

Army 189

Chapter 189 capture

“Good, very good.”

Jiang Li looked at the battlefield and nodded slightly. He was very satisfied with the results of the crocodile Emperor Legion. At the same time, he was observing the entire battlefield carefully.

Obviously.

Everything was as Jiang Li expected.

With the crocodile Emperor Army’s strength, 100000 meches were enough to crush King Jin’s Army, even if King Jin’s Army was twice the size of the crocodile Emperor Army.

However, Jiang Li’s meches were all above perfected-stage level one.

In terms of quality, they were far superior to King Jin’s Army.

Of course.

Since the meches didn’t have blood Qi or internal force, the enemy couldn’t tell their true strength before they fought.

It was only after an official battle that the enemies would realize.

These soldiers were actually all at the perfected stage of level one.

The nightmare began.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

On the battlefield.

The artillery kept firing shells and the biochemical meches used biochemical toxins. The toxic mist spread and infected the soldiers of King Jin's Army, turning them into walking corpses.

“Roar!”

The zombie puppet roared and turned around to kill the soldiers of King Jin's Army.

Tear the enemy to pieces.

Bang!

Yndeyq01 charged at the front. With yndeyq01's abilities as a perfected stage rank three and being an elite soldier, there was no one who could stop him when he charged into the battlefield.

Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!

The giant sword swept across, cutting the human soldiers in half.

Blood splattered everywhere.

Corpses flew everywhere.

“Roar!”

The psionic Imperial crocodile soldier roared, and the sound waves seemed to have materialized. Its thick, sharp claws tore the ground apart, and its huge tail swept across. One by one, the soldiers were swept away. Their chests caved in, and they fell to the ground, dead.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

GJS01 fired out arrows one after another. The sharp arrows pierced through the air, killing the commanders of King Jin's Army from a long distance. Many commanders died under the arrows of GJS01.

Not only that.

The perfected-stage level two meches also started killing. The smell of blood spread, and their camouflage uniforms were covered with the blood of their enemies.

“Ah!”

Jin He screamed in pain. He tried to stop yndeyn01, but before he could get close, he was swept away by the psionic Imperial crocodile soldier's tail. A few of his ribs were broken, and he fell to the ground. He spat out blood, and he was on the verge of death.

Tragic!

It was too tragic!

The two sides were not on the same level at all.

“How did this happen?”

Monarch Jin's entire body was trembling. He stood on the luxurious carriage and watched the scene on the battlefield. He saw with his own eyes that his soldiers were dying one by one, and his commander was falling one by one.

On the battlefield.

Yndeyq01's figure caused Prince Jin to tremble.

He was like a god of War.

At this moment.

Dachang city.

“Oh my God, am I dreaming?”

He dinglin stood on the city wall of Dachang city. His eyes were wide open as he stared straight at the battlefield outside the city. He didn't know when his legs had started to tremble.

“Impossible! This is absolutely impossible!”

how can Jiang Li's Army be so powerful? “Yue Shanhe screamed. His face was pale. there are 200000 soldiers. They only hurt Jiang Li's Army at the beginning, but they were completely crushed after the rank-two kui cow formation was broken.

“Gulp!”

In the surroundings.

The sound of the rebel soldiers swallowing their saliva could be heard.

“King Jin's Army lost.”

King Jin's Army has already lost. They can't win. They can't win at all. Jiang Li's soldiers are too strong. They're really too strong. Lou Yun said while trembling.

“Hahahahaha!”

Suddenly.

hahahaha ... Wang Zhuoying laughed loudly. His smile was full of bitterness. ridiculous, this is ridiculous. I thought that both Jiang Li and Prince Jin would be injured and that I would clean up the mess.

what Bullsh * t fight between the crane and the clam? you're just a Mantis trying to stop a chariot. You're overestimating your own strength.

I'm afraid that Jiang Li didn't take us seriously from the beginning. He didn't want to attack earlier because he wanted to minimize the losses.

"But I'm still deluding myself of cleaning up the mess."

"Don't you guys think this is too funny?"

Wang Zhuoying looked at he dinglin and the others.

"My Lord,"

He dinglin and the others were stunned, not knowing what to say.

It was true.

No matter what kind of scheme, scheme, or layout you had, in the face of absolute power, absolute power ...

It was all fake.

Jiang Li was crushing them with the crocodile Emperor Legion. No matter how cunning you were, it was useless.

On the battlefield.

King Jin's Army had been completely defeated by the Thearch-crocodile Army. Some of the soldiers had even lost their will and dropped their weapons, kneeling and begging for mercy.

However ...

The meches didn't care if they begged for mercy. Even if they dropped their weapons and knelt on the ground, they would still kill the soldiers who begged for mercy without Jiang Li's order.

He showed no mercy.

run for your lives!!!

"These people are all cold-blooded and heartless demons!"

"It's useless to surrender and beg for mercy."

"If you want to live, run!"

It could be seen.

The remaining soldiers had already thrown away their helmets and armors, trying to reduce the weight on their bodies as much as possible. They immediately scattered and fled in all directions.

"Go all out and kill them. Don't leave a single one alive."

Yndeyq01 shouted.

"Kill!"

Shua! Shua!

The meches chased at full speed. With the mobility and flexibility of the mechanical Rangers, they caught up with the fleeing soldiers one by one.

As the soldiers fled, the Army naturally collapsed. Yndeyq01 had already arrived in front of Prince Jin.

“I surrender! Surrender!”

Plop!

