

Army 161

Chapter 161 Burning

They had lost the protection and buffs of the Stage 2 army formation.

The demon Army was completely suppressed by Jiang Li's mech Army. They suffered heavy casualties and almost couldn't fight back.

The scale of victory was leaning towards Jiang Li.

As expected.

it wouldn't take long for the war to end and the yao army to be wiped out.

"Whoosh!!!"

The biochemical meches started to release their biochemical poison skills. The biochemical poison mist spread out with them as the center, forming a poisonous mist area.

The demons who fell into this area were infected by the biochemical toxins and died in shrill screams. Then they were transformed into walking puppets one by one.

Demon soldiers could also rely on their bloodline power to resist the infection and transformation of biochemical toxins. However, when the bloodline power was exhausted, they could only be transformed into walking corpses.

"Ynsh01, send out all the type 3 walking puppets."

Jiang Li said.

“Yes.”

Ynsh01 nodded and controlled the undead puppet behind him.

Shua! Shua!

jiang boyi's walking puppet and the red dragon walking puppet entered the battlefield one after another. they were like two black streams of light, rushing into the battlefield with full combat power.

It could be seen.

Jiang Boyi's walking corpse puppet's sharp claws tore through the air. When it waved, it could easily tear apart the demon soldiers' bodies like tofu.

Pfft!

The Red Dragon's body was covered in black flames. The heavenly halberd swept around, knocking away demon soldiers one after another. Every demon soldier that was hit either died or was seriously injured.

“A Scarlet Dragon?”

Ye Huang was stunned.

On the battlefield.

Ye Huang was fighting with the mechanical mammoth. He was stunned when he saw the Red Dragon puppet walking corpse.

cooperate with the mechanical mammoth Rangers and kill the level-three demons.

jiang li said.

Shua! Shua!

Under ynsh01's control, the two early stage rank three walking puppets immediately rushed to Ye Huang. They joined forces with the mechanical mammoth cavalry and attacked Ye Huang in a three-on-one battle.

Ye Huang was fighting one against three, and after a few moves, he was at a disadvantage.

Pfft!

Jiang Boyi's walking corpse puppet tore open a wound on Ye Huang's back. Blood splashed. Ye Huang retreated and the ice power of the profound ice sword Lotus froze the wound, stopping the bleeding.

* Cough cough *

Ye Huang coughed up blood and looked at the Red Dragon puppet corpse, "you're not the Red Dragon. The Red Dragon is dead. You're just a puppet controlled by the enemy." "You're not the Red Dragon."

On the other side.

"Double fiend domain!"

BOOM!

After the black and white elder walking corpse puppet broke the battle formation, it immediately joined hands with the LT01 and used its most powerful means. The spiritual energy of heaven and earth gathered and formed an innate domain, enveloping the Crown Prince.

"Mountain back protection!"

Buzzzzzz!

the crown prince conjured a mountain to block the power of the double demons domain. at the same time, he held the axe with both hands and forced back the lt01's attack.

However ...

The LT01's power of lightning still affected the Crown Prince. Electric arcs flickered on the crown prince's body, and the power of lightning gradually numbed his nerves.

in order to deal with me, they sent out a perfected-stage Tier 3 and two late-stage Tier 3 martial artists. Hahaha!

haha! the Crown Prince laughed loudly. He looked up at Jiang Li who was standing at the back of the battlefield. Jiang Li, you really think highly of me!

Jiang Li just looked at the Crown Prince calmly.

The Crown Prince looked at the battlefield.

The battle that entered his eyes made the crown prince's expression turn completely solemn. He could clearly see that the demon Army he led was at an absolute disadvantage.

The stage-two battle formation was broken and couldn't stop Jiang Li's war weapons.

The demon soldiers fell one after another, turning into incomplete corpses.

but ...

None of the demon soldiers retreated in fear.

it had to be said.

These demon soldiers were indeed the red eyebrows demon Kingdom's Army. They were elite soldiers who had been through hundreds of battles. With the support of faith, they suppressed their fear of death.

"Are we going to lose?"

The crown prince's eyes were deep and cold.

"Bloodline ignition!"

"Whoosh!!!"

At this moment.

Ye Huang was the first to give up. He was surrounded by two stage 3 experts and the mechanical mammoth cavalry. His injuries were getting worse.

"Crown Prince general, I'm sorry. I'll make the first move."

Ye Huang let out a long cry and flew into the air. The power of his bloodline burning produced a powerful pressure and set off a vast amount of spiritual Qi. He laughed loudly, "hahaha!"

"Ye Huang!"

The crown prince's pupils contracted.

...

"Lord Ye!"

"My Lord!"

“!!!”

The demon soldiers looked up with sorrowful expressions.

In the air.

it was a huge profound ice sword lotus. after burning his bloodline, the profound ice sword lotus grew to a hundred meters in diameter, burning with an icy blue profound ice flame.

At this moment.

Ye Huang's strength increased and he broke through the barrier. He was now at the mid-stage of the 3rd rank. His combat strength had increased greatly.

“It's a last-ditch struggle,”

Jiang Li looked at them calmly.

“Fire!”

Jiang Li waved his hand.

The thousands of mechanical artilleries on the outskirts of the Green Mountain Range immediately changed their target. They adjusted the angle of the barrels and locked onto Ye Huang, who was in mid-air.

“Fire!”

boom! BOOM! BOOM!

After that.

1,600 cannonballs were fired, leaving trails of fire in the air as they shot towards Ye Huang.

“!!!”

