

Army 184

Chapter 184 Probing

Xx0100 was using a small hidden camera. While he was asking, he sent the video to xx01. Jiang Li could see the situation clearly.

“This Yingluo.”

Guo Yi pondered for a moment. I need to look at the map to make a judgment.

Guo Yi took out the map and spread it out. The map depicted the terrain of Jinwang County in detail, the location of the four major cities, as well as the villages and lakes around the cities.

we are currently heading in the direction of Dachang city. Dachang city is located in the middle of Jinwang County and is in the mountains. It is a strategic location and is easy to defend but hard to attack.

“That’s why the rebel army chose Dachang city as their base to fight against Jinwang County,” Guo Yi said slowly.

“According to the map, we need to pass through more than ten villages on our way. We also need to Cross Black Swamp Lake, as well as Mount Changping and Mount fallen Phoenix, before we can finally reach great Chang city.”

the journey is relatively long. We need to cross more than half of Jinwang County.

“I’ll probably only arrive tomorrow morning.”

“Tomorrow morning.”

Jiang Li heard Guo Yi’s answer through the communication screen.

“Alright,” he said.

Xx0100 nodded.

Immediately.

YS0112 slowed down and returned to the line.

“.....”

Guo Yi put away the map and thought to himself, how did Jiang Li give orders to these soldiers? Could it be that the ‘ancient puppeteering technique’ can transmit messages from such a long distance?”

“Is it really that heaven-defying?”

On the other side.

At the border defense line of Tianshui city.

On the city wall.

There were tens of thousands of walking corpse puppets wandering around, and they could move around 24 hours a day, constantly monitoring the situation of the black snake barbarian kingdom.

“These things really look a little scary.”

“That’s right,”

“He’s completely a Living Dead.”

they should be called ‘Living Dead demons’. They are all transformed from demons.

I wonder how Commandery Prince Jiang Li mastered this strange power.

but these ‘Living Dead demons’ are really useful. They can patrol without stopping, which greatly reduces our pressure.

In the surroundings.

The celestial water city’s soldiers looked at The Walking corpse puppets on the city wall and whispered to each other.

“Roar!”

Suddenly.

Several walking corpse puppets roared.

“What’s going on?”

The soldiers immediately rushed over.

In front.

“Rumble!”

The ground was shaking.

From a distance, one could see a large number of barbarian soldiers forming an Army and marching toward the border defense line of Tianshui city.

There were too many barbarian soldiers.

It was as if there was no end to it.

the Barbarian Army!!

“Hurry up! Inform the city Lord!”

“The Barbarian Army has arrived!”

“!!!!”

The soldiers shouted.

“Roar!”

The next moment.

Tens of thousands of walking corpse puppets roared at the same time. Their deafening voices spread across the entire camp. Everyone was alarmed.

“There are barbarians. All troops, move out!”

Ynmmy Q01 gave the order and rushed to the front. Tens of thousands of meches followed closely and advanced toward the city wall.

“Xx02, immediately contact the Chief sovereign and report the situation.”

Ynmmy Q01 instructed.

“Yes.”

Xx02 nodded.

Buzzzzzz!

Xx02 is requesting communication with xx01.

At the same time.

Luo Tianshui came with the soldiers of Tianshui city.

The great Xia city Lord's Manor.

“Master, xx02 is requesting communication.”

Xx01 said to Jiang Li.

“Xx02, the border defense line.”

yes, “Jiang Li said. answer it immediately.

...

“Yes.”

Buzzzzzz!

The communication was connected, and an image appeared.

“Chief sovereign.”

Xx02 saluted Jiang Li and said, “ barbarian troops have been discovered at the border defense line. We don't know the specific number yet.

let's figure out the number of the Barbarian Army first, "Jiang Li said in a deep voice.

"Yes."

Xx02 nodded.

Half an hour later.

The soldiers of Tianshui city and Jiang Li's mech Army all came to the border wall. The firearm meches lined up and aimed their machine guns at the front.

The mechanical artilleries formed an artillery position behind the city wall.

The Barbarian Army had almost entered the range of the mechanical artilleries.

commander manlong, our mission this time isn't to fight to the death at Tianshui city's border. Our main purpose is to test Jiang Li's strength.

if things don't work out, we'll retreat immediately, " reminded the military advisor, Huang Zelin. there's no need to continue attacking the border defense line of Tianshui city.

at that time, we will pass through the wuzu plain and invade the great Qian dynasty from Chang 'an Prefecture.

I believe the half-monster Alliance will help us.

"I know,"

Torvosaurus was wearing a full-body black armor and was nearly three meters tall. His Mount was a huge scaled Rhinoceros, which was five meters long and covered in hard armor.

During the conversation.

The Barbarian Army had entered the range of the mechanical artilleries.

“Fire the cannons!”

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The next moment.

Behind the city wall, a thousand mechanical artilleries opened fire at the same time, and a thousand cannonballs were fired out, directly towards the Barbarian Army.

“Rumble!”

The flames soared into the sky, and the explosion reverberated in all directions.

“Ah!”

The bombardment of the 1000 mechanical artilleries caught the Barbarian Army off guard. Before they could arrange their formation properly, a large number of shells exploded, killing thousands of barbarian soldiers.

Corpses flew everywhere.

“Damn it!”

