

Army 168

Chapter 168 Totem battle armor

It could be seen.

On the city wall at the border, the soldiers of Tianshui city began to attack the Barbarian Army with full force under Luo Tianshui's orders. Sharp arrows filled the sky like a rainstorm.

Although the arrows couldn't be compared to the bullets of the firearm meches, they still caused a lot of damage to the barbarians.

Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!

Blood splattered everywhere.

The sharp arrow hit the Barbarian soldier, and his body fell down from the city wall.

ah! Jiang Li heard a scream. He turned around. A thousand meters away, a soldier of Tianshui city was shot in the chest by a barbarian's giant crossbow. His armor was broken and he died screaming.

In reality.

this was only a corner of the battlefield. jiang li couldn't see many soldiers of tianshui city being killed by the barbarian soldiers and giant crossbows.

There were many casualties.

The two sides did not engage in close combat. Instead, they stood on their own border walls and attacked with long-range weapons such as bows and crossbows.

this was a good thing for jiang li.

Jiang Li's firearm meches and artillery were powerful enough to cause heavy casualties to the barbarians.

"Set up the formation!"

"Hurry up!"

"whoosh!!!"

immediately.

The Barbarian soldiers gathered together, and their murderous military Qi gathered, forming a level 1 military formation. The ferocious beast of the military formation appeared, which was a huge black python.

The stage one battle formation was formed, and the light mist spread out, blocking the firearm meches' attacks.

"Set up the formation!"

Luo Tianshui waved his hand and gave an order.

"Yes."

Buzzzzzz! Buzzzzzz!

The soldiers of Tianshui city also formed a Grade 1 military formation. The murderous aura of the Army gathered, and internal strength and blood Qi gushed out, maintaining the operation of the military formation.

"Roar!"

In the air.

He conjured a huge crocodile that was blood red and had a powerful aura.

The battle formations of the two sides clashed.

“Sister Tianshui, let me help.”

luo yilin circulated her internal force and took out a palm-sized silver formation disk. there were eight trigrams of yin and yang on it, and it was shining.

“now is not the time,” luo tianshui said.

“Alright,” he said.

Luo Yilin nodded.

“Destroy the enemy’s formation.”

stop! Jiang Li shouted.

“Yes.”

Ynsh01 immediately fired a few psionic shells, and the pitch-black psionic shells bombarded the Barbarian army formation.

“BOOM!”

An explosion sounded.

it was accompanied by a shrill scream.

The Army formation was shattered, and the ferocious beasts formed were destroyed. They exploded into light spots that filled the sky and dissipated. A large number of barbarian soldiers suffered from the backlash, vomiting blood and dying.

Da da da da

More than ten thousand firearm meches fired crazily. Without the military formation, the barbarians were all shot into sieves and blood bloomed.

Even though the Barbarian soldiers were full of vitality, they were killed instantly. If it wasn't for the city walls, there would be even more deaths. One by one, the corpses fell from the city walls.

quickly go find the commander. We can't hold on much longer.

the Stage 1 formation was easily broken by the enemy. There's no way to stop them.

“We can't go down like this,”

the enemy's weapon is obviously stronger than ours, and the killing power is too strong. The inferior barbarian soldiers can't withstand it at all. Only the level-one totem Warriors can resist it for a while, but they will still be killed.

The Barbarian soldiers on the city wall were terrified, and the commanders were also shocked.

“Roar!”

at this moment.

A Lion-headed Python that was hundreds of meters long appeared in the sky above the border city wall. It let out a deafening roar, and its power was monstrous.

“Rumble!”

An explosion sounded.

The lion-headed Python’s huge tail swept across the sky, knocking away the bombs that were coming at it. The Army formation’s light fog spread out, covering the surrounding area.

“Whoosh!!!”

The bullets of the firearm mech were blocked by the light mist.

“let’s go!” man tianwu led the barbarian army up the wall from the camp and blocked the crazy attack of jiang li’s meches.

The Barbarian soldiers finally had a chance to breathe.

“Hahaha, Yingluo, this is great. The Lord commander’s reinforcements have arrived.”

“Lion-headed Python! It’s the totem Lion-headed Python!”

that is to say, the reinforcements are the famous Lion-headed Python barbarian Army of the black snake barbarian kingdom.

The Barbarian soldiers cheered and jumped for joy. Their confidence was inflated. It could be seen that the ‘Lion-headed Python barbarian Army’ had given them great confidence. This meant that the ‘Lion-headed Python Army’ was a powerful Army in the black snake barbarian kingdom.

“Attack!”

Man tianwu stood on the city wall and looked at the soldiers on the other side. His eyes fell on Luo Tianshui, but he ignored Jiang Li.

“Totem power!”

“Whoosh!!!”

The totem Warriors of the Barbarian race began to show their might. They were in groups of ten and gathered together. The totem patterns on their bodies seemed to come alive.

It could be seen.

The totem power condensed and manifested different totems.

“Roar!”

not long after.

There were black snakes, Tigers, wolves, pythons, and so on.

the illusory totem appeared.

