

Army 195

Chapter 195 Siege

“Mechanical artilleries ready!”

At this moment.

The scouts had already locked onto the target and determined the trajectory. They adjusted the angle of the cannon and locked onto the demon soldiers outside the city.

“Fire the cannons!”

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

More than 2000 mechanical artilleries fired at the same time. The cannonballs shot into the sky at high speed and bombarded the demon Army in the next moment.

“Roar!”

However ...

The alligator snapping turtle roared and charged into the sky, directly blocking the bombardment of the artillery shells. Flames rose up in the sky, and countless shrapnel flew everywhere. All of them were blocked.

Furthermore ...

As the alligator snapping turtle Army was a defensive formation, this round of cannon fire did not cause too many casualties to the demon Army. However, the scene of the explosion was rather shocking.

Da da da da

On the city wall.

The firearm meches fired crazily. Countless bullets formed a rain of bullets, but they were blocked by the light mist of the battle formation and couldn't cause many casualties.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The archers from Jinwang County shot their arrows, but their arrows were scattered and could not form any combat power.

Under Luo Ming's organization, the 30000 soldiers managed to form three level-one battle formations, which covered the city wall and the meches.

It could be considered to be of some use.

However ...

A Stage 1 army formation was too weak and wouldn't be of much use in such a war. It couldn't even block the arrows of the siege crossbows.

"This is a Kasaya."

Qi Wangyan looked up and took a deep breath. as expected, only Jiang Li's Army has these weapons. he said.

in other words, the soldiers in the county city are no longer King Jin's Army but Jiang Li's Army. Jiang Li said.

Jiang Li got there before us and occupied Jinwang County.

"This is good too."

Qi Wangyan's voice was slightly low, but his fighting spirit was high as he said in a deep voice, "I've always wanted to see how strong Jiang Li's Army is.

even the Crown Prince died in Jiang Li's hands.

In reality.

Qi Wangyan became even more cautious.

Qi Wangyan was very clear about the crown prince's strength. In a one-on-one battle, Qi Wangyan had a 70% chance of losing, and he was weaker than the Crown Prince.

so,

Qi Wangyan understood this very well.

Jiang Li's Army was very strong and they couldn't take it lightly. They had to do their best and use all means to ensure the victory.

"Inform the entire Army."

it's not monarch Jin's Army, "Qi Wangyan shouted. it's Jiang Li's Army from the great Xia County. Jiang Li's Army has powerful weapons. They're powerful, destructive, and have a large area of effect.

therefore, we must ensure the maintenance and operation of the military formation. The military formation must not be broken. Once we discover a stage-three warrior approaching, we must stop him with all our might.

"Yes!"

"Understood, commander!"

the city of Jinwang County has been occupied by Jiang Li? ”

“This Tao Wu is truly unexpected.”

The commanders of the demon soldiers were shocked, but they did not question him. They carried out Qi Wangyan’s order and passed down the military Order to the demon soldiers.

“Prepare the siege crossbow formation.”

The head of the Archer division, han taiqing, shouted, ” “Fire the crossbow!”

Bang Bang Bang Bang!

There were tens of thousands of giant crossbows.

At this moment.

They were all fired.

In that instant.

Each of the giant specially-made crossbow bolts was as thick as a baby’s arm. They were made of special materials and had intertwining patterns on them. They were infused with the power of bloodline.

It was extremely powerful.

It could even shoot into the city walls.

“Fire the cannons!”

BOOM! BOOM!

The tank mech raised its cannon and aimed at the arrows. It fired and the arrows exploded in the air.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The mechanical Rangers also raised their bazookas and fired.

“Rumble!”

The artilleries and the anti-aircraft guns used to transport the meches all aimed at the demon Army and fired. The shells exploded one after another, but they were blocked by the Army.

The sky was filled with fire.

Currently.

Both sides were only testing the waters with their attacks. They were only attacking from a distance and did not engage in close combat. It would not be easy for the demon Army to break into the county city.

“Ah!”

Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!

Naturally, some of the 10000 ballista bolts were unable to stop the ballistae, and the Stage 1 army formation could not block the ballistae’s power, causing a large number of soldiers to be killed.

At the same time.

It also caused the loss of meches.

“Air Corps, get ready.”

Shua! Shua! Shua!

In the air.

They were Birdmen and demons with wings on their backs. They wore light leather armor and flew into the air. There were many of them, and they formed an Army.

“Attack!”

Whoosh! Whoosh! “Whoosh!”

These Birdmen demons used bows and arrows to shoot. Every sharp arrow was specially made and could be imbued with the power of the demon race’s bloodline, so their power was not low.

Pfft! Pfft!

One by one, the soldiers of Jinwang County were killed.

Similarly.

Some meches were damaged to the limit and were scrapped. Their remains turned into light spots and disappeared, being recycled as energy points.

BOOM! BOOM!

