Chapter 45

Take Them Back

"Where's Hao Tian? Ask him to come out," Jiang Li stared at the two guards at the entrance and said.

"Jiang Li from the Sirius Gang."

"He's crazy. He really dares to besiege the base of the City Guards."

"He must have gone mad."

"I've never heard of a gang that would besiege the City Guards."

Many people were attracted here. They were astonished by what they saw.

There were quite a lot of members from the Sirius Gang. Almost two thousand of them were here, but most of them were ordinary people who didn't practice Martial Arts. Nevertheless, when they stood together, they were extremely fierce.

"Are we really going to fight with the City Guards?"

"I feel like it's dangerous!"

"It's Chief's order."

"I must say, this is the first time I do this."

"It's kind of exciting."

"..."

Many ordinary members were sweating and were completely anxious, while some members were more courageous and were excited about it.

In fact, if Jiang Li didn't frighten the Hall Masters of the Sirius Gang, there would be a great chance they wouldn't come along.

The thing was, not long before the Hall Master of Ancient Pine Hall, Gu Tianqi, was killed and his body was still hanging at the entrance of the headquarters. If they disobey Jiang Li, they would become the next Gu Tianqi. They could only come for the sake of their lives.

"Jiang Li, what do you want to do?"

"Are you rebelling?"

At the base of the City Guards, the two guards at the gates held their swords tightly. Their fingers had already turned white, showing how nervous they were.

"Ask Hao Tian to come and meet me. Release our men and give us back what you've taken from us," Jiang Li yelled. "You took the herbs we got by proper means and even detained the founding elders and Hall Masters of the Sirius Gang without any appropriate reason or proof."

“Chief Jiang, Commander Hao Tian isn’t here at the moment. We can’t make a decision on our own.”

“Please go back first. When Commander Hao Tian returns, we’ll tell him about it,” the two guards said.

“Not here.” Jiang Li snickered, “Haha, that’s even better.”

“Get in. Find Hu Dong and the others, and take back everything that belongs to the Sirius Gang. Kill whoever tries to stop us,” Jiang Li yelled.

“Yes!”

Swish! Swish! Swish! The meches took action first. The 420 meches rushed into the base of the City Guards at a high speed.

“You...”

Bang! The two guards were knocked away and the gates of the base were shattered by Wang Long, creating a thunderous sound.

“Gasp...”

“The Sirius Gang really broke into the base of the City Guards.”

“He must have gone mad.”

“Something big’s going to happen. Something big’s going to happen.”

“There are over ten thousand soldiers in the base. Aren’t they sending themselves to die? What’s Jiang Li thinking?”

“Don’t forget Jiang Li has a few Martial Artists of perfected-stage level one.”

The onlookers discussed.

On the other hand, the Tianmen Gang, White Dragon Gang and Tingyu Tower immediately knew Jiang Li broke into the base of the City Guards.

“Shit!” After receiving the news, Hua Tian stood up from the Chief’s seat and shouted, “Gather all the members right away and go to the base of the City Guards. Jiang Li is crazy. The Monsters are right outside the city and he chose this time to break into the base.”

“We must stop him.”

“Yes.” The founding elders of the Tianmen Gang got up.

“Let’s go to the base of the City Guards,” Long Chongzhen said with his glittering eyes. “We can’t blame each other right now.”

“I hope we can make it,” Yu Shulan mumbled.

In the meantime, at the base of the City Guards.

The 420 meches had already entered.

“Prepare your guns.” Jiang Li waved his hand.

Crack! Crack! Crack!

Ten meches of perfected-stage level one set up their machine guns and lined up in a row, the black muzzles pointed at the front.

“Formation.” Jiang Li continued.

Swish! Swish! Swish! The Combat Meches and Cold Weapon Meches formed a formation ahead of the Firearm Meches to cover them. The formation was completed.

“It’s impressive...” The members and Hall Masters of the Sirius Gang were in awe.

“Enemies!”

“Prepare to fight.”

“Fuck!”

“Get in line.”

“...”

Many reserve soldiers ran out of the base and lined up orderly. There were at least sixty of them and they were fierce.

Both parties confronted each other.

The 420 meches gathered and formed an army. Twenty six of them were powerful meches at the perfected stage of level one. Behind them there were almost two thousand gang members.

“Jiang Li of the Sirius Gang, do you know what you’re doing?”

Among the City Guards, an old man with white hair came up. He was wearing an armor and was holding a crescent painted halberd. He was the Chief Instructor of the City Guards, Hong Tianqi. A Martial Artist at the perfected stage of level one.

“Hong Tianqi.”

“It’s the Chief Instructor. I remember he once killed and beheaded many monsters with that crescent painted halberd.”

“Haha, is he that strong?”

“...”

...

People whispered.

“Of course I know what I’m doing,” Jiang Li said coldly. “The City Guards detained my founding elders and took the things that belong to the Sirius Gang. I’m here to do our gang justice.”

“Haha...” Hong Tianqi laughed and pointed at Jiang Li with the crescent painted halberd. “I don’t care why you’re doing this. It’s a crime to break into the base of the City Guards. You’re just a third-rate gang and you dare to break into the base of the City Guards. Even if the City Guard and Commander aren’t here today, I’m strong enough to kill you.”

“Kill them!”

Boom!

After that Hong Tianqi flashed towards Jiang Li like an arrow and the crescent painted halberd created a beam of light.

“Attack.” Jiang Li immediately backed away and left the battlefield to the meches.

Wang Gang, Wang Long and Wang Yan sped towards Hong Tianqi from three directions at the same time. The three perfected-stage meches besieged him.

Bang!

Wang Long blocked Hong Tianqi’s attack with his long blade, while Wang Yan stabbed him a few times with her sword.

“Total Annihilation.” Hong Tianqi swayed his halberd and forced Wang Yan to fall back. His internal force surged out of his body and formed waves of air. The ground also cracked.

“Combat Art!”

Boom! Wang Gang gave a hundred punches, creating some sounds of explosion. A strong energy wave was formed in the air.

Pfft! Hong Tianqi put the crescent painted halberd in front of his chest, but was pushed backwards by a strong energy. He spurted blood, dropping the halberd in his hands.

“Argh!” Hong Tianqi let out and cry and fell on the ground.

“Perfected-stage of level one. Three perfected-stage soldiers.” Hong Tianqi was terrified. He had never thought he would lose so quickly. “The Sirius Gang is really powerful. I’ve heard that before, but I didn’t believe it. After meeting you today, I realized you’re much more powerful and terrifying than expected.”

Hong Tianqi looked at the meches next to Jiang Li and was frightened. He couldn’t sense the vital energy in them, but they were so strong.

“Old man, there are only two choices in front of you. First, give us back our men and stuff. Second, I kill all of your guards and take them back myself.” Jiang Li looked at Hong Tianqi calmly. “Choose one.”

“Do I have a choice?” Hong Tianqi smiled wryly and crawled up from the ground. He wiped off the blood on his mouth and said to the adjutant behind him, “Go get their people and stuff.”

“How do we explain this to Commander Hao Tian?” an adjutant asked.

“Explain? What explanation does he want? This is the trouble he made. Do you want these reserve soldiers to risk their lives for him?” Hong Tianqi yelled. “Go.”
