

Army 160

Chapter 160 battle to the death

“what’s going on?” jiang li was staring at the image on the communication projection. the entire screen was covered by the burning fire and he couldn’t see anything.

He could only vaguely see a tall and sturdy figure standing in the dancing flames.

He was tall and straight like a mountain.

“Roar!”

The next moment.

“roar!” the mountain back bull’s roar rang in the air, making jiang li’s ears buzz. it set off a strong wind that swept through the surroundings and blew away the flames.

“Pfft!”

The Crown Prince vomited blood. The mountain that covered his body gradually cracked and shattered, turning into orange-yellow light spots that gradually dissipated.

* Cough cough *

The Crown Prince was coughing up blood again, his face a little pale.

Although the Crown Prince was a perfected stage three and was very powerful, he was still injured after taking so many cannonballs head-on.

One had to know.

Among the 1600 cannonballs, there were 440 cannonballs.

Each Cannonball was equivalent to a full-force attack of a perfected stage two.

even this didn't kill him. A perfected stage Tier 3 is really powerful.

I can't use common sense, " Jiang Li mumbled.

"after all, this is a super fantasy world. the individual martial strength is extremely strong."

However ...

Jiang Li's attack caught the Crown Prince off guard.

The Crown Prince obviously didn't expect Jiang Li's reinforcements to arrive so quickly. He had just decided to retreat when Jiang Li came.

"All troops, charge!"

go! Jiang Li ordered.

"Rumble!"

Immediately after.

The engine roared.

The transport meches and tank meches all used their skills. Tens of thousands of meches rushed into Qingshan mountain as fast as they could under Jiang Li's order.

It could be seen.

The big tree in front of him was knocked down.

the huge movement attracted the beasts' attacks. the firearm mech stood on the truck and started shooting crazily, killing the beasts one by one.

The tank mech crushed the beast and killed it.

The mechanical soldiers didn't enter the mountains. Under Jiang Li's order, they all stayed outside the mountains and fired from a distance.

Shua!

the lt01 turned into a bolt of purple lightning and charged at the crown prince. the lightning condensed into a lightning spear.

Bang!

The crown prince's axe struck down and shattered the Thunder spear, but he also took a few steps back. Blood seeped out of the corner of his mouth, which affected his injury.

"Great general!"

"the crown prince's general is injured!"

"Let's quickly go to help!"

When Ye Huang and the other demon soldier commanders saw this, they were shocked. They stopped retreating and turned around to help the Crown Prince.

"Don't come over! Retreat!"

The Crown Prince turned around and roared at the demon soldiers behind him, "retreat!"

"Great general!"

“But Yingluo”

Ye Huang and the others were stunned.

kill!!!

Shua! Shua! Shua!

Immediately.

“stop them.” jiang li ordered the three troops to stop the demon army at all costs. they couldn’t let the demon army escape.

The twenty thousand meches charged forward.

“BOOM!”

The crown prince’s all-out attack forced Lt01 to retreat. He endured his injuries and retreated at full speed. He had no intention of continuing the battle.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

However ...

...

At this moment.

let’s go! Jiang Li’s mechanical artilleries around the green Mountain Range fired another round and targeted the Crown Prince again.

“Quick, stop them!”

“Roar!”

The demon Army activated the grade 2 battle formation. The huge red python roared into the sky like a flood Dragon that emerged from the sea and charged into the sky.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The cannonballs exploded in the air and landed on the red Python’s body. It was like fireworks exploding in the air. It was extremely beautiful.

The red python wailed.

“Ah!”

Pfff!

The grade 2 formation caused a backlash to the demon soldiers, and nearly 3000 demon soldiers died.

...

At the same time.

The three troops charged forward at all costs. Although it affected the retreat of the demon Army, it also caused many meches to be scrapped.

“Charge!”

Finally ...

In the surrounding forest.

let's go! the mechanical Rangers that Jiang Li sent out first arrived at the battlefield and charged at the demon Army with the other three troops.

He took the lead.

The mechanical Ranger took out a bazooka and began to bombard the area. After the bazooka's shells were all blown up, it took out the Knight's spear.

"Kill!"

The 1,600 mech Rangers charged into the battle formation and fought with the demon soldiers. They were agile and flexible. They stabbed with their Spears and took the lives of the demon soldiers.

"Damn it, it's too late."

The crown prince's face was gloomy. He looked at the 1600 Stage 2 experts with a serious expression. He took a deep breath and stopped.

I didn't expect Jiang Li's main force to come so quickly.

The crown prince's tone was grave.

"great general!"

"What do you think we should do next?"

"Do we fight or retreat?"

"We'll do as you say."

"That's right!"

“General, please give the order.”

“.....”

In the surroundings.

The demon soldier commanders looked at the Crown Prince with determination and the determination to die. Ye Huang also held the mystic ice sword in his hand tightly.

” when necessary, i will burn my bloodline. ” ye huang said in a low voice.

“Hahahahaha!”

The Crown Prince laughed. Ye Huang, you’re not the only one with a fourth-rank bloodline. I have a fourth-rank bloodline too. Furthermore, my cultivation is much stronger than yours.

“Alright.”

Ye Huang smiled, ” then let’s see who can kill more.

