

Army 129

Chapter 129 Long-range bombing

In the image.

The demon Army that was 30000 meters away from the great Xia city was marching at an extremely fast speed. They were planning to attack the great Xia city tonight and take it down.

finally, they would massacre the entire city!

“Red Dragon Commandery Prince, with our marching speed, we will arrive at the great Xia city in about half an hour.”

The purple lightning Wings said.

He would be there in half an hour.

In other words ...

In half an hour, they could travel 30 kilometers. If the speed of the Army was converted to the speed of a car, it would be about 60 miles an hour.

he was definitely not slow.

The reason why the marching speed was so fast was naturally because of the reinforcement of the marching army formation.

“Report!”

Suddenly.

The captain of the reconnaissance Air Force quickly flew over and shouted, "a large number of unidentified flying objects have been discovered ahead. They are approaching at an extremely fast speed.

"an unidentified flying object?"

"What do you mean?"

"What's the specific?"

The purple lightning Wings and the other commanders and generals asked.

"This is an ..."

the captain of the reconnaissance air force was stunned for a moment. he couldn't explain it clearly for a while. "from afar, it looks like a ball of fire, but it's not. "

"That's why I can't be sure,"

"all troops, be on guard!"

Lankard shouted.

"there's no harm in being careful."

Ye Zhihe nodded.

"Be alert."

The purple lightning Wings said.

I'd like to see what Jiang Li is going to do.

the red dragon looked up at the sky.

shua! shua! Shua!

The next moment.

500 cannonballs appeared in the sky above the demon Army. With a brilliant blaze, they fell directly on the 100000 demon soldiers below.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! boom!

It exploded!

The 500 cannonballs landed accurately in the middle of the Army and exploded one after another, filling the sky with flames. The blast waves spread in all directions, and shrapnel flew everywhere, tearing the demon soldiers' bodies apart.

He looked around.

It was as if a flower had blossomed in the center, beautiful and gorgeous.

“Ah!”

what is this thing?!

“Help! Help me!”

“Pfft!”

He screamed.

A large number of demon soldiers screamed in pain as they were directly blown to death by the cannonballs. The level-one demon soldiers were still fine, but those below level-one were directly killed.

Heavy casualties!

instantly.

The demon General’s eyes widened in shock. He was completely dumbfounded.

how is this possible?!

” what kind of weapon is this?! ”

how can there be such terrifying destructive power?!

furthermore, they’re flying over. You must know that the great Xia city is nearly 30 kilometers away from us. This ... This ... This ...

the demons were shocked.

“jiang li!”

The Red dragon’s eyes turned completely dark. The flames around him danced, and an extremely deep dragon roar came from his body.

...

He had miscalculated!

The Red Dragon had miscalculated.

He had thought that the things flying in the air would not have much destructive power and would at most be similar to trebuchets. He did not expect that they would cause such great damage.

“Hahahahaha!”

hahaha ... Jiang Li laughed loudly. Through xx01’s projection, he clearly saw the 500 cannonballs in the middle of the demon Army and how much damage they had caused.

A rough estimation.

At least five thousand demon soldiers had died!

Of course.

most of those who died were demon soldiers below level one.

“Continue!”

good! Jiang Li was excited. The destructive power of the mechanical artilleries didn’t disappoint him. Two million energy points and eight level-two soul Tinders weren’t wasted. bombard them!

...

I’d like to see how many demon soldiers will be left after the bombardment of two thousand mechanical artilleries over a distance of thirty kilometers.

“Yes!”

Yes, sir! the cannons responded in unison and continued to use their skills to lock onto the long-range target.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The next moment.

Another round of bombardment.

The 500 cannonballs flew into the sky with dazzling flames. The initial speed of the cannonballs had already reached nearly 1000 meters per second, which had long surpassed the speed of sound.

“Be careful!”

“Hurry up! Set up the Army formation!”

“We can’t let them fall into the Army!”

“Intercept! Intercept!”

The generals and commanders of the demon Army widened their eyes and gave their orders. They were no longer as calm as they were before.

BOOM!

The purple thunder wings shot out an arrow. The arrow pierced through the air with a flash of lightning and pierced through one of the cannonballs. It was killing two birds with one stone.

bang! Bang!

The Cannonball exploded in the air.

Bang! Bang! bang! bang! Bang! Bang!

It could be seen.

Many of the Stage 2 generals made their moves, leaping into the air and intercepting the incoming cannonballs, causing them to explode in the air.

“Roar!”

Furthermore ...

The Army formation rotated, forming a huge beast shadow with great power. It pounced into the sky and blocked the bombardment of the cannonballs. The surroundings were filled with the smell of smoke.

“They’ve all been intercepted.”

Jiang Li raised his eyebrows.

Obviously.

The battle didn’t go as smoothly as Jiang Li expected.

The first round of bombardment.

Due to Red Dragon and the rest’s carelessness, the 500 cannonballs exploded in the middle of the demon Army, killing more than 5000 demon soldiers.

After the second round of long-range bombardment, they were more alert and immediately thought of a way to deal with it. They relied on their stage two general to intercept the shells in the air.

Moreover, the power of the Army formation was not weak.

