

Army 131

Chapter 131 Dragonman

Whoosh! whoosh! “Whoosh!”

After only half a second, the second round of arrows from the demon Army’s archers came again. The sky was filled with arrows, and they poured down like a storm.

“ah!”

Finally!

There were still casualties. Some of the city guards on the city walls were shot in the chest by the arrows, and blood flowed out as they fell.

“All first-tier soldiers, come out.”

Jiang Li looked down at the battlefield, waved his right hand, and gave an order.

“Yes!”

“Yes, sir!”

Shua! Shua! shua!

Three thousand perfected-stage combat meches, three thousand perfected-stage cold weapon meches, and three thousand perfected-stage biochemical meches.

there were close to ten thousand meches in total.

they all jumped down from the city walls and charged into the battlefield like dumplings, charging towards the demon infantry at the forefront.

Deafening battle cries rang out.

Pfft! pfft! Pfft!

The next moment.

As nearly 10000 perfected-stage level-one meches joined the battle, the situation changed instantly. The meches were overpowered.

“Grand completion of rank one!”

“These soldiers are all at the perfected stage of level one!”

“Si si si ...”

nearly 10000 perfected stage one puppets.

The demon soldiers gasped.

“Hurry up! Quickly get into formation!”

They roared.

“BOOM!”

However ...

It was too late.

The demon Army's formation had been completely scattered. They could not gather together, so how could they set up an army formation? He was gradually at a disadvantage against the ten thousand perfected-stage meches.

“Kill!”

BOOM!

die! the level two demon general roared and used all his strength to kill the perfected-stage meches. The intense battle broke out, and some meches were scrapped.

In the air.

The Air Force led by the purple thunder wings also began to show their might. They had an innate advantage in the air, using bows and arrows to carry out long-range attacks, and even throwing spears.

furthermore ...

the purple thunder wings stared at the transport meches that were lined up under the city wall.

electric-powered meches, all of you, come down.

Jiang Li waved his right hand.

Shua! Shua!

1,990 electric-powered meches, 1900 of which were at the early stage of level two, and 90 of which were at the perfected stage, jumped off the city wall.

Kachaa! Kachaa!

Lightning flashed and Thunder rumbled.

The early-stage level two electric meches were powerful. They controlled electricity and formed lightning. They blocked the attacks of the purple thunder wings and protected the transport meches.

anti-aircraft guns, immediately bombard the air troops.

mech drivers, ” Jiang Li shouted. get off the car and join the battle. Attack the enemy.

two thousand mech drivers jumped off the trucks. one hundred of them were perfected-stage level two. even though they were the weakest among their level, they were still perfected-stage level two.

His strength wasn’t low.

BOOM! BOOM!

the anti-aircraft guns fired, bombarding the subordinates with the purple lightning wings. a series of cannonballs exploded in the air, killing many of the bird-men demon soldiers.

“Ah!”

“Pfft!”

...

Blood and flesh flew everywhere, and broken limbs fell from the sky.

“Giant crossbow unit! Fire!”

At this moment.

At the rear of the demon Army.

The archers mobilized their powerful siege weapons, which were giant crossbows. They were extremely ferocious, and the crossbow arrows were as thick as an arm.

There were 1000 of them!

“Thump!”

The giant crossbow was fired, producing a Sonic Boom. The arrow tore through the air, producing an extremely terrifying power as if it could penetrate everything.

“crack!”

The city walls!

The city wall was penetrated by the arrows, and cracks began to spread.

...

BOOM!

not only that.

There were also a few transport trucks that were pierced by the crossbows and exploded, turning into flames that filled the sky. They were directly scrapped, showing the power of these giant crossbows.

“!!!”

jiang li’s pupils constricted.

“Alright!”

The purple lightning Wings were excited.

“Again!”

ye gong shouted.

Very quickly.

The demon soldiers began to reload their crossbows.

artillery, lock onto the archers and fire!

don't give them a chance! Jiang Li immediately shouted. don't give them a chance!

“Yes!”

The mech cannons locked onto the target and determined the trajectory. The mech artilleries adjusted the angle of the barrels, loaded the shells, and immediately fired.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The Cannonball flew across the sky and landed directly in the midst of the archers.

“Be careful!”

“Not good, another explosion!”

“Intercept!”

the purple lightning wings and the others roared.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

Whoosh! whoosh! “whoosh!”

JJ01, GJS01, CQ01, and the perfected-stage level two electric meches all attacked. Sniper bullets tore through the air, sharp arrows cut through the sky, and lightning raged.

“Ah!”

The purple lightning Wings and the demon soldiers and generals screamed in pain.

“Pfft!”

blood splattered everywhere.

“Rumble!”

The cannonballs fell into the group of archers and exploded. The flames soared into the sky, and the shock waves and shrapnel wreaked havoc in the surroundings. The demon soldiers were blown to pieces, and so were the giant crossbows.

“Continue!”

” stop! ” jiang li shouted.

BOOM! boom! BOOM!

The artillery continued to bombard the archers, causing a huge number of casualties.

“Ah!”

Ye Gong bellowed, but there was nothing he could do. He tried his best to stop the cannonballs, but he was powerless in the face of thousands of them.

The giant crossbows were almost completely destroyed, and the archers suffered heavy losses.

“Pfft!”

Ye Gong vomited blood. He had been injured by a cannonball.

At this moment.

The battle had gradually entered a state of white heat.

Other than Ye Zhihe and the other mechs who were protecting him, Jiang Li had sent out all his mechs.

