Chapter 55

Self-destruction

“You wanna kill me? You’re not strong enough.” Jiang Li stared at Man Xiong and raised his right hand slowly. He stuck out his index finger and crooked it.

He was provoking Man Xiong! An open provocation!

“You!” Even though Man Xiong didn’t understand what Jiang Li meant, he was enraged about Jiang Li’s provocative face and tone.

“You’re just a human of peak-stage elementary level. How dare you provoke me!” Man Xiong shouted, “I’ll crush you and give you to my subordinates to eat.”

After that Man Xiong jumped ten meters high. He was big, but he wasn’t slow at all. He flashed a few hundred meters in a blink.

“Fire!” Jiang Li quickly stood back.

Clatter, clatter... The fifty perfected-stage Firearm Mechas aimed at Man Xiong. Fire spouted out of the muzzles of the machine guns and the bullets shot ahead.

“Totem! Black bear!”

Roar! Man Xiong’s Power of Totem spread around his body. Some black mist appeared around him and a giant black bear was formed behind him. The black bear roared and enveloped Man Xiong.

Bang, bang, bang... All the bullets were blocked by the black mist the Power of Totem formed, but at the same time Man Xiong was also pushed backwards.

“What’s that?” Man Xiong stood still and stared at the weird weapons in front of Jiang Li. He grunted, “You humans are really keen on these weird stuff. Unfortunately, it’s useless.”

Roar!

After that Man Xiong roared and his Power of Totem surged. The iron hammer in his hand was surrounded by black smoke. He threw the hammer at the fifty perfected-stage Firearm Meches, as if it was a missile.

“Stop the hammer,” Jiang Li yelled.

Swish! Swish! Swish! Fifty Cold Weapon Meches of perfected-stage level one threw out their daggers at the same time.

Clang, clang, clang... The daggers all hit the giant iron hammer, creating some banging sound, but they were then knocked away. At the same time the black smoke on the hammer dissipated. In the end the hammer dropped on the ground.

“They blocked it.”

“Chief Jiang is indeed impressive.”

“These people are Martial Artists of perfected-stage level one?”

“They must be. Otherwise, they wouldn’t have stopped a level-two totem warrior.”

Everyone was surprised and thrilled.

Clatter, clatter... The fifty Firearm Meches pulled the trigger of the machine guns with their left hands and shot with the submachine guns with their right hands. They were all aiming at Man Xiong.

“They blocked my hammer...” Man Xiong was also stunned. He was a powerful Barbarian totem warrior at the early stage of level two, but Jiang Li’s power still frightened him.

Jiang Li had so many Martial Artists of perfected-stage level one. That was terrifying.

“Roar.” Man Xiong roared loudly, forming an energy wave. The invisible energy wave blocked all the bullets, while he sped ahead to get closer to the hammer.

“Attack! We can’t let him take back his weapon,” Jiang Li yelled.

“Yes.”

Swish! Swish! Swish! Forty nine Combat Meches of perfected-stage level one sped towards Man Xiong at the same time and performed the combat art.

“Get out of my way!” Man Xiong shouted and gave a punch. The black smoke spread all over. A dozen Combat Meches were knocked away, causing great damage.

Bang, Bang, Bang! At the same time, the other Combat Meches hit Man Xiong, and their powerful energy went through his totem and armor.

Poof! Man Xiong spurted out blood. He was injured.

“Damn it,” Man Xiong roared and grabbed a Combat Mech closest to him. He squeezed the head of the Combat Mech.

“Go to Hell!”

Crack! Crack!

Man Xiong squeezed his fingers together and the head of the Combat Mech deformed. Some electric sparks appeared.

“What?” Man Xiong was shocked. “He’s not a real person?”

“Self-destruction program initiated.”

Beep, beep... Red lights started flashing in the eyes of the Combat Mech.

“!!!”

Man Xiong knew he was in danger and he threw the Combat Mech away immediately. However, he was too slow.

Boom! The Combat Mech exploded. The sound of the explosion resounded everywhere and sparks were created. The impact shook the area.

“Argh!” Man Xiong let out a cry and fell back. The wound on his right hand was pretty bad. The armor cracked and blood oozed out.

“Kill him!” Jiang Li said coldly.

Self-destruction! This was the last tactic the meches had. Their self-destruction program would automatically be initiated during a critical moment. Of course, they couldn't be recycled for energy points after that. Most importantly, the self-destruction procedure of the meches was a passive action. However, if their heart was destroyed in a short period of time or if they were 90% damaged, the program would not be initiated. Of course when it did, the explosion was very powerful.

Everyone could see that by looking at Man Xiong's arm, after all, even fifty machine guns couldn't hurt Man Xiong.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The Combat Meches and Cold Weapon Meches attacked together. It was like there were over a hundred Martial Artists at the perfected stage of level one attacking Man Xiong, with the help of the Firearm Meches.

Man Xiong didn't have a weapon and his right hand was injured.

Time flew and he was gradually suppressed. Everyone finally saw hope of winning.

...

“The reinforcements are really here. Report to General immediately.”

On the other side, the soldiers from Pingding City were already on their way back as fast as possible after seeing the situation at the military camp of the Barbarians.

At the same time Hu Wu also arrived with the monsters.

“Where did these people come from?” Hu Wu was terrified. “Man Xiong is beaten so badly. There are over a hundred Martial Artists of perfected-stage level one. Who’s this guy?”

“Let’s go. We must tell General Hei Zong about this.”

...

Down in the valley.

Dong Lin quickly led the army to the military camp of the Barbarians after receiving the news. The soldiers were shouting.

“Kill them!”

“Let’s go.”

“Go!”

Behind the Commander of Pingding City, Dong Lin; Li Xin, Ge Dinglai and two thousand soldiers followed. Each one of them was courageous and strong.

“Man Xiong, go to hell.” Dong Lin jumped ten meters high, creating a pithole on the ground. He infused his internal force into the green spear.

Swish. Dong Lin threw the green spear out. It turned into a beam of green light, making a screech.

Fast! Extremely fast!

“!!!”

Man Xiong turned around with his eyes wide open. “Dong Lin, you...”

The next second the green spear penetrated the black light shield around Man Xiong, then pierced through his armor and his body. Blood spouted out.

“This is a great chance. Kill him!” Jiang Li yelled with glittering eyes.
