

Army 130

Chapter 130 nemesis

“what are you doing? Didn’t you hear the city Lord’s orders? Quickly open the city gates!”

Hong Tianqi shouted.

BOOM! BOOM!

At the city gate.

The reinforced city gate was extremely heavy, and it took four city guards to push it open with all their might, causing a clear rumbling sound.

Immediately after.

Transport trucks drove out of the city gate and lined up under the city wall. The anti-aircraft guns were adjusted and aimed at the sky, forming a long battle line.

Kachaa! Kachaa!

The cannoneers started to adjust the angle of the cannons.

In reality.

Without the buffer of the city wall, the transport trucks were directly exposed to the enemy’s sight. The safety of the transport meches was not guaranteed.

This was something that could not be helped.

the transport mech was only a transport mech with only a gunner and a driver. it didn’t even have any skills, so it couldn’t even be considered a sub-mech.

The transport meches didn't have cannons, so they couldn't lock onto their targets. They couldn't bombard from behind the city wall like artillery.

Thus, they could only leave the city.

At this moment.

the ground was shaking slightly. a large number of demon soldiers were marching, causing the ground to shake. they were ten kilometers away from the great xia city, but jiang li could already see them under the bright moonlight.

after all, he was a martial artist at the early stage of level one, and his eyesight was far better than ordinary people.

the purple thunder wings flapped, and lightning flashed. he flew in the air and looked into the distance. he could clearly see the great xia city and the transport trucks outside the city walls.

“increase the speed!”

The Red dragon's eyes were cold as it stared ahead.

“Yes!”

“All troops, charge!”

“Rumble!”

The demon soldiers roared, and so did the generals. The Army formation rotated, and the Scarlet Flood Dragon roared. Its might surged, and a terrifying pressure gushed out.

Even though he was more than ten thousand meters away, Jiang Li felt tremendous pressure.

“He’s so strong!”

“And there are too many demon soldiers.”

“.....”

The city guards, the members of the Sirius gang, and the constables of the county government couldn’t help but tremble.

They had never seen such a formation before.

“Fire the anti-aircraft guns!”

stop! Jiang Li shouted.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

two thousand anti-aircraft guns fired at the same time. two thousand cannonballs shot into the sky, including one hundred perfected stage two transport meches.

It was even more powerful.

“Rumble!”

The 2,000 cannonballs landed in the midst of the demon Army and exploded one after another. One could only see a series of flames that continued to explode like extremely gorgeous fireworks.

It was dazzling and the air waves rolled.

“Roar!”

The Scarlet Flood Dragon roared, and its might shook the heavens and earth as it resisted the bombardment of the artillery shells.

“Ah!”

A shrill scream rang out.

Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!

Blood splattered everywhere.

A large number of demon soldiers died, some even being sucked dry by the Army formation.

Tragic!

It was extremely tragic!

“Si si si ...”

On the city wall.

Han Liqi witnessed this scene with his own eyes and gasped. His eyes were filled with shock. this Yingluo, this Yingluo, he's too powerful. He's simply too powerful.

“This round of attacks has caused countless casualties among the demon soldiers!”

Hong Tianqi shouted excitedly.

“Hahahahaha!”

Hu Dong laughed.

“The city Lord’s subordinates are too strong.”

Wang Pingyuan swallowed his saliva, and his expression became more and more respectful.

“it’s mainly because the power of this weapon is simply terrifying. especially on the battlefield, it can exert unimaginable destructive power!”

Xu Ya said.

“Continue!”

jiang li’s eyes were cold.

on the surface.

After the series of explosions, the demon Army lost nearly 20000 soldiers. However, they did not suffer any serious injuries as most of the dead were demon soldiers below level 1.

Of course.

Jiang Li was quite satisfied with the damage.

The main reason was that the distance was too far, and the demon Army could only passively take the attacks without being able to counterattack.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The artillery and transport meches continued to bombard the demon soldiers, causing damage to them.

Time passed.

The demon Army was gradually approaching the city.

Finally!

The demon Army was within 1000 meters of the great Xia city, which was the shooting range of the firearm meches.

“Firearm mech, fire!”

Jiang Li waved his right hand.

kachaa! Kachaa!

Da da da da

In an instant.

The three thousand perfected-stage firearm meches fired at the same time, and the bullets rained down on the demon Army.

Buzzzzzz! buzzzzzz! “Whoosh!!!”

The Army formation moved, forming a blood-black fog of light that blocked countless bullets. One could clearly see the bullets floating in the air, gradually losing their momentum and falling to the ground.

“It was blocked as expected.”

Jiang Li frowned.

Obviously.

Military formations were the firearm meches 'biggest enemy. Jiang Li had noticed it in the previous battles and he was certain now.

as long as the army controlled the battle formation, they could gather the military killing intent and consume the bloodline power of the demon soldiers to form a defensive fog that could block the bullets of the firearm meches.

Of course.

The side effect of the Army formation would bite back at the demon soldiers, causing them to die.

as long as the general formation was broken, the firearm meches would be able to use their full power and cause a lot of casualties to the demon soldiers below level one.

