

Army 159

Chapter 159 The situation

“my lord, the fourth unit has lost 1100 meches, including 100 level two meches. however, the black snake barbarian kingdom’s barbarian army has been stopped.”

The Intel mech of the fourth unit replied quickly.

“Yes.”

Jiang Li nodded and murmured, ” thousands of meches were lost so quickly. It seems like the battle in Tianshui city is quite intense.

“What’s the situation with the celestial water city’s Army?”

more than 10000 soldiers of Tianshui city have died, and there are less than 30000 left. However, Tianshui city’s Army has a special military formation, and with the power of Luo Tianshui, the situation is still stable.

The Intel mech of unit four replied again.

“let’s go to the middle of the mountains first and kill the 150000 soldiers of the red eyebrow empire. then, i’ll go to the celestial water city and defeat the barbarian army of the black snake barbarian kingdom.”

Time passed.

About ten minutes later.

The artillery that had separated from the 2nd and 3rd units also rushed to the middle of the mountain range and met up with the 3 units.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

with the addition of the 800 mechanical artilleries, jiang li's force's firepower increased greatly. they bombarded the demon army one after another.

“Ah!”

The demon soldiers cried out in pain as they suffered the backlash from the battle formation.

“Why are there more reinforcements?”

“The destructive power of these weapons is too strong. It's useless even with the protection of the military formation. The demon soldiers suffered the backlash of the military formation and lost many of them.”

“But without the battle formation, the losses would be even more severe.”

“Damn it!”

“We have to destroy those weapons first.”

“Bring out all the siege crossbows!”

organize an elite force of Rank 2 commanders to attack.

The commanders of the demon soldiers shouted.

Whoosh! Whoosh! whoosh!

the siege crossbows were lined up, and the huge arrows shot through the air, creating a sharp whistling sound, and shot at the artillery and tank meches.

BOOM!

A round of attacks.

It caused several artilleries to be scrapped and one tank mech to be lost.

BOOM!

However ...

The artillery shells continued to bombard the city, destroying even more siege ballistae.

“Ah!”

The demon soldiers operating the ballistae were killed by the explosion. Flesh and blood flew everywhere, and the corpses were blown to pieces. The scene was quite tragic.

The level 2 demon commanders were stopped by the electric meches and mechanical Rangers.

“Repair!”

Buzzzzzz!

Jiang Li waved his right hand and used more than 20000 energy points to repair the damage of the three meches. All their injuries were healed and they were full of energy.

“This bi an ...”

“They’ve recovered!”

“Damn it!”

“!!!”

The demon soldiers were dumbfounded and felt a chill in their hearts.

“Pfft!”

Ye Huang was forced back by the mechanical mammoth and he coughed up blood.

One had to know.

Ye Huang’s ability was obviously higher than the mechanical mammoth cavalry. The mechanical mammoth cavalry had been on the verge of being destroyed many times in the battle with Ye Huang and the Crown Prince.

However ...

Jiang Li used energy points many times to restore the mechanical mammoth Rangers.

It could be said that ...

If not for the meches being fearless and loyal, other people would have run away or collapsed in fear after such a battle.

“You bastard!”

Ye Huang roared in anger. He was extremely unwilling. He was about to win, but his opponent suddenly revived and recovered from all his injuries. It was simply unreasonable.

after fighting for so long.

Ye Huang’s bloodline power had been greatly consumed.

The most important thing was ...

Ye Huang had been injured by the LT01 before. Now that he was hit by the mechanical mammoth, his old injuries were triggered. He was coughing up blood and his face was pale.

“Sprint, charge, brute force.”

BOOM!

The mechanical mammoth cavalry started its counterattack and charged at Ye Huang. It held the mammoth ivory spear tightly and stabbed at Ye Huang with all its might. heavy blow!

“!!!”

Ye Huang’s pupils contracted.

“roar!”

Suddenly.

...

The red python that was hovering in the air roared. Its 100-meter-long body fell like a mountain and crashed into the mechanical mammoth.

“Thump!”

The mechanical mammoth Ranger was forced back.

“Ah!”

“pfft!”

In the demon Army.

In order to block the attacks of the mechanical mammoth Rangers, at least a thousand demon soldiers screamed and spat out blood. Some of them even died after their bloodline power was sucked dry.

“!!!”

Ye Huang’s eyes widened. He was furious and filled with killing intent. He wanted to tear the mechanical mammoth cavalry into pieces but he was helpless.

Aggrieved!

It was really too aggrieved!

He was an early-stage level three demon who had just awakened his bloodline and had a fourth-rank bloodline, but he could not do anything to a guy who had completed level two.

“if it wasn’t for that strange recovery ability, i would’ve killed this guy several times over.”

Ye Huang gritted his teeth.

BOOM!

On the other side.

The battle between T01 and the Crown Prince became more and more intense. Purple Thunderbolts wreaked havoc in the surroundings like huge lightning snakes, bombarding the Crown Prince.

It could be seen.

the crown prince’s body trembled, and the illusion of a mountain appeared on his body. it enveloped his entire body and blocked the bombardment of the purple lightning.

At the same time.

The Crown Prince swung his axe at number Lt01.

Shua!

The LT01 transformed into a bolt of lightning and easily dodged the crown prince's attack. He then retaliated by stabbing the lightning like a spear.

Bang!

The Crown Prince chopped down with his axe and shattered the lightning Spear.

Bang Bang Bang Bang!

The two sides were locked in a fierce battle, and it was impossible to determine the winner in a short time.