“You’re quite bold.”

The Crown Prince glanced at it.

“Since we can’t leave, then we’ll fight to the death and not retreat. We’ll die and live!”

“there are no cowards in our demon race!”

The Crown Prince took a deep breath and activated his bloodline power. Then, he let out a thunderous roar that reverberated throughout the entire battlefield.

“Fight to the death and not retreat!”

fight to the death and not retreat!!!

“roar!”

The Army formation revolved, and the Crimson pythons roared. The murderous aura of the Army gathered, and the morale of the Army rose like a rainbow, forming an extremely terrifying Army. The entire Army was united.

Finally ...

At this moment.

let's go. Jiang Li led the main force to the edge of the battlefield. The transport meches stopped and the doors opened. The meches got off one by one.

Kachaa! Kachaa!

The firearm meches got into a battle formation.

“Roar!”

The Walking corpse puppet charged in front.

Combat meches, biochemical meches, cold weapon meches, electric meches followed closely behind. Tank meches also entered the battlefield.

The 60,000 meches formed a powerful formation.

“Jiang Li is here.”

The Crown Prince raised his head and looked at each other.

Jiang Li got out of the passenger seat of YS01. Ynsh01 followed closely behind him. The four stage-three walking corpses appeared one by one.

jiang li looked ahead. the army of demon soldiers formed a huge army. they gathered the military killing intent and used their bloodline power to drive the army.

In the air.

Like an ancient giant beast, the red python coiled around, its might surging. Just a glance at it made people feel suffocated.

Furthermore ...

The morale of this Army of demon soldiers was high. They were fearless and had a strong momentum. If an ordinary Army faced such a strong Army, they would probably be intimidated by the morale before the battle even started and would not be able to display their strength.

but ...

This wouldn’t happen to Jiang Li’s mech Army. The demon Army’s morale and momentum couldn’t affect the meches at all.

“All troops, hear my order! Kill!”

The Crown Prince roared.

kill!!!

kill the enemy!!

With the crown prince's order, the demon Army of more than 100000 soldiers took the lead and charged forward. As far as the eye could see, it was all demon soldiers.

Deafening galloping sounds.

“Die!”

Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!

The first thing that the demon Army encountered were the 13000 walking corpse puppets. The demon soldiers hacked at The Walking corpse puppets, causing blood to splash everywhere.

They realized.

These zombie-like enemies were all demons.

Furthermore ...

Even if they cut The Walking corpse into two, the other side could still move.

this was the first time they had encountered such an enemy, and it caused some chaos among the demon soldiers.

However ...

In less than half a minute.

They found the weakness of The Walking corpse puppet.

these are all corpses controlled by the enemy. As long as I chop their heads off, they will be completely dead.

A commander of the demon soldiers shouted.

“So it’s the head.”

“I understand.”

“Kill!”

“Pfft!”

The demon soldiers reacted and took action one after another. They aimed at the head of The Walking corpse puppet and smashed it. One by one, The Walking corpse puppet was destroyed.

However ...

Before the demon soldiers could catch their breath, Jiang Li’s mech Army arrived in front of them. There were tens of thousands of perfected-stage level-one meches.

The two sides clashed.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The war was getting more and more intense.

“Whoosh!!!”

the biochemical meches spread their biochemical toxins, trying to corrupt and transform the demons, but they were blocked by the light mist of the military formation.

pfift! Pfift! pfift!

The electric meches, mechanical Rangers, and tank meches rushed into the battlefield. Thousands of stage two meches and nearly 1000 perfected stage two meches rushed into the battlefield.

At this moment.

Jiang Li's mech Army crushed the crown prince's Army of demon soldiers. One by one, the demons were killed. Blood flew everywhere and bodies fell.

"Break the Army formation!"

stop! Jiang Li shouted.

"Yes."

Ynsh01 waved his right hand. go.

Roar! Roar!

Immediately.

The black and white elder puppet corpses roared and jumped up, rushing to the battlefield. Their figures rose into the air and gathered the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth, forming a black fog.

"Double fiend domain!"

"Whoosh!!!"

The black White elder walking corpse puppet used its most powerful attack. The black double evil domain spread out and enveloped the demon Army.

The red python was covered by the domain.

The black and white elders were at the late-stage of Tier 3. When the two of them joined forces, they could fight with ynsh01, who was at the perfected-stage of Tier 3.

but ...

His combat strength was still very strong.

“Roar!”

BOOM!

It could be seen.

The red python was immediately shattered by the double fiend domain. It only managed to resist for a few seconds before it exploded into light spots.

“Ah!”

“the battle formation has been broken!”

“Rank three! another tier 3!”

“No!”

“Pfft!”

As the Stage 2 formation was broken, the red python was destroyed, and the light fog that protected the demon soldiers dissipated.

After losing the protection of the battle formation.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The shells exploded in the middle of the demon Army, killing many of them. The tank meches fired one after another.

The ballistae that could cause a lot of damage to level two troops like tank meches were blown up, and the demon soldiers who were operating the ballistae were killed.

Da da da da

The firearm mech and the tank mech fired their machine guns crazily on the battlefield. Their firing speed was much faster than the firearm mech.

they killed demon soldiers one after another.