“i don’t have much, but i have enough cannonballs and energy points to replenish my ammunition.”

Humph! Jiang Li snorted. keep firing. Five hundred artillerymen in one round. Keep firing. I’d like to see how many of them can stop.

Yes, sir! the artillery carried out Jiang Li’s order loyally.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

Behind the city wall.

the mech artilleries fired round after round, with 500 shells in one round, forming a seamless chain, allowing for continuous long-range bombardment.

Under the night sky.

One by one, the artillery shells shot into the sky, bringing with them trails of flames. The incomparably dense smoke filled the great Xia city.

“Rumble!”

The Army formation started to move. All the second-rank generals took action and blocked the cannonballs. However, some of them still managed to slip through the net and caused losses to the demon soldiers.

The most important thing was ...

due to the long-range bombardment of the mechanical artillery, their marching speed was slow. if this continued, they didn’t know when they would reach great xia city.

half an hour later.

Under the continuous bombardment of the mechanical artilleries, the demon Army’s formation was in a mess. The ground around them was full of holes caused by the shells.

“Pfft!”

In order to block the cannonballs, there were already Level 2 demon generals who were injured by the cannonballs. They coughed out blood and their armor was cracked.

Unfortunately ...

The cannon soldiers were all at the early stage of Stage 2.

If the artillery squad reached the perfected stage of Tier 2, they would need to reach the perfected stage of Tier 2 to intercept the cannonballs. Otherwise, even if they managed to intercept the cannonballs, they would still be killed.

BOOM!

The Red Dragon leaped into the air with the red heavenly halberd in his hand. His figure broke through the sky like a flood Dragon emerging from the sea. His body was burning with red flames as he swept the halberd in all directions.

In that instant.

a blazing flame spread forward and enveloped the area.

Bang Bang Bang Bang!

the cannonballs were all sent flying by the red dragon's halberd. they exploded in the air, setting off a shock wave that forced the red dragon back.

"This Red Dragon."

"you're a level-three monster indeed. you've just awakened your bloodline. you've knocked back so many cannonballs with one attack."

"He is indeed powerful."

“junwang,”

The purple lightning Wings and the others cried out in alarm.

“I’m fine,” she said.

The Red Dragon took a deep breath and descended from the sky, riding on the back of a male lion. His eyes were cold as he looked up in the direction of the great Xia city.

” pass down my order. activate the ‘crimson dragon army formation’ and rush to the great xia city at all costs. even if there are casualties, it’s fine. ”

The Red Dragon said in a deep voice.

“Yes!”

“Yes, sir!”

The purple lightning Wings, lang kede, and the other commanders nodded and passed on Red Dragon’s order.

Jiang Li, I’ve underestimated you.

The Red dragon’s eyes were gloomy and his voice was low. the Army has yet to reach the great Xia city. They are only halfway through, and you have already given me such a big gift.

I’ve never heard of such a method of bombing from such a long distance.

“don’t worry, i will personally wring your head off and return this great gift to you.”

“Whoosh!!!”

The Red Dragon gave the order.

All the demon soldiers worked together. The four armies 'battle formation combined and enveloped all the demon soldiers. The power of their bloodlines combined and formed a vast military killing aura.

“Roar!”

In the air.

The battle formation condensed a huge blood-red Dragon that was almost three hundred meters long. It was vivid and lifelike. Although it was slightly illusionary, it had an extremely fierce aura.

Powerful!

It was extremely powerful!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

as the cannonballs came, the blood-colored flood dragon roared and wagged its tail, blasting the cannonballs and causing them to explode in the air.

Pfft! Pfft!

But at the same time.

Within the formation, demon soldiers vomited blood as they suffered the backlash from the formation. Furthermore, the formation required the demon soldiers 'bloodline power to function.

Therefore, every time they blocked the bombardment of the artillery shells, the demon soldiers would die from the backlash of the Army formation. Some of them would fall due to insufficient bloodline power, and some would even be sucked dry by the Army formation.

The Army formation was powerful, but it also had side effects. The more powerful the Army formation was, the greater the side effects.

The Crimson Dragon Army formation was a Grade 2 army formation!

Generally speaking.

He would not use it unless it was a critical moment.

Red Dragon was forced to order the 'Red Dragon Army formation'. It could be seen that he was also being bombarded by the mechanical artilleries and had no choice but to brace himself.

"There's still such a move."

Jiang Li clearly saw how the demon Army responded through the remote projection. He had seen the power of an army formation before.

The formation of the snake Army could block the machine guns of the firearm meches.

The demon Army from Red Dragon County was able to block the bombardment of the mechanical artilleries. The power of this army formation was truly extraordinary.

However ...

Jiang Li also saw that every time they blocked, they would cause casualties.

don't stop, continue bombing. Kill as many as you can.

go! Jiang Li ordered.

Time passed.

The Red Dragon did not care about the price, operating the 'Red Dragon Army formation' and marching at full speed. He himself also took action one after another to intercept the artillery shells that were blasting over.

Ten minutes later.

The demon Army had entered the range of the anti-aircraft cannons.

“Open the city gates.”

get ready! Jiang Li immediately shouted, ” all transport meches, get ready to leave the city. Cooperate with the artillery to fire from a distance.