Obviously.

the crown prince's cultivation was at the perfected stage of level three, the same as Lt01. furthermore, he had a fourth-rank bloodline and had mastered powerful demonic arts. his combat power was extremely strong.

was unable to do anything to the other party.

Similarly.

had mastered the body of thunder and could transform into thunder. his attack power was strong and his speed was extremely fast. even the crown prince was unable to defeat him, and the situation became a stalemate.

“Break!”

BOOM!

the crown prince took a deep breath and swung his axe with all his might, shattering the thunder and forcing the lt01 to retreat. he then quickly pulled away.

“All troops, retreat!”

When the Crown Prince saw Ye Huang’s defeat, he knew that things were no longer possible.

The strength of Jiang Li’s troop was far beyond the crown prince’s expectation.

If ye Huang was killed.

Then, the mechanical mammoth Rangers would not be able to stop the demons. They might even be able to break through the Stage 2 army formation with brute force and cause immeasurable casualties.

One had to know.

They were only the troops Jiang Li sent to camp in the mountains. There were just over 30000 of them, but they could fight against 150000 demon soldiers.

It was simply terrifying.

“Hu ~~ Hu ~ Hu ~”

The Crown Prince took a deep breath and thought to himself, ” I wanted to destroy Jiang Li’s team first to weaken some of his forces, but I didn’t expect it to turn out like this.

the war has been going on for so long. I’m afraid Jiang Li’s reinforcements are already on their way. These 30000 puppet soldiers are definitely not all of Jiang Li’s strength.

if Jiang Li comes with the main force, I'm afraid the 150000-strong demon Army will be annihilated here.

"Crown Prince general, why are we retreating?"

"there are less than 20000 of jiang li's troops left. we've lost more than 10000 soldiers. as long as we spare no effort, we can kill all of them here! " great general!!!

"We can not retreat! otherwise, the tens of thousands of demon soldiers would have died in vain!"

The commander of the demon soldiers shouted.

"i can still fight!"

I can burn my bloodline, "Ye Huang roared. with the power of my fourth-rank bloodline, it's enough to raise my realm and increase my combat power. I'm going to kill them today no matter what!

"the blood of hundreds of thousands of demons can't be shed in vain!"

"Enough!"

shut up! the Crown Prince chided in a deep voice. His tone was firm and authoritative. I'm the commander. My words are orders.

"Retreat!"

"Retreat!"

"i can't accept this!"

“Retreat!”

The commanders of the demon soldiers clenched their fists tightly as their eyes turned red. They looked at the demon soldiers ‘corpses on the ground. The blood gathered, and the air was filled with a pungent smell of blood.

retreat!!!

More than 100000 demon soldiers began to retreat.

The stage two army formation was activated to block the bombardment of the cannonballs. They retreated from the Green Mountain Range at the fastest speed and returned to the territory of the red-browed Yao Kingdom.

boom!

At the back of the Crown Prince, his perfected stage three strength burst out, pushing back the LT01 and the mechanical mammoth cavalry at the same time. He swung his giant axe, and the orange axe light swept across the sky.

Bang Bang Bang Bang!

in the air.

The artillery shells were shattered by the crown prince’s ax and exploded, filling the sky with flames like gorgeous fireworks.

“Let’s go!”

shua!

The Crown Prince looked at the LT01 and the war weapons. His face was gloomy, and his eyes were full of killing intent. Then he turned and left.

At this moment.

Outside the Green Mountain Range.

The main force led by Jiang Li had arrived. Through xx01's communication screen, he clearly saw that the demon Army was about to retreat.

jiang li was ten thousand meters away from the battlefield in the middle of the mountains.

Within the firing range of the mechanical artillery.

"You want to leave? Did you ask me?"

Humph! Jiang Li snorted. all mechanical artilleries, lock onto the target from a distance. Mechanical Rangers, go to the battlefield as fast as you can.

"Stop the demon Army."

"Yes!"

"Rumble!"

A total of 1600 mech artilleries, including 440 mech artilleries that were at the perfected stage of type 2, were mobilized.

the mechanical cannon used the 'detection lock' technique to lock onto the target and determine the trajectory.

"Target locked! Please give your orders!"

"Target locked! please give your orders!"

"Target locked! please give your orders!"

“.....”

“Fire the cannons!”

Jiang Li waved his right hand.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

One thousand one hundred and sixty cannons and four hundred and forty cannonballs were fired at the same time. One thousand six hundred cannonballs rose into the air.

Under the night sky.

The cannonballs streaked across the night sky with fireworks. It was extremely gorgeous.

“what’s that?”

When the Crown Prince heard the commotion, he raised his head and looked up at the sky. 1600 cannonballs were bombarding at high speed, bringing with them a destructive aura.

the most important thing was ...

The cannonballs were aimed at the Crown Prince.

“Great general!”

Crown Prince general, be careful!

“Not good!”

The commanders of the demon soldiers were shocked.

“Mountain back protection!”

Buzzzzzz!

The crown prince’s pupils contracted as he roared. His bloodline erupted, and the mountain back bull appeared, becoming one with the Crown Prince. A huge mountain appeared on the crown prince’s body, covering him.

“Rumble!”

The next moment.

A total of 1600 cannonballs exploded on the crown prince’s body. It was an indescribable scene. It was extremely shocking. The flames soared to the sky, the earth shook, rocks flew, and smoke filled the air.

the surrounding trees were destroyed, the ground cracked, and a huge pit was blasted out. the area was charred black, and flames were ignited.