“Infantry Regiment, attack the city!”

lankard roared.

” charge!!! ”

Instantly.

Tens of thousands of demon soldiers formed a huge charging Army and headed straight for the great Xia city. The sounds of battle cries, roars, and explosions mixed together.

“ah!”

Pfft! Pfft!

The demon soldiers at the front stepped into the trap that Hong Tianqi and the others had dug in advance and fell in. Even though they were wearing armor, they were still pierced through.

blood splattered everywhere.

Many demon soldiers were killed or injured.

“You b * stard demons, go to hell!”

Hu Dong and the others laughed.

However ...

Soon, they could no longer laugh. There were too many demon soldiers, and with their vigilance, they avoided the traps and even filled the pits with corpses.

The most important thing was ...

The traps could only cause damage to the weaker demon soldiers. The stronger demon soldiers would only be slightly injured even if they stepped on the traps.

Of course.

These traps and fortifications were very useful in scattering the demon soldiers ‘charging formation.

“Bio-mech, control the undead puppets to charge and stop them.”

stop! Jiang Li shouted.

Roar!

Below the city wall.

The zombie puppets roared under the control of the biochemical mech. Poisonous mist spread out from their bodies. They bared their fangs and claws and charged at the demon soldiers.

Pfft! pfft! Pfft!

The two sides finally confronted each other. 11000 walking corpse puppets killed their way into the demon Army's Infantry Regiment. The fierce battle began.

Below the city wall.

Tens of thousands of living beings fought, and the smell of blood spread. It was extremely pungent.

“Die!”

BOOM!

Lankard's blood power gushed out. With just one slash, he chopped a second rank undead puppet's head into two.

“Demon soldiers, take note. These things are not alive. Their weakness is their heads. As long as their heads are destroyed, they will not be able to move.”

Lankard immediately found the weakness of the undead puppet.

kill!!!

“Aim for their heads!”

The demon soldiers roared.

Jiang Li noticed lang kede and his eyes were filled with killing intent. yhsh01, send out the early stage level-three walking corpse puppet and kill this monster.

ynsh01 nodded and waved his right hand.

“Roar!”

Immediately after.

from behind ynsh01, a black figure jumped out. his eyes were dark as if they had swallowed all the light, and black mist surrounded him.

It was the early stage third rank walking corpse puppet that Jiang Boyi had transformed into.

BOOM!

Under ynsh01’s control, the early stage rank three zombie puppet jumped off the city wall and rushed into the battlefield like a Black Flash.

His goal was clear.

it was lankard, who was in the middle of the battlefield.

Pfft! “Pfft!”

The early stage rank three undead puppet waved its hands. From its five fingertips, bone armor grew and turned into sharp claws.

“Ah!”

One by one, the demon soldiers were torn apart, their flesh and blood flying everywhere. Some were even torn into two or three pieces.

one had to know.

The early stage of the Third Order undead puppet had the strength of the Third Order. Even if it could only move by instinct, it was the weakest level among the Third Order.

However, it was still at the third rank.

“Commander, be careful.”

In the surroundings.

the demon general saw this scene. the early stage rank three walking corpse puppet was as fast as lightning. it broke through the layers of blockade, killed a large number of demon soldiers and rushed straight towards lankede.

“What a fast speed!”

Lankard was shocked.

“Whoosh!”

the early stage of the third order undead puppet’s hands were tearing towards lankard’s head. the air seemed to be torn apart by the sharp claws, making a sharp whistling sound.

“Roar!”

Lankard circulated his full power, and his bloodline burst forth. A huge black werewolf Phantom appeared behind him, and then it merged with his body, causing his aura to skyrocket.

Clang!

Lankard slashed with all his might.

BOOM!

The two sides collided, and an explosion rang out. Energy exploded, and air waves rolled. The ground was shattered, and Lankard let out a blood-curdling scream. He vomited blood as his body was sent flying.

Face to face.

Lankard was at a disadvantage.

“Commander!”

The infantry Regiment generals exclaimed.

In the air.

The eyes of the purple lightning Wings were filled with shock. They clearly saw the scene of Lankard's defeat. They were shocked, ” Lankard was actually injured in one move.

Doesn't that mean that he's a Tier 3?!

“Archers, get ready!”

At the rear of the demon Army.

Nearly 10,000 demon race archers formed a formation. Under the command of the commander of the Archer Corps, ye Gong, they aimed at the great Xia city.

“Release the arrows!”

Ye Gong waved his right hand.

Whoosh! Whoosh! “Whoosh!”

In that instant.

Thousands of arrows formed a rain of arrows that covered the sky and fell on Jiang Li.

Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!

Below the city wall.

many of the undead puppets were shot through the head and fell down. even if they weren't shot in the head, their limbs would still affect the battle.

Clang clang clang!

A large number of arrows also hit the transport trucks, even piercing the iron sheets, causing the damage to the transport trucks to increase.

Fortunately ...

The defense on the wall was well done. The firearm meches were not hit by the arrows. All the arrows hit the cover.

The city guards, the members of the Sirius gang, and the constables from the county government didn't die either.

However!

This was only a probing attack by the demon Army and the archers.
