They could react in an instant if there were any unusual movements.

"You may rise."

Jiang Boyi lowered his head and looked at Han Liqi.

"Thank you, commander."

Han Liqi quickly stood up and bent his back slightly, showing extreme humility. Admiral, you have traveled a long way from the capital. You must be tired. I have already prepared a banquet to welcome you. Please move to the county office and rest.

“No need.”

Jiang Boyi waved his hand and looked a little proud. I’m here with King Qian’s imperial edict. The matter is urgent and can’t be delayed. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have come on a horse.

“Let’s get straight to business.”

“Yes, yes, yes.”

Han Liqi was stunned for a moment, then he wiped the sweat off his forehead.

“Jiang Li.”

Immediately.

Jiang Boyi looked at Jiang Li who was standing next to him.

In reality.

Since Jiang Boyi came to great Xia city, he had been sizing up Jiang Li with a hint of disdain.

Obviously.

Jiang Boyi didn’t expect this.

what? ” Jiang Li, who had been famous for a long time, had such a low cultivation and shallow internal force. He had only just opened one Meridian.

Such strength.

He could kill them with one finger.

so,

Jiang Boyi even doubted whether the rumors were true or false.

How could a martial artist with such a weak cultivation kill a single-line snake Army? Could he kill the Ouroboros? could he annihilate 30000 demon soldiers? It was truly a fantasy.

However ...

He hadn't come to the great Xia city to investigate whether this matter was true or false, nor had he come to investigate anything. Rather, he had come to investigate the rumored 'ancient puppetry'.

"Commander Jiang."

Jiang Li cupped his hands and greeted.

"Yes."

Jiang Boyi nodded with a calm expression. He then took out the Imperial edict from his arms and slowly unfolded it. He then shouted, " " jiang li, the lord of the great xia city. "

"It's an imperial edict!"

Han Liqi immediately knelt down.

"....."

Jiang Li didn't move.

huh?!

Jiang Boyi frowned. Jiang Li, seeing the Imperial edict is like seeing King Qian. Why didn't you kneel? " okay. Jiang Li smiled.

“Why should I kneel?”

one had to know.

” i’m sorry. ” jiang li killed the monsters, the ouroboros, and the monster army, but king qian didn’t reward him. instead, he abandoned him for his own benefit and false peace.

Such a great Qian imperial court ...

To tell the truth.

jiang li didn’t agree with her at all.

If it wasn’t for the fact that he wasn’t strong enough and the conditions didn’t allow him to do so, Jiang Li would’ve killed his way into the capital of da Qian and replaced King Qian.

It was just an imperial edict, and they wanted Jiang Li to kneel.

Simply dreaming!

“How audacious!”

Shua! Shua!

the next moment.

the four subordinates behind jiang boyi pulled out the long knives at their waists in unison. their internal strength surged, and an extremely powerful aura burst out.

They were actually four martial artists of perfected stage-two!

“Is the perfected stage of Tier 2 very strong?”

Jiang Li sneered and waved his right hand.

Shua! Shua! Shua!

The next moment.

Wang Gang, JC01, and CQ01 rushed out from the side and blocked Jiang Li’s way.

Kachaa!

On the city wall.

JJ01 raised his sniper rifle and aimed the pitch-black muzzle downward. GJS01 stood beside JJ01, the longbow in his hand was pulled into a full moon shape.

Instantly.

The four subordinates behind Jiang Boyi felt a terrifying pressure. They felt a faint chill in their hearts and sweat appeared on their foreheads.

Even though ...

They didn’t sense any blood or internal force fluctuations from these people, but they instinctively felt the danger of death.

there’s no blood Qi or internal force, but it has this kind of pressure.

Jiang Boyi’s eyes lit up and he looked at Jiang Li. He shouted in joy, ” Jiang Li, you’ve indeed mastered the ‘ancient puppetry’.

“Your subordinates are all puppets, right?”

” interesting. you’re only at the early stage of level one, and you’ve only just condensed your inner energy and opened up one meridian, but you can create a puppet at the perfected stage of level two.

“This ability has truly made me look at you in a new light.”

“ancient puppetry.”

Jiang Li shrugged. if you think so, then so be it.

“Jiang Li, please accept the decree.”

Jiang Boyi read out loud to the Imperial edict, ” I heard that city Lord Jiang has the inheritance of the ancient puppetry technique. I’m very curious and want to see how amazing it is.

“Order Jiang Li, the castellan of the great Xia city, to present the ‘ancient puppet technique’ without any mistake.”

Although there were only a few words on the Imperial edict, it was filled with an unquestionable and absolute order.

This was normal.

King Qian was the ruler of the great Qian dynasty and a country.

He had a high status.

This was because in King Qian’s opinion, everything that appeared in the great gan dynasty would belong to him. If he wanted it, no one could stop him.

There was a saying,”under the heavens, it is the king’s land, and the people who lead the land on the shore are the king’s subjects.”

Jiang Li was a member of the Qian dynasty and the Lord of the great Xia city.

That was Wang Chen.

If the monarch wanted the subject to die, the subject had to die.

Not to mention, I just want something from you.

how dare you not give it to me!

“No, I didn’t,”

Jiang Boyi. Jiang Li narrowed his eyes and looked at Jiang Boyi, then said calmly.
