

Army 137

Chapter 137 Three hundred and twenty

The scene seemed to freeze.

Pfft!

The next second.

from the middle of the fox guard quan's body, blood spurted out. from head to tail, he was split into two and his body slowly fell.

“My Lord!”

The generals of the demon soldiers cried out in grief.

A one-shot kill!

Fox guard Quan, who had just been boosting the morale of the demon soldiers, died just like that. He couldn't even block a single attack from ynsh01.

“Kill! Take revenge for Daren!”

the demon soldiers roared.

“Roar!”

The three-tailed Fox pounced on ynsh01.

BOOM!

the mechanical psionic energy gathered and a psionic cannonball was fired from ynsh01's shoulder. it blasted the three-tailed fox into pieces.

“Ah!”

“Pfft!”

The demon soldiers screamed and spat out blood. Their formation was broken and they suffered a backlash.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The mechanical psionic cannons fired continuously, and black energy cannonballs exploded among the demon soldiers. The energy exploded, and the shockwaves destroyed everything.

“Ah!”

miserable shrieks rang out continuously as the demon soldiers were blasted to death one after another.

Shua! Shua! Shua!

Immediately after.

Ynsh01 charged into the midst of the demon soldiers. His scythe danced in the air and his figure was as fast as lightning. He was like a Reaper on the battlefield, killing demon soldiers one after another.

“Third Pixiu, third rank Pixiu”

Hu Changqing's eyes widened as he fell to the ground. He finally understood what despair, helplessness, and absolute suppression felt like.

Ten minutes passed.

All the demon soldiers guarding Hu city were annihilated!

Ynsh01's body was covered in blood, almost turning red. Sticky blood dripped from the tip of the knife.

ynsh01 had single-handedly killed all the demon soldiers guarding hu city, displaying the crushing power of a high-level master.

It could be said that ...

If Jiang Li didn't create a level-three psionic biochemical soldier when the demon Army of Red Dragon County attacked the great Xia city, he would've died.

The Red Dragon could turn the entire battle around with his power alone.

Pfft!

Ynsh01 walked in front of Hu Changqing, raised his blade, and chopped off Hu Changqing's head. The head fell to the ground and rolled far away.

“.....”

In Hu city.

A large number of demons witnessed the destruction of the demon soldiers with their own eyes. Their eyes were filled with fear and their bodies trembled. They looked at ynsh01 as if they were looking at a demon.

“Ah!”

run for your lives!!!

The next moment.

The demons of Hu city shrieked and were in complete chaos. Some of them tried to escape from the city through the various exits.

“Lock down the entire city!”

“stop!” jiang li shouted.

“yes!”

shua! Shua! Shua!

All the meches got off the meches and a large number of walking corpse puppets rushed into Hu city, occupying all the exits and passages.

Half an hour later.

The chaos in Hu city was completely suppressed. Tens of thousands of monsters died and the remaining hundreds of thousands were gathered by Jiang Li.

Soon after.

It was another exciting looting operation.

An hour later.

Jiang Li moved most of the wealth in Hu city onto the trucks. There were a lot of gold, silver, jewelry, elixirs, materials, weapons, and so on.

...

It was a rough estimate.

It was almost double what long snake City had gained.

Of course.

This was not the most important thing.

Kachaa!

Jiang Li put a Jade box on the ground and opened it. There were crystals inside.

There were quite a few of them.

The light of the crystals shone on Jiang Li's face.

They were all lower spiritual crystals.

[discovered item that can be converted into energy points. Do you want to convert it?!]

...

Jiang Li put his right hand on the crystal and confirmed it.

Buzzzzzz!

A white light flashed.

All the crystals in the jade box disappeared and were converted into energy points.

conversion successful. You've received 3200000 energy points!

A notification appeared.

"Three million two hundred thousand."

that's 320 lower spiritual crystals. I only got 150 in long snake City, but there are 320 here. It's almost double.

"Not bad, not bad."

Jiang Li was in a good mood.

"It's time to go back,"

Jiang Li threw the jade box into the truck. It was made of Jade and could be worth a lot of money. I think the red eyebrow Empire will get the news if I stay here any longer.

"Get out of the city!"

Jiang Li walked onto YS01 and sat in the passenger seat. All the meches and walking corpses quickly got on the truck and the truck drove out of the city.

Outside the city.

The mechanical artilleries stopped and slowly got into a firing formation.

"He urged them to leave?"

"He's leaving just like that?"

"Are we just going to live like this?"

“.....”

Within the city.

the monsters in hu city looked at each other in confusion. they thought it was unreal and thought jiang li was going to let them go.

They had never heard of humans letting ordinary demons go after conquering a Demon City.

they either massacred cities or sold them as demon slaves.

“What do we do now?”

“Our ran ran”

“Haha, Yingluo, we survived. We survived.”

Some demons were laughing.

“Let’s leave this place quickly and report this to the red eyebrows Yao Kingdom. Who has the messenger bird? Use the messenger bird to send a message and ask the Yao nation to send their Army over. It would be best if we can stop those humans before they leave Red Dragon County.”