Monarch Jin knelt on the ground without hesitation. His clothes were in a mess and he didn't look like a regional King at all. He shouted, ” I surrender. I'm willing to submit to Lord Jiang Li. From now on, Jinwang County belongs to Lord Jiang Li and I'm his dog.

Yndeyq01 stopped and looked at the Intel mech that was recording the battle. It was asking for Jiang Li's order.

“Kill him.”

Jiang Li looked at Prince Jin on the screen and said, ”

“Kill!”

The Intel mech gestured to yndeyq01 and drew a line on his neck with his right hand.

“I understand.”

Yndeyq01 nodded.

Buzzzzzz!

He activated his psionic energy, raised the heavy sword in his hand, and slashed at Prince Jin.

“You!”

Monarch Jin’s pupils contracted.

Shua!

The next moment.

Monarch Jin’s figure flickered. As if he had teleported, he disappeared from his original spot in an instant and reappeared a hundred meters away in the next moment.

BOOM!

Yndeyq01’s slash missed. The slash that was imbued with mechanical psionic energy landed on the ground, creating a ravine that was tens of meters long.

“Ah!”

BOOM!

Prince Jin’s luxurious carriage was also torn to pieces by the psionic sword light. Screams came from inside the carriage, and blood splattered everywhere. Several corpses fell to the ground.

These corpses were all Prince Jin’s concubines and Palace maids. They died just like that, like fish in the moat.

Buzzzzzz! Buzzzzzz!

The spiritual Qi of heaven and earth gathered.

Around monarch Jin’s body, a green inborn true Qi flickered. The aura of a late stage rank three expert was released, forming an inborn realm.

“Jiang Li!”

Prince Jin’s aura had completely changed. His eyes were cold. With a wave of his right hand, he took out a soft sword from his waist belt. After pouring his Xiantian Zhen Qi into it, the sword shone with a sharp light.

late-stage level three! Prince Jin is actually a connate martial artist at late-stage level three!

Wang Zhuoying’s eyes widened and he exclaimed, “how could Prince Jin be a late-stage third level inborn warrior? why didn’t I get any information about him?”

“Si si si ...”

“Prince Jin has hidden himself so deeply!”

if Jiang Li didn’t show up, we wouldn’t be able to defeat him at all. He’s just a level-three king Jin. I’m afraid we’ll lose for sure.

He dinglin and the others said in shock.

Obviously.

Wang Zhuoying and the others thought that they had everything planned out, but they didn’t know that they were the stupidest ones. In Prince Jin’s eyes, the so-called rebel army was nothing to be worried about.

so,

That’s why he brought his concubines here for fun when he was marching and fighting.

Of course.

This was also because he himself was extremely lustful.

In reality.

It was also because of Prince Jin's own powerful strength that he was able to suppress Jin He and the other city Lords of the Jinwang County, and secure his position as the Junwang.

Otherwise ...

Based on the various temperaments that Prince Jin had shown, Jin He and the others would have long thought of ways to get Prince Jin out of his position.

Unfortunately ...

Jiang Li's appearance completely disrupted Prince Jin's plan. He experienced what it meant to be crushed by absolute strength and what it meant to be in deep despair.

His Army of 200000 was nothing in front of Jiang Li's mech Army.

This feeling ...

It was too despairing.

"Late-stage rank three."

what? "Jiang Li was a little surprised to see Prince Jin's true strength. he's only at the late stage of level three. He can't do much.

yndeyq01, settle this as soon as possible.

Jiang Li said.

temporary commander, the regional King has ordered you to resolve this as soon as possible.

go! the information mech shouted.

“Yes.”

Yndeyq01 nodded.

“Jiang Li!”

Jiang Li! monarch Jin shouted and looked around. He wanted to find Jiang Li, but he couldn't find anything. His eyes finally fell on the Intel mech and he charged at him.

The information mech's transmission function was something that monarch Jin couldn't understand.

Furthermore ...

Jiang Liyuan was in the city Lord's mansion in great Xia city.

How could monarch Jin find it?

BOOM!

Yndeyq01 raised the psionic rocket launcher and aimed it at monarch Jin. It fired a single shot, and the psionic shell flew across the sky.

Hurry up!

It was very fast!

Monarch Jin's pupils contracted.

Clang clang clang!

Monarch Jin brandished the longsword in his hand and slashed out countless green sword beams, forming an illusionary sword dance that blocked yndeyq01's psionic Cannonball.

BOOM!

The shell exploded, and the shock wave sent Prince Jin flying.

Pfft!

Monarch Jin's face turned pale and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

"How can he be so strong?"

Monarch Jin was terrified.

They had only exchanged one move, and he had been injured by the explosion.

"Run!"

Shua!

He didn't think much about it.

Monarch Jin turned around and ran. His fat body was extremely strong, and he used some kind of lightness skill. In the blink of an eye, he had covered a distance of more than a thousand meters.

"Sprint, charge!"

"Rumble!"

Yndeyq01 gave chase at full speed and caught up with monarch Jin in the blink of an eye.

“Psionic energy control!”

Buzzzzzz!

After that.

A vast amount of mechanical psionic energy was released from yndeyq01’s body. It spread out and formed a psionic domain, enveloping monarch Jin.

“No!”

Monarch Jin screamed in horror.

Pfft!

Kachaa! Kachaa!

A strange twisting and destructive force surged and acted on monarch Jin’s body. Even if monarch Jin used all his innate true Qi, he would not be able to resist it.

Finally.

His body was twisted into a twisted shape.

He had fallen.

Buzzzzzz!

Soon after.

A white light spot flew out of monarch Jin’s body like a Firefly. It was a level-three soul Tinder. He had successfully captured it through the mech.