The anti-aircraft guns that were used to transport the meches exploded in the midst of the Birdmen and demons, killing them one by one.

There were also many casualties.

Time passed.

The two sides gradually formed a tug-of-war.

The battle was getting more and more intense.

Both Jiang Li's Thearch-crocodile Army and Qi Wangyan's demon Army suffered casualties. Nearly ten thousand soldiers from Jinwang County died.

Even the Stage 1 army formation he had set up was broken.

If it wasn't for Jiang Li's crocodile Emperor Legion holding off most of the pressure, the soldiers would have run away.

"Prepare to attack the city."

Qi Wangyan took a deep breath and shouted.

"Yes."

"Rumble!"

At this moment.

The ground shook violently.

It could be seen.

A huge chariot was slowly pushed out from the demon Army. In front of the chariot was an extremely huge and sharp cone.

He didn't know what material it was made of.

Siege chariots!

It was huge.

It was a siege weapon specially used to break the city gate.

It was a weapon made with the art of engineering.

“A siege war chariot!”

Luo Ming cried out in alarm, his face filled with fear.

“Charge!”

Qi Wangyan roared.

“Rumble!”

When the siege war chariot was activated, it required at least ten level-two demons to exhaust all their bloodline power to drive it.

The huge war chariots charged towards the county city, aiming at the city wall.

Hurry up!

The speed was extremely fast!

The tank mech aimed at the siege vehicle and fired.

“Roar!”

The demon Army commanded the battle formation. The alligator snapping turtle roared and merged into the war chariot like a black shadow, becoming one with the war chariot.

It was as if the war chariots were wearing a layer of alligator snapping turtle armor.

The shells were all blocked by the alligator snapping turtle, and they didn’t hurt the chariots at all. The remaining power was gone.

“Ah!”

“Pfft!”

Hundreds of demon soldiers suffered the backlash from the battle formation. They screamed and spat out blood before falling to the ground.

“Psionic rocket cannon!”

BOOM!

Yndeyq01 raised the psionic bazooka and aimed it at the rapidly charging siege vehicle. It fired the psionic shell directly at the enemy.

“Sword Qi slash!”

Clang!

It was an extremely sharp sword cry.

Qi Wangyan had been on guard for a long time. The moment yndeyq01 made his move, Qi Wangyan reacted and pulled out the black longsword by his waist.

The power of his bloodline gathered.

He raised his hand and slashed out a black sword Qi.

The sword beam swept out in the shape of a half-moon and collided with yndeyq01's psionic Cannonball in midair.

Bang!

Both sides exploded at the same time, creating a shockwave that spread in all directions.

a perfected tier-three demon.

Yndeyq01 looked at Qi Wangyan.

a human martial artist at the perfected stage of Tier 3? ”

Qi Wangyan was also looking at yndeyq01. When he saw the huge and terrifying Emperor crocodile that was 16 meters long, his pupils immediately contracted.

Pressure!

Qi Wangyan felt an immense pressure!

“Rumble!”

The war chariot crashed into the city gate.

At this moment.

The perfected stage two tank mech was already waiting. It charged at full speed, leaving a deep ditch on the ground as it charged at the siege vehicle.

BOOM!

The Grand completion stage two main battle tank and the war chariot collided, creating a deafening explosion. It was as if two small mountains had collided.

Immediately after.

The perfected-stage type 2 main battle tank was sent tumbling backward, crashing into the thick and solid city wall behind it. A loud sound was heard, and the city wall shook.

Some cracks appeared.

The damage of the tank mech rose to 50%.

If this happened again ...

Even a perfected stage two tank mech would be destroyed.

Furthermore ...

The main battle tank's barrel was already twisted, and its steel belt was broken.

But at the same time.

The war chariot was also sent flying. The ten level-two demons driving the war chariot screamed and vomited blood. They flew out and fell to the ground, seriously injured.

The siege chariots were basically scrapped.

“He’s been stopped!”

“The siege chariots have been stopped!”

“That’s great!”

Luo Ming and the others immediately cheered, and their faces were filled with ecstasy.

this Tao Wu?!

“Our war chariots were blocked and even sent flying.”

“What’s that thing that can send our siege chariots flying?”

“Si si si ...”

The commanders of the demon soldiers were shocked.

“Continue!”

Qi Wangyan shouted.

“BOOM!”

Very quickly.

In the demon Army.

More siege chariots drove out in a row. The power of the bloodline glowed as they charged towards the county city with a roar.

This kind of aura was indomitable and invincible. It was as if everything in front of it would be destroyed.

why are there more?!

Luo Ming and the others widened their eyes.

Obviously.

It was impossible for there to only be one siege chariot.

BOOM!

Yndeyq01 leaped down from the city wall, causing the ground to shake. Its huge body smashed a huge pit in the ground, and cracks spread out in all directions like a spider web.

Buzzzzzz!

The mechanical psionic energy circulated and covered his entire body. Bursts of psionic light flickered.