It even included the sub-branch of the mechanical artillery, ‘cannon driver’.

The city guards, the members of the Sirius gang, and the bailiffs from the county government also joined the battle.

Outside the great Xia city.

As far as the eye could see, it was all a battle.

kill!!!

Ye Zhihe led 30,000 soldiers to fight against Jiang Li’s mechs. The infantry and cavalry of the demon Army formed a battle formation to fight against Jiang Li’s mechs.

“Ah!”

Pfft!

Perfected-stage level two electric meches were very powerful. When they worked together, they were almost invincible on the battlefield. They broke through the Army formation and killed their way into the demon Army.

The palm print was like thunder, killing the level 2 demon general!

Of course.

This was also because there were a large number of meches taking most of the pressure. Otherwise, the perfected-stage electric-powered meches wouldn't have been able to achieve such a result.

For example, in the Green Mountain Range.

Ten perfected-stage level two electric meches charged at the 100000 demon soldiers fearlessly, but they were all killed. Only 2000 demon soldiers were injured.

The situation on the battlefield was gradually tilting in Jiang Li's favor because the lowest-level of Jiang Li's meches was perfected-stage level one. They were strong and fearless.

On the other hand, the demon Army.

As more and more demon soldiers died, their numbers decreased, and their morale gradually fell.

even if there was a double difference in numbers, it would be useless.

If not for the formation's great effect, the demon Army would have already begun to collapse.

Your Highness, save me!!!

Lankard was screaming. His left arm had been cut off. In order to fight against the early stage of the third rank walking puppet, Lankard didn't hesitate to burn his bloodline to enhance his strength.

However ...

he was still not a match.

“Lankard.”

The purple lightning Wings cried out in alarm and quickly shot an arrow. Lightning flashed and cut through the night sky. The rank three zombie puppet waved its right hand and its sharp claws blocked the arrow.

“This bi an ...”

The commander of the cavalry Regiment, mo Lin, widened his eyes.

One had to know.

The four commanders were all at the perfected stage of stage two, and they were half a step into stage three. They were the strongest below stage three.

There was not much difference in strength.

And now ...

Lankard had actually been beaten up like this.

tier 3!

it must be tier 3!

The great Xia city actually had a Tier 3 existence!

“We miscalculated, we miscalculated!”

Mo Lin and the others were a little frightened.

“si si si ...”

Ye Zhihe gasped. He observed the battle around him and realized that they had fallen into a disadvantageous position.

“rank two! There are so many 2nd rank experts!”

Xiong de’s pupils contracted, and he screamed in shock, ” this Suan ni, this Suan ni! There are at least four to five thousand Tier 2 human warriors here!

“Oh my God, Yingluo”

“There’s still a Pixiu, there’s still a perfected stage two Pixiu!”

“How can we fight this?”

“Gulp!”

The demon soldiers from yehuang County swallowed their saliva. They already had the intention to retreat. They had lost all their will to fight and even their voices were trembling.

Scare the demon!

It was too scary!

“Red Dragon Commandery Prince, are you sure this is just a city? and not the capital of the great gan lord dynasty? or could this be a trap set by the great qian dynasty to kill the 100000 demon soldiers of red dragon county?”

Ye Zhihe wiped the non-existent cold sweat on his forehead.

“As long as I’m here.”

the red dragon took a deep breath and looked up at jiang li, who was standing on the city wall and looking down at the battlefield. his eyes were cold and red flames were burning.

“We will definitely win this battle!”

BOOM!

After the Red dragon’s bloodline had awakened, he had already shed his beast form. On the surface, he looked no different from a human, but this was not his combat form.

“roar!”

His bloodline was activated, and with a Dragon’s Roar, a crimson flood Dragon appeared and fused with him. Crimson Dragon scales appeared on his body.

Finally.

In the air.

A figure covered in Crimson flames, crimson flood dragon scales, crimson flood dragon claws, crimson flood Dragon Tail, and vertical Crimson pupils appeared.

Dragonman!

This was the Red Dragon’s battle form!

“Whoosh!!!”

At this moment.

The might of an early stage Tier 3 demon exploded out, almost suppressing the entire battlefield. The spiritual energy of heaven and earth gathered, producing a terrifying pressure.

“So strong!”

“He’s even stronger than Jiang Boyi!”

“.....”

Everyone in the great Xia city looked up at the figure in the sky. Under the pressure of this might, their faces turned pale and they felt as if they were being crushed by a mountain.

In reality.

Jiang Li felt the pressure too. He circulated his internal force and his qi and blood to resist the pressure.

Tier 3!

The Red Dragon was indeed a Tier 3!

“The regional King is about to make his move!”

with the regional King’s strength, it’s enough to kill all these stage two human warriors!

“That’s right!”

“As long as the regional King is here, we will definitely win this war!”

The demon soldiers were all excited by the Red Dragon’s might.

“Roar!”

under ynsh01’s control, the early stage rank three zombie puppet roared. it jumped up, crushed the ground, and rushed toward the red dragon.

Rip!

The sharp claws slashed out.

To test the Red Dragon's strength.

“a mere living dead.”

Thump!

The Red Dragon didn't use any weapons. He raised his hand and punched out. The air collapsed and compressed, making a loud sound. The flame exploded and the early stage rank three walking corpse was sent flying. Both of its arms were broken.

boom!

The early stage third rank walking corpse puppet fell to the ground, creating a deep pit.