“I have, I have a messenger bird here.”

“That’s great!”

boom! BOOM! BOOM!

The next moment.

The artilleries started firing, dropping shells one after another. Most of the shells landed among the demons and exploded, sending a large number of them flying. Blood and flesh flew everywhere, and severed limbs and corpses fell to the ground.

“Ah!”

After that.

Countless screams rose and fell.

Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!

“Rumble!”

The surrounding buildings collapsed one by one.

Outside the city.

The mechanical artilleries and anti-aircraft guns let out a series of explosions. The shells flew out and landed in Hu city, blowing up buildings and killing a large number of demons.

Large amounts of artillery fire washed the ground and destroyed the city.

Half an hour later.

The bombardment stopped.

Hu city was turned into ruins. All the demons were dead. Most of the corpses were buried in the ruins and rocks. A large amount of blood seeped out from the cracks.

Upon a closer look, one could see broken arms and torn bodies.

One day.

let's go. Jiang Li took down long snake City, beast city, night market City, and Fox city one after another. He looted all the wealth in the demon cities and filled the trucks with it.

He had gained a lot.

It could be said that he had returned with a full load.

other than the city of red dragon county, the other four demon cities were all destroyed by jiang li. more than five hundred thousand demon civilians died in his hands.

It could be said that ...

the hatred between jiang li and the red eyebrow empire was irreconcilable.

“The city of Red Dragon County.”

it's the Red Dragon County. Jiang Li looked at the map and muttered, ” this is a County. It's probably even richer than Hu city.

it's a pity that the county city of Red Dragon County is too close to yehuang County. It has been a day, and the red eyebrows Yao Kingdom should have received the news.

“I can only give up for now.”

“Come again next time.”

Jiang Li didn't want to take any risks. He had gained enough today. It was enough for him to raise a large number of troops and improve his overall strength.

“Rumble!”

the transport mech moved at full speed. he activated the [treading on land] skill and started to return to the great xia city.

however ...

The speed of the artillery was slower than the transport meches, so they were left behind to maintain the overall formation and speed.

Jiang Li had to slow down the transport mech.

This was something that could not be helped.

after all, the artillery was a combat type, and all its skills were related to combat. naturally, it did not have the 'walk on flat ground' skill.

Early in the morning.

The sky started to brighten.

"let's go." jiang li returned to great xia city with the meches. the traps and trenches outside the city were filled up again. a large number of monsters 'bodies were burned.

The spoils of war were all collected back to the city and placed in the military camp.

Obviously.

The battlefield had been cleared.

"There's movement."

"That's Yingluo."

"City Lord, it's the city Lord's carriage!"

"The city Lord is back, the city Lord is back."

“Quickly open the city gates.”

“Go and inform general Hong, the state Lord, Lord Hu Dong and Lord Xu Ya.”

On the city wall.

It's Jiang Li! the city guards saw the convoy in front of them and recognized that they were Jiang Li's men. They cheered with excitement and respect.

BOOM! BOOM!

The city gate trembled, and the sound of friction was extremely clear. The thickened and rebuilt city gate was extremely heavy, and it required the combined strength of several city guards to push it open.

“Let's enter the city,”

Let's go. Jiang Li led the transport mechs and the artillery into the city. There were many city guards standing on both sides of the road.

“Welcome back to the city, City Lord.”

The city guards shouted in unison.

Immediately after.

The surrounding houses lit up one after another. Apparently, they were awakened by the commotion here. The residents opened their windows or directly walked out of their houses.

“City Lord, it's the city Lord!”

“The city Lord has returned.”

look, those special carriages are filled with things. They must be the spoils of war that the city Lord got from his trip.

“Definitely.”

“The city Lord is amazing.”

The residents were practically worshiping Him blindly.

Of course.

this was mainly because jiang li had turned the tide several times. he had destroyed the demon army many times, saved great xia city, and even done things that were almost impossible.

He had killed the Red Dragon and 100000 demon soldiers.

so,

The residents of the great Xia city had almost blind confidence in Jiang Li. This was the prestige that Jiang Li had accumulated unconsciously.

in reality.

Jiang Li didn’t pay much attention to this, nor did he try to establish his prestige in the great Xia city, but he won the hearts of the people because of what he did.

Ordinary citizens.

In fact, he didn’t have any great ambitions.

They only hoped that they could live well, eat their fill, and not be on edge. It would be best if they could live and work in peace.

And it was just so.

Jiang Li had a powerful mech Army, defeated 100000 demon soldiers, and killed the Red Dragon. He showed his great power and gave the people of great Xia city a great sense of security.

They felt.

Under the protection of city Lord Jiang, the great Xia city was the safest.

There was more.

Due to the victory of the war, they had seized a large number of spoils of war and traded them in the city, enriching the wealth of the great Xia city's citizens. At the very least, it was enough for these people to find jobs and have enough food and clothing.

so,

There were all sorts of reasons.

That was why Jiang Li's prestige was getting higher and higher.