Ye Huang raised his head and saw the 1600 cannonballs. His pupils constricted and he felt a sense of death approaching.

He couldn't hide.

He had already been locked on.

“Ye Huang!”

The Crown Prince roared.

“We're finished!”

The demon soldiers' eyes dimmed.

“Profound ice sword Lotus slash!”

“Whoosh!!!”

Ye Huang immediately gathered his strongest power. The hundred-meter wide profound ice sword Lotus fused with him and was completely integrated into the sword.

“slash!”

Ye Huang let out a long cry and slashed out with all his might. A hundred-meter long profound ice sword radiance was slashed out, burning with icy blue profound Ice Flames.

BOOM! boom! BOOM!

the sword light slashed out, sweeping across the sky and shattering the cannon shells. they exploded, causing shockwaves to spread out.

Finally.

The profound ice sword radiance was shattered.

Ye Huang used all his strength and enjoyed the same treatment as the Crown Prince. Under the enhancement of the burning of his bloodline, he managed to stop the bombardment with great difficulty.

“Pfft!”

Ye Huang spat out blood. The explosion had injured him and he fell from the sky.

“Heavy strike!”

Thump!

the mechanical mammoth knight leaped up from the back of the mechanical mammoth soldier. it held the long spear of the mammoth knight with both hands and activated its skill, stabbing out with the long spear.

Clang!

Ye Huang hurriedly faced his opponent and slashed out with his sword. The sword Qi exploded and he felt a strong force rushing into his body through the sword in his hand.

Pfff!

Ye Huang vomited blood again and his body flew backward. He landed on the ground and rolled for hundreds of meters before he crashed into a huge rock.

Kachaa! Kachaa!

The huge rock behind him split into pieces.

Shua!

jiang boyi's walking corpse puppet arrived in front of ye huang. it didn't give ye huang any chance to catch his breath. sharp claws appeared on his hands and he waved them to tear.

“Ah!”

Ye Huang bellowed and unleashed the power of the abstruse ice sword Lotus again.

BOOM!

The profound ice sword Lotus Dharma form appeared and then exploded, forming sword Qi that filled the sky. It was as if a flower had blossomed in the center, splashing in all directions. Jiang Boyi's walking corpse puppet waved its sharp claws and shattered the sword Qi.

Bang!

there were too many sword qi. jiang boyi's walking corpse puppet couldn't block all of them and was finally sent flying.

* Cough cough *

Ye Huang coughed up blood, which was mixed with pieces of his internal organs. He was at his limit. He was already an arrow at the end of its flight after exploding his Dharma.

“Roar!”

The next moment.

The black flood Dragon roared.

The Red Dragon walking corpse held the halberd with both hands. The flood Dragon Dharma power was integrated into the halberd and burned with black flames.

“Die!”

The blade of the halberd swept towards Ye Huang’s head.

“Ah!”

ye huang shouted and raised the sword in his hand.

Clang!

the mystic ice sword in his hand was sent flying hundreds of meters away and stabbed into the trunk of a huge tree. the hilt of the sword trembled.

“.....”

Ye Huang looked at his empty right hand and raised his head. What he saw was the Red Dragon puppet corpse’s dark eyes that were emotionless.

It was a puppet.

“I didn’t expect that I’d be so silly.”

“Pfft!”

Ye Huang’s head exploded like a watermelon that fell from the sky.

Fresh blood splattered all over the ground.

Ye Huang did not even manage to finish his sentence.

Bang!

After that.

Ye Huang's headless body fell.

death!

"lord ye!"

In the surroundings.

the demon soldiers and commanders looked at ye huang's headless body in shock. they could not accept the fact that ye huang had been killed, but that was the truth.

"Do we really have no chance of winning?"

"lord ye has been killed."

"No! Even if I die, I'll take one down with me!"

"Fight to the death and not retreat!"

"To die and live!"

"....."

the demon soldiers who had been through hundreds of battles roared.

Obviously.

They were very clear.

Fear, fear, and cowardice were all useless. They would only make one die faster. On the battlefield, only by abandoning the fear of death and fighting to the death with the enemy could one have a chance of survival.

“.....”

Jiang Li waited for a while, but he didn't see any level-three soul Tinder fly out of Ye Huang's body.

“What a pity.”

No. Jiang Li shook his head.

BOOM!

“what?” jiang li heard a loud explosion. he immediately looked towards the direction of the explosion and saw that Lt01 was sent flying by the crown prince's axe.

His chest had split open from the middle.

The damage level had risen from 20% to 50%.

“repair!”

Jiang Li immediately used energy points to restore Lt01.

Buzzzzzz!

The LT01's body glowed, and the damage it received gradually decreased. Its injuries were healing rapidly, and the hole in its chest was healing rapidly.

Fire!

Jiang Li saw it clearly.

On the crown Prince.

It was burning with orange flames.

Behind him.

The mountain back bull appeared. Its entire body was burning as it wailed. However, its might continued to rise.

in the end, it was as if they were restricted by an invisible barrier.

Unable to continue upgrading.

“Double fiend domain!”

The black elder and the White elder, the two walking corpse puppets, joined forces and once again displayed the power of the domain to stop the Crown Prince.

“Can’t even withstand a single blow.”

Thump!

The Crown Prince raised his hand and chopped down with his axe. The orange-yellow axe light tore the double demons domain apart and shattered it. The black and white old puppet zombies flew out.

defeated in one move!

“As expected,”

burning their bloodline? ” Jiang Li murmured. I wonder how much stronger a perfected-stage level three monster will be after burning their bloodline? ”
