

Army 29

Chapter 29

I'm Not Interested

Jiang Li immediately performed the Internal Energy Art. His vital energy surrounded him and blocked the strong wind. And yet, he was certainly no match for Heng Liusha. Besides, Jiang Li had already used his full power just to resist the wind.

We have such a huge gap.

Jiang Li thought. This made him more desperate to enhance his Martial Arts level.

"Go to Hell!" Heng Liusha said.

"Don't you dare hurt Master."

Boom! Combat Mech GD020, who had reached the perfected stage of level one, had been staying next to Jiang Li to protect him.

Regarding his own life, Jiang Li had to be 100% sure that he would be safe. So since GD020 was upgraded, he hadn't left Jiang Li's side, and he was extremely cautious.

"You!" Heng Liusha was stunned. He watched GD020 rush towards him and perform a level-one ultimate combat art, giving a hundred punches in a short time.

Bang! There was like an explosion in the air, which created air waves.

Crack! Crack!

"Argh!" Heng Liusha let out a cry!

He had already been injured during the battle with Wang Gang and he also burnt his vital energy to enhance his strength. After GD020's attack, his internal force and power of his hands were gone. Not only that, the bones of his hands cracked. A powerful energy then fractured his arm and ran into his organs. He was knocked away, then fell on the ground and coughed out blood.

The perfected stage of level one! Another Martial Artist of perfected-stage level one!

Everyone went silent. They all looked at Jiang Li in awe. Nobody had thought that the second-rate Sirius Gang was the real boss here and had four Martial Artists of the perfected stage.

"Four! Four Martial Artists of perfected-stage level one!"

"No wonder Jiang Li came to the Chamber of Commerce of Spirit Herbs alone. Nobody would be afraid if those four perfected-stage masters are with them."

"The Sirius Gang should be able to run wild in Yongan City."

"I guess Heng Liusha must be crying on the inside. He set Jiang Li up to kill him, but Jiang Li turned the tides. As Jiang Li said, Heng Liusha's trap wasn't strong enough to capture a tiger."

"The Sirius Gang is destined to rise. City East is their world now. Can we still join them?"

“...”

Everyone was in awe. They had never expected such a situation. Who would have thought that Jiang Li had four perfected-stage masters?

After a while the Cold Weapon Mech and Firearm Mech returned. They were covered in fresh blood and looked so vicious that nobody dared to get close to them.

“Master, we’ve defeated all the enemies.” They walked to Jiang Li, saluted and reported to him.

“Hm.” Jiang Li looked at how much they were damaged and nodded. “Well done.”

“It’s our job,” the meches replied.

“Jiang Li.” Heng Liusha crawled up from the floor and looked around. He saw the dead bodies of the members of the Quicksand Gang all over the place. Even if some of them were still alive, they were close to dying. As for the elders and the three Hall Masters, they were also dead. So half of the members of the Quicksand Gang were eliminated. It was basically over for them!

“You won.” Heng Liusha knelt on the ground and yielded to Jiang Li, “Jiang Li, you won. I’m willing to join the Sirius Gang with the rest of the Quicksand Gang.”

“I’m not interested.” Jiang Li took the pistol of the Firearm Mech, then pointed at Heng Liusha and pulled the trigger. The bullet shot out.

“You!” Swish! Heng Liusha widened his eyes and jumped up, avoiding the bullet of the pistol. Jiang Li couldn’t kill Heng Liusha this time. He shot on the ground.

“Although I can shoot, I don’t know any gun art, so the gun becomes weaker. I let Heng Liusha get away.”

Jiang Li gave the pistol back to the Firearm Mech.

“Jiang Li!” Heng Liusha stared at him and left the Chamber of Commerce of Spirit Herbs.

“Chief, he’s escaping,” Xu Ya yelled.

“He can’t run away from me,” Jiang Li said.

Swish! The Cold Weapon Mech took out his alloy stiletto and threw it. The stiletto turned into a flash of light. A flying stiletto.

Heng Liusha heard the sound of the air. Once he turned around, a ray of light flashed before him and the alloy stiletto penetrated his throat.

“Mm...” Heng Liusha opened his mouth and stared at Jiang Li. His throat was painful and the glitters in his eyes began to dim gradually. In the end, he died and his corpse fell on the floor.

The Cold Weapon Mech walked to Heng Liusha’s body and pulled out the alloy stiletto from his throat. He flung the blood off and put it back to the case.

Then the Cold Weapon Mech searched Heng Liusha's dead body as he was told. He found a book, a jade bottle of pills and a pair of level-one advanced weapons, the "Iron Tiger Paws." Finally, he found the Chief's Tablet of the Quicksand Gang.

"Master." The Cold Weapon Mech gave Jiang Li everything he found.

"Take them first. Give them to me when we're back," Jiang Li said.

"Yes." The Cold Weapon Mech nodded respectfully.

"Congratulations for finishing the Quicksand Gang, Chief Jiang. From now on, the entire City East will belong to you. Congratulations." Dugu Luo came up with a charming smile.

"Hm." Jiang Li nodded and shrugged. "I was thinking to let Heng Liusha live one more night and deal with the Quicksand Gang tomorrow, but he came here by himself. So, I can just play along."

"Um..." Dugu Luo's mouth twitched.

"Young Master." Zhao Peipei threw Du Kelin in front of Dugu Luo and Jiang Li, and said, "He tried to run away, but I caught him. Please tell us what we should do with him."

"Please don't kill me, Young Master. Chief Jiang, please help..." Du Kelin cried and begged.

"Chief Jiang, something like this happened tonight because Du Kelin helped the Quicksand Gang. To express our apologies, we'll let you deal with him," Du Guluo glared at Du Kelin and said to Jiang Li.

"Killing him will only make my hands dirty," Jiang Li said.

"Um..." Dugu Luo was shocked. He then looked at Zhao Peipei.

"Yes." Zhao Peipei nodded. He smacked with his internal force and hit Du Kelin's head. Du Kelin's eyes widened. His body became stiff and blood oozed out of his body. He died and fell on the floor.

"Chief Jiang, I hope this incident won't affect the friendship between the Sirius Gang and the Chamber of Commerce of Spirit Herbs. I'm very happy to do business with you," Dugu Luo smiled and said.

"You didn't offer us a discount earlier," Xu Ya mumbled.

"This..." Dugu Luo glanced at Xu Ya and looked at Jiang Li. Jiang Li was expressionless. After pondering for a while, he took out a white jade box.