The totem Warriors controlled their totems, and the totem materialists roared as they flew through the air like moths to a flame.

“Be careful,” he warned.

Luo Tianshui shouted.

boom! BOOM! BOOM!

After that.

The totem crashed into the city wall and exploded with a powerful force. Like a cannonball, the terrifying energy fluctuations spread out with great destructive power.

The totem exploded and destroyed many of Jiang Li’s meches.

Luo Tianshui quickly said to Jiang Li, ” they can gather the power of totems and form ‘totem images’ to attack.

“A totem.”

Jiang Li murmured and nodded. He remembered.

One had to know.

Jiang Li once fought with the barbarians in Qingshan Valley. More than a dozen monsters at the perfected stage of level one formed a black snake totem with their totem power. It was almost level two.

Obviously.

That was how he had attacked just now.

Man tianwu shouted.

Roar! Roar! “roar!”

The next moment.

The totem Warriors of the Barbarian race used the power of their totems. They formed groups of ten, twenty, and so on. They revealed their totem images and attacked.

“Elin, now is the time.”

“Set up the array immediately!” Luo Tianshui shouted.

“I know.”

luo yilin replied.

“Activate the formation!”

“Whoosh!!!”

luo yilin waved her right hand, and the formation disk in her hand rose into the air. internal strength poured into the formation disk, and the eight trigrams of yin and yang enlarged.

This power merged into the Stage 1 formation, and the formation disk also merged into the crocodile’s body. Countless heaven and earth Spirit Qi gathered.

“Roar!”

The next moment.

the giant crocodile roared, letting out an earth-shaking roar. its body was changing, constantly growing in size, and finally becoming hundreds of meters long.

Not only that.

the crocodile's head had changed, and dragon horns grew out.

Dragon crocodile!

“Rumble!”

Dragon crocodile roared. His roar shook the world and his aura was just as strong as the lion-headed Python.

The rank two drakocroc formation spread out and covered the city wall, protecting the soldiers of Tianshui city and Jiang Li's meches.

Bang!

Immediately after.

Dragon crocodile's tail swept and shattered many totems. It blocked the attacks and exploded.

Pfft!

luo yilin's mouth was bleeding from the backlash of the battle formation.

“Ah!”

At the same time.

there were also celestial water city's soldiers who were screaming in pain. their internal force and blood energy had been sucked dry by the battle formation.

“Oh, so this is the power of an array master.”

Jiang Li looked at Luo Yilin.

“A formation master.”

man tianwu looked at the Dragon crocodile in the air and snorted, ” I didn't expect that there would be a second-grade array master in this celestial water city.

it can upgrade a Grade 1 army formation to a Grade 2 army formation.

“Interesting.”

“Commander, let me do it.”

kai shi walked out from behind and said to man tian wu, ” “I'll break this drakocroc army formation.”

“Alright,” he said.

Man tianwu nodded slightly. this commander will wait for your good news.

“Yes.”

Kai shi nodded.

“Totem!”

Buzzzzzz!

Kaishi immediately released the totem on his body. The totem patterns covered his entire body, and his face was also covered with intertwined totem patterns.

A vast amount of totem power surged around his body.

Immediately after.

The surrounding spiritual energy began to gather.

“Roar!”

the next moment.

A huge black Tiger leaped out of kai shi’s body and circled behind him, letting out a deafening roar.

“Totem armor.”

“Roar!”

the tiger totem roared again and released a blazing black light. in the blazing black light, the tiger totem turned into a set of pitch-black armor.

Kachaa! Kachaa!

There were six parts to the totem armor.

it included a helmet, gauntlets, shoulder guards, chest plate, greaves, and shoes.

“Kill!”

The armor protected his body.

Kaishi's aura grew as he roared and took out his weapon. It was a Black Tiger-headed spear and he flew up from the city wall.

“Whoosh!!!”

The might of early-stage Tier 3 erupted, suppressing all directions.

“Savage Tiger spear!”

BOOM!

Kaishi held the spear with both hands and aimed at the Dragon crocodile in the air. He stabbed out with the spear. It was as if thousands of Tigers were roaring. It was really strong.

“Stop!”

Shua!

Before Jiang Li sent out his level-three subordinates, Luo Tianshui took action. She jumped into the air like a silver flash and stabbed with the silver spear in her hand.

Clang!

In the air.

As the two spears clashed, powerful energy fluctuations spread out, forming rings of energy storms, causing huge waves in the world River.

Bang Bang Bang Bang!

in an instant.

The two sides exchanged more than a dozen moves. The long Spears collided and the moves clashed, producing bursts of booming sounds. The surrounding spiritual Qi also trembled slightly.

“Kaishi, I’ll give you a hand,”

Huang Wu mo shouted and activated his totem as well. A single-horned Python appeared and wrapped around his body, forming a green totem armor.

BOOM!

Huang’s figure rose into the air, and he held his saber with both hands as he charged at Luo Tianshui. Waves of green Saber Light enveloped the surroundings as he attacked Luo Tianshui’s vital points.