Torvosaurus raised his head and his face instantly darkened.

“Quickly, set up the formation!”

The forest shouted.

Buzzzzzz! Buzzzzzz! Buzzzzzz!

The next moment.

The stage two battle formation was completed. The military killing intent gathered and absorbed the power of the totems, forming a light mist that spread out and enveloped the entire Army.

“Roar!”

Immediately after.

The beast from the battle formation appeared. It was a ferocious Tiger with wings on its back. Its entire body was pitch-black, and it emitted a terrifying baleful aura. Then, it roared towards the sky.

BOOM!

Over a thousand cannonballs were fired again. The Winged Tiger pounced forward and blocked all the cannonballs, causing the sky to be filled with light.

“Ah!”

Pfft!

A small portion of the Barbarian soldiers died from the backlash of the formation. There were less than 100 of them. Compared to the casualties caused by the direct bombardment of the artillery shells, it was dozens of times less.

we haven’t even reached the border defense line, and we’re already attacked. The other party clearly has a super long-distance attack method.

“Be careful,” said the forest Guard.

go! manlong shouted. March at full speed. I’ll go first. I’d like to see how strong Jiang Li is to kill the crown Prince.

“Armored rhinoceros, charge!”

The Torvosaurus roared.

“Commander!”

The forest shouted.

“Rumble!”

The next moment.

The Torvosaurus drove the scaled Rhinoceros and charged at full speed. Its huge body was as fast as a Black Lightning. In the blink of an eye, it crossed a very long distance and rushed to the side of the border city wall.

“A barbarian at the perfected stage of level three.”

barbarian Dragon. Jiang Li saw the Barbarian Army approaching through the video of the information mech.

There were too many of them.

It was almost impossible to see the end.

It was estimated that there were nearly four hundred thousand of them.

It was terrifying.

“Four hundred thousand barbarian soldiers.”

four hundred thousand barbarian soldiers in such a short time? ” Jiang Li was shocked.

In reality.

The black snake barbarian Kingdom's military power was not only this.

One had to know.

The Barbarian King was planning to send millions of barbarian soldiers and many level-three barbarian Masters to take down Jiang Li's great Xia province.

what Jiang Li had to face now was a million barbarians.

Of course.

If the Barbarian King really sent out a million barbarian soldiers, the black snake barbarian kingdom would have insufficient troops. If the border countries got the news, they would definitely find an opportunity to attack.

It was precisely because of this.

The Barbarian King couldn't casually mobilize his Army.

The most important thing was ...

The Barbarian King had mobilized millions of barbarian soldiers just to take down the great Xia province. Even if he succeeded, the cost and reward of taking down the great Xia province would not be proportional.

Those officials and generals would naturally not agree.

This was not in line with the interests of the country.

yymmyq01, attack with all your might and take down the commander of the enemy Army as fast as possible. I'll send meches to reinforce them immediately.

go! Jiang Li ordered.

The first unit led by JC01 had returned to the great Xia city, and there were 60049 meches in the city.

The meches in the city were there to deal with all kinds of unexpected situations.

Furthermore ...

The reason why Jiang Li was so anxious was that he sent 100000 soldiers to attack Jinwang County as soon as he got the information.

It was to take down Jinwang County as soon as possible so that he could have an escape route.

As long as they took down Jinwang County.

Even if they couldn't defend the great Xia County, Jiang Li could retreat to the king Jin County.

Furthermore ...

If Jiang Li really took down the Jinwang County, he would be able to gain a lot of energy points and increase his military strength with the resources of the entire County.

Soon after.

Jiang Li immediately sent 40000 meches to support the defense line at the border of Tianshui city and left 249000 meches in case the red eyebrow Empire attacked.

“BOOM!”

Within the communication screen.

Suddenly, there was a huge explosion.

At this moment.

The Torvosaurus had already reached the border city wall.

“Kill!”

Buzzzzzz!

Ynmmyq01 leaped up and jumped over the border river. It raised the psionic rocket launcher in its hand and fired a psionic shell.

“What is it?”

Torvosaurus raised his head and held his axe with both hands. The huge axe was black and gold in color. Totem power was condensed, and black light burst forth. He chopped down.

BOOM!

The psionic Cannonball exploded, and the shockwave shook the surroundings.

Rub Rub Rub

The Torvosaurus took a few steps back, and the scaled Rhinoceros beneath it roared repeatedly.

“Sprint, charge!”

Buzzzzzz!

Ynmmyq01 activated its skill, and its speed increased rapidly. Its huge body was like a bolt of lightning, directly crossing the distance between the two sides and arriving in front of the Torvosaurus.

“Heavy strike!”

“Thump!”

Ynmmyq01 gathered the power of psionic energy and stabbed out with the psionic mammoth ivory spear in its hand. It flashed with a dark psionic light and charged at the Torvosaurus.

“Good.”

totem armor! Torvosaurus roared.

“Whoosh!!!”

Roar!

The totem revealed itself. It was a black flood Dragon that coiled around Torvosaurus ‘body and merged with his armor.

A flood dragon pattern appeared on the armor.

Torvosaurus ‘aura rose.

“Furious flood Dragon slash!”

BOOM!

die! Torvosaurus ‘axes came together and he held the handles tightly. The power of the totem gathered on the axes, forming a thick black mist. The axes glowed as he slashed down.
